

THE QUIET PLACE

Jesus' Sunday Sermons 2011

The Command

*"This is my command: Love
each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17*

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

Jesus Teaches On:

You Have Been Given, The Gift, Of Life, And It Is Eternal Life

“I AM with you. The beautiful and amazing truth... is that... I AM with you forever. If you will begin to embrace this truth, you will be led... into understanding... and comprehending eternal life. And to help you achieve this wisdom, I would like you, each one of you, each one of you either hearing these words, or hearing these words, to sit down, and be still; for I have brought three gifts to give you today... a Christmas celebration! And these gifts will help you, on your journey to understanding eternal life, so that you might celebrate every day.

“I give you the first gift, and I ask you, to open the gift slowly, pulling the end of the ribbon, with a precious intention, of ‘embracing that gift which is inside.’ It is the gift of ‘Peace.’ And if you will take one deep breath, and receive the gift I give you, you will feel peace, move into you, moving all through you, finding a home, at the core of your heart. For I tell you, the day I was born in flesh, made My entrance upon the Earth, it was in a place of peace. You must be at peace... to comprehend and understand... the beautiful miracles, all around you.

“Quiet, tranquil, presence of peace; this is how I came into the world, in a peaceful place, on a silent night, with animals all around, and the sounds of the countryside, for a lullaby. Peace! It is one of the gifts I give you this day. Cherish it, in every way.

“Oh, here is the second gift I bring, a gift suited for a king... or a pauper... or a businessman... or a carpenter... ‘Love.’ Love abides in a peaceful heart. Love grows, when there is peace, and serenity. It does not take much for you to imagine the place of My birth, coming to feel the peace that was there, knowing that there was great love in the air; love passing from mother to child, to a man who would be My earthly father in every way, caring for Me every day, building a home, in our hearts, as well as a dwelling, upon the Earth. In that place of peace there was great love. It’s the type of love that you will find, once you have opened your heart, to peace.

“The third gift cannot be held within a box, or tied-up with a ribbon or string. It seems to have no beginning and no end. It is the gift of ‘Light.’ For once you are peace, and once you are love, you are light! The place of My birth had no electricity, it had no lanterns, with wicks; but there was light, from the heavens, and from within each of us. The presence of peace and love, brought forth, the light of God!

“I bring to each of you these three gifts today: Peace, and Love, and Light. These gifts will bring you... ‘Joy!’ And I AM not speaking of the loud, party-making kind of joy. I AM speaking of that tranquil, serene, peaceful, joy that is known only by a heart, filled with contentment. I have given you My gifts. (And I ask you now,) as you hold them, as they are before you, I hope you will open each one, and take them into you; let them settle there! This morning, if you will breathe deeply, right now, you will come to realize, that: you are at peace; you feel, the love; and you are filled, with light. Go forth this day in celebration. You have been given the gift of life, from God Our Father. You hold peace, and love, and light within you. And The Holy Spirit will deliver unto you, all wisdom, if you will open, and receive it. You have all you need. Now, go out, and enjoy... Earth... as it was meant to be. And be at peace!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Let It Be Done, Unto Me, According To Thy Will, And I Will Be Born, Within You

“I AM with you. As surely, as the sound of footsteps, announce the approach of another, you feel My presence, drawing near you. I AM ever near you; but on the day of waking, when you begin to understand how Heaven works with Earth, you begin to feel Me with you.

“It was not My intention to mislead any of you when I walked upon the Earth, yet there were things that I said, that were not comprehended, and still, are found puzzling, by those who read The Words. But I say to you, that I AM with you. Feel My presence with you now, for once it is accomplished, your life will be changed, forever.

“Thousands of years ago, an aging man, entered a temple, a place which he had entered many times in his lifetime, and this time he expected to be the same as all others. But this time, the angel came, and announced to him that his wife would have a child. At first, he could not accept that which the angel delivered unto him. Still, it was done, according to the will of God. He saw the vision, he heard the words, and he was amazed!

“There was a very young woman, beautiful, beginning her life, ready for the step of marriage, and all the things that she would enjoy and experience in her lifetime, seemed set before her, as she imagined they would be. And when she was least expecting, there came unto her the vision of great light, and from within the light, there appeared an angelic being, and the being said to her, “... you shall be with child.” And she did not protest. She accepted the message. She saw the vision and heard the words, and said, “Yes!”

“There was a man, in good standing in the community, who felt ‘he had been betrayed.’ And in this state of confusion and betrayal, he had a dream... and within the dream... the angel came... and delivered a message. And when he rose-up from sleep, he did what most in the world would not do. He accepted that which seemed impossible... because of: what he dreamed... the message... the angel.

“Very wise men, those who ‘knew,’ those who: studied the knowledge of the stars; could map the planets; and could say when to sow, when to do this, and when to do that, according to the signs in the sky; they had the gift... of ‘Knowing,’ they knew... there would be a sign... to mark a most significant occurrence upon the Earth. And when the sign came in the heavens... they acted upon it: and made a journey, a very long journey, delivering gifts, acknowledging The Birth.

“A group of men, in the hillsides of Bethlehem, shared an experience of wonder, as lights descended, all around them, like a cascading, glowing river, swaying and changing, and finally, showing themselves as angelic beings, heralding the new time, the new day, the new birth, the delivery... of The New Covenant of Love.

“This is not the beginning: of dreams, of visions, of those knowing. It does not even include all who knew, and saw, and heard. But these are all examples, of what it took, and the strength and belief of many, to accomplish my birth upon the Earth. For, Zachariah, in the temple, ‘knew,’ because he accepted God’s message from an angel; and his wife gave birth to the herald, the one who would announce My coming. Mary believed, and saw, and accepted the sign; and there was the conception, within the belief, within the acceptance. Joseph was guided to go against the ways of the world, into the ways of Heaven, and he did so. Elizabeth knew, before the announcement, that Mary carried a child within her. The wise men had studied for a long time, the Magi, and they came too, to see this Child, who would be The Living Word of God upon Earth. The shepherds were summoned. The courts were established. They would come from all different places. They would be drawn, by slightly different beliefs, still at the core, of this great time, was The Child, the utterance of God upon Earth. There were animals and people, some in grand places, and some in what were considered rather lowly stations. And there were whispers from the angels, which kept My family in a place, where they could continue living. The angels guided The Wise Men back home, without speaking to Herod. My life was spared, because My father listened to the angel, and took us into Egypt. The means to do this, having the gold, having what it took to depart, and live for a period of time, was the gift of the Magi. It was all taken care of, the plan unfolded, but it took people in place to believe ‘in dreams,’ to accept what they heard in ‘the whispers of eternity,’ to ‘embrace angelic beings,’ and to ‘honor, the gift of knowing,’ as it is truly being taught by God.

“And because these people set aside ‘the ways of the world,’ recognized the signs from the Heavenly Kingdom and looked into the eternal present, of God, I was born, and lived, to complete My mission. And My message, to you today, whether you are hearing these words, or reading these words, is... ‘You can do the same!’

“You can be the aging man in the temple! You can be the young woman saying, “Yes!” You can be, the man, well thought of by the community, being guided to do what is right, and good, in the sight of God, without concern! You can be one filled with knowledge, yet open to the wisdom of God, finding great events, in what you know! You can stand with the shepherds, with the trees on the grasses, and be amazed at the wonders you will see!

“You can receive your direction every day, if you are willing. And in this way, I will be born within you, every day! And with vigilance, you will be guided, and I will continue to live with you! You see, the beautiful miracle of My birth, continues, within you! I can be born, in you, and live in you! Read the signs, accept the signs, do not run from them!

“This is what I wish to say to you today, as you search The Book, The Bible, as you look and see, you will look and see, in a new way. And then understand, the time of miracles is not over, the time of miracles is at hand! Be watchful and vigilant. Pay attention, and you will know. The signs will come to you, and the more they come, the more opportunities you have to know, and read the signs.

“All that is required, the first step, is to sit quietly, and say, “God, I am here upon the Earth, and I am ready. Teach me. Show me The Way!” And then, do not be surprised by what is delivered unto you. It might not be ‘the way, of the world;’ but it will be ‘The Way, of God!’

“The messages will come. The visions will come. The dreams will come. And the gift of knowing, will settle more profoundly, within you... .

“All you have to do is say... ‘Yes! Let it be done unto me, according to Thy will, God, and I will be born, within you!’”

Jesus Teaches On:

Follow The Way Into The Age Of The Holy Spirit Of God

“I AM with you. I come to you in a special way, as you prepare for a day to celebrate My birth, upon the Earth. As you walk through this time, referred to as ‘Advent,’ I have been speaking to you about: ‘visions;’ ‘the gift, of knowing;’ ‘paying attention to dreams;’ and, ‘embracing the words, you receive from God, and the angels all around you;’ for, these things, made The Way clear, for My birth, and life, upon Earth.

“Being open: to visions, to the gift of knowing, to dreams, to words of guidance and prophecy, creates... the atmosphere... wherein miracles abound, thrive, producing wonders and amazement, far beyond that which human beings are capable of doing on their own. I say this to you today, because My birth upon the Earth would have been impossible without those who are willing to be led by the signs. They followed. They were led. And I was born, and lived, so that I could complete My mission upon Earth.

“Understand today, as important as those who were involved in My arrival upon the Earth are to the total picture and the story of the Nativity and Christmas, so are you... to the continuation of creation... and the miracles which will abound around you, if you ‘open to,’ that which is available to you!

“My mother saw the vision, and heard the words, and embraced them, and followed. My father was open to that which came to him in dreams, and heard the message, and followed. Elizabeth was open to the gift of knowing, and her husband too... accepted the vision of the angel, and in this way, he knew, his wife would give birth. All these things are of great importance, but so are the gifts, given, unto you! Use your gifts, and you will be led to see the visions, hear the words, understand the dreams, and accept the messages which come to you. In quiet, when you are still, you will awaken and come to know. In quiet... you will rise-up... and follow.

“After My birth, there were three wise men, they came from the East, and they were intelligent. They held vast knowledge, of the world. They studied the stars. It was a very important science in those days, astronomy, knowing the patterns of the stars and where everything was going, they could read the sky, and know, what tomorrow would bring; but these men did not limit their knowledge to that which was just around them, they opened their minds, so that they might be filled with the knowledge of different civilizations and cultures. They also knew, that the changing of the age, would be marked, by a sign. And they knew, by the gift of knowing, that the sign would come in the heavens, in the skies about them, when the planets were aligned in such a way, that a light would be created, because of this alignment. And they knew they would follow this light. The light seemed as a star; but it did not act as a star; still, they followed.

“There was much preparation for the trip. They talked about it. ‘Should we go? Is this it? Is this the sign? Will this light, will this star, lead us, to The One who is talked about in the prophecy? Will we be led to see... The One, The Deliver, The Ruler... of Israel?’ They asked these questions amongst themselves, and decided... that they would not ‘know these things’... if it were not for them to do. So they set aside their doubts, and they prepared for the journey. They gathered gifts, because they knew it would be appropriate, something within them was saying, ‘These gifts are significant, they are signs. Gather with you, and take them, each one, selecting which will be your gift. The gifts are to be gold... and frankincense... and myrrh....’ These things they ‘knew!’

“‘The gift of knowing,’ was within each of them; but they were also open to dreams, and that which they knew and read in the dreams. The dreams were clear signs to them, just as the stars and the moon and the sun in the sky; for, the dreams were the heavens, within them, giving sure path information, just as the stars and the sun and the moon marked the changing of the days, and the months, and the year, they knew, and they watched, and they were vigilant, and they were open, and the sign came, and they all knew it! As the planets aligned, there was a light created in the heavens, that could not be denied, and it began to move, and they said, ‘Come. Let us follow, this star!’

“The journey was not easy, but still they came. They made it all the way to Bethlehem. But first, they stopped in Jerusalem, asking questions, and directions, and then, when word reached Herod that they had come into the city of Jerusalem, seeking The Child who was to be The Ruler of Israel, he called them. He summoned the wise men, the Magi, and he said to them, ‘When you find this child, return and tell me, where I too can find Him, for this is the fulfillment of the prophecy, and I wish to go pay Him homage as well.’ And the three men left.

And shortly thereafter, they arrived at Bethlehem, and were welcomed by My mother, and My earthly father. And they set before them, three gifts: gold... frankincense... and myrrh!

But before they could depart, they had a dream! And within the dream... came the message, strong and true... ‘Do not return to Herod! Return home a different way!’

