The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

Jesus Teaches On:

Times of Trying, Times of Challenge, Are Golden Opportunities, Preparing for The New Time

“I AM with you. I come and sit with you on this day – that brings to a close a year – as recorded by human beings on Earth, the last day of the year marked as 2006. And while your thoughts go backward to the times of this year, you feel an eager anticipation within you, to move into another year, another time, another space. And this is good, for actually, you are about to embark on an adventure moving into this New Time.

“And the feelings that you hold within you, are very similar to one who is ready to embark on a new adventure, looking back on what you ‘know,’ what you have done, where you are, feeling safe within it... knowing it... yet desiring to begin the new adventure.

“And so it is the same, with going from one year to another. And this year marked as 2006, has been one of great glory. As your mind flows through the months, as they came to you, you will find many memories held within your being, many things created in this year passing now, that will be with you forever. And this is good. I speak to you of these things, of looking backward, so that, with your foot firmly planted in the threshold of 2007, you will carry into that space in time, the glorious lessons of the year 2006: of all the things that you have learned; of all the blessings that you have received; of all the gifts that you have been given, and have given; of all the Love that has come to you from God, that has been magnified within you, and sent forth from you. 2006, a glorious year!

“You are walking out of that year into another, much as if you walked out of a movie theater into the bright sun of a new day. You remember the story you saw on the screen. And you carry some of these things with you. Some you forget and some will fade, as time goes on. But those ‘golden moments,’ will be carried in your being, as you move through the years.

“It is important for you to remember that: just as in seeing a movie, or reading a book, or watching a play, it is the challenges, the obstacles, the trying times, in each of these things that holds your interest, and teaches... great... lessons. For although the story might have delightful parts in it, parts with no challenge, these parts seem to pale in comparison to the parts that do present challenges, that present the trying times. Because, in the end, you see, the character has come through this trying time, has learned much; and, because of this experience, has brought to you many lessons.

“What I am trying to say to you is, as you look back over the year of 2006 in preparation for the New Year, hold close to you the times that brought you the most important lessons. Carry these lessons with you, because it is from the trying times, that your spirit erupts with the flames of glory.

“I say to you, that when you have walked through these times that present challenges, you come out on the other side... wiser... stronger. You ‘know.’ Therefore, it becomes a part of you. I bring you this message, so that you will hold close to you every challenge that was presented to you in the year 2006, as a gift. And, looking back on it, realize how golden the gift was, how much wiser you are for the experience, how much better prepared you are for the journey into the New Year... into the New Time. Rejoice, in the times of happiness and freedom... the easy times. But get down on your knees and be thankful, for the blessings of the trying times... the times of challenge, the times of golden opportunities, for these truly are the periods that present you with a present, a gift, to carry into the new day.

“I ask you to take some time today, to look back on these glorious gifts you were given, those of happiness, and ease, and those of challenge, and trial. And bring forth the lessons. Pack them firmly within your being, all that you wish to carry into the New Year, because it is approaching, second by second. In fact, I say to you it is already here, swirling around you, as eager as you to begin the new story.

“I bless you, in the passage of the year that is ending, and I bless you in passing into The New Time. I walk beside you. And as the old is ending, let us put our foot over the threshold of a New Time. I AM with you... we are walking... as One.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The New Law, The New Command, The Covenant 'Of Love'

"I AM with you. I bring you peace. And I say unto you on this day... 'Bend your ear... so your heart might hear... the story of God's Love for man. So great is this Love that God has for the children who walk the Earth, that He will not let you wander, lost and afraid. He will send you a sign, to show you The Way home. This He does out of Love for you.'

"And so it was, approximately 2,000 of your Earth years ago, that God, the Creator of All Things, said, 'It is time to send a sign to the children of Earth. It is time for another sign, so that they might be led back home. And, at this time, I wish this sign to be 'The Living Word,' so that all might 'see and know,' so that the prophecies of the old covenant will come to life before their eyes, so they might 'see.' It is time, for the old covenant to end, and a new covenant to begin. And so I send to the children of Earth, a new law, a new covenant, a new command.'

"And as the Lord God, Creator of All Things, said these words, I was sent forth to Earth to carry the new command 'of Love,' to bring forth the new covenant 'of Love,' to set in place the new law 'of Love.' And so that the prophecies of the old covenant were fulfilled, I came unto Earth, born of a virgin.

"The peoples of the Earth wanted a leader. They were given a Child, a Child Who was held in the arms of the Virgin, protected by the man, Joseph... a Child sent from God... protected by two human beings, who were led by the direction of angels. And so I walked amongst you, My brothers and sisters, carrying the Word of God. It was My mission to be the living fulfillment of the prophecy of the Old Testament, so all would 'see, and know,' the New Time had come.

"And, as I walked, I moved, and touched, and loved. Yet, those who saw the fulfillment of the prophecies were few to follow My direction, My lead, My call. For the people wanted a leader, yet they were given a babe. The people wanted to be filled with bounty and raised-up, so all would see they were the chosen children of God, yet I told them to give away everything they had, so that they might follow Me. The people wanted a king, who would march with armies and slay the enemies, so that they might be raised-up, yet I told them, if they were slapped on the right cheek, to give the left cheek freely.

"I was not what they expected. And so the Child that was held in the arms of the Virgin, and fulfilled the prophecies of the Old Testament, was rejected, and set aside, because the message of the New Covenant was Love. I did not come with grand trumpet faire. I did not come to raise-up armies everywhere. I came to bring the Word of God to man. I came to live, to die, and to rise-up, so you might see the true Glory in God. And I said to you, 'You too can do all that I do, through God. For My words are not My own, they are the Father's words.'

“I tell you on this day, so you might think of these things, and ponder in your heart, so that you too, will not miss the signs and the message, because you have a preconceived notion of what it might be.

“I say unto you... salvation will not come to you on chariots of fire, coursing out of the sky to slay your enemies, so that you might rise-up. I say to you...your salvation comes in Tongues of Fire, carried on the wings of the Dove, that will move into you, and inspire you ‘to Love,’ inspire you, to hold great wisdom. And, when you have The Light of the Holy Spirit within you, you will rise-up, before all to see, The Glory of God. You see, this is your salvation...it is...The Tongues of Fire.

“I bring you these words, so that you will cherish the birth of the Child, and hold in your heart the true message, and the knowledge, that the covenant is ‘of Love.’
Be at Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Being, That Which Is Within You To Be

“I AM with you. And I say... unto you... on this day:
‘Speak to others, as you would have them speak unto you. Walk with others, as you would have them walk with you. Teach, as you would be taught. Lead, as you would be led. Guide, as you would be guided. Love, as you would be loved.’

“These things that I say unto you sound... simple. Yet, if you take each piece apart, they will give you much information, insight, and yes... wisdom, on how to live with your brothers and sisters, in such a way, that will be productive. And, living in this way, will bring you joy. It will bring your brothers and sisters joy. It will bring peace.

“It is simple... yes. But it works. And how it works is amazing. It is simple... yes. And it works miracles. For within your being, you know how you expect your leaders to be, how you desire your leaders to be. You know the character you wish for them to exhibit. Take all of the traits that you have within yourself thought about as belonging to a leader, to a teacher, to a guide, to a friend, to a child, to a parent, to a lover, and make them your own traits. For what you desire within, is there for you to ‘know,’ what it is you are to be. You would not have these thoughts within you, if it was not within you to be.

“On this day, that approaches the celebration of the time when I came to Earth to walk with the human race, to deliver messages, to tell of God’s Love, and the everlasting eternal life, I speak to you... in brief. I speak to you so that you might take in this message that I know is of supreme importance.

“And, I say to you this day: Walk with others, as you would have them walk with you. Lead them, as you would wish to be led. Guide them, in ways that you would wish to be guided. Teach them, in ways that you would be taught. Speak to them, in ways that you would wish to be spoken to. And love... as you would be loved.

“I leave this with you, and ask you to ponder these words during the day.

These words are simple, but they will bring about miracles, they will bring about
PEACE!”

Jesus Teaches On:
Opening to God and Knowing The Way

“I AM with you, on this day and forever. And, on this day, and forever, I say unto you... to truly love all of the children of God... requires a steadfast faith in the love of God; and, an understanding of how I lived My time on Earth, as Jesus, as Yeshua.

