Jesus' Sunday Sermons 2010

The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Not Afraid, Have Faith, I AM With You, I Will Show You The Way

“I AM with you. Feel My presence now, with you. Hear My words, so you might know peace; for I AM reborn, in you, at every celebration of Christmas. The birth continues, the growth continues, and life continues... in you.

“I ask you a question. Imagine you are a lifeguard, the one set on patrol, watching over waters used for recreation, for play. You are standing on the beach, and you see two swimmers... one making their way to the other shore, in a steady pace, rolling-over to rest as they float along, and then flipping back... to stroke through the water, heading toward the other shore; and another you see is struggling, slapping at the water, calling-out for help, which one of the swimmers do you save? Do you go in and save the one who is making steady progress to the other shore, or do you save the one calling-out for help, struggling? Of course you answer, ‘Save the one who is struggling, calling for help.’ That... is what I do. My journey to Earth... was to save: the lost, the displaced, the one struggling; a sure sign that God, The Creator of All Things, cares... and wants the lost sheep to be saved.

“What tender moment you will experience, when you ‘know,’ that ‘God loves all.’ And there is a special place for those who are lost. When I walked upon the Earth, I called-out to those who were lost. I sat with those who were lost, struggling in despair. And I said to them, ‘Do not be afraid, have faith, I will show you The Way.’

“I remember one man who approached Me: concerned, worried, anxious, his child, he felt, was dying. The signs were obvious. The child was sick. And I said to this man, ‘Do not be afraid, have faith.’ And he did have faith, and his child was healed.

“My life, upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago, began, with an angel saying, ‘Be not afraid!’ And it was all set in place... with faith... that God would take care of all that is necessary. My life upon the Earth continued, as those who loved Me... were led... by faith, hearing often in dreams the words, ‘Be not afraid.’ ‘Do not be afraid.’

“And so I say to you, today, ‘Do not be afraid, have faith, no matter what your situation. Whether you are concerned and worried about: money, health, happiness; no matter whether relationships are torn asunder; or a child is sick, or you believe you are in financial ruin, I say to you today... ‘Do not be afraid, have faith! Out of fear, I draw-you-up, and give you a cup, drink of it, it is faith. Out of chaos, I draw-you-up, I offer you a cup, and say, drink of it, it is hope. Out of despair, I draw-you-up, I offer you a cup, and say, drink of it, it is love.

“No matter what your situation, do not be afraid, have faith. If you will sit with God, a sign will come to you, and you will know exactly what to do. But to have this miraculous experience requires you to be still, be quiet, and say to God, ‘I love you. Help me. Thy will be done.’ For as surely as the man struggling in the water calls-out for help, and help comes, God will come to you, in a mighty way. All you have to do... is have faith.

“Be not afraid. I AM with you. I bring you comfort. I bring you love. And I sit with you... in faith.”

Advent: As You Watch For The Signs, Heaven Watches For The Sign, In You

“I AM with you, as you watch and wait, I AM with you. Be vigilant. The signs are all around you. And for those who are awake, who feel the stirring within, the signs live, and speak, and show The Way.

“In a few days, most of the Earth, will celebrate... Christmas. I ask you to celebrate Christmas... in a miraculous way. Begin, in your heart, with desire. And from desire, let your intention be known. And once your intention is known, make the commitment, and hold your commitment, in dedication: to the journey you are taking, to the promise you are making, to The Way.

“Miracles... are seeds, waiting to burst forth, blossoming in the light, and the glory of God. All that is necessary... is for you to recognize... the seed of the miracle, and water it: with your faith and trust, with your confidence in God. This week there are key words, which will spur you on, spur you on... into a season: of enthusiasm and wonder; of miraculous birth; the song of angels, in the hearts of human beings being lifted to a new place, to celebrate a new time.

“This week, remember, the young woman, the virgin, Mary: receiving... astonishing news, in the apparition of an angel; responding not in fear, but in commitment, in faith, in dedication. Her purpose would be to let her soul magnify the glory of God.

“This week, remember, Joseph, a man... in his middle years: willing to follow the words of an angel, visiting him in a dream; acting upon that which he received; turning his head from the ways of the world, to walk The Way of God.

“Think of the wise men, who dedicated their time to watching for the signs. And once the sign was evident, they did not sit still, but they rose-up, and chose, of their own freewill: to follow, to commit to The Way, to following the star, to celebrating the day.

“Remember: the shepherds, doing their job working in the hillsides; and the apparition of angels, announcing My birth, in such a way, that the shepherds were moved: to leave their flocks, and follow; to commit, and move on the breath of The Holy Spirit of God.

“My life upon the Earth is a continued story... of desire and intention, commitment and dedication. It is a miraculous story... of being guided by angels, and ‘knowing,’ the reality of Heaven is different, from the illusion of Earth.

“This week, remember, I AM in you. Give birth again. Speak... the words of God, as I spoke the words of God. Live the words of God, as I lived the words of God. And I will live... through you, in all you say and do. It will be a Christmas present from you to you, from Me to you, from us... to the world, because to restore the Earth, to its rightful place, as The Garden it was intended to be, the change must come from within each... of you. That is the sign... that Heaven is waiting for... the sign that the children of Earth, accept the responsibility, of who they are, and intend to set right The Garden, for all time.

“As you watch for the signs, Heaven watches for the sign... in you.”

Advent: Awaken, & Say, Let It Be Done, Unto Me, According To Thy Will

“I AM with you. I touch you, and you feel Me. I whisper and you hear Me. I call to you, and you rise-up. Together... we go... into the new day, into the new time, into the new way. For as surely as I showed The Way, some two thousand years ago, in a physical form, speaking, and touching, and loving, ministering to all who would hear Me, I delivered The Word of God, and I deliver The Word of God today!

“I did not speak My words, I spoke the words of God. I do not speak My words, I speak the words of God. And I say to each of you, you can do this too! You do it every time you reject the temptation, to enter into an argument, or discourse. Every time you choose peace and love, over confusion and chaos and anger, you choose the words of God. I say to each of you, bless the Earth by speaking the words of God!

“It is time. It is time, for those of you who are in slumber, to awaken. It is time, for those of you who are awake, to be vigilant and watch... for the sign... is upon you. Today, I bring you The Sign. For if you are hearing these words, or reading these words, you are feeling, a stirring within you, a call to action. It is time!

“You are no different than your heroes, those you place in a high position: because of what they have accomplished, because of their willingness to put others ahead of themselves. There are people all through the history of Earth, whom you will pick-out and say, ‘That is a great women, or a great man!’ I ask you today, to look for those of whom you can say, ‘That is the living Word of God. That is what it looks like. That is God’s Word in action.’

“Today I ask you to, ‘Bring forth the gifts you carry. Prepare to deliver to Earth the gifts God has given you. Prepare to do this, even when it does not seem like the thing to do, when the world is telling you, ‘No,’ Spirit is saying, ‘Yes.’ Be like Mary: a young woman, promised in marriage; a simple, young woman, in the eyes of the world. The apparition came, the angel spoke, and even when this young woman did not understand, how such a thing could happen, she found the faith, the gift of faith within her, to say clearly, ‘Let it be done unto me, according to Thy will.’ I say to each of you today, make that statement, and mean it. You carry gifts within you, and there will come a time when you are to deliver your gifts, just as Mary carried The Great Gift... and when her time came, she delivered... The Living Word of God. My brothers and sisters, you carry gifts within you, and if you will deliver the gifts you carry, you too will deliver... the living word of God... that is yours to deliver.’

“Do not question how it will happen, merely say, ‘Let it be done.’ And do not be fearful, about what the world will think. For you see there was a man at that time, who was betrothed to the virgin, Mary. His name was Joseph. When it was obvious she was with child, he was concerned, ‘What will the world think, this is not right?’ But being a just and kind man, he was going to take care of the situation ‘quietly,’ without making a scene. Even with those good intentions, God had other plans, and sent an angel, to talk to Joseph, as he slept. The vision came in a dream, and it was clear direction. The angel told Joseph, 'Do not be afraid. This is The Hand of God. Accept the woman, for she is pure.' And casting away, what the world would say, Joseph took the hand of the angel... and the hand of Mary. I say unto you, be not afraid. Be like Joseph, willing to accept that which is yours to do, no matter what the world says.

"I say to you be vigilant, and watch for the signs, so you will know, just as the wise men, thousands of years ago. They knew the sign would come, and so do you. They prepared, for when the sign appeared, and so should you. And when the sign came, and they saw the star, they gathered their gifts, and began the journey, walking... far into the night, far into the day, far... following the star. Be like the wise men. Make your preparation, because I tell you, it will come, and you need to be prepared. You carry the gifts, you ignore the world, and you prepare, because this is 'of Spirit,' and the things of Earth do not apply.

"And when it was all set in place, angels covered the hillsides, appearing to the shepherds, 'Be not afraid! I bring you good news!' And there they were, looking... at this great light-show, beings from a heavenly dimension, announcing to them, on the hillside, amongst the sheep, that what had been prophesied was coming to pass. And they left their sheep, and went to the place, and saw The Living Word of God. Be like the shepherds. When you are called forth, do not say, 'I will go tomorrow, once I take care of this situation. When you are called, rise-up and go.'

"And do not think that you will be called into these situations, and then left to fall, or fail. Once you say, 'Yes,' and take the hand of God, there will be angels who will speak to you and show you The Way every day, just as they did to Joseph. When he was sleeping, with Mary and The Babe close, the angel said, 'Joseph, it is time to get-up and go. Take Mary and The Child, and flee. There is danger nearby. We will protect thee.' He did not hesitate. He did not take time to do anything, but follow, as he was led; and we were all protected, because of what the angel said.

"All you have to do is say, 'Let it be done unto me according to Thy will,' and then follow. If you are blessed in such a way to hear the call, and see the sign, it is time!

"I speak to you today, because it is time now! It is time... to say, 'Yes.' It is time... to be brave. It is time... to prepare. It is time... to go, and see, what God has given, unto the Earth. It is time to know... that, that gift is not complete, until... you bring forth the gifts you carry, until... you deliver the gift, until... you become... the living word of God.

"There are days left before the Earth celebrates, Christmas, a great celebration of My birth. I ask you today, to make preparation, so that, on that day of celebration... you will give birth... to the Christ Consciousness... living within you... waiting to be born... of you. Christmas... as it is meant to be!"

Jesus Teaches On:

Advent: Be Still, Watch, And Wait, For The Sign, Prepare For The Time

“I AM with you. I tread the corridors of time, and I AM with you. No doorway blocks this passage. The key is desire, and I desire to touch you.

“I AM with you; for in reality, there is no time; there is eternity, and eternal presence. There is comfort and peace in knowing this. There is comfort and peace in knowing... who you are. Therefore I say unto you, I AM with you. I come to you to remind you, that you are already in The Kingdom of God. Earth... is ‘of Heaven.’

“Separation from God, and absence of The Light, can all be changed, by desire, awakening, remembering. Remember... you are upon Earth... to assist, in the restoration... of The Garden... created by God. God did not create The Garden and cast it... from Heaven. God created The Garden... in Heaven. It is time for The Garden to be restored, to its rightful place, and the veils lifted.

“There are women and men, walking Earth today: who ‘know,’ who they are; who practice the gifts they have been given; waiting, watching for the sign; preparing for the time, when they are called forth, to use their gifts, for the glory of God. They are not in chaos or confusion. They are at peace. Be at peace. They are not distracted, by others, who might have been awakened months or years ago. They are not distracted by those who seem to... be well along the path of completing their mission. They are not distracted by those who are still in sleep, slumbering. They know... who they are.

“I refer again, to the three individuals, referred to in biblical teaching, as The Three Wise Men. And I compare, the men and women, who know who they are, to The Three Wise Men. They waited, until they saw the sign. And only when they saw the sign, did they follow the star, fulfilling the prophecy, and delivering the gifts, to be used for the glory of God. They did not... start the journey before time. They did not say, ‘Let us see if another sign will come, then we will be sure,’ because they knew... what they were looking for, would stir them to move, in such a way, that they would not be still. Therefore they waited, and the sign came, and they rose-up, and they delivered the gifts they carried.

“I say this to you so you will not be caught in chaos and confusion. Be still. If you are listening to these words, or reading these words, you are being stirred to awaken. Do not be distracted by what others are doing around you. Be content and peaceful, knowing full well, that you are ‘a descendent of God,’ and when it is time for you to fulfill the prophecy, you are upon the Earth to fulfill, you will know it. If you remain at peace, you will be touched in such a way, that you cannot deny the calling. But the temptation will be when you see others, either asleep, or in action, for you to think, ‘I should still be sleeping; or, I should know what it is I am to do.’ This is not the case. For each person upon the Earth, there is ‘the time.’ So I say unto you today, ‘Be still. Be at peace. Practice using the gifts you have been given, and eat, and fill yourself with the fruits of Spirit. Reject: frustration, anxiety, worry, fear, doubt, hatred. Reject these energies. You will know them, because at just the thought, or the saying, of it, it feels heavy. Focus on: light, and love, and peace, compassion, mercy, understanding, forgiveness, pardon. You will know the energies, which are the energies of abundance, because when you think of them, you feel lighter, when you speak them, there is a song, and when you deliver them to Earth, there is a reward. Earth is lighter, and you feel blessed beyond anything you can imagine, because through you, has come the blessing, to Earth, and you are twice blessed.'

“Be at peace, and know this, ‘No matter who you are, or where you are right now, you are the son, or the daughter, of God. If you rely, on your knowledge, you will accomplish much. But if you rely on the wisdom of God, you will accomplish all things, because it will be God working through you. Eat of the vine of The Holy Spirit, and you will be filled with wisdom. Practice the gifts you have been given, and wait in patience, until you are called forth... to use your gifts... for the glory of God. For what is time for another, is not always time for you. But of this you can be sure, God loves you, and you are... uniquely, a piece... of The One, a citizen of The Kingdom of God, and you are of service to God, by being on Earth.

“When the time comes for you to return to The Kingdom, from whence you came, there will be a great celebration, and the signing of your name, in the corridors of all time, for the work you have done. Be at peace. Watch for the sign that is yours. But wait, until it is your time. Be... at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Advent: Awaken, See The Signs, Commit, And Follow The Way, As The Three Wise-Men

“I AM with you. I AM with each one of you. And I call to those of you who are waiting, and watching, for The Sign, which will call you forth...

“For those of you who are ‘awakening,’ you will see the sign. The ‘awakened ones’... will follow the sign. And those of you, willing to make the commitment ‘to walk The Way,’ will see... and be blessed... by the miracle... of life... eternal life!

“It is appropriate today, to remind you, of a story, because most of you, who follow the Christian path upon the Earth, will be observing, on this particular day, the First Sunday of Advent. Advent commemorates a time of watching, waiting, and preparing, for that which was ‘promised,’ and ‘prophesied,’ to come...

“This week, I would like you to hold in your thoughts, remember in your words, and carry-out in your deeds, the story, of the individuals known, in unison, as The Three Wise-Men. For the purpose of today, is to create an environment, where you will desire, in such depth, and completeness, that you will commit; and with the commitment is born the miracle. The three individuals, of whom we speak, were learned, knowledgeable in the ways of the world, but they were ‘thirsting,’ for eternal wisdom. They were seeking. And within them their souls were stirring... and together... they began to walk, and talk, and seek.

“In the awakening, they sought the sign, and in the seeking, they found it. And when they saw the sign, they gathered the things they wished to carry with them; they carried their gifts, with them, and began to follow, the sign, making the commitment, to continue along the path, until they reached the place, where they were to be. You can be assured that there were many temptations, along The Way to deter them: cozy inns; warm, inviting food; but they kept going. They followed The Star. They focused on the sign, which was leading them along The Way. And when they came to the place designated by the sign, and The Star was shining, over the place, they stopped, and they brought forth their gifts, to be offered, and used, for the glory of God.

“This story has been told so many times, that it is easy to lose the meaning, the richness, the lesson. So I set ‘the lesson,’ forth, for you today to carry into this week... If you are feeling a stirring within, to seek beyond the knowledge of the world, it is time! If you are waking, seeking wisdom, it is time! If you have awakened, and you feel The Presence in the strongest of ways, it is time! Make the commitment. Open the eyes of your soul, and you will see; each of you will see... the sign... this week. For some, it will be significant, great in size, so you cannot miss it. For others it will be small, leading you, toward the beginning of the path. No matter its size, the sign will be there, for any who are watching, and waiting, and preparing.

“But it will all be... standing in place... as a stagnant pool... if you are not ‘willing to make the commitment to follow the sign,’ just as the three wise individuals did. And if you make the commitment, the sign will lead you to the place; and it is there, at that place, where you will use the gifts you are carrying, for the glory of God.

“This is how I wish for you to use that story this week, ‘Use it, as a rallying call... to rise-up... be watchful and preparing... working with your gifts... shining them, so they are worthy to be used in the light and glory of God. And when the sign is sure, go forth, because it will lead you to the place of miracles. This I promise!’

“And each of you willing to do this, will be... as The Three Wise-Men, undeterred by the things of the world, making the journey, for the wisdom, of eternity, knowing, The Way, to go!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Speak What Is Written On Your Heart By The Hand Of God And You Will Deliver Peace To The Earth

“I AM with you. I bring you love. Feel My presence, for we are as one. I AM your Brother, know Me, for there is much, I have to tell you... I draw nearer to you, and you feel My presence. You feel My approach, and open, for you cannot deny that which is within you; and that which is within you... is created... by God.

“Most of you are beginning, making preparations, opening the doorways, to a series of days, and festivals, which has come to be known as ‘the holidays.’ Before you enter this time... be still... be quiet... know from the core of your being, the importance of what you are doing. You are: celebrating gratitude, singing a song of thanksgiving, and preparing, in a special way, to welcome the peace of God upon Earth.

“Today I wish to offer some advice, which will assist you greatly, and shepherd you through, what some consider ‘the busy days,’ peacefully...

“When you open your mouth, and speak, you are announcing to the world: what you are holding upon your heart, and in your soul; what you are creating, in your thoughts; and what you are delivering to Earth. Therefore: be mindful, of your heart, and your soul, and that which you hold there; be watchful, about what you are creating with your thoughts. In this way, the words you speak, and that which you deliver to the Earth within the words you speak, will be blessed... you will deliver to Earth... peace.

“My history, upon the Earth some two thousand years ago, began, when My earthly mother, just a young woman at the time, let her heart and soul magnify the glory of God. And in the glory of God is where she lived. That which was created in her thoughts, reflected, the glory of God; and when she spoke, she delivered peace, to any who would hear her. Her words were clear and simple, ‘Do unto me according to Thy will. Let it be done.’ And My story began, upon the Earth.

“Watch, for ‘the signs,’ of your awakening. It does not matter whether an angel of the Lord appears to you, or whether your awakening is the stirring from within, watch for the sign. Watch for the sign, so that your soul and your heart will beat in unison with the will of God. And from this glorious song, reverberating throughout your body, your soul and your spirit, your thoughts will be filled, with the sacred symphony, and your words will ring-out, with the music, ‘Thy will be done!’ Once this settles within you, once this is what you are creating, through the glory and the power of God, within you... your words will be changed... because you will be delivering: the peace of God, the light of God, the love of God.

“My mother... guided Me well, during My early childhood, into and through adolescence. She did so, by being watchful and vigilant, with: what was written on her heart, and soul; what was in her thoughts, created there; and how she spoke, what she said. She did not speak often, but when she spoke, I knew, it was a sign. And they were words that God would speak to Me, if God were holding My hand, at that time, in a physical form.

“Just as when My mother began My physical life upon Earth, those thousands of years ago, when it was time, what was written on her heart, and created in her thoughts, was delivered through what she said to Me, in Cana. Just as her pronouncement began My life upon Earth, her pronouncement also began My public ministry. She knew it was time. We were at a wedding feast, and she came to Me, and she said, ‘My Son, they have run-out of wine. There is no more wine for the celebration.’ And I looked at her, and I said, “My time has not yet come. Why have you asked this of Me?’ You see, even though she had not formed it as a question, I knew she brought it to Me, so that I might act accordingly. What was written on her heart, by the hand of God, was when My public ministry... the ministry of miracles... would begin. And as this was created in her thoughts, she came to Me, and the announcement was made. I paused, and I thought, and My thoughts mingled with hers, and I recognized ‘the sign,’ had been delivered. She knew it was time, because she was in communion with God... totally... fully... completely. And the wine... was brought forth... from water.

“I say these things to you today, so that you might spend the coming week, not in chaos and confusion, hurrying here and there, but moving over the Earth, as a peaceful presence, feeling your heart open, knowing your soul, letting the glory of God be the center of your thoughts, and delivering to Earth, through the words you say, peace!

