

THE QUIET PLACE

The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

December 27, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Not Afraid, Be Open To The Messages Of Angels, Be Open To The Will Of God

“I AM with you...today. As you prepare to end one year, and welcome another, I AM with you. I AM intensely with you. Feel the energy. It is surging, and powerful; but pleasingly peaceful, and serene. Breathe this energy into you, so that it might become a part of you. Peaceful power: it is potent and real; it is calm and confident; and, it is yours.

“There is much to be said for one who is peaceful, calm, and serene. The energy that one carries in this state is a blessing to all. Serenity comes from peacefully accepting the will of God, and going about your mission, as directed.

“My brothers and sisters, as you prepare to welcome a new year, I say, to each of you, ‘Be not afraid. Be open to the messages of angels. Be open to the will of God. Be vigilant. Be watchful for the signs, for they will surely come to you. And they will come to you in a way that is easier, and easiest, for you. Sometimes the signs come in visions, apparitions; sometimes in whispered words from the realms of angels; sometimes in feelings; most often, in dreams. No matter, how they come to you, they will surely come. Be open. Be vigilant. Be watchful. And, be ready.’

“Today, I wish to remind you of some angelic encounters, which altered the course of humanity. Everything changed, because there were those upon the Earth, willing to: hear the message; accept the message; and move, on the message; as it was delivered.

“I remind you first, of the time when the archangel Gabriel appeared, more than two thousand years ago now, to a man known as Zachariah. Zachariah was in a holy place at the time of the apparition. Still, it caught him off-guard, so powerful was the presence. He was shocked, surprised, fearful. And the archangel Gabriel said, ‘Be not afraid. I bring you good news.’ The angelic messenger, seeing the fear, immediately responded, ‘Be not afraid. I bring you good news.’

“A short time later, Gabriel appeared to a young woman, My earthly mother. And the radiance of the angelic appearance, although surprising, and certainly startling, was not the reason, this time, that Gabriel said, ‘Be not afraid.’ when he delivered the message to My mother that she was to be with child. Immediately, she wondered, how this could be. ‘How can this be?’ she said. And the angel said unto her, ‘Be not afraid.’ In other words, do not doubt. It will happen. And Mary understood that this was the message, and said, ‘Let the will of God be done.’

“Not too long after that, Joseph, My earthly father, saw the angel in a dream. And, in the dream, the words were again, ‘Be not afraid.’ But this time, there was a different connotation. This time the message meant, do not worry about public opinion. Be not afraid and take Mary into your home.

“All around the time before My birth, and after My birth, angels continued coming from God, with messages. They appeared to the shepherds, in a blaze of glory and light, making the night sky seem like the day. And the shepherds were truly filled with terror. And the message came again. ‘Be not afraid.’ This time the message meant exactly what was said. ‘Do not be filled with terror. We bring you good tidings.’

“And the angelic messages continued, in dreams the wise men were told, ‘Do not return to the king, his intentions are not good.’ The dreams continued to come to Joseph, and in them the angels gave directions, ‘Rise-up, and go here or there, rise-up, and take the mother and child here or there.’ Constant was the direction. And constant was the faith, in each of the individuals involved.

“I say to you today, if your encounter with angels happens to be the blessing of an apparition... and it might startle you... ‘Be not afraid, be open, and accept the message sent to you from God.’ If the message seems almost unbelievable in the world of matter, ‘Be not afraid.’ Because, even though it does not make sense in the world of man, it is the divine plan. Accept the message. Even if it does not fit the standard of public opinion, ‘Be not afraid.’ As it comes from God, it is a direction to you to rise-up, and move, into the new time.

“As you open, and expect, and pray for, this guidance, it will come to you... surely. Each time you will hear encouragement. And often, you will hear, ‘Be not afraid.’ And I add to that angelic song, My words, as you go into the new year. ‘Be still, and accept the message of angels. Accept the will of God, and rise-up, and walk. Be not afraid, for I AM with you. I AM always with you. Let us walk into eternity together. The times, they are definitely changing, and it is glorious. The garden will spring to life once again. And Earth will be Heaven once more.’

“Be not afraid.”

December 20, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Meet Your Obligations, And Responsibilities, In The Spirit Of Honor, And In The Light Of God

“I AM with you on this day. Upon the Earth, many are preparing to celebrate My birth. Many of you today are recognizing the fourth Sunday of the season you refer to as Advent. It marks the observation of the old times, preparing for the coming, for My birth. Today, I speak to you, of what it might have been like to be My earthly parents at that particular time...My mother, My father...of Earth.

“They had both been: communicating with angelic beings; receiving, and accepting, messages from God; acknowledging the responsibility that went with the receiving, the accepting of the mission. They were noble about what they were to do. And this nobility sprang forth from the light of God, flowing through them. And while they recognized the things of spirit which were to take place through them, they also recognized their responsibilities and their obligations to the governments of Earth. For you see, My arrival was during the time of a great census taking. And, as you can imagine, it was not a trip My parents looked forward to, to make the journey to the town where they were to report and be counted. It required effort.

“See in them, at this time, how they accepted their responsibilities and obligations. I will tell you, they did so, in a spirit of honor, knowing that it was something that they would do, and that they would do it to the best of their ability, on both counts. I am speaking of the obligation to report to a census, and the obligation, to answer to God, for bringing Me to Earth. You see, all of these things can be tied together. In the spirit of honor, you will meet your responsibilities.

“And this will make your life easier. It will not remove the obligations or responsibilities from you. But because you do what you are supposed to do, in the spirit of honor, and the light of God, you move through it, knowing it is something you are going to do. And so they began the journey, the journey that would mark My coming, upon Earth.

“They reported to the town. And there, after arriving in Bethlehem, Mary, My earthly mother, knew the time was near. The journey had brought the birth closer. It was time; she knew. She could feel the stillness in her womb. So, as they told Me, there were no words that passed between them, about what was to take place. One look from her eyes, and Joseph knew, he must find a dwelling, where they could be...at peace. This was another responsibility, an obligation met in the spirit of honor.

“There are so many stories about the few days before, and the night of My birth, and the visits from the shepherds, and the wise men, that many do not take the time to ponder, what it must have been like to be Joseph and Mary. It seemed with every step they took, something else would come up, a challenge to be met; one after another, they came.

“Joseph found the place, and Mary gave birth. And there they stayed, for a very short time, receiving the gifts, much needed, from those who were summoned by the angels, from those who followed the star of wisdom. And still, at that time, another challenge arose. There were those who would seek to destroy Me, and My parents had to depart again. Following one message after another, meeting one obstacle and challenge after another, they moved, into a new time, into a new day, taking care of Me, all along The Way.

“I say these things to you today, because, many of you hearing these words, or reading these words, are facing challenges and obstacles; whether they are the obstacles upon the Earth plane dealing with: work; family issues; government issues; or, whether they are spiritual, dealing with spiritual dilemmas, seeking the truth. No matter what you are facing, you can appreciate what My earthly parents were going through at that time, seemingly one dilemma after another. But they made it through, in the spirit of honor, and with the light of God flowing through them. And you can do the same, because you are the same.

“You came from God, and you are spirit. You are upon the Earth to accomplish a mission, just as they. And the difference, in how your mission is accomplished, can be measured, in direct proportion, to the spirit of honor, and the light of God you will carry. It is all yours. And, as you go into this new week, begin to compare what you might be facing, with what My earthly parents faced.

“Their challenges came too, one after another, just as yours. But I tell you this, ‘You will be able to meet every challenge, every responsibility. This week open to the loving energy of God. Let the light of God fill you, and then be open to what comes to you, the messages of angels, dreams of great importance. They will assist you, as you move, over the Earth. Do not shut down the communication from Heaven, for the angels will bring you the answers, God will touch you, The Holy Spirit will fill you, and you will rise-up and move.’

“Be at peace this week. Do not rely on the limited knowledge of the world of mankind. Today, open yourself, and say, ‘I am here, God. I am ready, and I am willing. Show me The Way, and I will walk in it.’

“You have a mission. You have a purpose. And it is ‘of God.’ Be not afraid, for I AM with you, always.”

December 13, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Still, And Watch For The Signs, Heed The Message, And Choose The Way

“I AM with you. I AM in your presence, now!

“Today, My brothers and sisters, I ask you to read the signs of change, all around you. In the short time you have lived upon the Earth, you have learned to read the signs, so you might ‘know,’ that which is preparing to happen.

“You look-up into the sky, and see clouds of gray. You breathe-in, and notice there is a difference about the smell in the air you are breathing, and you know, rain is on the way. You hear, in the distance, rolling thunder, and assume, it is time to take cover, for a storm is heading in your direction. You notice buds, springing forth on trees and bushes, once dormant, under a blanket of winter snow, and you say, ‘Spring is almost here.’

“You feel the warm sun on your body, and breathe in the fragrance of roses, and pronounce, ‘It is summer.’ As the leaves slowly change from verdant green to blazing colors your heart dances, at the thoughts of fall, of autumn. And, as the brilliantly colored leaves, cascade from the trees, and the temperatures drop, and the colder rains are upon you, you know it is winter. You read the signs, every day, and act accordingly, because you are schooled in them. You have learned the knowledge of Earth, from the teachers, who carry this knowledge, and record it in books, so that you might see the signs, and know.

“My brothers and sisters, I tell you, to adapt, and move freely, through the spiritual world, which is all around you right now, you must look for the signs, and heed the message. It is the same.

“The signs, regarding The Kingdom of Heaven, are with you every day, just as profoundly evident as the signs of the world, as the signs of Earth. But you must be still, and observant, or you will miss them, and The Hand of God will move on, continuing the creation story, covering the world, marking the Earth, with the signs of glory. If it is your intention to see the signs and know, then open, and watch for them, so you will grow, in The Wisdom of God.

“This week, be prepared to be touched by the presence of angels. All along The Way they will guide you, so that you might know, so that you might go, along the pathway, in confidence. God has done great things for you. And God sends messengers to you, revealing the greatness, the glory, the light. But, you must open your eyes, and your ears, and your heart to see and hear, for the messages will come to you in visions, in dreams, in answers to prayers. The answers will cascade toward you, spilling over into you, and washing through you, and you will be free of worry; doubt, will be removed.

“As I was born, some two thousand years ago, the signs were clearly evident. The stories had been written and told, and The Hand of God moved on. Wise men from foreign lands watched for the signs, and in wisdom, followed to find Me. Once they found Me, because of the signs, and the message in a dream, they saved Me.

“Shepherds on a hillside, looked-up and were not afraid, embraced the message, and found Me.

“My earthly father, destined to guide Me in the ways of living upon the Earth, accepted the signs and the dreams over and over again; the first time willing to accept Me, at what some might consider an inappropriate time. And then, following the course of dreams and miracles, he saved Me over and over again, so that the Earth might know Me better.

“Through a series of visions and dreams, My mother guarded over Me, held Me, knew Me.

“As I walked upon the Earth, I maintained communication with The Creator, asking for guidance, and accepting it, so that I might perform My mission, in The Light of God. I watched for the signs, and heeded the messages. I opened My arms to the ministering of angels, and was better for it.

“Today I ask you to open your heart; open your ears and your eyes, so that you might see the changes coming, and read the signs, so that you might walk The Way with confidence, ministered to daily by angelic beings, who will help you maintain your spiritual strength. Open your spiritual doors, in prayer and meditation, so you might hear The Words of God, flowing to you. Read the signs, so you might know The Way. Open your heart to angels. They are with you.

“My brothers and sisters, it is time to choose. It is time to awaken. Just as you read the signs of Earth, and know the way, hear Me, read the signs of God, and choose to follow The Way. It is The Way of miracles. And once you choose, you will be making the journey, over the Earth, while you are in The Kingdom of God.

“Read the signs, and you will surely know, The Way.”

December 6, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Choose, Spirit's Gifts, Open The Door, Accept The Message, And Embrace The Mission

“I AM with you. I AM with you always. Speak to Me, and I will answer you. The choice is yours, throw open the door, and embrace the gifts, or close the door.

“It is time to choose. I can assure you, that you have been given all you need to accomplish your mission upon the Earth; for God, Our Creator, would not send you forth, unprepared. There are so many things waiting for you. Miracles will happen every day. But first, you must decide to open the door to the possibilities. Once you say, ‘Yes,’ it begins.

“Opening your gifts, when the time comes, is a great joy. Hearing the guidance you need, and embracing the instructions, builds confidence. Accepting the ministering hands, and touch of the angelic beings sent to guide you along The Way, fills your time upon the Earth with wonder. These things will happen for you. But first, you must choose to allow it, to permit Spirit, into your life, in such a way, that every day is filled with miracles.

“My time upon the Earth began with many miracles, almost at every turn. When my earthly mother was visited by Gabriel, she had to: acknowledge the light; accept the message; and embrace the mission. And these things, she did; therefore, she was part of a great journey. She was able to affect the destiny of Earth, by saying, ‘Yes, God’s Will be done, through me.’

“My earthly father, the one who guided Me, showed Me the ways of the world, he too was required to choose. Angels came in dreams, delivering direction, on how to proceed. He had to accept the message, and embrace the mission...for it to happen...at all.

“It was the same for Me. I had to listen, and follow direction, and move over the Earth, with the guidance of Spirit, bringing, one step at a time, the Kingdom of God onto the Earth. My brothers and sisters, this is The Way.

“You will be the vehicle, the vessel, the instrument of God’s Will upon the Earth, only, if you will: be still, ask for direction, heed the instruction, and embrace the mission. You have gifts and talents that will make it possible. They are yours. But first, you must choose to open the door to: Spirit; the voices of angels; the touch of God; the guidance of The Holy Spirit. Once you say, ‘Yes,’ it is done. Once you accept, the signs will come to you, and all eternity will be changed, because you will be co-creating...with...God.

“This week, let it begin in earnest. Today, be still; and make it your intention to listen, so you might hear the direction and guidance.

“Open the door. Accept the message. Embrace the mission, which is yours. I give you my hand. We will walk together. There are things to do. Come, My brother. Come, My sister. It is time to choose.”

November 29, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Kingdom of God Is Within You, And It Is Within You To Do The Things of God Upon the Earth

“I AM with you on this day. Everything is, as it is. And you shall see...everything is as it is...when you embrace reality, spirit, eternal wisdom, and The Kingdom of God; for The Kingdom of God is within you; and, it is within you to do the things of God upon the Earth, so that Earth, too, will awaken, and embrace the Spirit, fully.

“I wish to repeat something to you today, something I said to those gathered around Me, as I walked upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago, something which was recorded in the history of humankind.

“As you know, it was often My practice to speak to God, Our Father. This was My lifeline. And I called for help, and direction, with great frequency. And I received instruction, and guidance, from God, daily.

“One time, when I set Myself aside to pray, and had gathered those around Me, whom I loved, they asked of Me, ‘What can we do for You, Master?’ And I looked at them, and said, ‘Who do the crowds say I AM?’ They responded, one saying, ‘Some think You are John the Baptist, returned.’ Still others amongst those gathered, replied, ‘The crowds say you are Elijah, returned. Still others believe that you are one of the ancient prophets, come back to walk amongst us.’

“Upon hearing this, I became still. No one moved. Then I said, ‘Who do you think I AM? What do you call Me?’ And Peter answered, for all gathered, ‘You are, Christ of God.’

“Hearing these words, I told them the mystery. And I said to them, very clearly, ‘The Son of Man will suffer. I will be rejected, by the elders, the priests, and the teachers of the law. I will be killed. And I will rise-up, on the third day.’

“There was not a sound amongst them, as they let the words roll into them, trying to understand them. I could feel this, and I said unto them, ‘Anyone who wants to come after Me will do the same. They will pick-up their cross, every day, to follow Me.’

“Every day, you will have the opportunity to go one way or the other. Those stuck in the laws of the old time, will not be free to walk into the new. For each day of creation, there is a new message, a new time, a new prophecy. You must be open, and have faith, that God will send you direction. Then, you must have the intention, and desire, to follow.

“Once you know this, once you embrace the truth...then you see...that if you cling to the ways of the world during your lifetime on Earth, the things the world tells you need, must have,

or do, then you will surely lose yourself. To save yourself, the being you are created to be, you must lose yourself in Me.'

"Think on that for awhile, and then pray, asking for divine guidance, for inspiration, and understanding of these words. For, it is true, if you struggle to save yourself, your earthly life, you will lose yourself, your true identity. If you lose yourself in Me, you save your identity. If you can do this, if you can live, by the direction, and instruction of God, as you walk upon the Earth, you will be free!

"At some point in the conversation, some two thousand years ago, I said to them, very simply, 'There are those standing here, now, who will not taste death, before they see The Kingdom of God.' And I left that thought with them, to see how God would teach them, each, in their own unique way. For you see, once you give-up your earthly life, your ego, and set it aside, with the full intention and desire to follow the path, as directed by The Hand of God, you move to a different beat, a different rhythm. You are not swayed by 'the things of the world.' You embrace the spirit of eternity. It is at this time, that you truly are 'in the world, but not of the world.' And, for those who accomplish this, they know, and see, The Kingdom of God, without tasting the sting of death. They know it is within them. And they know it is within them to: do the things, say the words, and create the thoughts, that will bring The Kingdom of God, more fully into place, in the third dimension of Heaven, known, as Earth.

"I speak these things to you, with the same fervor, enthusiasm, and holding the same encouragement, as I did to those, thousands of years ago, because 'now' is the time! Choose! Which way will you go?

"I will show you The Way. The Way is filled with light, and truth. But you must release that which you are holding, right now, to take My hand, and follow. It is not 'The way of the world,' it is 'The Pathway that leads you into The Kingdom of God.' And you can experience, know, and see, The Kingdom of God, now; because, it is within you! But, it requires, that you choose it, over all things!

"This day is your opportunity. I give you My hand, and I call you forth, and I say, 'Come, brother. Come, sister. Let us walk together. The time of choosing is upon you. I give you My hand. Let us walk into the new day. It is filled with light. And it is The Eternal Way into The Kingdom of God.' "

November 22, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

As The Age Turns You Come From God, And Your Mission Upon Earth Is To Speak The Words Of God, And To Bring The Love And Light Of God Onto The Earth

“I AM with you. I speak to you. And the words I speak are The Living Waters of Life. Come. Fill your cup, and drink; for, I deliver, unto you, Eternal Truth.

“The time is now! It does not happen very often, as the procession of years, and years, and years pass. But then, at a designated time, those upon Earth are called forward. And it is at these times, that you are called to pay attention, and choose. Something is about to happen. You must choose. And, My brothers and sisters, as time is kept upon the Earth, I say to you today, it is time. You must choose! And at the core of your being, ‘you know’ the choice to make.

“For many years, Earth has operated on the powerful energies of force, aggression, fear and anger. There have been wars in this and that country to resolve issues. But I ask you now, ‘Has any of this death and desolation resolved the issues?’ The answer is ‘No!’

“By aggression and force you can quiet the people, for a while. You can take over this land, or that land. In fact, it also applies to business and commerce. You can take over this company and that company. But, unless it is all resolved in peace and tranquility, and peace and harmony, it does not hold, it is not ‘true peace,’ it is ‘occupation,’ by the more powerful. It is ‘domination!’

“It is time now to make a choice. The world does not need more anger, frustration, aggression. The world needs love, and light, and peace.

“Now, many of you hearing My words, or reading My words, at this moment, feel something stirring within you. Yes, it is time; you are to rise-up! You hold the power of God, within you, and you are living upon the Earth. And bringing the energies of love and light upon the Earth, will make the necessary changes. It is time, and it is possible. But you must choose.

“It is the time of change, and it is exciting, for one age is ending, and one age is beginning. And when it is to begin, in light and love, it is a time of fulfillment. My brothers and sisters, I tell you today, you should be encouraged by these words! You are preparing The Way, for the time of fulfillment. Yes, the honor is yours!

