

THE QUIET PLACE

Jesus' Sunday Sermons 2008

The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gifts Of Christmas Present Have Been “Delivered,” Unto You, Blessed By The Hand Of God

“I AM with you. Feel My Presence, with you. I touch you, with love. I surround you, with peace. My peace, I give unto you, as you enter the New Year.

“And as you prepare to enter the New Year, many of you are still celebrating the anniversary of My birth upon the Earth. Some of you will carry the celebration of Christmas a few days into the New Year.

“Today, I ask you, to carry the gifts of Christmas present, into every single day of the New Year. For, the gifts have been delivered unto you, blessed by The Hand of God.

“For some of you, Christmas was a season of birth, rebirth, of life. For some of you, Christmas was a season of loss, of poignant, bitter-sweet memories. The experience of Christmas is uniquely yours.

“And to each of you, was borne, the gifts of Christmas present, from The Hand of God. From the Christmas season, of birth, rebirth, and life, is borne the gifts of faith, and hope. From the Christmas season, of loss, of poignant and bitter-sweet memories, is borne the gifts of courage and wisdom. These are the gifts of Christmas present. They are yours. They are unique. They will serve you well, as you move through the coming year.

“We stand, at the threshold, of a new year. You stand, bearing the gifts, of Christmas present. I AM with you. The Light of God is upon you. The Holy Spirit is within you. It is time.

“Come. Let us go into the New Year together, as One. Come, as the shepherds, filled with faith and hope, and enthusiastic anticipation. Come, as the wise men, filled with courage and wisdom. Come. Follow your star. For, I AM with you. Feel My Presence, with you. I touch you, with love. I surround you, with peace. My peace, I give unto you, forever.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Come With Me, To The Silent Night, I AM Born

“I AM with you. Feel My Presence with you. I AM with you. We are One.

“And as I AM with you, I see, and know, that most of you, hearing My words, or reading My words, are preparing, for the great celebration. You are preparing to celebrate the anniversary of My birth, upon the Earth. And in this ‘preparation time,’ there is much going on. There is moving here and there; most of you have things to do, places to go, people to see. The list seems unending.

“But I say unto you this day, ‘Be still. I have something I would like to share with you. Come. Sit with Me.’

“I wish for you to hear the words, I AM speaking to you, with the ears of your soul, so that you might recognize, the truth, at the core of your being.

“I ask you to be still, so that we can bring the words I speak to you, to life, together...

“Here, stand here! I wish to show you, the night, I AM born.

“Open your heart. These words are written there. But this day I speak them to you. Yes, see the darkness, of the night. Yes that’s fine, move into it. This is the reason for My sharing, so that you will be in the present, with Me, as I AM born.

“Look at the night. There is no moon, nothing to veil the brilliance of the stars in the sky. It is a perfect night. The only thing stirring is the slightest breeze. You feel it occasionally, as you move. Take a while to adjust your vision. See the darkness of the night, and the brilliance of the stars in the sky. Look there, on the horizon. It is difficult to see where Earth ends, and the sky begins. And as you look up, the stars seem to be multiplying before your gaze, before your eyes; brilliant, moving closer, and closer, and closer to you; as if you have climbed a ladder, and you are sitting in the stars; they have come that close to the Earth.

“Breathe in deeply, the sweet scent of grass. Look over, at the gentle hillside. Feel the silent night around you. It is peaceful. Breathe in the peace. Breathe in My Presence. Breathe in My Life.

“And behold, what appears to be a star, slowly drifting then settling on the hillside, is not a star at all, for look, over there, comes another, and another and another. Oh look, and see, and feel the Earth. You can feel the heartbeat of the Earth.

“The silence, of the night, is giving way, to the light, of angels. It starts first, with a single tone, and then, it grows, into a song, of great joy! Yes, feel the song move into you, as it is moving into the trees, and all of the things of Earth. The silence, has given way to the song, of angels. See their lights, moving, swaying.

“It is now, at this time, that the Earth and the sky are ablaze, with light, great celebration, the silence pierced, by The Light of God, and the song of angels. Breathe this in, as this - is the show, and the pageantry - and the preparation.

“Now, look, over to your right. Yes, the angelic beings are dimming the light. Their song is now tranquil and peaceful. And the joyous tidings sound more, now, like a lullaby, than anything else. And the notes of the song are carried on the breeze, which is gently swaying the trees, and calling you, to ‘Come, move with me, ride The Wind, and see...The One.’

“So your steps take you closer and closer. And as - The Great Star - shines a light, on the small place, you ‘know,’ that is it. ‘That is where I must go,’ says your heart.’

“And so, My brothers and sisters, I say to you this morning, ‘You have been caressed, by the silence, of the night. You have been moved, by the brilliance, and the light. And you have been opened, by the song of angels.’

“Follow the star. I send you forth. Go. For you carry, within you, your gift to Me. It is the most precious, birthday gift, you could ever bring. It is a willing heart, and your love. I send you forth. Go. Find your way. I will wait here. Yes, toward the light.

“And so it is I send you forth, to experience, the true spirit of Christmas, I AM borne from Heaven, to walk the Earth, and I AM with you. This day, seek Me, and you will find Me. You will find Me, in a quiet place.

“I AM the gift, of God, to man. I AM the gift of God, to you. And I bless you, this day. Be at peace, and hold joy, within your heart!

“Be at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

May Your Gift Of Faith Be Increased, And Peace Be Your Constant Companion

“I AM with you on this day. Before the sun, breaks the horizon, I AM with you. I AM with you, as night, slips from you. I AM with you, as you prepare, for the day.

“Today, I have three things, I wish to tell you. And it is My desire, that you carry the words that I say to you into this new week, so that you might strengthen your faith, and be at peace.

“Therefore, these things I say unto you, ‘Great things come, to those who are willing, to cast their bread, upon the waters. Noble deeds are done, by those who will rise-up in the light, and follow the sun, into the new day. Peace is the constant companion, of those who are led, by The Hand of God. But these things require Faith.’

“It takes faith to cast your bread upon the waters, knowing that which is returned to you, will be great. It takes faith to rise-up, and walk, into the day, knowing that which is set before you, will be accomplished, in the light of the sun. It takes faith to surrender, knowing you are led, by The Hand of God.

“This week, strengthen your gift of faith, with the desire, and the firm resolve, to do The Will of God. Then, be willing to be still, and listen, so you might: know when it is time, to cast your bread upon the waters; know when it is time, to rise-up in the light; know, The Hand of God, is leading you, into the Kingdom; know, peace, as your constant companion.

“This is My prayer for you: ‘That your faith be strengthened; and, you come to know, peace, as your constant companion. Forever, and ever, may peace be your constant companion. Amen.’”

Jesus Teaches On:
This Day I Give Unto You, My Peace

“I AM with you on this day. On this glorious morning, I AM with you. And this day, I give unto you, My Peace.

“There is no better gift you can give to those you love, than to be a peaceful presence, in their lives.

“It is a gift: more lasting, than anything you can buy in a store; more rewarding, than an envelope packed with money; more fulfilling, than a basket of cakes, and cookies, and candy. It is a gift that creates an environment, conducive to spiritual growth, and development.

“When you deliver this gift to those you love, you provide a refuge, a sanctuary. You give them a garden – to hold and nurture the seeds, which are their dreams and inspirations – until they grow, and blossom, and flower, into a magnificent reality. It is a precious, unending, gift. And this day, I give unto you My Peace.

“Slow down, so you might receive the gift. Be still, so you might feel My Presence, within you.

“This day, I give you a garden to hold the seeds of your dreams, and inspirations, while they grow, and blossom, and flower.

“This day, I give unto you, My Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Still And Know I AM With You

“Feel My Presence. I AM with you. Feel My Presence, all around you, and know...Me.

“For this day, My brothers and sisters, I bring to you, a gift. But first, I desire your attention. Focus on Me. It is truly your salvation, from the problems of the world. Focus on Me, and you will feel, My Presence, with you.

“Today, I say to you, ‘Slow down!’

“Slow down, so you might quicken the fires, of your spirit. Be still, so you might feel The Holy Breath, within you. Listen, and speak not, so you might hear The Word, and receive The Gift, borne on The Wind; for the word, and the gift, are one. It is Peace.

“You cannot purchase peace, in a store, or order it from a catalog, or barter, or trade it, for another, or with another, commodity. But if you will be still, and sit with Me, the gift of peace will be yours.

“For, it is borne, on The Wind, to be breathed into you, if you will open, and accept The Presence with you. If you will do this, peace will be yours. It will permeate your physical body, inundate your soul, and ignite the flame of your spirit. You will be...peace, and your presence will bring peace, where ever you go. For this day, it is to be born anew, within you.

“So, celebrate this day. I bring you the gift. And all you have to do, is to...slow down, be still, listen, and speak not. And peace, borne on The Wind, delivered by The Breath of The Holy Spirit of God, will be yours.

“My brothers and sisters, accept the gift, and be The Peace of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

During The Holy Days Of December, Ponder Christmas: The Promise Fulfilled; The Gift Delivered; The Message Of Love

“Come. Sit with Me awhile. Yes, I AM truly with you, on this day, and all days. On this day My words to you will be brief. For, it is My intention, to make ... a suggestion. And I wish to make My suggestion: before you begin the month of December; before you step into the maze of holidays; before the celebrations and festivities, which can leave you dazed and exhausted.

“I wish for you to consider, scattering a few “holy days” amongst the holidays. Take the time, to set aside some days reserved, for contemplative prayer and meditation, so that you might ponder: The Promise, fulfilled; The Miracle, of The Gift, delivered; The Message of Love.

“If you will take the time to do this, when you rise-up on Christmas morning, you will be filled with a deeper, and a better, understanding of the promise, more appreciative for the gift, ready to embrace the message of love. You will rise-up, ‘knowing,’ Christmas.

“And this knowing will prepare you for the New Year dawning before you; for, you will stand at the threshold of the new time: understanding the promise; holding the gift; embracing the message. And you will carry into the New Year the spirit of Christmas, every day!

“My brothers and sisters, that is My suggestion. You have time to make the preparation to do this. So, rise-up and go to your calendars. Mark the days. Name them, “The Holy Days of December,” and set yourself aside. For the true meaning of Christmas will be delivered unto you, and you will be blessed in the knowing of it.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gift Of True Joy Is Held Within The Love Of God

“I AM with you, My brothers and sisters. And today I say unto you, take some time, during the coming days, to be still, so that you might ‘feel,’ and come to ‘know,’ ‘true Joy.’

“For, I do not wish you to confuse the seed, the essence of joy, with constant merrymaking, or enthusiastic celebration. While each of these things is good, and fine, they are not the source, or the complete story, of joy. For sometimes, they are used to mask sorrow, within. Sometimes, merrymaking and enthusiastic celebration are used, in search of joy. But I want you, this week, to know joy, true joy.

“This feeling that comes with the knowing of joy is: peace; serenity; fulfillment. It is, ‘knowing,’ that you are a child of God. It is, ‘knowing,’ God’s Love within you. It is, ‘feeling,’ The Light of God’s Love. It is, ‘accepting,’ The Presence of God with you, and within you. It is, being ‘full of light, and filled with love.’ It is, being ‘fulfilled,’ in God.

“This, peaceful, serene joy, is the gift. And once you sit in quiet, and the realization of these things enfolds you, much like a parent’s love, being caressed and held on a loving lap, you will smile, and say unto yourself, ‘This is true joy.’

“I say these things to you because, I do not wish for you to put the cart before the horse. I wish for you to understand peaceful joy.

“And, oh yes, there will be days when that peaceful joy bursts forth from you. It will do so in merrymaking, and enthusiastic celebration. But, it will be from the core, from the seed, of peaceful joy; knowing, feeling, accepting, The Love of God. It will come from being filled with light, and full of that love. It will be pure joy.

“So this week, I ask you, to be still, and go to that place of peace, within yourself, and ask The Holy Spirit of God to lead you into a fuller and richer understanding of true joy. You will find it, in a place of peace. And you will be content. You will be filled with light.

“This week, go within to understand The Gift of Joy. It is held within The Love of God; and therein, you will find it.”

Jesus Teaches On:

You Carry The Gift Of Joy, Within, Open Your Gifts And Be Joyful, And Thankful

“Come, and sit with Me. For, I AM with you, in a special way. In truth I AM with you all ways.

“Today, I wish to encourage you to be joyful and thankful, for the gifts you have been given.

“Yes My brothers and sisters, this day, you are to be joyful, and thankful, for the gifts you have been given.

“Hearing, or reading, these words, some of you might stop, and question, saying to yourself, ‘I am not joyful. God, make me joyful, so that I might be thankful in a better way.’

“And, if these are your words, I ask you to be still, and to know, The Gift of Joy is already yours. You carry it, within you.

“To better illustrate this point, I ask you this morning, each one of you, to close your eyes, and envision this scene. There are two people in the scene. One is a parent, the other a child of, let us say, four (4), or possibly three (3) years of age. Why don't you imagine the child as...you. And, for simplification, let the parent be one of your choosing.

“Now see, the scene is a park. There is a picnic table. The child is sitting at the picnic table. The parent is close-by. But as you draw closer, you see the child is not happy: the eyes are narrowed; the lips are pursed; the jaw is set; the arms are folded over the little chest, outward signs, of the inner intention of the child.

“The parent, hoping that the child will enjoy the day, offers first one thing, and then another, hoping the child will open, and see, and experience the beauty of the day. The parent offers a piece of candy, then a flower, then some paper and colored pencils. Each gift is rejected, with a shake of the head.

“Then, the parent stoops down in front of the child, places their hand under the chin, lifting the head, ever so gently, the parent says softly, ‘Look. I am smiling, just to be with you today. Where is your smile?’ The child opens one eye, and sees the smile on the parent's face. The parent continues, ‘Where is your smile? I know it's in there somewhere. Come on. Let me see your smile. Look. I'm smiling!’ And the child opens both eyes. And the parent lets the smile ripple into laughter. And the child's face begins to change. There comes, the first sign of a smile. And the parent nods. And the smile comes, even broader to the child's face. The parent says, ‘I knew it was in there all the time. You were hiding it from me.’ And the child bursts into laughter. The parent kisses the child on the cheek, and says, ‘Oh my sweet child, your laughter delights and tickles my ears. And the smile on your face, I'll remember for years.’

“And with that the child spins around, eats the candy, picks up the flower in one hand, and a colored pencil in the other, and begins to draw. The finished picture is of the park, and the table, and the trees, and the flowers, and the birds, and the sun, and the parent, and the child. And as the picture is completed, the child signs it, with a big heart, just over the name.

“It is a scene that was not difficult for you to envision, because most of you have been a participant in such a scene, or at least witnessed such a scene, at one time or another. But I tell you this, it is the same right now, for you. If you are not joyful, the joy is within. And your eternal parent is waiting for you to...find it... within.

“This day, before you begin, before you move into the day you will create, I ask that you go to the place of peace within your being. For it is there you will find the box. You will see the word, ‘Joy.’ But you must lift the lid for the true essence of joy to permeate your being. You must make the effort, like the child in the scene, you must...smile!

“But once you put forth the effort to open the box, that has been within you all the time, you will begin to experience true joy. It might take some looking, because the box could be hidden. So you must be willing to dust, and clear-out your being, to find the box labeled ‘Joy.’

“Cast from you: anger, and anxiety, and worry. Move away concern, and doubt. Do not deal with: envy, or fear, or greed, or hatred. Wipe-out any piece of jealousy that you might find within. And soon, you will see the box. Open the lid, and joy will begin moving into your life.