“If you listen to your heart, and speak, as you are directed by The Holy Spirit of God: you will fulfill prophecy, you will deliver signs, you will magnify the glory of God. God’s will, will be done, through you! What great joy! What great promise! What great peace!

“You do not have to worry, about what you are going to do. It is already written on your heart, let it through. You do not have to worry, what to think about this or that. Let what is written on your heart fill your thoughts. You do not have to worry about what to say. Open your mouth, and speak the words of God.

“Today... tomorrow... eternally... ‘speak... as God would have you speak...’ and in this Way, ‘you will know peace.’”

Jesus Teaches On:

Use The Fruits Of The Holy Spirit, To Magnify The Glory Of God

“I AM with you. I AM, in truth, always with you. I reach-out to you, and ask you to hear Me, feel Me, know Me, for I AM.

“Do not let your heart be troubled. Do not be worried. Do not be concerned. Be not afraid.

“Open to the power and the glory of God that is yours... and live. God... created... you! You do not have to pray, ‘God make me worthy.’ for God made you, worthy. You are worthy; therefore, you live; and you live, so that Earth might fully ‘know,’ the glory of God.

“Throughout all time many people, many very intelligent people, have asked the question, ‘Why do we live? What is the purpose of life, upon Earth?’ I give you the answer to this question, which has echoed through the hallways of time... ‘You live... your life upon Earth... so the glory of God... can be magnified... upon the Earth.’ That is ‘the purpose,’ of your life upon Earth. Life on Earth is brief, when you think about living eternally, but it is long enough for you to: visit Earth; use the gifts God has given you, for the glory of God upon the Earth; and return to The Kingdom, ‘knowing,’ your gifts, and how you used them for the glory of God.

“And although this answer sounds very simple, it is profound. You might say, ‘Why would God need any of us to magnify this magnificent glory, when God could send it to Earth, in full?’ And I give you this answer, ‘Because each of you carries the gift of freewill, you may use your gifts and talents anyway you wish, much like an artist, picking-up the brush, preparing to... touch the canvas, in the act of creation. There is a unique, and authentic, stroke, for each artist. And this is what is accomplished, by those, children of God, upon the Earth. Each one, is given the honor, of brushing the Earth, with their gift. And so it will be, a magnificent, glorious place, created by God, and tended and magnified, by the children of God. This is why it is important to use your gifts.’

“If you get distracted by the ways of the world, it is certainly possible for you to: create a magnificent home for yourself; work very long hours, and amass quite a fortune; wear fine jewelry and clothing; and exceed, all levels that you had hoped to accomplish, while you gather things, and watch your stacks of money and coins grow. But in doing this, that is where your concentration, your focus, goes. It might be very good work. Your home might be beautiful, and have great dedication purpose. But when it is time for you to go back, from whence you came, you cannot take these things of the world. You must leave your house and your clothing and your money. And if that is what has been the focus of your concentration, you return, to The Kingdom of God, empty... gifts... unused.

“If you focus... on the gifts of God... the fruits from the vine of The Holy Spirit of God, you will be tending the garden, as is the plan.

“If you have faith, that what you are called to do, will work, because God loves you, the power of God will move through you, and God will work miracles, using: your hands, your feet, your eyes, your ears, and your heart. As you use these fruits, of The Holy Spirit, your eternal spirit, grows in the wisdom and the knowledge of these gifts. And when it is time for you to return to The Kingdom, you return full and rich. You carry back... the memory... of using the gift of: faith, and trust, and hope, compassion, mercy, kindness. You do not have to leave these things upon the Earth; they are within your heart and soul and spirit; and they will return with you.

“Do not let fear rob you, of knowing... the glory of God. Do not let doubt... rob you, of growing... in the glory of God. Do not let anxiety... rob you, of showing all around you... that God, truly, is working miracles, every day.

“This week, with every opportunity that comes your way, use the gifts of The Holy Spirit. Let these ‘gifts,’ of compassion and understanding and patience, replace, the ‘temptations,’ of frustration, anxiety, worry, concern about how this or that will work-out. If you will practice... it will slip into your nature easily, and you will begin living... the life... you were created to live, upon Earth. And when you return, to The Kingdom of God, you will say, ‘God, look! Look at what compassion created! I’ve brought it home, so You can see it. Oh, look what kindness did! Here, this is what kindness created. And, I’ve saved the most glorious to show You last... look what Your love... created... through me!’

“You can take it with you, when it is created, using the fruits of The Holy Spirit of God!”

Be Not Afraid, I AM With You, And Your Personal Counselor Is With You Today, And Forever

“I AM with you. Be not afraid. I AM with you! How often I said these words... to those... who gathered around Me, during the time I walked upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago. I said the words, with great love, to encourage their confidence: so that they might shine... with the glory of God, so that they might be great... with the glory of God.

“Many of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, feel strongly... that: if, you were walking with Me those thousands of years ago, if you had come upon Me, as you walked a dusty road, or passed Me, in a small street, in a little town, you would have ‘known Me,’ you would have seen something in Me, you would have followed Me, and listened to what I said... you would have loved Me. And those of you who feel this way, possibly also feel that it would have been easy, much easier, than it is for you, in the present time, since you would be walking with me, in the physical presence; but what I say to you today might surprise you... it is easier for you now!

“You say now, that you would know Me then... but that might not have been the case. How willing are you today... to stand-up, not aggressively, but confidently: stating that which you ‘know,’ from within your being to be... the truth for you; stating clearly, simply, that this is the way I will go, because this is The Way, that God is leading me? If you hesitate to do that, in the present time, how do you think you would do it: when there was a death threat, when mobs might stone you, when you would be an outcast, when you would be labeled... a heretic? I say these things so that you will sweep-away the thought, that it was easier, two thousand years ago, than it is today.

“My life upon Earth... began... when an angel said, ‘Be not afraid,’ and a young woman, whose only confidence rested in the power of God, within her, was not afraid, but was willing to let her soul magnify the glory of God.

“I turn your thoughts, into that direction, because... it is important for you to understand that the confidence that you seek, and desire, and in many cases are longing for, is the confidence you will find when you connect... with The Holy Spirit of God... already with you!

“Do not doubt this, for it is written in the holy books. And I say to you today, I did say it, because I saw ‘the lack of confidence,’ in those who were brave enough: to risk death, to gather close to Me and around Me. As strange as that might sound, holding that bravery, and love for Me, they lacked confidence, often.

“I called-out to them one night, as I walked passed them, as they were in the boat, and I was on the water, ‘Take courage. Be not afraid. It is Me. I AM with you.’ After the passion, and I was, walking the Earth in My light body, the glory of resurrection, those I met, I said, 'Be not afraid, I AM with you.'

"Be not afraid. The world cannot harm you, if you understand... the power of The Peaceful Presence... is within you!

"Be not afraid, often the first words, you will hear, when an angel of The Lord, comes: to whisper in your ear, to make a declaration, to deliver a message, or... to be part of a glorious vision.

"Today I ask you to pay attention to what has happened because you are the ones who benefit, from My experience upon Earth. It was so clear, that the atmosphere and the energies of Earth confuse... and delude... many. And therefore God, who loves each one of you, has blessed you with the presence, of guidance, with you from within, at all times.

"The Holy Spirit is with you so that you might not 'trip,' into the pools of illusion, scattered all over the Earth. The theories of the world... change. What adds-up... one day... is in disarray the next. You experience it, in many ways: one statement means something one day, five or ten years later it means the opposite; what is good for you to eat one day, is declared toxic, a few years later; what is dogma one day, is myth the next.

"If you hang your hopes and aspirations, and the balance, that you are seeking, on the transitory teachings of the world, you will lose your balance and fall, because it changes, as human beings change. But if you stay 'centered,' listening to the guidance that is your personal Counselor from within, you will not lose your balance. You will be 'a sign,' unto all. You will be 'a light in the darkness.' And you will be 'strength,' in chaos and confusion, because in the end, these things are illusion. You carry the truth within you.

"I ask you this week, to think of the young woman, who said, 'Yes,' to an angel, and My life, as a human being, began... upon the Earth... because she was not afraid, because she said to God, 'Let my soul magnify your glory, God. This is my intention.' And her intention became her song. And I ask you this week, to let my earthly mother's song, become your song!

"Her close walk with God did not keep her heart from breaking, or keep tears from rolling down her cheeks. She experienced the things of Earth, just as you; but her soul was settled in the serenity of The Spirit. And although the world rocked around her, in turmoil, she stayed in balance. She held her connection... with God. This is where confidence... comes... into your life, in full measure.

"Many of you will fool yourselves, by saying, 'I will be confident, if: I have "x" number of dollars in the bank; the vehicle that I rely on for transportation is in good shape; my house is paid for; and, my children and I are healthy.' But, the institutions, regulating money, are not guaranteed. Your vehicle, although in good shape, could be crashed into, by a car, out of control. Some type of virus could spread through your neighborhood, and those who were well, become sick. There is no guarantee, as you move over the Earth, that what you believe is stable will remain stable. Where there is sunshine one day, there is rain the next. Where there is abundance one day, there is lacking the next.

“But I say unto you with great promise and joy, ‘If you will connect... with God... and let your soul magnify the glory of God... you will have all you need,’ because it will not be you, or the world, performing, and acting, and gathering, and doing, it will be God, moving through the world, over the Earth, using you! And the will of God will be done, through you.

“You can be confident of that. I assure you. The will of God will be done. Therefore let it be done through you, and encourage others to do the same. Call-out to them, and remind them...

“‘Be not afraid. I AM with you’.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Creator Has Poured-Out The Spirit Of God Upon All Creation

“I AM with you. And as you hear these words, or read these words, you feel the vibration of My presence with you. I cross the sands of time, to walk with you, as, all things, are present... now... I AM with you. And if you will be still enough, long enough, you will feel Me, and you will at last, come to know Me.

“You do not walk upon the Earth alone. You are – as the astronaut – on a mission, yet tethered to the space vehicle, and connected to home-base. There is no place for you to go, which will leave you lost, because you are always, as the astronaut, connected to home-base. When you take the time, to be still, you will hear the direction clearly.

“As you walk in the present, the presence of God is with you, and the direction of God is always available to you. It is your inheritance, as a descendant, of God. It is your privilege. It is your gift. The value of the gift you have been given is beyond measure, and it is also, most often, beyond the comprehension of those entrenched in the ways of the world. The Creator... has poured-out... The Spirit of God... upon all creation! I pause to let that settle into you...

“It is a wonder. It is The Way of God. Every human being, walking the face of the Earth, carries within them, their own, personal, Counselor. And this is the highest form, of wisdom, available to each individual, because it is the wisdom of God. The Counselor is always with you. You will not be led astray by following the direction you receive, once you have entered the silent chamber within your being, and sat with The Holy Spirit of God.

“Those of Earth often will not understand the direction you have been given. But just because their comprehension cannot grasp, or conceive, of the truth that you carry: does not make it any less the truth; it does not make it the wrong direction; it simply means they cannot comprehend what The Holy Spirit has said to you. And this is as it should be, because each, child of God, must walk The Way: learning lessons, being the light, following The Light. But you do not have to walk The Way alone. The Creator has taken care of this matter. The answers... are always... within you. And The Way will be made clear for you, if you will have the faith: to walk, as you are directed; to talk, as you are directed.

“It is very much like this example. If you find you have bumped into some legal difficulties, during your time upon the Earth, you seek legal counsel. You do not seek the least, amongst the legal counsel. You find the best counsel you can. And you enter into an agreement with this attorney, lawyer, counselor, so that they might guide you, through the legal maze, in such a way, that you can benefit from their knowledge of the law, and clear-up the issues at hand.

“And once you have contract in hand, your legal counsel will say to you, ‘Do not follow the advice of your friends, or family members. Yes, they love you, and want to help. But in this case, I ask you, listen to what I say to you, follow my direction, and all will be well.’

This is wise advice, because... just because your family members love you, or friends love you, does not guarantee that they’re going to give you the direction you need, when you need legal advice. And it is the same... with spiritual advice.

“Chaos and confusion will be your companions, if you seek counsel constantly from: acquaintances, friends, and family members. They are not equipped, most times, to give you ‘the wisest way,’ using the words of the world. You are the only one upon the Earth, equipped perfectly, to handle your mission. God did not send you to Earth ill-prepared. You carry everything you need for your journey, your mission. And you are promised, guaranteed, and hold within you, your own, private Counselor, to advise you, on all things. And this advice is for you, just for you, so you might make your way over debris, around obstacles, and continue walking in the light. It is not necessary to have the approval, or direction, of any other, except The Holy Spirit of God. In this way, you walk in wisdom, eternal wisdom.

“This day I bring you... a gift. I touch you, and you feel My touch, within your heart. And as you take a breath, you feel confidence flowing through your body; and this confidence, will lead you, to a place, where you will sit down, ask for guidance, from The Holy Spirit, and rise-up, to shed light upon the world...

“Look, over there, just behind the hill, you can see day breaking, light ascending, spreading, lifting into the sky, announcing the rising of the sun. It is time. It is your new day. As the sun rises, let it be the announcement that you too are rising, confident. You are a child of God. You are upon the Earth. You are connected with home-base, which is Heaven. And you are carrying within you the wisdom of eternity, The Holy Spirit of God; and in that way, you will always know, The Way to go. Come, let us walk into this new day, together, as one... rising... sun!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Love With The Love Of God, It Is The Way

“Feel My love surround you, welling-up from within you, for I AM... as the eternal spring of life... and My honor, My blessing, and My destiny, is to show you The Way. I AM with you!

“Many things are said, and done, in My name. And frequently these things are said and done in My name, but lack My love, and the glory of The Spirit of God: for, when you speak, or when you act, in the name of love, driven by God’s love flowing through you, and your words and actions are created within The Spirit... of God... they are filled with life, eternal life.

“How do you love?

“Do you love in such a way, that there are: strings attached, demands, rules, restrictions? Or do you open-up all the doorways in your being, and let God’s love flow through you, onto the Earth, without conditions?

“How do you live?

“How do you follow the pathway? Do you mark each step, calling-out to those who are not exactly in-step with you... that they are... going in the wrong direction? Or, do you walk The Way, with such a sweet fervor, that it calls attention to what you are doing, because of the glory streaming from it?

“If you love, with the love of God, and you live, in such a way, that the light of God is streaming to all around you... you are living... you are the living word... of God.

“When someone in need asks you for something, even if they don’t speak it, but you notice, that the state that they are in, the condition in which they are living, is asking... for help, what do you do? Do you reach in your pocket, and grab some change, or whatever happens to be within your grasp, and hand it to them, walking away, feeling you have fulfilled your obligation? Or do you bless them, with your love?

“Do you bless them, with the love of God, flowing through you? For, it is possible to give, and curse, in the same act. If you give because there are others looking, or because you feel... that you might feel guilty later, and all the time you are judging the condition of the person, then your gift is not a blessing... your gift is actually... the curse of judgment, and the action carries that energy; but if you see another’s need, or hear another’s need, be still, and let the love of God flow through you, upon them. You can heal the state they are in simply, by loving them, with the love of God. And then, no matter what you give them, be it a coin, or a sizable donation, a gift, it is... a living gift.

“You see, to hand someone some money because they ask, out of social obligation, is like giving them a drink of water; it will satisfy their thirst for that minute, but in the morning they will be thirsty again; if you touch them with the love of God, flowing through you, and give what you have freely, blessing them with whatever you can do, and letting them feel, the healing power of God’s love coming through you, you are giving them a blessing. And this blessing is like having an eternal cup, which will not run dry, but flow constantly... because your gift... lives. This is the living word... of God. And it is possible for each one of you to do this.

“It is not necessary to convince others, that what you believe is right, correct, and the way it should be. It is better to live the word of God. It blesses you, and blesses the Earth. It does not bind you, or restrict you, or confine you. If you let the love of Our Father flow through you freely, blessing all who come close to you, or those who are far from you, you are spreading the love of God all over the Earth. You become... the extension... of God... whether it’s through your lips, or your ears, or your hands or your feet, or your heart, you are God... working upon the Earth.

“This is what I was ‘hoping to convey,’ when I said, ‘I AM The Way. This is the only way to God.’ The Way to God has nothing to do with if you follow: ten, or a hundred and ten, or a thousand and ten, or a million and ten, rules. You can follow each and every one set before you; but if your heart is shut down, if your doors are not open, and the love of God is not flowing freely through you, you do not... know... The Way. ‘I AM The Way.’ That’s what I was trying to say. You must be an open, and clear, vessel. And then: you will always be connected with God, you will always know the words to say, and you will always know the path, because you will be walking along The Way, as surely as I.

“This is what I wish for you to do today and the rest of the week. Set all your preconceived notions... aside, and make it ‘your intention to magnify the love of God.’ Let the words upon your lips, as you rise from your sleep, be, ‘My soul... magnifies... the glory of God....’ saying it ‘with conviction,’ rather than ‘hoping you can do it.’

“There is no question, God’s love flows freely. You have the key... to unlock the door. You have the tools... to move the obstacles that you have placed in the way. Let it begin today. When you see a need, bless it, and you will move over the Earth, in the light... and the love of God... and Earth will be a better place... for, the love of God, will be seen in the face... of each of you!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Use The Gifts You Have Been Given To Magnify The Glory Of God

“I AM with you. And as I AM with you, The Gifts of God, are also with you.

“The gifts have not been disbursed randomly, scattered amongst you. The gifts have been given unto each one of you, special, unique, to each one of you. They will bring you great joy. They will assist you in your tasks and chores. And they will... celebrate the union of God... and those of Earth... in outward signs.

“Each of you has within you, your own personal Counselor. The Spirit of Truth is within each one of you, just as your special gifts are held within each one of you. This is to... provide guidance... in how to use your gifts, for the glory of God. For when you use your gifts, for the glory of God, the highest good is achieved, and all things are right.

“There will come a time when you will stand-up – to say how you used your gifts – to speak of how you used your gifts, while you took the journey upon Earth. And it will be good, if you can say, ‘I used my gifts in a most glorious way.’

“I give you this as examples. Let us say there is a man, who has a great talent in construction, building; and he recognizes this gift early. And this man... also recognizes... his connection with God. And so he begins to build, himself, a home, to show God, that he is using his gift. And he builds the most spectacular house, and he dedicates his home, to the glory of God.

“And as the years go by, he adds this and that, and this and that. And pretty soon it is just the most remarkable place, and people come from all around to look at it and see it. To see where the man with such talent lives, and prays to God.

“There is, not very far from the same town, another man, who also has the gift, of building things, everything fits together so nicely for him. And he recognizes this gift, as he watches others try to build as he builds, making little chairs and stools. And in this way he learns at a very early age, that what is easy for him is quite difficult for others. And so he sets about putting himself in a quiet place, every day, to ask, ‘What should I do with this special gift that would bring glory to You, God?’ And The Spirit of Truth speaks. And he hears the words, ‘Whatever you do... for the least amongst you... you do for Me.’ And all of a sudden the man stands-up and says, ‘I know how to use my gift.’ and he goes-out, into the world, building houses, for those who have no shelter.

“And as he builds the houses, he finds others in the community, who will help furnish the houses, who will help provide a place of peace, where those who once went without shelter, find a home. He traveled far and wide, erecting structures, small homes, for those without homes, and his desire to help spread amongst others. And they took what this man taught them, and went further out, building homes for those without. The Spirit of Truth that had spoken, to one solitary man, was soon moving through thousands and thousands of people, as they reached-out into their community, to use their talent, the talent they had been given, to assist others.

“The man who started all this, who was providing ‘shelter,’ for those who had none, never stopped to think, that he had no home for himself. He used his talents for the glory of God. But before he started using them, he sought guidance, and he was directed, and his ‘way,’ was made clear, and the Earth was a better place, because of the gifts of one man.

“I give you these two examples, because they are very similar to the stories you have heard from the Bible, about the ‘talents,’ the coins, left with the servants, while the master went away. And most of you will remember the story. They were each given one or more talents, or coin, each according to his ability. And upon the return of the master they all had different results. One had buried his coin, so he could show the master he still had his coin. The other two used the coins they were given in different ways, to gather more coins.

“It is thought provoking. You might say, ‘Well, what is wrong, with the one who would hold the coin ‘in trust,’ treasuring that which they were given? The other two risk the loss of their coins to gather more.’ And I say unto you, ‘Do not be afraid, if you know you are given a gift, the gift is not given you to be hidden under a basket. It is given, to you, so that you might use it for the glory of God, without fear of losing it. For the more you use it, the more it increases, the more there is to draw. The more you give it away, the more you have.’