“Now, I will tell you something that I encountered as I walked the Earth, two thousand years ago, I did meet with some dissention, and those of you who choose, to bring forth The Love and Light of God upon the Earth, will meet with some dissention too. But I will give you the answers, and will always have answers ready for you, so that your life is one of peace. From the core of your being, you will experience, a peaceful life, upon the Earth.

“As I lived the life of a human being to carry out My mission, as sent forth by God, I set aside the desire to use My own words, words of limited knowledge, the knowledge I had gained as I walked upon the Earth: to use The Words of God; to deliver the message of God; to bring forth The Light of God upon the Earth; and, to magnify The Power with Love.

“There were many times, when I would rise-up to speak, in the temple, or walking the streets of the town, when I would speak the simple man, the simple woman, would hear the words, and recognize the profound truth, and they would be moved. Others, in places of power, would often say, ‘Who is this man? What gives you the right to speak in such a way? You are the son of a carpenter.’ And I said, ‘These words I speak are not My own. I AM delivering the message of My Father. I come from The Kingdom of Heaven, and the message I deliver is eternal. You see Me. But it is the intention of God that you see, and know God, through Me, through the message, through the words I speak to you.’

“When I said these words, many did not understand. But some did. And I speak them again today, so you will understand, that this also applies to you. There will be many who try to limit you, and the possibilities, by saying, ‘Who do you think you are? You are the son of John Smith, the builder. What gives you the right to say these things?’

“At these times, your answer should be sure, because, those of you who are awakening, to pave The Way into the new time, know your true identity. You came from God, The Creator of all things, and your mission, upon this Earth, is to speak The Words of God, to bring the love and the light of God, onto the Earth.

“It is that simple. Nothing else needs to be said. They will hear and know, or turn from you and go upon their way, walking farther and farther away from The Kingdom of God. For you see, The Kingdom of God is within you. And the way you bring it upon the Earth is by proclaiming, and confirming, and affirming, the message of God, the message that you are to deliver, the way you are to deliver it.

“You see, you can use everything I said. You can do everything I did. You can be everything I AM, for I AM in you!

“This week, try, with great intention, to bring The Love and Light of God to the Earth, by everything you think, and say, and do. And if anyone questions you, or the authority that you have to say such things, stand in your resolve, in ‘the knowing,’ and say, with confidence, ‘I come from God, and my message is love.’

“My brothers and sisters, I wrap you in light. I AM with you this week. Let it begin with you, right now. Choose. Because the time of choosing...is now, and every being walking the Earth, right now, has an important mission. The time, of fulfillment, is upon you. You come from God!

“Be at peace.”

November 15, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Keep Your Lines Of Communication With The Heavenly Dimension Open, With Prayer And Meditation

“Feel My presence with you. My sisters, My brothers, feel My presence. Time is not a barrier. Place does not set you aside, or confine you. Condition is temporary and fleeting. As I come to you today, those hearing My words, or reading My words, know Me, better.

“As I speak to you, feel your feet. They will become warmer and more relaxed. As I speak to you, feel your heart. It will become warmer, and open to the possibilities of eternity. I say these things because, since there is no barrier, to each one of you I will be speaking directly, washing your feet, in the warm waters of God’s Golden Love; and, caressing your heart, implanting My Love. I will implant My Love, and as a small mustard seed, it will grow-up to be full, and rich, and abundant.

“I sit with each one of you today, just as brother talks to sister, or brother talks to brother. There come days when it is time to: be still; open; and accept. And upon the Earth right now, the time has come. If you can get yourself to a place which is peaceful and quiet, you will feel: the washing of your feet; the planting of the seed; the opening of your heart.

“Today I speak to you of simple things, because basically, what is necessary is to pray...often. In fact, your life can be a living prayer. Prayer is communication. Now, if you are to do your mission, well, it requires that you maintain the avenues of communication, and that you do so in such a way that you can communicate with those who desire to assist you all along The Way.

“I guess the best example of this would be, when upon the Earth, you send brave and noble human beings out into space, on a mission, gathering information, opening the doors for those to come...after. And those who go into space do not go alone. They are tethered to the ship, and remain ‘in communication,’ with those at home base. And when all things are working, and all systems are ‘go,’ the mission goes well. It is only in times when those on the mission are cut-off from home base that there is a feeling of doubt, fear, frustration, or worry...‘What do we do now?’ And the first thing they usually do, is try to reestablish the connection with home base, so the instructions are clear and precise, so the mission is not carried-out in worry or concern, or in simply acting and reacting.

“And this is what I say to you, My brothers and sisters, today, ‘Your establishing and maintaining communication, with your real home base, heaven, in prayer and meditation, will lead you throughout your mission upon the Earth, in a way which inspires confidence, faith, hope, and trust in others.

“Sometimes you might say, ‘Why am I going through this, God? I have, pretty much, offered You my life. Yet, these obstacles keep appearing, and reappearing, and sometimes, they seem insurmountable.’

“Well, My brothers and sisters, I say to you, that ‘At those times, when your obstacles seem like giant boulders, you are to be the example. How do you remove, go around, or climb over the obstacle? It is at those times that others are watching, closely. It is not difficult to walk through a sun-filled day, confident, when everything is going your way. What brings attention to The Glory of God is when others see you, in what they consider to be a stressful situation, and you rise-up and walk through it, as if you are walking on water, with the grace and the ease of an angelic being.’

“I do not sit with you, wash your feet and caress your heart, to tell you that your mission will always be easy. I do tell you that The Truth will always be available to you, just as it is right now. The answer to your prayer is just a call away. But I do want to say this to you, ‘Do not expect total revelation of where you are to go, and how you are to do it...all of the things that go into what might be considered more an operations or business plan, because this is just not the way it works.’ You are dealing with hundreds, and sometimes thousands, of freewill choice decisions, being made by the second, by the minute, hour or day. And this is why I say, ‘Keep the communications open; because, you will be led, step-by-step.’

“Those of you who have made a long trip, a journey, let us say in an automobile, will understand the importance of this...when you remember how comforting it was...when the driving directions were very specific. How difficult it would have been, if you looked at the directions, and the only thing from the starting point was...‘And then you’re home.’ ‘Well, how do I get there?’ You would wonder, or say aloud. And I say to you, ‘You get home, by following daily, sometimes hourly, directions; because, it is all changing.’

“Creation continues and moves, getting faster, and faster, and faster, as more, and more, and more, is created. And you are the noble being who accepted the earthly assignment to bring more light to Earth, so it can reassume its rightful place, and the veil can be lifted, and vision and clarity restored. We would not send you forth on such a mission, without very good direction and instruction.

“Learn to read the signs. And, even if you feel you should turn right; but the answer comes, ‘Go to your left,’ accept it. There could be a detour along The Way. It could be because of need, of yourself, or another. You might find it necessary to go a few extra steps, if you follow Spirit; because, when you go left, when you want to go right, you might find another in need, or in fear, or in pain. Your physical life, your mission on the freewill planet Earth, is a living board game, and nothing is stale or stagnant. Your freewill choices and those made by countless others, can, and do, affect the guidance you will receive from the heavenly dimension. Do not get frustrated that it is not clearly set before you. Have faith, and trust, that the answers are clearly set...within you.

“The most important thing you can do during your journey, during your mission upon the Earth, is to keep your lines of communication with the heavenly dimension open, with prayer and meditation. Ask daily, 'God, what is it You want me to do today?' Sometimes the answer might surprise you. Still, it is your mission. Accept it, and move. Soon, you will find that you are praying as you breathe, because every breath is a prayer. Every breath is a prayer.

"Today I have not given you a long story, or told you parables, to assist you. Today, I have told you, I AM washing your feet, caressing your heart, and planting a seed. I speak to you directly, because I can do it. And guess what? You can too! You can speak to God, directly. You can speak to Me, directly. You can speak to The Holy Spirit, directly, because we are all united, as one.

"Today, I wash your feet, and plant the seed, and hold your heart. Look. Feel it. Know it. The seed is already growing. I love you."

November 8, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Christ Of The New Age, Shall Come From Within, You

“I sit with you, right now. Feel My presence with you, as it is My intention for you to do so, so that you might know Me better. For in truth, in eternity, there is no time, all things are open, and happening now. Open your heart, so you might feel My Presence with you, now.

“It is important, this day, for you to wake-up, for you to turn-on-the- light that you carry within you, so you might see clearly, what is happening.

“Do not be fooled, or misled, or distracted, as so many were at the beginning of the age, some two thousand years ago. These people knew, they waited for the signs. But, they were misled. They assumed...how the signs would be delivered...and their thought process brought them to an erroneous assumption. So many of them missed the teachings of the new age, the new time, because they turned their heads from the simple, to embrace stacks, and stacks, of rules, and regulations, because the rules and regulations which bound them, felt more comfortable, than the freedom of truth, the freedom of simplicity, the freedom of love. They were so bound-up in their rules and regulations, in their extremely limited knowledge, that they could not release them, to embrace freedom.

“Now, we stand at the edge of a new age, a new time. And it is the same. There will be many who totally miss the message, and the messenger, because this time, the messenger will not be in the form of one delivering many, the messenger will come in the many, delivering to The One. The Christ figure of this age will be in each one who is awakened and enlightened by their will to be so. And the message, and The Words delivered, will not come from intelligence, institutions, or rules and regulations, limited by what human beings know at the time. It will be, as it was before, the message, the direction of God, will come, in The Words of God, through the lips of those who are willing to set their egos aside, recognizing that eternal wisdom is available for all, if one will but open to it.

“Release those things that have bound you, restricted you, and limited you, and awaken to the coming of the new time, taking place, within you. For within you is the eternal corridor, the pathway, the connection to The Creator of All Things. And it is through this vast corridor, into each one of you walking upon the face of the Earth, that The Word will be delivered. And those, who are willing to stand-up and speak The Word, will bring it forth into the dimension of Earth.

“This is as it should be, and as prophesied, ‘They will all be taught by God.’ And to ensure that this is the case, The Holy Spirit will fill each one of you. This Way ensures that each person understands, from the core of their being. It is time for the enlightened ones to rise-up, and deliver the message, ‘Earth is Heaven, a piece of Heaven which will be restored, because it cannot be stopped, it has begun. Therefore, those, who are ready to walk into The Kingdom of God, rise-up, it is time!’

“I tell you these things to assist you. If you are not lifting-up, you are being lifted-up. And you feel lighter and happier, when you are lifting-up. When you are being lifted-up, as strange as it might seem, you feel heavy. It is within each one of you to lift-up. And you get to this stage by understanding energies, and how they work.

“Some of you might say to Me, ‘Well, Jesus, if we are so misled, how do we know which energies to work with?’ And I say this to you, so you will always know, because you are always choosing which energy to work with, even if it is a thought process, or making a simple statement, or performing an action, or a task, or a chore you perform all the time. ‘You have a choice about which energy you are going to use to complete the thought, the word, the chore, the task. Now, if you choose to work with certain energies which tend to have a heavier vibration, a slower vibration, you will get tired, worn-out, sometimes exhausted, because that particular energy, by its very nature...feeds on you, the energy drains you. But then again, if you select the energies which have a higher vibration, joyful energies, energies filled with light, you feel lighter, and happier, about the thought, the word, the chore, the task, because in this particular situation, it is the characteristic of that energy...to feed you. The slower energies, feed upon you, and the energies vibrating at a higher rate, feed you.’ I do not need to explain to you how it might feel, experiencing one and then the other. So, you will always know, from this day forward, which energy you have selected to use. It is your freewill choice. But it is time for you to act in such a way, as to let all know that you have this basic knowledge, this wisdom of eternity, ‘I know The Light; therefore, I choose The Light.’ And you will ‘know,’ those who know The Light, because they will be joyful, and happy, and filled with The Light.

“I say to you, to each of you, whether you are hearing My words, or reading My words, ‘From you...will come the next Christ figure...It comes, from within you.’

“It is time. And you are ready. To those of you compelled to rise-up and follow Me into the new day, the new time, I say, ‘I AM walking with you. The only command is love. That is it.’

“As you are called, so you shall call others. It is time for you to call-out to all who will hear your words, filling the Earth with the promise of fulfillment. It is time for you to say, ‘Come, rise-up, and walk with me.’

“Say these words, know these words, for they are now yours to say, ‘I am the resurrection. I am the life. I am The Way.’ Let God’s Love, and Light, and Power propel you, into the new time, bringing forth The Will of God, so that the veil is lifted, and Earth is restored, as The Garden, in Heaven, it was intended to be.

“Now that you know, use the energies of Light, so that you might be fed manna of Heaven, and lift-up all those who come to you, for you truly are the life, of the new time. It has been written on your heart. If you are upon the Earth at this time, it is yours to do. The messenger comes, from within you. Rise-up and follow, it is time. Come. We are the resurrection. We are the life. We are The Way. Let it begin, anew, today. Come.”

November 1, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Spirit Is Life, And My Words Are (Of Spirit) Life

“I AM with you, right now, in the present, I AM with you. And if you will be still, and feel the air around you, you will know I AM with you. What you feel is My love for you. What you feel is Spirit. And as I breathe upon you, The Breath of Spirit fills you with life. For, you are dead, holding no life, until The Breath of Spirit fills you.

“I speak to you today, so that you might understand what it is to live. There is no life without Spirit, for you are first, foremost, and eternally Spirit. And it is a full and engaging life, filled with endless possibilities, wonders, delights.

“Right now, each one of you reading, or hearing My words, is engaged in a mission. The mission is your choosing. Some of you find yourselves on a mission of service, service to your brothers and sisters, service to God, most assuredly.

“If you are numbered among those who are occupied in such a way as to provide service to others, accept this blessing fully, and embrace it, as there is no more noble calling than to be one who serves. For, the one who serves is lifted-up. For the one who serves must have something to give, to offer. You would not be the provider, or the server, unless there was something within you, of value to give. Your mission is noble.

“You might say, ‘Well, here I am, occupying a place of service to others. What do I have to give, really?’ So I say this to you today, because it is important to all, but most especially to those of you who are in occupations of service to others. ‘You have the gift of life to give, life more fulfilling, life rich, true life.’

“The words I speak to you today are Spirit, inspired by, and created of Spirit. The words I speak to you today are life. As I speak these words, of Spirit, to you, they give you life. And this is how you minister to those in your care, speaking...the words of Spirit, and delivering...life.

“If you question this, or do not fully understand what I AM saying to you, I speak of the importance of Spirit, the importance of comprehending that the body does not live without Spirit.

“It takes just one example, that if you have not experienced, you have at least seen, or read about. I want you to envision this. Two people fall in love. It is a love in which both are open and receptive to the feelings coming from the other. When two people fall in love, they speak words to each other that are filled with the emotion of love. The words are of Spirit, delivering life. They have thoughts of each other, about love, intense, powerful thoughts, and feelings. And those feelings moving from one to the other is Spirit, the power of Spirit, delivering life.

“These two people, the examples for today, after experiencing this exchange of loving words of Spirit, and thoughts and feelings, are altered physically. They look happy. Their walk is no longer slow and burdened, but has a spring to it. They look younger. They feel better. And people say, ‘Oh, they look that way, because they are in love.’ I say to you, they look that way, because they are...in Spirit. Life has been delivered to them. It is the life of Spirit. This is how it works. Understand this. If you can remember, recall your own feelings, or have seen it in another, you will know it is a physical alteration, because of the living word. And it is powerful, more powerful than any medication upon the Earth, because it delivers true life. And true life is Spirit. The body will fade away, will pass away, but Spirit exists eternally and forever.

“You might recognize what I AM saying to you, to some degree, some of you lesser, some of you more fully, because of your own experiences. You can also add to this, that if one of these two people is ‘in love,’ but the other does not welcome, or is not open to, the love, it does not have the same result. It is the same with you and God, with you and Me. If you are not open, you do not get the full benefit, of the living word. I can whisper it to you. I can settle the concept within you. The message is delivered in a myriad of ways, but if you are not open to it, the life carried within the words, within the Spirit, does not fill you.

“So I say to you today, be open to the love of God, for it is flowing to you. Be open to My love, as it is coming to you. Be open to the guidance of The Holy Spirit. And once you are in this relationship with God, you can bring the miraculous gift of true life to all you touch, depending on their degree of openness to you, you will deliver abundance of life. Those of you who are serving others, once you open fully and embrace the love of God, in your altered state, you can pass your gift to others.

“This is how it begins, one, to one, to one. And it does not take long before an entire area is touched, and brought to life, resurrected by the living word. This is the power. This is the secret. This is the connection to God. Serve ample portions of the living word, and you will grow, and you will live, and all around you will spring to life. The Garden of Eden will be reborn, and resurrected, within you, and live, all around you.

“My words are Spirit, and Spirit is life.”

“I place My hand upon your shoulder, and from it you draw My strength. I AM with you, know this. You are not alone, know this. Know this, and be at peace. Know this, and enjoy your time upon the Earth. Know this, and be in The Light of God.

“The things I say to you this morning, I say briefly so you might hold on to these thoughts, these truths, and carry them into the week with you, remembering them in their simplicity. For I tell you, ‘The Kingdom of God is at hand. The Kingdom of God is near to you. The Kingdom of God, My brothers and sisters, is yours.’

“My destiny was to fulfill the prophecies. And this I did. But what was expected in the fulfillment of prophecy, many did not comprehend, understand, or recognize, when it was fulfilled in their time.

“With My coming upon the Earth, I brought The Secret, The Way to conquer all enemies, to sit upon the throne, to know the ways of God. For hundreds, and hundreds, and hundreds of years the ‘chosen ones,’ chose war, many times. And, it was quite obvious, and is quite obvious, and will always be quite obvious: that war never settles anything; that fighting does not resolve the issues; that discord does not bring peace. The only way to put your foot upon the enemy’s head is to be at peace, and to refuse war, and give only love. There cannot be a fight, or a war, or discord, without two parties. It takes more than one. I brought all the answers from God, speaking the words from God. They did not recognize the answers, the words, because they were so far from God.

“I came. I fulfilled. And the old way, the old covenant, was accomplished, done. And in My presence upon the cross, and in the rising-up, the key was turned, opening the gate to a new time. And I said unto them, ‘I AM The Way. Come, follow Me.’ for any could walk through that gate, leaving destruction behind, walking into balance, and harmony, and peace, with love as the new covenant. Remember this, love is The Way. The old ways do not bring peace. I brought you the truth, I brought you The Way, walk in it.

“Do not waste your time storing-up treasures on Earth, as Earth will pass away, and the treasures will become encrusted with rust, tarnished, some treasures torn apart, some stolen, hidden. They will be scattered on the wind. They are a distraction. The Kingdom of God is waiting for you, and it is all about love.

“I say unto you, this will mark those who love Me, that they love their brothers and sisters. Love, as I love you. Serve; do not seek to be served. Love; do not seek to be loved. Give; do not seek to be given to. For each time you serve, is a light. Each time you love, another light is ignited. Your place of glory within The Kingdom of God is real. It is eternal. Waste not your time on storing-up illusionary treasures. Be still, and accept the gift of eternal treasure, which is life with God, The Creator of all things. I say unto you, this most important thing, ‘Love each other, the way I love you. It is the only way. It is the truth. And within this love, is real life.’

“The gate is thrown open. The Light will illuminate the path. I AM The Way, I AM the truth, and I AM the life. Come. Turn away from illusion, and walk into The Light, and the eternal truth of your Creator. Walk into your eternal heritage; for it is at hand; it is near. Once you turn and walk into The Light, Heaven will be with you, for Heaven is in you.

“Be at peace.”

October 25, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Love Those Who Do Not Love You, Follow Me Along The Way Into The Kingdom Of God, Today

“Feel My presence with you: it is My intention that you recognize the energy around you is slightly different; it is gentle, yet powerful; it is confident, yet open and loving; it is My presence with you. Feel the difference, and know, so that you will always know, and feel Me.

“You see, you can feel me, now, because in eternity, there is no time; nothing is impossible; all things are possible in eternity. And, at the core of your being, exists: the eternal one that is you; the eternal one that is My brother, or sister; the eternal one that is of God, from God, carrying DNA of The Eternal Parent, God. Knowing this changes all things. Knowing this brings a sense of wellbeing, and trust, and faith that what is not working-out right now, will be worked-out. It is the Divine Plan. Those who “know,” are patient to let it work-out, as it is intended to work-out.