“To be ‘joyful,’ is to be ‘at peace,’ with where you are, with the gifts God has given you. So this day, I stoop down next to you, and I say to you, ‘I know it’s in there. You’re hiding it. Smile!’ And soon after, you smile, you will hear Me say, ‘Your laughter delights, and tickles, my ears. And the smile on your face, I’ll remember for years.’

“Go joyfully into this day, and be thankful for the gifts all along The Way. Be at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Great Light, Is Within You, Be Joyful, and Be Thankful

“You gather, and you are still, so you might ‘know’ Me. I touch you, while you are still; because, I love you. I AM with you, feel My Presence, with you.

“The Great Light is within you. Be joyful. And be thankful. Encourage The Light. Bring forth The Light upon the Earth, for it is a gift from God, delivered, as promised, so you might ‘know,’ The Way, from within.

“When I walked upon the Earth, some two thousand (2,000) years ago, My words were, of, The Light. Yet, most of those I gathered about Me, most of those who had great love for Me, and a desire to know The Way, had difficulties comprehending, that which came from The Light, for I spoke The Words of God.

“And I watched as they struggled, sometimes inhibited by the things that they had been taught, or different restrictions or rules which they had spent most of their lifetimes upon the Earth holding, obeying, keeping. Still other times, they were challenged by things that I said to them, because they desired, that I would be with them, always. But, they thought of that in the ways of the world. They wanted Me, physically, in their presence.

“I saw their confusion. And My love for them led Me to instruct them further, by saying: ‘Do not be afraid, when I go, when I leave you, when I return to Heaven. For I tell you this, it is good that I go. For this way, I can share, I can give, this information to God, that you need more, you need to be led, from within. And God will hear My prayer, and send upon you, The Holy Spirit, which will dwell within you. And in this way, you will not have to rely on what others say, or the interpretations made by one, or many, because you will be led, by The Holy Spirit of God: your personal, individual Teacher, Counselor, Comforter, Guide ... to The Way.’

“Still, after these words, they often did not comprehend. Yet, I knew, soon they would be filled with The Holy Spirit of God, and they would ‘know.’

“And so I come to you today to remind you: that this is so; that the great miracle has happened; that you are filled with The Holy Spirit of God! And when you are still, and you ask, you will ‘know.’ And the answer will be, uniquely, for you. It will not be an answer set ‘for all,’ to be interpreted in a way that might fit your individual plan. It will be: expressly, wholly, and holy, for you.

“So this day I tell you, The Great Light is within you! Be joyful and thankful. Encourage The Light. Bring forth The Light upon the Earth.”

October 26, 2008

Jesus Teaches On:

Live In The Present 'Light' Of The Holy Spirit Of God That Dwells Within You

“I bring you Peace. I AM with you, to bring you peace, so that you might, more clearly, ‘know,’ The Way; and, walk in it. I Love you. I touch you. Feel My Presence, with you.

“My brothers and sisters, My words to you today will be brief; but they are important; for, as you walk the Earth, you will encounter many contradictions, many things will change: from appropriate to inappropriate; from fit to unfit; from clean to unclean, through your lifetime. This is why it is important, that you live within the energy, with The Presence of, under the guidance of, The Holy Spirit of God that dwells within you.

“For I tell you, change is inevitable. The words you say one day, might not be the words that you would choose to use, twenty (20) or thirty (30) years later. The direction, or instruction, or guidance, you give one child at age four (4), will not be the same guidance, you give the child, when the child is thirty-four (34). One day you might say, ‘Eat the apple.’ A month later, you might say, ‘Enjoy the plum.’ One day you might say, ‘You need a coat,’ the next day, ‘A coat is not required.’ Even in your limited space and time, of experiencing life on Earth, as you know it now, things will change. And this is as it has always been.

“As I walked the Earth, more than two thousand (2,000) years ago, I tried to point this out. I was often unsuccessful. In fact, sometimes, I was criticized for altering rules and regulations, which applied at one time, in the present time.

“So I give you this key: ‘Live in The Present Light of The Holy Spirit of God that is within you. Let this Light guide you, in the present.’ For you see, in this way, you will always be: eating the fruit that is appropriate; wearing the garment that is appropriate; thinking, speaking, and doing, that which is appropriate. And it will change, and your thoughts will change, and your words will change, and your deeds, likewise, will change. But The Light that comes from you will remain like...the light in a magnificent house constructed at the edge of the sea...a lighthouse. That light is ever present. But all about it might change. It might be sunny. It might be rainy. It might be clear. It could be foggy. But the light is always there.

“This is the importance of The Holy Spirit with each and every one of you. Because there is no set rule, or regulation, for each and every one of you, except that which is whispered to you, by The Holy Spirit of God. That is The Way.

“The Holy Spirit might whisper to you one day, ‘Go to your left. That is The Way.’ But two days later, The Holy Spirit might whisper to you, ‘Now, go to the right. That is The Way.’ And yet another day might come, when The Holy Spirit will say unto you, ‘Pass this group by. That is The Way.’ And then, a week later, The Holy Spirit might say, ‘Stop at this group, and touch them, each one. That is The Way.’

“How can you know what to do? Be still. Ask for guidance. Every step of The Way is a step of faith. Put one foot in front of the other, and ask The Holy Spirit of God, that abides within you.

“This way: you will live in the present; you will love in the present; you will eat, that which is brought to you; and you will speak the words, that are appropriate, for that present moment; and you will be, in The Light of God, all along The Way.

“I say this to you, it is a key: ‘Be in the present, and be guided, every minute, by The Holy Spirit of God. Be in the present, and live!’”

Jesus Teaches On:

GOD, Your Grace Is Upon My Face, And Your Presence, As A Kiss, Welcomes Me Home

“As the new day is breaking, I AM with you. I AM with you, come; let us walk, into this new day, together; let us see the world that God created, together; let us touch the children of God upon the Earth, together. Come, let us ‘see,’ the new day.

“And to help you walk into this new day, with peace, and in balance with all things, I give you a key. As you begin this new day, I ask you to speak these words, I ask you to be still, lift your face up, and say: ‘God, Your Grace is upon my face, and Your Presence, as a kiss, welcomes me home.’

“I ask you this week to say these words, and to say them often. I ask also, that you do not just rattle the words off and move about your business, but that you be still, and lift-up your face, and say the words reverently. Because, when you stand in the flow of grace, The Presence of God is with you, in a most profound way.

“And if you open, this flow of grace will rush over you, and into you, and through you. It will lift-you-up. You will ride, upon a wave of grace. And this wave of grace will carry you, beyond temptations, beyond challenges, and it will deposit you on a safe shore, where you will be, in The Light of The Son.

“No matter what you encounter, when you are open to the grace flowing to you from God, it will lift-you-up. And the wave of grace will carry you, beyond the challenge. This, I promise you.

“You will have ample opportunities this new week, every day, sometimes every hour, to practice this, to see it work within you, so that you might be the living example. Because God sends you this grace, so that you might rise above the things, that might bring you down.

“For example, if there is one at your work place that annoys you from time to time, when you walk into your work place, be still, lift your face, and say: ‘God, Your Grace is upon my face, and Your Presence, as a kiss, welcomes me home.’ You will find that, that wave of grace, that flows, over you, and under you, and around you, will lift-you-up, and carry you, beyond the encounter, it will lift-you-up, above being annoyed, and will place you, on a sweet, silent shore.

“This is how you do it! This is how you make your ‘Way,’ through each day, by opening to The Grace of God, and letting it flow over you, into you, and through you: so that you might be lifted-up; so that you might be carried beyond; so that you might be deposited on the safe, silent shore; so that you might experience, that which God sends to you, in full measure.

“So I ask you to begin this day, and this week, and every hour if need be, by surrendering to The Grace of God, by opening, and letting it flow through you. Remember the words. Speak them. And you will ride the wave of grace, beyond all challenges. 'God, Your Grace is upon my face, and Your Presence, as a kiss, welcomes me home.' ”

Jesus Teaches On:
Seek First The Kingdom of God

“As the new day dawns, I AM with you. I AM always with you. And today, I wish to speak to you. My words are brief; but if you will ‘know them,’ you will find Peace. For today, My brothers and sisters, I say unto you...

“Seek first... The Kingdom of God, and all pieces, all things, will fall into place.

“Likewise...

Seek to serve, rather than to be served.
Seek to honor, rather than to be honored.
Seek to hear, rather than to be heard.
Seek to see, rather than to be seen.
Seek to love, rather than to be loved.

“In this way, piece by piece, The Kingdom of God will settle upon the Earth, replacing ‘the rules, and regulations, and laws of mankind,’ with ‘the understanding, compassion, and Love of God.’

“Some two thousand (2,000) years ago, I walked the Earth, just as you now walk the Earth. And I brought, to the children of Earth, the new command, to sit atop all other covenants, the command to: ‘Love, one another.’ It is time to raise this command to a place of honor. Do not let it be covered-up with rules, and laws, and regulations, and judgment.

“I ask you to walk into this new week, remembering this event; it is told to you in the Bible, passed down, story upon story; but I say, remember it, as you walk into the week...

“As I was moving about town, a group of elders, a group of men respected in the synagogue, brought to Me, a woman, caught in adultery, breaking the rules, breaking the laws, bringing down judgment upon her. They threw this woman before Me. In that one scene, you will remember, ‘the laws,’ were on the side of the mob, the group of angry people. But ‘the compassion, and understanding, of God,’ was with the woman. And the scene did not end as you would think. The crowd was dispersed. The woman was set free.

“Find the story. Read the story. Ask for enlightenment. Ask for guidance, in how the story can assist you in your daily life, as you move over the Earth.

“It is important. Seek the answers, the guidance, the illumination, and you shall find it. Move into this new week, with enthusiasm.

“Seek first, The Kingdom of God; and, piece by piece, it will settle upon the Earth!”

Jesus Teaches On:

You Have The Power To Cast From You All Temptations

“My Brothers, and My sisters, I AM with you. Feel My presence, as I draw ever nearer. Open to that which I wish to say to you.

“Today, I wish to bring you, a lesson about temptation. And, so that you might more fully understand, that which I say to you, I direct you to a portion of My life upon the Earth, some two thousand (2,000) years ago.

“I was led to the river Jordan to be baptized in the water, by John. And this I did. And when it was done, the two of us, John and I, stood in the water. And The Voice of God was upon Me, and blessed My mission. And The Holy Spirit of God was around Me, in a most profound way.

“It was at that point, that I was led by Spirit, into the desert, to go forty days without food. This I did.

“When I was weak, and hungry, and the feeling of isolation was all around Me, the tempter came to Me. I knew the tests. I knew the trial was upon Me. It was at that time, that I spoke The Words of God, and sent the tempter away.

“And then, the angels ministered to Me; fed Me, body, soul, and spirit; lifted Me up; and I walked out of the desert, into My public ministry.

“I wish for you to remember this portion of My life, as you begin a new week, because it will teach you much; because this ‘Time of Temptation,’ will come to you, as well.

“You might not be led into a desert, or to a river. But it will happen to you, just the same. And it might occur, something like this – At some point in your life, you will be led to a place. And when you reach that place, The Voice of God will be upon you, and bless your mission. And The Holy Spirit will be with you, in a most profound way. You will know what it is you are to do. And in that moment, of your connection with God and your remembering, there will come to you – The Time of Temptation.

“It might come to you in the form of a relative, a family member, who will take you aside, and whisper, tempting you with doubt: ‘You cannot do this thing of which you speak. Come to your senses.’

“And when you send them away, there might come another, in the form of a friend, whispering to you, drawing you further aside, tempting you with fear: ‘Our friends will not understand this behavior. Come to your senses. There’re many things you can do. Surely you can find something that is more...acceptable.’

“And when you send them away, there will come still another, perhaps an acquaintance. And they will draw you even further aside, tempting you with anxiety, concern, or worry: ‘If you do this,’ they will say, ‘you might chance losing all things. Come back with us. Return to something more lucrative, something that will provide you a big home, a nice car, and all the things you wish to have upon the Earth. Come.’

“And you will send them away. But when you are hungry for words of encouragement or support, and feeling very isolated, there will come The Great Tempter, and it will rise-up from within you, and visit upon you: doubt; fear; anxiety; concern; and worry.

“When you are at this point, My brothers and sisters, remember, I too was in the desert, hungry for support and encouragement, isolated. Remember, The Words. They will come to you from God. Say them with confidence: ‘Be gone from me! Do not tempt The Will of God through my weakness, for The Glory of God is with me, and it is my intention to do The Will of God, upon the Earth!’

“And with those words spoken, the tempter will leave you, and the angels of God will be with you, and minister unto you. And you will walk – out of the desert – into your mission.

“All things are possible, through God. The Time of Trying prepares you, for The Great Mission ahead. It is in the desert, when you are hungry and isolated, that you find your true nobility, the nobility of the human being. It is great, and grand, and magnificent! But it reaches its true potential, when you open to The Will of God, and the nobility of the human being becomes The Divine Nobility, of Spirit.

“This lesson, I give you today, to carry into the week, to hold with you the entire time you walk the Earth; for, you have The Power to send away the tempters that will rob you of your Glory.

“Be watchful. Be waiting. And, be ready. For, I AM with you, I have shown you The Way! Now, walk in it!”

Jesus Teaches On:

In The Present, You Have The Power To Bless The Past, And To Illuminate The Future

“I AM with you. Feel My Presence around you, and know, with certainty, that I AM with you. And this day, I bring you, good news...

“I bring you direction. I give unto you guidance... on how to live each day, how to be ... in the present.

“If you are holding: anger; frustration; hurt; resentment; or a grudge about something that happened in the past, it is effecting your present, and casting a shadow, over your future.

“If you are holding: fear; worry; anxiety; or concern about the future, it is effecting your present, and casting a shadow, over your future.

“If you know this, you will understand, and comprehend, the significance ... of the present. For, it is within the present, that you have the power, and the authority, to bless the past, and to illuminate the future.

“If you know this, you will accept, and comprehend, the wisdom. You will adjust your thinking about the challenges you have faced, and see them for what they are...golden opportunities. And if you missed the opportunities in the past, you can use the present: to go back to that place; to bless all, who were a part of your lesson; to forgive, each transgression involved in the lesson learning, including yourself. Release those energies, gather the information, and bring it to the present, to use as wisdom, when you encounter the challenge again.

“You can use the present to illuminate the future, by being mindful of what you are thinking, saying, and doing each day blessing, forgiving, and moving along The Way.

“Once you understand the power involved in what you do, in the present, it will eliminate the fear, the concern and worry, about the future, for you are creating your future ... in the present.

“This is important, My brothers and sisters. If you can grasp the importance of what I AM saying to you, it will change the way you live. It will bring you great peace, and happiness. And you will be able to exhibit a joyful presence upon the Earth.

“Beginning this day, you have the opportunity: to bless the past; to give the gift of forgiveness to all, including yourself; and to illuminate your future with what you think, and say, and do, this day.

“This is important. It is a lesson of great value. Remember, if you are holding: anger; or frustration; or hurt; or resentment; or a grudge about the past, it is effecting your present, and casting a shadow over your future. And likewise, if you are holding: fear; worry; anxiety; or concern about the future, it is effecting your present, and casting a shadow over your future.

“But today, you have the opportunity, to bless the past, and illuminate the future. Be mindful, be prayerful, of that which you think, and say, and do, this day. In this Way, you will lift-up eternity, and be a joyful presence, upon the Earth.”