“Spending your life, building your home, and dedicating it to the glory of God, is good. But spending your life, using your talents, to help all others, for the glory of God, is a miracle! It does not stop increasing, and as you magnify, your gift, as you magnify, the glory of God, you magnify, the good, of God, upon the Earth. Whatever you do for the least, you do for God, in a most special way.

“As you go into this week, think of how you will use your gifts. Do not be afraid... that you will lose your gifts... use your gifts.”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Spirit Of Truth, Abides With You, And In You

“I AM with you today. I cross... spaces of time... with ease. I reach-out and touch you, and there seems to be a gentle breeze, moving about you. I rest My hand upon your shoulder, and promise... I will guide you... through all things. This is possible, if you believe, it is the atmosphere in which you... live.

“You are an eternal being. At the present time, you are upon the Earth. Soon, you will be called home. But right now, you call Earth your home. And while you walk upon the Earth, the things ‘of Earth’ are also present with you. But God... your Creator... has provided, for all things you will face; and you carry, within you, everything you need, to accomplish your earthly mission, as a child of God.

“But it is important for you to remember this... especially in the time upon Earth right now... ‘Chaos and confusion can diminish confidence, when given a seat, of counsel, within you. You will surely encounter chaos and confusion, as you journey upon the Earth. But, you can encounter these energies, holding the confidence, and the power, of God... within you... serving you well, because God has given each of you, sent unto each one of you, your own personal counselor.’

“The Spirit of Truth abides within you!

“The Spirit of Truth... that the world cannot accept... or will not know... or cannot see... is yours... within you! It is your gift from God. And it will give you great assistance in walking through all types of turmoil and disruption, chaos and confusion. When you feel these energies, moving closer and closer to you, be still... close your eyes to the world... and go within, seeking counsel. And therein you will begin to feel... the confidence... of the Advocate... sent to you! And as you take-in this wisdom, you will rise-up, and you will walk, as the peaceful presence, amidst the disruptions of Earth.

“There is no need to be caught-up in chaos and confusion. Go within, and sit with your Advocate; The Spirit of Truth is with you; It is a gift... and blessing... from God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

How Do You Pray, What Do You Say, And Where Do You Go, To Speak With God

“I AM with you... on this day...

“The New Day is beginning... the shadows of night... are illuminated... by the rising sun. It is the outward sign... that a new day... is with you... and I AM with you, as well.

“Listen to the call of the birds. Listen to the peacefulness, as it all begins to stir, and awaken.

“You will always find this peace, when you take the time: to set yourself aside, to sit with God; to be filled with the Spirit of God, so you might ‘know,’ what to do.

“And it is in this ‘state of peace,’ which you presently experience, that I ask you three questions...

“How do you pray? What do you say? Where do you go, to speak with God?”

“These are important questions, because the answers will change the way you live upon the Earth, during your lifetime. You have so many options and choices. And choosing... is important. It indicates, and is an outward sign of: what is on your heart, where you are, how you are growing. And God gave you the gift of freewill, so you might know at the core of your being that it is your right, and heritage, to choose. It is not your right, or heritage, to deny another to choose; but to support the gift given, by the hand of God, to each and every one of you... the right to choose, the option to choose. And that which you choose is the outward sign of: what is written on your heart, held within your soul; what sparks your spirit.

“I would like for you to consider, modifying the way... you connect with God...

“How do you pray? Do not confuse praying, with gathering with likeminded individuals, once or twice a week, to sing songs, and be joyous, and hear passages from the Old Testament, and the New Testament, and other sacred books. That is a time of joyful celebration, of that which you believe. It is not necessarily, a time of prayer. It is a time of public celebration, praise, worship. It is like attending a party, with family and friends, it's a celebration. But, how do you pray? What do you say? Where do you go to speak with God?

“I will give you an example, and as with most examples, you are limited to the choice of the one speaking. So, My example today will be that each of you is a parent. Just set your ‘vision,’ that way.

“You are a parent, sitting at home. The phone rings, or the computer says, ‘You have mail.’ And you either hear an excited voice, at the other end of the telephone line saying,

'Hi. Just wanted to call to say I love you. I've got a lot of things to do, I'm really busy today. Good-bye. I love you.' Or the email pops-up saying, 'Just a quick note to say, I love you. Gotta' run... off to a meeting... smiley face, lol.'

"And as the recipient, of these quick messages, you smile, and whisper on your heart, 'I love you too!'

"But then, comes the rare gift... the knock at the door. You open the door, and there is a child... your child, (or a family member, or a dear friend). They walk in and say, 'Let's sit for a while. I just want to spend some time with you.' They don't say, 'I'm really busy and I have to leave in a hurry,' letting you know, very quickly, that they're making time for you. They don't begin talking about other people, and who's doing this, or doing that... marking time. They say, 'Let's just sit together.' And for a few hours: you sit, or perhaps move your communion outside, to walk in a garden; you breathe the same air; you feel, and exchange energy, and vibration; and occasionally, the tone of your voice or their voice, moves back and forth, saying simple things. After a while you begin to share: a funny story, a remembrance, some experience. But most of the time, it is just: the visit; the being together; not rushing away, but being comfortable, within a space, created by: love, desire, intention, fulfillment, completion. It is the coming together. It is a prayer.

"This is how, you should pray...

"Knock on the door... and God will open it... and then... be still! Soon you will feel the presence of God: with you, in you, all around you. And when you are that close, there is no need to speak volumes about what is wrong, or right, or indifferent in your life. The only thing you need to do... is to be still.... and you will feel God. That's how you pray.

"What do you say? Well, you don't have to say anything. Your heart speaks. And your heart is not limited to a particular language, or expression. Your heart is not limited by a vast vocabulary, that seems to know the words, but somehow... lacks the ability to say, what is really on your heart.

"Where do you go, to speak with God? Do you dial-God-up, in a hurry, while you're driving to work, or to the grocery store? Do you say, 'Hi, hello, I love you,' as you're moving from one thing to another? Or do you: make the journey; set time aside, and go within?

"I tell you, this week, you will feel peace, as you have never felt peace before, if you will take the time to: set yourself aside; be still; journey within; knock on the chamber door, and say, 'I am here, God. Tell me what I need to know.'

"That, my brothers and sisters, is how you pray. It is what to say; and, it is where to go to speak with God.

"Take that into your week. Once you do it, you will want to make the visit, over, and over again. The quick call home is welcomed, and loved; but it cannot take the place... of the visit."

Jesus Teaches On:

When You Encounter Difficult People, or Situations, Focus on the Positive, Resurrecting, and Maintaining, My Powerful Light, Within You

“I AM with you. And as you hear My words, you feel the change, and you know My presence.

“I speak to you today, as Earth is experiencing ‘the change of seasons,’ I speak to you. And as I speak to you, the topic ‘of change,’ is in My intention, and thoughts...

“Each of you hearing My words, or reading My words, is a vessel, a vessel, created: to carry the light of God; to be the instrument, delivering the power of God. You have the ability: to choose to use the light, and the power of God; to change the Earth... forever... one person... one challenging situation... at a time.

“If you resort ‘to struggling, with challenges,’ whether they be brought to you by another person, or embodied in a situation, ‘dealing with the issues as you can define them, using the knowledge that you have amassed during your time upon the Earth, will not bring about the change you desire. But ‘if you face each challenge,’ be it a person, or a situation, ‘opening to the light of God within you, and the power of God within you, the light will illuminate the truth, and the power of God will move, and miracles will be the result.’

“This requires your intention. It requires your desire to do the will of God, first. It is not always easy, but it is always possible.

“When you encounter a situation, fraught with challenging issues, do not go into the energy delivered to you, created by another, or others. Maintain the light of God, flowing into and through you, and you will be creating a peaceful presence, a powerful presence; but it will be, of God. Left to... ‘choices of will,’ human beings can find themselves in a tangled mess, a web of intrigue and personal agenda. But if you will stop, and refuse to join the energy which is already created, and simply ‘be the vessel of God’s light,’ the energies, of frustration and confusion, chaos, anger, discontent, will stop, right there, because you choose not to magnify the energy, but bring the light of God to the present situation.

“It will take some practice; and it certainly will take desire, but it can be done.

“The power of God can change hearts, heal bodies, mend souls, and ignite the spirit. And these things will be done through you. This week I invite each of you... try it... surely you will encounter someone who is a bit disagreeable, or a situation that just seems unbearable. When you are given this ‘golden opportunity,’ maintain the light of God. Bring-out the positive in the situation, and focus the light of God, rather than joining the energy created. When it’s your intention to do the will of God, to be the light of God, to hold the power of God, you create a state of miracles, an environment, and an atmosphere, in which all things are possible. And you will enjoy it! And you will be in joy, because of it. And Earth will be a lighter place, because you were willing to be still, resurrect the light of God within you, and let it shine.

“It will not be fast, but it will be effective... one person... one situation... one light... one power... One God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Seek The Simple Life, Performing Good Deeds, And Speaking Kind Words

“I AM with you. This morning, I speak to you, of simplicity. It is important. The garden of simplicity is pure, uncontrived, uncomplicated, and beautiful, in its form.

“The world can be, a challenging place to exist, and one must be: aware, watchful, alert. It is easy to be drawn into a temptation, because they can seem complicated, multifaceted, involved. But when something is simple, you see it. It is there, as it is. This is what you should seek this week.

“In the seeking of simplicity, you will be less likely to be caught in the trap of temptation, because temptation rarely has the appearance of simplicity. It is convoluted, complex, hiding this and that, so you might be tricked, into shadow or darkness.

“This week, seek the simple life of performing good deeds, and speaking kind words. And let that be all you do, because the reality of it, is that is all you need to do, to be filled with goodness, and speak with kindness. In that state, in that simple state, you will reject the complex arms of temptation, because they will not be good, and they will not be kind.

“This week, be still, and be simple. Listen to the words of The Holy Spirit of God, without question.

“You can hear many things, and not know that which you hear. To know something requires that you hear it, and put it into practice; therefore that is what you know. You can hear a song, but not know how to sing it. You can see a dance, but not know how to dance it. You can breathe-in, and sense, the magnificent aroma of a cake, baking in the oven, and not know how to bake one. There are many things that you can experience, and not know. But when you see, and hear, and breathe-in goodness: be still, pay attention, learn goodness. Listen to goodness, and hear it. Pay attention to kindness, so that you might know it. Choose words that are kind and loving, over words, others might find demanding.

“This week, be good, and kind, and the miracles of simplicity will spring forth all around you. Goodness and kindness are seeds, from which miracles grow. This week return to simplicity. Reject the complicated, and resolve to be good, and kind. It is The Way of miracles, and it is easy to attain; but, it requires determination, and a heart set with the intention, to aim for the simple life, and to accomplish it in the environment and atmosphere of goodness and kindness. It will mark you, as one who knows...The Way.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Kind, Be Loving, Be Forgiving, And Be Prayerful

“I AM with you. As a new day dawns, I AM with you. I reach-out to you and say, ‘Come. It is time. I will show you how to walk The Way, how to move over the face of the Earth, connected, with Our Heavenly Father. I will be with you, and you will know, because you will feel My presence; but to connect with Me, you must be still, and quiet. Turn away from the distractions of the world, and open to all that is of God, the goodness, of the Earth. Open, and feel My presence with you, for your life upon the Earth is meant to be good, and filled with the richness of knowing that God loves you, having faith that God will provide all you need.’

“There is no great secret. There is truth. And you carry the truth within you, for it is written upon your heart by The Hand of God. Open your heart.

“I tell you this, all you need is: to be kind; to be loving; to be forgiving. Be prayerful, trusting, having faith, that God will direct you, in all things, providing that which you need to complete your mission upon the Earth.

“If you are kind, loving, and forgiving, if you are prayerful, trusting, and having faith in God, your life upon Earth will be good, and that which comes from you will be good, because it will be of God. That which is created within your thoughts, and brought upon the Earth through your words and deeds, will bless the Earth. You will bring light where there is shadow and darkness. And the only thing required of you is: to love one another, to forgive one another, to love yourself, to forgive yourself. And then, when questions arise, take yourself to a quiet place, and be still, be prayerful, trusting, knowing, God will direct you.

“That is it. It is that simple. But it is in doing these few things that the world will be changed, greatly. For you can read all the books written about the spiritual life, about the mystical life, about religions, about theology. And you can know all there is to know, but you cannot walk The Way: until... you love, until... you forgive, until... you pray.

“All the knowledge, that you hold, can be worthless, without love, without forgiveness. Without these things, speaking the Words... is a noise, spoken from the memory, but not from the heart. The only thing you need to know... is that God wants you: to love one another, to forgive one another, and ask for direction, when you are in need. That is it. You need do nothing else, but be loving and forgiving, and maintain your connection with your creator, God, through prayer.

“If you will do this, your remaining days upon the Earth will be filled with goodness, and you will be the light, where there is only darkness. As this week begins, make it your intention to be kind, loving, forgiving, and prayerful, and it will be the beginning of the week, which will change all things forever, for the good.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Power Of Love Is Complete, Whole, Perfect

“I AM with you. We are one. And today, I remind you, of the new commandment, the commandment which sits atop all other direction from God. I spoke of this commandment, when I walked the Earth in physical form, over two thousand years ago. I said to those gathered about Me, ‘I bring you a new command. Love one another, for this is how the world will know you, and know, the love which you have for each other, comes from God.’

“The importance – of love – is still not fully comprehended, or understood, by those of Earth. And there are times when you hear someone say to another, ‘Love is the most powerful, potent, energy there is.’ But the full truth is not understood yet, even by those who profess to know.

“The power of love will bring to you: a sense of wholeness, completeness, unity with The Creator, God. It will lead you to an understanding of the power of God, when you walk within the energy of love. And no other energy will bring you this close to God, will connect you so closely to God. It is the answer to every dilemma, and situation, upon the Earth; but it requires determination, and a desire, to use this power, of God, over all other powers.

“When you are held within love, when you nurture the energy of love, when you are consumed with love... for God, the entire world knows, and sees, and is amazed at the glory, within you. When you are in love, consumed with the power of love, you burn as a candle, in the window: constant; showing The Way; leading all who are lost... home. You are as the fires, burning, in the hearth: crackling and popping, warming all those who will gather around; providing comfort; providing a place that is secure, when the storms are raging outside.

“This is what you are to seek. This is what makes the difference. This is how people will know you, and what is on your heart. Do not permit yourself to be consumed by the fires, and the power: of anger and hatred, of retaliation, of chaos and confusion, because these energies burst forth into a conflagration, which will devour all things in its path, and will bring destruction.

“Turn to God, and feel the love, and open to this energy, and take it as your own. Use the power of God: to be the candle, in the window; to be the fire, crackling in the hearth; to be the beam of light, shining from the shore, in the lighthouse, showing The Way to all tossed on the sea.

“When you walk in love, all you say, and do, are the outward signs, of what is on your heart, and in your thoughts. This is the new covenant, the new command.

“It is time that those of Earth master, and come to know, that which God wants you to know... ‘Love one another... to the extreme situation, of another taking your life, love one another.’ It is the only Way. It is living, the word of God. And as you open... to this power... of love... you will find that your foot is more surely on the path, that you can do that which you thought you could not do. You will be... the master of every situation, because every situation is mastered by the power of love. You will be wisdom... amidst chaos and confusion. You will be love... in the midst of anger and hatred. You will be the light of God... in the midst of confusion and chaos, and you will be... walking The Way.

“This week, begin with just an hour or two, determined that no matter what comes to you, you will master the situation, with love. Soon you will wonder why you would use any other power... energy... because this one is so complete, so whole, so rich and full. You will come to feel God within you, and you will know The Power of Love.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Mercy Is A Gift Of God, It Is The Open Arms Of God

“I AM with you. I walk into your midst... to be with you. I AM not... of the past. I AM the present... holding the past, and the future, for they are both enfolded in the present. And it is in the present, we are now. Live the present, guided by the lessons of the past, creating the future within your hands with thoughts, words, and deeds, as the future is created in the present.

“It is good to be able to read, to comprehend. It is good to know the rules and regulations of society. It is good to live according to the laws, of your government. And it is good to operate your lives in such a way, that the commandments of God are observed. But better, than each of these, is to have mercy, within your heart; for those who are merciful: hold wisdom, confidence, and love.

“To repeat a rule, or a regulation, or a law, or a commandment, and then, observe it, requires that you pay attention to what you are doing. But to utilize the gift of mercy... in such a way that you create an atmosphere of love, from a situation that is brought to you... requires wisdom. It requires you to step outside of what has been written, or said. It does not give you... a set rule. ‘Mercy’... is the open arms... of God.

“Mercy has no boundaries. It is not held within a box. It is as the wind. And once released, once given, once requested, once bestowed, it moves in such a way, as to embrace all, who are close to the act, of mercy.

“If you think, of the word, ‘mercy,’ you immediately see a picture; you know what it looks like. You see hands reaching-out, praying; and you see other hands reaching-out, bestowing. If you say the word, ‘mercy,’ it feels as if you are singing, and the song is coming from your spirit, born of God.

“Mercy is a prayer, and mercy is a prayer answered. For whom amongst you, if given the opportunity... to ask for justice or mercy... would plead for justice; for mercy is sweet... and loving... compassionate and kind.

“Mercy is the song of angels. Mercy is the gentle spring rain that falls on the newly planted crop. Mercy is a brilliant sun, shining brightly, warming the Earth. Mercy is the cry of a baby after a difficult delivery. Mercy is the light of God, once the eyes are closed to the life of Earth. Mercy has no boundaries and limitations. The garden of mercy springs forth from the seeds of kindness and love, gentleness and compassion. And its beautiful vines and flowers cover the laws and regulations, reaching toward the sun, glorious in the rain, abundant in the harvest of kindness.

“This week you will be given many opportunities to be merciful. Some of you might find yourselves in a situation to seek mercy. Others of you might find yourselves in a position to bestow mercy. Be merciful, for as you bestow the gift, you will be given the gift. Be merciful, as you pray for the gift, you will be given the gift. Be merciful.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Compassion Is Understanding The Heart Of Another

“I AM with you this morning. I AM with you today. I AM with you, now. I come to you so you might feel and know My presence, and know, within your heart space, of My love for you, of Our Father’s love for you, and of the infinite wisdom that is yours, embodied within The Holy Spirit.

“The trickery, the illusion, begins to settle within you, along with the feeling: that you are alone; that you must make your way, by yourself; that others do not seem to care, what trials or tribulations you are facing. But this is not true... how can you be alone, when I AM with you? And there are angels to guide you, many of them, who look upon you, and see the situation, and know your heart, and are ready to provide you with the gift of compassion. Do not put so much stock into the thoughts, the words, and the deeds of the world; but cast your eyes upon tomorrow, today, and yesterday, ‘knowing,’ that I AM with you!

“Open to the present, miracle, of My presence with you, and you will feel, and know, compassion. In its simplest form, compassion... is understanding... the heart of another. It does not require that you agree, or that you want to go along with the same ideas. Simply stated, it means that you are whole enough, to understand the situation, as it is, for another. And that is a most magnificent gift, because it blesses both the giver and the receiver, many times over.

“The world responds to situations in certain ways. When someone appears to have failed in something that they are trying, a project, there are many, of the world, who will rise-up, making loud statements of: what should have been done, what could have been done, what wasn’t done. And then faced with this same situation, many would rise-up in mockery and scorn, belittling the one who tried, but appears, with all outward signs, to have failed. But there are a few, who will walk into the situation, with uncluttered emotions, place their hand upon the shoulder of the one, who is caught in this situation, and simply say, ‘I understand, how hard you worked. I understand how you tried. I understand... your heart. And all these things will be put back together in a different way, once you sit for a while. Let us sit together.’ This is compassion.

“Within compassion... there is no need to say what was wrong, to find the fault, to make judgment. Within compassion there is no need for scorn, jokes, to belittle another, caught in the light of a project that didn’t quite work-out. In compassion... there is an open heart, which permits the freedom for another, to say, in their own words, what they think needs to be done, how they are being guided. And once they open their heart within the atmosphere of freedom, they find they knew the answer all along, there just needed to be a space, to speak it, to bring it into the third dimension more completely and fully. And compassion provided the playing field.

“To speak the words of God, The Creator, The Source of All Life, and to know them, and to encourage others to know them, falls short, if it is a list, involving: commands and demands, fear and judgment, anger. But when you speak of the love of God, with the vital component of compassion: the ears of the deaf are opened; the hearts of those sealed with ice, melt; and, the hands, once clinched, are free... to love, and to touch, and to hold the gift.

“This day: think, speak, and act, in a compassionate way. It is the ingredient, which will bring freedom, joy, laughter, and a spiritual growth beyond any you can imagine, for yourself, and for all those around you.