“They actually stayed for a number of days, speaking to Joseph, talking to Me, although they did not think I could understand them, singing songs, and being filled with the heavenly power, of the light of God, flowing through Me, and My earthly mother, and Joseph.

“They were filled, with the light of God. Their quest was fulfilled. They were complete. They were happy. And, they were filled with wisdom. They returned home, completely changed, still very wise men, but now filled, with The Spirit of God!

“It was not too long after that, that My father was told in a dream, ‘Joseph, wake-up quickly, and take the child and Mary, and go into Egypt.’ He did not question. But because of the visit, of the wise men, from the East, he had the gold, he had the frankincense, and he had the myrrh. The gold would provide that which we needed as a family to make our way into Egypt, until the time was right, and he was told again, to return.

“This is how important, listening... to your dreams... is! I say, ‘is,’ because... as it was important then, to My continuation upon the Earth, it is important now... today, to the fulfillment of your mission as well! For, as I was led, by My Father’s hand, and My earthly father’s willingness to go, and follow, you too will be led, if you open to the signs!

“The wise men watched, and saw the new time was beginning, and came to see Who would mark, and herald, the beginning of this new age. And their lives were better for it. And because they followed, My earthly life, along with that of My mother and My father, our lives were better for it, too!

“I tell you this, because it is no different with you. Be open to that which comes to you, and do not set it aside: as coincidence, or something funny, or something strange, or weird, or something that the world, would not tell you to do.

“If you are fortunate enough to hold The Gift of Knowing, in such a strong and sure way, that you recognize it, use it!

“If you have visions, or hear the words, or see the signs in your dreams, do not avoid these things, these words that come to you, will lead you, where you are to do. Use the gifts! As My life was made better, by the signs from the heavenly kingdom, your life, too, will be better. You will be reborn every day, following these signs. If you have a dream, that shows you going somewhere, you know you are ready to go! If an angel comes to you, in a vision, and says, ‘Be not afraid. This is the time for you to do this, or that.’ hold that, as a promise, filled with confidence, that it is yours to do.

“This I tell you, so your life will be more rewarding upon the Earth. See, and begin to understand, and read, every chance you get, those portions of the book known as the Bible, and you will see... the circumstances... and all the people... who followed: visions, and dreams, and knowing, and prophetic words, of angelic beings. This is important, and it is just as important today, as it was at the time of My birth!

“I say unto you, the wings of The Holy Spirit of God are spread-out, over all of the inhabitants upon Earth, willing to take you, into a new time, into a new place!

“The birth of The Age Of The Holy Spirit is within each of you, and a great celebration is about to take place! Pay attention! Watch for the signs! Be vigilant, and walk into the new day, with confidence, for you are born, upon the Earth; yet, you too... are a child... of God!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Opportunities, To Be The Light Of God, And Joseph, An Example Of How To Walk 'The Way'

“I AM with you. I bring you... peace... which settles over every soul and spirit and heart, when you are confident, and have faith, that you will be led, by the hand of God. This is The Way... to live a life of peace... upon the Earth... not being distracted by the temptations, of the world; yet, waiting, open, and trusting, that all that comes to you is yours... it is yours to master... no matter what the situation. And if it comes knocking upon your door, you have the tools within you, and you will receive instructions sufficient to master every situation, in the light of God. This is the promise of God! It is the promise of faith, and it is fulfilled within commitment, and trust.

“I wish to tell you a story. Some of you will recognize it as I go along, as one you have heard before; but listen... with an open heart... so you might hear... and know.... It is a story about Joseph, the man who taught Me: how to live, in the world; how to make a living, in the world; yet showed me strength of character, every day, as he trusted in God, and the ways of the angels, he was an example, of character, and strength, and great love.

“The story, which I wish to share with you, begins, before My birth. And I will take you into the hillsides, to a place where living was hard, taxing, strenuous, sometimes difficult; but always doable, for those who loved God, and stayed in the light.

“Joseph... the man, watched Mary... a young woman, as she interacted with the community. Most often, he watched from a distance, seeing her: laugh often, sing much, share what she had, show kindness to others, and he was always amazed, by the light, coming from her face. He soon ‘fell in love,’ with this young woman, and his love was based on her character, on her caring, on her gentle ways.

“So he did, as custom dictated, and went to her father, and asked for her hand, proving that he was capable of taking care of a wife, and the children that would surely come. He told him of his means, and way to make a living, and convinced Mary’s father, that he would be a good match, for his daughter.

“And it was announced. They were betrothed. The future seemed bright. The woman he loved would soon be living with him. They would make a family, and they would build a home, wherein God was at the center of all things.

“But then, an ‘opportunity,’ presented itself, which seemed at first as betrayal. Mary was found to be with child, and Joseph had not had relations, with this young woman. His heart sank... .. He could hardly breathe... .. His eyes, once looking toward the sky, were downcast... .. And he wept, for days!

“Joseph was a good man, so he chose, in his mind, not to embarrass the woman, or humiliate her, or put shame upon her, but to quietly go about what was the practice, divorce her, and move into the rest of his life. These things were not appealing to him, and he was eating of ‘the apple of temptation,’ feeling betrayed, frustrated, confused, hurt.

“And then, in a dream, the angel came, and said to him, ‘Do not be afraid to take Mary into your home. This situation is ‘of Spirit.’ Mary shall give birth, and it will be a Son, and you are to name Him, Jesus. And He will do much, and He will wash away all iniquity. He will be ‘forgiveness,’ living, walking, accomplishing the mission God sent Him to do; but directed every day, by the words, by what you say, and do. Joseph, this is ‘of God.’ Take Mary, into your home!’

“Joseph woke from the dream, and his commitment to God brought him to a place where there was no doubt, no fear. All the temptations of the world were washed from him. He went immediately, and brought Mary to his home, and they were together.

“Left to ‘the ways of the world,’ that would be the end of the story, for Mary and Joseph, and I would have not had the honor, and privilege, of being raised upon the Earth, by a man so committed to, and trusting in, God. I would have not ‘known,’ a man whose life was dictated by the angels, who ministered to him, trusting that he was receiving the word of God, and moving into the world in accordance therewith, even when it seemed to be in direct opposition to the ways of the world.

“And that was not the last encounter Joseph would have with God’s holy messengers. My earthly father was visited many times, touched by angels, saying, ‘Go here, go there. Rise-up, and take the woman and the children, there is danger!’ And every time, he had the faith... to act, in the light of God... not to question, and not to stay awash in the energies of the temptations. He was able to overcome... betrayal, confusion, doubt, fear, indignation... without attaching... shame, misery, guilt, or other such energies, to the situation. What altered ‘the matter,’ was the man’s ‘faith’... that if it came to him, he would master it, through the direction of God, and angels, ministering to him.

“And as My life upon Earth unfolded, his life unfolded as well. And I saw him, as he moved, and talked, and laughed, and worked. And I can assure you, his life was filled with distractions, and temptations; but I can also assure you, that he ‘did not, bite the apple.’

“He relied on God! He was the light of God! He obeyed, without question, and this led him to a good life, confident, always, that he was doing the will of God. And My brothers and sisters, your life can be the same!

“I concede, that you might have, in the present or past, experienced things that were distasteful, issues, that left on their own, could convince you that you were ‘right,’ in being angry or upset, being sorrowful, or held in the grip of grief. But that is not The Way.

“The Way is to encounter each situation, by bringing the light of God, to light-up every corner of it, to be ‘the beautiful and glorious power of God, upon Earth,’ to use the tools of The Holy Spirit, every time, you have an opportunity to do so. The first time, the second time, the third time might take some work, practice. But I promise you this, the more you commit to doing it, the easier it becomes, and you will find you are laughing, singing, joyful, because you are confident, that no matter what comes to you, you will be the light of God! You will impress... God... upon people you don't even know; and you will amaze people who know and love you, with the love of God, coming through you.

“I saw it, in My earthly father, and I hold him up today, still blessing him, for the things that he did, and the words that he would say. And My sisters and brothers, you can do the same! Listen to the angels, whether they come to you in a whisper, in a tree, in a cloud, in a dream, or in a vision, full and rich. They are standing ready, to give direction, to minister unto, those of you, who will say, ‘God, I wish to do your will, today. So, let it be. Amen’.”

Jesus Teaches On:

I AM Born Again, Through You, In What You Think, And Say, And Do

“I AM with you. Feel My presence, with you. For each one of you who will embrace Me, I live in you, we are one. I will walk with you, and I will speak with you, and remind you, of that which you are to do.

“By a miracle set in place by God, Our Father, you give birth to Me every day. I AM born again, through you, in what you think, and do, and say, when you embrace Me, and My presence. And I thank you, for the knowing... and being willing... to speak My words.

“Thousands of years ago I walked in physical form. I said many things, but I can assure you, that which I spoke, came from God The Father... and I said it often... ‘These are not My words, but the words of God, I AM delivering unto you this day.’ And my brothers and sisters, those of you hearing these words, or reading these words, you have the same ability!

“Verily I say unto you, if you are thinking about it, if you have awakened to the touch of God, you will speak the words of God forsaking your own. For no matter how eloquent a speaker you might be, your words will not hold the wisdom, of God, Our Father. As it was the same for Me, I say it is the same for you. The words I spoke are remembered, because they were, and are, of God!

“There are some misconceptions about some of the things I said. It might even be... correct in saying... there are many misconceptions about the words I spoke. And there was one time, when I said, ‘If you will lose your life, for the sake of Me, for My sake, you will gain it. For the one who is willing to lose their life, lives. They gain life.’ I spoke sometimes, in a way that, those who were willing to hear, and ready to hear, would accept, and know what I was saying. The words often left others baffled and confused. This did not mean that you had to... put yourself on a cross, and suffer death of the physical body, to follow Me. It was so simple, it meant that you are thinking, and living, more in your eternal, spiritual body, then caring about the physical world. And once you remember this, remember that you are an eternal child of God, you gain life, eternal life. I showed you The Way. It does not matter what anyone says or does to you. What matters is what your spirit is willing to rise-up and say to them, to do to them, to deliver to them; for in this way, you are the messenger of God, to those of Earth.

“I wish to give you an example, of what your life should be. And that example exists, and lives today, in My earthly mother, Mary... a very young woman, prepared to move into her adult life, as she was betrothed to Joseph, a very holy man. It was already done; Joseph had come and asked for her hand. It was set. It was all in place, and in her dreams a life unfolding, about this, and that, and the other. But then one day, she saw light forming in such a way that she had not seen before. But she did not run, she embraced the light, and moved closer to the light. And in observing the light, with an intent eye, she saw, beyond what her physical eyes would reveal. She saw with the eyes of her spirit and her soul, and the angel... moved toward her... and told her... 'Mary, do not be afraid. God is with you.' She heard the words.

“The words must have been a surprise and a shock... for God was saying... that she would give birth to a child. She did not offer excuses. She did not say, ‘Can you wait a few months, it will be more appropriate then?’ She said, ‘Let it be done unto me, according to Thy will.’ That is what I mean by: ‘losing your life, for My sake;’ saying ‘Yes’ to the extraordinary, to the unbelievable, to that which is, possibly, not convenient, when trying to fit it into a schedule; being willing to say ‘Yes’ to God, to the messengers from God.

“And when the vision was gone, the angel... flying back to the throne of God, and the light slowly diminishing... there was a very young woman, standing confident, ‘knowing,’ her mission, ready to act, within the love of God. This is your example.

“Once you embrace the light, once you see the angel, once you hear the words, you begin to live, because you live with intention and purpose. And nothing can distract you from your mission, because it is holy, and ‘of God.’ And as you move over the Earth each day, God is working through you, in this way. In this way you are assured of success in completing your mission, because you are being guided by the hand of God. And as your mission unfolds, you smile, remembering you knew it all the time!

“My brothers and sisters, do not be hesitant, and do not be afraid, for I AM with you!”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gift Of Freedom Is Yours, When You Use The Key, Of Forgiveness

“I AM with you. I ask you to move closer to Me, as I AM coming to you, I ask that you meet Me. Let us walk this path, together. Let us come to see, together. The path will lead us to freedom... eternal freedom... a gift that is precious... ‘to be free.’

“Many of you hearing these words, or reading these words, will this week, celebrate a day, set aside, for thanksgiving, giving thanks to God. And I hope today, to help prepare you, in some way, to experience a Thanksgiving... that is real... and unique... and sincere.

“Being ‘thankful,’ has nothing to do with how much you have to eat, or what you have to wear; it does not have anything to do with ‘things.’ For I tell you this, ‘You can have clothing, and be locked in a prison, and your prayer would be ‘to be free,’ rather than to have clothing. You can be served food and drink, yet be locked in a prison, and your prayer would be to be free, rather than to have food or drink for, if you are locked in a prison, your spirit is diminished, clouded, heavy.’