Pray As If Your Prayer Is Already Answered, Because, In Truth, It Is

“I AM with you, on this day. I reach-out My hand, and I say unto each of you, My brothers and sisters, I bring you a gift this day...

“I bring you, a lesson, so that you might learn to pray, better; for you have need, but you do not know how to ‘receive,’ that which you need. And to assist you in this, I will ask you to participate, for a few minutes. I wish for you to envision four (4) separate scenes that will assist you in knowing better how to pray.

“First, I wish for you to envision a kitchen, with a parent moving about. Next, see a child entering the kitchen. And so that you might more completely understand the lesson, envision yourself, as the child. Now, you come into the kitchen, with a cup raised-up in one hand, and the other hand pointing to things, sitting about on the counter, in the cabinets, and on the tabletops, things that you think, you would like to have put in your cup. The parent, smiling, and knowing better what you need, is not distracted by the items that are catching your attention, that you are calling-out for, that you are indicating you want, with the pointing finger. The parent goes directly to the refrigerator, and opens the door, and there on the top shelf is a very important bottle. You can see it is important, because it is golden, and your name is written on the bottle. The parent reaches in to the refrigerator, and pulls out the bottle, bearing your name, and fills your cup, and gives it to you, and you drink. And as you drink, that which has been given to you, you are filled with light, with each sip, you grow brighter and brighter, as you drink from the cup, prepared by the parent.

“Now, I ask you to move to the last three scenes... I wish for you to picture, a car accident, a car lying over on its side, a child trapped beneath the car, and a mother standing next to the car. Instantly, she raises-up her cupped hands, and calls out: ‘God, help me!’ She reaches down, and lifts the car, just enough, to slide the child from beneath the car, before it crashes finally back to the ground.

“Now move to the third scene... Envision a battlefield, and a weary soldier running, on his flight to safety. He hears a call for help, and stops. He recognizes the voice. He raises his hands to Heaven, and he says: ‘God help me!’ And then he crawls back in to the battlefield, finds his friend, and drags him to safety.

“I ask you now to move to the fourth and final scene... And see a woman, sitting in a doctor’s office. The doctor walks in, and says: ‘The news is not good. It is cancer.’ And the woman raises her hands, and says: ‘God, help me!’

“I show you these scenes, so that you will understand how to pray. And this day I give you a bowl, to hold in your cupped hands. Oh yes, it is true, the bowl is imaginary. It requires that you consider it, a gift. Each time you are in need, cup your hands, and lift them up, and say: ‘God, help me.' And I promise that this bowl that I have given you today, that you hold in your cupped hands, will be filled, with what you need. And I further promise that if you drink from the bowl, poured by The Hand of God, great miracles will appear, in your life, every day. For that which is poured into your bowl, will not be what you think you need, or what you hope you are going to get, but what is best for you, what is most helpful, that which will assist you in meeting every challenge. It might be 'the strength' to save a child. It might be 'the courage' to go get a friend who is under fire. And it might be 'life.' It might be 'real life.' It might come in the form of 'wisdom,' 'understanding,' 'peace.'

"It is important that you pray, as if your prayer is already answered. Because, in truth, what you need to meet every challenge is being poured into your bowl. All you have to do is recognize the gift, and drink from the bowl.

"Today, there will be many opportunities for you to go to God. As you saw in your first scene, go into the kitchen, and lift-up your cup. I can assure you, even if you are distracted, pointing to cabinets, and countertops, and stovetops, and tabletops, God will not be distracted. God will know exactly what you need. If it is 'strength,' you shall have it. If it is 'courage,' you shall have it. If it is 'faith,' you shall have it. If it is 'life,' you shall have it. Raise-up this cup, this bowl that I have given to you. Whisper My name, and it shall be given unto you. This day, learn, how to pray, as if your prayer is already answered, because it is.

"Now, for those of you hearing My words, or reading My words, I ask you to take a few minutes, to center yourself, to connect with God, to feel My presence, to cup your hands, and raise them up. If you will do this, you will feel the energy flowing from God, into your hands. And, if you tilt them toward your lips, you will taste, and you will drink, and you will have all you need. This I promise!"

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-up And 'Do' Great Things, Through The Power, And For The Glory, Of God

“Feel My presence. I AM with you. I AM calling you, this day. Feel My presence, moving in you, touching memories, rekindling the embers, igniting the flame. Feel My presence. Hear My voice. Hear the words, I wish to say:

I charge you
to rise-up, and do great things, through The Power, and for The Glory, of God.

“Do not protest, claiming it is not in you to do such things. For I say unto you, if you are hearing, or reading, these words, it is in you to do these things. And the recognition, gently stirring within, is the sign, that it is time, to awaken, to remember, to begin.

“My brothers, and My sisters, know this: ‘When I walked upon Earth over two thousand years ago, working miracles, great and small, I did not say: ‘Only I can do these things of wonder.’ I proclaimed repeatedly: ‘You can do all that I AM doing, and even greater things.’

“And as an example, I sent those closest to Me, from Me, into the country-sides and towns, charging them, to: cast-out unclean spirits, and heal the sick. And when they returned to Me, they reported the great things they accomplished, through The Power, and for The Glory, of God.

“The stories of their journeys, spread, amongst the following, and many were inspired and filled, with The Holy Spirit. And from their growing numbers, I chose seventy-two (72) more. And I sent them from Me, into the country-sides and towns. And I charged them to cast-out unclean spirits, and heal the sick. And when they returned, they reported, all the great things they accomplished, through The Power, and for The Glory, of God.

“I tell you these things: so that you too will be inspired, and filled with The Holy Spirit; so that you will feel My presence, and know, I AM with you; so that you will rise-up, and do great things, through The Power, and for The Glory, of God.

“Let it begin.”

Come Hear My Words: Be Ye Perfect As God Is Perfect

“I AM with you, on this day. And on this day, My brothers and sister, I call you forth from the shadows of complacency. I say unto you:

“Come, hear My Words: ‘Be ye perfect, as God is perfect.’

“God is Perfect Love. And you are ‘perfected,’ within The Love of God. Left to your own devices, your measure falls short. But, through The Power of God, you are filled with Light; you are whole, complete, perfect. And, in this ‘State of Perfection:’

Where once, you could not see, you will see, as God sees.
Where once, you could not hear, you will hear, as God hears.
Where once, you could not speak, you will speak, as God speaks.
Where once, you could not love, you will love, as God loves.
Where once, you were lacking, you will be filled with light.
You will be whole, complete, perfect in The Love of God.

“My brothers and sisters, the time is upon you. I call you forth, from the shadows of complacency, and I say unto you: ‘Come, hear My Words, as they are for each one of you:

“‘Be ye perfect, as God is perfect.’”

Jesus Teaches On:

Earth Is A Mirror Of Your Existence Upon Her: Live

“I AM with you. We are united. I AM your Brother. And I AM here, now, with you.

“My words to you are brief ... so that I might send you forth ... to live.

“You have been given a gift. It is an honor, and privilege, to experience Earth, as a human being! And I ask you, beginning right now, to use this experience to the fullest. A good way to begin – is to be vigilant – and see what is evolving, all about you.

“This day, make it your intention, no longer to move about, paying little or no attention to the living Earth ... that surrounds you ... that you are a part of. I tell you this, if you will open yourself, and realize that you are part of the living Earth ... as you breathe-in the air of Earth, you will be renewed, and rejuvenated, with each breath.

“Connect with the beautiful creation that is Earth, for you are a piece of it, right now. There is no better time, than today, and this week, to expand your awareness of the living Earth, as you go into each day. If you are vigilant, you will notice, that the flowers of summer are beginning to change. And you will notice that the trees have already begun to prepare for a new season.

“Earth changes, continues, renews, creates, lives. And when you are watchful, you will see this. When you have learned, and you can look, and see with wisdom, you will look at a flower, and see you! You will say, ‘That is me.’ You will see a leaf, falling from a tree, and you will think, ‘That is me.’ You will see the sun in the sky, lighting a pathway in a forest. And each step along The Way, as you look from one side to the other you will say, ‘That is me!’ Because, as the Earth lives and changes, it reflects the phases of your own existence upon the Earth. Sometimes your phase might be dormant, other times brilliant color, other times subdued. It is ‘the process, of the living.’ It continues in Earth, and you. It is The Great Creation Story. And each day, it is reborn, anew!

“There is no better time, to reconnect, and understand, that Earth, in its living, reflects your life upon it. Go into this week, and be observant. See creation continuing all about you. See the changes. See the renewal. See the creation ... and live.”

Jesus Teaches On:

It is Your Time: Now, Go Forth, And Be The Living Word Of God!

“I AM with you. I AM sitting in your midst. I walk amongst you. I reach-out My hand, and say, ‘Follow Me.’

“This day ... My words to you are brief ... ‘How are you living your faith? Your case is most convincing, when your actions speak for you – to be.’

“I was sent – to be – The Living Word. Therefore, I AM – The Living Word.

“As time drew near for Me to leave the Earth, and return to The Father in Heaven, I prepared those who walked with Me, to go forth, to be, a continuation, an extension of My mission, to be, The Living Word.

“I sent them forth to touch their brothers and sisters, with the new gospel, the new command, to love one another. I did not send them forth to do these things, holding first to a qualification, or restriction. They were to open their arms, and welcome all who came; and, this I say to you, today: ‘Practice your faith, without qualification, or restriction.’

“Just as I sent those who walked the Earth with Me, I send you, today: ‘Go forth and feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, and clothe the naked. Go forth, and without qualification, heal the sick, and speak the good news, of the commandment, to love one another.’

“It is in this Way, that The Word of God lives, and thrives, and grows, and magnifies, and populates, the face of the Earth.

“I send you forth, this day, to walk into the coming week, practicing a faith that your actions speak for you. I charge you to be the living word of God, to reach-out your hand, to all situations, and all individuals, and bring God’s Energy, and Love, to Earth.

“Do not practice your faith in a half-hearted way. There is no time for this. This week go forth. I bless you, and I charge you, with spreading the good news, that God loves all of the children of Earth. God is your Father, your Mother, your Creator. Step into this new week, knowing this, and showing this. And remember, your case is most convincing, when your actions speak for you – to be.

“It is time. It is your time. Now, go forth, and be the living word of God, your Father, your Mother, your Creator. The Word of God is living, and it lives, within you!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Use The Gifts Prepared Just For You By The Hand Of The Creator

“I AM with you. On this day of great promise, I AM with you.

“I open My arms, and embrace you, and send you forth, reminding you of your Heavenly Heritage; and, the gifts, you carry within.

“The gifts, from God, are equal to every test. In fact I say unto you, the gifts that you carry, far outweigh every challenge you will meet, whether it is created by you, or another.

“The gifts you carry, in the box prepared by God, make it possible for you to walk through your times of trial, maneuvering around each obstacle, and continuing along The Way. This is as it was meant to be. And I am sure there are some of you, who are hearing My words, or reading My words, who will cast before Me this question, ‘If I carry the gifts of God, which will enable me to master every situation, why do I trip? Why do I stumble? Why do I fall?’ And I will say clearly unto you, ‘It is because you are not using the gifts in your gift box enough, frequently. You are not familiar with the gifts, you have been given.’

“It is important for you to use the gifts, so that you might acquire the skill, to master the course. You carry these tools within you; but, you have been given free will; you have the freedom to choose. And you will choose, either: to use the gifts, or not use the gifts. The giving is done. But God will not use the gifts for you, you have free will.

“For example, I wish to use as an illustration, something I am asking you to envision, because, for each of you, it will be different. I ask you right now, in your mind’s eye, to envision a repair-person. It does not matter if it is a mechanic, a tailor, an electrician, or one who works with wooden objects. Whatever you choose, whatever comes to you, is fine for this purpose. But hold within your vision, a repair-person.

“And as you begin to see it clearer, or feel it better, you will find that, along with this person, you are bringing into your scope of vision, tools. Some of you might see them in a box, held by the person. Others will see a shelf, or a table, with the tools. Some will see them on a wall, or hanging on a hook. But with this repair-person, there are present, ‘tools-of-the trade.’ For simplicity, let us say, there is a tool box.

“If this repair-person has great ability, in the area of repairing things, they are eager to use the tools they carry with them, to fix something, to get it working, to get it running again. And in this box of tools, there are implements, instruments, for almost every occasion. For whatever needs repairing, there is the proper tool. But to use it adequately, one must be familiar with what is in the tool box, and how to use each piece of equipment. It does not do any good to have a box filled with tools, if one has not mastered the course, and honed the skills, on using the tools. If you find yourself in a place, where you need a repair-person, you do not wish for the repair-person to show-up, unable to use that which is in the box.

“What I am saying to you this morning is that, much like the repair-person that you have envisioned, you too, carry a box, with the tools, that will assist you, in repairing anything that goes wrong, along The Way of your life, any encounter. God did not put the tools of the plumber, in the box of the electrician. God, with great knowing, put exactly what you need in the box, which you carry, within you. And, although I have not previously referred to them as tools, I called them ‘The Gifts of God,’ they are magnificent tools.

“This day I am asking you to open the box, and use that which you have been given. It will alter the course of your day, and change tomorrow, if you will use the gifts. There is no reason to wander about in darkness, no reason to proceed, hindered by something not working. You have within you the ability, to make the corrections, and move on.

“Use the gifts. Hone the skills. Be familiar with your gifts. If one of your gifts is to love, do not just love those that are close-by, who are likable, and who love you back. Go out and use your gift by loving those: who are not so lovable; who can be difficult; who can be the test; who are the challenge. And when you can love to this degree, you will have mastered that course. If your gift is one of power, create light, light which will illuminate The Glory of God that is about you. Use your power for The Glory of God. If your gift is vision, seeing, do not ignore it. Go often, to a place, where you can be still, and see. Use your gift, so it does not fall into a place where it is never pulled-out. Do not let it roll into a corner of the box and go unused. See the visions. Hear The Words. Love creation. Love the children of God. Create light, and love, and peace.

“If you will focus on the gifts, and using the gifts, to overcome the obstacles, the challenges, the temptations, you will not focus on the challenge; but you will be focusing on the repair, the miracle, the fixing-up of it all.

“I ask you this week - to be excited about the opportunity - to use your gift box. It was put together; it was packed, just for you. It does not hold someone else's gifts. It holds the tools that will help you, maneuver around every obstacle, and continue along The Way. Do not just talk about it. This week, use the gifts, and use them often, for it will change the course of your week, if you set the determination, now.

“This morning, I open My arms, and I embrace you. I send you out to walk over the face of the Earth, knowing I AM with you. And all along The Way, I will be reminding you of your Heavenly Heritage, and the treasure you carry within, the gift box that is uniquely yours, prepared by The Hand of The Creator, just for you.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Use The Gift Of Power, To Create; For The Glory Of God

“Feel My presence, as I AM with you. Hear My words. They are few. But, My brothers, and sisters, they are meant, for you!

“When I whispered, you woke, from night. When I called, you walked into The Light. When I said, ‘Open your eyes, so you might see,’ you set your foot upon The Way. And, when I said, ‘Open your ears, so you might hear,’ you listened, and heard My words.

“Because you did these things: you see; and you hear; and you know. You know, you are a child of God, possessing the magnificent power to create, with your every thought, word, and deed.

“Therefore, I say unto you this day – do not misuse this power – to diminish, subdue, or restrain. Rather, use the gift of power to create light, light which will illuminate, and proclaim, The Glory, of God’s Creation.