“This week, provide compassion. It is something the world is lacking.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Goal Will Not Be Reached, Until You Begin. You Will Not Know That Which You Carry, Until You Are Quiet, And Journey Within.

“Feel My presence! I reach-out to you, and I AM with you, for all things are held in ‘the present;’ and it is in the present, where I come to you. I AM with you. And as you hear the words, or read the words, you know, this is true. The only thing required, for this communion to take place, is that you be willing, to acknowledge the place, the space, where we meet. The place is where you are, right now. It is a piece of eternity. I AM. And I AM now with you!

“And today I speak to you about: missions; goals; accomplishments; the journey of life, what it is all about. But to know these things, you must understand first, that God is not held, and constrained, or confined, within: a building, or a temple, or a synagogue, or a mosque. God is all things.

“To be with God is to be still, and know. You can feel the presence with you, and it is mighty, and powerful.

“God is Spirit. And Spirit is not confined to the illusionary walls, constructed by the hands, of human beings. God is Spirit and dwells within the heart, and soul, and spirit, of every human being.

“And God is heard, and known, by those who will be still; for it is in the stillness that you are infused with all that you need. It is in this sacred communion you are fed, and nourished, and come to know.

“You cannot ask, ‘What is my mission, what am I to do upon the Earth?’ and have the answer come, so fully and compact that it is set before you, complete, done. It is better to say, ‘God, what do You want me to do this day?’ Because, it is in the doing, in the completing of each minute, hour, and day: that you prove, that you accept, that you accomplish.

“The goal cannot be reached, the goal will not be reached, until you begin. And you will never “know,” the gifts that you carry, until you are quiet, and journey within.

“You see your mission is not the accomplishment... it is the journey... to accomplishment. It is every step. And when you are willing to say, ‘God, which step do I take today? Which direction do I go today?’ you are not limited to preset instruction, on... ‘Go here. Go there. Go right. Go forward. Go backward.’ You are then ‘adapting,’ moving yourself along the path, even when freewill choices have been made by others. Left to your own devices this would be impossible, because you would have a vision of what was to be accomplished, not taking into consideration, what others were doing, all along The Way. But once ‘you commit,’ once ‘you surrender,’ and take each step, one at a time, you are then moved by the hand of God, Who knows all things, Who makes the last minute adjustment when someone else decides to go in another direction. Your course is always on the mark, when you ask for God's direction, you cannot fail.

“Do not concern yourself about ‘knowing, everything you need to know about your mission.’ The most important thing is ‘the surrender,’ ‘the commitment,’ to the will of God.

“It is in this atmosphere, where The State of Miracles exists, fully and completely; for when God says, ‘Roll back the sea!’ the sea will move; and the power will come through you to do these things, because it is the will of God. And when the time is right, God will say, ‘Nations, love each other!’ And because of your ‘commitment’ to speak the words of God, the love will pour through you, and the sea of hatred will be parted, by words of love.

“These things do not occur by following a fore-drawn plan. They begin to happen when you reach-out and take the hand, of God.

“Miracles begin in your heart, in your thought. It is the journey... to seek. It is the stillness... which will bring you the strength. It is the communion... with our Father, which holds the answers to each step to take. And as you are willing, to take each step, more and more is revealed to you. The examples of this are all around you. It is in the way you teach your children. You do not say to your child, ‘Dress yourself,’ when they do not know how: to button, or use a zipper, or even find the clothes. But as you show them The Way, one step at a time, there comes the day, when the child: finds the clothes, puts them on, and walks out the door, dressed and ready for a new day.

“The New Day is now. The chest, holding the clothing, is before you. If you are quiet... and ask... God will tell you, what you need to know, to begin, step by step.

“So do not concern yourself about where the journey will end, commit yourself... now... and let the journey begin.

“God is Spirit. God is eternal. And God has placed you, where you are, specifically. You are not in your place by random choice.

“When this settles within you, and you realize this: then... you will be ready; then... you will know your worth; then you will know your value. Then as the artist, standing before the canvas, you will pick-up the brush, make the first stroke, and say, ‘Live.’

“This day, I live in you. This day, I AM with you. Come; let us live together... now... in the present: that holds the past, and is the promise, of the future...

“Live.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Go Forth and Deliver The Good News About The Kingdom Of God

“I AM with you. As this new day begins, let us begin... together: to celebrate the day; to walk into the week; to sing the songs of love; and spread the good news, concerning the kingdom, of God.

“As I walked upon the Earth some two thousand years ago, there were those who rejected outright the message I delivered. There were those who demanded more miracles, grander miracles, to inflate their small seed of faith, so they might believe, that which I said. And there were those who embraced the message I delivered, such as the people of Capernaum. They heard the message, and loved Me; and I healed the sick; and I nourished their hungry spirits with the words of God, flowing through Me; and we were as one... in community... at peace.

“The people of the town wanted Me to stay with them, to teach them more; and they asked Me not to go, when it was time to leave. But I told them, ‘I need to go to other towns, to carry the good news, about the kingdom of God. But I do not leave you empty, for you are full. You carry the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God with you, in you, because that is what you desire. As I leave you to go forth,’ I said to them, ‘practice what I have taught to you, and you will do, all the things, I do.’

“When you are no longer interested in indulging the ego, but more desirous of magnifying The Spirit of God, magnifying the gifts you have been given; then, you are, truly, in a state of perfecting, that which God has given to you. And it is a wonderful place to be.

“Be watchful. If you entertain thoughts of greed, your nature will be of greed. If you feed thoughts of envy, your nature will be of envy. If you wander into the shadows of hatred, or anger, your nature will be of hatred, of anger. And these are not the gifts, from God; they are the product of ego, and they grow, as you indulge the ego.

“Seek to magnify The Spirit of God, within you. Use the gifts of God. They are: compassion, mercy, understanding, forgiveness, love, light, peace, balance, harmony, serenity, tranquility. Nurture such gifts, as they are clearly, of God. And in this way, you will grow, and that which comes from you, will spread over the Earth, and you will perform the miracles, of God, because you are, of God; no longer indulging the ego with transient whims or fancies, but living, through the gifts, of The Creator, God, your Father and Mother. This is the state of perfection you are to seek! And then, rise-up, and go forth, and let God speak through you, so that you too might deliver the good news, of the kingdom of God, because the kingdom of God is not about punishment and anger. The good news is that the kingdom of God is all about love, the most powerful, and potent, energy created. The kingdom of God is all about love!

“That is the message... I delivered over two thousand years ago... and it is the message I bring you today... and every day...

“Open your ears, and hear Me!

Go forth and deliver the good news. And the good news is...

...God loves you... each... and every one!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Now Is The Time, Return To The Garden, On Earth, As It Is, In Heaven.

“I AM with you. Feel My presence. I AM with you, to bring you a message, of great importance, to speak to the heart, of any who will hear Me. Because of the urgency of this message, I AM sitting next to each of you. Since it is My intention to do so, you feel Me; some of you will feel My presence, sitting to your right; others will feel Me, close to your left side; but you will feel Me, because it is time. The message is being delivered – to millions of people – over the Earth, now.

“There does not need to be a clock, or any other instrument, invented: to give information, regarding the time of day or night; to mark a certain hour. All eternity rings, when it is time... and the time... is now!

“Thousands of years ago, there was a decision made; one decision is still reverberating through the core of humankind. The freewill choice was made – to move-out, from the garden, into the world, to experience Earth – and it changed the course, of all time. It did not alter the love of God for the children; but, it did redirect the path. And along the path, ‘ego,’ began to grow, so that the human being could manage, and function, in the world as they knew it, protecting themselves, growing in numbers, populating the Earth, moving-out, a great journey of discovery, growing in many ways. But now, those of Earth have grown weary, of that particular part of the journey, and realize it is time, to return, to the garden.

“This is a great important time, because there must rise-up, amongst you, those you will remember, and know. And it is within their light, that the pathway will be illuminated, and all who desire will move closer: to The Light; to The Source; to The Creator; and find that... Earth is truly a part of Heaven, set apart only by a decision, made a long, long time ago.

“Yes, you do feel, a stirring, within you right now. Those of you ‘remembering,’ are taking part, in a great awakening. Begin today, so that you might know, and show The Way, not with your words, but with your deeds... living words of God. For this great ascension to take place, it is necessary for the energy to be cleaned, returned to its normal, natural, glorious state. And it is up to those of you who know, to do this. Although the results will be grand, and quite magnificent, the way to do it, is simple, sweet, and pure...

“You must be willing to be the servant of mankind, acting, as the eyes, and the ears, and the mouth, and the hands, and the heart, and the feet, of God... in all ways; no longer selecting, which time to be kind, or compassionate, or understanding. You are now called... to be perfect, as God is perfect. And the only thing that is required is that you set your own will aside, and open to the power of God that is surging into you. This is the power of miracles, and it is within each one of you, to let this power, create miracles, through you.

“You begin one-by-one: accepting, no matter what is brought to you; looking at it; seeing it; knowing it. If one of your brothers or sisters, brings to you anger, whether the anger is directed at you, or resurrected in the telling of some event, if it comes to you, it is delivered to you, accept it, because as it is delivered to you, it is then your energy... yours. Hold it. This is your opportunity, this is your time. What are you going to do with that which is delivered to you? The answer is: ‘You are going to look at it; know it; bless it; forgive the energies within it that are heavy, and no longer serve the Earth in any way; and release it... pure, freeing all who are associated with that energy... that was delivered to you, so you might do the work of God. You see, this is part of the miracle! Those carrying these heavy energies, delivering them to different places of the Earth, might not be at the place where they can surrender this energy, and do anything, but what they are doing with it. But if they give it to you, you have the opportunity: to clean, what would not be cleaned by another; to forgive... hear Me... to forgive, what could not be forgiven by another; and in the process, free the individuals associated with the energy; and free the energy. This has always been possible, but now it is time for those of you who have said, ‘I will do this,’ to rise-up, and go-out into the world, and do it.

“Once, I spoke words, around two thousand years ago, sending those who would go-out into the world, to deliver: the new word... the new gospel... of love. And I said, those who are willing to do the will of God, to follow The Way, will be able to hold serpents, and not be struck. Now, see what I’m saying... you will be holding the serpents of: anger, and greed, chaos, confusion, anxiety, and all other serpents created, in your hands, but you will not be struck, by that energy. You are there, in a Christ-like way, to bless and free! The serpent will be as golden particles of eternity, free energy. It is the way, it is meant to be. And so the mystery in those words is revealed to you. Do not hesitate to serve those who bring you: the demons, and the serpents, and the poison. You will not be harmed, if you do not use the energy given to you to retaliate, or to rejoin that energy. The secret is, you must cut the ego, and operate through the power of God. And in that way, you will free Earth, one person at a time.

“It is beautiful. It is miraculous. It is The Way God wants everything to be cleaned-up, and brought back into the circle of oneness... Oneness with God. The children said, ‘We will do this, Father. Let us clean-up the garden, and restore it to the beauty.’ For Earth is The Garden of Heaven, and you are the workers, sent, at your own bidding and request: to clean that which is brought to you; to be the savior; to be The Christ; to be perfect, as God is perfect.

“The message is being delivered. ‘All, who will hear, rise-up. The time is now. Go forth, and create miraculous things, and free, all those of Earth. For, your actions will reverberate, through the corridors of all time...

“Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Inner-Peace Is Yours, When You Know, The Love Of God

“I AM with you. Today, I come to you, not just to be remembered from the past, but to speak to you as a brother, of the present.

“I reach-out to you, and bring you The Wisdom of The Heavenly Kingdom. I bring you ‘keys,’ to assist you, as you walk along The Way. I bring you Truth, and truth will shine the light, on whatever you are facing right now, whatever you are facing, today. Truth will illuminate the situation, or the issues, and you will see with clarity, and know how to resolve the matter: in the light of God, in the wisdom of God, in the love of God. And, in this way... you shall find... peace.

“The desirable place, of knowing inner-peace, will be elusive, fleeting at best, until you travel the path of humility and acceptance, and come to know compassion and understanding. For, it is within compassion and understanding that you will find the wisdom of mercy and forgiveness. Love resides within mercy and forgiveness, for you cannot show mercy and forgiveness to another, or to yourself, without experiencing love, on a most high and powerful level. Once you have experienced the love embodied within compassion, understanding, mercy and forgiveness you are filled with the peace of God, because you are practicing the ways of God.

“It is impossible to know humility and acceptance, compassion and understanding, or mercy and forgiveness, without experiencing the love of God. It is in this way that each of you will find the inner-peace you are seeking. You cannot buy inner-peace by filling your home with furnishings, food, or gadgets. You cannot create inner-peace by reading books, attending seminars, plays, or films. These things might create a receptive atmosphere which will embrace the concept of peace, but to experience real inner-peace, you must know... the love of God.

“The only way to know the love of God is to be an active participant along The Way, walking with humility and acceptance, delivering compassion and understanding, embracing mercy and forgiveness, completely. These are the things which will lead you to a place of inner-peace, where no earthly condition can touch that which you have created, within your being.

“No matter what you are facing, it can be resolved in the light of God, in the wisdom of God, in the love of God. The answer to every dilemma, every situation, and every distracting issue has always been, is now, and will forever be... love. And it is within the light of God's love, that you shall find inner-peace.

“To ‘know,’ the love of God is the goal. To ‘practice,’ humility, acceptance, compassion, understanding, mercy and forgiveness, is The Way to reach the goal. And it is along this pathway, that you will find inner-peace. There is no peace, without love, and love is found within the wisdom of: compassion and understanding, mercy and forgiveness. Seek first, this wisdom, and you will experience inner-peace, and come to know... the love of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Way, Of Wisdom, Held Within Humility And Acceptance

“I AM with you. Today, I speak to you. I talk to you about, The Way... and active participation...

“Within humility, and acceptance, you will find compassion and understanding, and in this way, you will come to know mercy and forgiveness, in their fullest and richest forms. If you desire: to walk The Way, to be active, to know, to grow in your relationship with The Creator, these things... are necessary... for you to do.

“You see, this is not the way of a passive individual or being, it is The Way of the activist, the one ready to rise-up, to make a commitment, to make a change, in the ways of the world, so that they more follow the ways of The Kingdom of God.

“When I spoke to those I gathered about Me some two thousand years ago, I talked about a new law. I did not want to strike down the old laws; there was just: a new law, a higher law, a law of active participation within The Creator, a law leading to understanding The Will of God. The message, the new law, was ‘Love, one another.’ And this requires dedication, and desire, to do The Will of God. I delivered unto those who would hear Me, the Golden Rule, ‘Do to others, what you would have others do to you. This is the sum of The Law. This is the sum of The Prophets.’

“When you understand that whatever you do to another, you do to yourself; it is then the time, for miraculous change. Your thoughts, words, and deeds, are the prophets of what is to come, because your thoughts, words, and deeds, will be repeated, and repeated, and done unto you. So My brothers and sisters, I say unto you, ‘If you were standing, or sitting, with your Creator, would you want your Creator would accept you? And each of you will answer, ‘Yes.’ This is the key. Do you want others to accept you? Do you want God to accept you? Then, accept others, and accept yourself, for in so doing, God is accepting you!

“Have compassion, and understanding, in all situations, and God will have understanding, and compassion, for you. Let mercy flow from you, like a free-flowing river, and let forgiveness ride every beat of your heart, and be held within every word which comes from you. And that will be your prophecy.

“This week, make it a sacred week. Every morning, slip-on the cloak of humility, ready to serve others, for those who are humble, have the deepest understanding of The Glory of God, and know that is the source of all they are, their true power. Humility leads you to understand The Power of God, within you!

“Accept that which comes to you this week, and then deal with all things through compassion and understanding. Pass, amongst your brothers and sisters, mercy, and give the gift of forgiveness, daily. If you will do this, for even one day, the Earth will be blessed in so many ways, and you will have set the prophecy, that: how you acted, what you said, and your thoughts, delivered the message, of that which is to be.

“This requires action. It requires great practice. But at the source of it, there needs to be the desire to do The Will of God. I have told you, what The Will of God is. I give it to you. Now what you give back is your gift to God. Remember, within humility and acceptance, you will find compassion and understanding, and in this way you will come to know mercy and forgiveness. This is...The Way...to peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Remember Who You Are, Embrace The Challenge And The Obstacle, As The Gift, And You Will Know The Ways Of God

“I AM with you. Traversing the corridors of eternity, I reach-out to you. There is no time, which impedes Me. There is no clock, which can stop you. Your only hindrance is that which you believe has the ability to hinder you.

“I speak to you today. I AM in your midst. The body does not define My presence, but you ‘feel,’ My presence with you. As any good teacher, My lessons, My teachings, ride The Wind, and bring you comfort, when you are still, sounding as a bell, calling you to remember, that which you know. You carry, the wisdom, of all ages, within you. This morning I say to you, tap the source. Respond to the tolling of the bell.

“How do you respond to those who are calling to you, from a different place, from a dimension beyond? Do you give credence to the message? Or is it dismissed, as something... almost important... but not deserving the attention, as does: the gathering of the groceries, or the dusting of the furniture, or the washing of the clothing? You see, where you focus your attention is the outward sign of what is important to you.

“As I speak to you today, I say ‘feel’... the charge of the air around you. It is shining. It is glorious, as you are shining and glorious. It is not your temporary fleeting home that you call a body, the human form. What is shining is the eternal being you are. And I AM speaking to you – to awaken – that which has been dormant, for a while. Awaken, and see! See the possibility. Free yourself. Rise-up.

“You are shining... you are golden... you wear the crown. It is not an earthly crown that weighs on your head. It is an eternal crown, showing all who look or gaze upon your beautiful ‘light body,’ what is important to you. The gems are not stones, but noble thoughts... creations of an eternal being.

“As you are upon the Earth, every time you stoop or bend over, lowering yourself in service to another, you rise. The servant ‘knows,’ God. The servant knows the value, of the challenge, and the obstacles, because it is therein, that the servant finds the strength to serve. So I say unto you, ‘Who is stronger, the one who is serving, or the one who is served?’ And then I say further unto you, ‘The one who is serving, is the one who is truly served, because each time you bend or stoop and do the serving, the ‘eternal, picture’ shows you are serving: yourself; the piece of the One; the eternal vignette; the purity of love.’

“I ask you to go into this week, not thinking or responding as a human being, with limited ability to think or respond. I ask you to go into this week... as God, seeing... knowing... loving... feeling... as God.

“As I walked upon the Earth some two thousand years ago, and was giving notice to those I had gathered around Me, that My destiny was ultimate death of a body, I was bringing a message. There are many who bring messages to Earth. It is that important to The Creator of All Things, that the children are led, in the right direction. And it was My destiny, at that time, to complete the will of God. But as I spoke the words of what was to be, the one I loved so took Me aside, and said, ‘This cannot be, Lord, Master. This cannot happen to You.’

“I then spoke, what others have seemed to believe were harsh words, ‘Get thee behind Me, Satan. You are not thinking, as God thinks. You are thinking, as a human being.’ That was close enough to what I said. The implication was, look at the whole picture. If you believe what I AM telling you, you do not think that the body is that which is to be preserved. The body is that which is to be shed. It is the vehicle to accomplish a certain mission, but it is not... the eternal... you.

“This week, open! Be willing to accept what is coming to you, and see the challenge and obstacle, for the gift. Each of you reading these words, or hearing these words, will understand, by just a brief walk through your history, upon Earth. If I ask you to say one thing that stands-out, as important, something you did, that marks the Earth as good, an accomplishment, very few of you... will record, or speak of, or write down, a time which required you to do nothing... just receive. What you will speak about... is a challenge... that you accepted... and the gift... that came as a result of the challenge.

“Go into this week, embracing the obstacle and challenge as the gift; and this will lead you, and prepare you, to think... as God, to see... as God, to love... as God.

“If you cling to ‘the things of the world’... you will lose that which you value. If you will embrace the wisdom of God, you will shine... and you will begin to remember: the eternal you; the piece of eternity that you are; the majestic and noble being who traveled to Earth, from a star.

“Go into the week in peace, and know, you are eternal!”

Jesus Teaches On:
Let Freedom Reign, Forevermore, Within You

“I AM with you. I AM with each one of you, in a way so close, so unique, that we are united, as one. I reach for you, and you know I AM with you. I touch you, and you feel My presence. There is no clock, made of the world which can lock Me in an era, or a time, or a place. I AM with you, now. My spirit moves on The Wind: so you might know the glory of God; so you might know the freedom of God.

“I wish to speak to you today, of a noble purpose, which requires intention. I wish to tell you how you can make a difference, how each of you can bring the glory of God onto Earth: parting the veil, resurrecting the garden, individually. And although this sounds grand, I assure you, it is simple. But it requires that you enlist: your heart, and your thoughts, and your words and your deeds, into the service, of the living God. It requires... you... to be clean, so you might hear and know the Word of God. And this... will bring you... freedom!