“The atmosphere to make this possible, to make all things come together, is the atmosphere ‘of love, unconditional love.’ For when there is the atmosphere of love, there is no fear, there is only trust, that there will always be love.

“Therefore today, My brothers and sisters, as I was sent forth, I send you forth, with this anthem. It is not enough to love those who are kind, and sweet and gentle, and loving to you. For that is actually...worldly. Who would not love someone who is kind, and sweet, and gentle? It does not require much. But what I am asking you to do this week, requires an intention and a desire to bring about The Kingdom of God upon the Earth...now...in the present time. And this is possible, by going forth this day, with the intention to love beyond the measure, or the comprehension, of the world. For this will mark you. This will set you apart. This will make a peacemaker.

“I send you forth to go into this week: to love those who mock you; to love those who betray you; to love those who spit upon you and curse you; to love those who would kill you. I send you forth to love those most difficult to love. Because, if you will do this, you will stop: the mockery, the cursing, the hatred, the anger. You will stop it all. It requires only, the desire to do so, to be the first.

“Be the first, to extend your hand to those who would not do so to you. Be the first, to invite to your table those who would not invite you. Be the first, to offer all that you have to those who would deny you. For this is the sign, this is The Way.

“I send you forth, this day, to be the light of the world. I send you forth, this day, to walk upon the Earth, in such a way, that all those you pass, will turn their heads and say, ‘There is the holy one, the one of God, the one who is awakened, the one who is enlightened. Let us go with him/her. Let us follow, into the light of a new time, a new day. Let us all follow The Way.’

“I send you forth, as I was sent forth, and within you is The Power of God. Be undaunted. Do not be fearful. My eternal brothers and sisters, it is time, and you are ready. Rise-up. I give you My hand. Take it, and follow Me...into The Kingdom of God...today.”

October 18, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Kingdom Of God Is At Hand, It Is Near To You, It Is Yours

“Feel My presence with you, now.

“I place My hand upon your shoulder, and from it you draw My strength. I AM with you, know this. You are not alone, know this. Know this, and be at peace. Know this, and enjoy your time upon the Earth. Know this, and be in The Light of God.

“The things I say to you this morning, I say briefly so you might hold on to these thoughts, these truths, and carry them into the week with you, remembering them in their simplicity. For I tell you, ‘The Kingdom of God is at hand. The Kingdom of God is near to you. The Kingdom of God, My brothers and sisters, is yours.’

“My destiny was to fulfill the prophecies. And this I did. But what was expected in the fulfillment of prophecy, many did not comprehend, understand, or recognize, when it was fulfilled in their time.

“With My coming upon the Earth, I brought The Secret, The Way to conquer all enemies, to sit upon the throne, to know the ways of God. For hundreds, and hundreds, and hundreds of years the ‘chosen ones,’ chose war, many times. And, it was quite obvious, and is quite obvious, and will always be quite obvious: that war never settles anything; that fighting does not resolve the issues; that discord does not bring peace. The only way to put your foot upon the enemy’s head is to be at peace, and to refuse war, and give only love. There cannot be a fight, or a war, or discord, without two parties. It takes more than one. I brought all the answers from God, speaking the words from God. They did not recognize the answers, the words, because they were so far from God.

“I came. I fulfilled. And the old way, the old covenant, was accomplished, done. And in My presence upon the cross, and in the rising-up, the key was turned, opening the gate to a new time. And I said unto them, ‘I AM The Way. Come, follow Me.’ for any could walk through that gate, leaving destruction behind, walking into balance, and harmony, and peace, with love as the new covenant. Remember this, love is The Way. The old ways do not bring peace. I brought you the truth, I brought you The Way, walk in it.

“Do not waste your time storing-up treasures on Earth, as Earth will pass away, and the treasures will become encrusted with rust, tarnished, some treasures torn apart, some stolen, hidden. They will be scattered on the wind. They are a distraction. The Kingdom of God is waiting for you, and it is all about love.

“I say unto you, this will mark those who love Me, that they love their brothers and sisters. Love, as I love you. Serve; do not seek to be served. Love; do not seek to be loved. Give; do not seek to be given to. For each time you serve, is a light. Each time you love, another light is ignited. Your place of glory within The Kingdom of God is real. It is eternal. Waste not your time on storing-up illusionary treasures. Be still, and accept the gift of eternal treasure, which is life with God, The Creator of all things. I say unto you, this most important thing, 'Love each other, the way I love you. It is the only way. It is the truth. And within this love, is real life.'

"The gate is thrown open. The Light will illuminate the path. I AM The Way, I AM the truth, and I AM the life. Come. Turn away from illusion, and walk into The Light, and the eternal truth of your Creator. Walk into your eternal heritage; for it is at hand; it is near. Once you turn and walk into The Light, Heaven will be with you, for Heaven is in you.

"Be at peace."

October 11, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
You Are The Light Of The World

“I AM with you. We are one. Feel My presence with you, as this day has begun. And it will be a day of great joy, and peace, and light. For, as I sit with you . . . I say to each of you . . . ‘You are the light of the world!’

“Before your body was formed, God gave you the light of life, eternal life, and this light will remain with you forever, as it is forever yours. The light, you carry, at the core of your being, can be diminished by denial, by refusal, by the act of ignoring it. Yes, it can be dimmed by you; but, it cannot be extinguished, for it is a piece of God!

“You carry the light. Each person, inhabiting the planet of Earth, carries the light of God. And when each individual makes the freewill choice to call forth the light, in its full glory, Earth will be: a ball of light, showing The Way; returned to its rightful place; no longer in shadow, or darkness. But it requires each individual piece to be ignited fully. And this will be your choice.

“The Time of Great Light, a period of enlightenment, will settle over all the Earth: when each individual decides to call forth the light of God, and let it shine, as it is intended to shine; when each individual makes the choice, to bring forth the light of God, into the dimension of Earth.

“It is a great honor to be assigned a mission upon Earth. And you do God an honor, by calling forth the light, by bearing the light, by holding the light. Your gift to God is bringing forth the light. But it is your choice.

“Most of you are aware that a lamp, or another fixture for lighting, can sit in a room, and the room can be totally dark, until a switch is turned-on, and the light receives the power of electricity. And then, the light illuminates the darkness. This is exactly how it works with the light that you carry within. For you are filled with energy. Energy is flowing through you all the time. When you choose to open to the energy of God, fully, turning from darkness and shadow, and choosing to do the will of God, by calling forth the light, it is like turning-on the switch in a darkened room.

“This week, think of yourself, as the light. Know that one person does make a difference. See: that even in a dark room, one candle brings forth the light; one switch turns on a lamp, and the light, coming from the lamp, moves through the room, and the room is no longer in darkness. Everywhere you go, you carry the light of God.

“I said these things as I walked the Earth two thousand years ago, and I repeat them today, as I AM the light of the world, My brothers and sisters, I say also, ‘You are the light of the world.’ (NIV Matthew 5:14) And when each of you remembers this, and calls forth the light at the core of your being, Earth will be illuminated.

“It is possible. All you have to do is to call forth the light of God, and let it flow through you, into the dimension of Earth.

“You are the light of the world.”

October 4, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The House Of God Shall Be A House Of Prayer For All Nations: Prayer Churches, Oneness, Faith, And Forgiveness

“I AM with you this morning. I sit with you, and we are together. I know you. Remember Me. I touch you. Reach-out to Me. I call to you ... hear Me ... we are one.

“When I walked upon the Earth, more than two thousand years ago, I often quoted passages from the Old Testament, from the old ways, from the old books. It was My heritage and contained words to live by at that time. It was what was recorded for others to read, and know.

“It is written in the Old Testament, and I spoke the words, which are also recorded in the New Testament, something God wanted known, ‘My house will be a house of prayer for all nations.’ Simply stated, encompassing all the people of Earth. This is God’s idea of what a church is to be, if it is to be The House of God, a house of prayer for all nations, coming together, as one, with belief, and faith, in God.

“When you pray to God, it does not have to be lengthy, going over and over the issues, and situations, which have created this reason for prayer; because God ‘knows, what you need; it is not necessary to set your perspective of what happened before God.

“What is desirable, and good, is to pause and pray, call on our Father and say, ‘Thank you!’ Make it simple. And, when you pray, pray as if it is already yours. I say unto you, if you have the faith, and know, that which you ask for will be given unto you, you also have the wisdom, within you, to know, what is appropriate to ask for. So, approach this communication with God, your Father, with reverence. Ask, and it shall be given unto you.

“When you are in need, with faith and confidence, state what it is you need, and then go about your way, knowing that God will take care of you. And when you find yourself in need, and enter into prayerful communication with God, make sure that you are clean, that you have forgiven all things, all trespasses, all debts. For, it is important that you do not ask God for something, on the one hand, yet on the other hand, deny others that which they seek from you. Let us say, simply, appropriate prayer requires a good faith effort on your part, much like washing your hands, before you sit at the banquet table; in other words, forgive all things, before you go to God on your own behalf.

“This morning, I have said unto you three things: first, that ‘The house of God will be a house of prayer, open to all people, united as one body;’ second, I have said unto you, ‘When you pray, pray with faith, knowing that what you ask, will be given to you;’ and, third, I have said unto you, ‘Do not ask, if you are denying others.’

“These three things are very important, and they go together, whether it seems that way or not. In fact, they are tied together in The Lord’s Prayer, the Our Father, the prayer I have given you to say. For, the unity, of all the children, of Earth, is stated simply with 'Our Father.' The prayers, asking for what you need, are represented in the words, 'Give us this day our daily bread.' And the part about forgiving, all trespasses and debts, is stated clearly, 'Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.'

"I say these things to you, because we are all one, united in God. Whether you pray in one way or another, whether you home is in the northern hemisphere, or in the southern hemisphere, we are all united as one.

"This week, when you stop to pray, be still, and encompass all things, all people, feel that, and know it, because it is so. This week when you pray, leave out all of the reasons, the excuses, the acts that went together to create the situation, and simply say: 'Father, give us this day, peace;' or, 'Father, give us this day, our daily bread;' or, 'Father, give us this day, love.' Every situation, actually, can be prayed upon, or about, with very few words. Reduce the situation to the real need, and then say it, as if you know, and have faith, that it will be given unto you. Forgive all things, all people, so that your hands are clean, when you raise-them-up in prayer.

"Think upon this, this week. It will assist you in knowing how to sit with God, the Creator of all things, your Parent.

"Be at peace."

September 27, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Free Of Judgment, Forgive All Things In Love, Forgive All Things And Live

“I AM amongst you. I AM present, with you. Be still, and feel My Presence, as I AM here...now. And this day, I speak briefly to you, in answer to so many prayers, prayers calling-out, in hope, and trust, to be relieved, of the energy, of judgment. And My brothers and sisters, with the greatest love that I can send to you, I tell you how to do this.

“Judgment is an energy, a temptation, which can become an aspect of your personality, through the process of freewill choices. Judgment is not an affliction, it is a temptation. And it is possible, through desire and constant practice, to turn from temptation, and embrace light. It is possible; but, it requires practice. Once you understand that engaging in the temptation of judgment inhibits your forward progress along The Way, you will be more eager to practice turning from it. You see, the goal is to be in the free-flowing love of God, constantly, to be communicating with The Creator, constantly, so that you become the hands, and the eyes, and the feet, and the tongue of God, upon the Earth, blessing all things, seeing the possibilities, understanding creation.

“When you engage in judgment, it hinders your progress, your communication with God, your mission; because, you cannot be engaged in communication with The Creator, and beings of great light, while you are entertaining aspects of another's situation, or an event. You are giving time and space to the energy of others or other things, so you are distracted from your goal. Understand that judgment is something that you elect to do. When you really put your effort into it, you will realize, that the temptation of judgment, although with you constantly, especially on Earth, is a choice. And when you begin to practice rejecting that temptation, you will realize that you have an amazing communication with God, and beings of light. You will be walking, more fully, in love. And you will be living to the fullest; because, you will not be in another's space and time, you will be in your own space and time. You will be living, your present moment, in The Light of God. And this is your gift to God. God gives you the opportunity, and you turn from the temptation, and walk into The Light.

“This, My brothers and sisters, is the key. And so many of you call-out each day, ‘Please help me rid myself of this judgment, it is keeping me down.’ You call-out, because you recognize, at the core of your being, it is an impediment; it is not serving you well at all.

“So today, I say unto you, pay attention to your own situation. Do not be tempted to go into another's energy. Speak to God. Open to God. Communicate with the beings, of the Heavenly Dimension. Walk the Earth, connected to God, and you will be less tempted by judgment.

“Judgment hinders your progress along The Way, because it takes from you energy, and time. You cannot be efficient in what you are doing, if you are concentrating on another's situation using the energy of judgment. Spend your time blessing and delivering The Love and The Light of God. Some of you are blessed with the gift of power, which means that you can magnify greatly, that which is sent to you, to bless the Earth more completely, more fully. Some of you are blessed with many other gifts, such as love. Add to your mission, using your gift(s). Reject the temptation of judgment. It is an inhibitor. It is a temptation.

“As you walk through this week, remember to be efficient. Communicate with God. Reject the temptation of judgment. Forgive all things in love. Forgive all things, and live.”

September 20, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

I AM The Way, If You Believe In Me, You Will Rise-Up, And Live In The Light Of God

“I AM with you. Feel My Presence, now, with you. I AM with you as surely as I was with those who accompanied Me, and gathered around Me, some two thousand years ago. And, The Holy Spirit of God has been poured forth upon you. The Holy Spirit of God is presently with you. Feel Our Presence, and know Us!

“I say unto you, there are many, many people, who read the accounts of My life, who call Me Master, and Lord, who do not know Me at all. They speak the words. They tell the stories. But they are only words, and only stories; for, they do not know Me. You cannot know Me, if there is one who is hungry, and you do not feed them. You cannot know Me, if there is one who is without clothing, and you do not clothe them. You cannot know Me, and deny your brothers and sisters: kindness, or generosity, or love. Because what you do unto the least of these, you do, unto Me.

“For you see, this is how the world will know the enlightened ones of God. The followers of The Way do not curse each other, they bless each other. They do not deny each other, they feed, and give drink, and clothe each other. Those who follow The Way do not worry. They are not fearful. They do not speak of their concerns. They do not live in chaos. The followers of The Way ask God, and receive. The followers of The Way seek, and know. This is the outward sign of the enlightened children of God.

“If you know Me, if you are filled with The Holy Spirit of God, if you carry The Light without shadow or darkness covering it, you will know The Way.

“It is all there, within you. But you must rid yourselves of shadow and darkness, so your light is bright, so you can hear clearly, so you can see. Once you are able to ask God, and hear, and know, then you will be truly awakened. For without knowing, and seeing, and hearing in The Light, in The Eternal Light, you are as the dead. True life, springs forth, from The Light of God that is, within you. Know this. For this is why I said, ‘I AM The Way, The Truth, and The Life. I AM The Life. I AM The Light of the world.’ And: ‘we are one. I AM in you, and you are in Me.’

“Wake from the dead, and live in The Light. Once this awakening takes place, and you are enlightened, and following The Way, do not be tempted to judgment. If any speak to you of judgment, close your ears, and turn your eyes from them, so that you will not be tempted. Do not judge; for, in the judging of another, you are creating your own judgment; for as you judge, the tongue of judgment is in your head.

“These things I say unto you, because it is time. It is time to quit reading words and speaking words you do not believe. If you believe ... in Me ... rise-up from the dead ... and live in The Light of God. For I say to you this day, there is no reason to worry, fear, doubt, or to live in chaos or confusion. And, if that is the case, it is a sign that you are living in shadow or darkness. For The Hand of God takes care of the birds, and the flowers, and the trees, and The Hand of God will take care of you. If you will hear, and see, and know the truth, the truth will set you free. Rise-up from the dead, and live, in The Light...of God.”

September 13, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Let Go And Get Into The Flow Of Living Waters

“I AM with you. Breathe deeply. I AM with you. In the present time...now... I AM ... with you!

“The present is where the action is. You live, and it is the present time, of all that is. You live, and it is the present piece, of eternity. But many upon the Earth do not live at all; they exist: in fear, and doubt, worry, concerns about this, or that, or the other; trembling from things that happened in the past; dreading the future; totally missing the present, and all the gifts it holds.

“The soothing balm of the present is peace. It is yours. If you will breathe deeply, and feel the current around you, being still and quiet, you will experience the present.

“Very few, who exist upon Earth, experience the peace, you just felt; yet, it is available to all.

“Today, I wish to speak to you about the importance, of letting go, of getting in the flow. Often, when you see a river, or a stream, a body of moving water, you are drawn to it, innately, you are drawn to it, whether it is your eyes, gazing upon it, whether it is the desire to sit next to it, or possibly, to jump into to it, to swim, to play. No matter what compels you, you are drawn to the river. Often, societies have proclaimed that “...along the river banks. That’s the place to set-up camp!” Cities built alongside rivers seem to thrive. It is a life giving force. And from ancient times, this feeling remains within you, the understanding, the importance, of free-flowing water. So you are drawn to it. You eat the fish from it. You play in it. The water from it sustains you when you are thirsty, and is used to water the crops to feed you. The creatures of the Earth, the blessed animals, seek it out. It is a place representing life...living waters. Yet, most drawn to the living waters are content: to stick their toe in, it feels good; to watch it moving by, how interesting; to take food from it, and to taste the fish; or, to use the water to nourish the garden, and make it grow.

“But I say to you today, rather than existing from that which the river provides, why not try living within the river. Let go, and let the river carry you, experiencing every bank, every shore, every rock and different current, moving with the fish. Today I ask you to consider, getting off the bank, and getting into the river. It will carry you where you need to go. You have existed from the riches of the river. Now, it is time to live within the river.

“It is possible. The invitation is open. It is there. All you have to do is let go, and get into the flow.

“Be at peace.”

September 6, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Baptized By The Holy Spirit, Being Taught By God

“Feel My Presence; for I AM walking with you. If you will be still, you will feel My Presence with you. It must be this way, because ... I AM ... with you!

“Breathe in, slowly, filling yourself, with life, and you will know, I AM, with you.

“In physical form, I walked the Earth, some two thousand years ago. And those I gathered unto Me, knew Me. They felt My Presence with them. They knew God, and The Power of God, through Me: they saw the miracles; they ate from My hand; and they were comforted in My arms. And, because of these things, they believed in Me.

“I say to you, this day, ‘You are more blessed than they, for you believe: without seeing a physical form; without eating from My hand, passing you the bread and the cup. You believe in Me, and you are comforted in Me. You do not see My physical form; yet, you believe.

“No one can tell you to believe, and it be so, because, belief springs from the core of your being, the place where you go, when you are still. And, it is there, in that light, in that piece of God that you are, eternally, that we have recognition, understanding, love. It is your ability to contact this center, this core of your being, which is the doorway to believing. It is a gift. And it requires that you do something to accept the gift, given to you, by The Hand of God.

“Those who knew Me, were baptized by John. They were baptized in water, as an outward sign, saying, ‘I believe.’ Baptism is an outward sign of faith, someone’s faith. Whether you step to the place of baptism on your accord, moved by your own power, or whether another carries you there, you arrive at the place of baptism through faith, either your faith, or another’s faith. Yet, when you are baptized by The Holy Spirit of God, there is a power that pours into you, that is eternal. It brings to you...inner strength...it is another step along The Way.

“Baptism by The Holy Spirit is: a badge; a reward; another level...of believing. It gives you the ability to move-out into the world, with confidence, knowing, at the core of your being, that God is with you. And although this is amazing, when it is pondered, and considered, and finally known, there is yet something grander which comes to you. And that is: the ability to move with confidence; being led, by The Holy Spirit of God; being taught by God!