“Use the Gift of Power, for The Glory of God.”

August 3, 2008

Jesus Teaches On:

Now That You Are Awake, Your Commission: Be, And Know, Love; Walk The Way With Me

“Now, feel My presence. As you ‘know,’ the sum is Love.

“I AM with you. Feel My presence. I AM with you. Hear My voice. I AM with you. Embrace My message. For, when I called to you, and said, ‘Wake-up,’ you heard, and rose-up, in the light, of a new day dawning.

“You were lifted-up, on the wings of The Holy Spirit of God. I called, and you said, ‘I am here.’ I said, ‘Wake-up,’ and you rose from your slumber. And now your foot is on The Way. And your resolve is strong.

“This day I say unto you, ‘Come, and sit with Me,’ for now that you are walking along The Way, many will be brought to you. Some you will encounter, at the edge of The Way.

“I ask this of you. When you see another bearing affliction, or pain, whether it be physical, or emotional, open your arms, and your heart, and let The Love of God flow upon them, through you.

“Do not shun, the one, marked, as undeserving, by the world. Do not turn your head, from the weeping eyes. Do not be confined, by rules, and regulations. Be defined, by The Love of God that flows to you, as a mighty, and peaceful, river. Let it enter into you, and flow through you, for it is in this way that you will remain cleansed. And, let it pour-out from you, cleansing all that come to you.

“Do not be tempted to look upon another and ask, “How did you get into this state?” Do not be tempted to look upon another and tell them, how you think they arrived at the point, at which you find them.

“Rather, when you encounter the hungry; first, feed them. And then say unto them, ‘Now, be hungry no more. Live in The Light and The Love of God.’ And do the same for those who thirst, who are unclothed, unloved, sick, destitute. Whatever state you find, heal it, with The Love and The Light of God. For this will mark your journey, that you turned from none, in union with The One, you touched them, with the love of the Son, so that God’s Will was done.

“This is all you need to know. When I called to you, you rose-up, and came to Me. When I pointed out The Way, you put your foot in it. Now your resolve is strong to continue, and this day, I have given you a key...

“Walk The Way with Me.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Wake-up, Open Your Eyes, Open Your Ears, Open Your Heart, Hold Your Tongue,
And Walk The Way

“I AM with you on this day. I AM with you. I walk with you. And if you will open to Me, you will feel My presence; for, I AM with you!

“And on this day I say to you, ‘Wake-up. Open your eyes, so you might see. Open your ears, so you might hear My words, and know The Way. Open your heart, your being, to The Love of God, and let it flow through you, onto all those of Earth.’

“Hold your tongue. Do not speak harshly. Do not loose your tongue to stir bowls of chaos, or rattle pots of confusion. Do not wield your tongue, as a sword, engaging in verbal combat.

“Instead, hold your tongue, until you feel The Peace of God move into you. And then, the words that come from you will be of light. They will bless the Earth.

“All this month, for the last few Sundays, you have received bits and pieces, of how you are to move over the Earth, stated simply, but you have been given wisdom.

“I say unto you, ‘Hear, be still, and hear these words. Wake-up. It is time, My brothers and sisters; and all who are ready, will move forward.’

“Wake-up! Open your eyes, so you might see. Open your ears, so you might hear My words, and know The Way. Open your heart, and your being, to The Love of God, and let it flow through you, onto the Earth. And, hold your tongue, so it does not fall to judgment. Use your tongue, to speak The Word of God. And you will bless the Earth, all the days of your life. This I promise you.

“You have been shown The Way, and it is clear for you. Now, walk in it, and be at peace!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Wake-up, It Is Time: Be The Peacemaker, Be The Bringer Of Light

“I AM with you. Feel My presence as it settles around you, in a most profound way. Whether you are hearing My words, or reading My words, right now, ‘Stop, be still, and feel My presence with you!’

“You are My brother. You are My sister. And on this day I call to you, and I say unto you, ‘Wake-up! It is time for you to open your eyes, so you might see. It is time to open your ears, so you might hear the words I say, so you might know, The Way.’

“You are touched, and loved, by The Son. You are fed by The Hand of God. You are counseled, and led, by The Holy Spirit, within you, guiding you, to the truth, and the light. And you are surrounded, and protected, by the mighty angels of God. All this is yours, so that you might complete your mission, upon the face of the Earth, so that you might know The Way, and walk in it.

“My brothers and sisters, I say unto you this day, ‘Those who walk The Way do not bring conflict and chaos to Earth. Those who walk The Way are the peacemakers, and the bringers of light.’

“This week, be the peacemaker, be the bringer of light. To assist you in this, I suggest, that when you are tempted, to use your thoughts, words, and deeds, in ways other, than ways of peace and light, reject the temptation, outright!

“Do this, all through the week. Begin, one hour at a time. And with great purpose and intention, go into that hour, making it your goal, your mission, to reject thoughts, words, and deeds, anything less than peace and light. Focus on peaceful thoughts, words, and deeds. Focus on the light. When you do this for one hour, you will find you are ready to go into the next hour, because at the end of one hour, you will feel better. You will feel balance returning to you. And as you move into the second hour, and the third hour, and the fourth hour, you will find that earthly dis-eases begin to feel distant, somehow no longer related to you at all. And once you have created a day of peace and light, you will lay down your head, and rest, eager to face another day, in such a way. Before long, you will have created a week of peace and light.

“And once this is done, you will be in balance and harmony with all of God’s creation. You will be the peacemaker, and the bringer of light, upon the face of the Earth.

“Remember, you are touched, and loved, by The Son, fed by The Hand of God, counseled, and led, by The Holy Spirit within you, and surrounded, and protected, by angels. Mighty angels of God go before you, stand with you, and follow after you, all the days you walk the face of the Earth.

“Wake-up! It is time. Be the peacemaker. Be the bringer of light!”

Jesus Wake-up, The Light Is Within You, It Is Time To Turn On Your Light

“Feel My presence, as I move even closer. Feel My presence, I AM with you. You know Me, and I know you, as we are One.

“This morning, I say to you, ‘Wake-up! Open your eyes. See the light. If you are in shadow or darkness, turn on the light, for the light is within you.’

“Those of Earth are sending forth the signal. It is time. The time of great enlightenment is dawning. From all over the face of the Earth, the signals are flickering, at first dim, then stronger, as a candle lit in the darkness, first the flicker, then the flame, then the illumination of all, around the source of the light.

“Earth, is beginning, to glow! Earth, is beginning, to show, that it is time! You see, the signal, is to come, from Earth. And once it begins, there is no returning to the darkness, as Earth, grows brighter, and lighter, and shimmers, and shines. And soon, it will be, as intended, a golden orb, suspended in space. And all eternity will turn, and face, the magnificent creation ‘of God, and those of Earth.’

“If you can hold that vision, this week, it will happen! You see, the period of great enlightenment, is dawning now. And you are blessed to walk the face of the Earth at this time, to turn on the lights, to send the signal, ‘We are ready. Let it begin!’

“Your thoughts, words, and deeds, are to be filled with light. Recognize that the light is truth. Do not cloud your light.

“There will be those who come to you to tempt you. Some temptations will be small, maybe just to speak of another in an unkind way. But resist that temptation, because those small smudges are not the truth. The truth is the light within each of you. And now it is time to turn on the light. Turn your light on. Turn the light of your brothers and sisters on, by focusing on their light. It is the truth.

“I ask you to think of it in this way: if you walk into a familiar room, and it is totally in darkness, you will know where the light is. And you move to that space, or that place, and you turn on the light. And the room is illuminated, and you see, you see where everything is.

“But I tell you this also: you can walk into the same dark room, and remain in the darkness, and your eyes will become accustomed to the shadowy place. And soon, you will be able to make out what is in the room. You will find your way. You might trip or stumble. But still, your eyes will become accustomed to the darkness. And soon you will see.

“But when someone comes along, and turns on the light, you will, at first, be blinded, because you have been stumbling and groping in the darkness. There will be a period where you cannot see anything, and then, it will be illuminated. And the truth will be there, before you.

“So, it is the same: you can walk into the darkness and turn on the light, illuminating the truth; or, you can stumble around in the shadows, becoming accustomed to the darkness. But I say to you, the light will fall on you eventually, because the entire face of the Earth is to be illuminated, the period of great enlightenment is dawning.

“So I say to you this morning, ‘Wake-up. Open your eyes. See the light. Feel the light. It is within you.’

“This week, walk into every room of shadow or darkness, and turn on the light. With your thoughts, let them be ‘of light.’ Go to the core of all matters, and turn on the light. With your words, when you speak to others, ‘Be the light.’ Touch the light in each of your brothers and sisters. Your deeds will show The Way. And you will truly be a candle. And your flame will illuminate the shadows.

“Those of Earth are sending forth the signal, ‘Rise-up. It is time. The period of great enlightenment is dawning. It is coming upon the Earth, and you are there. You are there to see, to be a witness, to be The Light.’”

Wake-up, The Kingdom Of God Is Within You, It Is Time To Wake-up!

“I AM with you on this day. And on this day I say unto you, ‘Wake-up! It is time to wake-up, to open your eyes, to see, so that complacency and judgment do not rob you of your glory. The Kingdom of God is within you! Let it flow through you, on to the Earth!’

“Do not be content to sit behind closed doors, singing praise of The Lord. Rise-up, throw open the door, and walk into the sun light, proclaiming The Glory of God, in your thoughts, words, and deeds.

“For I say unto you, ‘When you care for the sick, you care for Me; when you assist the poor, you assist Me; when you clothe the naked, you clothe Me; and when you feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty, you know Me; and I know you, because you love Me!’

“Wake-up. It is time.”

Jesus Teaches On:
How You Can Magnify Your Spiritual Gifts

“I AM with you. On this glorious day of days, I AM with you. And on this day, I wish to share with you, how you can magnify your spiritual gifts.

“You see, God, The Creator of All Things, gave each of you a spiritual gift. It is held at the core of your being. Some of you might hold one gift. Some of you might hold two or more. But you must understand, these gifts were not randomly passed-out to see what the children would do with the gifts they were given. The gifts were carefully thought-out, and prepared with great love for each of you, assembled, uniquely, for your mission. God gave you the gift, or gifts, which will enable you to ... complete your mission upon the Earth, so that you might ... be whole, be complete.

“Now some of you do not know what your gift is. Others of you have an inkling of, or think you might know, what your gift is. And some of you are using your gifts. But I say unto you, it does not matter, if you are seeking, opening, or using your gifts, what I wish to say to you, applies to each, individual situation.

“This week, I say unto you, if you use The Energy of Love, more frequently, and use the energies of fear, anger, frustration, and judgment, less and less, with each passing day, your spiritual gifts will be enhanced! They will be greatly magnified, to a level, which will astound you. For, within the environment of love, the gifts are enhanced, they are complete, they are whole, and they hold clarity. Within the energies of fear, anger, frustration, or judgment, the gift is diminished, lacking clarity.

“This week, make it your intention to create a loving environment, and to do so with purpose. When you encounter trying people, difficult times, or energies such as fear, anger, frustration, and judgment, create love. Reject any energy that vibrates at a lower, heavier pace. Reject outright: fear, anger, frustration, and judgment.

“If you will do this, each hour of every day, at the end of the day, you will feel lighter, you will feel more complete, you will feel clarity settling into you. Within the energy of love, the gift is made complete, and holds clarity.

“The spiritual gifts carried by the children, endowed by The Creator, are many. And there is no need to repeat the list of all the gifts, or possible gifts; but let it be known ...

“...when the prophet prophesies, in the environment of love, the words that are spoken, are complete, and hold clarity;

“...when the interpreter of dreams interprets, within the energy of love, the dream is interpreted completely, and with clarity;

“...when the one who carries the gift of knowing, holds love, then this knowing is complete, and holds clarity;

“...when the seer is enveloped in an environment of love, that which is seen is complete, and holds clarity.

“And the same applies to all gifts. The gifts of God are magnified, when the children of God operate within the environment of love. The gifts are whole and complete. This is so, because you are closer to God, when you are in the environment of love.

“Love magnifies the spiritual gifts. That is all you need to know. If you are interested in magnifying your spiritual gifts, create love. Reject fear, anger, frustration, and judgment.

“This week, My brothers and sisters, make it your intention to create an environment of love. And in the process, you will be at peace, you will feel whole, and you will hold clarity.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Heaven Is Your Home; Create A Living Monument For The Kingdom Of Heaven

“I AM with you. As you receive direction from God this morning, I AM with you. On this day you have been directed: to be the peacemaker; to carry song; to be of light; and to be of love, all the day long. And, from this day, you will move into eternity, one minute at a time, carrying these beautiful gifts, distributing them, all along The Way, marking your path home.

“Hear Me, and know this: ‘I have great love for you! You are My brother. You are My sister. You are created, by God. You are an eternal being; and, you are meant, to be, of Heaven. Heaven is your home.’

“Know this: ‘Heaven is your home!’

“If you ask members of a family who are assembled, for whatever reason, to recall a memory of home, to stop and think for a while, of something that reminds them of home, you will receive as many different answers, as there are those gathered. Some will cite particular things, particular moments. Some will incorporate a scent, and the scent is usually attached to fond memories of something cooking in the kitchen, announcing that it is a holiday, or a birthday, or a Sunday. But you will get an answer, that memory, quickly flashing before each one.

“Now, let that be a stage. For, I am going to cue you to do the same thing. I am going to ask you to grasp, and to hold and to treasure, the first thing that comes to you. It might be only a fragment. It might be a brief glimpse, or an aroma, or a knowing settled within you. But it will come to you, if you will respond to Me.

“As the family gathered, remembered their home, pieces and parts of it, I ask you, right now...

“What do you remember of your Heavenly Home?”

“The question is usually quickly and easily answered by children, for they seem to be the closest to The Kingdom of God. And, some of you adult children of God, reading these words or hearing these words, had a glimpse, a glimmer, a shining second where you were touched by an angel, inspired by The Holy Spirit, and had a memory, a recall, of your true home.

“I wish for you to ponder that which I say unto you this day and this week, knowing Heaven is your home, ask for guidance, some sign, some glimmer, some memory, of home.

“For each of you, but most especially for those of you who did not grasp the second, or peer into the moment, I will share this with you. I am going to give you a piece of Heaven. You see, Heaven is real. It is real. It is perfect. It is complete. It is whole.

“If you have ever looked at a flower, amazed at the complexity, awestruck in the simplicity, you have experienced a piece of Heaven. If you have ever heard music that stopped your heart, and brought tears to your eyes, you have heard the sound of Heaven. If you have ever looked upon a painting, and thought it so glorious, and rich, you looked upon the inspiration of God. If you have ever stood still for a moment to hear the words of a peacemaker, you have heard the dialogue of Heaven.

“Heaven is your home. And these things serve to remind you, of home.

“In Heaven there are Living Monuments, dedicated to the greatest achievements of those walking Earth. These monuments are transparent. They hold within them the things that transcend the boundaries of Earth, and rise, and move to the place of Eternal Light.

“These monuments holding Eternal Light are displayed in forms you would find interesting: an obelisk, a sphere, a trapezoid, a rectangle, all forms you can think of; and, they are ‘living monuments,’ holding within them, the triumphal moments of the human race.

“There are monuments dedicated to: love, kindness, compassion, peacemakers, art forms. You can observe these monuments from the outside, and see: certain acts of kindness, playing out before you; certain deeds of compassion; movements of a dancer, moving like a bird on wing. If you move inside of these living monuments, you will feel and know: kindness, compassion, love. You will hear the words of the peacemakers. You will feel the flow of the dance. You will understand the inspiration of the artist. You will be moved by the wonders of Earth. For, these shining moments, represent humanity’s perfection, your ability to rise above all challenges, into The Light of God.