“I tell those of you who feel heavy and burdened, sick and in dis-ease... ‘You are in prison, and it is time for you to use the key! Yes, you hold the key to the door! You can set yourself free, but you must go within, and find the key. You will find it, hidden, in the corridors of your inner-self. The name on the key is ‘Forgiveness.’ If you will pick-it-up, and use it, the door will open, and you will fly, as a bird, once locked in a cage, soars into the heavens, celebrating in song, singing of thanksgiving, all the day long!’

“You can have clothing, and food, and shelter, and drink, but as long as you remain in your prison: you are lacking, there is no joy, and there is no thanksgiving. This year, your Thanksgiving will be different, if you begin today, to prepare The Way...

“Today, take some time to set yourself aside. Think of one thing from your past, one thing that you are carrying around with you: maybe there is resentment; maybe there is anger or frustration; maybe there is hurt, dismay; maybe it has caused anxiety or worry; whatever it is, pick one thing, and work this day to forgive!

“It might serve you well to... pick something small, something not so... devastating. Pick something small, and write it down, whatever it is, write it down. And then, begin, this day, saying, ‘I forgive all things about this situation, this incident! I forgive all people involved in this situation or incident, and I forgive myself! And finally, I look at it differently, as a lesson, as an opportunity, rather than a challenge, or an obstacle.’

“All day, repeat, ‘I forgive... I forgive... I forgive... .’ And, I promise you, at the end of the day, forgiveness will have worked its way, into the fiber of your being. And once this is accomplished, you must go back, and do more, and more, because the door will only slightly move, until you have forgiven all things... all things! And it is in the way, using the key of forgiveness, that the door will begin to open, and you will see the light, and you will know, you have been prisoner day, and night, prisoner... when you could have been free... all the time.

“The key is forgiveness, and: it requires determination, concentration; it requires love; it requires focusing on the eternal presence of God; it requires ‘knowing,’ that you an eternal child of God; it requires remembering what you are doing on Earth; it requires commitment to carry-out your mission, to do the will of God, upon Earth.

“And once you sit with these things for a while, you will begin to grow ‘in wisdom,’ and slowly, one-by-one ‘thoughts of things you need to forgive,’ will come to you. And it will become easier, and easier to do; because forgiveness, will be ingrained in you, it will become a part of you. You will no longer point to what ‘they did, to you,’ but you will stand-up in the light, of what ‘you are doing, for God.’ This is the answer. This is The Way!

“If you begin today... come the time ‘of celebration,’ come the Thanksgiving Day, you will feel lighter, in every way.

“It is time to go to work. You have been ‘in prison,’ too long! You hold the key! Now, it is the day to sing the song, and be free!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Be The River Of God's Power, Be The Tributary Of God's Love Upon The Earth

"I AM with you. I AM with you, as the river. I AM with you, as the stream. I AM with you!

"Close your eyes... and see... or picture, a river flowing freely, mighty, majestic. See the life, along the banks of the river, nourished and sustained, just being close to this life-force. Now picture a tributary, gently moving; and see the grasses, and the land, on either side, a sanctuary, feeding all life, that comes close to it, sustaining... giving... delivering nourishment.

"If you could see these things in your mind's eye, you have 'an example,' of how God's power, and love, move onto the Earth, blessing everything, not just that which lives in the river, or in the waters of the tributary, but all things living along the banks, in the grasses, in the fields close-by. This is how the power and the love of God work! They touch all.

"I want you to see this, and know it. I want you to open this morning, and feel the power of God, flowing into you; for, I AM the vessel... through which will pass... the river... of God's love. Open, and receive it, and let it flow through you; for as it passes through you, it sustains you, and feeds you, and nourishes you; and, as it flows from you, it feeds and sustains and nourishes all those who are close to you, and it moves out, into the world.

"Do not be 'the dam,' blocking the flow of the river. Be the surging powerful river. Do not wall-off, creating small pools, and ponds, of still water. Be the tributary delivering the water. As God's power and love pour through you, this is what you become upon Earth, for you cannot 'drink of the water,' without being blessed, without being fed with grace. The grace and the blessings are what give you the strength and the fortitude to face every temptation with victory, and to master every challenge, triumphant. It is not about the temptation, it is about how you face the temptation. It is not about the challenge, it is about how you master the challenge. It is about... the golden opportunities... set all around you: there, for your choosing; there, for your victory; there, for your triumph. This is how you are to move over the Earth, a magnificent viaduct, for the power, and the love of God.

"When this is your intention and purpose, then this is what you will become. And there will be no need for words, for your very presence in a room will deliver the power of God to Earth, and all those around you; and all you need to do... is walk... to be; and many will be healed by the power of God and the love of God, flowing through you; for, they will be... in The Presence of God... in you!

"There is an example of this... in a story in the Bible... speaking of one of the miracles. It is the one of the woman, who had been bleeding for years and years, who was weakened, and because of her weakened state, every germ or disease that came close to her, plagued her, because her resistance was so low. She was inspired to come to Me, because none of the doctors that she had sought-out to heal her, could do any good.

“I was on My way, having been called to go to the bed of a child. I did not know the woman was coming to Me. I was moving over Earth, a wide-open viaduct for the power and the love of God, strengthened by the hand of God, inspired by the breath of God, fueled by the desire and the intention to do the will of God.

“This woman, weak and weary, made her way through the crowd, which could not have been easy; it was a challenge, but her desire helped her conquer the challenge, and moved her forward. She touched the back of My cloak, ‘knowing,’ that if she could get close to Me, she would be healed. And the minute she touched My cloak, she was healed.

“I did not see her. She did not ask. I did nothing, except provide the power of God; I was the willing vessel, delivering this gift to Earth. And the woman’s faith, following divine inspiration, was the instrument of her healing. The power, of God, moved through Me to her, and I did nothing.

“Understand this, as it is within you to do as well. Sometimes you will find, that the more words you say, the less effective you are. Your words often serve division, separating and isolating; but walking into a room, with the power of God, within you, is healing to all; because it does not deliver what you think or believe it should, it delivers what God knows is good, for each individual close to you. It is, as the river, nourishing all that is along the bank. It is as the tributary, feeding all that is in that sanctuary.

“The river cannot deny life to the bank, nor the tributary withhold nourishment, from that which is in close proximity to it. Be the river. Be the tributary. Be the power and the love of God. Connect... with God... and live... and you will provide life... for all, around you.

“This is how you can ‘feed the hungry,’ by giving them the love of God. This is how you can ‘clothe the naked,’ by wrapping them in the cloak of God’s light. This is how you can ‘quench the thirst, of those longing for something that will satisfy and fulfill their thirst.’ You can deliver these things, without speaking, by being the river, and the tributary of God’s power and love upon Earth!

“Be at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Live By Worldly Standards, Or Live Enlightened By The Kingdom Of God

“I AM with you. I AM here. I AM now. I AM eternal... and so... are you.

“If today, you feel alone, or lost, in darkness and shadow, give Me your hand. If today, you feel isolated, and separated, by the energies of anger, or frustration, chaos, fear, doubt, pride, grief, misery, give Me your hand.

“Come, I call to each of you. There is no limitation, no restriction, no boundaries separating us. I will be your light. I will lead you to the path, and we will walk along The Way together.

“It is time... for those of you who are waking, and who are willing to make the journey, the most amazing journey, it is time... to cross over. And those of you, who are ready, feel a sense of urgency, something prompting you, from within, to act... because you ‘know.’ There is a great crossing, at the end and the beginning of every age. Some run into the new time, with great enthusiasm, eager to embrace this new life upon Earth. Others lag behind, unwilling to release that which is holding them, the energies of the old time, because there is comfort, in what is familiar. And no matter what you choose to do, at this turning of the age, it is fine. You make your choice, and live in it.

“But today I call, those of you, who feel, and are beginning to acknowledge, and know, this sense of separation and isolation, are beginning to see the shadows and darkness as something you no longer desire to be with. This is the prompting, this is the sign, you are ready.

“You are ready to give up the energies of the ego, the energies that keep you in separation and isolation, the energies that have protected you, or so you thought. It is time to put them down, and pick-up the amazing tools of The Holy Spirit, because that is what is to be used, in the new time.

“Let fear go from you, and use hope and trust. Set anger aside, it never served you, and use love. Reject judgment outright, and become familiar with, as you use often, compassion and understanding.

“You will find as you exchange one energy for the other, that the energies you used in the past, burdened you; but the energies, The Gifts of The Holy Spirit, lighten you, and enlighten you.

“It is time to cross over. It is time for you, those of you who are willing, to realize and comprehend Heaven... is now. It is with you. It is within you. And it is possible to walk upon Earth, knowing Heaven, knowing God, in a totally different way. These things are possible, as it is how I lived upon Earth, it is how the miracles, which God desired to be performed, were performed, as I walked upon Earth. And it is possible, for you, to do the same.

“There are many good, wonderful people, living in the world, and hoping, and praying, that Heaven is somewhere, out there, beyond them, a place with gates and doors, which perhaps will be open to you, when the time is right. I tell you, Heaven is with you now! And for those willing to believe this, to accept it, to see it, Earth changes. You see Earth living. You begin to live, and you see your body, as a temporary garment, which is permitting you to move over Earth, to experience Earth.

“I call to you today and say, pay attention to the signs. They will be coming to you this week, the following days, in rapid succession. Be observant, and be vigilant, because as you see the signs, you will know, the time has come, for you to be the living word of God. Speak of what you are doing. Speak of what you are experiencing. Speak of the wonders, of putting fear aside. Speak of the freedom, of no longer using anger and frustration. Speak of dropping the chains of misery and grief. Show yourself to the world, and let them see, what God has done for you!

“I repeat, ‘You are the living spirit of God!’

“I pause, so that that will settle within you. The spirit of God is within you. The spirit of God is within everything God created. It is time to dust yourself off, and realize who you are, the majesty of who you are. And ‘in the knowing,’ and ‘in the remembering,’ you will see. It is time to cross over. The procession, which began years ago, is well underway. To experience life, as I knew it upon Earth, you must... come... with Me.

“Slip the bonds of the world, and ride the wings of The Holy Spirit, into the new dawn, into the new time, for it is your time. It is the time of all of the children of Earth. See it growing, and see it knowing, the resurrection of The Great Garden is in your hands. You can hear the trumpets sounding. It is time. The great resurrection will come from within the children of God upon Earth. Come. Give Me your hand. I will be your light, moving into the new land.”

Jesus Teaches On:

It Is The Will Of God, That You Be The Living Word... Of Love

“I AM with you. This is a great day, a day rich and full with opportunity, for it is the summoning forward, of those who are ready. It is time, and I call you forward...

“Come, stand-up, for you have heard the will of God. God... spoke the word... the word is love... and in the speaking of the word, love... is created. It is the will of God... that you be... the living word... of love!

“Therefore I say, ‘Come, stand-up, there is a great mission, and you are to be a part of it! The goal... is the eradication of judgment, anger, and hatred, for these are lethal energies... every time one chooses to use these energies, one creates an environment, in which is spawned: hurt, bitterness, misery, and resentment; and this tributary... spills into a sea of chaos and confusion. It is a toxic concoction, unfit for consumption, yet it is the cup, from which the children of Earth drink... daily. It is time for the children of Earth to be healed. It is time for the children of Earth to be made whole. This goal... might appear unachievable; the mission... might seem to be a mountain, insurmountable; but I say to you, the goal is achievable, and the mountain is surmountable! It requires desire, and commitment, to be the living word of God, that is love, because love... is the power... of God.’

“It is time to decide, whether: you are going to use the energies of ego, which are as swords of separation, and isolation; or you are going to meet judgment, with compassion and understand, and you are going to meet anger and hatred, with love.

“It will begin, in a quiet decision, a solitary commitment, by one, to do, and to say, and to think... only ‘of love.’ A great transformation, occurring within each one of you, will be the power of God flowing through you, in such copious amounts, that it will inundate every corner, every aspect of shadow and darkness, wiping forever from the Earth, the tools that once were used by the children of God. And in this Way, Earth, and the inhabitants of Earth, will be healed, and be made whole. The garden will be restored, the mission complete, the goal achieved.