“Concerns, worries, doubts, and fears fall away from you, the day you awaken to the truth, and know, you can be led by God. It requires only, that you be still, and ask. And then, riding on The Wings of The Holy Spirit, move in that direction, with confidence. One day your direction might be to go to the right, the next, it might be, to turn to the left. One day it might be stop, be still. The next day, it could be, move forward with enthusiasm.

“You see, The Way, is never boring or dull. It is a glorious adventure, a journey directed by God. And it is yours. It is within you. All you have to do is accept, and follow. It is so simple, that many feel it must be made more difficult. The temptation is to think it must be harder than this. How can it be so simple?

“It requires surrender. It requires an inner stillness. It requires faith. It requires believing, without seeing, the physical form. And it is all, within you.

“There is no better preparation, for walking into the world every day, than slipping on the coat of confidence, passed to you on The Breath of The Holy Spirit of God. No matter how many degrees you might carry, from the institutions of higher learning created by man, no matter how many hours you have spent toiling, preparing for the task at hand, it all pales, in comparison, to the preparation, of simply being still, and asking ... God. For in this way, you have eternal guidance. It is not the fleeting ‘knowledge,’ of man. It is the eternal ‘wisdom,’ of God. And it is all, within you!

“As I sent forth those around Me, some two thousand years ago, I send you forth today. And I ask you to try, one hour at a time, moving over the Earth, riding The Breath of The Holy Spirit of God. It is a ride of joy. It is a ride of peace. And it is a ride of love. Go forth ... and ride ... The Wind.”

August 30, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Accept Your Heritage, Living Waters Flow From God, Our Father

“I AM with you. I AM with you, on this day, to speak words, to assist you in walking through the week set before you. For, when you awaken to the reality, and embrace your heritage, your walk upon the Earth will be altered. It will no longer be the same. Any chore, any task, any work, or play, or fun, you experience, will no longer be the same, because you will ‘know.’

“You will remember, and you will know, who you are, and that which propels you, through your day, will be The Breath of The Holy Spirit. And you will accept the wisdom, and the love, and the power, and the gifts, flowing to you, and within you, in such a way, that they will flow from you, blessing Earth.

“These words are simple. These words are the truth. Yet, it is difficult for many of you to accept. But, as I said many times, when I was walking in a physical body upon the Earth, ‘God is My Father, and your Father, My God, and your God.’

“Take a few minutes, and really hear The Word, as I did not say this lightly, or without purpose. And so it is, that I ask you to repeat these words, through the coming days, over, and over, and over again...

“God is my Father, my Mother, my Creator!

“I ask you to do this, because, in this way, the message will soak into you. Every time you say it, you bring the truth more firmly into the earthly dimension with you. And My brothers and sisters, it is time for you to ‘awaken to this truth;’ because, this truth, will make your walk upon the Earth, a delightful journey.

“Further, I say this unto you, ‘Just as the living waters flowed from within Me, and flow from within Me in the present, living waters flow into, and through you!’ Take a few moments to embrace this truth.

“For all those who thirst, I call unto Me, and the waters flowing within Me, and from within Me, will be poured-out upon you, so that you too, might be filled, and satisfied, thirsty no more. This I will always do. But what I wish for you to understand is, the living waters flow to you, too. You too have the ability to thirst no more. You too have the ability to shower upon others, the living waters.

“Living waters, eternal life. It is all, within you.

“If you will sit quietly today, and begin every day, for the rest of this week, acknowledging your heritage, as a child of God, embracing the gifts that are yours, by your birthright, and being filled to overflowing with the living waters, miracles will happen all around you! For just as the living waters flow through Me, they flow through you. Feel their presence, living waters...the bloodline, from your spiritual parent. Let the living waters flow through you. Let the living waters flow from within you, onto the Earth.

“Be at peace.”

August 23, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Come, Follow Me In The Way Of Love

“I AM with you. I AM with you today, not exactly as I was with those I gathered unto Me some two thousand years ago; but I assure you, I AM, profoundly, with you.

“Today, My brothers and sisters, My words to you will be brief. And I ask, that you take them upon your heart, so that you follow Me, using these words as your guidelines; and, that you go out, and do the same; for as I commissioned those who gathered around Me, many years ago, I commission you. I commission those who gather around Me ... now. ‘Listen to My voice. It rings throughout all time, and it is speaking to you. Listen to what I say to you!

“I come unto you, as The Good Shepherd. I come into the world to gather the flock. I come into the world, and I walk amongst you, and I speak ‘the words of love, and forgiveness, peace.’ And those, who are ready to hear the message, stop when they hear the words, and they follow. They follow because they recognize the voice of The Shepherd, just as the sheep on a hillside recognize the voice of the shepherd. And just as it is upon a hillside, where the sheep will not follow another voice, other than the shepherd, I say unto you, those who love Me, will not be led astray. They will not answer, when they hear the voices calling for protestations, for anger, for judgment. They will not be tricked, and led astray by those voices. For those who are My flock, My sheep, will hear My voice, and resonate to the tone and vibration, to the message ‘of love, and peace.’

“Those who follow Me will be led into a verdant pasture, gentle sloping hillsides, and an eternal presence, with God. I speak to you, to those who say to Me, ‘I love You.’ And I say, ‘I love you. Through all time, I AM with you, right now. If you love Me, feed My sheep. If you love Me, take care of My sheep. Lead them, with a voice of peace, and love, so The Light will shine from you, so they can always see you, so the tone and the vibration of the words of peace, and love, catch their heart, and stir their soul and spirit into action. Serve My sheep, for they will know, and remember the call ... the words ... the message.’

“I send you, this day, to be amongst My sheep, as you are ... one ... and the same. My voice has stirred you. Now, I say unto you, ‘Let your voice be heard, and let it be peaceful, and loving.’ I say unto you, ‘I breathe upon you, The Holy Spirit of God. Feed My sheep. Take care of My sheep. Because it has been written, walk amongst My sheep. Whose sins you shall bind, they are bound. Whose sins you shall release, they are set free.’

“Walk amongst your brothers and sisters, and forgive all things, because in the forgiving, you set free. Go out and forgive sin, wrongdoing. In all ways, forgive. Forgiveness is the first step toward healing. In this way, take care of the sheep. I send you forth, to do these things, because you say, you love Me. And as you walk, and feed, and tend, and forgive, and bless, I AM with you.

“I AM eternally with you. I AM the voice of The Good Shepherd, summoning the sheep to come, and follow Me, into verdant pastures ... into eternity ...

“Come.”

August 16, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Pick-up Your Cross, And Follow Me, It Is The Key To Freedom

“I AM with you on this day. I AM not far away from you. I do not stand above you. I sit next to you. I sit amongst you.

“Today, My brothers and sisters, I wish to say to you...that you must love...first. Beyond all other things, first, there is love. And The Way of Love will lead you to freedom. For at the end of each day, if you can say, that you loved, beyond all measure, then there will be no shadows of darkness to separate you, from the love flowing to you, from God. And in this way, you are free! When you love first, there is no regret to tempt you into shadows; when you love first, you will not be tempted by confusion; for, all these things are set aside, as you carry-out your ‘intention to love...

“Love makes The Way clear, the path straight, and easy to follow.’

“The next thing I wish to say is, if you wish to follow Me, if your desire is to follow The Way, into Heaven, I say clearly, ‘Pick-up your cross, and come.’

“Now, in most cases, your cross is nothing like My passion and death. You will not be asked to endure this. But in every case, for each one of you, My brothers and sisters, there is at least one cross to bear, as you make your way, toward freedom.

“For some of you, the cross is not so heavy. For others, the cross is very heavy. And, as you rise above one, there might be another added. For some of you, the cross might be ‘doubt.’ I say, ‘Pick-it-up!’ Do not leave it over in the shadows. Pick-up your cross of doubt, and follow Me. For in the walking, with Me, you will exchange your cross of doubt, for the gift of faith. And all along The Way, as you carry your cross of doubt, there might be others who come from the crowds along the sides, or walking near you, to say, “...here, let me help you with that for a moment. Let me share with you, my story, of how God lifted my cross of doubt, from me, and gave me, the freedom of faith.’

“So, in your willingness to pick-up your cross, and follow Me, you will find you gain freedom; because, as you carry your cross, God will reach-out and say, “...here, I will help you. Accept the gift, of faith, and come, follow My Son!’

“For some of you, your cross might be ‘fear.’ This is a heavy cross. The cross of fear can keep you in places, not knowing which way to go...afraid to go one way or the other...and so you remain, there, in fear. But I say to you this day, if you will pick-up your cross, and come with Me, God will exchange your cross of fear, for the gift of knowing truth. And along The Way, others will come to you, and say, ‘I will help you with that cross. Here is my story. For once I, too, carried the cross of fear. But, as I carried it, I asked God to take it from me; and God reached-out, and exchanged my cross of fear, for the gift of knowing, truth; and, I was set free!’

“For I tell each of you, if you will pick-up your cross, and then rise above it, saying, ‘God, Thy Will be done. I am your faithful servant. I wish to do Your Will...’ you will find, that these heavy burdens are lifted from you, no matter what your cross might be.

“For you see, I walked the streets carrying a cross. And even in My time of passion, there were people who tried to help Me, along the way, with: something to drink; or, a cloth to wipe My face; or a stronger shoulder, to lift the burden, from Me. Still, it was Mine to bear, until I reached the place, where I was raised-up, because the cross had been accepted. It was the ultimate altar. And your cross can be your altar, too, where The Hand of God, passes over you, exchanging your burden, for freedom.

“This week, if you wish to know freedom, be moved by The Hand of God, and none other. Be filled with The Words of God, and none other. Begin one hour at a time. Because, in doing one hour at a time, you will come to see, how often you choose to do your will, rather than The Will of God. Repeat the words, over, and over again, ‘God, Thy Will be done.’

“Chase away negative thoughts. When your thoughts are not of light, send them from you. For if you are entertaining thoughts that are anything but light, you are not entertaining The Love of God. This is a sign; I give to you this morning, ‘Hold only thoughts of light.’ In this Way, you will be filled, with The Light of God. You will be doing, The Will of God, in your thoughts.

“Hold your tongue, until your heart is filled with love. And then, when you prepare to speak...speak only the words of love...and none other. And then you will be filled with The Words of God. You will be doing The Will of God in your thoughts, and in your words.

“Before you step into action, check what it is you are about to do, so that all your deeds might be done, in The Light, and The Love of God...and none other. For if any deed is not purely in The Light and Love of God, be still and send it from you. In this Way, you can continue through every day. In this Way, you will be sure you are doing The Will of God. And when you put your head, upon your pillow, after completing a day, done by The Will of God, you will know freedom. There will be no regrets, no sorrow, no frustration or confusion; because, the entire day is The Will of God.

“This, My brothers and sisters, is The Key to Freedom: ‘It is the key to setting aside burden, the only way you can set it aside, is to pick-it-up, and rise above it!’

“It is much similar to keeping your house orderly and clean. The desire to have an orderly, clean house is not enough. You must pick-it- up, and keep it clean.

“This day, I say unto you, ‘Pick-up your cross, and follow Me. It is truly the path to freedom.’”

August 9, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Pay Attention To What You Are Doing, Reject Temptation

“Feel My Presence. I AM with you, right now. As the new day is breaking, I AM here, taking your hand.

“And My brothers and sisters, today I wish to say to you, ‘Pay attention to what you are doing. Reject temptation.’ For, the ways of the world will try to turn you from your mission. But your mission is holy, and the only way for it to be wholly completed, is for you to pay attention, and reject the temptation(s).

“The temptations will come to you from those closest to you, sometimes. Very often, temptations will come from your family, friends, those you love. The temptation will come for you to stay in your place, to conform, to be in-line with their vision. And you see, as I say these words, I know them to be true; because, I walked the Earth, just as you walk the Earth. And those who tempted Me, to ignore My mission, were those who loved Me, very much. At a gentle, early age, I was guided to remind my Earthly parents, that I had a mission, it was ‘of Heaven;’ and, ‘I must be about it...’ I told them.

“I had to remind My friends, as they struggled with the words I said, telling them, in no uncertain terms, that I would be with them for a while, show them The Way, and then...die, rise, and return to My Father, and your Father, My God, and your God. But they did not want this to happen. They wanted to keep Me with them. So I had to say to them, ‘I must be about My mission, or it will not be complete.’

“Often they did not understand. Because you see, the vision of the world, would have considered Me a success, if I had stayed in one town, and practiced the trade of a carpenter, from Nazareth. But the vision of the world is so limited. And if you are not watchful and vigilant, it will bind you. For you see, My mission had to do with hanging on a cross, and dying, and rising.

“And this vision, appeared to the eyes of the world to be failure, when in fact, it represented honor and glory. Even after My Great Passion, and rising, again, those I loved tried to hold Me in place, crying, seeking Me, afraid, and alone. And I had to say unto them, ‘Do not hold Me. I must return to Heaven. But as I go to Heaven, you go forth, and continue My work.’

“I spoke to them, and said, do not bind yourself, and do not bind others, with your limited view of what you, or they, should do. It is tied up, in the words: repent, forgive; bind, or loose. For you see, you can tie-up and bind, your brothers and sisters, by refusing to forgive, and in the refusing of the forgiving, they are bound. But in the glory of the forgiving, they are loosed. You can bind yourself, by listening to the temptation(s). But when you acknowledge the temptation, it is brought into The Light, and the chain, holding you, is severed, and you are free.

“For, as you are upon the Earth, you have a mission. You have a mission, just like I had a mission. Therefore, to complete your mission, your sight must be on The Light of God, for the world will not know you, but God knows you, and your mission, and it is holy.

“Pay attention to what you are doing, and follow. For God is your teacher, and The Holy Spirit is your counselor, and I AM walking beside you, as I know the walk, as I was upon the Earth. Free yourself, to do your mission. Free your brothers and sisters, to do their mission. You can do this, by loving. And when you believe you have loved to the highest level, to your fullest capacity, I say to you, ‘Love more.’ so that you might be the nutrient, that will assist them, in bringing forth the gifts, the fruits of The Holy Spirit of God.

“I would like to speak to you, in a way that you might see more fully, giving an example that you might carry with you this week. For, there are many trees in the orchard of Earth that are not bearing fruit. If you pay attention, you will bear fruit. If you pay attention, others will bear fruit.

“I tell you this story: There was a man who had some property, and he bought some small fig trees, and planted them, on a hillside, knowing that they would produce figs, for his use. The man had a gardener. He came one day, sometime after the trees had been planted. He looked at the trees, and called the gardener over, and said, ‘You are going to have to cut these trees down. They have not produced figs. Not one fig have they produced, yet they are soaking up the nutrients of the ground, drawing life from Earth, without producing fruit.’ The wisdom held in the gardener spoke, and the gardener said, ‘Master, let me work with these trees awhile. Let me replenish the soil. Let me make that place rich, so they might bear fruit.’

“I would like you to think upon this, this week, because you are as the fig tree, planted upon the Earth, drawing energy from the earth. Pay attention to what you are using to nourish your tree, your presence, your being, so that you might produce a bountiful harvest, of beautiful fruit. Sink your feet into the earth, and draw-up the energy.

“For, I say unto you, ‘You will be taught by God; your counselor is The Holy Spirit, of God; and, I AM, The Gardener. I will give you what you need, so that you might be sustained and nourished, and bear fruit. And as you are sustained, encourage all your brothers and sisters around you, all the other trees around you, so that they too, might bear fruit.’

“Do not bind them, by the vision of Earth, as it is limited. Loose them, by the eternal vision of Heaven, which knows no bounds, and knows no bonds.

“This week, pay attention to what you are doing, and bear fruit.”

August 2, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Speak To Me, And I Will Answer; Pray Often, And Proceed On Your Mission With Faith

“Today I speak to you about your mission, your goal, your purpose, and how you are to proceed, so it too, might be accomplished, just as Mine.

“My brothers and sisters, I AM with you. And I know of the things of Earth, for I too have passed over its beautiful valleys, stood in awe of a majestic sunrise, and found peace, as the setting sun marked the end of the day.

“Some of you might say, ‘Well, You knew Your mission. You knew how to proceed, and what to do. God led You, the entire way. You moved, by The Hand of God.’ And then, at the end, even if it goes unsaid, there is the voice within you, telling you that you do not know The Way, you are confused, or lost.

“My brothers and sisters, if you acknowledge that I knew My mission, and followed the plan, then surely, this understanding will lead you to see, that within you, lies the key. You too, ‘know,’ your mission, and the directions unfold, before you, as you move, one step after another. It is the same for you, as it was for Me.

“Some of you know fully, your mission, your goal. Others know a piece of it. And some of you are still waiting to hear, to remember, to awaken the knowing at the core of your being, and remember your purpose.

“Now, for those of you who know, I say, ‘Proceed along The Way, and go, travel in good faith, knowing you are on a mission, for The Glory of God. And what is not revealed to you at the moment...will be revealed to you...at the appropriate time. Keep moving in faith. This is, as I did it, walking in faith.’ But I add to that, ‘Pray often.’ Do not just pray once a day, or twice a day, pray throughout the day. Even for the slightest question, ‘How do I do this?’ God will answer.

“And I say to you, especially to those who know a piece of your mission, ‘Hold-on-to that piece, embrace it, and move. Walk along The Way, knowing it shall unfold. Speak often to God. Take yourself to a quiet place, and ask, and it shall be given unto you. Do not hesitate to continue along The Way, because you do not see the entire picture.’

Remember that part of the beauty of a sunrise is watching it appear in increments, knowing it is coming; but waiting to see The Glory. That is how your mission is also. So rather than thinking, ‘I only have a piece, and I need more,’ see your mission as a sun rising: giving you what you need, shining for The Glory of God.

And pray, often. Do not limit your prayers to once or twice a day, either. Speak often to God, of even the smallest of things. If a friend comes to you, with disturbing news, or unkind statements, speak to God, before you respond. If you are having an issue about anything, ask, and you will be led in the right direction. Walk, watching your sun rise, and soon it will be noon. Your way will be filled with light, and you will know.

“To those who feel lost, who say you have no inkling of your mission, I say to you, ‘Be still. For it is within you.’ This night, celebrate the setting of the sun. Celebrate all you have done. And then, go to a very quiet spot, and say unto God, ‘I celebrate all that I am, and I look, eagerly, toward tomorrow, to the day you will reveal the plan.’ And put your head on your pillow, and go to sleep knowing, fully, in faith, that when it is time, your sun will begin to rise, and you will see it breaking on the horizon. That is the sign...that is the clue...that it is time...for you!

“For you see, My brothers and sisters, all things come at the right time. And sometimes, everything is put on hold, in the face of freewill choices, and this and that. But it proceeds, and it is all gathered-up into The Divine Plan.

“You will find great comfort in building your communication with God; because then, you will know. You will begin to exercise patience and understanding, knowing that: your time will come; your sun will rise; and, you will follow, with faith.

“These things I say to you today, so that you might speak with God often, and be led by The Hand of God, all the days of your life. Because as I speak to you today, these things that I say, are The Way I moved, The Way I lived, at a particular time, when I was upon the Earth, where all things are limited, except The Power of God, The Love of God, The Light of God, The Peace of God.

“For God will touch a limited world, and all things will be possible.”

July 26, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

It Is Time, To Love One Another, Be The Peacemaker

“I AM with you this morning. Feel My Presence, as it draws nearer. And as you open, and embrace My Presence, feel the love, growing stronger. Feel the energy around you, growing sweeter, delivering and settling upon you, the true peace, the eternal peace, of the Heavenly dimension.

“As you feel this energy, wrapping you, enfolding you, and holding you, breathe deeply the air of Earth, and exhale The Love of God. For every breath you take, is a prayer, bearing witness that you are upon the Earth.

“Angels are moving, amongst those of Earth, in great numbers, passing through crowds, and corridors, and hillsides, over rivers, and seas, and deserts. They are carrying with them ... the ultimate energy ... love. And as they carry this ultimate energy of love, and move amongst those of Earth, even the one, with a closed heart, is touched; because, this energy they are carrying, and delivering, is floating over Earth, like incense, moving-out, inhaled by many, touching all.