“Picture these Living Monuments. And know, whatever you do upon the Earth, there are things you can create of eternal beauty, and bring them home, with you.

“And so I say unto you this day, know this: ‘You are created to inherit The Kingdom of God; it is real; it is whole; it is perfection; and, it is yours!’”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gift; And, The Answered Prayer: Be Not Afraid, For I AM With You

“I AM with you. And on this day, I wish for us to create a vision, together.

“I wish to speak to you today, of the eternal Love, and Presence, of your Heavenly Parent, your Creator, The One, Who gave you life. And it is appropriate that I speak about such things today; because, much of the Earth, on this particular day, celebrates the day of the father, Father's Day.

“And so keeping this in mind, let us begin to create a vision...

“I ask you to see a child, standing at the edge of a pathway, leading into a park. And bring into your vision, next to the child, a parent, standing, holding a gift.

“Since it is the day of the father, if it suits you, in your vision, see the parent, as a man, a father. And see the parent, bringing a gift, a beautiful, iridescent balloon, reflecting great light, and the parent is holding the balloon, by a golden string.

“Now move your vision along to see the parent stoop down by the child, and offer the gift, and attach it to the child, by tying it, gently, around the little wrist. Then, notice that the parent points the way to the path, as if to say: ‘Go on. I am with you.’ And the parent rises-up to follow the child, along the path.

“Now see the child running along the path, close enough to be comfortable in the presence; but far enough ahead, to feel the freedom of the path leading into the park. And let your vision include the beautiful, iridescent balloon, floating above, leading the way. And then hear, the sweet song of laughter, coming from the child.

“Hold that vision. And let it replay, over, and over again. Continue to see the vision, while I speak to you briefly, of the answered prayer, of the child.

“The little child kneeled and prayed...

“Dear God, please be with me. I am so small, and the world is so big.’

“And God answered the child's prayer...

“Be not afraid. I AM with you. I AM always with you, for I AM within you. We are One. You are My child. When you call to Me, you will hear Me, for I will speak to you, and you will know The Way. I send to you, My Son, to show you the path. And I give unto you, My Spirit, to lead you, all the days you walk upon the Earth. So, be not afraid. Go into the world, with great joy, and with a song on your heart! Create great light, My child, and be at peace; for I AM with you, always.'

“Now as you hear those words, and hold your vision, let the vision continue. And understand, in this vision that you and I have created together, the standing parent, bringing the gift of the iridescent balloon, represents The Heavenly Parent, The Creator, The Eternal, Loving Presence. The stooping parent, pointing-out The Way, and following close behind, represents The Son. The iridescent balloon, reflecting great light, represents The Holy Spirit of God, showing The Way, attached to the child, by a golden string. And the child represents ... you ... moving along the path into the park, which represents the world.

“I ask you this day, to rise-up, and continue the vision we have created, with a deeper understanding of the parts each plays. I ask you to rise-up, and run along the pathway, into the park. Feel The Presence of The Holy Spirit attached to you, reflecting The Light and The Glory all about you. Be confident, that your Creator is close to you, within you. And move, into the world, with great joy, and a song on your heart. On this day, I ask you to create, light; and know, I AM with you, always!”

What Is Your Mission Upon The Earth? Watch For The Signs, And Prepare For The Time!

“I AM with you. And on this day, I wish to speak to you, especially to those of you who are wondering, ‘What is it that God wants me to do?’

“And I say unto you, ‘The answer is within you!’ The Keys are: the things that you want to do, the desires, the yearnings and longings of your youth; the things that would follow the words, ‘If I could, I would...’ Once you connect with your inner desire, watch for the signs, and prepare for the time; for it will surely come to you.

“I was sent from God, to show The Way. Still, once upon the Earth, I had to wait, and prepare for the day. And it came. It is the same for you.

“Lips do not taste the first drop of wine: before the sun blesses the fruit of the vine; before the workers toil in the vineyards, all the day long; until at last, comes the day of the harvest song; and then the process, it is still not complete; for, the drink, the juice of the grape, must be stored. And, those who are in charge of this process, watch for the signs, and wait for the time. And then, what is opened is a sweet glass of wine.

“You are no different. Your journey, upon the Earth, is as the grape to the wine. For you are blessed, in The Light of The Son. But there are many days that you must toil, sometimes all day long, to harvest. But, if you will wait, and watch for the signs, you will ‘know’ the time.

“Rise-up, every day, and pray! Say, ‘God, I am here. Show me a sign, so I might see the path, or know The Way.’ And it will be revealed to you. But, the process is a continuing process, from the beginning to the end. So you must have patience. Know this. Now begin. And remember the story, of the grape, on the vine.

“You are blessed by God. Now, watch for the signs, and prepare for the time. It will come. And The Holy Spirit of God will lead you, all along The Way. And I will come, and walk with you, every single day. Your steps, your footsteps, upon the Earth, will show that you walked, for a brief time, upon the Earth, you completed your mission, and you went home.

“So, connect with your inner desire, and pray! Watch for the signs, and prepare for the time!”

Jesus Teaches On:

You Are A Child Of God: What Is It That God Cannot Do, Through You?

“Feel My Presence, I AM with you. Feel My Presence, as I walk with you this day. I AM with you, always.

“Let this day be the day that you rise-up and say, ‘I am a child of God. Jesus is my brother; and I have something to do upon the face of the Earth; before I go home, I will do The Will of God.’ Let this be the turning point, this day, because it is yours to do. Life, as you know it upon the Earth right now, has a beginning and an end; you have a set amount of time to complete your mission. I speak to you to say, ‘Let us begin. Let us begin, anew, from this day forward, announcing fully every day, I am a child of God; this day, I do The Work of God!’

“Now, I ask, each of you, hearing these words or reading these words, this day, what is it, that God cannot do? And, if you believe that God is The Source of All Power, The Creator of All Things, The Divine Maker, you will probably say, very quickly, ‘God can do all things.’ In fact, you might answer, with great confidence, ‘God can do all things!’ But I ask you to stop, and consider this, ‘Can God do all things, through you?’

“As you heard or read those words, you were ready to pronounce, ‘Yes,’ until you got to the last two. And they are very important words, ‘through you!’ For I say unto you, it is ‘through you,’ that God wishes to change the Earth. It is ‘through you,’ that God wishes to move the mountain. It is ‘through you,’ that God wishes to part the sea. My brothers and sisters, God wishes to work miracles, ‘through you!’

“You have read of miracles. Possibly, you have seen miracles. But I say unto you, it took one holding faith, to be the instrument, bringing forth The Miracle of God, upon the Earth. It is time, for the children of God, to understand, that The Power of God, is in each one of us!

“It is time for the children of God to understand, ‘Your particular, unique gifts are what set you apart, what make it possible for you to complete your mission.’ There is no place for comparison, no place for judgment, no place for doubt. There is no place for fear, if you hear the Words and recognize them as Truth.

“This day, I give you a gift, as I say unto you, ‘The Power of God is within you! And God wishes to work through you!’ I bless you, and you feel The Power, moving slightly, stirring, but beginning to come alive.

“You see, for God to work through you, you must give permission. For God to work through you, you must say, ‘Yes.’ For God to work through you, you must choose, of your own freewill, to be the instrument of God upon the Earth. Once you make this decision, all things are possible.

“This day, set aside doubt, for it dims The Glory of God. Set aside fear, for it restricts The Glory of God. And pick-up the banner; walk into this day, holding high, The Banner of God’s Child. Begin by saying, ‘Good morning God, I am here. I know I am Your child. Direct me, and Your Will shall be done upon the Earth; for I am Yours, and I am ready, and I know, we are One!’

“So I say to each of you...

“What can God do, through you?”

Jesus Teaches On:

“Know” You Are A Child Of God, Reject All Shadows, And Be Joyous In The Light

“I AM with you this day, this beautiful day. No matter whether it is raining, or the sun is filling the sky, it is a beautiful day. And on this day, I wish to say some things to you...

“You are a living example to all around you. And if you ‘know,’ you are a child of God, then your actions, your words, even your thoughts, are different; they are infused with the confidence that comes from ‘knowing,’ you are loved. And within the atmosphere of love and confidence, joy abounds.

“Do not be afraid. Do not be fearful. Be joyous. Do not be overburdened by the past. Do not be anxious about the present. Do not worry about the future. Be joyous. Do not give yourself over to the shadows by accepting a sullen nature, creating an atmosphere of gloom, foreboding, darkness. Be joyous.

“If you believe that you are a child of God, walking the Earth, on a mission, then you will not fall, and remain, in the darkness of the shadows; you will rise-up, in The Light of God.

“Understand, as a child of God, you are to live in The Glory and The Light of God. This is how those of Earth will see, and know, The Way.

“If you feel, upon hearing these words, or reading these words, that perhaps you have been fearful; and perhaps, right now, you are fearful; or that you have been anxious; or worried; or perhaps have been sullen about a state that you find yourself in, this day can be the changing point of your life. Because it will be this day, that you realize, God wants the children of Earth to be joyous!

“It is no different, from the Earthly parent. Those of you, who are parents, can quickly identify with this. But those of you, who are not parents, imagine you are a parent, who loves its child very much. Now, what do you desire for your children, for your child? Most every parent will say, ‘I want to see my child happy.’ And it is the same with The Heavenly Father.

“If you are happy and joyous, it is an outward sign that you know, you are a child of God. This day, decide. Use your freewill choice, to reject the gloom of darkness and shadow, and turn to The Light, for it will fill you with peace, and give birth to joy.

“Most of you are familiar with the prayer called ‘The Our Father,’ or ‘The Lord’s Prayer.’ And in this particular prayer is The Way. The words tell you clearly. And, if you say the prayer, you will know The Way, and you will see, that you ask for forgiveness for yesterday; but the important component is you forgive ‘all’ about yesterday, including yourself, so that you are cleansed completely.

“You ask to be given your daily bread, to take care of the present. And, if you truly believe, you will trust that God will give you your daily bread. And then, with great faith you say, ‘Please God, do not lead me into temptation. And deliver me from evil.’

“In this prayer, you address your past, your present, and your future. You hang all of these things on faith. You turn them over to God. Therefore, there should be no concern about the past, no worry about the present, no fear of the future. There should be, coming from Earth, songs of celebration, sung by the children of God, walking the face of the Earth. Joy is necessary.

“This day I say unto you, do not be afraid to live. Live in The Light of God. Reject all shadows, and be joyous; for you are greatly loved! And being greatly loved will bring forth this joy. Be at peace on this day. Be confident on this day. Be joyous on this day!”

Establish True Peace that is Sacred, and Profound, Borne from Within, Without Making a Sound

“As this day begins, I AM with you. And with the coming of the light, I wish to speak to you of peace, so that peace will illuminate your journey upon the Earth.

“The peace that I will speak to you about this day is not a slogan, or a sign. It is sacred, and profound. It is borne, from within, without making a sound. It cannot be bought, or legislated, or demanded, or manipulated. But the atmosphere of peace can be created, by nurturing the seed, borne within.

“This takes faith, desire, tolerance, and perseverance. But if you set your intention to create an environment of peace, the energy of peace will be absorbed, by all who walk into it.

“On this day, I give you a key to use. And, if it is your intention to create the environment of peace, you might use this week to work, to practice, to use this advice.

“When you feel at peace at the core of your being, all is right. You are in balance. And this atmosphere of peace permits health: of body, soul, and spirit.

“Each of you hearing these words, or reading these words, has experienced from one time or another, at one time or another, peace. But today, I want to tell you how you can achieve this state of peace for all time.

“The first step is to pay attention to the little things, the things that upset you, annoy you, frustrate you. These are the things that should not be permitted entrance into your garden of peace. And it is the simplest way to begin changing eternity. When the temptation comes to be irritated, or annoyed, stop! Whatever you are doing, stop, be still, and pray. Focus your attention, not on the temptation, but on the inner prayer, so that you might pass-up the temptation to join in that energy.

“This week, if you will work on avoiding the small temptations, you will be at peace. This I promise unto you. But it takes faith, and desire. It requires tolerance. It means that you will persevere, in the face of many challenges. But, it will be worth it. And the environment of peace will be established, within you, and all around you. This is how peace will move over the Earth. And it will not be the peace of a slogan, or a sign.

“If you will work, in this way, for this week, you will establish true peace that is sacred, and profound, borne from within, without making a sound.

“Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

A Parent's Wish Is For Their Child To Use The Gifts They Have Been Given

“I AM with you on this day, as I AM with you every day. And on this day, a portion of the Earth is celebrating ‘The Day of The Mother,’ one of your Earthly parents, the day set aside to be respectful, and hold in a place of honor, one who gave birth, one who began your journey, giving you life, on Earth.

“My words to you today are brief, so you might hold them, and let them move into you, so that you might come to understand, so that you might ‘know’...

“A parent's wish is for their child to use the gifts they have been given, to experience the adventure of a lifetime: celebrating accomplishments; persevering in the face of adversity; performing deeds of kindness, when given the opportunity; and, visiting, or calling home, from time to time, to talk about what they are doing, as they journey upon the Earth.

“It is the prayer of the Earthly parent. It is the desire of the Heavenly Parent. It is the same. For a parent wishes to give love and support to the child, to support that which the child is attempting to do.

“I wish for ... a brief time, that you would open, to a story, to walk into this picture, I am painting for you, so that you might see, and know better, the dreams and aspirations of a parent. To move into this scenario requires that you use your imagination, set the scene, if you will. Call forth another place. Pick a place, any place. Select a time. It does not matter, whether your vision is in the past, or the future, or possibly even the present. The only requirement is that you are willing, for just a few minutes, to use your imagination.

“I paint for you this picture ... a parent. Let us say, for the purpose of this day ... a mother. And we find this mother, reading an announcement. The announcement declares her child has been chosen to take part in a great quest, the adventure of a lifetime. And the child is eager to go. The parent cannot accompany the child. It is a quest, a mission. And it must be done alone. The mother sets the paper down, touching the announcement, understanding the opportunity for the child, and prepares.

“She takes the child aside, and says, ‘You have been selected to take part in an adventure of a lifetime. You are to journey, over the face of the Earth on a mission. And when it is complete, you can return home.

“I want you to remember, who you are. I want you to remember, that I love you, and I support you, as you go forth. You cannot carry vast amounts of provisions with you; therefore, I give to you this sack, in it there is an apple, and a few pieces, or selections of other fruits. Few they are my child; but they will give you a start.

“In the sack you will find seeds. For your journey will require you be gone many years. And from time to time, you will stop and pause. And it will give you time to plant these seeds, which will grow, and produce fruit for you to move along, feed you, and nourish you if you tend them well. If you are wise, these seeds, well planted, will yield the fruit. And the fruit will produce more seeds.

“I give you this needle and thread, so that you might mend that which you tear or rip, or to use that which you wear to fashion another garment, suitable for change, and growth, and expansion.

“I speak to you in earnest, and ask that you mind the companions you select along the way, so that you do not stray from the path set before you, or shirk the quest, the mission. In the event that you do get lost, I give you this compass that you can trust will guide you, when the day is stormy, and the night cloudy.

“And I speak to you these words, I love you, in your accomplishments, and I admire you, when you slip, and rise-up. I do this all in advance, knowing that your journey will bring you many experiences. And I tell you this, when it is done, I will be here, waiting.