“It was... and is... and shall ever be... that I came to walk with you to show you... ‘The Way.’ And, if you hear these words and you hold within you anger, anxiety, animosity, you cannot fully know The Way. I say unto you also, if you hear these words, and hold fear, or your faith is fueled by the prescripts of man, or you fail to reach-out and let God’s flow from you to all others things, you cannot fully know The Way.

“I say to you on this day, My way... The Way... is simple. It requires that you set your own freewill aside, and open to the energy, to the love, that is flowing freely to you from The Father, from the Source of all creation. And, in doing this, The Way will be fully open, filled with light, and you shall ‘know it.’

“And, in this way, all anger, anxiety, animosity will fall from you. All fear, all laws of man, will fade away. They will not stand in the loving energy of God. And on that day you can surely say, ‘I was lost. But now, I am found. I am fully on the path. I can clearly see The Way.’

“It is so simple. Here. Take My Hand. Let us walk together. See the path before you? It is...

“Love.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Seeing With The Eyes of Your Soul Through the Telescope of Faith

“I AM with you, and this day I say unto you: reach beyond the confines of your body, to take the Hand of God, as one eager for the meeting. Be still, hold your tongue, and listen for the words of Spirit to fill you with Peace. Open the eyes of your soul, and through the Telescope of Faith, see the things of Heaven.

“You should not be surprised to hear Me speak in such a way, or to advise you in such a way, for there are examples of this very thing within the world of matter.

“I ask you to go beyond the world of matter, to embrace the things of Spirit, the things of God. I ask that you not be confined to your body. I ask this day, that you reach, and open, and be still, so that you might ‘know.’

“I ask you to consider this: on Earth, in matter, there are many things that you see clearly, plainly. These things, in your field of vision, are before you, and you comprehend them. You look and see that a chair... is a chair... and it is sitting in a certain place. You listen, and hear voices speaking, to you and to others. You feel certain things... experience the senses. And, some of these things you cannot see... you feel them, such as the wind, blowing your hair... such as joy... and peace.

“Some things might be rather small, requiring that you reach for assistance to see them clearly. You might have to use spectacles to see clearly what is set before you.

“Still, there are other examples that are not clearly before you, yet you know they are there. There are existing very small insects, mites, very small creatures, and they require magnification for you to see them. And knowing this... opens another world to you... a world that exists all around you, a world so minute, that you must use a magnifying glass to be aware of its presence with you. But, when you reach for assistance, and you know where to look, you have the opportunity to see into this microscopic world.

“And, there are other things, floating in the air about you. They are clearly large enough for you to see them. But, the way the light falls, the darkness and the shadows keep them from your clear vision. Then, all of a sudden, a ray of light, comes from the sun, and explodes through the trees, and you see small insects, little creatures, flying all about you. They were surely there. Yet, you did not see them, until they were in the light. Then...there they are.

“The same is true with particles of dust, floating around in your home, or outside. They too, caught in the ray of light, come into your vision, and you see clearly what has been all around you... all the time.

“Now, I ask you to consider this, given these few examples, of how it is on Earth, that you can see, that which you could not see, without assistance. Consider that it does not stop with seeing the dust float in the rays of sun, or watching the insects swirl in a beam of light, or checking-out the microscopic world through a magnifying glass. I say to you, do not stop with these things of Earth. Lift your sights higher.

“Faith in God is the Telescope – you should utilize – to see into the reality of Heaven. And, just as you use a telescope to bring the stars of the sky within your vision, you can, through the eyes of your soul, use the Telescope of Faith, to see into the Kingdom of Heaven.

“Do not be confined. And do not be content to stop with the things of Earth which you can see, and hear, and know. Be willing to be still, and listen, and from within, you will be told... ‘Open your eyes. Open the eyes of your soul, for your Faith will lead you to be wholly enlightened.’

“I say to you, there is much to see – and your Faith – is the key! Now, open the eyes of your soul!
And, through the Telescope of Faith,
see the things of Heaven.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Enlightened by the Lessons and the Knowing

“I AM with you. And I say unto you: Walk with Me into this New Day dawning, unencumbered by the deeds of yesterday, empowered by the seeds of yesterday, enlightened by the lessons and ‘The Knowing.’

“This is My teaching for you this day, so that you might continue, placing one foot after another, on your way home, gathering all that you need to make your journey good.

“I say to you, on this day... Love. It is My repeated message, and the Golden Command of the new time, the new day, the new dawning.

“Cherish the lessons. Hold them within you. For they support you on your way. The messages you receive, in the quiet of your heart, are messages and lessons, appropriate for your time of trying, for a particular period, for a particular situation.

“I offer, as an example: when you come upon two brothers fighting, you do not first call-out, ‘You are to love each other.’ First, you call-out, ‘Stop. You must not fight. You must not strike each other.’ You give several instructions to bring peace, and order. And then, when there is order, and the brothers are seated apart from the fight, you then say, ‘You are to love each other.’

“I ask you to ponder this example.

“These words I speak to you this morning are brief, but hold much for you to think upon, as you walk through this day set before you. And, as you walk...

I AM
with you,
just as I promised I would be.
I ask you to walk with Me into this new day dawning, unencumbered by the deeds of yesterday,
empowered by the seeds of yesterday,
enlightened
by the lessons,
and the knowing.
And I bless you in your efforts and the growing. Be at peace.

Jesus Teaches On:
The Sovereign State of Being

“I AM with you, feel My Presence. I AM with you to bring words: that will assist your journey; that will open your being to the Presence of God more completely, so that you might feel the Love of God, flowing to you, and through you. And, to this end, and for this purpose, I say to you...

“As you reside on Earth, at this time, you recognize certain people, or groups of people, who head states. You recognize the authority of certain groups, or a person. There are certain countries that recognize a king, or a queen.

“Whether it is one, or a group, who heads a state, this head of state creates certain demands: like the payment of taxes, and/or restrictions upon movement in and out of particular areas. When you reside in a state, headed by one who is in authority, you accept the rules set forth from the being who accepts the responsibility of holding the sovereign state in order.

“As you accept to live in this sovereign state, you take it upon yourself to become a good and worthy citizen of this state. And you show honor and respect to the one who has stepped to the fore, to take the responsibility of shepherding the sovereign state.

“When you live on Earth and in matter, there are many such states where there is a turning over of certain responsibilities, and a handing-over of authority, so that one can control the many in a way that is for the good of all. And the subjects of the sovereign state pray in earnest for the head of state, that they might be good, and generous, and loving, and kind in their ruling.

“This example, of a head of state, is only that, an example, for what I wish to share with you today. And I begin this short sermon, by setting that before you for consideration, no matter how small or how big your grasp of this might be, whether it is as a principal of a school, or a parent who is the head of a household, or a king or a queen who has set before them the charge of running an entire country... a nation. Wherever your history, your understanding puts you, you can fit it into this example.

“Most things taking place on Earth, in matter, require that you pay a price, follow the rules, or adjust to that which is expected of you in a particular area. Let us continue using, as an example, a state, headed by a king, queen, or other figure of authority.

“If you wish to speak to the ruler, or become more important, and fully part of this sovereign state in which you reside, it is incumbent upon you to get to know the ruler... the king, the queen, to obey the rules, to be a citizens in good standing. And, when you desire to be closer to, or know this leader, this ruler, this figure of authority, you send a letter, or make a telephone call, or knock on the door for entrance. You do a number of things to get yourself into the court of the king or the queen, so that you might have audience, so that you might know them more fully, so that you might be an integral part of this sovereign state.

“But what I wish to tell you today is that, although in some small way this is how it works on Earth, it is totally opposite in the Heavenly Kingdom. In the Realm of Spirit, you do not have to wait to be summoned forth into the court of the king or the queen. When you desire to be recognized as a citizen of the Heavenly Dimension of God, you do not have to knock and pound on doors. You do not have to wait for the invitation. In the Heavenly Dimension when you, the citizen, the creation of God, desire to be with God... you...open the door. You summon, and welcome, the Creator of All Things. You hold the key. You do not have to wait to be summoned to the court by the king or the queen. In the Heavenly Dimension... you open the door... and receive God. This is totally opposite of how it works on Earth. So, to understand, that which I wish for you to grasp this day, you must rid yourself of the rules of Earth, and open your heart, to the Love of God.

“There is no waiting in line. There is no time limit. There is no rejection. God is waiting for you! It is not the opposite. Throw open the doors to your sovereign state, as you are the leader, the head, of your personal state of being. And, since you are the sovereign head of your personal state of being, let it be known that the doors to your chamber are always open to the Love of God.