“It might seem daunting, but it is, really, very simple. It requires dedication and commitment; but the most important component, of achieving this goal, is love. Today ask yourself, are you ready to set aside ego, severing forever the tools of isolation and separation? Are you ready to let God work through you, to dedicate your eyes, and your ears, and your tongue, your heart, your feet, and your hands to the work of God? For once these decisions are made within each one of you, it begins, and Earth will ‘know,’ a light it has never seen before, coming from all the children of God, healing, and making whole forever, that which was meant to be... The Great Garden of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Meet Hatred With Forgiveness, Do Not Be Distracted From Your Mission, By The Tools Of Shadow And Darkness

“I AM with you. Here, take My hand, and sit with Me awhile. Let us sit, in quiet, and be at peace, so you might observe Earth, in all its glory, Earth... vibrant, living, beautiful... singing a song of peace. This is how it is meant to be, observing Earth, in its great dignity, as created by God.

“You were sent to Earth, with a mission, a goal, and it is yours. When you return Home, you will report on your mission, and all that occurred, as you walked upon Earth. If you will, remember, that you are to deliver the light of God, you will understand the importance of your mission, and you will deliver the light, so you can see clearly, as you sow the seeds, of love; and the garden, which you sow along The Way, brings peace, to Earth, every day. That is your mission, to restore The Garden, and to come Home, in glory.

“Today, I ask you to pay attention to the ‘distractions,’ to the ‘temptations,’ to the ‘challenges,’ so that you are not pulled-off-course; for, they are many, and they are set in place to keep you from completing your mission, and delivering peace to Earth. The energies, the temptations, are powerful and strong; but you have all you need, within you, held within the gifts of The Holy Spirit. Whenever you encounter hatred, loathing, bitterness, or mockery, you must transcend these energies! Do not give them more power! Do not let them feed upon your energy! Face them, by delivering immediate forgiveness, and you will move beyond these tools of darkness and shadow, into a place of compassion and understanding. By focusing on your mission, you will be eradicating the energies of darkness. Do not give them your power. Do not give them your strength. Do not forget your mission and your goal. Value your mission, and let this lead you away from them. When faced with hatred, practice forgiveness, and this will lead you into a place of understanding and compassion.

“Whenever you are faced with anger or frustration, chaos and confusion, do not give-in, for these energies are tricky; and if you take your focus from your mission, you could become ensnared, you could give your power to these energies of darkness. Therefore, focus on the goal, and live... in the power of God... that is with you, and within you; and you will move beyond these temptations, into a place of light, and love, and peace.

“It is important for you to know this day, that these energies... will wither and die... if you refuse to feed them! Their growth, their spread upon the Earth, is fueled... by the power... of the children of God, whenever they take part in them, or react in-kind to them. It is time to awaken to understand, no matter how great the temptation to answer hatred with hatred, focus on your goal, and understand, hatred is not ‘of God;’ but, forgiveness is ‘of God.’ Compassion and understanding is ‘of God.’

“Therefore, pick-up the banner, and let the world know, you are on your way, and you will not stop, until you have completed your mission for God, upon Earth. Do not react to anger with anger. Anger is not of God. Wave your banner, so all will see, that you are choosing the power of light, and love, and peace to be with thee, to remain with thee!

“I encourage you this week, to ‘reject reaction, to the energies of shadow and darkness,’ and pick-up the banner of God, focus on your mission, and walk along The Way! I do not say that it will be easy, at first; but I do promise, with each act of forgiveness, each time you deliver light, and love, and peace, it will get easier, and easier, until you remember who you are, and what you are doing; and then, it will just come naturally to you; it will be what you choose to do, all of the time, if you practice!

“The only way these energies of shadow and darkness will be overcome is through the children of God, choosing the tools of The Kingdom of God. It is the great balance.

“You do not need to fight, to struggle, to overpower, to wage war, all you need to do is use the tools, the gifts, of The Holy Spirit of God, and you will be successful! You will meet hatred with forgiveness; and you will calm the storms of anger, through peace, and light and love; and you will move along The Way, each day, bringing the presence of God upon Earth, through all you think, and do, and say.

“Do not forget your mission. Keep your eyes on the goal. Victory is yours. It is possible. It is within you. You are the great... child... of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Stop Judging One Another, And Begin Living In The Light, And Love, Of God

“I AM with you. As dawn breaks... as light... pierces the curtain of darkness, I AM with you. I fly to you straight as an arrow, piercing the walls and the doors that you have erected, aiming directly for the heart of the matter. And the heart of the matter today... is the issue... of judgment.

“You should set aside the energy of judgment. Its service to you is not good. It detracts from your glory.

“There are many gifts of The Holy Spirit, from which you can choose, to address every issue that comes to you, every situation, to interact with every person, to resolve all things... negative; and judgment... is not a gift of The Holy Spirit. The result of this energy... is not ‘of light...’ it is ‘of separation and darkness.’ And it is time, for those of you who are willing to do the will of God, to stand-up, and set it aside; for, in your growing wisdom you surely see, and know, it is of little use to you, when you are in the light of God.

“Forget working for world peace. Choose to establish peace within your own being, first, and then the peace that comes from you will be sure, and set on a good foundation. Forget cleaning-up the environment. Rather choose first, to stop polluting your own personal environment. Clean-up the environment within your being, and then you can address the issues around you, on a strong and firm foundation. Before you work, outside of your being, take care of your being. Clean it up, make it right. And you can begin today and tonight to dissolve the issue of judgment, for it leads to dissent. It leads to destruction. It is a slippery slope. And it is not the will of God.

“If you are arguing with another: you cannot do the work of God; you are not doing the work of God. If you are in confrontation with another: you cannot do the will of God; you are not doing the will of God. If you hold anger or hatred within your being, you cannot be in the light of God. And if you are nurturing or feeding past injuries, hurts, or wounds, you cannot know the love of God.

“The most important thing you can do this week is to address the issue of judgment, for once this is addressed all things of shadow and darkness will fall from you. If you are tempted to judge, choose a gift of The Holy Spirit, choose understanding and compassion. If you are tempted to anger or hatred, choose love, choose trust, choose charity; but reject judgment. These things: arguments, hurts, wounds, anger, hatred, they all stem from the slippery slope of judgment.

“Our Father... handed to Me... judgment. The reason is... I embody the greatest love of God; therefore, I will not judge poorly. Judgment is Mine, and I will not judge! I choose to love. I AM love, and if you will follow Me, you too, will embody the greatest love of God.

“Let us do this together this week, let us begin, one by one, dissolving the energy of judgment, because it is a wedge that separates and isolates, it condemns and damns, it takes away life, it does not give life. It is prevalent amongst the inhabitants of Earth, but it is not The Way.

“Therefore this day begin, just with one thing. Step by step, you will begin dissolving judgment, within yourself. And just because you have dissolved it within yourself, the percentage of its presence upon Earth will be diminished. And if more, than one of you, do this, it will be diminished even more. And if one hundred of you do this, it will be greatly diminished. And with each and every increment, Earth rises, and the children are blessed, and the will of God is done, at last.

“Stop judging, and begin living, in the light and the love of God. It is possible. It is good. It is the will of God!”

October 9, 2011

Jesus Teaches On:

Use The Power Of God, The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit, To Live In A State Of Miracles

“I AM with you. Feel My presence as I reach-out, sending My energy forth to embrace you, so that you might know, it is true! Crossing, making the journey, moving along the pathways of eternity, it is all possible, for as I do it, you too, do it!

“Hear Me, for I speak to you today, about ‘the power,’ that is yours; and by using this power, you come to know life upon Earth, as it is meant to be: not drudgery; but magical, miraculous, magnificent in every way.

“There are many who will tell you, ‘You must know sorrow and sadness and anger and hatred, it is part of life.’ And I say unto you, ‘Reject that temptation! It is not so!’ You do not have to know hatred to know love. Hatred does not make your knowledge of love greater. These things are said, because they are the... simplest form of understanding... as the world knows it. I AM asking you to step beyond that which is known, step-out of worldly knowledge, and plant yourself firmly into the wisdom of eternity: where all things are possible; where there are no limitations or boundaries; where there is the open expanse of the eternal love of God, and it is all yours!

“When it was decided that you would make the great adventure to Earth, you were not sent to Earth unprepared. You carry within your being... a tool kit, referred to often as... the gifts of The Holy Spirit. It is what you are... to choose... to use, when you encounter situations: that can be a challenge; that can obstruct your journey. You are given all you need.

“Today, I speak to you about... using the tools that are yours... to live in a state of miracles...

“When you encounter hatred: do not react to hatred; act with the love of God. When you encounter sorrow, or misery, or grief: do not react to sorry, misery, or grief; act within the compassion, the understanding of God. Act in the positive light and glory of God. Reject hatred, anger, misery, grief, frustration, chaos, confusion.

“The list goes on and on, but no matter, how long, how powerful, how great these energies might be, you hold, within you, the energies of Heaven; and these things bring peace, and balance, and harmony; acting, living, in the light and the power of God.

“So let us say, you have made this decision, it is your ‘intention,’ to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit in every situation you encounter. It is upon your heart, to reject anger and frustration, to reject these things, and act, with the God energies, with that which is created in the heavenly kingdom. And this is good; but there is something else, and this lifts you out of ‘understanding,’ into ‘knowing, the ways of Heaven.’

“When you are upon the Earth, your body is fueled by Earth. It is so planned. The green kingdom provides oxygen, provides food. The creatures of the sea, leap-up to feed thee. Earth feeds your body. And this is as it should be. But as you walk upon the Earth, there is something else, something... that enables miracles... to take place all around you... and it is your ability to open completely and fully to the power of God that is yours, it is there!

“Verily I say unto you, all the power of God is yours! The only thing you have to do is open to it, and choose to use it! Aha, now, as you open to the power of God that is yours, it flows into you! It is there all the time, all you have to do is make the decision to open to it, set your ego aside, and connect.

“There, now you are connected with Earth, feeling the pulse, the beat, the rhythm, the swaying of Earth, and the breath of God is flowing through you; you are a powerful presence upon Earth!

“Now, as you move over Earth, miracles happen, and you don't even need to know what is going on. ‘How is this?’ you say... ‘It's your presence. It's your presence, your powerful presence. You are now, an extension of the power of God, because you have opened, and miracles happen!’

“One, many of you live in dwellings or homes, which use air conditioning, a form of cooling the inside of the house, making it comfortable when it is very hot outside. When you turn your air conditioning on, and let that air begin blowing through the home, it does not just cool you. Anyone who walks into your home feels the cool air that you have provided. This is the same with you walking around, with the power of God, flowing through you. It does not just fuel you, and move you over Earth, it moves out of you, touching everything around you, creating a state of miracles.

“I give you another example. If you are outside, many of you like to camp, let us say you make a fire, to warm your hands on a cool night, and you invite people to sit around your fire with you, or they just see your fire, and come and ask for permission to come into your circle; that fire, that light, that you have created does not just warm you, it warms all who come close to you, bringing a comfort, and a peace, bringing light, and warmth, to darkness, and cold.

“At a very rudimentary level, this is the example of what you can do, when it is your intention to do the will of God... connect with Heaven... and walk upon the Earth... fueled... by the power of God.

“I gave an example of how this works... to many... in one situation, which is termed a ‘miraculous healing.’ Some of you who are familiar with accountings of my ministry in the book you call the Bible, might remember.... I was on My way to see a child who was very sick. The crowds were pressing close about Me. And I say to you, ‘Yes, this did happen.’ I was walking, moving quickly, knowing... it was already accomplished... but giving the concerned father peace, I moved quickly, with intention to go help his daughter. When, all of a sudden, as the crowds were pressing in around Me, I felt the power of God move, within Me, and I said, 'Someone has touched Me. I feel the power. I feel the power move from Me.' And everyone stopped, and the woman came forward. She was shaking. She was timid. She had not intended to be the center of attention. This woman was weak; the trembling was not just from fear, it was weakness, for she had been bleeding for years, and years, and years, and nothing had been found to help her. But she had received guidance to find Me; and as she saw Me moving through the crowd, she knew, within her being, that if she could just touch Me, she would be healed. As she stood before Me, I said, 'Go, your faith has healed you.' Now, no one really understood what I was showing them, even though I told them over, and over again, but they did not believe Me, 'Healing: has to do with faith, has to do with connecting with the Source of all power.'

"As I walked upon the Earth, I walked where I was told to walk. The voice of God was with Me, and the power of God flowed through Me like a shaft, and I could feel it, it was so intense; and therefore, God's power was directed toward those who needed healing. It was not Me. It was the power of God flowing into and through Me, directly to Earth. You see, that woman 'knew,' and when she came near, the power of God flowed, directly to her, and I felt the power move toward her. And she was healed. She was healed with My back turned toward her, not even seeing her. It was the power of God, flowing into and through Me, that touched her, and healed her.