“I send you forth on the adventure of a lifetime. Remember who you are, and walk, the face of the Earth, in peace, knowing I love you, and I support you, and I am with you...in Spirit.’

“And hearing these words, the child moves forth. And the years go by. And occasionally, a letter will find its way back home, talking of the great things that are happening, the trials, the triumphs, the joys. And one day, off in the distance, there comes a figure, walking slowly, out of the light, coming home.

“The figure is different. But the parent recognizes the child returning home, from the journey of a lifetime. The child opens the gate, walks-up the steps, and says, ‘I am home.’

“Now, I told you this story, so you would understand, that, as the Earthly parent, sends the child out, to experience life, so too, does the Heavenly Parent. You are sent forth. But you are never alone. If you will remember who you are, if you will eat the food, given to you by God, planting the seeds all along The Way, your journey will be marked upon the Earth. And if you are tempted to stray, your Heavenly Father, your Parent, has given you a Divine Compass. The Holy Spirit of God will lead you, when the day is dark, and the night is stormy. And when you return Home, there will be great celebration, to mark, your adventure, of a lifetime.

“I would ask that you ponder the words, I have given you this day. And remember always, a parent’s wish is for the child, to use the gifts they have been given, to experience, the adventure, of a lifetime.”

Use The Gifts You Have Been Given For The Glory Of God

“I AM with you on this day. On this day as the bird calls, singing joyfully; on this day as the breeze, moves the leaves on the trees, gently; I AM with you. And as you see spring, bringing new life to the Earth; and as you breathe in the scents, of the fresh flowers; and, as your ears are filled with the song, of a New Day... I say these things to you...

“Use the gifts you have been given, for The Glory of God. Do not hide your gifts, in a basket. God has given you gifts, gifts that will assist you, in your journey upon the Earth. Use the gifts!

“Think of your gifts, as a seed. A seed, unused, held in your hand, carried in a basket, will never, blossom. A seed, sown carelessly, lacking care, untended, will never reach its full potential. But, the seed, cultivated, planted with love, tended with care, will be strong, will bring forth life, will blossom, bear fruit, and yield, seeds, for the new season. And the seeds, will multiply, with each harvest. From the one, there will be many. From the seed, there will be a bountiful crop.

“These seeds: the unplanted; the untended; and the greatly loved; represent the gifts. Use the gifts you were given. This is how – the blossoms will cover the Earth. This is how – the Earth will be fed from the manna. One seed, tended, guarded, loved, will produce a bountiful crop! Do not carry your seeds in your hand, or hide them away. Use what you have been given. Do not sow carelessly; plant, in a fertile, well-tended garden.

“This day, use the gifts you have been given, for The Glory of God. And The Glory of God will shine about you, and what you sow, will be a rich, glorious, bountiful harvest, from a seed.

“Be at peace. Whatever you do this day, use the gifts you have been given, so that The Glory of God might be seen upon the Earth, through you!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Live, Today! Live in the Present, Using the Lessons of the Past, To Prepare For, And Create, The New Day!

“I AM with you. On this day, listen to the song of the birds, feel the gentle breeze, and the swaying of the trees. See the gift, of the flowers. I AM with you on this day, so that you might celebrate. Celebrate the Joy, of this New Day. It is yours. There is creation to be completed. Each day, adds to creation. I AM with you. Create today!

“Do not cast yourself into the future, squandering the present. Do not wander the hallways of yesterday, at the expense of today. Live today!

“Live in the present, using the lessons of the past, and you will be prepared for the future. Do not lament the past, or fear what is yet to come. Live in the present!

“When I walked the Earth, I spoke to those I gathered around Me, and told them that a time would come, when I would return Home, to The Father, to The Creator. And this saddened them, because they did not understand. However, I told them, that I would talk to The Father, and ask that The Holy Spirit come to them in a special way, so that they could find ... a voice ... a feeling ... a knowing ... something ... that would lead them each day, with confidence. I do not believe, when I spoke to them of this, that they fully understood what I was saying. But still, I ‘knew,’ that My part ... of The Great Creation Plan ... was to walk the Earth, deliver the message, and return Home. And this I did.

“During the time shortly after My return Home, those whom I loved, gathered together, in an upper room. They were living in the past, remembering the past. They were fearful of the future, and what lay ahead. And then, The Holy Spirit of God descended upon them, and was with them, in a Mighty Way. And The Presence, of The Spirit of God, anointed those gathered, and they rose-up, in faith and confidence, and walked into the new day.

“From that point forward, they used what they had learned from the past, to create each new day. They moved amongst the peoples, and spoke, as they were led by The Holy Spirit of God to speak. They were no longer fearful of the future. Their intention was to do The Will of God; therefore, each day, they delivered the message, in the way, they were guided, to do so. And in this Way, they moved, in order, toward the future.

“In the beginning, there was Light. There was a great creation of energy that is moving. Creation is moving. You must move in sequence. Move with creation. If you go backward, if you remain in the past, all things will go by you. It does not stop, because you refuse to go forward.

“If you are stuck in the past, you cannot create your present. And, if you are fearful of the future, and this consumes your thought, you are ignoring your present. And it disrupts the flow, of creation. For, from the past, there comes the present, and the present prepares for the future. You move in order to be.

“So this day I say unto you, live in the present, using the lessons of the past, to prepare for the future. I AM with you. Lament not. Fear not. Open yourself to The Holy Spirit of God, and invite us to walk with you, in a special Way.

“Be at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

You Are A Sacred Seed, Sown By The Hand Of God

“I AM with you. On this day, as spring bursts forth upon the Earth, I AM with you. And I wish to tell you a story, of life. And as I begin My story, I take you back to the weeks of a new winter, the time between autumn and winter. And I ask you, to picture this story, or to feel this story growing within you, as you hear the words. On this morning, I say unto you:

“You are a sacred seed, sown by The Hand of God, planted in the fertile soil of Earth, close to a bank of a peaceful river. The time is the end of autumn. The soil of Earth is preparing, for the dormant time, for the time of rest, for the time of sleep.

“As you are inserted into this fertile soil of Earth, you feel her power. And soon, roots curl from you, pushing through the soil, feeling your way into the Earth, growing strong, holding-on, setting you in place.

“And for a period of time, the nutrients of Earth indulge your hunger, and you draw water, and you grow. Earth sustains you, beneath the surface, as winter passes, quietly, slowly, over your head. But soon, the nutrients of Earth fill you, and a new life bursts forth from you. And tender shoots reach upward from the seed, filled with the energy of Earth, and one day, break the surface, and emerge through the soil, and experience ... the Sun.

“The light of the Sun encourages you, ‘Come, grow, be all that you are intended to be!’ And you breathe-in, and you look around, and you see birds, and trees, and grasses, all the things of Earth, that are set around you, you experience, as you emerge from Earth, and grow, in the light of the Sun.

“The winds of an early spring blow you, back and forth, and back and forth. But the roots hold you, firmly. And you shake in the wind, and it feels good, invigorating. And then the gentle rains of spring come, long periods of water, flowing over you, moving into you, washing you.

“And then there is the Sun, high in the sky overhead, bringing you warmth, drying your leaves, bringing forth new buds. And you grow, and you prosper, and you thrive, because you are firmly rooted, in fertile ground, and your leaves are unfurling, in the light of the Sun.

“Springtime passes, and the early days of summer fill you with delight; bees buzzing, butterflies coming to call. And you give forth your most beautiful presence, standing, just being, the results of the seed.

“You are fulfilling the promise of the seed, in the months of summer. And it is at this time, that you are to just be, to permit, to allow, All That Is, within you, to be exhibited, upon the Earth. And you breathe-in the days of summer, and you take-in the sounds of the bees, the gentle flutter of the butterfly, the call of the birds. And it is, in this time, that you find, you are moving with the rhythm of Earth, that you are held upward, and growing upward, expanding every day, more completely, in the light of the Sun. And the gentle breezes bring you movement, balance, harmony, with all of Earth.

“There comes a time, at the end of summer, when you begin to send your seed to find ground elsewhere, to leave a piece of you behind on Earth, as you sense, the energy within you, slipping away. So, you cast your seed on the breeze. And, as fall takes over the Earth, you bend; and, with much gratitude, thank Mother Earth, for all, that has been provided, to raise-up this life, within the seed.

“And sometime, during the fall, before the winter, you rest again, upon the Earth that lifted you up. And as you lay down, The Hand of God, comes to collect the sacred seed. And The Light fills you. And your angels accompany you, as you move above the Earth, going Home.

“A sacred seed, sown by The Hand of God, visited the Earth, for a season; grew, multiplied, and went back Home, leaving a piece of it, scattered on The Wind. The last thing you feel, is The Breath of The Holy Spirit, taking you Home...

“Each one of you, hearing or reading these words, is a sacred seed, sown by The Hand of God, placed upon the Earth, for a season! This day let it be your intention, to feel The Power of Earth, and to call on this energy to fuel you in your mission. And this day, feel the breeze of Earth, taste the sweetness, and grow in the light of the Sun. Prepare to cast your seeds on the breeze, and ‘know,’ soon, it will be time to lay yourself back down, so that you can go Home!

“I have told you this morning of the life, the season, of a flower, or a plant, or a tree; or however it was, you ‘visioned’ the words. But remember, as you walk through this week ... you ... are the sacred seed ... sown by The Hand of God ... bring forth life ... in The Light of The Son!”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Power Of Prayer, Is Held Within The Seed Of Faith, Believe You Are A Child Of God

“On this day, I AM with you. And as I speak these words to you, I say:

“Children of Earth, be still; be quiet, so you might hear, that which I say unto you ... ‘Have faith, and ‘know’ you are a child of God!’ Repeat these words. Say them, often. Let them move within you, until you believe.

“Believe in Me, as I believe in you, and I AM with you. Trust in the words that I speak to you, for they will lead you, and reveal the truth to you. Have faith, and know, you are My brother, you are My sister, you are a child of God. Have faith, and know this.

“Nurture your faith in God; and this faith will bring unto you, the gift of courage; and you will walk, the rest of your days upon the Earth, in peace. If you find you have even a seed of faith within you: tend it, water it, nurture it until it grows, and its leaves unfurl, and its blossom opens.

“Encourage the growth faith, within you, by taking the time, every day, to set yourself aside from the world to pray; and you will begin to understand, in this sacred silent time, the power of prayer. For, when you speak to your Heavenly Father in prayer, you will receive the answer you seek. You will be taken care of, for just as the Earthly parent provides for its children, your Heavenly Parent provides for you.

“Understand that prayer is communication, between you and God, between Earth and Heaven. It knows no boundary, no time. Prayer will nurture your faith. And the more you set aside, the time, to visit with your Heavenly Parent, the more you will understand what it is that God expects of you, as you journey upon the Earth. And as you develop this pattern of prayer, communication with God, things become clear. You understand the challenge you face better, when you pray. You identify the opportunities that come your way easier, when you pray.

“Prayer will nurture your faith, and it will grow. But, as in any conversation, between good friends, or family members, prayer is best done in a quiet place, where there is no distraction, or chaos, or noise. When you go to God in prayer, set yourself aside. Be still, and give God a chance to speak to you. Do not take up the entire conversation, repeating to God all that you desire, that you want for God to do for you. Listen to what God wants of you.

“Just like good friends, share the time together. Soon, you will find that when you set yourself aside to pray, you will not say anything at all. Because, by that time, you will understand, that God reads what is on your heart, and knows, what it is you need: and you will be still; and you will hear The Voice of God speaking to you; and the first thing you will hear is, ‘I love you. You are My child.’

“Believe Me. On this day I ask you to believe, for I AM with you. Trust in My words, for they will lead you to the truth. Have faith, and know, you are a child of God.

“Nurture your faith, in prayer. On this day I say unto you, be at peace. For you will surely find peace, is with you more, when you take the time to be still, go to a quiet place, and sit with God, so God might speak with you, so you might hear, and know.

“And if you say unto Me, ‘I cannot pray. I do not know how to pray. I cannot be still. I have too many things that are worrying me, concerning me. My life is filled with troubles.’ If you say these things, on this day I reach-out My hand and I say unto you, come.

“Come with Me, and be still. I speak unto you the words. Say this prayer; know this prayer; and peace will be yours...

Our Father,
Who art in Heaven,
hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not
into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is The Kingdom, and The Power, and The Glory
forever, and ever. Amen.
“Rise-up, child of God, and walk.”

I Set Before You, The Way. I Reach-Out My Hand, And Say Unto You, "Come, Walk In It."

"On this day, I AM with you. On this Sunday, I ask that you give Me your attention, so you might hear that which I speak to you, with an open heart.

"Each time you call-out for help, help comes to you. When you cry-out in the darkness, there comes forth a light, to lead you home. But you must be willing to accept the help; and you must be willing, to follow, The Light.

"I set before you The Way. I reach-out My Hand, and say unto you, 'Come, walk in it.'

"I fulfill the prophecies of the Old Covenants. And I say unto you, 'Come. Let us celebrate the sealing of the old, for the words of the prophets, are fulfilled. It is accomplished, to give way to the new.'

"I deliver the New Covenant to those of Earth. And I say unto you, 'Come. Stand in The Light of God's Love. Extinguish the flames of fear and punishment. The energies, which will ignite the flames of the New Covenant, are of celebration and joy, joy in The Love of God.

"I AM The Living Word of God. And The Word of God is Love. If you love Me, you will know Me, and My ways. If you love God, God will come to you, and live with you. And when God lives with you, you know love, for God is Love.

"It is in this way that The Kingdom of God will move over the face of the Earth, through you. It is in this way, that the children of Earth will know The Presence of God is with you, through the outward sign, of love, emanating from you.

"I AM The Way, The Truth, and The Life. If you follow The Way, The Truth will be revealed to you, and you shall have new life. This I promise unto you.

"I set before you The Way. I reach-out My Hand, and say unto you, 'Come, walk in it.' "

Go Forth Into The World With A Joyful Heart, And A Peaceful Countenance

“On this day I AM with you. On this particular Sunday, you are still celebrating, Easter. You are celebrating, victory over the Earthly grave. You are celebrating, My rising-up; and My rising-up, is your rising-up; just as My victory over the grave, is your victory over the grave. So in this time of great celebration, I wish for you to hear these words.

“In this time of great celebration, I send you forth, for you are ready. Go forth, into the world, with a joyful heart, and a peaceful countenance, so your brothers and your sisters might see, confidence, in The Presence of God, with you.

“I send you forth as you are ready to go, one by one, or two by two, or three by three; however you are assigned, when your time has come, I send you forth, so that The Song of God, might spread over the face of the Earth.

“I send you forth as you remember the Words that I said unto each of you, the Words that I speak to all My brothers and sisters of the Earth; for I AM with you always. And if you remember, the Words, it is a sign of your love for Me; and since you have love for Me, I promised that I would come and live with you, and that The Father, The Creator, God of All Things, will also abide with you.

“Once you know these things, there should be no fear, no doubt, no concern. For once you know these things, you are able to hear, guidance from God. You will no longer think as a human being; but you will be enlightened, with The Wisdom of God. So as you celebrate, this Sunday after Easter, hold close to you, as a candle in the darkness, the Words I speak unto you:

You, will be, The Candle, in the darkness.
You, will be, The Bread of Life, cast upon the waters.
You, will be, The Word of God.
You, will be, The Shower of The Way.

“Remember, My rising-up, is your rising-up. And since you know this, I send you forth. And I say unto you:

Go out into the world, with a joyful heart, and a peaceful countenance, so your brothers and your sisters might see, confidence, in The Presence of God, with you.