“You are the sovereign head of your State of Being.
Open, the doors,
and welcome
God.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Living in The Light Love

“I AM with you. On this day, I wish to speak to you... to fill you with a desire to spend your time on Earth...

Living in The Light of Love.

“When The Light of God is unimpeded, it flows through you freely, and it shines, on all that you do. Living in The Light of Love will alter your entire time on Earth.

“Living in The Light of Love is not a passive life. It does not mean that you sit, while the Hand of God performs the task. Living in The Light of Love means that you open your body, soul, and spirit to the energy coming from God, in such a way as to receive this loving energy, and let it pass through you, so that you might focus it on whatever task is at hand.

“It means that you are operating within the Light that God sends to you, so that you might see, so that all about you might be illuminated with this Light of Love. And when you are functioning in the world of matter, fueled and enlightened by this powerful source coming from the Creator, you, and the entire Earth, will be the provider and the recipient of this beautiful, loving Light. There is a need for this Light to shine brightly over the Earth at this time.

“If you will be still, and with great purpose and intention, call forth the energy of God, and ask to be filled with this power, you will feel it flowing to you. And when this energy, coming from God at your request... at your prayer... travels through time, to reside in you, you will feel The Presence of God.

“When you rise-up every day, let it be your prayer, that you be filled with The Light of God, so that you might carry The Love of God into the world of the human race. There is nothing more important, that you could ever do, than to deliver this Light to all who live on Earth.

“No matter what you encounter throughout your day, it will be greatly modified, and brought into balance and harmony, when you focus this energy toward it, into it. And I speak to you, with regard to this, whether it is a situation, or an encounter with another human being, whether it is something from within yourself, or about you, or around you.

“Living in The Light of Love transforms all things, and lifts them to a new place, because you flood the energy of that second, of that moment, or hour, with the Love of God. Therefore, it cannot be the same, because it is enhanced, it is enlightened, by the Creator.

“If you are faced with a dilemma, or a situation that involves another, who might be in a chaotic state, or be infused with darkness, you have the opportunity to shine The Light of God on the situation, or your brother or sister.

“And I tell you this, and make it My Promise to you, if you will call on this Light, open the doors and let it flow through you, and direct it to any situation, or person, who is out of balance in any way, they shall be brought into harmony... they shall be brought to Peace.

“You shall be the provider of Peace, as it flows through you, you shall do the work of God on Earth.

“Living in The Light of Love requires that you open fully to the energy coming from God, and that you have the faith, and the trust, to let it flow from you; that you have the faith, and the trust, to ‘know,’ that which is coming to you, from God, will change all things.

“You are a child of God. And you have the opportunity to live in The Light of Love while you walk Earth. I was the example that God wishes you to follow. God wishes you to reach out and do. Do The Will of God. And you shall 'know,' The Will of God, because you shall shine the Light. And in the Light, all will be illuminated. And you will see, with the eyes of your soul.

“When you are living in The Light of Love, you no longer desire to argue, or enter into a discussion, to prove a point... to best another. You enter the conversation with The Light of God. Have faith, that when you open your mouth, the Words of God will calm the angry seas, will calm the fearful mind, will calm the crying, the calls for help, the disturbed. For what you cannot accomplish alone, can be accomplished by shining The Light of God.

“This sounds very simple. But it requires faith and trust. It requires that you be at peace and in harmony with all things about you.

“To live in The Light of Love is my prayer for you.

“On this day, I wish for you to try this, in earnest, with a willing spirit. For everything you do, it matters not if it is small, or perhaps grand, focus, with great intent, The Loving Light of God. And you will be amazed, when you reach the end of the day, how you feel “lighter,” more loving, more like a child of God.

“I ask you to follow Me. I ask you to do The Will of God. I ask you to open to the gifts coming to you from the Creator. I ask you to Live in The Light of Love; and I promise, in The Light of Love, you shall find...

“Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Angelic Anthems, Tones, of the Heavenly Dimension

“Feel My Presence, as I AM with you. And, as I AM with you, I wish to impart this to you: angelic anthems...are the tones...of the Heavenly dimension.

“I bring this to your attention, on this day, so that you might take the time to ponder these things that I have come to you to say.

“So often, the sounds of angels are attributed to angelic songs, anthems, that roll through the Heavens, words that are fit for the angels to sing, but the words are usually designed by the mind of human beings. What I AM here to say to you today, is that the angelic anthems are tones.

“When you enter into a chamber of the Heavenly dimension, you are met with the vibrations, and the tones, of angels. And, although they might be associated with words, these tones have many properties, hold... significance... are important... have a purpose.

“The Heavenly dimension is a place, a space, of great Peace, where beings move within their energy, back and forth, un-assailed, permitted to move through this space... as they are... energy beings of Light. And this Heavenly dimension is a delight for all beings that enter. The vibration is comfortable, comforting... ... Home. And the tones, struck by the angelic beings, set the sound that soothes the Spirit.

“These tones are important to all dimensions, as they move from the Heavenly dimension, and into other places, through spaces, into set times. The angelic choirs strike the tones that hold a balance, and harmonize other tones coming to them. They hold Peace.

“The tones coming through, from other dimensions, are entwined with the angelic tones, that are of purpose and intent, set at a certain frequency, to vibrate and move with the incoming tones, to calm them, and bring balance to all space around them.

“This is important to know, for the angelic choirs set on high, balance the tones of the human race, and all other beings of time and space. They hold the Heavenly dimension pure.

“I say this to you so that you might have the ‘knowing’ that, as the vibrations, that come from the human race, reach-out and continue in time... ... as the vibrations of the human race move into each human being, and back and forth between them, so do the tones of the human race.

“When you find yourself in a place where the vibrations are of Peace, and Power, and the energy in the air is charged with The Glory of God, you ‘know,’ you have found a place to lift you, to assist you, in your ascension back to the Father.

“But, let us connect also the tone, the sacred tones that hold harmony and balance. This is why, when the vibration of man, and the tone of man, is of Peace, and Light, and Love, the two dimensions will draw closer, as the tones of the angels harmonize more easily with the tones of the human race.

“I speak this to you today because there are many of you in place on Earth now, who know that it is incumbent upon you to speak of Peace, and Light, and Love. You know that the words coming from you carry more Power than the thoughts that you have within you. And although the thoughts are important, and hold a vibration all their own, they are touched with the tone of your voice, giving affirmation and confirmation to the thought that vibrates from you.

“Let it be, on this day, that all who hear this message make it their intention, to have their thoughts vibrating Peace, and the words, and the songs that come their lips, affirming in a tone, that will reach the angelic choirs in the Heavenly dimension, and call on them in a special way.

“Let it be on this day, that the angelic choirs do not so much strive and intend to bring balance and harmony to the tones coming from the human race, but that they intend to combine with the human race, and lift all tones to a new place, a new Glory, a new high.

“Angelic anthems are the tones of the Heavenly dimension. But there are tones coming from Earth. There are tones that enter the Heavenly dimension. Let us this day recognize, and make it our intention, that these tones of Heaven and Earth are combined in Peace.

“I say to you, when you recognize that your tone is the affirmation and the confirmation of your thought creation, then it shall be as angelic anthems. And the tones, of Heaven and Earth, shall meet at the portals, and shall weave a new song... of angels and man... and Glory to God.

“Use this day with great thanksgiving, gratitude in your heart, and a song on your lips.
It is your tone, the harmony of the human race, the tones of Earth, let them ring-out, and reach the Heavenly dimension, in a beautiful song of Peace, and Light, and Love.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Tones and Vibrations: Creating the Atmosphere of Peace, and Light, and Love

“I AM with you on this new day, and all others. And on this day, I ask that you ponder this message...

The atmosphere of Peace, and Light, and Love, of Healing, and all other miracles, is created by the tones and vibrations that set the stage for that which is to come.

“On Earth, it is the usual practice, to mark certain gatherings, certain presentations, certain accomplishments, such as... weddings, funerals, plays, great productions... by setting the tone for that particular event... by setting a stage.

“And when you enter these places of ceremony, or celebration, the atmosphere is set, in such a way, as to assist you, in focusing your attention, on that which is to come.

“The lights might be dimmed or bright, depending on the specific effect desired. The music might be soft and tender, or stirring and lively, depending on the effect desired.