“Cleanliness... is in the heart. Some of you come from cultures wherein certain foods are listed as taboo, the belief being that they will make you unclean, sully your body. But I say unto you, it is in the heart, where you make yourself unclean. No food, no outside influence, no other person can defile you. The heart is the creation point of good. And Heaven and Earth know what is: on your heart; entertained in your thoughts; verbalized by your words; and, demonstrated by your deeds. Today, if you will make the determination, to keep your heart pure, the doors will fly open, within you, no longer locked, or barred. And The Living Waters will flow to you, and through you. The words will come from God, and fill you. And you will begin to carry-out your mission upon the Earth, one person at a time. It does not matter: what they say to you; what they bring to you; what they say about you. God... is within you... speaking through you, and the cleaner you are, the more vibrant the message. It comes with clarity to those of a pure heart.

“If you wish to ‘know freedom,’ today, make it your intention, to reject creating within your heart: anger, greed, frustration, worry, anxiety, envy, and any of the other things, that are less than holy. These things are not fruits of The Holy Spirit. They do not grow on the living vine. Let your heart be the garden, of: love, faith, hope, charity, compassion. Be tender. Dare to be sweet. These things invite the words of God to speak through you, and the world then knows God through you. One at a time, they will know God, through you. This is freedom.

“No food can sully you. No words, or thoughts, of another can injure or defile you. It comes from within you. Your heart is the center chamber wherein is borne the gift of true freedom. Rise-up this day; enlist your heart in a special way. Make it your intentions that your thoughts are at the ready, and that your words – speak what is written on your heart – and your deeds are the outward sign.

“Today, come, enlist in the service of the living God, and let freedom reign... forevermore...within you.”

Jesus Teaches On:
You Are The Seed Of The Kingdom Of Heaven

“I AM with you. I come to you, and bring your lessons, lessons to show The Way, to begin a new day, a new week. I have something to say to you, which will help the week, which will help the day, which will help you come to know The Way, better.

“Today, I say to you, to each of you, accept that which comes to you, as your own, embracing the gifts, challenges, joys, and obstacles, confidently knowing, the power, and the glory of God is with you. In this way, you will come to know – The Kingdom – of Heaven.

“How can I tell you of The Kingdom, of the glory, of the wonder? I can best tell you, in this way... ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is like a small seed. It is a seed, when sown, which will grow into a mighty tree, a tree so vast, so strong, so beautiful and comforting, that it will shade all who gather beneath it, and be a home, for all who settle in it. It will be a sign unto nations. It will be the glory of God. Do not be surprised if I say unto you, in many ways that - you - are the small seed. When you take that small seed, and sow it in good earth, fertile earth, it will grow. That which comes forth from you, will be The Kingdom of Heaven, strong, magnificent, comforting, of beauty. You will be... of God. You will exist upon the Earth, but you will do so in a different way.

“I give you a secret, a key, which will help you begin to live, within The Kingdom of Heaven, as you walk upon the Earth. This week, accept all that comes to you, as yours. Be thankful, for each thing. It will not matter if it is: a wonderful gift, or possibly a challenge; a joyful event, or an obstacle. Be confident in the company of what is yours. Do not push it to another, casting fault, for challenges and obstacles. These things that come to you – are yours. If it is a gift, say ‘Thank you.’ If it is a joyful event, give praise, and celebrate. If it is a challenge or an obstacle, use the wisdom of God, to embrace that –which has come to you, so that it might become the glory of God, through what you do. No matter what comes to you, it can be made a part, of The Kingdom, of Heaven. If a person comes to you, who represents a challenge, who brings a great obstacle, be thankful. Accept what is brought to you, as your own. Sit quietly, with God, for the wisdom to deal with it, to bless the situation, to create Heaven, out of what some might call, ‘a real mess.’ Do as God would do!

“Think on that, because that will speed the delivery of The Kingdom, of Heaven, upon the Earth. When God is presented a challenge, or an obstacle, God deals with it, embracing it, accepting it. From the challenge and obstacle, rises the glory... of God.

“Once you begin to do this, you will find that – although it is easy to accept the gifts and the joyful events – it is also easy to embrace the challenges and obstacles, because, in confidence, you know the power, and the glory, of God, is with you. And it is in that state that you can take ‘the mess,’ and create the glory. This will be the blossom, the rising-up of the shoot from the seed. Your tree will become strong, as it reaches, beyond the confines of Earth, growing into

The Kingdom of Heaven. There will come many, to sit under the tree, to receive the shade, grown by one, who accepts that which is yours, in such a way, as to create the glory, of The Kingdom of Heaven, upon the Earth. Accept that which comes to you, it is yours, just as the power, and the glory, of God... is yours.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Perfection Is Achieved In The Heart

“I AM with you, today, a new beginning. As the birds sing, of the glory of God, I AM with you. As you start this day, as this day begins, I wish for you to contemplate, something very important, important to each of you, in such a way, that it will bring peace to your heart to hear it.

“There is no need – to struggle – to attain perfection! Perfection is born, within the desire that is on your heart. This is the reason, why a parent, can receive, a handmade gift from a child, and see, it is a priceless treasure. They can do this, because they know, that the perfection of the gift...began in the heart of the child...began with love.

“This is something very important to know, and to carry into this day, and into the week. When something is done, with purity of heart, with a desire, to do good work, with the thought, of pleasing God, loving another...it is perfect...in its conception.

“There are things, made and created upon the Earth, that some see, as perfect, which are not perfect at all. And there are some things, and people, which are perceived, by those of Earth, as imperfect, which are actually, and in reality, perfect in the eyes of God. I speak to you today of these things, because in most places upon the Earth there is a celebration, today is noted, to honor Fathers. Fathers have the opportunity, to instill this, in their children, so that this idea of perfection grows upon the Earth. It's not in how others perceive it; it's how it is in your heart. Perfection is on your heart.

“If you strive to do something, and to do it well, for the highest good of all, then you have achieved perfection, even as you begin. And this is the energy that is carried through the project. It is perfect in the eyes of God, no matter how it ends-up appearing to those of Earth.

“If a child is making a little chair or a stool, to those of Earth, one leg might be a little longer than the others, and one seat edge might protrude a little too far to this side or that; but in the sight of God, the desire that compelled the child, to create the chair, is the note of perfection.

“This day, think about this. Think about what is on your heart, something you want to do, and then dedicate it, to the glory of God, doing it out of love for another, or many others, and before it is complete, it is perfect.

“This is perfection that all can attain. This is something that might finally obliterate the idea that you cannot achieve perfection because you are ‘only human.’ Well I say to you today, you are anything but ‘only human.’ You are an eternal being, a child of God, wearing the cloak of humanity, for a brief time; and during that brief time, you are capable of perfection, because perfection...is in your heart. Everything you do can be perfect, in the eyes of God!

“Listen to the song of the bird. The bird sings-out, not trying to impress those of Earth, but for the glory of God. Go forth and do the same. Sing, think, speak, and do...for the glory of God, and perfection will be held in all you do.”

Jesus Teaches On:

When Your Heart Is Opened By The Key Of Love, All Things Are Possible

“I AM with you ... now ... today. You hear Me, because you have opened your heart ... to The Way. Time does not lock Me, or hold Me. I speak to you, and we are in the present time.

“When your heart is opened by the key of love, all things are possible. You are no longer limited to the transitory knowledge and intelligence of Earth. You are free to slip those bonds, and fly into eternal wisdom, riding on the breath of The Holy Spirit of God, which has been sent to you to guide you. Therefore I tell you this day, do not be locked in place. Do not let: fear, worry, concern, anxiety, hatred, anger, or rejection, lock you in place. I speak to you today, and you receive the grace...to handle every situation you face...and to move into a new – and glorious day – where all things are possible.

“I would have not said it, when I walked upon the Earth, unless it was, and is, true. ‘You have ‘the capability’ to do everything I do, I did, and that which is yet to come.’ But first you must unlock your heart, with the key, of love.

“You are spirit first! You are created, by God. You are ‘of God,’ a child of God, first. It is a misconception to believe that you are ‘only human,’ flesh, limited. You are spirit, first, foremost, and forever. To walk upon the Earth, you had to be born of water. You were born of woman and man, and you entered Earth, through the birth of water so you could experience Earth. But I say unto you it is transitory, temporary. When you are called to do something, or you feel the urge within you, or you awaken to the stirring, of your spirit, do not say, ‘I cannot do this. I do not know how to do this. My Earth history tells me, it is not possible for me to do this.’ Do not say these words because you are – temporarily – in the body of a human being.

“There comes a time, when The Holy Spirit of God settles upon you, and the rebirth occurs. Your spirit sparks, and you remember. Once this occurs, you are moved by The Hand of God. Your mouth no longer utters the current knowledge of Earth, but speaks the gentle wisdom of God. Your feet are no longer locked in step, with the rhythm, of the things that are popular at the time. You dance, on the breeze, out-of-step with all, but God. You are transformed, and you begin to experience The Kingdom of God as you walk upon the Earth.

“I say these things to you because you do not have to wait until you experience death of the earthly body to know The Kingdom of God. It is time to awaken! It is time to experience something new, something that is carried within you, borne within you, so that you might know it, when it is time.

“Awaken to the spirit that you are, and spend the rest of your days upon the Earth, being an open doorway for The Kingdom of God to pour upon the Earth, so all might know God through you. It is that simple. If you will unlock your heart, God will do the rest, through you. Miraculous things will occur. And whether those around you believe them or not, it will not change the truth. Miracles will abound, all around your presence, because the doorway, between Heaven and Earth, is you!

“You hear Me, because your heart is open. You live, because your heart is filled with love. Open the doorway – and let God’s love – flow upon the Earth – through you. So be it...

“Amen.”

Jesus Teaches On:

I AM With You. Be. And Know The Power Of Being, A Peaceful Presence

“I AM with you this day. Feel My Presence; and know, The Power, of a peaceful presence.

“As you prepare to begin this day, look around you, find ‘The Peace,’ and focus there.

“Notice the majesty, of a tree: still, unmoving. The tree is being, as God intended it to be. If you will notice, it is a powerful, peaceful, presence.

“Look at the sky, you will see, the power, of a peaceful presence. It is all around you, it is over you.

“Notice all things growing: content, in being’ not attempting to move to another place; accepting the glory, of where they are; in the great creation plan.

“See the water, of a lake, river or a stream, content, in the movement, peaceful, the presence of God is within the water.

Today, there is no greater gift to give your brother’s and sister’s, yourself, and your God, than carrying the piece of God within your being in such a way, that all who encounter you this day, recognize ‘the power, of a peaceful presence,’ within you.

“And if you can do this today, you will deliver unto others the same glorious and wonderful feeling you experienced just a few minutes ago: as you looked upon the tree; as you looked into the sky; as your eyes settled upon the waters. In that brief time, and for that fleeting moment, you recognized ‘The Power of a Peaceful Presence.’

“You have the opportunity to give this gift to others...be as the tree...and the sky...and the water... Be content with where you are... Welcome the presence of God within you...and move over the Earth this day... delivering – the power of a peaceful presence – in all you think, and do, and say...

“Let it be so...”

Jesus Teaches On:
Go Into The World And Proclaim The Glory That Is God

“Feel Me, and know My approach. Feel the peace, and know My presence. Feel the power, of My peaceful presence, with you!

“I AM with you. I move over the Earth, carrying that which is necessary, to heal the world-weary soul, to mend the heart, and make you whole. This is possible, because you are whole. At the core of your being, you are what God intended you to be, the eternal being, of God.

“Right now, as you hear My words, or read My words, you are on a mission upon the Earth. You are walking, in the form of a human being, for a reason, to accomplish something. For some of you, it might be to accomplish something which you believe to be rather minor, small, yet of service. And some of you feel you are being led to do something enormous, grand in scale and scope. But no matter what the size of your mission might be, it has eternal importance; for by completing your mission, you are altering eternity, as you do so.

“God showers blessings upon the efforts of those upon Earth. A mother and father try to take care of the physical needs of their children, the best they can, and God blesses their efforts. They use the things of the world to purchase food, which they prepare and serve, so that the children might grow, and be healthy. Sometimes they use their funds to buy seeds, to plant a garden, and serve the food, in the hopes that the food will nourish the children, and they will grow and be healthy. And God sees the efforts, and the way they use that which is theirs to provide for others. And the children grow, and are healthy. God blesses the effort.

“But the money of Earth, and the things of Earth, cannot purchase spiritual food. It is not possible. When you see, or feel, the importance of Spirit, the things of Earth begin to pale in significance, and their place of importance ... is less ... than it was ... the day before.

“When it is time, for you to go-out, into the world, to accomplish a mission, which will bring The Kingdom of God onto the Earth, in a more profound way, you do not carry a purse, or a money sack; you walk in faith, knowing, that the power of God is in you. And because you have surrendered to the power of God, the power of God will work through you. And in this case, you are the power upon the Earth, and all that you do is beyond the wealth of Earth, because it is ‘of God.’ It is important to understand the difference.

“As I walked upon the Earth some two thousand years ago, those gathered around Me, whom I loved, had different assignments. One or two would procure lodging. There was one to hold the money bag. There were two or three to find the food we needed to keep our bodies going. It was a small community, with a common goal, and a united effort. And the blessing of God was upon each one of us, for the effort set forth.

“But then, when it was time, to do the things of The Kingdom, to part the veil, so that The Kingdom of God was flowing fully upon the Earth, I sent them forth, with nothing, except the cloak they wore, and the sandals upon their feet. They did not carry coins. They did not carry extra clothing. They went as they were, because their mission was not of Earth. It was not to feed the physical form. They went as ambassadors of The Kingdom of God. And as they surrendered to this mission, God filled them with power, and all they needed. It was God working through them. It was God upon the Earth. They were the blessing ‘of God.’

“During your days upon the Earth, you will be required to function in both ways. At times you might be called to find a dwelling, rent a lodging place, or times when you might sew fabric, or purchase garments to wear. There are times when you might visit the market place, or turn the soil to plant a seed, to feed your body. And in these times, you call for the blessing of God upon what you do. But when the day comes, and you feel a stirring within, to begin to feed your spiritual essence, your light body that lives eternally, you must surrender, and be filled with the power of God. The only preparation required, is that you surrender, and go in peace; for in surrendering, you inherit the heavenly kingdom. And then every thought you have, every word you say, every deed you do, will be of God. God will be upon the Earth through you. These are the things which create ‘a state of miracles.’ And it is within each of you, to create thusly.

“Today, when you must perform a function, a daily chore or task, pause and ask the blessing of God upon it; but spend some time today, surrendering to the power and the will of God, so you might know another way, The Way of Spirit.

“As I sent the twelve, out into the world, on a mission, carrying nothing, except the power of God, I do the same, for each of you today, ‘Go into the world, and proclaim the glory, that is God!’”

Jesus Teaches On:

Pentecost: The Breath Of The Holy Spirit Says, I AM Here

“I AM with you. Feel My Presence with you. I AM not just an echo of the past, I AM not only the promise of the future, I AM the present, always ... with you. I live; therefore you live, for we are one. I AM with you, not to command you, but to show you The Way, so you might walk into your glory, which is the glory of The Creator, so that you might walk, in The Light, of All That Is. It is your heritage to do so. Therefore I AM with you, to show you The Way. I AM the song of the present, the song of the new day. The words are on your heart. The melody – comes in the sound of the birds, the breeze in the trees, the rolling water, of the oceans, and the rivers, and the streams. I AM the song of Earth.

“When I walked upon the Earth some two thousand years ago in the physical form, I was led, by the will of God. I did this freely, so that the creation plan would continue, through Me, spilling onto the Earth, through Me, loving those of Earth, through Me, having the power of God upon the Earth, through Me. And I tell you today remember, the same will be done through you, the power of God upon the Earth, through each of you. It is the way it is intended.

“As I walked upon the Earth, there came the time for Me to summon those, to call those who would gather ‘round Me. And I called them and they came. Understand, what was happening, that a stranger might walk by, say, ‘Come with Me,’ and another would rise-up, leave family, and work, and all things familiar – behind – and follow the stranger, into a new day. It was an inner stirring, a spiritual knowing. I was the sign, and their eyes were open and they saw. Those I gathered about Me as I walked upon the Earth in physical form, listened, as I spoke the word of God. I chose to do this, so that the word of God would flow through My lips, onto the Earth, becoming ... of Earth. If I held the words inside of Me they would have not been brought onto the Earth plane so fully, so completely. And you can do the same. When you are stirred to speak the words of God, speak them and they will be delivered, born, upon the Earth, through you.

“These things I taught those I gathered around Me. They were filled with Spirit. In My presence they grew in the light of God. They were beginning to know The Way and walk in it. Miraculous things became every day events: feeding multitudes with small portions, raising the dead, healing the sick, banishing fear, delivering love.

“I told many, I come to show you The Way. Here, I say unto you, ‘Take, and accept, My yoke. Let us be yoked together, so My strength is your strength, so that when you go into the new day, you do not carry your burdens alone; I carry them ... with you. And when we are yoked, when we pull together, your burden is light, because I AM The Light.’

“Continuing My days upon the Earth, those I gathered about Me grew, as they knew, the word of God was flowing, and the power of God was growing, within them. Yet as My time – to return Home – grew near, and I would tell them of it, I could see in the eyes, of those growing in the ways of miracles, showed fear, began to doubt, knew concern and worry. It was at that time that I knew, even those who are willing to step forward, read the signs, and follow, can be tempted, to doubt the power of God within them, if they do not have a reminder, if they are not yoked to one of power, who knows The Way, and takes their burden, freely.

“It was for this reason that I said, ‘I will ask, and God will send, a powerful Counselor for each of you. Do not worry, for I must go; I must return, My mission is ... soon accomplished ... but yours is just beginning. Spread The Word, show The Way, deliver The Message, the heritage of eternal life, belongs to all the children of Earth. But they must be freed. And they must know. And they must awaken to the power of God, individually, in their own time, and from their own place. And the only way to do this – is to magnify The Spirit of God – so that it is borne, within each, individual being, walking Earth.’

“I said that this would happen. It was My intention that it be done. And once I returned to The Heavenly Kingdom, once I moved through the veil, and returned to reality, it was accomplished. And The Holy Spirit of God, was sent: to be The Light, to show The Way, to confirm The Power.

“I speak to you today, of what occurred, in physical form, thousands of years ago upon the Earth, because I want you to understand it continues ... in each one of you, that same story ... continues. The signs come to you. You feel a calling and you rise-up, walking into the new day on faith, not really knowing where you are going, or what the mission will bring to you. The nobility is in the rising-up. The joy is in reading the signs, and knowing ... the time has come. The promise ... is that you will not do this alone.

“This day I ask you to be still for a few minutes, acknowledge, The Holy Spirit of God that is in you, and those embers ... will jump ... stir ... and ignite ... as The Breath of The Holy Spirit says, ‘I AM here!’

“Feel The Flame within you. Feel the safety, and the strength, of the yoke, as I say, ‘Here, let Me make your burdens lighter. Walk with Me, and know the will of The Creator of All Things, because you say, ‘Yes, I will be. I will live the present eternity, knowing, the power of God stirs me, and I awaken. I see the flame’.

“Today begins a new day. Sanctify the day, with a commitment. Stand-up and know it. I walk with you. We ... are forever ... united ... as one.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Open, And Receive The Holy Spirit Of God, And You Will Know The Way

“I AM with you this day. I am with you, all days. I am with you, in all ways. I AM ... with you.

“Some two thousand years ago, I walked upon the Earth. A distinct mission was given to Me. And I performed My mission, as I was led, by The Power of God, flowing into and through Me. This is what moved Me, what propelled Me, what filled Me with life, a life force, of eternity, a power to do, what I was to do.

“I fulfilled the prophecy, and set about My work, of establishing The Kingdom of God upon the Earth, more completely and fully, through the work of the children of Earth. I called-out, ‘Come to Me,’ and those who were stirred from within rose-up and followed Me. I with walked with, talked to, and shared stories amongst, those I loved, who gathered around Me, to listen, and hear, so they might know The Way.

“Those days are as precious pearls, their numbers few, strung together, a glorious time, when it was My destiny, to walk upon the Earth. Although My time was short, much was done. As those gathered around Me listened to what I said ... they began to do ... what I did. And each time, they did ... they acted ... they performed the works of God, their faith grew, and they were encouraged, recognizing that it was God, working through them, and their joy was unconfined.