"For those of you who have ears to hear this, hear this... 'You carry the tool kit, prepared in Heaven, which will address every issue you will ever face in a positive light. You carry as much of the power of God within you, as you are willing to accept. And if you will open to the power, use the gifts of The Holy Spirit that are in the tool kit, and feel the glorious power of Earth, moving into you, all at the same time, everywhere you go will be healed. Yes, you are the fingers, the eyes, the ears, the hands, the feet of God! What God wants... is limited... to what you will do for God.' That is a powerful statement, but it is true.

"It is time, and you are ready! This week, practice these things I've told you. Everything you encounter will: receive the breath of God... through you; be blessed by the power of God... through you; be nurtured and sustained... through you. If you will set your ego aside, connect with the will of God, and begin living in the state of miracles: those you touch, will be healed; those who touch you, will be healed. Many will be healed, without even saying anything to you. It is not necessary for you to know. If upon their heart they hold the desire to be whole, healed, free of burdens, this will be done, through the power... flowing... through you. This is how every miracle was performed. Understand this, and you will hold the wisdom of Heaven.

"Use that which is yours! Reject that which would hold you down, keep you in place, and deny you your heritage. I said clearly, and I say again today, you can do everything I do!"

Jesus Teaches On:

Practice Forgiveness, Know Its Power, And Give The Eternal Gift

“I AM with you. I approach slowly, with purpose and intention, drawing nearer to you. Feel My presence, as this new day begins. It is also, within the first days of a new month, as you celebrate the seasons and times on Earth, a month which holds: promise; a month during which you will have many opportunities, some of them in the form of a challenge, or an obstacles, embrace those, with warmth, for therein lies your promise, and reward, the opportunity to show what you know, what you've learned, as you grow, walking along The Way.

“Be eager to accept the New Day. And you will be able to accept the new day, and all it brings, if you master the art of forgiving. I could speak, on forgiveness, every day, for a year, and still not sufficiently impress upon you, the significance, and the power, of forgiveness. It seems at the present time, to be beyond the comprehension of most, although it is mentioned often. Within the energy of forgiveness is: peace, resolution, harmony and balance, health and happiness.

“You can introduce forgiveness to a situation, which appears to be rapidly going out-of-control, injected with chaos and confusion, and find that things begin to become mellow, and the tension is disbursed, and it is easier to speak, without a sharp tongue, or an angry heart.

“‘Forgiveness,’ - it is used in a rather superficial way upon Earth today. People say, ‘I’m sorry.’ or ‘they insist they have already forgiven all things.’ Most do not feel that it is important to spend time absorbing, understanding, and comprehending, the power of forgiveness. But those few, those who are wise amongst you, begin to work with the energy of forgiveness, and find it is a gem... a crown... a robe... of protection, of resolution and peace. Those who begin to use and understand the power of forgiveness have the ability to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit in a miraculous way. Until you master forgiveness, the gifts of The Holy Spirit are special, unique, and wonderful; but when you master forgiveness, totally and completely, able to forgive all things, as God forgives all things, the gifts of The Holy Spirit take on miraculous portions, and you understand, what living upon Earth is really all about!

“If you believe you have forgiven all things, sit quietly, do not think about anything, do not ponder anything, just sit quietly; and one by one, instances, or situations, or people will come to your attention, little ‘taps on the shoulder from the heavenly kingdom,’ saying, ‘Address this. Clean this up. Forgive all this, because your time has come to rise-up, confident in the power of forgiveness, ready to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit, with all... of the power they hold... bringing forth the fruits upon the Earth, to sustain yourself, and the children. This unique ability begins within the energy of forgiveness.’ There is much work to do in the area. But as you begin to work, the results come... quickly, ‘quickly,’ because the desire and intention is upon your heart; therefore, it is already apparent that your desire to use forgiveness, and know its power is there.

“Forgiveness... seek to use it... seek to give it... first. Forgiveness means that you are giving an eternal gift or blessing... simply for the gift itself... for God, and for eternity! When you practice the art of forgiveness, you are giving the eternal gift!”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Key To Joy, And Peace, And Freedom, Is Forgiveness

“I AM with you. I AM with you, as you begin to leave one season behind, and move into another. I AM with you to show you The Way, so that your days upon the Earth might be filled with joy and peace. The key... to joy and peace... is forgiveness.

“By simply saying the word, ‘forgiveness,’ you feel the power of it, you feel the energy of it, you feel the love of it. Forgiveness... it is your key to freedom. If you find it difficult to go back to certain situations, or even address present situations, in a state of forgiveness, I give you another key. If you will use The Gifts of The Holy Spirit as your tools, working with the gifts and the fruits of The Holy Spirit... every day, you will find that, as you walk along The Way, it is easier to forgive, because you are using the gifts created in The Kingdom of God, the energies created in Heaven, to support your life, upon the Earth. And this makes a difference in how you see, and understand, and comprehend. It brings ‘wisdom,’ to the way you live. And wisdom dictates forgiveness.

“I would ask you to do this... it is a simple practice... and it will be of great assistance to those of you who have a desire to work with the gifts. Draw a line on a paper. It doesn't matter in what direction you draw your line. That is up to you. Divide a piece of paper into two places, one where you will write The Gifts of The Holy Spirit, all the fruits that you can think about, all the glorious presents... of Heaven. They feel light: in the saying of them, in the writing of them. And they will lift-you-up, and carry you, as you move over the Earth, the more you use them. They will carry you and sustain you, they will support you and enlighten you, they will fill you with wisdom, and you will begin to ‘know,’ what living is all about.

“On the other side of the paper, I wish for you to write down, those things, those energies that are a bit demoralizing, those things created within the world, not of God: anger, hatred, mistrust, greed, envy. The list goes on and on. Put down everything you can think of, and as you say the words, and even write the words, pay attention to the energy of the word. You'll find it very different, from the lighter energies associated with The Gifts of The Holy Spirit. You find it different, because as you carry confusion, or chaos, or fear, or worry, or anger, they're a burden. They do not lift-you-up, they weigh-you-down. They do not sustain you, they suck the life from you, so they might live... through you.

“If you will begin to ‘see,’ open your eyes and see, you will not choose... a tool... from the dark side. You will choose light... every time, because it is sustaining, and fulfilling. And the more you use understanding, and truth, and faith, and hope, and charity, the easier it becomes to forgive. And soon you find that you have total freedom. Freedom is: being carried on the gifts; sustained by the fruits of Heaven; no longer captive by the tentacles of the past, but free to fly on the wings of The Holy Spirit of God.

“These things I say to you, because your freedom is at hand; but your freedom is at your hand. You ‘choose.’ And how you choose, makes an eternal difference. Make it your intention, all through the coming week, to look at your list, and choose wisely.”

Jesus Teaches On:

My Family Are Those Who Hear The Word Of God, And Act Upon It

“I AM with you. I AM closer than you can imagine. I love you, more than words can say. I speak to you when you call Me. I guide you, along The Way. And that is not the only thing that you are given; My presence is just one of the ways, that you can be helped as you are upon Earth. You have been given the gifts of God. The Holy Spirit delivers these gifts to you. And those that you were not given outright, upon your creation, you can ask for, and receive. Nothing of The Kingdom of God is held from you. In wisdom you come to know what you need, and what to ask for; and out of love, it is given.

“I have repeated, and repeated, the message. Hear My words, ‘You hold within you The Gifts of The Holy Spirit, they are the keys that will unlock the doors. They are the answer to every situation. And by using the gifts, you come to know the ways of God, for they are the ways, of The Kingdom of God. They will open every door, and lift-you out of every situation of the world. You have all you need. The only thing required is the desire to use them, to choose them, over the tools of shadow and darkness, to refuse to be ensnared by the ways of the world, choosing first The Way of God.’

“You cannot feed one, who will not eat. You cannot teach, one who will not awaken. You cannot show, one you will not see.

“No matter how much you prize the things of the world, at some point you will realize, that these things can be stripped from you. You can build the grandest home that human beings have ever seen, and prize it over all things, yet it can be taken from you: by fire, by theft, by some type of natural disaster, or you might lose it, because you lose your wealth. There are many ways this magnificent edifice can be stripped from you. You might think it is yours, you might prize it as yours, but it can be gone, in a matter of hours.

“You might prize, the way your body looks, beautiful, young; but this too is fleeting, and will change. You might prize greatly, the coins you have saved, the money in whatever form your country calls it to be, whether it is dollars and cents, or pounds... sterling. You can hold it, and treasure it, but it is only worth what the bank, or the country, says it is. One day it is worth a great amount, the next nothing. You can call it yours, but it can be taken from you.

“The only thing you have that cannot be taken from you... is your spirit... which is eternal; yet it seems to be ignored by most people, choosing to build on the things and the ways of the world, rather than to magnify the glory of their spirit, which came from God, and which is your eternal treasure. Better to magnify the spirit that is you, the real you... the you... that will know all time... eternity.

“I tell you these things because... it is time for you to create... for God. Create on something that cannot be taken from you. Create for eternity.

“There was a time, when I was with My friends. Oh, I must say the truth there were many times when I was with My friends, but one time that is recorded, still listed in Biblical teachings, when I was speaking, and someone said to Me, ‘Your mother and your brothers are outside, they are calling you.’ And I turned quickly to them, because of the lesson I had been trying to relate, and I said, ‘My mother, and My brothers, are those who hear the word of God, and act upon it.’ And this is true. This is the family of God that will eat, that will awaken, that will live, that knows the difference between the ways of the world, and The Way of God, the riches of the world, and the abundance of God. It is not reciting the words. It is not writing the words down. It is not drawing pictures of the words. It is ‘living, the word.’ And when you choose to live the word of God, Earth changes, the world changes, and you recognize the family of God upon Earth.

“You are ‘known,’ by what you create. You are known by what you do. There is Joe Smith, he is the banker. There is Mary Jones, she is the real estate agent. There is Claudia, the jeweler. You are tagged by what you do, by what you create. You are known, by that which you create. It is time to awaken and be fed by the hand of God. It is time to use the things of the world in a way that is different. It is time for the young man, who is strong and powerful, to stop using his strength to force an issue, or to win a fight. It is time for the young man, who is powerful, to use his strength to build for those who have no strength, to clear the land, and build the houses. You see there is a big difference in how the strength and the power are used. It is time for those who have the gift of amassing monetary wealth, to use it, to feed others, rather than hoarding it, or dressing themselves with ornamentation, living in fancy dwellings. It is time to use... all that you are... for the glory of God. It is time to begin strengthening that which you have, which cannot be taken from you, your spiritual body, feeding it, and magnifying the glory of God by what you do upon Earth. This is how you use The Gifts of The Holy Spirit. I speak of it and I speak of it. But today, I encourage you to use the gifts that you have been given, whenever possible, because these are the things that will strengthen your spirit, these are the ways to bring The Kingdom of God to full life upon Earth.

“It is all possible, but there must be some who are willing to rise-up and say, ‘I choose The Way of God over the ways of the world.’ As soon as one rises, another will follow. But it is time. The trumpet is sounding. Awaken to the call. Come to the table and eat, for the hand of God will feed you. And choose the tools of The Kingdom of God to use, when creating upon Earth. The Gifts of The Holy Spirit have been delivered, they are yours. And Earth will change when the children of God begin to use the gifts!

“This week, use the gifts you have been given, use the power of God within you. You are known by that which you create. My family, My mother My brothers My sisters, those whom I gather near Me and love, are those who hear the word of God, and act upon it. Choose, this week, to act, and you will truly know freedom... power... and peace!”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit, The Power They Hold, The Freedom They Carry

“I AM with you. I come to you today to speak to you, of the importance of The Gifts of The Holy Spirit. And more important than speaking about The Gifts of The Holy Spirit is to encourage you to use The Gifts of The Holy Spirit, for it is one thing to know of them, or speak of them, but the majesty of the gifts is apparent only when you begin to use the gifts, and in using the gifts, you walk over the Earth, possessing the power of The Kingdom of God, and freedom is yours.

“The gifts hold much more than you can imagine, but these things are not revealed until you begin using them, and understanding them, and seeing what happens, as they become the instruments, that you use, along The Way, throughout your journey.

“When you encounter situations, situations of the world, that are tempting you, to be fearful or anxious, to be frustrated, when they are tempting you into confusion and chaos, the only resolution, that is ‘of peace,’ is to be still, and make sure your connection, your corridor and passageway, Home, to God, is clear, and free of litter and debris, so that the love of God can flow, freely, through you. And with this light of God, The Gifts of The Holy Spirit that you carry are illuminated, and you choose love, rather than hatred, you choose compassion and understanding, you choose trust and faith and hope, rather than being worried or anxious.