“It is the time. And The Spirit of God is descending upon those of Earth, through the holy angels, delivering ... the message, so it will become one with those of Earth, in a most profound way.

“You have heard, that it was said, ‘...an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand,’ and so on... But when I walked the Earth, some two thousand (2,000) years ago, I brought a new message. ‘If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn the other to them. If someone asks you for an article of clothing, such as a shirt, give them your coat too. If someone forces you to walk a mile with them, walk two.’ When I delivered this message, I coupled with it, the ancient law, ‘...eye for eye, tooth for tooth...’ placing the new, above the old.

“Do not be led astray, or into confusion, with these two. Understand, from whence each has come, one from the oldest of times, the other, from the most current time.

“Do not excuse the ignoring of the new command, by referring to one meant to guide those in the old way. For, I brought the good news, the new message ... of love, to stand atop all commands. For it was time. It was fulfilling the prophecy that at such a time, those of Earth would be ready to hear, and embrace, the new law.

“‘Why are they so different?’ you might ask. Well, if you are a parent, if you have observed parents, or, if you own parents did this when you were young; no matter what your position, you will take this in, and understand the two laws better. When your child is fighting with a sibling, the first thing a parent does is say, ‘Stop fighting. Don’t hit your brother or sister. Stop kicking your brother or sister.’ And then, once the children have stopped fighting, then, the parent says,

'...love your sister or brother.' It is not the reverse. While the children are fighting, the parent does not say, '...love your sister, love your brother,' and then, later, '...stop fighting.'

"It is the same with these laws, that seems to be causing confusion. At the time the first was delivered, there was fighting, how to handle this or that. And, when someone did something that was against the law, or not acceptable or appropriate, often the punishment went beyond what was necessary. And it was an acceptable thing to do. Such as, someone hits you in the face, and you get angry, and you cut their arms off. And, this was accelerating the injuries. So the law had to come down to those fighting, '...eye for eye, tooth for tooth.' That was all they understood at the time. 'Stop fighting!' Justice for one time!

"And when the older law seemed to catch on, it was then time...for, '...love your brother, or love your sister...', because, the children had stopped the fighting. It is that simple.

"Yet today, upon the Earth, you still hear, '...eye for eye, tooth for tooth...' So then, what you 'know,' is that the person is operating in the Old Testament, the old time. It does not mean that you need to remain in the old time. I brought the good news, the new time...love.

"Think of that, this week. It will bring clarity for you, understanding these two commands, and putting them in their proper place, and actually seeing, that the one that seems very harsh, was actually meant to curtail, to stop, the fighting, so the brothers and sisters could then be told, 'It is time to love one another.'

"And now, the beautiful messengers, the powerful messengers of God, are moving. You feel it in the air. Some of you see their presence there. And the incense they're carrying with them is free-flowing, causing all those of Earth, to inhale, the ultimate energy, love. Draw it in. Bless it with your own love, and send it forth; for, it is time ... for the ultimate energy ... love, to be inhaled by the children of Earth.

"Be at peace this week. Be a peacemaker this week. And everything, and everyone, you touch; will be illuminated, with the ultimate energy, with love, sent from God, through you, to touch the Earth, with all you do...

"I love you."

July 19, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

I Send You The Words So You Might Speak With Great Wisdom

“As the song of the bird fills the air, I am with you, feel My Presence, in the song of the bird. I AM with you, as the light of a new day, enfolds all about you, illuminating the darkness. I AM with you. (Scribe's Note: Around 7:15 am the song of a bird can be heard in the background as Jesus begins delivering his weekly message.)

“As I walked the Earth, some two thousand (2,000) years ago, I said many things, spoke many words, delivered many stories and messages, directly from God, to those who could not hear, who had turned a deaf ear. I spoke often to those who could not hear, because their head was filled with rules and regulations, of what was appropriate to eat on what day, and how to put this or that piece of clothing on, or how to clean the house, this way or that.

“I came, not to cast those rules and regulations away; but to speak, and say, the words of God, so that all upon the Earth, who could hear Me, would know, that the most important thing to do, is to embrace the energy of love, flowing constantly, to the children of God.

“There is some misunderstanding, that when I spoke, I spoke only to those who were with Me, directly with Me, to those I chose as My inner circle. And I say, this is not so. I chose a group of people to be close to Me, so I could send them out from Me, enlightened, walking the countryside, with the only rule and regulation being: ‘Love all, and love your enemy, and those who threaten to do you harm, even more than your biological brother, because they need it more’!

“Most of the time, the words I spoke, were not mine, they were the words Our Father wished for Me to deliver to Earth for Him. And I had to keep Myself free and clear, pure, so I that could hear, clearly, what God was telling Me to say. And sometimes, the words our Father wished for Me to say might not have been the words I personally would have chosen to speak at that time. But I ‘knew,’ they were the words of God, and were to be delivered at the time they were received. And, this I did.

“I spoke often, sometimes to crowds gathered, sometimes to those who had been mocked, or set aside. I walked amongst the children of God upon the Earth. And I brought words of enlightenment, to those I chose to gather close to Me, so they might know, and carry the word, to others.

“But, I did not mean, in any way, that only those close to Me should know the word, or hold the gifts. And I say this to you, because the words I spoke are for you, for all, excluding no one, including all.

“There are some of My words written in scriptures used today. But I tell you, I said many other words, but the ones in scriptures, are the words that so profoundly affected the thought patterns of those close to Me, that they remembered them, sufficiently to write them down. They had impact. They held power, when they were delivered.

“They were not meant for, or isolated to, just a few. They were delivered to the children of Earth. And that is why I said often, we are all united, we are one. ‘I AM in the Father,’ I said. I said this many times. I AM in God. And you are in Me. And I AM in you!

“This broadens the inner circle, including all who will hear. ‘Will hear’...implies there is a choice...and there is. But I say to you, now, ‘Hear!’

“‘How can you hear, when the world is so busy?’ you might ask. And the answer comes. ‘Take yourself to a quiet place, and be still.’ Soon, the word of God, flowing to you, will replace anything you could construct, or conceive. It will remove all doubt, and it will wash you ‘free of judgment.’ It will be a pronouncement, ‘of great love,’ upon any situation you encounter. But you have to open. You have to be still. You have to be willing to hear.

“It is very much, like a telephone call being placed to one you love, a family member. You dial the right number. And they answer. You ask a question. And they respond. But depending on where you are standing, and what those around you are doing, you either hear clearly, or you receive a garbled response, or you have no idea of what they are saying at all. There could be much noise, all around you, and what they say to you, you do not understand; because, those close to you are making noise and talking. It is disruptive. The telephone call does not work very well. And the question you asked, goes unanswered, because of the noise and disruption.

“It is the same thing, with prayer. You know the number. All you do is ask, ‘God, help me.’ It rings Home, and God answers. But what is going on all around you, keeps you from hearing the response, with clarity.

“When you place that call, for help, take yourself to a quiet place, where you can hear the response, and feel it.

“Some of you are operating with half-answers.

“I AM going to give you an example. And I want you to think about this, this week. Let us use the telephone call to a family member: You are at some place, a gathering, a group of people. There is talking in the background. And you are going to let your family member know what you are doing, and ask for instruction, hoping you can stay a bit longer; but still, out of consideration, asking for guidance, in that regard. You make the call. Home answers. You set forth your petition, ‘I am here at this party. Can I stay a bit longer, or do you need me at home?’ And because of the noise, you hear, ‘Hello.’ [followed by garbled reception of transmission...] And the next word you hear is, ‘...home.’ [followed by more garbled reception of transmission...] And the next word you hear is, ‘...now.’ You hang-up, thinking you have the message, ‘Come home now’.

“Actually, and in reality, the message, coming to you from home, in complete sentence form, was ‘Hello. All’s well here at home. Enjoy yourself, go ahead and enjoy yourself now.’ A totally different message was sent; but, because of poor reception, garbled by noise and distractions, the telephone caller is left operating with the wrong answer, or an incomplete answer.

“My brothers and sisters, this happens with prayer, often. Those calling Home, for help, frequently only hear certain things. The noise and distraction interfering with the reception: can be coming from within, your own worries, concerns, doubts, fears; or, it can be coming from all around you, in the sound of a television blaring, music playing, people arguing and fighting. But because of the noise and distraction interfering with reception, you either do not hear, or hear only part of, the answer

“As God spoke the words to Me, and I delivered the message to you, you can do the same. In fact, this is what you are to do. And you cannot do this, when there is noise and distraction all around you, and within you, because the message will not be clearly received. This week practice this. Do not ask for help while you are driving a car, at rush hour, with the radio going, and the children in the car arguing, from the front to the back, and the horns are blowing, and the lights are changing, and the traffic is irregular. Go home. Go outside, or go into a room, close the door, and be still. And, you will ‘know,’ because that, which you receive, in quiet, will be complete, the answer will be clear.

“Remember, I AM with you. I AM in you.”

July 12, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

You Are The Garden, Bear Good Fruit

“I AM with you on this day. Feel My Presence with you, for you are My brothers, and you are My sisters; and I reach through all time and eternity, and touch you. I walk into your presence. I AM with you!

“Hear the birds of summer singing, their songs, ringing, in your ears. Look about you this day, as you walk, along The Way. See: the trees, bearing fruit; the vines and the berries; the gardens, lush, and full. See, and know.

“As you walk amongst the trees, and the orchids; the vines, along the roadside; and the gardens, tended by the hand, of mankind, you will notice, here and there, that amongst the trees, thriving and healthy, you will see, occasionally, one scarred and diseased, withered, it does not bear fruit, like the healthy trees.

“As you walk past the canes, the berries, the vines, you will see that some vines are healthy, rich and full, the blossoms, bursting into berries. Occasionally, you will see a withered cane, or vine, bearing no fruit, or dried-up fruit, as withered as the vine it clings to.

“As you look into the gardens, occasionally you will see, some plants are dry, while others are green. Some bear little or no fruit, while the healthy plants are rich and full. See, and know.

“You know a tree is a peach tree, when it holds peaches, when the peach is the fruit that it bears. You know a tree is an apple tree, when the apple is the fruit that it bears. You know the cane is raspberry, or blackberry, when the raspberry or the blackberry is the fruit it bears. And in the garden, you can tell. The bean grows on a plant, a bush. Yet, the potato is underground. You can tell the potato plant from the plant which will bear beans. You know the tree, and the vine, and the garden, by the fruit.

“My brothers and sisters, I tell you, the world knows you, by your fruit. When you are healthy of spirit, the fruit that pours forth from your heart is bountiful, and rich, and good, filled with light, a pleasure to behold. But when your spirit is sick, and out-of- balance, and diseased, that which pours from your heart, is the same.

“You are the orchid of God, the vine of Earth, the garden. Your garden is to be rich, and bountiful. Your harvest is to be plentiful. But know this, ‘The world will know you, by that which pours forth from you. The world will know you, by the fruit that you bear.’

“Therefore this day, My brothers and sisters, I touch your heart, I sing to your soul, I stroke your spirit, and say, ‘You are healed. You are whole. From this day go forth, and be the healthy tree, bearing fruit, for all to see, and come to eat, and taste, that which you bear. Be the healthy vine, whose berries shine, in the sunlight, glistening with dew, bringing words from God, that are fresh, and new. Be the garden, which will feed your brothers and sisters, with the manna from Heaven, delivered to you. For, you are the tree, and the vine, and the garden, tended, by The Hand of God.' ”

July 5, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Attain Wisdom, Using The Gift Of Knowing, Enhanced With Understanding And Tolerance

“I AM with you. I AM – with you – and you feel My Presence.

“My brothers and sisters, I have something helpful - to deliver to you - a message - that will assist you along The Way, and bring you great peace; for, it is important for you to know, that when the gift of knowing, is enhanced, with understanding and tolerance, you will achieve wisdom!

“If I did not say another word to you, that would be sufficient to carry you through the week, through all the days, you walk upon the Earth.

“It seems to be prevalent, among those of Earth, to use that which you know, to gain that which you want or desire; oftentimes, the gift of knowing is used to manipulate and control. But when you use the gift of knowing, in The Light, and for The Glory of God, it completes the work of God. You become the sower, and the reaper, because you gather-in a bountiful harvest, to fuel your spirit, and satisfy your soul.

“There is satisfaction in attaining wisdom. Because you see with the eternal eye, hear with the eternal ear, and speak with the eternal tongue of God.

“What God began...creation, your work is to complete, a segment or a portion, of that, which began with God. And when you use the gift of knowing, enhanced with understanding and tolerance, you are paving The Way, so others might see, and know.

“This week, practice, and you will see a difference. You will see Light, moving into places of shadow. You will see The Glory of God, all about you. And others will see it too. Wisdom will be the crown upon your head.

“This week, use the gift of knowing, with generous portions, of understanding and tolerance, for all of your brothers and sisters. And in this quiet, reflective way, you will surely achieve wisdom.

“I AM with you, and it is time, let us begin the journey into a new week. Let us begin...attaining...wisdom!”

June 28, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
I Lift-You-Up, So You Can See

“I AM with you this morning. Feel My Presence, in the peace, of morning. It is a new opportunity. It is time to rise-up... and create...a new day!

“I bless you, with peace! And as you are still, breathing-in the air of Earth, exhaling...in wonder, you feel...the peace, expanding and growing. You feel joy within your being, growing; a sweet joy, the true joy, of living, upon the Earth.

“It is ‘an honor,’ to be upon the Earth. Therefore, each day, embrace the gift, embrace the opportunity. No matter what mission is set before you, it is...an honor. It is an honor for you to be on Earth; but greater still, it is an honor, that you are doing. You are doing something, in honor, of The Creator, God.

“Now, looking at this new day before you, with this ‘knowing,’ that it is an opportunity for you ‘to do,’ in honor of The Creator of All Things, it all changes, to something grand, and glorious.

“No matter what is set before you, it is your ‘opportunity.’ Embrace it. It is yours. It is honor. It is giving. It is love. And ‘love,’ is the energy, of The Way.

“Come. I lift-you-up. Where are you going? I lift you up, so you can see. I lift-you-up, so in ‘the knowing,’ you will have the faith to follow Me. Come.

“It is time to create, A New Day, in honor, of The Creator, of All Things.

“Come.”

June 21, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Perfect Father, Is Living Love, Unconditional Love For All

“I AM with you. I AM with you as this day begins, anew; a life experience, to be created, by you. And on this day, you have the opportunity – to be – living love.

“Many of you hearing these words, or reading these words, are living in a land, which has set aside this day to celebrate: the father; the image, of the father.

“Well, it is often the case, that days set aside to honor certain people; or certain groups of people; or certain events, - whether they be family events, or historical events that shape a new world - many times do not carry celebration, or happiness, for certain individuals; they are reminders of ... something missing ... something lacking.

“So, I say to you today, if this day of celebration is not usually one that you elect to take part in, I want to give you a different picture, of what this day should mean, to each one of you.

“If, in your life experience, it has come to be, that you really do not know, what “The Perfect Father,” would be like, you have an example. You have an example in a story that has been told, over the ages, in many different ways. You can find it in books; you can find it in the Bible, if that is a book of your choosing. You can find it, using any source, the story is that important; but the message, somehow, is missed, often, missed totally.

“The story of which I speak, usually bears the title, The Prodigal Son. I think, the better title is – The Perfect Father – Living Love.

“So today, what I would like you to do is to remember this story; and, from this day forward, celebrate the message in the story ... The Perfect Father ... Living Love.

“As a reminder, I will speak to you of the story. It is a story of a man, with two children. The man, the parent, the father: takes care of the children; provides what they need; shows them how to live, by example. Then one day, one of the children, one of the sons, comes to the father, and says, ‘I must go-out and experience the world. What I am having here is not enough experience for me. I desire my inheritance, now; so I might go forth, and see the world.’

“The father, being living love, divides all that he has in equal portions, and gives the son wishing to experience the world, his due share, without criticism. Without anything, other than love, he gives him his inheritance, and sends him into the world, and then goes about his life; surely, every day, praying for the son, who has gone on his way; surely, every day, praying for the other child, the other son, who has remained with him; loving, living love.

“The son goes forth into the world. And it does not take long, for the inheritance to be gone; because he lives life to the fullest: throwing parties; preparing grand feasts; and entertaining those who come around him, desiring to share in his good fortune. And as the days go into months, and the months go into years, the son, traveling the world, carries less and less of the inheritance, from the perfect father.

“He gets into some scrapes, and has some life experiences, and finds it nothing like what it was at home, in the presence of living love. He finds it lacking. He finds it lonesome. And one day, it occurs to him, as he sits alone, destitute, with no friends, that he can go back home, and be in living love, near to the perfect father. And he begins to make his way, slowly, back home.

“Now the journey does not seem so dismal; because, as difficult as his situation is, he is on his way home. The light is calling him. And at home, the father and the son, who chose to remain, are going about their business, doing what needs to be done, living in light.

“But as the son who wished to experience the world approaches home, and the presence of the father, word is carried back to the father, ‘There is someone coming from afar. We do not know this stranger. He does not look familiar.’

“The father goes to the door and looks out. And, even though, the vision, the individual, the being coming toward him, is battered and wounded, he recognizes his son, coming home. And he calls-out, ‘Quick. Let us prepare a feast. The one who left is returning!’ He sends-out people to gather his son in, and assist him the rest of the way. And, after he is washed, and prepared for the feast, it is set before him.

“See this vision, and understand the story. There is no rancor in the father, when the son returns. There is no questioning period about what he did with the money, or where he has been. There is only the living love! As loving as it was at the departure, it is even more so, at the return.

“This is what it is all about, My brothers and sisters. If you are missing this example in your life, I give it to you. This is what this day is all about ... providing ... living love. The feast has not so much to do with what they are eating, and what is set before the child returning, as it has to do with feasting on love, feasting on the ability to return home, feasting on unconditional love, no questions asked, arms always open.

“If today, you are thinking: ‘Well, I don’t really have that much to celebrate. I don’t remember my father.’ or, ‘I’m preparing to be a father; but, I don’t know how to do it.’ or, ‘I am a father, and I hope I did a good job.’ Any place you find yourself can be enhanced, with remembering, with receiving and accepting, this vision – of the perfect father – living love. Take it as your own, so that from this day forward, you will “know,” the perfect father is living love, unconditional love, for all.

“Be at peace.”

June 14, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Curtain Is Rising, On A New Day, And You Have A Role To Play

“I greet you, with great joy! I AM with you – to celebrate – this New Day, this segment, of the eternal play.

“You see, with the beginning of this day, the curtain is rising. All things are set in place. The stage is ready, for your entrance. You have a role to play this day. It is an unending story taking place. No matter whom you are, My brothers and sisters, no matter where you are, you are part of the eternal play, one that continues, for eternity.

“Each and every day as you rise-up, it is, as if you are reporting backstage, walking in the door, and waiting, for your time, to walk, to make your entrance, to play your part. In this play, although things are set, you can change the script, anytime you are on the stage. The Great Director has given you the opportunity to play the role, and edit your script, as you go along.

“It is a golden opportunity to make the best of the role you have been give; and your role changes from day to day, giving you a myriad of opportunities to play each one to the fullest, to fill it, with all that you have.

“Sometimes, your role will be small. Sometimes, it will be a supporting role. And then...sometimes...it will be the leading role. But it does not matter, which; because how you play the role, is what is important.

“Some days, when you report to go onto stage, after stepping onto the boards you will see that you are to be in the background, while another is in the foreground. But your role is significant, because the stage would not be complete without your presence. And the way you play the role, determines how successful the scene will be.

“I say to you My brothers and sisters, this day you have the opportunity to play your role, in such a way, that The Grace of God, and The Light of God fills your presence.

“Today, I urge you, to bow your head, and ask: that you, be aware, open, and alert, to all the opportunities presented to you as you are on stage; that you, don't miss your cue; that you play the role you have been given, and bring it honor. And then give the glory to God, for the opportunity, to play the role at all.