“What I am asking you to ponder is this: the vibration created within you, reaches from you, and creates an atmosphere, all about you. It prepares those approaching (you), or the places that you enter or leave, in a certain way. The vibration, radiating from you, is assisting all around you... to focus. And the tone, emitted by you, confirms the vibration, coming from you. You set the atmosphere about you, by that which is created within you.

“I ask that you consider the creation of The State of Miracles, The State of Peace, and Light, and Love. And that you lay the cornerstones of this great State, by sending forth your vibration, this vibration that comes from within you, where you hold the seeds of this beautiful State you are to create.

“This State of Miracles will exist when the atmosphere is ‘of Peace, and Light, and Love.’ And as the tones and vibrations set the foundation of this glorious State, let them come from you. And, let it be, that you touch others with this message, so that the city might be erected... not of stones, and wood, and mortar, but of tones and vibrations... of the noble thoughts and deeds, carried within every man, woman, and child.

“This day I ask you to ponder... the atmosphere, of Peace; and Light; and Love; of Healing, and all other miracles, is created by the tones and vibrations that set the foundation for that which is to come.

“Be of Peace. Be of Miracles. Be of Faith. And,
send forth your tones and vibrations to create.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Challenges, Stepping Stones to Spiritual Strength

“I AM with you on this new day. And I remind you to Stand in The Light of God’s Love, so that you might be a joyful song. Stand in the Light of God’s Love, so that you might feel support, and the nurturing, to give you strength to move into this new day.

“Stand in the Light of God’s Love. And when you do, you begin to see every challenge set before you as a golden opportunity, as a stepping stone to strength... inner strength... spiritual strength. And, it is in this strengthened being, that you find health, happiness.

“As you desire, from time to time, to work on a healthy body, to achieve a strong physical body, you might find yourself drawn to calisthenics, exercise, a regime that requires you to move in such a way as to strengthen the muscular frame of your body, to push it, to walk one more mile, to climb five or ten more steps, to push, to pull, to climb, to jump, to walk, all of it, endurance tests, to strengthen your physical body... a little bit...at a time.

“And sometime in the training of the physical body, you find there is a bit of burning, a bit of pain, exhaustion, perhaps... sweat. Because you are endeavoring to gain strength... you must work at it.

“And I tell you this, as it is the same with your spiritual body. If you will transfer the ideas of strengthening your physical body to thoughts of strengthening your spiritual body, you will comprehend more completely, and more fully, that challenges are really golden opportunities, stepping stones to a strengthened spiritual being.

“And as there is work and effort in gaining and maintaining a fit and strong physical body, there is effort in gaining and maintaining a fit and strong spiritual body. This is important to say to you, so that you might understand.

“When you finally reach a point in your life where you are... enlightened to the importance of a good, healthy physical body... you begin to see the importance in exercise, in maintaining these muscles that hold your body in shape. And when you stand in the Light of God’s Love, you begin to comprehend that every challenge set before you is truly a golden opportunity, a stepping stone to a strengthened spiritual body. It is not something you merely... say. It is something that must be done.

“So on this day, as you welcome its arrival, stand in the Light of God’s Love and ‘know,’ that every challenge, be it small or grand, is a golden opportunity... a stepping stone... to strength.

“Begin with whatever is presented to you. And see it as such. And then you will recognize what you are doing. And you will see the growth, the strength. And in this strengthening of your spiritual body, you will find that your physical body will fall in line with the growing strength of that which is within.

“Grow in strength, so you might spread ‘The Light of God’s Love’ that is flowing into you. Use this Light. It is for you, and all beings. And remember... remember this... every challenge is a stepping stone to strength... a golden opportunity to...

“Shine.”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Stones of Judgment

“I AM with you. And I say to you, on this new day dawning...

“Rid yourself of
the Stones of Judgment,
so that there might be Peace on Earth,
so that Peace on Earth, might begin, within you.

“When you carry judgment within your being, you carry heaviness within your being. It is as if you are carrying a sack of stones for every judgment you permit to live within you.

“I say to you this day, if you can find a way to rid yourself of just one stone at a time, you will soon be free. And the Love of God will flow freely through you, unimpeded by this Rock Garden of Judgment.

“Let not your heart be hardened by these things that bring you down. The Creator desires to send loving energy to you, and through you. And for it to flow abundantly through you, as a free flowing river, you must first move the stones of judgment.

“This is more important for your being, for your wellbeing, than it is for those against whom you hold this judgment, for it denies you the full Love of God.

“It begins within you. Earth changes, with regard to judgment, begins within you. Great examples have risen-up amongst the human race. They hold love in their hearts, and forgive every trespass against them, thus stopping the flow of negative energy. They do not permit the growth. These examples to the human race rise-up. Their stories reach out far and wide, so that all might see, the way to cease this negative energy, these deeds of darkness and shadow, is to let it stop with you... to let it be, that this shadow brought to your door, meets the Light of God; and to let the healing of Earth begin there. For every challenge and obstacle, for every question of darkness and shadow that is brought to you by another can be brought to the Light through you.

“And I ask you to consider, if you let the Light of God's Love flow onto every challenge that is brought to you by another, the Earth begins to change immediately, because of the energy that you are allowing, and permitting, to flow freely through you... from God. You, at that moment, are a savior. You are a savior!

“I ask you to think of it, every moment, every minute, every hour that is marked by a challenge, you too, just as I, have the opportunity to say, ‘Father, forgive them.’ And, at that instant, you open your arms, and let the Love of God flow through you. For it is in this Way that you follow My example. For it is in this Way, that you, and the entire human race, are raised-up.

“I say this to you, so that the stones of judgment might be set aside, so that you are risen-up in the opportunity to let the Love of God flow through you, so that the only stones around you might be those at your feet... on which your brothers and sisters might climb up with you, to receive the Light of God.

“Set the Stones of Judgment aside, so that there might be Peace on Earth.”

Jesus Teaches On:
You Continue The Creation of God

“I AM with you. And I come to you this day, to remind you that...

With the dawning
of this New Day,
you will, once again,
continue the creation of God.

“As from the thoughts of God there came forth the Sun, and the Moon, and the Stars, and the Earth, creation springs forth from you.

“You are a Child of God. And you carry within your being the heritage of creation. So this day, let it be your intention, to create great Light, to magnify The Love of God, so all beings might ‘know,’ great Peace, through that which you create.

“It begins with your thoughts. Every thing that you think...lives. So let it be, that from your thought, from every thought you have this day, there comes into being...Love... a new creation born of your thoughts.

“And on this day, let it be your intention to speak of Love, and Light, and Peace. For as your thoughts create, your words confirm your thoughts, and enhance the creation.

“And, as you speak, let your deeds follow, so that all those around you might ‘see, and know,’ what Love looks like moving on Earth, what the Light of God feels like as it moves through you to your brothers and sisters. And in this Way, Peace shall be spread over the Earth. It shall be done through the Children of God, one to one, heart to heart.

“Know this about your thoughts, and words, and deeds, as they are created within you, they move from you into eternity. And they are forever.

“This day you will change creation’s story, by what you think, and say, and do. Therefore, I remind you so that you might be the creator of all that is good.

“Before you begin this day, remove those things within your being that impede the flow of the Love coming from the Father. And once you remove these things, these obstacles, these challenges, once you set them aside and let the flowing Love of God fill you with Light, you will be ready to begin the day, to begin creating.

“For you see, as you move over the Earth, you are the hands, and the eyes, the feet, and the legs of God. And where you go, there goes God. Know this. And this day use your thoughts to create.

“And when you create, create great Light. Use your words to confirm the loving Light of God that is flowing to you, and through you. And let your deeds be the example of God's Love.

“When I walked the Earth, I chose to let the Father's Words be My Words. And I ask you to do the same.

“Go out into this new day dawning, and bring to your brothers and sisters the Light of God that is flowing to you and through you. And in this Way, the Light of Peace will begin to spread over Earth. And, it begins... with your thoughts....

“Be at Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Manna from Heaven, and The Fruits from Earth

“I AM with you. And this morning, I wish to speak to you on...

The Manna
from Heaven, and the Fruits from Earth.

“Every new day dawning, there is a banquet table, set for you, tended by angelic beings. And it is at this table that you receive the manna from Heaven. It is your spiritual sustenance for the day, where angels minister unto you, as they did for Me, when I walked the Earth.