“These gifts of Spirit, and their value, grow greater, stronger, and more miraculous, with each use; but they can grow stale, if left untended, ignored. And I wish to encourage you to use the gifts this week, for each of you hearing these words or reading these words, will have thousands of encounters, thousands of exchanges with your brothers and sisters, and with each encounter you will have the opportunity to use a gift, as a tool. If you will do this, you will begin to understand the power that these gifts hold, and once you understand the power, then you come to the realization of the freedom of living upon Earth using the Gifts of The Holy Spirit, because you are no longer ‘the victim,’ of a creation of another, you are the co-creator with God, with love and light and peace, and all the things the gifts represent. You are free of the tethers of the world.

“Pettness will not bother you, because you are connected with Home, and you will see and hear pettness, with the ears of God. You will not be tempted to react to it. You will be desiring to act within the love of God, and the first thing you will do is bless, pray for, release the one carrying the energies of darkness and shadow. You will begin to understand the power you hold in freeing others of the burdens they’re carrying.

“These are mighty words, meant to fall on ears that will hear what I am saying. Using the gifts is your key to freedom. Using the gifts, and becoming familiar with them, is the key to understanding the power of The Kingdom of God.

“This week, make it your intention, to hear what others are saying, or see what others are doing, but to refrain from reacting; rather, act within the light of God. Be blessing, and forgiving, and pardon should be on your lips constantly. Do not be distracted from the work at hand. You are here to clean-up The Garden. Yes, I return to that subject again, because one follows the other. These are the tools you have been given to clean-up The Garden. And it is not your desire to add to the litter, or debris. It is your mission to clean it up. Some of you are serving in one capacity, some of you in another. But still the ultimate goal is to restore The Garden, to its rightful place, and you can do it. You can do it in a big way this week, by using the gifts. Use them. The more you use them, the more fruit will spring forth from them, and The Garden will begin to grow, and to bear fruit, fruit which will ripen, and sustain the children of God upon Earth. But there must be some of you, who are willing to come forward, and understand the work and its importance, and the opportunity you have, to deliver The Kingdom of God to Earth, through what you do, through what you say.

“The thought of this excites Me! I walk with you this week, to see how you do, and encourage you to use the gifts. Use the gifts, so that you might come to understand the power of The Kingdom of God, and the freedom, that is delivered to you.

“Be at peace, and use the gifts.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Use The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit, The Power Of God, To Clean-Up The Garden

“I AM with you. I AM with you... and it is joyous... wonderful... exhilarating... and complete! Feel My presence with you now, as it lifts-you-up! Breathe the air of Earth, and ‘know,’ it is an experience, which will not last forever; yet, the real you, the authentic you, the you that is ‘of Spirit,’ and ‘of God,’ is eternal, and you will remember the experience, and you will know the joys, and the wonders, of Earth... created by God... as The Garden.

“This is why you are upon Earth... to restore and to clean The Garden... so it is the precious and sacred jewel... that it was always intended to be. “You are upon the Earth to clean-it-up, not to add to the litter, and the abuse. When you think about it this way, it becomes ‘a badge of honor,’ to be upon the Earth, to clean-up the energies of darkness and shadow, not add to them. And to ‘empower you,’ to do this, you have been given gifts, created in The Kingdom of Heaven, glorious... wondrous gifts... gifts that will lift you out of any situation; you know them as the gifts of The Spirit, the gifts of The Holy Spirit. They are your tools... to use... as you clean-up... The Garden! They are ‘your choice,’ when it is your intention to be part of the power that is cleaning-up Earth.

“When you open, and receive, and begin to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit in every situation, you begin to know the ways of God, because these gifts, these energies, were created within The Kingdom of God; and that is how you move over the Earth, propelled by the power of God within you.

“Set your intention to use these gifts, for they are not ‘of the world,’ yet they will lift you, out of every situation of the world, into a new place, into a place where you... cannot... fall victim to the powers and the energies of shadows and darkness. You cannot do this, because when you comprehend what you are doing, when you choose to use the tools, the gifts of The Holy Spirit, you are using The Power of God, God Power, within you. And when you stand in such light, shadow and darkness has no chance to penetrate... God. God is the eternal power of creation, good, light, and love. Therefore, those who walk, using these gifts, are impenetrable!

“Your life upon Earth will be free, and others will see, and want to be, as you, because as you slowly diminish the darkness, and chase all the shadows away, by the light of God that is within you, as you use the gifts, refusing to use the tools of the darker side, people see the example, and they come to know the ways of God, through you.

“If you use the gifts: you will never be held down... or impeded... by anger; you will not know the sickness and distress of grief and sorrow; lacking or need will be beyond your imagination, because you are in the light of God, God is your power, and everything falls from you, as the light moves over the Earth.

“You are the light of God, but you must turn-on the power! Use it! Open the gifts, and begin today. It is your honor to be upon the Earth, to clean-it-up, to restore The Garden. And God will celebrate as the children work! But you cannot clean-up The Garden, if you continue to use the tools: of anger, and frustration, and grief, and sorrow, and all of the other things, the energies, created upon Earth, the energies created to deal with the situations of the world.

“Choose... the power... given to you from The Kingdom of God. It is eternal, and as you use it, you will walk over the Earth, propelled by The Power of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Prepare The Garden Of Your Heart To Accept The Seed, To Accept The Word Of God

“I AM with you. When you begin... to understand... the eternal present, you begin to realize... there are no barriers of time... you reach-out to Me... or I reach-out to you... and we know each other. It is faith, living eternally, within you, within Me, within all that is holy and wonderful... faith.

“Today I reach-out and touch you; feel My presence; feel My hand upon your shoulder; rest your head in My lap; for I speak words to you, so that you might grow, so that you might grow and bear fruit, for the seeds are yours.

“There is something... necessary for you to do... to prepare a garden. It does not matter whether you plan to grow flowers, or fruits, or vegetables, the necessity is still there... the preparation of the soil. If you prepare your garden well, whatever is planted: will grow there, will thrive there, and it will mature. If you choose flowers, the flowers will spread, and be plentiful. If you choose to grow an orchard of fruit, your trees will be lush, and they will hang heavy, at the time of harvest. If you choose to grow vegetables, you will have all that you need, and more, to eat and pass-on to your neighbors, and friends, and family. These things will happen, because you have prepared the soil to receive the seed.

“My brothers and sisters, the seed is the word of God. You, your hearts, are the garden. You must tend your garden, and prepare it, or the seed, the word of God, falls upon you yet, the results are limited, because of the state, of your garden. It might not be tended thoroughly: there might be rocks; there might be thorns; there might be weeds. And these things, keep your garden from being the masterpiece it was intended to be; they keep your garden from maturing, and bearing fruit, so others might see, and know.

“Thousands of years ago, when I walked upon the Earth, I spoke a parable, and the parable had to do with the sower, and the seeds. In the parable I talked about the seeds falling on the path; at that time, I said that they fell on the path, and they were trampled, or carried away by the birds. I talked about the seeds falling amongst rocky soil, where the seeds grew a little, but soon withered-out. I talked about the seeds falling amongst thorns, and bramble, and weeds, pointing-out that soon, these thorns, and bramble, and weeds grew-up, with the shoots of the seeds, and choked them out. But then there was the seed that fell upon the fertile soil, and everything grew. It was rich and lush, sustaining not only the garden, but feeding many, with the fruits it bore.

“When those who followed Me, who were with Me most often asked, ‘We don’t understand that, why are you speaking in parables?’ I said, ‘Well, let those who hear, hear.’ I spoke, so no matter what level you were standing-in, or sitting-in, or living-in at the time, you could comprehend a piece of that parable. And the people that I spoke to understood, very well, the common sense of broadcasting seed, and preparing a garden, because life was hard, and you counted on your garden to sustain your family, to feed your family. They knew the importance of the garden. They knew they wanted the seed to be on fertile ground... but I did not tell them more... than that.

“I speak to you today and say, your heart is the garden! Take some time today to review, and to cleanup your garden. If there are pebbles, or stones, or boulders... of: anger, mistrust, frustration, anything that you feel against another, against yourself, or even against a set of circumstances or situations, sit down, and take them out of your garden. It is time... for forgiveness. Forgive all things. And if you find it difficult, sit down and ask for help; I tell you, every time you ask, use My name, take Me with you, let us go to God, Our Father, The Creator of all things, and I will stand-by-you, and you will say, ‘God, give me the wisdom to forgive this.’ And you will find that the hand of God assists you, in picking-up that boulder and moving it.

“If you find that your heart is choked-out with weeds of disappointment, or grief, or sadness, or bits of frustration here or there, it is still important; pull-up the weeds!

“I will not tell you that preparing a garden is a clean task. Watch someone prepare a garden. It tosses dirt everywhere into the air. Shake the weeds. Get the soil off the weeds. Toss them aside. Use your fingers to feel the good earth of your heart, and clean-it-up, so that when you hear the word of God, the word falls upon your heart, as seeds from the hand of The Sower, and the seeds fall on a heart that is a fertile garden, prepared by you. And then watch it grow!

“When well tended, ready to receive and embrace the seeds that are the word of God, you will grow, and your ability, as a child of God walking upon the Earth, will be to feed not only yourself, but to nourish and sustain others you meet, all along The Way. The condition of your garden determines what grows there.

“Today take some time... to find the rocks, and the pebbles, and the stones, to pull-up the weeds, and clear-out the thorns and the brambles, and make your garden a fitting place to accept the seeds of the word of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

If You Know The Word, You Will Live The Word, From Within

“I AM with you. As the sun rises to greet the new day, I AM with you.

“I AM with you to speak about... ‘Living The Word.’

“You know, there are many who hear the word, or know the word, and the word of which I speak, is... love. I came to Earth some two thousand years ago to deliver the loving word of God, telling people: ‘Do not judge others... love others... live... the new word.’

“And the only way that you can be successful in living the word... is to live it... from within yourself. You cannot stand on a street corner... and read-out the word, waving your finger in the air, and telling others of their wrong ways, and their wrong doings. That shows that you can read the word; but it does not show that you know the word, because if you know the word, you live it. If you know it, you could not choose any other way, other than to be... the living word.

“It is glorious; once you begin to do this your life changes, no matter what your circumstance. If you are living the word from within your being: you are happy and content; you know God at a personal level; you are a shining example; nothing can distract you, or dissuade you; temptations come, but you see them clearly, because you are living the word, you say, ‘Go from me. I choose to live the word... of God.’

“Therefore I say to you, this week, choose to make the change, from within yourself. Earth will not change by demand, or order, or confrontation. Earth will change when every single being upon the Earth decides they are going to live the word of God from within, and that they are going to be the living example of the love of God.

“Earth begins to change the minute, even one of you, sets your intention to do this. And if two of you set your intention to do this, the change begins to grow, but it comes from within. It is God... moving upon the Earth... through you. This week, set your intention to begin living the word, where it all began, from within.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Key To Understanding The Mysteries Of The Kingdom Of Heaven

“I AM with you. As you awaken to all the possibilities, of living upon the Earth, knowing who you are, and understanding that Heaven is all around you, and within you, above and below you, I AM with you.

“This morning My words will be brief, because it is more important for you to sit with them, in quiet, and ask for the wisdom to understand the mysteries of Heaven. And God will teach you. God will teach you things that are not recorded in books, or passed down from generation to generation, slightly altered or changed, not on purpose but just in translation and in applying modern language to ancient ways. God will teach you, and in this Way, you will ‘know.’

“The keys... the keys that will unlock the mysteries of The Kingdom of God... are not kept in secret from most, and given only to a select few, the keys are passed-out amongst all of you. The only secret is ‘you must know how to identify, or recognize, the key, you hold within you.’ You must be willing to be still and quiet, and go to the inner chamber, passing through the corridors within your being, and sit with God. And you will begin to understand, and comprehend, that which you cannot... accept, when applying the rules and regulations of the world, because they do not apply. And in most cases, they do not apply... at all.

“I want you to... see a picture, in your mind’s eye. See a wall, with a big, massive door, a door that is strong, able to withstand the assault... of many.

“Now see people coming, approaching the door, trying to open it, push it open, pull it open, throwing themselves against the door, banging against the door, doing everything to force entry, to get the door open. And one by one they fall into a heap. Scattered all around the door, are weary, worn bodies, trying, yet failing, to gain entrance, to pass through the door.