“There is excitement in the air. For all eternity – is waiting to see – what you will do with the role you have been given for this day.

“You have The Grace of God. You hold The Energy of God, and The Love of God. Walk onto the stage, with great confidence, trust. Walk onto the stage with the determination to do the best with the role you have been given. And when the scene is complete, the end of the day comes, the curtain is lowered, you will prepare, for rest, knowing, you did the best you could do with your role.

“Each and every day – is a segment – of the eternal play. And while you are upon the Earth, you have the opportunity, to play a significant role. Seize that opportunity, with enthusiasm!

“It is your time. The stage is set. You have been assigned the role. Now, do the best you can, with what you have been given. This day, and all week, imagine this as you rise-up; imagine that you are reporting backstage, waiting, eager, to play your part, excited, to do the scene, in the play, representing your lifetime upon the Earth.

“I bless you! I cheer you on! I applaud you! And I thank you, for playing the role!

“It is time. The stage lights are on. The audience is in place. Walk onto the stage.”

June 7, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Appreciate The Gifts, God Has Given To You, And Celebrate The Gifts, God Has Given To Others

“I AM with you. See the dawn, a new day. See the light, illuminating all about you, and hear the birds heralding the arrival. It is time to rise-up. It is time to rise-up, My brothers and sisters, and greet the new day.

“And when you are filled with The Holy Spirit of God, you rise-up, eager to see, what each new day will bring.

“I tell you: there are days of quiet; there are days of song; there are days of sowing; there are days of harvesting; there are days of gathering together; there are days to set yourself aside, in prayer. Each day is its own; and each day holds its own glory, and wonder.

“Each day offers the opportunity to use the gifts, given to you by God. Today I want to encourage each of you, to use the gifts you have been given.

“You have heard these words before. But I say unto you, it is important that you acknowledge your gifts and use them, for to leave them, unused, would leave your life, upon the Earth empty, in many places. Things would not connect. The great picture would not appear whole. I encourage you, this day, to sit down and make a list of the gifts, which you will acknowledge. And, accepting these gifts, give thanks to The Heavenly Creator, The God of All Things. Hold gratitude in your heart, for that which is yours.

“In addition to acknowledging and accepting the gifts that are yours, I ask you to appreciate the gifts held by others, around you; and do not expect all of your brothers and sisters to have the same gifts.

“Sometimes, a group of people will have the same gift. Often times, if this is the case, they come together, united for a purpose, to use their gift in support of another, or others. There are so many ways that the gifts come together. But I ask you today, to be aware of your own gifts, and be eager to use them; while, at the same time, acknowledging the different gifts in others.

“Do not insist that others follow the path, set by your own feet. Do not insist that others, around you, live their life in such a way, that they would practice, and try to create, a gift they do not hold. The message, in brief, My brothers and sisters, is to appreciate, all that God has given to you, and celebrate, all that God has given to others. For as some sow the seed, others harvest it. As some harvest, others prepare the bounty. As some prepare the bounty, others clean-up, and prepare for the planting of a new day, a new time. As some create the music, others find the words within their heart, and bring them forth, so that another might use the gift of singing the song. While still, even a greater number, have the gift to appreciate the song, the one who wrote the words, and the one who brought forth the music.

“You see, for it all to go together: the song must be written; the words must be brought forth; the one with the gift of singing must sing the song; and those who have the gift of appreciation must come, and hear the song. And then, that group will stand-up, and pass the word, that the song has been sung in such a beautiful way. For each one, playing their part, is important. And I say that you may follow this example, in almost any scenario, which springs from your imagination.

“It takes the gifts of the children of Earth, united, to bring forth this most magnificent orchestration, as it is to be. I urge you to use your gifts. I urge you to urge others to use their gifts, and celebrate the difference, so that there might be music, and song, and singer, and appreciation.

“This day, and this week, acknowledge, accept, and be thankful for your gifts. Be thankful for all the different gifts, held by the children of God, walking Earth, for they are unique, they are special. Encourage each other to use the gifts, which are uniquely your own; because, in this way, they will come together, with surprising perfection!

“It is The Way. And it will lead you to great happiness. Be at peace this day. Walk into The Light, for The Dawn is breaking. Be at peace.”

May 31, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Not Afraid. My Holy Spirit Is Within You. Feel The Presence, and Know The Holy Spirit of God

“I AM with you. I AM with each one of you. My brothers and sisters, this day begins. And with the beginning of each day, life anew stirs, within you. The coming of the new day is rebirth: the rising-up and the moving around; ending the day and laying your head down to rest; then rising-up again. It is a circle. You complete it every day. And within the circle, God flows into your life, in the most majestic and marvelous way. The Holy Spirit of God is upon you, each, and every day. The Holy Spirit of God is within you, each, and every way.

“My brothers and sisters, each one of you, whether you are hearing My words, or reading My words, I tell you, ‘Be still, and feel The Presence of The Holy Spirit of God, moving within you, right now.’

“Many of you speak words, having to do with The Holy Spirit of God; but this day, I bring you a blessing, and I say unto you, ‘Right now, feel The Presence of The Holy Spirit of God within you.’

“God has poured-forth The Spirit. It is not held from any being upon the Earth. It is yours. It is there. It is eternal. It is filled with love. It is The Breath of Wisdom. And it will lead you forward in confidence. This day I say unto you, ‘Be not afraid. Reject totally the spirit of doubt, the spirit of fear. Be filled with The Holy Spirit of God, and embrace the knowing, that it is so. Within you is The Spirit of God. It is so. It is true. And if you are still, and if you repeat the words, ‘I am filled with The Holy Spirit of God,’ with every breath, you will feel The Presence.

“This is a time of action, The Living Word.

“The Living Word of God is to come from you.

“Be not afraid. Feel The Presence of God within you, and rise-up this day.

“As you breathe, breathe with confidence. Reject any doubt.

“As you are filled, so you shall be led, from within. For, The Holy Spirit of God will stir you, and you will be moved. You will be moved, and you will know, which way to go, every single day. And these ‘knowings’ will come to you in many ways. There are as many ways to hear from The Holy Spirit of God as there are children of God upon the Earth. So, My brothers and sisters, I call you to action this day. And I say unto you, ‘You might feel The Breath of Spirit. You might hear The Breath of Spirit. You might know It.’

“Be open, and you shall be moved. Embrace and you will not be afraid, any longer.

“Do not wait to act, until you feel compelled to perform some grand, noble deed. For The Spirit of God moves within you every day, to do, what you might consider, the smallest deed; but, that is where it starts, My brothers and sisters. While you are doing your busy work, and the ‘thought’ occurs to you; you remember: an aunt, or an uncle, a mother, a brother, a sister, a father, or a friend. They pop into your mind, and you think of them for a moment. Well, I say unto you, that is The Spirit, moving within you. Stop what you are doing, and make contact. It is important to do...right then.

“These are the little things that will lead to the grand things: one foot and then the other; one thought and then another. When you begin to act, as you are led, with the little things, you will embrace The Spirit within you, so completely, so fully, that you will walk every day with God. The smallest thing you do will be filled with The Spirit of God. And, that is when the miracles will begin, within you. Because you believe, and you act upon your belief, you bring the belief into the third dimension, within your words and actions. It no longer remains silent, within you. You give it birth. It is born, anew. And The Holy Spirit touches you, to rise-up, and move.

“This day, My brothers and sisters, I ask you to be still. And you will feel The Presence, more profoundly than you have ever felt it before; because, it is time.

“It is time for The Holy Spirit of God to move over the Earth. Wherever The Wind blows, there will be The Holy Spirit of God, moving, bringing life, anew.

“Be not afraid! The Holy Spirit of God is within you! Rise-up, and live your life with confidence; and be at peace.”

May 24, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Remember, As You Breathe, And Think, And Speak, And Do, You Are Creating Eternity

“I AM with you. This morning, this day, this place, this hour, this minute, this heartbeat, this breath of life, I AM with you. In the present, and for eternity, we are one.

“I say to you, to those of you, to all of you, ‘creators,’ this day I do not direct My words to the mothers, or the father, of the physical earthly children. This day, I direct My words to each and every one of you, as ‘creators.’

“You do not understand, fully; and although every one of you are creating, every second, every minute, every hour, very few of you comprehend, that you are in the process of ‘creating eternity.’ You create your personal environment, the environment that signifies the presence of your family. This environment marks your town, your city, your county, your state, your country, the Earth.

“Today, My brothers and sisters, I ask that you take some time to consider what you are doing. Every thought created within your being, lives. Your thoughts effect you, your energy, and move beyond you. The thoughts, created by you, are eternal. They are energy. They have life. And you can feel their presence.

“Likewise, when you speak, you breathe onto the Earth, and whoever you are speaking to, the words you have created, and they live. They do not stop at your lips. They touch those you are speaking to, and move beyond. Your words carry the seeds of your thoughts. They, more actively, have to do with the atmosphere, the environment, that is: you personal space, your family space, your town, your county, your country, the Earth. And they are created ... by you ... moving beyond you; leaving the creator – you, and moving into eternity; carrying your words, which sprang forth from your thoughts.

“In the same manner, but with more power still, are the deeds you perform, the acts committed by you. Springing forth, from the thoughts and the words, are the actions that you commit to eternity.

“Very few of you, My brothers and sisters, are seeing this, with an eternal overview. It is important, at some place, at some moment, for you to awaken, and see what you are creating, so that the atmosphere, the environment, of Earth, can be altered.

“It is time, and you will like the change. Because, it will be: a change, where growth of spirit feels right; a change, in support of growth, where spiritual things will thrive upon the Earth; beginning with your personal space; illuminating your family, and those you love; reaching-out and saturating your towns and cities, and all places around you, before it moves out, out, out from you; touching eternity.

“Today, take some time: to mold your thoughts; to master your own thought process; to reject any thoughts of shadow or darkness; and, to make it your intention to create thoughts of peace, and light, and love; rejecting all other things; knowing fully that you are creating an energy that will exist forever, wearing your signet.

“In the same manner, be considerate. Think of what you are going to say. I suggest that you hold your tongue, and ask for guidance, so that your words will be the words of God. And when you have made this your intention, speak only words of peace, and light, and love.

“You will immediately feel a change. It will affect your personal space. And it will touch all those around you; first, your family, and those you love, and hold close; and then, it will move beyond, and beyond, and beyond, on its journey, into eternity; words forever, eternal, bearing your signet.

“I ask you also, to be mindful of your actions, your deeds. And let it be your prayer that they be noble deeds. Open to The Holy Spirit of God to be led, to do the work of God, through you. Be moved by the hand of God.

“These things that you do, will mark your personal space, affect your family and those you love and hold close. And the energy of these actions that you commit to eternity will move from you, forever bearing your signet.

“When you begin to see this happening, within each individual being upon the Earth, it will have great meaning to you. And you will begin to see, the energy created by each of you is eternal.

“Therefore, today, I ask you creators, one and all, be mindful of what you are creating. Your thoughts, your words, your deeds, live. You have created these things. Now, this day, begin creating as God. See, and hear, and know, what you are doing. You are of God. You are first, spirit. Now, today, create peace, and light, and love, and send these energies from you, and change the Earth...and beyond.”

May 17, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

You Are Created In The Image of God, And God Is Spirit. You Are Spirit.

“I AM with you. And today, I wish to celebrate, to bless each one of you, in a most special way. For today, I ask you to sit awhile, and go deep within your being, so that you might finally recognize the child of God, that you are. For God loves each one of you, in a most unique way. Each one of you, My brothers and sisters, is on a mission. And today, as we speak, some of you are caught-up in: doubt, or fear, or hesitation; some of you might simply just not know. But today, I speak to you to confirm the eternal truth, that God loves you...you!

“God created you. And you are upon the Earth to complete a mission. You are upon the Earth to create. Now, on this particular day, I am not speaking, or limiting My words, directing them only to the parents, to the mothers and fathers, to those who have created the human body. I AM speaking, to each one of you, destined to create, in The Name of God, upon the Earth.

“You are first, foremost, and forever, spirit. You are created, by God. And for a most noble cause, and on a most noble mission, you are upon the Earth. And your ability to move, upon the Earth, was given to you by your earthly parents. For within them, you received a shell, a body, to house the spirit, your creative spirit. And this enables you to act, to interact, with the things of Earth.

“This is why you should give honor to your mother and father of Earth. Because the body that they have given you, temporary as it is, gives you the ability to complete your mission, to be ‘of Earth.’ Yet, at the core of your being, is your true identity. And held within your true identity, is the knowledge and the wisdom, the secret, the mission.

“Most of you, are caught-up in the belief, that your physical body is it. That once it becomes diseased, that life drains from it. You fear its demise, forgetting that it is only the shell, protecting the precious fruit, within.

“It is important this day that you awaken to this truth, and begin to know it, really know it. It is important that you awaken to the creative spirit that is you. You have a body, for a while, that will assist you to complete your mission. Think of it that way. The temptation, while you are upon the Earth, is to think the opposite ... about what your body can, or cannot do. But this day, I ask you to be still, and know, that the creative spirit that you are - can complete your mission - you can do all things.

“This is where it begins, My brothers and sisters, this wisdom, going first to the spirit that you are, understanding that your body is passing, temporary. To have a better understanding of this, I ask you to be still, and see this picture. Many years ago, you would see a drawing, or perhaps a picture, of an astronaut floating in space, wearing a protective suit, tethered to the mother-ship, the space craft, by a long air hose. The astronaut would be floating in space on a mission, sent-out to make repairs on the space craft. All of you can identify with this picture. But now, what I want you to understand is, that hose, connecting the astronaut in the spacesuit to the mother-ship, was not delivering the life-giving force, oxygen, for the spacesuit, it was delivering the life force to that within the suit, the astronaut within the suit. When the astronaut returns to the space craft, to the mother-ship, the suit is removed, and the astronaut emerges, mission complete. The suit, although not discarded, is no longer useful. The mission is complete.

“You are tethered to God. And the life force that comes directly to you, from God, is not coming for your body, but for the spirit, within your body, that is the real you! Begin to see this. Begin to know this. Focus on who you are. What will happen when you do this? I will tell you. When you begin to focus on the creative spirit that you are, your body will follow. Your body will be healthy and whole, so that you might complete your mission, just like the astronaut, and return to the mother-ship.

“That is what I wish to say to you today, My brothers and sisters. Begin to know the words you speak so freely. Begin to understand. Go within this day, and reconnect with who you really are. Your creative spirit has a mission. Your body will give you the ability to complete your mission on Earth. If you will look at it this way, you will see all things, through the eyes of God.

“Be still this day, and go within. There is a remarkable being that is you, waiting to be recognized. Go within...to meet...you!”

May 10, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

A Mother's Day Blessing, For All Mothers Of Earth

“I AM with you on the glorious day of great celebration. And, I say to each one of you, who has held the seed, carried the miracle, and given birth, you are blessed; for, you have brought forth life upon the Earth. You have joined with God, and creation continues!

“To each one of you, this day, I say, ‘Thank you!’ With the song of angels, rising-up, echoing between Heaven and Earth, I say unto you, ‘Thank you.’ Where ever you are at this time, I say, ‘Thank you.’ Whether you are surrounded by family, or alone; whether you are filled with happiness, or riddled with questions to which there seem to be no answers, I say to you, ‘Thank you,’ and ‘I bless you, in a most special way.’

“Today, while I congratulate, and bless, all mothers, I speak with purpose to those of you who feel alone, who are fearful about your decision to bear, and bring forth a child. I touch those of you who are afraid, feeling pain, sorrow, and rejection, and remind you, of my earthly mother, Mary.

“She was a young woman, when she was asked, by an angel of God, to stop what she was doing, so that she might bear a child. The timing was ‘not the most convenient,’ and she ‘knew,’ it would surely place her in a position to be the subject of gossip; and, to be rejected, by the man to whom she was betrothed. Still, when she was asked to bear a child, her answer was, ‘Yes.’ So, to all of you who are fearful, in honor of My earthly mother, I give you the gifts, of a Brave Heart, and a Loving Spirit, so that you might do The Will of God, in all things.

“And, while I congratulate, and bless, all those of you, who see the great accomplishments of your child; today, I speak with purpose to those of you who feel shame and embarrassment, or possibly frustration and anger, regarding situations having to do with your child. I touch those of you who are angry, embarrassed, or frustrated, and remind you of my earthly mother.

“She was told that I was the Messiah, The Promised One. And she believed the words the angel Gabriel delivered unto her. She had great faith; but she was not prepared for Me to be scorned, set upon, ridiculed, and rejected. She was not prepared for Me to be hated, and attacked. Still, when she was asked to bear humiliation and shame in support of Me, her answer was, ‘Yes.’ So, to all of you who are embarrassed, frustrated and angry, in honor of My earthly mother, I give you the gifts of Faith, and Trust, and Unconditional Love, so that you might do The Will of God, in all things.

“As I congratulate, and bless, those of you surrounded by your children, and grandchildren; today, I speak with purpose to those of you who stood at the side of your child, when the verdict or results were read, and the words spoken drained the life-blood from your body. Whether the verdict was a sentence at the hand of humanity, or at the hand of disease, you knew, the end was near, and your knees weakened. The woman, once able to carry a heavy load, sank beneath the weight of the burden to great to bear. Today, I touch those of you who are, weary, sick, and broken, and remind you of my earthly mother.

“In all her days, she could not imagine what she was to endure. And, as she watched me, dragged from one court to another, sentenced, mocked, spat upon, beaten, ridiculed, and nailed to a cross by the world, her heart broke into a thousand pieces. She was not prepared to watch, as the child she carried, nurtured, and loved was brutally murdered. Still, at the foot of the cross, she stood guard, sending Me her strength, holding My eyes within her gaze, until the last breath was drawn, and it was accomplished. Because she said, ‘Yes,’ she stood with Me on Earth, and remains with Me in eternity. Because she said, ‘Yes,’ her shattered heart was mended, by The Hand of God.

“So, to those of you who have known anguish, in honor of My earthly mother, I give you the gift of Strength, the faith and wisdom to trust, not in the fading promise of the world, but in The Eternal Promise of God.

“To all mothers of Earth, on this day, I bless you, and tell you... I AM with you. I will always be with you. I will never turn from you. I walk with you. I stand with you. As my earthly mother stood with Me, I stand with you, each one of you. And today, I ask you not to turn from one another. Do not speak ill of each other, or direct malice toward each other. Go to each other, and speak of love. Do not let any one feel alone, deserted, embarrassed, or unloved.

“This day, I pay honor to the mothers of Earth, as they are all, each one, special, and loved by God...

“Happy Mother’s Day.”

May 3, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

It Is Time To Rise-Up, To Say The Words, And To Do The Deeds, For The Great Commission, Lives

“I AM with you. Let great celebration spring forth, and let your voice carry a song, a song holding the prayer, of thanksgiving.

“Today I come to you, eagerly crossing space and time, reuniting, in a special way. And I ask you to throw open your arms, and greet Me, as I AM your brother, as we are one.

“And if you will hold open your arms, and embrace Me, you will feel My Presence. You will feel My Being. And you will know...I AM.

“For as God sent Me to Earth, this day, I send you forth; as, with great promise I brought The Word, so it might live; I send you forth, with great promise, so The Word, might continue to live...in you.

“I AM with you. And this day, I re-enforce The Great Commission, to send forth an ‘Army of Love,’ over the face of the Earth. I call to you, and I say to those who believe in The Living Word, ‘Rise-up. It is time for the tide to cover the Earth with great peace. Rise-up and go forth, celebrating all that you know. Let The Word of God flow, through you, and speak of love; for that is the command that rolls the tide, it is Love.’

“Today, I bless you, for the faith, and the love, and the courage you hold. For your hearts are full, and your beings are light. Today I say to you, ‘Be not afraid. Rise-up, it is time. For those of you who believe, it is time!’

“It is no longer the time to sit, and pray. It is the time to rise-up, and say the words, and do the deeds. For I say unto you, these ‘signs,’ will accompany those who believe...

Those who believe will not be afraid.