And, it is in this Way, that The Song of God, will flow over the face of the Earth.
It is in this Way, that the Earth will know peace.
It is in this Way, that The Kingdom of God, will move, upon the Earth.”

Awaken, Rise-up, Rejoice, for My resurrection, is your resurrection. My Father, is your Father. And My God, is your God. We, My brothers, and sisters, are One.

“I AM with you. And I say unto you: ‘Awaken. Rise-up. Rejoice! For My resurrection, is your resurrection. My Father, is your Father. My God, is your God. We are bound, by the Golden Thread, by the Golden Strand, of DNA, which identifies us, as The Family of God, and unites us, forever, we are One!’

“As I have purpose and a mission upon the Earth, those of you hearing, or reading these words, have purpose, and a mission upon the Earth...

I was sent, from God, to walk the Earth, as a human being;

I was sent, from God, to fulfill the prophecies of the Old Covenants, so that the New Covenant, between God and those of Earth could be set into place;

I was sent, from God, to bring the New Covenant of Love, to those of Earth;

I was sent, not to speak My words, but to receive The Word of God, and deliver the message to My brothers and sisters, to be The Living Word of God;

I was sent, to stand in the face of the rules and regulations and the laws of the Old Covenants, and to hold-up the New Covenant of compassion, kindness, and love;

And this I did. And this I do:

I touch the untouchables, and they are cleansed in The Love of God, and made whole;

I hold the tears of the weeping, and their heart is filled with a joyful song;

I give water to those who thirst, and bread to those who are hungry, and they drink from The Cup of Life, and are fed, by The Hand of God;

I heal the sick, and raise-up the dead, so they might know, and see, The Glory of God;

I am The Sanctuary for the accused, and I turn away the accusers;

I clothe the naked, so they might be at peace;

I cast-out the unclean spirits from the possessed, so they might know freedom;

I call the children to come unto Me, so I might tell them, of The Glory of God;

And I read the hearts, and the thoughts, of those who will not believe, and they turn from Me, because, they do not know Me.

“But to those of you who say you know Me, I reach-out; I reach-out My hand and say: ‘Come, I will show you The Way...

Touch the untouchables, and they shall be whole;

Hold the tears of the weeping, and they shall know joy;

Give water to those who thirst, and food to those who are hungry;

Heal the sick, and raise the dead;

Be a sanctuary, for the accused;

Clothe the naked;

Cast-out the unclean spirits from the possessed, and they shall know freedom;

And gather the children unto you, and tell them, of The Glory of God;

You shall have the power to read the hearts and the thoughts of those who do not believe you, and they will turn from you, but you will know ‘The Way,’ and you will walk in it. And the things that you do upon the Earth, through The Power and The Love and The Glory of God, will bring forth Heaven onto the Earth; for you will know Me, and you will know, The Way.’

“I say to you this day: ‘Awaken. Rise-up. Rejoice! For My resurrection, is your resurrection. My Father, is your Father. And My God, is your God. We, My brothers and sisters, are One.’ ”

Jesus Teaches On:
Do Not Give Safe Harbor To Resentment

“I AM with you on this day. I say unto you, I AM with you every day. I AM with you, to give you guidance, all along The Way. And on this day, I have guidance to impart to you, and any who will hear My words:

“Do not give safe harbor to the vessel named, ‘Resentment.’ It sails under the flags of ‘Ego,’ ‘Pride,’ and ‘Judgment.’ And its cargo holds are filled with deception and manipulation. When it appears on the horizon, send out the tenders to turn it back to sea. For, if it drops anchor in your harbor, it will be difficult to evict, and the cargo it delivers will not serve you well.

“There are many vessels desiring to sail into your harbor. Before you grant entrance, choose wisely. A good Harbor Master understands: ‘That which is imported upon your shores, will filter into the fiber of your being.’ Therefore, set your sights for vessels, sailing under the flags of noble thoughts, words, and deeds; and welcome them into your port, with joyous celebration! For the cargo they deliver onto your shores will sustain you, and lift-you-up, and assist you, in creating a ‘State of Wellbeing,’ and establishing, happiness and contentment, upon the Earth.

“So, choose wisely, the vessels, permitted to sail, into your port. Be watchful. Do not give safe harbor, to the vessel, named, ‘Resentment.’ It will not serve you well.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Wash From You The Fears Of Earth, In The River Of God's Love

“I AM with you on this day. And on this day, I bring you joyous tidings of Good News:

“You are children of God! You My brothers and sisters, you are children of God! Your heritage is Heaven! ‘Know this,’ and you will be ‘free,’ and all the days that you are upon the Earth, will be, of joy and peace and love.

“I speak to you in this atmosphere ‘of joy,’ because it is appropriate to speak, ‘of fear,’ when it is not present, so that you might be able to stand in the face of fear, wearing the crown, which marks you as a child of God.

“I speak to you now of fear, so that you can meet it with confidence, and move along The Way:

Hold not, fear, upon your heart.

For the heart, holding fear, cannot know peace.

The heart, holding fear, cannot beat in rhythm, to the joyful song.

Hold not, fear, upon your heart.

For the heart bound in the grip of fear, cannot know love.

Hold not, fear, upon your heart.

For the heart, carrying the heavy burden, of fear, cannot find the strength, to deliver life sustaining force, and energy to the body.

Hold not, fear, upon the heart.

Fear does not mark the children of God.

The children of God, stand in The Light.

They are of peace. Their song is joyful.

The Love of God flows to them and through them, and they deliver this life sustaining force, to those of Earth.’

“When you know, when you truly ‘know,’ you are a child of God, you will set aside, the temptations of fear. And you will accept the crown, marking you, as a child of God. And this crown that sits so lightly upon your head is not encrusted, with the stones of Earth; it is illuminated, with The Glory of God; there is no place for fear.

“On this day be still! And call forth the temptations, of fear, and say unto them:

‘I cast you from me!

‘I now ‘know’ that I am a child of God, with full authority.

‘I now know I cannot function as a child of God with full authority carrying fear.

‘Therefore, I choose freely, to walk in The Light of God.

‘And from this day forth, I shall not bear you.

'I shall not be the host for you.

'I shall no longer create you, or sustain you.

'On this day, I sing the joyful song of peace, and feel The River of God's Love flowing through me; and I am cleansed... of fear!'

“My brothers and My sisters, it is not necessary, for you to live in fear! In fact, it is most unproductive! Fear weighs you down, makes you sick, clogs-up the doors, and impedes God's Light from filling you fully.

“On this day, I say unto you: ‘Hold not, fear, upon your heart!’”

Jesus Teaches On:
Subdue, The Anger Of Earth, With The Love Of God

“I AM with you. And this day, is a day of peace. There is calmness, in the air around you. There is a feeling of tranquility, and serenity.

“I have chosen, this day of peace, to speak to you of the energy of anger. It is good, and appropriate, to discuss the energy of anger in times of tranquility, and peace, when calm fills the air, so that you might be prepared to meet this energy in times of turmoil and chaos, with confidence and authority.

“Many of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, have encountered an aspect, or varying degrees, of anger, during the past week. Most of you have been able to free yourself from this energy, and find balance and harmony once again.

“I say to you this day: ‘Reject, the energy of anger!’

“I bring you Keys; I bring you: The Message of God; for, ‘It is the desire, the wish of God, that the children of Earth use the love that comes to you from the Creator, to change the energy of anger. And it is within your power, to do this.’

“The energy of anger is a creation ‘of Earth.’ The progenitors are ego, and judgment. It was born, on the wailing of the lost. It grew in power, in a state of confusion and chaos. It has been created; therefore, it is. But this does not mean, that it must exist, forever.

“The power of anger will be subdued with the power of love. And at this time upon the Earth, you are being called to do The Will of God, and subdue anger with love. It is possible. For this energy is not productive. It is heavy, and dark, and will not accomplish The Will of God. Anger disturbs the spirit, weakens the soul, and sickens the body. It seeks a host. And given the opportunity, will move into a being, and therein dwell.

“There are ways to stop this energy, from consuming your being, from consuming the Earth. The first temptation is judgment. And judgment, led by the hand of ego, is willing to be the partner of anger. Therefore, reject judgment! Set ego aside, with the first temptation of judgment. This is The Key, My brothers and sisters. It will keep you clean all the day long. Reject judgment! For, if you are holding love in your heart, and your being is filled with The Light of God, you will not desire to be the host for anger. In fact, you will look upon it, when it comes to you in another, ‘recognize’ that the other is in peril, and begin to pray in such a way, that you alter that energy.

“The answer, to resolving the energy of anger, is to have the children of God, standing in The Light of The Creator, rejecting the temptation of judgment, and filled with The Love of God!

“But let us say that you slip, or another of your brothers or sisters slip into the temptation of judgment, and it becomes anger. You have the power to reject anger. You have the authority to change this energy to love. The Key – is your intention – intention! You have the opportunity to change an energy of Earth into The Glory of God.

“It is important for you to understand, the challenge might come to you once a week, once a day, every hour. But it is your golden opportunity, to see it, and recognize it, and with great intention and purpose, alter all times, and change eternity.

“The energy of anger is powerful. But it cannot stand in The Light of God’s Love. The energy of anger cannot live, unless it finds a host. The energy of anger cannot live, if you are observant and vigilant, not only of yourself, but of your brothers and sisters.

“Keep yourself clean. Reject judgment. Set ego aside. And stand in The Light of God. If you slip, pray. Sit still, and pray, and you will be delivered. If you encounter another consumed with anger, pray. Reject the temptation to enter into that energy. Pray, and The Love of God will alter the energy of anger.

“It is the time. And those of Earth are ready. This energy, born in darkness, confusion and chaos, will be changed by the children of God, by those who recognize their authority, and by those who choose to do The Will of The Father. Earth will be replacing anger with love, one situation, one piece, one person, one being at a time; and this energy of change, and light, will move over the face of Earth; and the days will be filled with The Light of God.

“It is a golden and glorious time! It is during your lifetime! You have the authority of God. Rise-up children, and move into the new day, with confidence, ‘knowing,’ you have The Key. Now, use it, and free yourself, and all your brothers and sisters.

“Rise-up children of Earth! Subdue the anger of Earth, with The Love of God!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Angels, Beings Of Great Light, Born Of The Thoughts Of God

“Come. Let us sit together. For as you call Me, I come to you. As you call Me, I AM with you!

“On this day, I wish to speak to you ... of angels ... beings of great light, born of the thoughts of God. Angels accompanied Me, as I walked the Earth. And My time was better for their presence with Me.

“Angels announced My coming. And the book of My time upon the Earth, was brought forth, and opened, when Gabriel appeared to My mother, Mary. In The Light and The Glory of God, it was set in place. The Annunciation opened the book, of My time, upon the Earth, of My birth, as a man, of Earth.

“My earthly father was visited by the angels, led by the angels. The time of My birth, upon the Earth, was announced, in great celebration by choirs of angels, singing joyful songs, from the mountaintops and the sea-sides. All over the Earth, the tones and vibrations of Heaven, announced My Presence.

“Angels moved within My family. In visions, and dreams and apparitions, they delivered the messages of God. And upon their word, we moved here or there. In times of peril, we were led, by the angels. I love the angelic beings of Heaven!

“During My time upon the Earth, as I grew to a man, and put on the robe of My ministry, and began walking and talking with My brothers and sisters of Earth, angels were constant with Me.

“And when I set myself aside, in the desert, or on a mountain, or by the sea, they ministered to Me. I was lifted-up, on the song of angels. My spirit was nurtured, by the food brought to Me, by the hands of the angels, when I was fed the manna of Heaven. And when I grew still, I heard messages, from God the Father, carried on the wings of angels.

“Angels are Heavenly companions.

“As I moved over the countryside, and taught, and healed, and prayed, the angels drew nearer, and nearer, as My time upon the Earth was coming to an end. They were My support. And in the last days, I could see the air filled with angelic beings. And I knew, they were ready, to accompany Me back home.

“When My time upon the Earth was done, when My mission was complete, the sound of Heavenly trumpets filled the air, as angels announced My return.

“I say these things to you, because, as they are with Me, angels are with you. And they are with you for one purpose, to guide you, assist you, and help you, as you walk the Earth. All the days of your life upon the Earth, can be touched, by the presence of angels. And this presence and this guidance will make your time upon the Earth easier, if you will open, to that which God sends to you.

“I say to you this day, at least once this week, set yourself aside, with the full intention, of calling on the angels to come forth and minister to you; to lift you up, on the anthem of angels; to nurture your being, with manna from God; to bring you the messages from The Father, from God, The Creator of All Things, so that you might know The Way and walk in wisdom, all the days you are upon the Earth. This is at your disposal.

“You too, can feel the touch of the angels surrounding you, and it will make your days upon the Earth easier. And it will bring forth The Words of God upon you, and your days will be filled with Peace, and the songs of angels.

“And when your time is done, when it is time for you to return Home, you too, will hear the sound of the Heavenly trumpets, filling the air, announcing the return, of another child of God.

“Be at Peace. And rest, in the arms, of your angels.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-up Child of God, Ride The Wind, Have Faith, Forgive All Transgressions, And Fly

“As you call to Me, I AM with you. If you speak to Me, I will speak with you. If you reach-out to Me, I will take your hand. And when you call to Me, I come, for we are one. I AM your brother. We are One.

“And on this day, I speak with a special message, encouragement if you will, for those of you who have reached the place; and those of you who have reached the place will ‘know,’ this is for you. For I call you to come, and within you, there is a stirring, and you know it is time, for you have heard the call, and it is yours!

“And to those of you hearing these words or reading these words, you will ‘feel’ the same, the same stirring within your being; for the call has been sent forth, and it is your time. So, if you recognize the stirring within you, come, I have something to say to you.

“You have been making your way along the path. You have been seeking, when others were not interested. You have been seeking The Way, when many were amusing themselves in the play of Earth. And you have come to this place along the path, and you look out, and stretched before you, as far as you can see, is a great canyon. And you think to yourself, ‘I have faced challenges, I have reached-up to The Holy Spirit of God, and I have moved along the path; but this looks like the greatest challenge of them all. Which way do I go? How do I go? Do I climb down into the canyon and find my way across? I have made my way along the path,’ you say, ‘and it has brought me here!’

“And I say to you, My brother and sister, have faith. Have faith! As faith has led you this far, faith will lift-you-up!

“I say to you this day, at this time, where you are, go within, and find ‘all areas,’ of transgression. It is time to bless and release some more, some that are buried very deeply within you. Seek them out: all transgressions against you; all transgressions perceived by you; all transgressions perpetrated by you. Bless, and release, others. Bless, and release, yourself. Yes, even at this point, there is work to do.

“And, as you begin, one-by-one, from deep within the core of your being, blessing, releasing, forgiving, yourself, and all others, you are as the precious embryo, held within an egg, growing, growing ... the chick ... the chick that is ready, within a shell too confining, too restraining. It is time, for your emergence; but no one else can crack the shell. If you are to emerge into The Light, it must be done, by your own effort.

“So I whisper to you, and encourage you: ‘Go within, and begin chipping!’ Tap away at the shell. With each blessing, forgiving, and releasing, a crack is formed, and The Light enters. Yes, keep chipping away. That which is tiring, and possibly holds pain, is that which is strengthening your spiritual body, just as the chick breaking-out of the egg is strengthening its body for flight. Keep blessing and releasing, and you will see The Light, coming in more, and more, and more, as the shell is cracking open; and you deliver yourself unto The Light; and you free yourself of weary muscles, tired bones. And, you see!