“Then see one approach, holding a key, insert the key in the lock, turn the key, open the door, and walk through, effortlessly, moving through the door, without sweat or perspiration, or broken or weary bones and body, because they hold the key which unlocks the door.

“The others, lying limp and tired, also hold the key. They just have not recognized the key... yet.

“This is how it is to be. Sometimes, trying to understand the ways of God... are beyond... human comprehension. They will try, and they will work, and they will struggle, and they will obey all the rules and regulations that society has put in place, which prescribe a holy life, banging and trying to gain entrance, to understand these mysteries. And then there are the ones who sit quietly, and are willing to accept the ways of God, because they have found the key.

“The key is a gift you were given a long... long... time ago. It is free will. When you use your free will, to actually, give it back to God, and commit every day, to doing the will of God, the key takes form, and you understand... that your struggle is not necessary when you are holding the hand of God, which has given you the key.

“If you're struggling, with comprehending the ways of God, be still, and God will speak. God will speak to you in such a way that you know, and you recognize. It might be totally different from what He is speaking to those next to you, or many miles away from you. It will be a lesson... you can understand. It might be in the form of a picture, or a parable, or it just might come, in the simple form of a knowing, given to you, by the hand of God. Do not struggle any longer, it is not necessary. You hold the key within.

“God does not withhold... from the children. But the children... must be still... so they 'know,' what they hold, within! And in the quiet, God moves and speaks, and you are blessed beyond anything you can imagine, as the mysteries... unfold, within you, and all around you. It is that simple.

“In parting I want to share something with you, if you will see this in your mind's eye. Imagine a grand painting, a tapestry if you will, the size of a large wall, in a large room. And upon the painting, or tapestry, whichever you have chosen, is the story of creation, all there for you to see... beautiful, rich, mysterious and wonderful.

“Now, see yourself, sitting on the floor, in one particular spot, staring straight into one small portion of the painting, or the tapestry. You are limited to what you are seeing in front of you, and it might not make any sense to you at all. You might be staring at a blade of grass, or a caterpillar, or a piece of a butterfly wing and the knee of an elephant. But as long as you are very close to the situation, staring and focusing your attention on just one spot, you do not see The Divine Plan, unfolding... right before you. But if you slowly stand-up, and begin to move back, step, by step, by step, you see the big picture, and it all comes together, it all makes sense.

“Well, I tell you this, if you will stand-up today, and step back, going within your being, moving back, to the core of your being, you will begin to see, the greater picture. You will see the glory of God in creation. But you cannot see it, when you are focused on one particular situation, in one particular day, of one particular year. You must make the journey, back, within yourself, and sit with God. And I promise, each of you, that if you make this effort, today, God will touch you, in such a way, that for the rest of your life upon Earth: you will think... as God thinks... you will speak... as God speaks... and you will live as God lives!

“Peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Forgiveness, To Be Healed, To Be Whole, You Must Forgive All Things

“I AM with you. I reach-out to take your hand. I approach drawing nearer to you, so you might feel Me, and know, I AM ever with you. Time is no barrier, between us. I AM with you.

“I speak to you today of the importance, of forgiveness. If you are to be healed, if you are to be whole, it is necessary for you to forgive all things. Verily I say unto you, it is possible, for you to set the intention, that you will always forgive all things. You can say, at this moment, on this day, ‘I forgive... all things... all things, even the things in the future, of which I know not, I forgive, and I forgive fully.’

“Some of you hearing these words or reading these words, will find it easy to forgive. Some of you... will doubt... your capability to forgive, because of the atrocities, you have borne. However I say unto you, ‘Forgiveness is a lifeline for you. No matter what has been done to you, forgiveness is the key to your freedom.’

“If you will forgive, from your heart, truly forgive another, you will free yourself. You will free yourself from anger, for if you are a forgiving person, you are not an angry person. Anger will no longer be with you. If you are a forgiving person, judgment no longer tempts you, because you forgive all things, ‘knowing,’ it is in the hands of God, from beginning to end. If you are a forgiving person, you free yourself, of carrying... resentment... because you have forgiven all things. And if you are a forgiving person, you free yourself of the burden, of holding a grudge. Some of you have known resentment, or held a grudge, for a very long time. You might not even notice the energy is within you. Some things you carry, you get used to. But I tell you as you begin to examine, within your being, searching, seeking, in places covered-up, and hidden, you will begin to feel lighter.

“Forgiveness... is the seed of miracles. Let it be your intention to forgive all things, as this is what God desires of you. This is why it is in The Lord’s Prayer, ‘...forgive us, as we forgive...,’ because you hold forgiveness in the palm of your hand. As you forgive, you are forgiven; as you forgive, you are freed; as you forgive, you become lighter; as you forgive, you love. As you forgive, you are love. As you forgive, you live.

“Some of you will feel so light you will be giddy, never knowing that you could feel so good while living upon Earth. And it all begins with forgiveness. Seek, seek today, go within, find every spot, even the smallest resentment or grudge; pull it from you... using... forgiveness. Do you realize that nothing, anyone says, or does to you, can hold you down, or keep you bound, if you forgive all transgressions, everything?

“Forgiveness: it is powerful, it is Godlike, it is saving. Practice this week; begin to examine the interior of your being, with the intention of forgiving everything. You will find at the end of the week, you've not been angry one time. You will find also, that judgment is falling from you, you no longer have resentment, and those old grudges are gone. You'll feel lighter. You'll dance, you'll sing. And all of these things will happen to you, because you have been willing to forgive.

“Forgive, and live!”

Jesus Teaches On:

When You Stand Directly In The Light Of God, All Is Right; And You Are Whole

“I AM with you. I come to you in the light of God; and the light flows, and it is good. The light of God eliminates all shadow and darkness. The light of God is always yours. And when you stand, directly in the light of God, all is right, and you are whole, because you are ‘connected,’ to Home, you ‘know God,’ and you are confident, as you make your way over the Earth. It does not matter: the condition of your body; the state of your clothing; or, the home, in which you dwell. These things do not matter, when you stand in the light of God. That... is where... you find the miracles... and you see Earth... in a different way.

“It is like this... When one stands, outside, on a very sunny day, at 12:00 o’clock when the sun is high, and directly above, you will notice, if you stand in the light of the sun, there is no shadow on any side of you, because the sun is directly overhead; but if you move one way or the other, if you go here, or go there, you see a shadow. The further you go, from the sun, you will even find darkness; and that is what happened upon the Earth, for the gift of free will, very good in its purpose, was used, by those upon Earth, choosing to experiment, to experience, to see... Earth.

“But now it is time, for the children to return. In reality, the human race, which thousands of years ago, set its face, and walked, into the world, has now reached a point, where it has stopped, turned, and it is moving back, back to the light of the sun, weary of shadow and darkness, some willing, even to run, to reach the place, to find the space, where they are one, in a most magnificent way, with God.

“The most miraculous state... is a state... free! When you ‘forgive yourself,’ you begin to understand how ‘light,’ you can feel. And as you return, to stand in the light of God fully, from the core of your being, you begin to know... the importance... of forgiveness... forgiving yourself of every debt, every trespass, everything that you considered failure. Forgive. Forgive and free yourself. And as you begin to free yourself, you see the significance, of living, without this burden of guilt. And as you begin to comprehend this union with God, and the connection with forgiveness, you extend this gift to others, forgiving all, even when they do not ‘see the significance,’ forgive for them. Bless and forgive. This is the state of miracles, living in the light of God, fully, completely, forgiving all things.

“As I walked upon the Earth some thousands of years ago, people laughed, some mocked Me, when I would touch one, and heal them, and say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ they would say, ‘What is this? How does He think He can forgive sins?’ But I say to you, forgiveness is the seed of good health, of happiness, of wholeness, of completeness; forgiving, clearing yourself. Forgiveness increases love.

“As you look upon yourself, you are to love yourself, because at the core of your being, is the piece of God, your Creator, and it is for you to love. You will find ‘perfection, in love.’ And love is not to be confused with self-indulgence. I’m speaking of true love.

“Once you have forgiven yourself, and begin to love yourself fully and completely as God loves you, it will be easy for you to forgive others, and love others. And soon you will find, as you have done all of this repair to your spiritual body, your physical body will follow. You will live the rest of your life upon Earth, within the holy light of God, complete, full, happy! This is a promise.

“Stand in the light of God, completely, as if you were looking at the face of a clock, and God is twelve o’clock, and you are six. Stand directly in the light of God, and your days will be precious, your gifts will be many, your love will be complete, and your forgiveness unending. It is what God does for you. It is what you are to do for yourself, and others. Stand in the light, and be the light, so there is no shadow, so there is no darkness.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Remember, Read The Signs, And Know The Way

“I AM with you. Experience My presence with you; for as you open your arms and your heart, My presence is profoundly with you.

“We are all united. We know each other. We are one.

“Most of you, know the signs of the world. In fact, the signs of the world are so universally known, that there is no need for writing on the sign. The signs that are used to regulate traffic flow, have shapes, and colors, that most of you must know, even before you are given a license, or permission, to drive, to move along the thoroughfares of the world, in a motorized vehicle.

“When you see a sign, you do not need to know the language of the country you're in to realize you must, stop, or yield, or it is not permitted to enter. These things you are trained to know. They are visible. They are seen. They are signs, for the physical world. They are signs, showing you how to obey the rules and regulations established by the society you're in, whether it is very local, or global.

“Nature has signs. Some years ago, human beings lived more... in nature, in compliance with Earth. They could look at the sky, and know what the weather would be. They could walk upon the Earth, and feel the gentle motion of Earth, and know when she would be rising-up, or calming down. They looked to the stars for direction. They were more in balance and harmony... with Earth. The signs were all around them, and they were trained to know them.

“But as human beings moved more into... isolated cubicles, into buildings to work, and houses to live, they slowly became detached from the signs of Earth, no longer relying on their senses to tell when a storm was coming. It seems now, you turn on a television or a computer or a radio, or some device, to listen, or read, what another is telling you is going to happen. And slowly you rely on the machine, and another, to detect, or read the signs for you, telling you, it is going to rain, it is going to storm, it is going to be sunny. This, in and of itself, is neither good nor bad, it is a way of detecting; yet, it is relying on a machine, or another to tell you, what the sign is, reading the sign for you. And slowly you lose your ability to read the sign. You forget... how to tell when it is going to rain, or storm.

“The spiritual kingdom has signs. They are mystical signs, some would even say, magical signs. They are often unseen, most often unseen. But they are as real as the sign that says: stop, or yield, or do not enter. For when you are walking, in the realm of spirit... you feel, you sense... you know... which way to go. You know, if you are walking, with angry thoughts, frustrated, thinking of revenge, or getting even, that you are 'not,' walking in the path of light. You feel the difference between anger, and love, between frustration, and understanding. You know the feelings, the emotions, the signs, of Spirit.

“And you can read the signs, and know which way to go, the more you move in the spiritual realm. If you isolate yourself in the box of conformity, letting others tell you which way to go, or what to feel, or believe, or trust, or hope for, then you are denying your ability. You are restraining and confining, your magnificent, authentic self.

“Today, I invite you to come-out of the box, and walk over the Earth, connected to the spiritual kingdom, and you will begin to remember the signs. You will know the minute you feel confused, that it is time to sit, quietly, asking for guidance, and you will be shown The Way. The key... is to operate using gifts of The Holy Spirit of God. Choose compassion and understanding, forgiveness. Choose these things, over the heavier energies, which will slow you down, make The Way more difficult.

“Begin to remember... for you know the signs of the spiritual kingdom, and you have known them, long before you learned the rules and regulations of the world, you knew the signs, of the spiritual kingdom of God. It is time to remember... and to know the signs again, so that you might walk confidently over Earth, moving through every day, feeling, knowing, hearing, seeing Earth in a different way, feeling The Breath of Spirit lift-you-up, kiss your cheek, so that you might fly... on the wings... of The Dove.

“You know how to read the signs of the world, and you recognize their importance. Now remember, how to read the signs of the spiritual kingdom, and know their importance.

“Your life will change, be altered forever, when you move over Earth, reading the signs of Heaven, connecting with Home, knowing The Way.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Rise-up, And Turn On The Light, Within

“I AM with you. I come, moving through the corridors of all time, reaching-out My hand, to take yours. I show... The Way... so you might see it, clearly. I speak the words... so you might hear them... clearly. I live... so you might know eternity... with certainty, and confidence, in that which you see, and hear, and know.