They will be filled with wonder, eager for each new day.

They will not be sad.

Their hearts will sing forth, and their lips will proclaim the joy, that they know, from the core of their being.

They will cast-out demons, and free their brothers and sisters,
for The Power of God will flow through them.

They will reach-out and touch the sick, the infirm,

and bring The Healing of God:
to those who are crippled;
to those who are stricken with disease;
to those who are riddled with afflictions of any kind.

They shall move over the Earth in song,
in Love, in The Power, and The Light of God.

“These things, I tell you, because it is time. It is time for those who call Me, Brother, who call Me, Lord, who call Me, Master, who call Me, The Son of God, who call Me, The Living Word, to act in faith, and do, as I have commissioned you to do.

“Walk the face of the Earth, so others, might know Me...through you. For I tell you, all things will be done, when you use The Power of God, for The Glory of God!

“Speak My name, and it shall be done...for you...for you have faith!”

April 26, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Timeless Tapestry Of Eternity Is Sewn By The Hand of God (Be Ye The Perfect Hand Of God)

“On this glorious day of new life, I AM with you. And today, I speak to you, of: new life, continuing life, the mending of life, eternal life.

“The timeless tapestry of eternity is sewn by The Hand of God, each thread woven, with incredible intricacy, delightful simplicity. Open your eyes, so that you might see, this timeless tapestry of eternity, as it unfolds. And you will come to understand, that God’s Hand moves over all things. And there is nothing, that the children upon the Earth can do, that will not be rewoven, re-stitched, renewed...mended...by The Hand of God. For: every place there is darkness, God will create light, for God is light; every place there is chaos, God will create peace, for God is peace; every place there is hatred, God will create love, for God is love.

“All things are possible, in The Hands of God. From every thing...God creates...the beauty of eternity. And the lessons, set into the tapestry, bring forth all that is. It is all united, by The Hand of God.

“This day, I say unto you, My brothers and sisters, ‘Be ye perfect, as God is perfect’. Weave your tapestry, with perfection, going to all places, in your lifetime. Where you find darkness, move your hand, and create light; for you are light. Where you find incidents of chaos, move your hand, and create peace; for you are peace. And for all the places in your tapestry, that hold hatred, move your hand, and create love, for you are love. Stitch, and mend, and weave the tapestry that is your lifetime, in such a way, that all things come together, that it is one, and it is one, for The Glory of God.

“Do not hesitate to run into every day, eager to see what comes your way. Go forth with great joy, knowing to all things, you can bring the creation of light, and peace, and love. For, you truly are a child of God. And that which God does can be done, through you.

“This day, set your goal, to weave your tapestry, for The Glory of God. Do so with great light. Do so with great peace. Do so with great love. For that which you are sewing will be united, into the grand tapestry, the timeless tapestry, of eternity.

“This is your day! That which you create, will come from you. Open to: The Love of God, The Light of God, The Peace of God. And let it flow through you, with great abundance; through your hands, through your body, as you weave today, the timeless tapestry of your life upon the Earth.

“Be at peace, My brothers and sisters. Be perfect, as God is perfect. Mend ... all ... that is torn.”

April 19, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

I Move Within You, Stirring The Embers, Rekindling The Spark, Igniting The Flame That Is You At The Core Of Your Being

“As the gentle, spring breeze caresses the branches, and leaves of the trees, I move into you. I move within you: stirring the embers; rekindling the spark; igniting the flame; on The Breath of Spirit, calling your name. Your name lights the fire, on The Breath of Spirit.

“Brightly shining is the flame that is you this day. For that is the core of your being. The core of your being is The Light of God! And it is shining, as it has been stirred. You have awakened, in The Light. And as you open your eyes, I AM with you.

“Today I ask you to sit and be still, to feel My Presence, with you. There is great need for peace; not the false peace, carried in mere words, the true peace, born within your being, borne within you. Today I say it is time to reconnect: with The Light that is you; The Peace that is you; The Presence of God within you.

“Today I do not encourage you to go by one, or a caravan, on a mission into the countryside, calling-out the praises of God. Today I do not encourage you to go by one or two, speaking The Word from the street corners of the city. Today, I encourage you: to go within; to sit with Me; to reclaim...peace.

“For that which you are to accomplish – is to be accomplished – in peace. And for there to be peace, it must come from your core. Therefore this day, I say unto you, ‘Be still, and sit with Me awhile. Feel My Presence. The world needs more peace. Let it begin, within you.’

“As the gentle, spring breeze caresses the branches and leaves of the trees, I move – in you –

“Peace.”

April 12, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

I AM Risen. We Are One! Therefore, You Too Are Risen.

“I AM risen! We are one! Therefore, you too, are risen!

“I AM resurrected. We are one. Therefore, you too, are resurrected.

“I AM The Way. I AM The Truth. I AM Life. We are One.

“This day, I reach-out to you and say, ‘Let us celebrate life, eternal life, beyond the burdens, beyond the restrictions, beyond the confines, of the things that are holding you down.’

“Do not live in the past. Live in the present, resurrection. Rise as the phoenix, from the ashes, and move into eternity.’ For I say unto you these words, ‘This day, I AM risen.’ And I show you this way, so that you might not be caught in the bonds of fear, so that you might see The Life, and walk The Way.

“The Holy Spirit of God is with you, and in you. There is no situation that will not be resolved, in The Light of The Holy Spirit, within you. You hold every answer. You are not doomed to the past. You are liberated to the future. Your eternal future is every present second, every present moment, every present hour, you experience. Be free!

“I say to each of you, My brothers and sisters, hearing this Word, or reading this Word, ‘I show you The Way, and The Way is Love.’

“If you love Me, do what I do. Love beyond all measure; and, follow The Holy Spirit, leading you from within. I tell you today: you are risen; you are resurrected; you are The Way; you are Life. The phoenix does not fall back into the ashes, but soars into the heavens. The babe born does not crawl back into the womb, but moves out to experience life, anew. And once risen, once resurrected to the new life, you do not go back to reclaim the shackles that held you in place, no matter what they are.

“This day say, ‘I am risen; and, I know The Way. The Way is truth. I am resurrected. I am reborn. I am free.’

“This is the Easter message. ‘You are resurrected, in Me.’ Now, let us not tarry. Let us move with great joy, into life, anew...

“We are one. We are risen.”

April 5, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-up. It Is Time. The Power, Of God, Is Within You. (or The Parable Of March Madness, Ending, With Faith, Courage, And Willing Obedience To Do God's Will)

“With the coming of the new day, the new dawn, the new time, I greet you. I extend My hand to you. And I say, ‘Rise-up, and come! Look out, and see. Look out, in faith, knowing, you will have all you need; for, an angel of God, stands with you, to strengthen you, so that you might ‘know,’ the power of Heaven, as you walk upon the Earth!’

“I call you forth, and say, ‘The time is now! Come!’

“Do not have concerns about if you can this, or if you can do that. Do not fall to the ‘temptations,’ of those who will say, ‘You cannot do this’ or, ‘You cannot do that.’

“For verily I say unto you, ‘your mission,’ is written upon your heart. It is for you to do. It is actually, God, working through you. And God can do all things. Therefore, God can do all things, using you. God can do all things, through you. It only requires: faith, when you feel the stirring; courage, to rise-up and walk, or speak, or do; and obedience, to the power moving in you. This is what is required, now! This is the time of action. And it falls upon each of you, my brothers and sisters, to do.

“When I walked the Earth, some two thousand years ago, I gave words, directions, instructions. For those who gathered around Me, I gave the instructions for them ‘to do’. I gave words they could bear, to assist them in ‘doing.’ And I said unto them, ‘You can do all that I do.’ Acknowledging, at that moment, it was God, and is God. It is God in Me. It is God in your. When you set pride and the ego aside, you will see that, that which you are to do, upon the Earth, is the work of God. And when it is time, and you are to use your talents, and your gifts, to accomplish your mission, in the name of God, it shall be done.

“Do not tarry in the doorway, saying, ‘I cannot do this.’ For, you are, at that moment, pronouncing you do not wish to do. For, as you are called to do it, God will do it, through you. Therein, is where the miraculous events occur. It is not your attempt to try to do something upon the Earth. It is your willingness to let God do something, upon the Earth, through you.

“It is time. And there will be angel, walking with you, that will strengthen you. And you will rise-up. And ‘God’s Will,’ will be done, through you. This is the eternal truth. And anything else is an illusion. Anything else is an excuse. For, if it is yours to do, it shall be done, through the power of God, working in you.

“Today many of you will go to your churches, the ones that you feel comfortable in, that are your community of faith. And you will celebrate a day, that is now referred to as Palm Sunday, a day of victory, a day of triumph, a day I knew, was the beginning of the end, of ‘My mission,’ upon the Earth.

“I tell you, no matter what you do, an angel of God will accompany you. I tell you, no matter what you do, a temptation will accompany you. I encourage you to listen to the angel of God, encouraging you, strengthening you. Reject the voice of temptation, pulling you away, giving you reasons why you should not act.

“The time is now! The Will of God is flowing, in such a way, as miracles will abound upon the Earth, for The Glory of God. People will be ‘awakened,’ in this way. And there are those amongst you, who are to rise-up, and be ‘the sign.’ Do not hesitate this day. Do not listen to the temptations, who will say, surely they will say to you, ‘You cannot do it.’ But, I tell you, you can do it!

“Remember, it is much like a game of basketball. The ball moves from one person to another. The beings, the people, the individuals, playing the game, move from end of the court to the other, waiting for the opportunity to shot the ball, to score.

“Now, those of you who have played this game, realize it requires movement. It requires that when the ball is finally in your hands, that you do not hesitate, that you act with faith, courage, and obedience to that moment, that pivotal moment, to send the ball into the air, toward the basket, at that time. For, if you hesitate, you miss the opportunity. And you must wait again, until the ball is in your hands.

“Those of you, who are familiar with this game, realize this. Those of you, who are not familiar with this game, can surely understand these words.

“I am speaking with great love, and passion, and urgency today; because, today, many of you are holding the ball in your hands. And it is time.

“I speak to you, and say, ‘You have a mission. You have a goal. You have the opportunity. And the angel of God is with you: to give you strength, to do, whatever it is you are to do, to make it possible for God’s Will to be done.

“The Power of God is within you. You have ‘A Mission,’ to do. It is time, and you are ready; because, you are being moved, by The Power of God. This is how each of you My brothers and sisters, can do all that I do. For it is, in truth, The Power, of God, in you.

“Rise-up! It is time!”

March 29, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Believe, All Things Are Possible With God In You

“I greet you with the morning light, and I say unto you, I AM with you. I AM with you this day to free you of all the ‘ifs,’ ‘ands,’ and ‘buts,’ that keep you from moving forward, from accomplishing your mission. I AM with you today to encourage you: to rise-up; to not be restrained, or confined; to hear The Word of God; to follow, as you are called; to ride The Breath of The Holy Spirit, with confidence, with faith, with courage, with obedience, to the plan, The Divine Plan, that is written upon your heart and soul. I AM with you today to encourage you: to be; to be all you are, right now!

“Do not limit yourself to the things you think you can do. ‘Believe all things are possible to do, with the power, and the love, and the glory of God, flowing to you, into you, and through you.’ When you embrace this reality, your life will be different, things will change: doors, once locked, will be opened for you; pathways, once hidden, will be revealed for you; roads, once impassible, will be made passable for you; the impossible, will be made possible, for you; for, you believe.

“Therefore, tarry not in the threshold of this new day dawning. Breathe-in The Breath of The Holy Spirit of God, and with faith, and courage, and obedience, walk into the new day, and all the rest of your days believing – believing all things are possible – with God, in you.

“Believe.”

March 22, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Step-Out Of The Normal, Into The Miraculous

“I AM with you. I set My presence with you, as we are one.

“This morning, I speak to you, of stepping-out of the normal, into the miraculous; out of the mundane, into the heavenly experiences, that you might be missing; for, they are all around you. I encourage you to take the step. When you have the faith, the courage, and the obedience, to move as Spirit directs you to move, you will never return to the way it used to be; because, it will be lacking.

“With courage, and obedience, you will ride the wind. You will step onto the wings, of The Holy Spirit of God; and, with faith, you will soar, ‘knowing,’ all that you need to know, and then more, much more. Because it will all be open to you; because you will be, The Breath of Spirit.

“The Breath of God will move into you. It will be what compels your lungs to breathe, in and out. It will be what compels your heart to beat. It will be...you...will be...one.

“When you move with The Hand of God, you are delivered to places you might not go – left to your own devices – because you are set in situations to be The Living Word of God. And this day I say unto you, if you are ready to have the most spectacular journey; then, it is time. And when you find yourself set down in a situation, with chaos around you, breathe-in, and know God is with you. Open your mouth; and the words of God will flow through you, to calm the storms, soothe the seas, and deliver peace.

“I say this to you, ‘Do not speak words of discouragement. Speak words of encouragement. Do not speak words describing what will happen, if this takes place, or that takes place. Speak of the wonders of God.’ Speak with a faith that does not seem possible, yet it is.

“When you find those gathered together, who turn on others, take your place, with the others. Do not join a pack of wolves, devouring that which they have been chasing. Be the good shepherd. Protect the flock.

“There will be times when this is not easy, not popular, does not seem the thing to do. There will be times, when the crowd, or the gang of people, are calling-out against someone, and you feel that the ‘someone,’ has done wrong. It is clear, you will think, that they have broken this or that law. I will say to you, at those times, always remember, the story, that you have either read in the Bible, or heard repeated, remember the story about the woman caught in adultery. Now, this ‘righteous crowd’ grabbed her, at an embarrassing moment, and pulled her out into the streets, and set about calling-out, that she had broken the law. And in fact, they were correct; but the manner, in which they were living-out the law, was not.

“I did not take My place amongst those, standing to uphold the law. I took My place, standing with the one, who had broken the law. And that is where you will always find Me, at the side of the one set upon, turned against, reviled; because, that is where I AM to be.

“Understand this, so you might take your position in the right place. Understand, that what you say, caught in a similar situation is, ‘Go, and be at peace. Sin no more.’ And be done with it. Bless and release, and move on The Breath of Spirit. For, I tell you, there is a temptation to hold the law too close to your heart, to let it rule you. That is a temptation. I say unto each of you, ‘Let your heart rule the law, and you will find that you are more forgiving, more loving, more patient; you are kinder...you are...like God.’

“Remember these words this day. Hold them close to you, and prepare: to ride the wings of The Holy Spirit of God; to be taken to places; to be shown things; to hear the whispers, as you move. A new world awaits you: if you will rise-up; be moved by The Hand of God; hold love in your heart; speak the words of God, and speak them, gently.

“This day, and all the days of your life, be at peace.”

March 15, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

On The Forgotten Parts Of Prayer: Being Open And Listening: With Faith, Courage, And Willing Obedience

“I AM with you. And as I move closer to you, you feel My presence profoundly within you. You feel the tone and vibration, of the words, I say to you.

“My brothers and sisters, most of you have forgotten how to pray. You know the beginning, the asking part, the pleading part. But you have forgotten the most important part! And the most important part requires: faith; courage; and a willing obedience, to accept the answer; and, complete, the project at hand.

“God sends, answers to prayers, always. God answers, every prayer, in all the ways possible, to reach you. The holy angels of God bring you the messages, from The Creator of All Things: leading you to go this way, and that; whispering the answers; or showing the signs; or touching another, to bring you, the message.

“Oh, My brothers and sisters, how different your lives on Earth would be, if you would just open to the answers, sent from God, as demonstratively, as you send forth your prayers, your pleadings, your supplications. If you would listen, with the enthusiasm, carried in the words of your pleadings, you would know better, how to proceed, you would know better, The Way.

“This day, I ask you, each one of you, to practice being still, and being open to the many ways, God sends answers to your prayers.

“When I walked upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago, angels accompanied, were present, or directing, the important issues of My time upon the Earth. God sent the angels: to assist Me; to make My way easier; so that I might accomplish God's will, upon the Earth. And My brothers and sisters, it is the same for you. You can lead a life – directed by God – every minute, of the day. But it requires faith, courage, and a willing obedience to follow.

“As an example, when it was time, for the prophecies to be fulfilled, God sent forth the angel, Gabriel. And in quite an extraordinary vision, Gabriel announced to the young woman, Mary, that she was to bear a child, and name the child Jesus. Now, you have heard this story so often that the remarkableness of the story wanes a bit. But if you had a vision, and in the vision, the angel was telling you, ‘You are going to bear a child; but be not afraid, it is The Will of God, that you do this.’ first, you would consider a number of things. How would this affect your life? What was to happen? The questions would bombard you. But because of faith, courage, and a willing obedience, this young woman did not offer excuses, about why it would be rather inconvenient at the time. She just said, ‘Thy will be done.’ and got-up and proceeded to act, as God directed.

“It took a willingness, to do, and she did. Can you imagine the story, if she had chosen...excuses?”

“Likewise, God sent an angel to Joseph, saying, ‘Do not worry. Proceed as planned. Marry the woman.’ This too, required faith, courage, and a willing obedience. He too could have pulled a myriad of excuses from the pockets of his robe.

“The angels of God delivered a message, heralding My birth, ringing-out over the hillsides, and the country sides, announcing My birth upon the Earth. And here again, in the shepherds, hearing the songs, and receiving the message, it required faith, courage, and a willing obedience to go see. They obviously had an excuse, to not leave their flocks in the fields; yet, they rose-up, and went. The wise men, visiting Me from afar, were told in a dream to go home another way. They did as directed. And the course was safe, because The Hand of God was moving, carrying messages, on the wings of angels, whispered in dreams, seen as signs in the sky. And those who were open, those who had faith, and courage, to follow the signs, and a willing obedience, ‘knew.’

“Joseph was touched, one night, not too long after My birth, in another dream. ‘Rise-up and go quickly!’ There was no excuse. There was no waiting, for another day. Joseph rose-up, and took us to safety.

“God answered, and will always answer, prayers in many ways: through whispers heard in stillness and quiet; through signs, obvious to those who are looking, and open; in dreams, vivid, the ones you really remember, that stand-out, as they carry The Words of God; and, often, by a friend, or another, walking up to you, saying something, that confirms what you have seen, or heard, or know. Saying, ‘Yes, this is confirmation, proceed.’

“Angels surrounded My presence, upon the Earth. They were always with Me, ministering to Me, and vigilant to My needs. They were The Messengers of God, with Me. And I say unto you, they are with you, every day! They hold the answers to your prayers. And they arrange things in such a way, that the answers come: in signs, or in knowing, or in the voice of another; but you can be sure, it is set before you. This is part of praying. Do you see?

“Your petitions, your prayers, do not need to be lengthy. They do not need to be repeated, over and over again, stating how needy you are of this, or that. You simply need to say, ‘God, help me.’ And then, thank God, because your answer is on the way to you, before your prayer, as brief as it might be, is over.

“Your life can be just as directed, as My life. In fact, that is the way it is supposed to be. My brothers and sisters, I ask you, beginning today, without looking back on what has happened, and maybe how you missed some message here or there; but, begin today, with a positive approach to knowing, ‘The Way is set before you.’ God is sending angels ahead of you. You have angels around you. And they carry The Words of God to you, so that you might ‘know.’ This is the part of prayer that most of you are missing. The ‘answers’ are illusive, because you are not open to the signs, you will not accept The Words, or you choose to excuse yourself, from the obligation.

“Think on it. Think upon as many parts of My life as you remember reading about, or hearing about, and how they might have changed, had the one receiving the message, whether it was a sign, or a vision, or a dream, chosen not to follow.

“I say these things to you now, because the time that you are experiencing on Earth, right now, is the time of Lent. It is the time you are: to be more introspective; to think; to ponder; to pray, and ask for wisdom. Include: being open and still; being observant for the signs, being willing to accept the answer, when it comes. Because, verily, I say unto each one of you, angels are amongst you. Their work is for you, and their direction to you is divine.”

March 8, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Know God, Love God; Say, "God, I Know You Are With Me, I Know We Are One."