“Our Heavenly Father held within the creation of Earth the seeds that would spring forth, to yield the fruits of Earth. And in this way, the fruits of Earth are blessed by the Hand of God.

“They were created to sustain you, while you are... ‘of matter,’ while your spirit is on Earth, in the form of a human being. When you combine the manna from Heaven, and the fruits of the Earth, you are feeding your body, your soul, and your spirit. And you are doing this in communion with God.

“A very full cup is handed to you each day... all that you need to sustain your spirit. Drink from the cup that comes from the Hand of God, delivered to you by the angels of God. Let it begin your day, and eat of the spiritual bread that is set before you.

“Add your blessings to the fruits of the Earth. And take them unto your beings, so that you might walk far and wide; for the manna from Heaven, and the fruits of the Earth, will fuel your spirit, and your body.

“Carry these gifts with you. And as you walk into the day, let it be your intention, to be the banquet table of God. With every being you encounter: share your cup; share the manna from Heaven; and, when those who are hungry gather around you, feed them.

“You are the banquet table of God, and there is no end to the number that can be seated around you, for as you move, you encounter so many of the Children of God. Some will be hungry and thirsty for spiritual food. Some will be hungry and thirsty for the fruits of Earth. But, within your being, you can mingle these two together, and disburse them, pass them out, for there will be no end. As one cup is delivered to your brothers and sisters, another will be handed to you, by those angels ministering to you. And in this Way, there will be great spiritual energy passed by the Children of God... one... to the other.

“As you move throughout the day, you touch your brothers and sisters, in a most unique way. And, if you will remember that you carry The Golden Thread of Unity, if you will remember that, as you move from one being to another, you have the opportunity to catch a stitch, then add to it, that you have the opportunity to set forth the banquet table, you have the opportunity to provide... manna from Heaven, fruits from Earth.

“So let it be, that this period marked on Earth as the month of October, finds your banquet table full, and those coming to partake, many.

“On Earth it is harvest celebrations. Let us celebrate fully the harvest of Earth, and the harvest of Heaven. Let us send forth... let us pass out... the manna from Heaven, the fruits from Earth, so that all will be fed, so that there shall be...

“Peace, amongst the Children of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Golden Thread of Unity

“I AM with you...

The Golden
Thread of Unity is carried by the hands of Light, and Love, and Peace.

“When I walked with you, when I was on Earth, My Prayer was that ... ‘All ... would be ... as One!’

“I wish to share a vision with you, to show you how this can be done, how this can be accomplished, without demanding ‘a sameness,’ that would seem to thwart the individual spirit; for, every human being on Earth is ‘of Spirit,’ and each one’s spirit is grand, and magnificent, created by God... a piece ‘of God,’ unique in its own right...yet, ‘a piece of the One.’

“As you move through the day, you encounter different people, different occasions, different birds, and dogs, and bees. You move through the day, and it is constant, yet changing. If you will move through the day, with the thought and intention that you carry within your being, a Golden Cord that binds you with Love to the Creator, you can carry this Golden Cord, this thread, to each individual, and to each place, that you visit. And it follows, wherever you go. And although you meet one individual, and might move on, you have connected the Golden Strand to their presence, to their energy, to their being. And although you move on, there is still this connection... that you have made. It is as if you have taken ‘a stitch in time.’ The words, the thoughts, the deeds that were created in the meeting, live. And they are held together with this Golden Thread.

“If you will, close your eyes and envision different groups, or individuals, or gatherings of people that you might encounter during a week. Put together seven days, earthly days. Spread them out... flat. And see them as pieces of a pattern... each day. See the groups of people, or individuals. And for the time, have them still, and in place; encounters, all the things that would happen, place them along this pattern of days.

“And then imagine yourself moving, allowing God’s Love to flow through you, and making these encounters all the days that consist of the week that you have spread before you. And as you move, visualize this Golden Thread... that you have carried, and you have caught, in each encounter... the Thread of God’s Light, and Love, and Peace.

“You have touched each of these: where you have seen sadness... you have brought Light, and Love, and Peace; where you have found joy and merriment... you have enhanced it with

Light, and Love, and Peace; where you have found anger... you have calmed it with Light, and Love, and Peace. And you continue on your way, with the intention to unify your week with this thread, this Golden Thread, which is within you.

“If you can imagine that, it doesn't take much more imagination to see... that eventually... it is possible...for 'All to be as One.'

“If there are enough human beings, willing to carry their thread, that they hold within them, The Golden String that binds them to God, and move from group to group, catching just enough of it to leave the Light, and Love, and Peace of God, pretty soon, all of these strands will be woven between the different individuals, and groups. They might be unique, but they will be One, in this beautiful Golden Coat, that covers the Earth, that sparkles, and shines, woven by the hands of a human being, who felt the Love of God, more than anything else.

“And pretty soon, the strands will begin to pull, tighter. And the individuals, and all beings, will move closer, and closer together in the Light, and the Love of Peace. It is possible. But first, the threads must be caught. Much like a spider builds a web, they go-out and make their points first. And then, the tightening begins, until it is a most magnificent creation. It is within the human beings of Earth...to construct this beautiful, Golden Creation of Unity. It will be created by the carriers of Light, and Love, and Peace.

“My Prayer is that you will be 'as One': in Light, in The Light of the Father; in Love, created in The Light; in Peace, that will be eternal, and – created – by The Love of God – and, – the desire – of the human race!”

Jesus Teaches On:
Be The Instrument of Peace

“I AM... with you... in Peace! And, I wish to speak to you this morning. I wish to say to you this day...

Be the instrument of Peace.

“It is good to pray for Peace, for balance, for harmony. For, as you pray for these things, they are created within your prayer! And they exist, as a creation... of you... the prayerful being. And your prayer of Peace, your prayer for Peace, for balance, for harmony, moves from you, into the world, into eternity, and it is blessed, and it blesses all it touches along The Way.

“On this day, I wish for you to consider, a more powerful approach to Peace. For, when you move to another step, that goes beyond ‘the prayer,’ and carries you into ‘the action,’ into ‘the deed,’ you magnify the energy of that which you are creating within you.

“Each one of you has experienced a situation, or an encounter, that has been... disruptive... out of balance... anything...but peaceful. And, if you take a moment to recall one such situation, and only one, let it be a minor one, I ask you to think of that occurrence in a new light, in the Light of how it would have been altered, had you been the instrument ‘of Peace.’

“And it will, within each of you, bring to mind... a different time... a different location... different beings. But still, the lesson will be carried within each of you. You will instantly see, and recognize, what would have happened, or occurred, if you had been the instrument ‘of Peace.’

“Now, bless that time that you have just brought forward in your mind, and release it! For the purpose in this exercise, was to show each of you ‘The Power beyond The Prayerful Intent for Peace, The Power of Your Deed of Peace.’

“It begins in the smallest ways, and moves you to a new place. It expands your being. It frees your heart and soul. For, if you can stand in the midst of discord, and say peaceful words in a hushed tone, words of love, and harmony, words seeking balance, and bringing balance, then you will truly be - ‘The Instrument of Peace.’

“And what I say to you this morning is: ‘These creations ‘of Peace,’ and balance and harmony, are to be conceived within you, in your thoughts, and brought to full life, and creation, within your deeds!’

“What golden opportunities, you have every day, to create these ‘States of Peace.’ And do not mistake the small, for being insignificant. Every time you are an instrument ‘of Peace,’ no matter if it is a very minor encounter, or a large encounter, you have been ‘An Instrument of Peace.' And the gift of grace, the energy that flows with creating Peace, will move through you in a most amazing way. For surely it will bless all around you; but, most significantly, it will bless the creator, the bringer of the Peace and balance, it will bless you!

“I ask you...to open...to every opportunity...and possibility... I ask you to...

“Be the Instrument of Peace!”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Signs, The Answers, The Way

“I sit down with you this morning, so that I might say these words...

“Read The Signs! Find The Answers! So that you might know The Way!

“The Way... is clearly marked. The Way... is found by seeking. And the signs... will show - will indicate... those things required for you to find The Way.

“At the beginning, of every New Day, there is great promise of that which is to come. And, it surely will. As a second moves into a minute, and a minute moves into an hour, and an hour moves into a day, the day will come in sequence, and will bring you opportunities, lessons, times of dancing and singing, times to be quiet and thoughtful.