“And I tell you, as you crack the shell away and emerge, at first, The Light is disorienting, and your spiritual body is a bit off- balance, from all the work and exercise you have done to strengthen your spiritual body. But now I tell you, it is time. And with all the blessing and releasing, the forgiving, you emerge from the shell, of your own effort, freeing yourself!

“And now, at the edge of this great canyon, we stand together. And I say to you: ‘Feel The Wind beginning to move. Rise-up child of God, ride The Breath of The Holy Spirit, into The Light, where much will be revealed to you. Soar over the canyons of Earth, and into The Light of God, in a new time, for you are borne on The Wings of The Holy Spirit. Fly on. You are strong of spirit. You are My brother, and you are My sister; and you have risen-up; and you are flying over the canyon, the challenge.’

“This day, you are rising-up, into The Light of All That Is. Fly My brother. Fly My sister. We are One.”

Be Of Great Joy, And, Let Laughter, Be The Song You Sing

“I AM with you on this day. And I bring to you thoughts of joy, and memories of laughter.

“As I walked the Earth, and grew, I so... loved... laughter! And I so... enjoyed... joyful spirits! As a child, I laughed often; as a child, I was joyful; and it filled My body, with peace, and brought Me balance and harmony.

“Therefore this day, I wish to say unto you: When you open, to joy and laughter, anger and frustration move from you. When your heart is filled with joy and laughter, a Song of Peace springs forth from the core of your being, and balance and harmony dwell within. As laughter is an elixir for the body, joy is a tonic for the soul. And together: they rejuvenate, body, soul, and spirit; and peace reigns; and balance and harmony are restored.

“On this day, and for the coming week, I ask you to open, fill your heart with joy, and let laughter be quick to spring forth from you! If you can do this, by the end of the week, you will feel healthier, of body, soul and spirit. And balance and harmony, will dwell within you, and Peace, will be The Song, that you sing.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Understand The Kingdom Of Heaven Is Within You

“Come. Sit with Me, awhile, and you will ‘feel,’ My Presence. Be quiet, and you will ‘hear’ Me. Be still, and you will ‘know,’ I AM. For I AM with you, now!

“I have a question, to ask you. I wish you to think upon it. Why, did I say unto you: ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is within you?’ I wish for you to think upon that question, over the coming week, and pray for guidance, and be open to that which comes to you, so that, from The Holy Spirit of God, you might grow, in wisdom.

“When it is your time to make the passing, it will be important, and helpful, for you to have pondered this question. It is also important for you to remember, that you are spirit. You are spirit, come to Earth, from The Kingdom of God, Heaven. You took, to yourself, a temporary form, the human being form, so that you might, exist, upon the Earth for a time: to experience, that which you are to experience; to learn, that which you are to learn; to do, that which it is you are to do. And since it is your time to be upon the Earth, it is more convenient, for you to take the shape, the form and the body, of Earth. But, primarily, first, you are spirit!

“This morning I ask you to imagine, or to vision, yourself, not as the body that you see reflected in a mirror, but vision the outline of your body, only. And then, imagine it, in a clear, crystal, vessel form. See yourself, defined, rather than, confined. See your self illuminated within this crystal vessel, rather than, constrained, by the body. And then, see, The Golden Light of God, pouring into your crystal vessel, fueling you for eternity. And see the magnificent being that you are, free-flowing, changing, forming however it is you wish to be; but all the time, holding The Radiant Glory of God within, your being. That is you.

“The Kingdom of God, The Kingdom of Heaven, is within you, and it is with you.

“When it is time for you to return home, you are not issued a ticket, to travel, far away, to another galaxy or kingdom, light years away from you. At that time, you change form. You return to spirit. And you enter the sacred tunnel that spirals the energy, sufficiently, to slip you, into The Light. And there it is you return.

“You have within you, right now, in your human being form, the capability, to change, into your spirit form. Just, as ice crystals, or a snowflake, changes to water, the water, contains the properties, necessary, to reshape, the crystal, or the snowflake. These properties are not lost, because the snowflake, or the crystal, changes form. They are maintained. And this can go back and forth. Well this day, it is important for you to remember, that within you, in your temporary, human being form: you maintain the properties, to change; you maintain the properties, of the spirit form as well.

“Understand, The Kingdom of Heaven is within you. Come. Sit with Me, and ‘feel,’ My Presence. Be quiet, and you will ‘hear,’ that which I say unto you. Be still, and ‘know,’ I AM.”

Jesus Teaches On:
You Can Deliver, The Loving Energy, And Grace, Of God

“I AM with you, to celebrate, A New Day, new opportunities. I AM with you, to walk along The Way, meeting every challenge and obstacle, with optimism, and confidence! I AM with you. And on this day, I wish to speak to you, about delivering energy.

“When you walk into a room, you deliver an energy to that space. The energy you release into that space is absorbed, in varying degrees, by the people, and the things, in the room.

“If it is your desire to do so, every time you walk into a room, you can deliver The Loving Energy, and Grace, of God. It is a matter of being cognizant, of what you are doing, what you are creating, and what you are delivering.

“Each of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, is a deliverer, and each of you is a receiver. The roles change. But today, I wish to speak to you, about delivering, the energy, into a room.

“Each of you has experienced, energies: of arrogance, pride, anger, doubt, frustration, fear. You have experienced these energies coming toward you, or emanating from, another being. Some times, you have experienced these energies, coming to you from a particular room, a room that feels heavy, sad, uninviting.

“Many of you, in fact each of you, have experienced the energies of peace, tranquility, serenity. Each of you has bathed in the energy of love. You have felt these energies, coming toward you, emanating from another being. Each of you have walked into a room, and felt, the peace, and the light, and bathed in the glory, of love. And in, these rooms, you desire to tarry; and with those, who carry this energy, you desire to remain for a while, in their presence.

“These energies, and the exchange of energy is at work, whether those involved are aware, or unaware. The energy, once created, moves.

“You have a golden opportunity to alter the energy of every room you enter. The only thing you have to do is be aware, of what you are doing, creating, delivering, and releasing, into the room. I give you a Key... before you enter any room, whisper this declaration... ‘I wish to be, a living vessel, delivering, The Loving Energy, and The Grace of God, to this room, I am about to enter, and to every person in it.’ And then you walk into the room. Just whispering this, or having the intention to do so, will accomplish the goal.

“Try it. For you will see, amazing results, as you make your way through a room, holding the desire, to be, the living vessel, delivering God’s Loving Energy, and Grace.

“It is time. And it is your time. I ask you this week to remember this: ‘If it is your desire to do so, every room you walk into, can change, when you say these words. You can deliver God’s Loving Energy, and Grace, to every room you enter. And it will change forever, those, who are in the room, and all things, that are in the room. Your presence, will be, The Light of God.’

“So today, I reach out My Hand, and I walk you to the door, and together, we prepare to go forward, living vessels, delivering, The Energy, and The Grace of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Open To The Power, And The Energy Of God, For, It Is With You

“I AM with you. Know this, I AM with you! And on this day I say unto you: ‘Open, to The Power, and The Energy, of God. For it is with you, and it will, fill you, fulfill you. It will, flow through you, onto the face of the Earth; and it will bring, onto the Earth, great Peace!’

“On this day, I give you another Key, to assist you, as you walk along The Way: ‘Before you begin each day, before you proceed with each encounter, in fact, before you do anything, with purpose, and intention, pause, be still, and open to The Power and The Energy of God.’ In this way, you are opening the door, and inviting The Power and The Energy of God to move into, that which you intend to do. It is proper, and appropriate, to do this: before you, think; before you, speak; and before you, perform, some action or deed.

“At first, it will take, practice; but if you practice, today, if you start, today, you will notice a difference: in how you think, what you do, and what you say, because you will have invited, The Power and Energy of God, into the center, of your life.

“Today, for an hour, or perhaps half a day, do this, because you will see, at the end of the day, how doing, this, has brought, peace, and joy, and light, to you, and all around you. It is in this way that you will be led, by The Power of God, in every situation.

“Be mindful, when you, ‘open,’ that you will ‘feel,’ the energy flow into the top of your head. Be mindful of this, as it is ‘an outward sign.’ Be mindful, how your thoughts words and deeds, are touched with light, and carry peace, whenever, you call upon this invitation. Be mindful, of the expressions, or the actions of those around you, when you let this energy coming from God flow from you to them. These are outward signs to mark your way. These are outward signs, of a blessed day.

“So I say unto you My brothers and My sisters, try this, invitation: ‘For today, before doing anything, set your personal thoughts aside. And with purpose and intention, whisper, within your being, ‘I open, to The Power, and The Energy, of God.’ And then, go about doing whatever it is you are thinking, doing or saying. You will see the difference. And in this way, you will bring, great peace, today, to all you encounter.

“On this day, I say unto you: ‘Open, to The Power, and The Energy, of God. For, it is with you. It will fill you, and it will fulfill you; and then it will move from you, and bring Peace, to the Earth.’”

Jesus Teaches On:

You have The Power To Alter Eternity And Create Peace

“Feel My Presence. I AM with you. Feel The Breath of Spirit, as it encircles you. Feel the Peace, I bring unto you.

“I wish you, to be, in this sacred Presence. Therefore, it is what you experience. My wish for you, My prayer for you, is My gift to you; and since it is what I desire to give to you, it is what you experience, what you feel, what you know. This sweetness that you feel right now, can bring tears, welling to the surface, streaming down your face, and washing away all things that need to be released.

“I wish to sit with you a while. And in this time, I want to share, another Key, with you...

“You see, it is within your power, to alter eternity. It is within your power, to give The Gift of Peace, to those close to you, and to those far away from you, speaking in the terms of distance in the physical realm. And there are degrees, measurements, of this gift, that is within you to give.

“I ask any of you hearing this message today, or reading this message today, to try, at least once, to use this key, I am to give to you today.

“In every encounter, every occurrence, every exchange, there is an opportunity to create energy to match a situation. There is also the opportunity, to set your ego aside, and open, to tap into, the river of energy flowing from The Creator, from Our Father.

“It is your choice. You can choose to create energy to match the situation, or you can surrender to the energy of God, and let it flow through you, so that you are the channel, the conduit, for bringing the energy of God to the situation. It is your choice. It is your option.

“I will tell you what usually happens, so you see this, in a different light. Let us say, that you...are...a parent. You have been out of your home, doing some chore. You return to the home, and open the door, to find chaos. The children are in the midst of a heated argument. The TV has been left on. There are things setting all about, that should have been put away. In general, there is disarray.

“Before you enter that room, you make a decision as to how you are going to handle this encounter. And the predominant energy of Earth right now, is that the parent would enter the house, voice raised, shouting, yelling...creating heavy, dark, verbal and physical energy. The reactions are so numerous. But you get the picture I am painting. The decision was made, and the energy created to handle the situation.

“Now those who are more intent, on creating peace, might take a deep breath, walk into the room, and attempt to be, as loving as possible, directing, changing, altering the situation. And the energy is felt, and it is different.

“There are many options, for this particular picture; but what you need to be aware of is this: ‘The power that you create, the energy that you create, moves from you, and into every object in the room.’ Your energy moves into the walls, into the floor, into the ceiling, into every person in that room. Energy, that you create to handle any situation, is living. It moves from you, and is absorbed by every thing in your presence...trees, flowers, people, food, water, walls, floors, furniture. And every one, and every thing, carries the energy of that moment. It is important that you ‘know’ this.

“There is another option. Before you walk into a situation, pray, and set everything about ‘you,’ aside, and surrender to the energy coming to you from God. Take a deep breath. And then, bring The Power of God into the room with you. Walk into that room, wearing the crown of a child of God. Walk into the room, with The Presence of God. And it will alter everything. It might take a while. Some rooms, some people, are saturated, with energies that are heavy. But I promise you, the more you bring God into the situation, the lighter it becomes. And a period of enlightenment is introduced, where there was darkness.

“The change might be gradual, and it might be immediate. You see, there are varying degrees on how you can change eternity. And it is a matter of your free will choice; because, in the end, all will come back to God, and The Power of God will cleanse all things. And all energies will be free, and released, from darkness and shadow.

“But what I am presenting to you is the opportunity to begin to change the energy of Earth, now, sooner, rather than later. And this opportunity does not stop with your immediate surroundings. The energy that you are creating moves into eternity, so at the same time you have the opportunity to alter the energy where you are, you have the opportunity to change eternity. Every minute, of every day, presents an opportunity for the children of God to bring The Kingdom of Heaven onto the Earth. It’s just been forgotten! And so, the children of God are wandering in darkness. And it need not be.

“So, I offer you today, just once, try inserting this key I have given you, into a situation, and see The Power of God. It will begin small. But the more you learn to use the key, the easier it will be to insert it. And soon, that key will be in your hand all the time, it will feel so comfortable to you. And there will come a point, where you would not choose to use any other energy, than that powerful flow of God Energy that is for you, available to you.

“So I say to you this day, I AM with you. And I AM eager to assist you in changing all eternity. I hand you the key. It is yours.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Create PEACE By Blessing Every Thought, Word, And Deed

“I AM with you. As God has created you, and The Holy Spirit of God abides within you, I AM with you.

“And on this day, this day that is one of the days beginning this New Year upon the Earth, I bring you a Key to assist you, as you move through this new year.

“I wish to speak to you, and to tell you, how you can create a day ‘of Peace,’ by blessing, every thought, word, and deed.

“You see, creating a day of Peace, by blessing every thought, word, and deed, is within your grasp. It is possible. The only requirement is that you desire to be the bringer, of Peace. And if you can create one day, perhaps you can create then a week, and a month and a year of Peace.

“The only impediment, to this continuing energy of Peace, will be your desire, to create something else. So, let us begin, with a day of Peace.

“Understand, that you create your thoughts, and once created, your thoughts ‘live.’ On this day, this day set aside for the creation of Peace, be mindful of your thoughts; and should anything begin to form within your thoughts that is not of light and love, pray. Dismiss the thought immediately before it forms. Pray. Bless whoever you are thinking about, or whatever you are thinking about. And although this might require some attention at the start, you will soon find, by midday, that it becomes easier, and easier, to check, and bless. In this Way, the thoughts that are created by you, this day, will be...blessed, and will bring...Peace.

“The same holds true for the words you speak. For the words you speak indicate what you are thinking. Therefore on this day, as it is set aside to create Peace, open yourself to The Words of God and The Holy Spirit, and speak The Words of God.

“If you are tempted to speak ill of another, stop. Check your thoughts, bless them, and ask, pray for guidance, for the words to come to you. For the words that are created by you and flow from you, move into eternity. Therefore on this day, bless every word you say, so it might be an instrument of Peace.

“And as it is with your thoughts, and your words, make sure your deeds, the actions taken this day, reflect, that which you are thinking and saying, that your actions are of kindness, compassion, support, love. In this Way, all observing you, will see The Peace of God, through what you do.

“If you will do this for one day, a wave of Peace will rise-up from you, formed of your thoughts and words and deeds, and spill over onto others around you, and into eternity. This is

The Way that Peace will be created on Earth, one child of God at a time making the determination. And as these waves of Peace rise-up, and flow into eternity, a great Peace will resound in The Hallways Of All Times.

“On this day it is possible! So let us begin with one day, by creating Peace, bringing Peace, by blessing every thought, word, and deed. It is within you to do this; and, I AM with you...

“Therefore, let us begin.”