"My brothers and sisters, I AM with you this morning. As light illuminates, and brings forth this day, I AM with you. I wish to say, today, 'Know God. Love God. God is: the beginning, and the end, in a circle complete, impossible to know which is which, the beginning or the end, in this eternal circle; a continuing ring, of the most brilliant energy; a Creative Being; Magnificent God; Creator of All That Is. And you, My brothers and sisters, are held within that ring, the complete, unending circle of God.'

"Know this. For, it is true.

"I spent much time, when I walked the earth, some two thousand years ago: speaking of God; speaking of God as the parent; because, it is true. And I wish for it to become apparent to you, that God – is a parent – to you. For, without knowing this, you feel that something is missing, that you are not complete, like a child who is lost, seeking the guiding hand of the parent. But I tell you this day, you are not lost; for, God is your parent, and God is with you!

"It is important for you to awaken to this relationship. For once you do, many things will leave you that have burdened you. Once you come to a better understanding, the knowing, of: who you are; and, that God is truly with you, you will not be tempted with doubt. You will say, 'God, what is it you want me to do?' And, you will hear the words, and rise-up to do it. There will be no doubt. You will say, 'God, what is it that you want me to do?' And, you will rise-up, and you will love all things. Because, that is what you know, God wants you to do.

"Then anger, and hatred, and animosity will fall from you; because, you will know. You will know that God wants you to love. You cannot love God, and not love yourself, and your brothers and sisters. And, although you might protest, I say to you, this is true. You cannot love God, and hate another, because, we are one. And in that one, is God. And in each one, is God.

"My brothers and sisters, My message is always living, it is the eternal truth. And it is the message of love. Love God. And in the total loving, love all about you.

"Love will bring you peace. I'm not speaking merely of the word, to speak it, to say, 'I love you.' The phrase can sometimes be empty. I am saying to speak it, with your heart, and say it, 'God, I love you, I know you are with me, I know we are one.' For every time you say this, the knowing increases. And when you pronounce it aloud, it gives it, an extra spark of life. You bring it, with you, into the third dimension, and there it is. And it moves out into eternity, confirming that which you have just pronounced.

"Therefore, this day, I ask you to repeat this often. And, you will find, as you repeat the words, they become a part of you, they become your words, they become your knowing. For, I tell you this ... God is. You are, in God. God lives. You live, in God. God is life. You have life, in God. It is the eternal life, of God; and, it is yours.

“Know this ... life is God.”

March 1, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Mindful, Your Thoughts, And Words, And Deeds, Create

“I AM with you. I AM here, today, now, in the present. And in the present is where you have the opportunity to create great peace, to settle over the earth, and roll into eternity, blessed, created, by each of you.

“My brothers and sisters, be mindful of your thoughts, and words, and deeds. Mind, with a vigilant spirit: the thoughts you create; the words you breathe into life; the deeds you bring forth upon the earth; so that you mine, from your inner core, brilliant gems, which will illuminate The Kingdom of God. Therefore, let your thoughts be filled with love, your words hold compassion and kindness, and your deeds be the living Word. Thereby bringing peace: upon the earth; to yourself; and, to all eternity.

“It is within you to create peace. And the peace – you create – will be enjoyed by you, to the measure you create it. You hold the power. I have been given you the key. Therefore, this day, be mindful of your thoughts, and words, and deeds...

Create,
and bring to life, Peace,
to illuminate The Kingdom of God.”

February 22, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Needy Are In Your Midst, Behold The Blessing, Accept Their Gift

“I AM with you. And I say unto you: behold the gift, accept the blessing; behold the blessing, accept the gift.

“My brothers and sisters, I reach-out to you, through time and space, and touch your heart, and kiss your face, and give you that, which I have to give, so you might grow, so you might live, in the grace, the light, and the love, of God. The love of God encompasses all, enfolds all, delights in every child, and waits patiently for their return, home.

“This day, I wish to speak to you about a golden opportunity that is often missed, or rejected. My brothers and sisters, the needy are in your midst. But many of you turn your face, so you do not see. By avoiding the encounter, you miss the blessing. You miss the opportunity, to be the hands of God. You miss the gift, outright.

“For I say unto you, when one in need stands before you, what they have to offer is far greater, than that which you can give; because, they give you the opportunity to open your heart, and live, within the energy of God’s love, and light, and peace.

“If I knocked on your door, needing: food, or drink, or clothing, or money, who amongst you, would not make haste to: provide a refreshing drink; set a table with your finest food to eat; pull, from your closet, your best coat; and, set your open purse upon the table? Who amongst you would not be eager to give unto Me?

“And I say unto you, do not turn your head away from the needy! Do not miss the opportunity, when the knock comes upon the door. Prepare your heart. Be in love! For I promise you this, when the hand, weary and needy, knocks, and you open the door, I will be there.

“And that which I will give unto you, will be far greater than that which you have to offer, far greater, than all that you have to give. For, it will be the opportunity to truly live, in the light, and the glory, of God. It will be the opportunity to know peace, to give life, to behold the blessing, and accept the gift.”

February 15, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Know Peace In True Love vs. The Illusion Of Love

“My brothers and sisters, feel My Presence with you, as I deliver unto you, My Gift of Love. For, in the gift of love, there is peace. Feel My peace, as I give you, My love.

“I speak to you today of love, because I see that: some of you, feel rejected; many of you, feel disappointed; and, most of you, from time to time, have been disillusioned, regarding your personal relationships, and the experience, you refer to ‘as love.’

“I come to assist you, so that you might have a deeper understanding, of what ‘Love,’ really, truly is. I speak to you today, because what you have created, what you call love, your perception, is an illusion, of what love really is.

“Most of your personal relationships have to do with a piece of love, but incorporate other energies, that keep love in abeyance, hold it, within a box, constrained, restrained. If you are in a relationship that sets a boundary... whether it is spoken, or unspoken... that love will be withdrawn... if one of you does this, or that, or the other... you are operating in an atmosphere, of manipulation and control. You are operating in an atmosphere, of fear, that if something is done, or left undone, love will be removed. This sets the stage, for rejection, for disappointment. And when the illusion of what you are creating bursts, there follows, a feeling of disillusion. There are ‘issues,’ in ‘loving relationships,’ because love is not full, deep, rich. If you will permit yourself to be still, and consider what I say to you, you will realize, that the relationship, the love, is built on what another will say, will do, will provide. If one party does not provide, there is a feeling of rejection. If one party does not say, or do, there is a feeling of disappointment. But this is all because your perception of love is based on ‘an illusion, of love.’

“Today, I wish for you to understand what it means to be in the energy of love. While you are hearing My words, or reading My words, pause briefly, and whisper upon your heart, ‘God, I am here, today. I desire to feel Your love, flowing into me, and I open to that love!’

“If you will do this, you will feel love, the energy of light, pouring into your being. You will be illuminated. You will feel peaceful. And, once you have been touched, once you have been ‘in love,’ you will have a better understanding of what love is, ‘it is a feeling of completeness, wholeness, oneness.’ And, in this feeling, you would not want to bring to the union: the energy of anger; the energy of frustration; demands; the energy of needing this or that; because if you do, that is what the union then becomes.

“When you let the love flow into you, and fill you, you are illuminated, by the love. You are brighter, for the love. You are lighter, for the love. This is what it means, to be, ‘in love.’ It is peaceful. It is serene. It is complete.

“And once you hold this love, coming to you from God, the next step is to release it, and let it flow from you, to all of your brothers and sisters, without restriction. You just let it pour through you, like the mighty force it is. You make no demands. You just exist, in love. This is what love is.

“I ask you today, to take some time, to be still, to go to a quiet place, open yourself fully, and call on God, and say, ‘I am here. I wish to know, the feeling. I wish to be, in love.’ And then wait. For, I promise you, ‘you will feel the love of God, flowing in you, and then, you will ‘know,’ love.’ It will not be a perception, or an illusion, of what you think love is, it will be the powerful force, of God’s unconditional love, for you.

“And, once you know it: that is what you will desire; that is what you will wish to perpetuate. All other forms will be lacking. It is a complete love. It is the perfect love. And, it is God’s love for you, My love for you. You have the ability to love this way, because God’s love is within you! Therefore, today, let God’s love flow through you, with no measures of this or that, what another will do, or will not do, for you. Just be... in love.

“If you will do this, you will recognize a peace, settling over you, and around you, a peace that you have not known in a while. It is the peace that comes with the perfect love, for love is about giving.

“So today, I say to you, rise-up and be healed. Be healed from any negative feelings of rejection. Be freed of negative energies associated with disappointment. Be cured of disillusionment. Do not be confined by a piece of love. Be defined by the peace of love.

“I say unto you, walk with Me into the light, where you will feel the love of God, flow into you, and through you, and therein ‘know, love.’

“Love is giving; let it flow. Love is giving; let it grow, upon the Earth, through you.”

February 8, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Meeting Temptation With The Light and The Strength of God

“I give unto you My Peace. Feel My Presence with you. For in the presence . . . and in the peace . . . you will know . . . We are One!

“I understand your walk. I know the things of Earth. Therefore, it is right, and it is good, that: I reach-out to you; I speak to you; I call to you; I show you The Way.

“This morning I say unto you My brothers and sisters, ‘Come. Follow Me, in The Light and The Strength, of God, The Creator of All Things. Let The Light be upon you, and around you, as The Light is within you. Be encased, in The Light of God.

“In The Light of God you will come to know The Strength of God. The Strength of God is Love. It will surround you. It will be your power, for The Strength of God is within you.

“My brothers and sisters, when you walk upon the Earth: you will know temptation; you will face challenge. But I tell you this, because I know it to be true from My own earthly experience, one can rise-above the temptation, and meet every challenge, in The Light, and The Strength, of God.

“It is not only possible; it is My promise to you. When you are tempted, turn to The Light within you. When you know temptation, know The Light of God is with you, within you. And when you meet challenge, know The Strength of God is with you, within you. When these times come to you, speak to Me, for I AM with you. When the temptation is great, I will whisper to you, ‘Turn to The Light.’ When the challenge heavy, I will say, ‘Use The Strength of God.’ And when you have risen above the temptation, and faced the challenge, and you are ‘still,’ there will be a great awakening, within you; for you will have experienced the miracle. And angels will minister to you, and nurture you. They will feed your spirit. They will give you, that which you need to rise-up, and continue, on your way. And this will happen, no matter how many temptations, no matter how many challenges, it will be continued, until you return home.

“And I say this to you, if you will try: meeting a temptation, knowing a temptation and turning to The Light; meeting a challenge and calling on The Strength of God; your life will hold miracles every day. And you will see, and you will know, The Way.

“It is much like the person, who, to accomplish something, must go-out of their house into the rain, let us to say, to pick-up a package, that is left in a mail box, up by the road. Now, you can go-out in the rain, and get wet, and retrieve your package, and return to your house, dripping, cold, uncomfortable, package in hand, possibly damaged. Or, you can protect yourself against the elements, by putting on rain gear, on your feet, over your body, carrying an umbrella, and making your way to the road, to your mail box, to pick-up the package; bring it back in the house, remove the gear, specially designed to protect you from the rain, and open the package, in the warmth of your home.

“Now this example seems very simple, but it is the same. You can meet every temptation, protected by The Light of God, that is within you. You can meet every challenge, protected by The Strength of God, that is within you. And you can hold your package, the gift that is delivered unto you, and open your package, the gift that is delivered unto you, in a miraculous state of being.

“It is possible, to walk the face of the Earth: knowing temptation, but rejecting it for The Light; facing challenge, but meeting it through The Strength of God; and, being nurtured and fed, by the hands of angels.

“I tell you this day, this type of existence is possible! It is your protection upon the Earth. It is God, reaching-out and touching you, while you walk upon the Earth. It is the miraculous existence, of a child of God, upon the Earth. And it is all available, for you.

“This day I say unto you, ‘Come. Walk with Me. For, I AM with you. Let us go, over the Earth, in The Light, and The Strength, of God.’ And in this Way, your experience of Earth will be miraculous. And you will truly ... know ... peace!”

February 1, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Not Afraid, For I AM With You; Come, Into The Light

“I AM with you, on this day. Feel My Presence with you. Hear the words I say unto you. For, I speak to you, with great love. You are My brother. You are My sister. We are One.

“Today, I say unto you, ‘Be not afraid, for I AM with you. Come into The Light. The shadows of fear – disappear – in The Light of God, and you are again, free.’

“I wish to give you an example, so that you might more clearly understand these words, I speak to you today. For, it is not good to remain a captive of fear. It constrains and restrains you. You are held, in a dark place. You are not free, in fear.

“This is, in no way, to make light of your physical and emotional distress, when you are a captive of fear. For it is exhibited in many ways. It is your reality. But, the truth is held in The Light of God, and I bring you the truth, ‘The Light is always with you. But you must choose The Light. You must return to The Light, where you will see, and know, and find peace.’

“As the example, I wish to remind you of something that you either experienced, as a child, or possibly watched your child experience, as a parent, or maybe even as a brother, or a sister. No matter what your experience, I am sure each of you has ‘known this.’

“It is bedtime. A child, a small child, is being tucked into bed. A few of the last words said, as the parent prepares to leave the room and close the door are, ‘Can you leave the door open, so some light might come into the room?’ And the parent usually will leave the door open, and the child looks around, and is comforted in the darkness of the room, by The Light coming through the door. Soon, as the child’s eyes look around the room, the room becoming more and more captured by The Light, the child’s eyes close, and they go to sleep, in peace.

“The Light is always present, no matter what room you enter, or occupy, The Light is with you. But you must open the door, or at least, leave the door ajar. You are only cut-off in darkness, when you close the door open to The Light of God.

“This example is external, in a way, so that you might understand the importance of The Light. But the door you shut is usually, and most frequently, inside of you. Because The Light of God is inside of you, we are One.

“Keep the door open, understanding, that you are upon the Earth, connected to Heaven; but you are on a mission, you are on the Earth, so you must remain open. Keep your door open, so you can receive the guidance, The Light, you are seeking.

“The Light of God is within you. Open the door, do not close the door, and even in the darkest place, there too, you will see The Light, and you will be comforted, and soon, rest will come to you, and you will know peace.

“Be not afraid, I AM with you! Come, into The Light, where fear will disappear, and you will find peace!”

January 25, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Blessed Are The Peacemakers

“I AM with you. On this day, I AM with you, My brothers and sisters, and let us say together, ‘Blessed are the peacemakers.’

“Their peaceful presence is born of the noble purpose, intention, and desire, to be peace. And, as The Words of God flow from their lips, a song of peace is written on the wind, blessing the Earth.

“Who are these noble beings, whose anthems reverberate through the hallways of eternity? They ... are you! They are the children of God, upon the Earth: waking in the light, of a new day; seeing The Power of God, in a different way; knowing strength, in The Word of God; knowing the words to say.

“The tone and vibration of peace is unique. It is calm, and serene, and deep. And when it stirs at the core of your being, it will move through you, and touch your skin. And you will awaken in the light of a new day. You, each one of you, will see The Power of God, in a different way. And you will come to know true strength, in God, The Words, of God.

“And you too, will know the words to say. And as they flow from your lips - a Song of Peace - will be written on The Wind, blessing all the Earth, again. So let it be.”

“Amen!”

January 18, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

From A Seed, There Comes The Gift, Blessed Are The Peacemakers

“I AM with you. I love you. My peace I give unto you!

“And today, I wish to speak to you about the birth of a peacemaker. For, My brothers and sister, some of you, in fact, most all of you, will come to a place when you realize that the words of apology, or forgiveness, flowing from your lips, are empty, dull, lifeless, lacking The Spirit of Truth. And in that moment of recognition, there will stir within you, ‘a desire to see, in The Light of God.’ And, in the fertile ground, of desire, the seed, of a peacemaker, will be sown.”

“And as the seed grows, and takes root, you will begin, holding issues brought to you, in The Light of God, revealing truth, in wisdom. This is a period of preparation, of practice. And it is the time, during which the seed is nurtured, and begins to grow.

“But as you pass through this period, you find temptation, temptation to hold the issues in the light of how the world thinks, or believes. You find temptation to join in fights, or arguments, swaying things, through discussions, or anger, so that your way is presented. You find ‘the temptation’ to expel the seed growing within.

“But even in this chaos and temptation, you feel the growth within you, as it moves. And you ‘know’ you must deliver The Will of God to those of Earth. And as you labor, in this...peaceful examination of issues, rejecting the chaos, choosing the life within, you come to know The Strength, and The Power of God, that is within you. And you bring forth; you give life. Born from you, to those of Earth, is a peacemaker!

“From a seed, sown by The Hand of God, nurtured in the garden of your desire to do The Will of God, there comes... a gift... of peace... to those of Earth...

“Blessed are the peacemakers.”

January 11, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gift Of Peace Is Yours To Preserve And Maintain

“I AM with you. Feel My Presence with you now. I give unto you, the gift of My peace. Breathe in deeply, now; and you will feel peace, within your body, stirring your soul, warming your heart.

“This day, My brothers and sisters, I say unto you, ‘Before you can experience, or know, true peace, you must recognize and maintain peace, at the core of your being. You must establish peace, within. Otherwise, you will only experience a superficial peace, subject to destruction, by the forces of chaos, brewing, beneath the surface.’

“Peace is borne within. Peace is born, within you. Wherever you find true peace, there too, you will find The Kingdom of God, upon the Earth. Peace is a potent power, supporting of life, nurturing of growth. Peace is a precious gift. And it is yours. Preserve it. Maintain it. And you will abide, in The Kingdom of God, today, in great peace!

“So be it. Amen.”

January 4, 2009

Jesus Teaches On:
Peace Will Come To Earth, Through You, The Children Of God

“I AM with you. I AM with you, as night gives way to day. I AM with you, as we step over the threshold, and into a new year. I AM with you, as we, together, as One, begin to create a year of peace.

“I AM with you, and I give unto you, My peace. As The Peace of God flows to Me, and through Me, I give the gift to you. For it is to be, that peace will come to the Earth, through the children of God. Therefore, I say unto you, ‘Open this day, and receive My Peace.’

“If you choose, to be the bearer of peace, you will deliver unto yourself, and those around you, the gifts of: good health; happiness; and true joy. Peace is a precious gift. And health, happiness, and joy, are the fruits, of the State of Peace.

“You will be able to maintain a State of Peace, if you will expel, from you, anger. You cannot establish a State of Peace, harboring the energy of anger, no matter how great, or how small. You see, a garden of peace will not spring forth from seeds of anger. So it is of great importance, as we begin, this year dedicated to peace, that each of you, My brothers and sisters, go inside, in search of any pockets of anger.

“It is important, that you see anger, as it is. It is deadly. See, and know, anger, as it is. It is an impediment to peace. See, know, and reject, anger, as it is a threat to your wellbeing, and the wellbeing of those around you.

“It is important that you find a way to be vigilant, to be watchful, so that you might cast this energy from you, and maintain your State of Peace. For some of you this might not be such a challenge. But, for most of you, it will be quite an undertaking. And, for many of you, it will require courage. But, I say unto you, I AM with you. And I will remain with you, for it will be, well worth the effort, you apply to the task. My brothers and sisters, I promise you this. If you will cast from you, this energy, in a very short time, the results of this process, will be quite magnificent. It will be magical. It will be miraculous.

“For, in the determination, to rid yourself of this energy, you will be healed. You will be whole. You will be free. You will be free to love. You will be free to soar. You will be free to laugh and sing. You will be free to establish a State of Peace, wherever you go. You will be free.

“The Peace of God is flowing to you this day. Mark it. Know it. Open to it, and let it flow through you. Because it is in this way, that The Peace of God will settle over the face of the Earth. And it will be done: minute by minute; hour by hour; day by day; by the joyful children of God.

“So come. Take My hand. I AM with you. It will be a great adventure. It is our intention, to dedicate this year, to peace. Let us not wait. Rise-up, and come with Me. The time is now, and you are ready. Let there be – Peace – on Earth.”