“What I say to you is this... in every human being's life, they will find... signs. Just as surely as you find signs along your pedestrian walkways, and your vehicle roadways, and in books of teaching, and in many other places, as surely as you see and find signs in your worldly life, there are spiritual signs in your spiritual life.

“These signs are all about you. And when you begin to notice, and to read the signs, then, and only then, will you begin to find the answers.

“These signs, that will show you The Way, will be presented: sometimes, through another human being; sometimes, with an encounter you might have with an object. The signs vary. But they each bring instruction... lessons.

“These things that happen, repeatedly, over and over in your lifetime, happen over and over, and come to you in repetition, because there is a lesson to be learned. And when the lesson is learned, you move on. There is no more repetition, because you have learned the lesson.

“And it is the same with your spiritual life. The signs will come over, and over, and over again, to assist you... so that you might find The Way. And when you begin to see the signs, you will begin to seek the answer. Once you have read the sign, or signs, around you, you will begin to seek the truth. And at this time, when the signs manifest themselves to you in such a way that you cannot ignore... the message, then go within. For the answer is within you.

“Nothing will come to you... nothing will be presented to you, that you are not prepared to answer. You carry the answer to all of the questions... within you. Listen to the still, small Voice. Listen for Light, for Love. Listen. And in this way, you will find the answers to all you need. And in this way, you will come to 'know,' the Truth. And the Light will shine throughout your being. And you will see clearly, The Way.

“I say to you, read the signs, find the answers, know The Way. For the signs come to you, they are lessons. The answers are within you, they are from the Holy Spirit of God. And The Way... well, The Way... is the Path Home.

“You have all you need. For God would not have sent you into matter unprepared. God sent you forth, to be on Earth, and then return to Heaven. And you are well prepared for the journey.

“Read The Signs. Find The Answers. Know The Way.”

Jesus Teaches On:

How You Can Do Everything Jesus Did, And Even Greater Things, In the Name Of God

“I come to you this morning... to speak Words... that will lead you into a new week.

“This morning, I wish to speak to you, about one message... that I left... with those who would listen... while I walked the Earth. And, it is the message... that you too... can do... great things... in The Name of God.

“I did not utter these words lightly, or to entertain, or to suggest something that was impossible for human beings to do. I spoke The Words because they are The Truth. You can do ‘all’ that I did, as I walked the Earth in the form of a human being. Do not miss the importance of this message. Do not set aside the things that I did, in The Name of God, as exercises that only I could do. This was not the point... that I was to be set aside... that My life was something only I could live.

“You too can follow The Way that I walked, The Way that I thought, and prayed, and spoke. You too, might say, ‘Your faith has healed you.’

“The example of walking on water, and calling-out to Peter, to follow Me, was clearly written. He walked on water, until he ‘thought,’ he could not. And then, he began to slip beneath the water. He rose-up from his seat, and moved toward Me, filled with The Love of God. But the heavy energy of doubt, slipped into place, blocking The Loving Energy of God, and diminished that Energy, to the degree of doubt that was created within him.

“The things that are called miracles on Earth... come from God. It is God’s Energy and Love, The Healing Power of God, that moves into and through a being... that causes these extraordinary events. God’s Healing Energy, God’s Loving Energy, God’s Powerful Energy... All that comes from God, pours over you. The only measure, that you will be denied, is the measure created by you... the heavy energies you use, or create, to block... or to sieve... The Loving Energy of God. The more ‘open,’ you are to this Energy, the more amazing your life will be.

“It is possible to do all things in The Light of God, because it is God working through you. But to achieve the desired level, that is often referred to as ‘The State of Miracles,’ one must set aside every particle of hesitation, or doubt, or greed, or fear... any thing that is heavy... and move toward The Light, in full trust and faith, that it is God that is moving through you.

“Even the smallest bit... a particle, the size of a grain of sand... that much doubt, will block a portion of The Loving Energy of God, or The Healing Energy of God, or The Power, or whatever Energy of God is flowing through you, it may be impeded... by you... but not by God.

“And it is the same when you reach-out and touch. God will come through you to another. And when the other - has faith - and is open, to that which is coming to them... straight from God, and to them... through you, the amazing State of Miracles grows grander.

“To do, what I did, you must free yourself of the heavy energies of Earth, and move into The Light of God, where your faith and trust is open, where you ‘know,’ God will work through you, where you recognize that you are connected to Heaven as much... verily I will say to you... more than, you are connected to Earth.

“It is only when spiritual beings are in the form of human beings, when they are walking the Earth, that there comes the temptation to move, more and more, into the things of matter. And then, you perform things that are more and more of matter. But the very instant, that you move, closer to Spirit, you recognize a change.

“The closer you move into The Light of Spirit, you recognize a change.

“I say to you, that you can touch your brothers and sisters, with The Light of God’s Love, when you set aside judgment and ego.

“And, when you reach-out your hand to them, you do not think of what they are, or who they are. But you reach-out your hand, and you say, “God, I am ready.” And you hold your tongue, until the Words of God, are firmly set within you.

“What I am saying to you... is... until you are ready to let the words you speak, be the Words of God, and the deeds you do, be the Deeds that God would have you do, and the thoughts you create, be the Thoughts that come to you from the Heavenly Dimension, you will be diminishing the Energy of that Dimension. But, when you turn, surely, to the place where you will say, ‘I am Yours. I am in The Light of God,’ then you shall do the things that I did. And you shall do even greater things, in The Name of God.

“The Key, the secret, that I share with you is, to do these things, you must be completely ‘of God.’ Set aside the heavy energies of Earth, and rise-up with The Energies of God.

“This, My brothers and sisters, is how you bring Heaven to Earth, how you create ‘The State of Miracles,’ how the Earth will awaken to the Energy of Heaven. This, My brothers and sisters, is how you shall do, even greater things, than I.”

Jesus Teaches On:
How To Pray, Prayerful Silence

“I AM here. And this day...I wish to speak to you...on Prayerful Silence.

“There has been much confusion about prayer. And it is good to state here, that the Children of God call, and ask about their needs, just as the Earthly children tug on the hands or the coattails of their parents when they are hungry, or cold, or tired.

“But there comes a time when the children of Earth grow up. And then, the food for their soul, their being, their body, are the remembered words that came from their parents on how to live... instructions for a lifetime. And although the children of Earth might not have thought, in their infancy, or adolescence, to ask certain questions, still their parents provided the answers in things that were told to them, or shared with them, or shown to them. It is in this Way that the Heavenly Creator – God – touches the Children of God as well.

“The most productive time spent with God...is time of quiet, silence...periods where you are not asking, but waiting for that which you truly need.

“This confusion about prayerful communication with God was evident thousands of years ago as I walked Earth. And, when I was asked about it, I provided a prayer of communication, one that would open the door, asking briefly that needs be met, but ultimately, that the Will of God be done, in all things. And that being said, there was silence to follow.

“I tell you this so that you might be fully open to the things which God wishes you to know. For these things do not change, these things ‘of God,’ as the world of matter changes constantly its rules of procedure, or etiquette, or arithmetic, or grammar. All things change in matter. But that which comes from God, to you, is for you, and it will lead you to the Light. But first, you must be in a place where you might hear.

“If you are in your home, and your home is filled with noise, with televisions, and radios, and arguing, and fighting, and the sounds of cars going by, you very rarely hear the hum of a bee, or the gentle call of a bird, or the breeze as it moves past your house. But if you set about, one by one, turning off the television, and the radio, and the voices of dissent, you begin to hear all that is happening around you.

“It is the same with the world of Spirit. When you come to pray, to be with God, by all means greet the Creator, and then be still, for there is nothing that you can say that will be... new(s). When you sit with God, God reads your spirit. There is no need to say that you are hurting, or that you are fearful, or that you are any of these heavier things, because God sees this.

“What will be the most amazing miracle for you, will be to hear the Words from God! And they will not be heard in noise, in chaos. The Words of God will come to you from within, as a quiet Voice. And to hear, you must be still.

“Be still, and hear the Word of God! It comes to every being who will open. And with this Word, or Words, that come to you from the Holy Spirit of God, will come ‘wisdom,’ and ‘a knowing,’ beyond the knowledge of humankind, because you will know it from The Spirit of God. It will not be something that you have been taught, or that you have read in a book. It will be wisdom passed to you from The Holy Spirit.