“As My time drew near, My time to return Home, to complete the task, to bring the mission to a close, to accomplish it all, they began to feel ... alone, even when I was still with them. Because they were not living in the present, they were fearing the future, of no longer having someone with them that would tell them, show them, guide them. Once it was accomplished, they became afraid. But you see, I had told them, ‘Do not be afraid, for I must return to The Kingdom of God. I must speak in your behalf.’

“The Spirit of God is in everything created. However, it was so obvious that those of Earth needed a counselor, each one; individual guidance ... was necessary to bring peace and strength, courage and confidence. And so I told them, ‘I will ask, and God will send you ... a Counselor. The Holy Spirit of God will come to each of you, and live within you, and show you The Way. And when you ask, the answer will be yours, uniquely your answer, your direction, and your guidance.’

“These things were necessary, because I told them, ‘Watch for the signs. You will know the ones who believe, because those who believe: will cast-out demons, in My name; will heal the sick, in My name; they will do all manner of miraculous deeds, in My name; because they believe. This is a sign.’

“I knew that to do this, they needed guidance, confidence. Therefore, once I returned, The Father, God, The Creator Mother of All Things, sent forth The Breath, The Life, The Holy Spirit of God, pouring-out, on all flesh, each one, individually. The Spirit was no longer flowing only, but living strongly. The Spirit was poured-out upon all flesh. It is yours, today.

“The signs are the same. You will know those who believe, because they will cast-out the demons, heal the sick, and perform all manner of miraculous deeds in My name. They will not be complacent. They will be active, moving, as God moves, as The Spirit moves, as I move. We are not stagnant. We are created to live. We are eternal. And The Holy Spirit of God abides with you, dwelling in you, so that you might have confidence, so you might be at peace, so you might ... perform ... the miracles, so The Glory of God is known, upon the Earth.

“Watch for the signs. Be open. Acknowledge and welcome The Holy Spirit of God into you every day, because the more you welcome, and open, the stronger you will feel The Spirit within you. And The Spirit will move you, and you will speak, and The Words of God will echo in the trees, and be carried on the breeze, to touch the hearts and the souls, of those in need.

“I say to you this day, rise-up, follow Me. It is good. It is time, and you are ready. If you are stirred, or moved, to rise-up, come, walk with Me.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Mothers, Teach Your Children To Be Open To The Guidance From The Holy Spirit Of God

“I AM with you this day. This day, I speak with special affection, and attention, to the mothers of Earth, ‘Teach your children, in such a way, that they are open to the guidance from The Holy Spirit of God, and support them, as they journey, upon the Earth.’

“To be – a mother – is to experience a unique connection with another, one that you have known, before their birth upon the Earth. In your role, you feel the stirring of life within you, you feel ... growth, and you come to love that which you cannot see; but you know it is within you.

“It is easy to care for the one you carry within you; it is contained, confined, and held; you feed it, by what you eat. All is well, within you. But there comes the time, for that which is held within, to be born, to walk the Earth, to complete a mission. You are the doorway to Earth. You are the portal between Heaven and Earth. And through you, the precious children of God, make their way, upon the Earth. The door is open, and they are born.

“I speak to you today because there are different ways to assist your child, your children...

“It is important, that you know the difference: between training, and teaching; between direction, and guidance.

“Sometimes, you will find the ‘temptation’ to train a child, to do this, this, this, and this; one step leading to another, to accomplish something, let us say: tying a shoe, or putting on their clothes, or performing any other task. But it is ... better ... to teach; teach the ‘how,’ with the ‘why.’ And this requires, more time, and effort, because it is easier to say, ‘Do this, because I say to.’ When you teach a child, completely, and fully, they understand, and comprehend, the goal. This does not mean that they will always do, as you say to do it. It means they might find a different way to do it. But in the teaching, rather than training, they comprehend, and understand.

“It is the same with giving direction, and guidance. You can direct, say: ‘Do this, or do that. Go here, or go there.’ implying that is the way it should be done, that is the way you do it. Then, there is guidance: showing; guiding, from one place to another; letting the child experience, so they might know, and grow, in the knowing of it; guiding with love, all along The Way.

“Encourage your children, to do the things, they love to do. The temptation will be to lead them into things which will provide ‘means,’ to do the things they like to do. The Earth is full of people, who are doing ... things they don’t like to do, working: to make money; to buy things; to fill a house; to buy a car; to get more clothing. It is time for the mothers to begin, to teach the children, to be guided by The Holy Spirit of God, so they might be at peace, so they might be happy, upon the Earth, so they might be playful and joyful!

“The ‘old ways,’ are not working well. They have created a society, which is depressed, angry, lonely, and unfulfilled. Today, I say ‘Think about what you are doing, and the responsibility you have chosen.’ I ask you, and encourage you, to choose teaching over training, and guidance over direction.

“I bless each one of you this day, and I ask you to open to The Holy Spirit of God, which will fill-you in such a way: that you will know; that when you speak to your child, or your children, you will be speaking the words of God, upon the Earth; when you touch them, they will feel ... God ... with them.

“This day, make it your intention, to understand the difference, and choose to teach, and guide, and love, as God loves!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Make The Decision To Be Taught By God, And Your Life Will Be In Balance

“I AM with you this morning. Time does not hold Me in place. I do not exist, in one dimension only, I AM. And I AM with you, now!

“Do not look forward to the day when you can walk the streets of The Heavenly Kingdom, do so now! For in looking toward the future, and planning for that time, you are losing the present piece of eternity, the piece that is now! And if you look forward, and miss the piece that is now, eternity is not complete. You see it falls to you, to create now. And what you do with now, decides tomorrow.

“When you take those words in, and really know them, your journey, begins to change, the significance of: the now, the present, being... creating... for eternity.

“I speak to you, My brothers and sisters, in this way, because there are many, walking upon the Earth right now, who seem to think that they are just biding time, or filling space, that what they do doesn't matter, because they're not that 'important,' their not 'old enough' to do this, or 'smart enough' to that, or 'rich enough' to buy this, or 'powerful enough' to make a difference. This is an illusion, and a trick. You would not be on the Earth right now, if what you were to do, was not significant.

“Do not idle, in place! Move... and do... and be!

“There comes 'a time,' to put away the tools of learning, as described by those of Earth: the books, the teachings, the rules and the regulations, so that you might 'be taught,' the things that you need to know. If you are a carpenter, preparing to build a house, a recipe for sponge cake, will not be of any service to you, in completing your task. That is not to say that the recipe in itself is not good or useful. It is very useful to the cook, seeking something delicious to serve for dessert. But it is not so useful to one preparing to build a house. Now, this analogy can be applied to almost anything; substitute them in any way you wish.

“Something a fisherman uses to catch the tuna to feed many, will not serve the artist, seeking a paint, or a pencil. And the paint, or the pencil, will not serve the fisherman. It does not make, any of these things, less than good, it just happens to be that they are not what is necessary to complete the task at hand. I bring these to your attention so you will know this, the only way you will receive personal, individual direction, uniquely designed to lead you where you are to go, is when you will sit in quiet, and ask for guidance, from God!

“This is what I did as I walked the Earth some two thousand years ago. God was My Guiding Source, The Energy that propelled Me, moved Me, taught Me. And it is to be the same, with each of you. What a different world you would experience, if each one of you would be taught be God!

“This day, I ask you, to find a quiet place, and be still for a short time. Ask a question, a simple question. And then, make it your intention...to follow this...guidance. In fact, go into the whole process, saying, ‘God, today I begin being taught by You. It is my intention to do Your will. Teach me, and I will speak Your words, do Your deeds, paint Your masterpieces, sing Your songs. I will create, in the name of God, and it will be good!’

“Make the decision, to be taught by God, and your life will be in balance. You will be in-harmony with all around you. You will not struggle. You will not be in chaos or confusion; because no matter what the world tells you, you are to do, you will hold the answer on your heart, you will be able to march to your drummer, sing your song, paint your picture. You will live, in the now. And your understanding and comprehension, of the now, will be the bridge to tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow. Don't wait... for Heaven, live it... now!”

Jesus Teaches On:

You Are Not The Body Of Dust You Wear On Earth, You Are As The Angels

“I AM with you on this day, as the birds call, announcing it is time to rise-up, and see, what is new. And as you listen to the call you rise-up. It is life, reverberating all around you. You are a part, of this day, and this day is a piece of eternity, being created, by you. There will be many “opportunities” this day, and you will be asked, to make choices, this day. The opportunities come and go. But “your choices,” your decisions, live on.

“I wish to talk to you today, about the importance, of knowing, that which is transitory and passing, from that which is eternal, and everlasting. You are not the body, which is a garment of dust, wrapped around you. It is like, the clothing that you have in your closet. You take something out and put it on, depending on the occasion or the event, and then you take it off again. It is an outward projection, of what you hope the world will identify, with your personality. It marks, how you see yourself, at that time in the present. And usually, the clothing selected from the closet, is appropriate for whatever event, or occasion, you will be attending.

“Well it’s not too much different, with the body, and the spirit, and soul. The body, the garment of dust you have wrapped around your spirit, is uniquely appropriate, for the special event, or occasion, you are attending, on Earth. It is why you have the body you have. But always, inside of this body that you have chosen, there is the eternal voice speaking to you. Often it sounds like your own voice; but it is there. Do not confuse the two. The body is passing. You are the spirit that is eternal.

“More than two thousand years ago, I encountered questions from many people, as I walked upon the Earth, some earnest, sincere questions, some questions were bait, and I knew it. But each time, My answer was, a key, a piece of eternal wisdom that could be used to find the truth, and to know The Way. At one time, a group of elders questioned Me about the resurrection, and marriage and death. The question had to do with one woman, and seven men...brothers, marrying one, which would pass, and then, according to custom, the next brother would marry, in an attempt to raise a family, in their line. Now this was a question, it was not something specific, about a specific family. It was a question to see, if this woman had married all seven brothers, at the resurrection whose wife would she be?

“It was a trick, I knew it; but, I took the opportunity to say this, ‘When you rise, after the death of your earthly body, you rise, and continue, like the angels of God. You do not marry. You are not given in marriage. You are like the angels...of God.’

“You see, that describes what you are right now. The body is passing. It falls from you with every breath you take. Your time upon the Earth is limited and you have chosen a garment appropriate for the occasion. But just as you remove the clothing when the occasion or event is over, you will remove the body, when your time on Earth is done. Therefore knowing this, the decisions you make upon the Earth, will be wiser, more appropriate. Listen, to the voice of life, within you. The things around you are passing, and will fade away, but you will not. This is why, as your body ages, inside you don't feel any different than you did at: twelve, or twenty, or thirty. You will not age. You are eternal, in your spirit.

“In the resurrection and when you pass, you will be, as the angels of God, this is true; but I tell you, in this time that you are spending upon the Earth, you can bring The Kingdom of God, onto the Earth, in a most powerful way, uniting, reuniting, the garden, with Heaven, again. There were many people I encountered, during My time upon the Earth, who held answers, beyond what they...could have known by the teachings, of humankind. And I would say unto them, whenever they said the words, ‘You are not far from The Kingdom of God.’ Or sometimes I would say, ‘You speak, and know, beyond earthly teachings. Therefore, you live in The Kingdom of God now.’

“If you can understand the difference, your time on Earth will be easier. I do not say you will not meet challenge, trial. And those trying times, will come to you, just as mine did. Each, one of you, will live your Garden of Gethsemane, when you feel, there surely must be another way. I was on My knees, asking, ‘Father, if there's another way, can We do it?’ The answer was, ‘No. This is the way it must be.’ And most of you will face the same answer, at times in your life. You will be praying, ‘Well, this is the situation, God. I know what you're asking me to do, but can we do it another way? I'd really like to do it another way.’ And, you'll hear the answer, or know it clearly upon your heart. The answer will be, ‘No. It needs to be done this way.’

“These times will be easier, if you remember, ‘The body is passing, falling from you, as you read these words, or hear these words; but your spirit is eternal, and every choice and decision you make, is eternal as well.’ It will make it easier to rise-up and say, ‘Thy will be done, this day. And then do it.’ The Earth would not be the same, if I had not done the will of God. Even though My body, wanted something else, My spirit knew the wisdom, the eternal wisdom of God.

“The wisdom of God is available to each and every one of you, without measure. All you have to do, is sit quietly. You don't even have to tell God, what you think the situation is, God sees all aspects, of what you are encountering at the time, and He does not see it, just from your perspective; the picture is complete, and the answer is clear...to God.

“Ask, and be still, and you will receive the wisdom you need, to resolve any issue before you. This day I ask you to remember, you are not the garment of dust, which is falling from you, every second. You are the eternal being. You are of light. You are of love. Be confident, in who you are, and let your decisions, be the word of God, and you will find peace, no matter what you encounter!”

Jesus Teaches On:

If You Hear My Word And Know It, You Will Find Love. If You Hear My Word, And Act Upon It, You Will Find Life

“I AM with you, today. I AM with you. See Me coming, in the distance, walking, drawing nearer and nearer to you. Feel My presence, and know Me, for time cannot hold Me in one place, I AM with you, everywhere.

“Come. Let us gather at the river, and rejoice! Let us celebrate love and life. You see as I AM with you, the river, of God, is in you. And it is there we gather, now. Look, it is inviting. Dip your hands into the flowing water, and splash it on your face. Wash away the tears, in the flowing, of God's grace. See your face is clean and fresh. It is new, touched by God's love, flowing in you. Oh the river is wonderful. Put your feet in, splash, and feel it. And no matter where you have been, or what journey you have experienced, your feet will be refreshed, and from this day forward, you will walk along The Way, knowing; knowing God's love, has cleaned you, and freed you from the journey of the past so you might walk into a new time, carrying all the experience that is yours, holding it as a treasure, for it will serve you well; but releasing, all energies, that would hold you in place, leave tears on your face.

“You have been this day, washed, in the grace of God, found in the free-flowing river, within you. What a beautiful way to begin...the day, the week...a new time for you.

“And remember, you do not wash your face, or your feet, once, and expect them to stay clean, free from dust. Do not expect your face and your feet to stay clean spiritually all the time, without returning to the river of God's love. For it is there, no matter what, you have experienced, that: you shall be made clean, you shall be made whole, you shall be made well.

“My brothers and sisters, I say these words to you today, ‘If you hear My words, and write them down, or read My words, and take them to heart, you will find love, in Me, and through Me. But, if you hear My words, or read My words, and act upon My words, you will find life, in Me, and through Me. There is a difference. And the difference is “knowing,” something, versus “living,” something. The difference is acting on what you know. The difference is living the word.’

“Each one of you, hearing My words, or reading My words, right now, has experienced, reading: instructions, a book of directions, a pamphlet on how to do something. And then you put the book, or the instructions, or the pamphlet, aside, and move on to something else. But when you return to the matter, and attempt to use the item, for which the instruction was written, you must return to the words again, to remember how it is done, to see which step precedes another. It is not familiar. It is not comfortable.

“But if you take your instructions, the book of directions, the pamphlet on how to do it, and actually do the steps, as you read the words, it becomes easier, and easier, and soon, you have mastered it. You no longer need the instructions. You can use the item, with ease, because you have incorporated the direction into your being. It is the same, with hearing, or reading, the word of God. To find the power, in the word – you must use it – to acquire strength.

“It is the same with almost everything you do upon the Earth, so you have many lessons around you. You can read a book on how to swim, or play a sport, or drive a car, or prepare a meal; but until you actually use the direction, by doing it, you do not live it. You might know how it is done; but you are not living it. And as you live it, as you make the meal, drive the car, swim the course, you grow – in strength, and confidence – knowing, it can be done. It is not just a direction written down, it is a direction to follow, to make life easier; and it can be done; and you can do it!

“This day, I ask you to be still, and read, or hear, the words God is speaking. Pick-out any words...find something to hold upon your heart, and you will...find love. But if you will put the words into action, you will find strength, power, and life, life...the way it is intended to be.

“Read The Book, know the words, and act upon them, and you will find love, and new life. This, I promise.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Accept Everything Which Comes To You As A Lesson Worth Learning And Move On

“I AM with you. As surely as the sun rises and sets, I AM with you.

“Today, I wish to remind you of just a few things, so that you might carry these important words into the week, so that you might go about your mission, with a determination to complete the task, and move on.

“Today My brothers and sisters, I wish to speak of the importance of ‘acceptance,’ accepting everything in such a way that is constructive, and useful, to your purpose, your intention, your mission upon the Earth. Acceptance will speed you along your way, and make your life upon the Earth much easier to bear, no matter what your situation.

“Now there are times, which are, ‘easy to accept:’ joyful times, happy times, productive times, abundant times; but I would like you to look at these most glorious times, in the light of a different form of acceptance. I would like you to accept the joyful, the glorious, the happy, the productive, the abundant, ways, and days, as gifts, rewards, keys, for your faith, and for doing well. These things come, so that you might accept them, as outward signs, of the glory of God, within you! Look at it this way. Do not look at what you consider great success in a boastful, or proud, way. Look at it, with gratitude in your heart, that you have been so blessed. Accept the outward sign: that you are on the right road, doing what it is you are to do, completing the mission at hand, in good form; it is working; the glory of God is about you. And, although I am asking you to look at this in a different light, to see it slightly in a different way, these times surely – are easy – and these things can be accepted.

“But what will take a little more effort upon your part, is ‘accepting the things of great lessons,’ the things you do not wish to bear, the things that come to you every day, which seem, possibly, to be the fault of others, or the fault of something that happened, or the fault of the way it is upon the Earth. But actually, everything that comes to you, sometimes by the hour, sometimes daily, comes to you, as a lesson, and it is to be accepted. The way you accept it, makes all the difference. It can either be a time of great drama and chaos and confusion; or, it can be a simple solution, found in accepting, learning the lesson, and moving on. It does not have to take days or years. It does not have to take anger and frustration to work through it. It simply takes ‘the will to accept it, as your lesson, and not assign it to another.’

“I will give you an example, of accepting a situation, as a lesson, and moving on, in glory.

“I would like you to envision a situation, where you have encountered something: that needs repair; that needs fixing. I would like you to calculate, in this equation, that the repair, the fixing of it, requires you to use a hammer and nails. Also add that this project will not be complete, without the use of many nails – fifty, sixty, seventy – nails to complete the project. You get the picture.

“This project is yours to do, and you begin. You pick-up the hammer, place the nail, raise your arm, and bring the hammer down, making contact, with the head of the nail. It does not go well. It knocks the nail crooked, and you have to straighten it. Slightly frustrated, you continue, working with the nail, until you get it in; and pick-up another nail, and begin again. This time, the frustration building within you, causes you to miss the nail head, and hit your finger. There is a delay in the project, and your frustration, turns to anger. It then becomes a series of mishaps, one after another, until finally, you throw the hammer to the side, kick the bucket of nails over, and sit there. The project goes unfinished. And days later, when people are moving through the place where this project was to be completed, you explain, ‘It was too difficult. The nails were crooked. The hammer was too heavy. The light was too dim. Someone said something to you and distracted you.’ Well, you get the picture. Excuses are made, the project goes uncompleted, nothing is settled, and there is chaos and confusion.

“Now I want you to rewind the tape which just played this scenario, and begin again.

“Begin again, with the thought, of accepting. First of all, accepting the task; it is yours to do. You’re beginning the project with a different view. You are accepting it, not bemoaning it. You see what needs to be done, and you carefully count-out the number of nails, you think it will require to complete the task. You pick-up a nail, and place it; pick-up the hammer, and raise it, and bring it down. The nail turns slightly and does not go in at a straight angle. But accepting this, you take a different look at the lay of the boards, the way you’ve positioned the nail, and you watch carefully, keeping your eyes on what you are doing, focusing on the place where the contact will occur. You raise the hammer, and it comes down, just as planned. The nail goes in straight, and you pick-up another nail. This time the song of a bird distracts you, and you look aside, the hammer comes down, you hit your finger. But accepting the situation, you think about the song of the bird, and it fills you with joy. You listen, but you focus on the task at hand; you do not take your eyes off of the place, where the contact is to be made. The hammer goes up, and comes down, and the nail goes into the board. Lesson learned. Accepting the situation, you move along, completing the task, repairing, and the project is complete. You put the hammer and nails away. You thank the bird for the song. And you move on.

“Now, although these are very simple word pictures, if you look at them side-by-side, you will be able to draw from them, the way you are to lead your life. You can either get stuck along the way, not learning your lesson, and giving-up; or, you can accept the situation, learn the lesson, complete the task, and move on... accepting.

“This week, I ask you to accept the easy things, and accept the challenging tasks! Accept them, giving glory to God; or accept them, determined to learn the lesson, which will be the glory of God. You are going to have a most magnificent week, if you let this be your guide....