“The most meaningful time spent with God, will be the time of prayerful silence. Find a quiet place. Open. And you shall receive, for you shall be led, by the Voice within, which will come to you, as It was promised. And that Voice will lead you to the Light. And in the Light, you will ‘see,’ and ‘know.’ And therein...find...

“Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Hearing, The Word Of God

“The Father sent Me into the world of mankind. And I was instructed, to take Myself apart from the world, often; so that, in the quiet, I could hear, The Words of God.

“I come to you this morning, to bring these instructions, this ‘Holy Direction,’ to each of you, as well; so that you might share in this connection, as I did while I walked on Earth.

“For, as your days are occupied with the tasks of the world, the necessary steps of cleaning, preparing foods, doing your work, My days were often occupied with things that were necessary to do, with tasks that were necessary to be fulfilled or completed. But within My being, I ‘knew,’ that to receive direction from the Father, I was to take Myself to a quiet place, so that I might ‘hear,’ that which would lead Me, and guide Me, while I was on Earth.

“And in those times, in the orchards, in the countryside, on the mountain top, in the desert, I closed my eyes to the world, and I opened My heart, and My soul, to Heaven. And when I opened that door, The Glory of God came fully into My being, and I rose-up filled with The Light of God: ‘knowing,’ the Words to say; ‘knowing’ The Way to go; ‘knowing,’ that I came from God to walk on Earth to fulfill a mission that was Mine, to lead My brothers and sisters to The Truth.

“And I tell you this morning The Truth is that you are a Child of God! You are My brother, you are My sister, and God loves you, as God loves Me. This I say to you, so that you might hold it in your heart, and take yourself aside, and listen; for, direction will surely come to you.

“Just as you would lead a child of yours, the Father will lead the Children of Heaven who are on Earth. Do not doubt this. Seek the counsel of God. Open, and you shall receive, just as I received, instructions for your lifetime on Earth. And these instructions, and directions, will bring you...

“The Peace of God!”

Jesus Teaches On:
Creating, The Eternal Word

After morning prayers, during meditation, we heard the song of an angel; and it opened our hearts, to the Words, that were to come to us from Jesus, on this Sabbath morn...

Ho-ly,
Ho-ly, He comes to me...
Ho-ly, Ho-ly, He speaks to me...
Ho-ly, Ho-ly the Words that come to me, from
God.

“This morning, I will speak to you on creating...

The Eternal Word.

“Every word uttered, rides into eternity, on the tone and vibration of its creator. And, it lives, forever.

“Know this, as it is true.

“As much as ‘thought,’ is created, and lives, ‘the words,’ that come from you, live. Be mindful of the words that are created, spoken, that come from your lips. Once they move from your lips, they are caught on The Wind of Eternity.

“Know this, as it is true.

“Spend this day holding your tongue, until it will assist you in speaking the Words of God; for, as surely as you ask, they will come to you, and flow through you, and move into eternity, from you.

“Verily I say to you, in this way, the Words of God will be received on Earth, blessed by your energy, and sent into eternity, as living witness, that you believe.

“Know this, as it is true.

“In every conversation . . . listen . . . not only to the words that are spoken to you by another human being, but to the Words coming to you from the Majestic Being of All That Is; for therein will be The Key to Eternal Peace...

“There will come to you, the Words of Wisdom, from God. This I say to you today, because the creation of words is tearing asunder the dimension of Earth. It is time for the Children of God to open their ears to that which is Holy.

“Know this, as it is true.

“I ask you to speak the Words of God. Set aside those things that are tempting you to respond in lower vibrations and tones. Do not employ the vibrations of fear, or anger, or greed, or envy, or jealousy, or hatred, or any of these things. The list is long, and heavy.

“Choose today: that, through you, there will be a resurrection of Light; that you will bring forth, into eternity, the Word of God; that It will pour into you, be blessed by you, and reborn within you. So that the Word, that is uttered by you, shall ride on your tone and vibration into eternity, living forever, and singing the praises of God.

“Open your mouth. Sing the Words of God! They will come to you in Light, and they will bring you the energy of Love, and they will touch all beings, of all time, with great...

“Peace.”

The Key, To A Bright Future: The Power, of Thought, of Creation, Is Within You

“This morning, I sit with you. Reach, beyond your skin; reach from the core of your being, to take My hand. Feel My Presence with you! I sit with you this morning to speak to you on ...

The Power of Thought.

“The Creator of All Things had a thought. And from that thought sprang forth the energy that created Earth, and the sky, as you know it, and the planets, and the Sun, and the Moon, The Thought of Creation, The Power of Thought.

“Creation continues. Once the thought was held, and released, it gave birth to something new: earth, water, trees, rocks. Once the thought of creation was sent forth from God, there was no bringing it back. So, it continues. It continues through you as well. You carry God's creation forward.

“The Power of Thought – is that – when you think, or focus your attention mentally – you create an energy form – that will exist in eternity, forever!

“This is powerful. This is something to consider. Therefore, I say to you today, ‘Be mindful of your thoughts. Let them be ‘of Light;’ for then, you will be, the creator, of Light’.

“Tarry not in The Garden of Darkness. For Earth, and the world as you know it, and the dimension in which you presently reside, knows enough darkness. It is now time for those who feel The Eternal Flame of Light within them, to bring their thoughts forward into creation, so that your world, Earth, the dimension of matter, will be raised-up on the Thought Creations of the Children of the New Dawn.

“As you create, you lift-up Earth, or you place a shadow over Earth. With very little effort you will find that you can alter, modify, or “bless,” all things that pass through your mind.

“Remember... Earth... and all you experience in the dimension of matter, came forth from ‘a thought.’ And although you cannot see it from where you are, the same thing is happening when you send forth thought forms, new energy created within you. They move from you, and exist forever.

“So, I give you today The Key to a very bright future. The Power of Thought is within you. Create great Light!”

This Is How The Light Of Peace Will Settle Over The Earth

“I come to you this morning, My brother, My sister, to say words that will lead you into a week, a day, into the next hour, or minute, or second, words that will lead you into a new age, and a new time; for the time has come, to hold, Peace!

“From the peaceful heart, there rises-up a joyful song. Give yourself unto The Energy of Peace. Set all else aside, and feel Peace. Let it be your desire to know Peace, from your core being. The Song of Joy comes from the lips of One, who ‘knows,’ Peace. Feel The Peace of God as it flows over you!

“Remove the obstacles that you have set within yourself. Remove all preconceived notions of how things should be, and just be, where you are, at this time, in great Peace. Disconnect from the turmoil, and chaos, of the world, and set your intention, on receiving the energy, that is coming to you from God. Be at Peace, within this energy.

“Focus on Peace, and from you, there will glow The Light of Peace. As long as you can hold this Light of Peace within you; you will summon those around you, they will be drawn to The Light of Peace. And, as they gather, The Light of Peace will grow brighter, and larger, and move into those areas of darkness, and there shall come over the land A Great Light! And it shall reach into the corners of shadow; and all shall be illuminated; and within The Light, there shall be Peace. And from the peaceful hearts, there shall rise-up, a song of joy!

“This is how Peace will settle over all the Earth. It shall begin with One... with each one who feels the call...who knows The Light...who will open to the energy that is pouring from the Heavenly dimension onto the Earth. Connect with this energy. Feel this energy within you, as you connect. It is strong. It is powerful. And, it is sweet. It is Peace!

“From the peaceful heart, rises-up The Song of Joy. So, let it be your intention, for the coming days, to...

“Hold Peace!”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Energy Of A New Day

“As you begin the journey...into this New Day...

“See The Light, breaking through the darkness! Hear the birds, filling the new day with song. Feel this Light, around you, waking you: so that you might see; the song of the bird, filling your ear, so that you might hear; the flowers, and trees, and grasses, fresh with the dew of morning, filling your nose...your senses...with the aromas of a new day. All things, where you are, in your space, are waking, to a new day!

“As the bird flies from tree to tree, or from place to place, it does not carry any baggage with it. It does not carry a wallet, or a pocketbook, or a sack of groceries. It goes into the new day, into a new space, unencumbered. And this is what I would like to speak to you about today, so that you might sing...as a bird sings... with joy, and go into this new day, unencumbered. Just as you would not pack soiled clothes and linens in a suitcase to go on a journey or a voyage, do not begin your new day with thoughts of another day. Begin this new day, fresh!

“To assist you in walking through a beautiful day, begin it without a thought, of yesterday, set it aside. Prepare to experience something new, and exciting. Do not fall to the shadows of fear, anxiety, or concern; for they will bring clouds over your day, and you will bring that energy into the day. Reject the temptation to carry thoughts that are heavy into this new day, that you wish to create... and that you will create...for eternity. This day is very important, as all days are important, as all hours, or minutes, are important. Eternity is filled with opportunities, and challenges, golden opportunities to create Light, wherever you go. And this is true about this day. The energy in your day is in your hands. You are The Master, of your day. Nothing anyone, or anything, can introduce into your daily space, should effect your energy!

“This sounds like it is not possible to do, when you introduce the energy of others. However, I do instruct you, that it is not only possible, but it is a ‘Golden Opportunity.’ For, if your day was to pass you by, and you sat in a chair, with nothing coming from another human being, you would find it very peaceful; but you would miss opportunities to shed Light, or to share the Love, that is flowing through you, with another.

“So this day, think of yourself as a fountain, from which is flowing The Love of God. And, over everything that is introduced into your day... let it flow! Let it pass from you to another. This day is your journey, your story... of how you met the challenges, and opportunities...of this day, beginning.

“I see before you now, a day most glorious, because you have already started your day knowing shadow and heavy energy, from Light, and an energy that is filled with joy. You have already chosen, numerous times, you have already picked, Light, over darkness.

“Now, walk into your day unencumbered. Do not be swayed. Carry into this day, The Love of God that is flowing through you. If you see a temptation, send it from you, so that you might be, The Brilliant Light of God.

“This day is to be glorious for you, for you have already chosen your path. You chose The Path of Light. Recognize the opportunities. Remove the obstacles. And shine your Light. For this day, My sister, My brother, you are to be...

“The Glory of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Way To The Kingdom Of Peace, On Earth, Is Love And Forgiveness

“My Words are brief to you this morning, so that you might remember them, easily...

“It is possible to live your life, within, ‘The Kingdom of Peace,’ Peace on Earth, as created, by you! Your Kingdom of Peace shall be delivered, by you. And, the surest path to peace is through pardon, through forgiveness, through Love! Peace cannot reign, within a ‘heart held hard,’ with anger, or loathing, or judgment.

“It is so important ‘to forgive,’ that in the prayer we discussed last week, the prayer that has come to be known in Christendom as The Lord’s Prayer, ‘forgiveness from God, is attached to your personal forgiveness of others.’ There is a reason for this, ‘If you are holding fear, anger, mistrust, judgment, loathing, anything against your brothers or sisters, that turns your heart hard, you will not be completely open to The Loving Energy of God, you will not be in a position, to receive, fully, The Love of God. There will be shadows around you, and within you, which keep you from receiving The Love of God, because of that which you carry, within your heart.’

“Therefore, you cannot be forgiven, completely, or immersed, fully, in this Loving Energy of God, until you remove from yourself... from your physical being, these angry thoughts, these thoughts of loathing, these thoughts of hatred and envy... anything that would be holding you back from totally loving a brother or sister. Until you remove these things from yourself, you are denying yourself, the full Love of God, the full forgiveness energy, of God.

“Forgiving is loving! It is so important, that the two are connected. Why else would it be, in the prayer of a Child to the Heavenly Father, that you would ask such a thing as ‘forgiveness, as you forgive others’? Why would it not be, that you would simply ask for unconditional forgiveness for your trespasses? Why would it be, that you would attach what the Heavenly Father does for you, to the degree of what you do for others? Ponder this yourself. Why was the instruction to call on The Father and say, ‘... forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us... ’? Think on this yourself. Why is it important to tie these two things together?

“Open, to The Loving Energy of God! Do not judge yourself. Be kind to yourself. Always, no matter in what situation you might find yourself, go directly to The Father, with Love for yourself, asking for guidance. And, it shall be yours!

“I ask that you take time this week to find the answers within you. Because once you realize that the degree of forgiveness is held within you, then you shall truly walk in The Kingdom of Peace.

“On Earth, The Way, to The Kingdom of Peace, is ‘of Love and forgiveness!’ Hold loving forgiveness within your heart for yourself, and all beings, and you shall live in The Kingdom of Peace on Earth.

“Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Lord's Prayer, And Establishing The Kingdom Of Heaven Upon The Earth

“This is Sunday, and I come to you, as promised. I told you last week, that I would speak to you every Sabbath, which you celebrate on Sunday; and that I would deliver, ‘special messages,’ to lead you into a new week, as marked by man. Therefore, I speak, and I say . . .

“As you have opened this day, with saying The Lord's Prayer, the prayer to The Creator, The Lord of All Things, it would be good to ‘know,’ the words you speak.

“In this prayer: you say that you ‘know,’ The Creator is from Heaven; you recognize the greatness of creation; and you show honor to Our Father, The Creator of All Things. And, this is, as it should be, always showing The Creator, honor, and respect! And as you honor and respect The Creator of All Things: you wish, and invite, and pray for, the coming of The Kingdom of God; and you pray, that the ‘will,’ of The One, Who created these things, be done, so that it may be accomplished, according to the creation plan. And then, when all is in balance, and flowing, and the beings who have held their ‘will,’ higher than God’s, set their will aside, and let The Love of God flow through them, they are The Kingdom of God, walking, on Earth!

“The Kingdom of God is brought to Earth, by the beings who inhabit Earth. The beings who inhabit Earth can make it Heaven, or hell, or any of the measurements in-between, according to their desires, their goals, and their aims. Therefore you see, in this prayer, you are recognizing and saying aloud, that bringing The Kingdom of God to Earth can be accomplished, when it is ‘The Will of The Creator,’ that is above all other wills.

“We ask, in this special prayer, that while we are the emissaries of God on Earth, bringing Heaven to Earth, that we be cared for, that we be given food, food to sustain us, on our mission. ‘Our daily bread,’ means more ‘of the spiritual feeding,’ than it does ‘of the physical feeding.’ Sustain us Father on this mission, give us, this manna of Heaven, so we might be filled, have an abundant filling, of this food of Heaven, so that we might be sustained, and remain, ‘of Heaven,’ while on Earth.

“And so that we might remain god-like, and bring Heaven to Earth, we ask for God to look upon us, and to be forgiving, and gentle, and kind to us, as we are to our brothers and sisters, and all things, so that we might show others, how God treats creation.

“And we ask also, in our prayer, that we might avoid temptations and obstacles, that we wish our path to be clear. But if it is, that we are here to ‘know,’ these challenges, or to assist others around these obstacles, then we recognize that it is ‘The Will of God,’ that we assist others, or learn these lessons well ourselves. And, if that is the case, we shall do them, with God’s name on our lips, and God’s guidance, from within.

“This is, basically, the information held in The Lord's Prayer. And actually, the veil, separating Heaven and Earth, will be very thin, where there are those who have the determination, within their being, that Heaven will be brought to Earth, through them!

“My lesson today would be: ‘It is within each of you, to bring Heaven to Earth, on this day!’ The only reason that it is not so, is because the hearts of those who are in human being form, are listening to ‘the voices within,’ saying, ‘Don’t do that! You should remain upset, with your brothers or sisters! You should be upset, with this country which is waging war! You should be angry, because you are not wearing clothes that you like, or eating foods that you wish! You should be frustrated, because you have no car, and must walk!’ All these ‘voices,’ saying you should be anything, other than Love and Light and Peace, are leading you on a path, away from The Light of God.

“This prayer is very powerful, because it acknowledges that you have The Power, to bring Heaven to Earth. For very few, it holds this power in meaning; and for some, who have an inkling, and are close to comprehension, you see that the strong ‘will of man,’ is to remain apart, from God. This must be the case, if God is ever present, then it must be, that man is the rejecter.

“The Lord's Prayer gives witness that you believe in The Eternal Power and Glory of The Creator! And, through The Love, Power, and Glory of The Creator, you, as a Child of God, have the ability to bring Heaven to Earth!

“And so it is . . . that I charge each one of My brothers and sisters . . . as I brought, God’s Word to Earth, and spoke not My words, but those of The Father, I charge each of you, My brothers and sisters, to do the same! For therein, you will find the most glorious Peace, and a Freedom, that you never dreamed possible! For, you truly will inhabit Heaven, because Heaven, will be within you, and surround you!

“This is my lesson on this day, ‘You have The Power.’

“Be at Peace.”