“Be determined, to accept, that which is yours, and move on ... lesson learned.”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Promise Of Eternal Life Is Yours

“I AM risen. I AM with you. I AM risen in the light, of all that is holy. I AM risen, in the glory, of God.

“This is a time for celebration, for the promise – of eternal life – is yours. Life upon the Earth is limited: to the things of Earth; to the body, you wrap around your spirit; it is limited, but you hold eternal life, within you, within your spirit; it is there.

“Do not cling to the robe that is passing, for you hold the promise of eternity, within you. It is your heritage. It is yours.

“Some two thousand years ago, I endured the passion, so I might rise-up in glory. On the tree, of shame, the bud of life opened, promising spring, fulfilling all prophecy, opening in the light and for the glory of God.

“And that Promise, that bud, was taken from the tree, the cross, and laid within the tomb, covered, and in darkness, until it was time, to rise-up, in the light and glory of God. And it was accomplished. It is accomplished. I live. I AM risen.

“As it was accomplished, I walked, amongst those, whom I loved, whom I love, and heard their words, and spoke with them. Some I encountered, looked at Me, but could not see Me. They did not know Me. But they spoke of Me, repeating, talking about the events, of the crucifixion. Still others, looked at Me, and saw Me. They knew Me. And I said to them, ‘See. I AM risen. I AM the promise. I AM the new life, and it is yours!’

“I offer this to you today. Even though for most of you, your time upon the Earth has not been completed, I tell you, you can walk in the light and glory of the kingdom of God now; you can be resurrected, right now. I ask you to rise-up from the ashes: of anger, frustration, fear, doubt, and other like energies. Rise-up, as the phoenix flies from the ashes, so that you might soar into the light of this new day, holding only, within you, the most noble energies: of truth, kindness, patience, compassion, understanding, love; rejecting all things, but the light of God; and you too will experience the resurrection; you will spend the rest of your days walking upon the Earth, in the light of God.

“You will be, as the butterfly emerging from the caterpillar, which once crawled upon the Earth, released: to soar, to fly in the sun, to taste the sweetness, of that which springs forth from the Earth. You are like the flower of spring, the tulip, the daffodil, encased within a shell, held within the Earth, until the light and the warmth of the sun draws you up, and you open, in the new day, in the new life. You are the butterfly. You are the flower.

“The promise is yours... ‘See, I AM risen, and in the rising, I still say to you, ‘You can do everything that I do.’

“Prepare for the time, because your time upon the Earth is limited. With each passing day, the numbers remaining are fewer and fewer. But it does not mark the ending. You are counting the days to the beginning of eternal life.

“You are as the babe, held in the womb of the mother, for a specific time, until you are ready. I AM risen. The promise of new life is yours.

“Come, take My hand, and look, and see. I give you the promise, eternity. Come, rise-up, and walk with Me. Amen. It is done. It is accomplished. You are free.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Send God A Sign, You Will Live In The World And Embrace The Ways Of God

“I AM with you. Feel My presence around you. I will not leave you, because that has been accomplished. You will not experience My departure. You will only experience My return, My presence. And as you experience Me, I say unto you, God has delivered, that which I requested: The Holy Spirit abides within you; each of you holds the Spirit of God. It is not something which is stripped from you, or taken away, or denied you, at any point. The Spirit of God is within you. The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Know these things, for they are true.

“Celebrate the little things; they are the glory beams of your life. Make everything an event, because it is. You are creating the story of your life upon the Earth, and you are not alone. For if you open to that which is within you, you will find eternal guidance; you will find light, and love, and peace.

“All of the things I desired to tell those whom I gathered near to Me, those whom I loved, while I was walking upon the Earth in a physical form, all these things you can know, and more.

“Whatever you embrace is yours. You can embrace the ways of the world, and the ways of the world will be yours. You can embrace the ways of God, and the ways of God will be yours. But it is very difficult to embrace both. It is possible to live in the world, and embrace the ways of God; for, that is how it is meant to be. And that is why many of you are waking to this now, beginning to see, and it is being revealed to hundreds, and thousands, and more. How life upon the Earth is meant to be, is seeing the beauty, but knowing more.

“There are many things hidden from the intelligent, the ones schooled in the ways of the world, the ones preoccupied with matter. But these things are revealed – to those who are childlike – who, at a very basic level, accept, embrace, and live.

“If you find yourself today in a hospital bed, that is where you are at the time, and that is where you are to make your presence known. Your joyful presence will be the light of the room, and the floor, and the hospital. You have a job to do there, and it is to bring, to deliver, the light of God, in joy.

“If you find yourself in a prison, it is the same thing. If you are there, that is where you are to be. And then it becomes your mission, your task, to bring, to deliver the light of God to that cell, to that wing, to that entire prison, and to do so with joy.

“If you find yourself going day-in and day-out to the same office, sitting in a cubicle, with no windows, and not much contact, with anything other than the office equipment you work with everyday, and the people who flow up and down the hallways, that is where you are meant to be. That is where you are, and that is where you are to bring and deliver the light of God, with a joyful heart.

“No matter where your life course leads you, no matter what choices you make, no matter where you find yourself right now, it is where you are. The next step is determining that since you are there, you will deliver the light of God, you will make the best of where you are. That is living life, upon the Earth, in a special and unique way. It is delivering the light of God, every day. And you have the opportunity to do this.

“You can ask for signs and you can ask for miracles and you can ask for guidance and directions in your prayer and meditation. And you will receive assistance. But to see the grand miracles take place around you, it would be a good idea, rather than waiting for the sign from God, for you to stand-up and be the sign to God. Make the announcement, ‘God, I'm sending You a sign. I am ready. I wait patiently. Where Your hand moves me, I will go. The words whispered on Your breath, I will speak. The love delivered to my heart, I will pass on, to those of Earth.’ Send God a sign and you will be moved by The Hand, and you will hear, and speak The Words, and your heart will overflow with love!

“You see, I am not to leave you, I am to remain with you. And for those of you who open to My presence, your life will be amazing. The Holy Spirit is within you. I AM with you. Send the sign to God, and watch, and be vigilant, for you will see the miracles, and you will know the ways of God. Send the signs! It is time! Rise-up!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Stop Judging And Condemning Each Other, Start Forgiving And Loving Each Other

“I AM with you on this glorious day. This day will never be repeated. You are creating. You are living. You are present. You are now, and now is eternity. Know this, for it is true.

“I wish to give you simple advice: to carry into the world; to use every day; to assist you in every way; so that you might bring upon the Earth The Kingdom of God, and all of its glory, for it is with you, and it is possible for you to do. But first, preparation is required. It will not happen, the Earth will not be fully restored to the garden it is intended to be, until those of Earth announce to God, ‘We commit. We are ready. It shall be done.’

“And, here is the first step. Mark My words, and mark them well, as you cannot proceed without accomplishing this first step, ‘Stop judging and condemning each other, start forgiving and loving each other.’ You cannot do both. You will either be for judgment and condemnation, or you will be for forgiveness and love. You cannot straddle the fence any longer. You must come down on one side. But know this, whichever side you come down on, will be the side that you live. It will be your experience. It will be what you know.

“Give, and give love freely. To know abundance, in its richest, fullest, most rewarding form, you must give. There is great delight in giving: giving joy, giving song, giving mirth, giving birth, giving life, giving love. Give what God gives to you. God gives you the gift of power, and many other noble gifts, so that you might use them upon the Earth. God gives these things to you. Continue the giving, it will bring you great joy, and it will bring the Earth to its rightful place ... sooner.

“There is no student greater than their teacher. But, when the student is taught well, hearing and embracing that which the teacher is imparting, and the student knows what the teacher is trying to teach, the student is like the teacher.

“If you walk over the Earth, delivering judgment and condemnation, that is what you are teaching, that is what will be learned. If you walk over the Earth, forgiving and giving ... and giving ... and giving ... loving every day, without restrictions, then that is what you are teaching, that is what will be learned. Know this. Know this, it is important, and it is time to know this. Set about forgiving, set about giving, set about loving, so you might truly be living the life you are intended to live, upon the Earth.

“You cannot have the blind leading the blind. Where would they go? What would they do? They would be two people, stumbling around, and neither seeing which way to go. And so this is why I have often said, do not pay attention to the speck of dust in your brother's or your sister's eye, when there is a plank in your own. Do not call forth judgment on your brother's or sister's speck, when a plank blinds you. Instead, set yourself aside, renewing, washing, cleansing, and forgiving. Remove the wooden beam from your own eye, and then, with great love, you can reach-out and dab the speck of dust from the eye of your brother or sister; then, neither of you will be blind! You will both see, and you will see the light of God, because it is done in love!

“Judgment and condemnation is a dust storm upon the Earth; it blinds all who enter. However, forgiving, and giving, and loving, calms the storm, and wipes the specks of dust and, removes the planks, from the eyes of all, as all things are possible, because God will do it through you. But, this week you must decide. You must decide. Choose: judgment and condemnation; or, forgiveness, giving, loving, living in the light of God.

“I wait for you. I have chosen. The Way is marked with: forgiveness, ‘Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing;’ loving, I come to show you The Way, to give you My love, so you, too, might love; I deliver the new command...love one another; living and giving all you can every day. This is what I have chosen.

“Come; let us walk The Way, together!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Blessed Are Those, Who Hear The Word Of God, And Act Upon It

“I AM with you. In the sacred silence, before the sounds of the day can be heard, I AM with you. I bring you My peace. I bring you answers to questions you have long asked.

“Who are you?

“You are a child of God, and your eternal heritage is The Kingdom of God.

“Why do you have life upon the Earth?

“You live upon the Earth: to take part in the great resurrection, of the garden; to restore Earth to its rightful position, in The Kingdom of God.

“Blessed are those who hear the word of God, and act upon it; for, they ‘know,’ The Kingdom of God, without tasting the sting of death, because The Kingdom lives, in them. They live, in the eternal present. They live, in the present eternity.

“The word of God is spread over the Earth, as seed, from the hand of the sower, carried on the wind, delivered by The Holy Spirit to each one. And how each one: receives, embraces, tends, and nurtures the seed, determines – the life – of their garden.

“Some, receive the seed, hear the word, and quickly dismiss it, rationalizing, theorizing it completely out of existence. And the seed, the word, is crushed, by the heel of doubt.

“Some, receive the seed, hear the word, and sing with joy, carrying the light, living The Way, until the time of trial and testing comes to them, and then the seed withers, amidst the rocks and stones of worry, concern, and anxiety.

“There are others, who receive the seed, hear the word, and it grows within them. With each passing day, they flow in the current, of the power of God, and they taste the sweet gifts of The Kingdom, for a time. But slowly, the temptations, of the riches and the pleasures of Earth, begin to choke-out, that which is growing in the garden. Soon, it becomes untended, uncared for, and they are drawn further and further away, seeking wealth, comfort, pleasure in the world, leaving behind a garden ... choked.

“Still, there are others, who receive the seed, hear the word, and act upon it. They live, in the present eternity, in such a way, as to bring the light of God, flowing onto the Earth, establishing The Kingdom, in a portion that is their garden. And in the light of God, the garden grows. And from the flowing waters, of God’s love, the garden is fed, and it matures, and it feeds the hungry.

“The word of God comes to you! It comes, often! It is carried on The Wind. It is delivered to your heart, and soul, and spirit, by The Holy Spirit of God. How you embrace the word – determines – how well your garden will grow. Be mindful. Do not doubt. Have faith. Do not let the seed wither, amidst the stones and the rocks of worry, concern, or anxiety. Do not be tempted to surrender your garden, and walk away, seeking the riches of the world. Be still, and know, the word of God is yours. It will show you The Way, so you might walk in it.

“Hear the word of God, and act upon it, and you will know Heaven, without tasting the sting of death, for The Kingdom lives in you. Live today, in the light of God. Live eternity, in the present today, for you are the children of God. Your eternal heritage is Heaven. Hear the word of God, and act upon it!”

Jesus Teaches On:

From Inner Peace And Stillness, Spring Forth Noble Thoughts, Words, And Deeds

“As you open your eyes to the light of a new day, I AM with you. I AM with you, through all time. I AM present. I AM now!

“Today, I wish to speak to you about the importance of quiet; not just sitting still, while your mind races within from here to there and everywhere; but quiet, from the core of your being.

“Inner peace and stillness is a pool of new life, from which spring forth noble thoughts, words, and deeds, worthy of The Kingdom of God. If you can sustain inner peace and stillness, you have it, you hold the key, you know. If you can sustain inner peace and stillness, you will no longer be the victim of reaction, your actions will spring forth, from peace and stillness, and they will be good.

“It is time, and the great change is about to take place. The winds are rising-up, and The Breath of The Holy Spirit is moving over the Earth delivering the announcement: ‘It is time!’ An end of one thing brings the beginning of something else; it is ‘creation,’ continuing.

“The ways of the world are proving to be less than productive, even to the most practiced in these ways. One catastrophe is spilling over into another. And control of this, or that, is getting more and more difficult to maintain. It seems everywhere you look around the world, something is amiss. And it is at this point, that heads begin to shake, because there does not seem to be a solution. But I tell you, there is a solution: it does not come in the ways of the world; and it does not come easy; for, to make the change, you must give-up the old, to accept the new! And many will find this impossible to do, because the old, no matter how much it is crumbling about you, is familiar, and even in its pain – it seems comfortable – while change, brings the unknown.

“What you must understand is this, ‘Whether you accept the change, or not, the change is upon you.’ It will happen. It is happening right now. How do you move into a time of change without suffering, without being afraid? You do so ‘in quiet.’ No matter what situation you are facing right now, it holds the opportunity of change. And, you can accomplish more, and move gracefully into this new time, if you are ‘in peace.’

“Right now, as you hear these words, or feel these words, or read these words, your spirit is settled, comfortable, quiet; and, it is in times like this: when the truth is revealed to you; when you ask, and it is given to you; when you seek the truth; when you knock on the door, and it is opened by the hand of God. This is such a time, and you are in such a place, right now, where the great change is to occur. The procession has begun!

“A new time, a new life, a new gift, a new door, opened by the Creator of all things, and it is yours to experience. But how you choose to experience it ... is up to you. Today, I give you a key, 'All the answers are yours. A golden opportunity is yours. The unlimited horizon is yours.'

“As you walk into this new week, hold these words close to you, and let them echo within your heart, and soul, and spirit, ‘Inner peace and stillness is a pool of new life, from which spring forth noble thoughts, words, and deeds, worthy of The Kingdom of God.’ ”

Jesus Teaches On:

I Give You My Power, Know What You Are Doing, And Do It For The Glory Of God

“I AM with you. The day begins, and I AM with you. I have something very important to say to you today. I wish to speak to you about: “knowing,” what you are doing, and doing it for the glory of God. Because, once you are able to do this: the way you do things will be altered; the way you say things will be changed; and your days upon the Earth will be peaceful, and good.

“Your thoughts, words, and deeds are: a reflection of what is on your heart; an outward sign, of that which you carry within, of that which you are creating in the workshop of your mind. And, in the workshop of your mind is where we begin.

“Most of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, have probably noticed, or observed, a public building being erected, or the construction of a private residence, at some time or another. You have either driven past the building sites, or walked by them, seeing the progress, until, at last, the work looked complete. And then, as everything seems set in place, you notice there is energy in the building, in the house. You see lights, or you hear the sounds of a heating or an air conditioning unit; but there is no mistaking it, there is a source of power in the building. Not too long after you notice this, you might attend, or read about, or be invited to, a dedication, for the public building, or a blessing, for the private home.

“Well, my brothers and sisters, think on this a while. And, it will not take too long for you to realize, that your mind is certainly as important as a public building, or a private dwelling. Your mind is where you live. Your mind is where you work. Your mind is where you produce. Your mind is where you create. And your mind is worthy of your attention. You have an ever present source of energy to fuel the work you will do within the workshop of your mind. It is the power of God. And once you choose to use this eternal energy, you will never lack the power to do what you are trying to do. If you will dedicate your mind, this special space, to the glory of God, asking for a blessing on you, and all you do, you will open the door to a new day!

“And once you have set this in place, you will discover that, knowing what you are doing, involves, every day maintenance, quality control, making sure that the tools and materials you are using to make the creations you are delivering to Earth, are: of the highest caliber and quality; stitched together with truth, and love, and light; and, are held firmly in place, with kindness, and forgiveness. All the noble traits – that you can think of – are ready to be used by you. And, if you take the responsibility to make these daily, quality control checks, you will make sure that you are not stitching anything with threads of anger, or hatred, or constructing a bookcase with nails of greed, or chaos, or confusion.

“Everything – you say, or do, – begins in your thoughts. Make sure your thoughts are powered by God, the eternal energy of The Kingdom of Heaven, and you will be happy! But it takes practice. It takes practice, and knowing where you live, and what you are creating. This week, I ask you, ‘ Please take some time, beginning today, to be still, go sit someplace by yourself, and begin to think about what you are creating, what you are producing, what you are delivering to the world, and ultimately, to eternity.'

“I speak to you today, so that you will be “knowing,” what you are doing, and doing it, for the glory of God. Because once you are able to do this: the way you do things will be altered, completely; the way you say things will be changed, completely; and your days upon the Earth will be peaceful, and good.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Place You Need To Be, Is In Stillness, Next To Me

“I AM with you. Feel My presence with you ... now. You do not have to wait to experience reunion with Me. We are in communion ... now.

“I AM speaking to you! I AM speaking to you, from the core of My being. And as you hear these words, or read these words, you recognize these words, from the core of your being; and, they are welcome within you, as is a gentle spring rain, upon the budding garden of Earth.

“The only place you need to be – is in stillness – sitting next to Me, for I will speak, and you will hear, tender wisdom. And within your ear, the sensations move, as hearing, you are blessed with truths, which were held locked, within you. Sitting next to Me, gives you the key to open the box, the door, the portal, to eternity, and all it holds. You can experience The Kingdom of God right now! It is not necessary to taste the sting of physical death, the dying, the decaying of the body, to return to The Kingdom of God. You can experience, and see, The Kingdom of God, without tasting the sting of death; all you have to do, is to be still, and breathe, and say, ‘I am.’ Once you have done this, the echo will come back to you, and you will hear the voice, welling-up from within you, reverberating throughout your body, soul, and spirit ... ‘I AM.’

“In quiet, you will come to know your destiny, better. For in reality, your destiny is written, within you. There is no need to search the libraries, and opinions of the world, to find what it is you are to do. You know it! Perhaps it has not been fully revealed; but there is an inkling, of what it might be; you have a feeling. Do not be disturbed, or distressed, if there is only ‘the feeling,’ or vague idea. It is there. It is there, within you, just as it is in a great painter, who looks upon an empty canvas, feeling (s)he knows where the painting is going, imagining what it might look like, once all the pieces are put together. But, as every artist will tell you, once they begin, the painting begins to paint itself. And this, my precious one, my beloved, is what I want you to recognize today. You do not have to know the entire plan. You only have to be willing to say, ‘I commit. It is strongly within me. I place my foot upon the path, and I am ready to go. Move me, God, and I will go, walking to the rhythm of your breath.’ Once you make the commitment, the signs will come, and the doors will open for you, just as when the artist puts the first stroke of paint on the canvas, it begins.

“It is the same with the musician, feeling notes, beginning to take shape within their thoughts, a note here ... a note there. But once the musician commits, saying, ‘I am going to write this song,’ the symphony is born, one note at a time. In reality, it is inspiration, which brings these notes into creation. But first, there must be the commitment, the will. And in the commitment, there is the important step of surrender, setting your personality, your ego, aside, so that you might move, at the time, and the pace, and under the power, of the will of God; for, it is then that you become the vessel of God. And the vessel of God will not be stopped, because there is a divine destiny, waiting to be complete.

“It is your destiny. You are the vessel. It is all there. But it is not to be done in haste, or at the bidding of others. It is to be done at the pace, of the divine plan, held in the hand of God. You see, as I walked the Earth, I moved when I was guided to move; said what I was guided to say; did what I was guided to do. I was not motionless in between these activities. I carried on a daily life, doing what I needed to do to sustain Myself. I ate at the proper times, and slept at the proper times. But, I was not moved by the opinions of those around Me. I was moved by the will of God ... within Me. My destiny, as it was written by the hand of God, was not the destiny which those who loved Me would script for Me. They wanted Me to go on and do great things, as they thought great things would be. As it turned out, I completed My destiny, as written only for Me. And, it was good.

“My brothers and sisters, I give you these words, so you will be at peace, so you will find peace, next to Me, as you walk with Me, now, into eternity. Let us walk, together, today.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Ask, In Quiet; Seek, In Peace; Knock, In Confidence; And It Shall Be Given Unto You

“I AM with you. And as you open to My presence, you feel Me, as we draw nearer, as old friends, sitting together: to talk; to touch; to share.

“Today, I speak specifically to those of you who are: in despair; in frustration; in disappointment; in sorrow. I speak to you, to show you The Way. Therefore, hear the words I say.

“No matter where you find yourself, God is with you. If you are sitting in a prison, with cold, stone walls, God is with you. If you are lost, alone in a city of thousands of people, God is with you. If you are trapped somewhere, perhaps a victim of: a fallen building; an overturned vehicle; or, a slip of the foot; God is there with you. Know this, for it is true!

“As I walked the Earth some two thousand years ago, I set myself aside often, reconnecting with God, asking for guidance, direction. And it came...in quiet...the answers came, from within Me, and I knew The Way.

“I want you to try this, this week. But, to get good results, it is important to take yourself to a quiet place, to be still. Turn-off the noise; shut down the chaos; for, you will not hear, or see, or know, if you are running here and there, and there is noise, everywhere you go.

“I give you this one example. If you are ill, of body, you seek a physician. You make an appointment, go in, sit with the doctor and you say, ‘This is how I am feeling, these are the signs, this is the ailment.’ Then, you sit, and wait, for the diagnosis, hoping there is a cure, a remedy, something to make you feel better. But, when you have this important appointment with a physician, it is done in a place...of quiet. You set yourself aside. You take time to sit down, say what is wrong, and then listen to what the physician is telling you.

“I ask you to do the same with God, Who can heal all illness, Who holds the cure for every malady and disease. The only thing missing is you will not: make the appointment, and be still, and sit and listen. This week, as you go about your routine, take some time to sit in consultation with – The Divine Physician – God. And when you go to this meeting, present your petition, and be still, so you might: hear the answer; receive the diagnosis; and, embrace the cure.

“These things I tell you will not be as productive, if you will not take the time to be still and quiet, and go about it in a thoughtful, contemplative way. For I tell you this, as it is written, it is true. All you have to do is ask. Just remember the word, as you spell it: A S K. A: Ask, and it will be given unto you. But, you must be still, so you can see it, or know it, or hear it. S: Seek, and you will find that which you seek. What are you seeking? Follow the signs. They are at your service, and ever present, for those who are still, and watchful. K: Knock. Knock upon the door, and it shall be opened for you, showing you the path; and the light will illuminate The Way.

“What I AM saying to you, is to use these tools, in such a way that will enhance your reception of the guidance, the direction. Do not take chaos and noise into your meeting with God. Be still, and in the quiet you will know. This I promise you.

“This week, ask in quiet, seek in peace, knock in confidence, and you shall receive that which you need. Be at peace. Be quiet. Be still, and know I AM.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Disease Of Anger, Will Be Eradicated By The Antidote Of Love

“I AM with you. I AM present. And in My presence, we are united, in communion, as one. In oneness we are whole, and holy, while we are wholly doing the work of God. And I say unto you, there is much work to be done.

“There is a plague, upon the Earth. Its name is anger. But today, I bring you good news. I bring you the antidote. It is the love of God. It is the only remedy, for this disease, which covers the Earth, reaching into: cities; rural country sides; and, isolated villages, from the oceans to the mountaintops. Sometimes anger it is apparent. Sometimes it is silent. But it is present, upon the Earth.

“The signs are often evident, and easy to spot. Those caught in the grip of this disease are sick of body, soul, and spirit, in some way or another. There is no joy, no peace, no serenity.

“The words one says, while held in the grip of anger, are coarse. They are not the words one says, when they are held in the hands of God. It is obvious. It is clear.

“It is time to eradicate anger. And with the doing of this, the greatest healing upon Earth will begin to take place, one person at a time. It will grow to miraculous proportions. And those who are healed will know the love of God.

“Today, I call upon those who hold the power of God, who are strong of body and spirit, to rise-up. Know this day is upon you. Know it is your destiny. You can eradicate this disease. Rise-up, and first, wash yourself in the river of God's love, casting from you every particle of anger left within your body. Free your soul, and liberate your spirit, by standing in the light of God's love.

“Any who will rise-up, and step forward, will be greatly blessed, and you will be given all you need; for, you are being asked to go, and give the antidote of love, freely, with no charge. It is time for this disease to be brought to an end, for there is no healing, within the power and the energy of anger. No good will come from anger.

“Therefore, today, I bring you this opportunity. When you see anger, open to the love of God, and let the power pour through you. And then, let it flow toward the one, or the many, carrying this disease. For I tell you, the love of God is a powerful force, which will cure all carrying the disease; and, they will be healed.

“Recovery is sure. And it is possible, now. Anger can be eradicated. It will be no more...ended. And Earth, will be forever, a peaceful place. But, to do this, there must be a few, who are willing to set their will aside, and do the will of God. It will not be popular. It will not be easy. But it will be filled with honor and respect.

“Hear Me, those of you who hold the gift of the power of God within, and are willing to rise-up in this mighty effort. Hear Me, I call you today. I ask you to come. And, as you heed the call, you feel the stirring within. It is a sign. It is your time. Rise-up, and let us begin...now. For healing cannot take place in the atmosphere and environment of anger. So, let us go forth, and prepare a place.

“This I promise you today, wherever the eradication of the plague of anger is accomplished, these places will be sites of miraculous healing. It will be a sign. And people will come, and circle around. Communities will be established in these places of peace and healing, and they will be encampments, of enlightenment, upon the Earth.

“Begin today! It always begins with one, willing to walk The Way. See, I send an angel ahead of you. Follow.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Kindness Gives Birth To The Miracle Of Love

“I AM with you.. If you will be still, right now, you will feel My presence with you. Your head will be light, as it is filled, with the love of God. Let the grace flow through you, and you will be at peace ... in peace ... you will be ... peace.

“The joy of living in peace will be the source of miracles; for, when you are in peace, kindness, mercy, understanding, and forgiveness flow from you, freely.

“Kindness gives birth to the miracle of love. And, in the state of love, much is accomplished for the glory of God. Seek first, to live in The Kingdom of God, now. You will find it, when you create, and nurture, kindness ... within ... you.

“What you feel right now, as you hear My words, or read My words, is the energy of peace, and it is rich, and full. It carries with it kindness. It sings a song, and the song is a song of mercy, of understanding, of forgiveness. I say these things, and repeat these words, so they will settle within you, falling into a fertile place, a garden, your heart. Take these seeds I give you, and walk with them this week, and they will grow, and flourish, and you will bless the Earth.

“If you take care of these, what might be considered smaller things, greatness will follow. If you shower your brothers and sisters with kindness, the garden that is within them will be brought to life. As a gentle rain coaxes life, from a withered garden, so your words of kindness, mercy, understanding, and forgiveness will be the shower, onto the heart that is dried-up, withered, and cold. And this gentle rain of kindness will accomplish far more than thunder and lightning.

“And from: doing these small deeds; a smiling face; a gentle word, a garden will be coaxed back to life. And the mountains will see, and jump with joy. And the trees will know, and raise their arms in glory. And the rushing rivers, and gentle streams, will sing the song.

“This is how miracles begin, setting the stage; and, it comes from within, you, the desire to be the rain, of kindness, mercy, understanding, and forgiveness. Bring forth the gardens of Earth, in this simple way, and the mountains will walk, and celebrate the day.

“My brothers and sisters, this week, when you are tempted to speak harshly, be still, until your tongue, is filled with the wisdom of God, and then lose it, so that the gentle rains will fall, upon the withered gardens, of Earth.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Live In Love, And You Will Know Me. When I Come, Will You Know Me?

“This day, I AM with you. This day, stop, be still. If you are hearing these words, or reading these words, stop, and be still. Since it is your intention to commune with me, feel the air about you, change, altering in My presence. Our union is alive, it has life, because you will hear Me, and you will speak to Me. We are committed: in our communication; in our communion; in our union.

“I AM with you, and you see Me. Do not be surprised when I say to you, that you see Me. For verily, I say unto you: you see Me; and you see God, Our Father; and you see The Holy Spirit, all around you. Be vigilant, and watchful.

“You see, I will not appear to you as you expect. Just as I was missed, some two thousand years ago, by most, I AM in the mist, and in the clouds, and in the faces, of all who are in need. I AM in the trees. I AM the wind. I AM the flowers. I AM the soil beneath your feet. Breathe in deeply, and you are filled with life. Breathe in deeper, I fill you with life.

“There is something important for you to understand, when I walked the Earth in physical form, I could do what God would do; but I could not do, what God would not do. You are not limited by what you can do. You can do what God will do. And in this way, others will know God, through you. God is open, willing to give you all that is. Be like God. Be as God. Be ye perfect, as God is perfect, and God will be living upon the Earth, through you.

“This week: ‘opportunity,’ will come to you: be loving, and watchful; for, if you will not go out of your way to help a stranger in need, you will not go out of your way to help Me. If you will not willingly, and repeatedly, forgive family members, any transgression, you will not forgive Me. If you will not give, all that you have to give, when one reaches-out asking for help, you will not give what you have to Me. You see, I will not come to you, as you expect Me to come to you. I will come to you, most often, in the faces, and in the form, of need, whether the need is: mercy; peace; forgiveness; food; clothing; money; love. Whatever the need, see Me there. For I say to you, if you know it is Me, and give unto Me, that is good; but when you see Me ... in the need of your brothers and sisters ... that is holy.

“This week, each one of you will have the opportunity. I will knock on the door, and I will be ‘in need.’ Be vigilant. Will you know Me, when I come? Remember, I will be within the faces, of the daughters, and the sons, who are living upon the Earth. When I come to you, will you know Me?”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Pathway To Wisdom Begins When You Decide: To Be Still, Go Within, And Be Taught By God

“I AM with you. In truth, I AM always with you; but when you acknowledge My presence, I speak to you, and you know Me.

“Today My brothers and sisters, I deliver words which will guide you through the week to come. The words are simple, yet the message, and the lesson to come, will profoundly change your life, as you know it today.

“At the core of your being is a seed, sown by the hand of God. And when you acknowledge the presence, of the seed of God, within you, the spiritual soil, holding the seed, is stirred with your desire, and the seed brings forth life. The embers ignite. And when the breath of The Holy Spirit moves, the spark becomes a flame; from embers burst forth life.

“All you will ever need, every direction, every instruction, on how to proceed, and accomplish your mission upon the Earth, is carried within you. You will face many times, where it will be necessary for you to make a decision, for you to choose. There is no need to wander around in chaos and confusion. There is no need to wonder, ‘Should I go here, or there?’ My brothers and sisters, the only thing you need to do, when you have a question, face a challenge, or obstacle, is to be still, and go within, sit with God, and be taught. And every time you stop and go within to find answers, the flame within you, grows; and it becomes a source of confidence. You will not be led astray by the wisdom of God. Once you begin to practice living this way, your life upon the Earth will be glorious, and filled with wonder.

“The path to wisdom begins, when you decide to be still, and go within. For, it is within, that you will be free to hear, and know, and see, all that God wants you to see, and know, and be; for, in quiet, you will hear, the still small voice, of God, within.

“This week, many opportunities, many challenges, many obstacles, will be placed before you. Do not join in chaos or confusion. Recognize the challenge, then be still, and ask for guidance. You will marvel at the answers, as they flow to you, leading you here and there, as you make your way around, or over, or through, the challenge placed in front of you.

“This is wisdom, I AM speaking to you. And this is the way wisdom will be growing within you, every minute, every hour, every day. All you have to do is to be still, and say, ‘God, I am here. Please show me The Way.’ And, angels will guide you.

“Be still, and go within. The answers are there. It is the way to begin. The pathway to wisdom is open to you, and to all who choose to journey, within.”

Jesus Teaches On:

See The Glory In Your Spiritual Gifts, And Use Them, For The Glory Of God

“I AM with you on this day. And on this day, I ask you to see the glory in the gifts you have been given, the multitude of gifts, which have been bestowed upon you, by God, Our Father. They are many: and they will serve you well, during your journey; they will assist you in accomplishing your mission; and they will bring you much joy, as you walk upon the Earth. Do not overlook your gifts. Do not hesitate to open your gifts. Embrace each gift that comes to you, and use it well.

“Today, I would like to ask you to be still, and envision, the examples I set before you...

“First, see a child, a little girl, in the midst of a birthday party. A big box is placed in the middle of a table. And, when it is time, the child approaches, unties the ribbon, takes off the lid, and sets it aside. Then, after looking around at those gathered, she reaches in, and takes out the gift.

“The gift has been asked for, and prayed for, for more than a year. It has arrived, inside of a big box, tied with beautiful ribbon. The child embraces the treasure, and then quietly takes it away, to set it on a shelf, in a room that is now perfect, that is now complete, with this most wanted gift.

“There are times, when you receive a gift, one that you have wanted for a long time, and you want to cherish the moment of its arrival, just as the child, embracing it, holding it close, and then setting it in a place, which has been reserved for it, for a long time. The gift will serve you well, just as it completes the room for the child.

“Now I ask you to move ahead to another scene. This time it is Christmas morning, and a boy, about eight years old, comes running down the steps, and stops...still...mouth open, eyes wide. The joy that the child is feeling virtually lifts him off the ground, as he moves toward the bicycle, parked directly at the front of the Christmas tree.

“There is not time to change clothes, the coat, the hat, the gloves, and the shoes are put on directly over the pajamas. And the boy wheels the bicycle out the front door, down the sidewalk, jumps on, and experiences freedom, and new adventure. It is a gift that will bring much joy, and teach responsibility.

“And now, see this vision...a vehicle, a car, a new car...there it sits in the showroom, a couple are looking at it through the window, deciding if it is time. Should they do it? Can they do it? A myriad of questions are floating in and out of their thoughts. Still, they consider it a gift to each other, from them, something they have wanted, for a long time. And they think, today is the day, for the gift. So, they go in, buy the car, and drive it home...a gift, from each of them...to the other. It is a day of great joy!

“And as the months and years go by, the car...is still a treasure. They take it in, and have maintenance done, and purchase new tires, they wash it, clean it, and keep it in good running order, so it can serve them well. And, if you flash back to the boy with the bicycle, he too parks his treasure in a safe place, maintains proper air pressure in the tires, and keeps the chain oiled, and the bicycle clean, taking care of the gift given, so he can ride another day. And the little girl, with the cherished gift, placed upon the shelf, takes it down, and it brings her joy, to share the gift with those who come to play with her, or talk to her, or see her. Then, it is placed back on the shelf, for safe keeping.

“I show you these examples, and probably, some of you hearing these words, or reading these words, have already inserted something different. Maybe it was not a bicycle. Maybe it was not a car, or a vehicle. You personalized the example, inserting something which brought you pleasure, joy, or taught you responsibility.

“Well, My brothers and sisters, God has given you many gifts. And they are to be used, and taken care of. They are to be lifted out of the boxes, and embraced, and then put in a place of honor, for you to use and share with those who would appreciate the beauty of the gift given.

“And when you accept the gifts, and embrace the gifts, there comes a responsibility to learn how to use them, and then to use them in such a way that the glory of God flows upon the Earth each day. There is also a responsibility to take care of the gifts, to maintain them, just as you would a new car, or a bicycle, or any other gift that you might receive, that you cherish.

“Some of you are opening your gifts, embracing your gifts, using your gifts, and maintaining your gifts. More of you are ignoring your gifts. And there are others, who are abusing their gifts. I ask you today to sit and be still, and think of all of the gifts you have been given. And then, decide that you are going to use them, and when you use them, it will be for the glory of God. If you do this, it will change Earth. Even if only one of you does this, it will change the energy upon the Earth. And, you will alter eternity, by using the gift.

“Today, think about the gifts. And, as you open each one that God has given to you, know that another gift is always waiting to be opened. For, the more you open, the more gifts are given. It is not quite the same, as the birthday party, or Christmas Day, or anything else. Upon the Earth interpersonal gifts stop at a certain time: the party is over; the day of celebration is done; the gifting is complete. But you see, the gifting from your eternal Creator, your everlasting Parent, does not end. The more spiritual gifts you open, the more spiritual gifts there are to open.

“I ask you, today, to embrace the gifts bestowed upon you, by the Creator, for they truly will assist you on your mission, and bring you great joy, as you walk upon the Earth.

“Let the never-ending party, begin, today! Untie the ribbons! Lift the lid! Embrace the gifts...as given!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Christ, Consciousness Lives, When You Hear The Message, Accept The Gift, And The Miracle Is Born, Of You

“I AM with you! I AM with you, to celebrate the first Sunday, of the year designated by those of Earth, as two thousand ten (2010).

“You have just completed many days of celebration. And prior to the celebration, some of you observed the period of Advent, going back into the Old Testament, for a while, to see, and hear, and know, so that you might better appreciate, the gift born, unto you. And, as the New Testament opens, there are several accounts of My birth, upon the Earth.

“A good many of you celebrated My birth, reviewing and talking about the stories and the events, leading-up to the birth, the nativity, and following through with the stories of the journey away from Bethlehem, into Egypt.

“You read, or heard, stories about wise men and shepherds, about the manifestations of angels in dreams, and in visions, and apparitions. You heard stories about Joseph and Mary, and the noble things that they did, in order to carry out the will of God, upon the Earth. It filled your heart with joy. And, as you were moved, you felt a tear fall from your eye, and roll down your cheek. You were touched, in many ways. And now the days... are moving... into... the new year. And pretty soon, the stories, and the thoughts, and the pleasure, of the celebration of My birth, and the noble deeds, which surrounded it, will be set aside, as you move into the world of every-day-matters.

“But, there is a way to keep the spark glowing! There is a way to live, the season of Christmas, every day of the year. And it would be a wonderful goal, for each of you, beginning with this first Sunday, to live the season of Christmas every day, carrying it through, until you meet another Christmas time, at the end of the year.

“So I say to each of you today, you have the opportunity to play all of the roles I just mentioned: from Mary to Joseph; from the shepherds to the wise men. Because you carry the seed of Christ Consciousness within you, there can be millions of births upon the Earth, that will bring forth the life that will show The Way. And so, I tell you how to do this, today.

“For many of you, because of the time and the age in which you live, this is a period of great awakening. And, as you feel the stirring within you, you know; there is no denying it; you feel it! And, as you awaken, an angel of the Lord delivers this message to you... ‘Behold, I bring you great tidings; for you carry, within you, a piece of God, that is ready to be born, to be brought forth, upon the Earth! It is your time!’ ...And, as you let this message slip into you, many of you will find, that you have the faith, and the courage, to say, ‘I accept! I will nurture this seed, within me. And I will give birth, to the living word of God, by all that I say, by all that I do, by guarding my thoughts; yes, even my thoughts...too. Let it be done, unto me!’

“And if you find, My brothers and sisters, that you can take this step, and accept the seed, that is within you, then you will be, as my earthly mother, Mary, willing to carry the seed, of the living word of God; for, Christ Consciousness is within you. It is now time for you to hold it, for you to give birth, and bring it forth, upon the Earth.

“Joseph cast from him all doubt, worry, and concern, about ‘what the world would think,’ and responded to the direction of the angel in his dreams...to accept Mary, and the Child, and go forth. Well, My brothers and sisters, once you make the decision, to carry the living word, and to give it birth upon the Earth, there will be many who try to dissuade you, but an angel of the Lord will give you strength, to accept the responsibility, to be the husband, and care for the child, the living word, the energy of Christ Consciousness, that is growing, within you. Once it is accomplished, once you say, ‘I do,’ it begins to grow, within you. And, when it is time, it comes forth, from you, no longer concealed within you, but evident, in all you do.

“It is up to you to protect, and guard, this treasure. You will see signs, and hear messages, and be guided, by the angels of the Lord. And when you are headed in the wrong direction, you will receive a message, saying, ‘turn back,’ or, ‘go this way,’ or, ‘go that way,’ or, ‘the path is over here, come, walk in it.’ For, as surely as Mary and Joseph protected Me, you are to protect the Christ Consciousness that is born of you. And, as it grows, and becomes more evident, day by day, in what you think, and do, and say, Its presence will mature, because you gave it life. And the mission will be accomplished, through you, and your willingness to say, ‘I will do the will of God. Above all other things, I will do the will of God.’ And this presence will walk with you, and you will bless the Earth, in every way.

“You see, as much as you enjoy telling the stories of My birth, and all the things that led-up to it, and followed it, you have the opportunity to do the same! And what a grand year this will be, to give birth...yourself. It requires that you open. It requires that you be still, so that you might hear the message, or see the message, or feel the message, or know it. And once you accept the message, that Christ Consciousness is within you, and make your intention known to give birth to this consciousness, then miracles will occur, all around you.

“This is the year. Many of you are awakening. You feel the stirring within you. It is time. It is time for you, to: give birth; bring the living word of God, onto the Earth; and, be at peace.”