“I did say the words... ‘You can do everything I do!’ I did also say the words... ‘If you believe in Me, if you believe that which I show you to see, and speak so you might hear, then you will do the things that I do.’ And I do not say, ‘the things I did;’ I say, ‘the things I do,’ because as I speak to you, it is within the arms of the eternal present.

“The day... you believe... beyond any doubt... that you are an eternal being... will be... the day miracles spring forth from your words, and your deeds. Verily I say unto you, miracles will spring forth from your thoughts. Therefore I say to you today, believe it! Do not be trapped, in the misconception, that when your time comes to an end, on Earth, that it is over, done, finished. There is change, as the butterfly springs forth. I say to you there is growth, as the child becomes a woman or a man. I say to you, you are eternal, come, take My hand. And once you embrace your eternal... being... you will begin to grow beyond any measure that you have known. Once you begin to remember eternity, all that has been holding you down, will fall from you, and you will rise-up to show The Way.

“If there is a great chorus, singing, making a big presentation, to the entire town, they will be trained carefully: to sing the right notes; when to breathe; when to hold the beat; when to let the great tremor rise-up, in a crescendo, and then come slowly to the end, bringing the audience into the song, into the glory, into what they are singing. But if there is one person within that chorus who is hearing another tune... counting... a different... beat, they seem to stand-out. In fact, often the case is, they are kicked-out, because they will not conform, or fall in line, with the song that is being sung. However, just because they are singing a different song, does not make the song unworthy to be heard.

“All things new... begin in the old. And all things... old, are washed and reborn in the new. Things change, and alter, and flow. This is what I’m telling you. Recognize... the eternal, authentic you! Sit for a minute, and connect. Break-free from your earthly body, and move into your light body, the body that holds the light of God, the body that is the light to illuminate... shadow and darkness. Connect... with your light body... and begin to realize eternity.

“Sing the song written on your heart. Come-out from under the table of conformity. Rise-up... confidently.

“Now some of you might be asking, ‘Well, how do we know what we are hearing within is ‘of light?’ How do we know, for certain?’ And I will tell you. If you are hearing from within you, to be angry, to be mistrusting of another, that is not of the light. The light will say, ‘love,’ ‘trust,’ and you can feel the difference. You know, at the core of your being, you feel, ‘hatred,’ ‘anger,’ ‘mistrust;’ and they do not feel the same, as ‘love,’ ‘compassion,’ ‘understanding.’ And these things of the light, take one who is more connected with their light body, to see clearly, beyond... that which is... worldly knowledge... into that which is... eternal wisdom.

“There is a saying amongst most of you today, that ‘It is time.’ Do not think... in such a small way... think globally, think of the entire Earth, think beyond the confines of where you stand; reach-out with your mind, with your voice, with your hand. And it is the same, with spiritual growth. Go beyond... where you are!

“When you are ready to do this, you will look around, and you will not see many of your brothers and sisters, standing next to you. This is because there is a temptation: to move as others move, to do as others do, to live within conformity, to ‘fit in.’ But what about that one individual, in the middle of the chorus, whose heart is singing another song? The song will never be heard, unless you are willing to step-away from the chorus, and sing your song. And I promise you this, you will always feel and know the difference, between: anger and compassion; mistrust and understanding; hatred and love.

“You know when you are in light. And when you are in light, you are enlightened. And when you are enlightened, it is time to come-out from under the table, so others might see and know.

“There is no need to try to convince, or to argue your point, or to cajole others. When it is their time, they will know the light, and seek it.

“You can invite, but you should not demand others to see and understand your light. Do not be concerned so much about, ‘... well, who will walk with me, who will be with me?’ It can be very lonely, holding the light alone.’ And I say to you, if you will step forward with confidence, in a very short time you will see others walking with you. You will not have to convince them, or argue. There will be peace, and balance, and harmony, because they are not following, just because you demand it. They are following the light, because that is what they are seeking. You can stand in the light of God, and others will be called to you, like the ships, lost in the dark sea, see the light of the lighthouse, and follow.

“And if each one of you, will step forward with confidence, in the light of God, there will be so much light, that it will be impossible to be lost, because the light will illuminate the shadow and darkness.

“And for those of you who know you are to show The Way, I ask you to turn around, and see what is behind you. Yes, that is where you will see them. When your thoughts are on the light, or of the light, your words, give life to the light of your thought, and your deeds follow, magnifying the light within you.

“Do not seek so much to be understood by others, as to understand the light within you. And to understand the light within you, all that is required, is for you to... sit quietly... and pronounce, ‘I desire the wisdom to understand the light within me.’ For whatever you ask for, within the light, you will receive.

“It is time... .. and you are ready. The time of miracles is at hand; but first you must connect with your light body, and then move over Earth as the eternal being you know you are.

“Look around you, and you will see. It is time to open your eyes and see Earth differently. It is time to open your eyes and see your brothers and sisters differently.

“Wake-up! It is time to see yourself differently: enlightened... eternal... the son... the daughter... the child of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Be Willing, To Believe

“I AM with you!

“I place My hand, upon your brow, and wipe away the sweat. I AM willing to hold your burden.

“I take My finger, and lift the tear from your cheek. I AM willing to hold your burden.

“I place My arm upon your shoulder, to help you carry the load. I AM willing to hold your burden.

“I whisper upon your heart, which needs love. I AM willing to hold your burden.

“I hold your feet within My hands, especially when you have lost The Way. I AM willing to hold your burden.

“I reach down, for you, and say, ‘Give Me your hand, I’ll show you The Way.’ I AM willing to hold your burden.

“Everyone, every individual, every being, walking upon the Earth, encounters situations, from the time of your birth, until it is time for you to return Home. Some situations are occasions of celebration and happiness. Some situations... are recognizing... challenges and obstacles. Today I give you a secret; I hand you a key, The Key to surmounting difficult times, times of burden and heaviness, when shadows and darkness threaten...

“When your faith is challenged, all you have to do, is be still, and
whisper, upon your heart,
‘I am willing –to–
believe!’

“Repeat the words, as a sacred song. They will be the key that will open the door, to the chamber held within you. And once the door is open: you will see; you will feel the hand of God touching you, as your heart sings-out once again, ‘I am willing to believe;’ and God’s hands lift-you-up, and place you, in the lap... of comfort... and peace. And as you nestle there, in solitude and stillness, your soul reverberates and echoes... ‘I am willing to believe.’

“When you are tired, when you are burdened, when you are sick, you are challenged. The obstacles seem to come, in greater size. It is at these times that it is important to set yourself aside. Find a place that is quiet, peaceful, serene. And then, rest your spirit! For, it is possible to sleep, and sit, and rest your body, while within you are in turmoil, and chaos, and confusion. Stillness of the body does not necessarily mean that your inner landscape is still. Seek to be at peace within your spirit first, and your body will follow, and then your thoughts will reflect the joining of your spirit and body, and your mind will begin to wander in the pastures and fields of tranquility. And as that is where your mind is, your words will reflect your thoughts, and you will find that you are speaking peaceful words, thinking peaceful thoughts; and you will move slightly and realize you are still, held, in the lap of God.

“Yes, in the lap of God... is where you find peace... sit awhile. And when you have been nourished, and loved, you will recognize, the song of your heart has changed, it has moved ever so slightly from the words, ‘I am willing to believe,’ transformed in the lap of God. As you get down, kiss the hands, and move back through the chamber door, ready to walk into the world, you sing... a new song...

“I believe!”

Jesus Teaches On:

Sing, Your Song, Dance, Your Dance, And You Will Know Peace

“I AM with you. Feel Me. Acknowledge the change you feel about the air, moving gently.

“I AM with you. To ‘know,’ My presence with you, requires that you open, and accept it. Accept the possibility, and realize the reality, of eternal life!

“At the core of your being, you comprehend that you are an eternal being. You see people, perhaps your own family members, going through a time of transition, when their bodies, possibly racked with disease, finally: give-up, grow tired, fall from them. Yet a very small piece within you, denies death... it is the truth... for the body is something you have wrapped around your soul and spirit, to allow you to navigate, the atmosphere of Earth, to have an earthly experience, to feel and know flesh; but the authentic you... is eternal... just as I AM eternal. These things, I attempted to share, as I walked upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago. Many times, I put the words I wished to say, in a parable, or a statement, which could be applied to many situations; doing this, so that those who were awakened, would hear, and know; and those who were still asleep, would let the words go, where it best suited.

“You arrived upon the Earth, within a package, your body; and there is ‘a set of directions,’ on how to use your body, so that you might be content, within your spirit, as you live upon the Earth. The set of directions is written on your heart, and calls to you, sometimes frequently. I promise you this, ‘Your days will be spent in contentment, if you will: harken... to the words, of your heart... respond to the desire, of your heart. If you will sing the words, written upon your heart... they will sound a symphony, of your soul, and your spirit will soar... in recognition... of the magnificent piece... the authentic you.’

“The Creator of All things, God, Our Father, our Eternal Parent, does not demand ‘sameness.; God celebrates... ‘authenticity.’ You are a thread, in the tapestry, of the great story of creation, moving in and out, creating a scene. Each scene is composed of millions of threads, yet each scene is not complete, without each piece of the thread. It is beautiful and fascinating. It is not boring, it is changing, as the threads move, twisting and winding and weaving. It: is melodious to watch, creates music, without sound. It is a mystery of life.

“But I tell you this, ‘Life will no longer be a mystery, it will be a miracle, if you will allow, all those you encounter to sing their own song and dance their own dance, blessing, free will choices, and watching in amazement, as the miracles occur, even within the choices.

“I speak to you of this today, because I would like you to sit, and pray, and understand the importance of every woman, child, and man. Go beyond what they see themselves even, and recognize... every child of God... as a unique piece of the magnificent whole. It is beautiful. It is changing. It is the same. It is many. It is one. It is divine, and eternal, just as you are divine, and eternal.

“My brothers and sisters, My words to you were sincere direction, on what is possible for you to do; when you are connected, with All That Is, you can do everything, I do.

“And it all begins, with acknowledging, the directions written on your heart, then singing the song... that is yours to sing... dancing your dance... and it will bring your spirit to a place, where it will soar.

“This day ‘know,’ I have delivered unto you, the direction for contentment; and in a state of contentment, you will know peace; and when you sit in peace, you will know joy.

“Be at peace!”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Change, The Miracle, Happens When You Act Within The Light Of God

“I AM with you. I AM with you... eternally... for The Kingdom of God lives, Heaven is real, and at the moment, you find yourself, living the journey... of Earth. I say to you, My brothers and sisters, be at peace as you walk upon the Earth, for your journey is rich and full, packed with experience.

“I too walked upon the Earth. I said many things, some of which were greatly criticized by those who could not open their heart to the new covenant of love. The new covenant of love has to do with: loving the one, who strikes your face; blessing the one, who curses you; it has to do with giving all you have to another, simply because they asked; it has to do with those of you, walking upon Earth, realizing... that it is temporary; and, the eternal life... is just that... eternal.

“The covenant of love is accepted by those who understand and comprehend, that one person can make all the difference, in the world, when that one person is willing: to be the love of God; to set the intention that, when they encounter hatred, it ends with them, for they will not feed it, no matter what happens; it has to do with setting an intention that, when you encounter chaos and confusion, the chaos and confusion ends, because you have no intention, of adding to it, to magnifying it. The intention is set within the one who knows, that the light of God is what is to grow on Earth. It is what Earth needs.

“Chaos is rampant. It needs... to be stopped... but it cannot be stopped: by battles, by wars, by engaging in arguments. All of the things created, thousands of years ago, growing day by day, can be stopped... by love... simple, pure, pristine... love, the most powerful... energy... of creation!

“God has sent each of you onto the Earth prepared, filled with the grace, to walk through every situation, and to do so, in the light of God.

“I call those of you, who are stumbling in the valleys of despair. I call those of you, who are struggling up a mountain, yet still in darkness. I call those of you, who feel backed into a corner, with nowhere to go. I call to you, and I say come, sit with Me, in this verdant pasture, and let us see the glory, of God, together.

“Come sit, here. The closer you come to Me, the more you will feel Me. I AM Spirit, I AM in Heaven, I AM with you, for distance and time cannot keep us apart, The Kingdom of God is near. And as many of you gather around Me, I say, be still and see, with the eyes of God. Do not be so focused, on a very small piece, of your lifetime, or another's lifetime, that you cannot see the whole picture. The whole picture is the eternal tapestry of creation, and there are many threads. Yet without each thread in place, the tapestry is not complete. Back-up and see the tapestry of creation. See it, as it is... as it truly is magnificent.

“Many of you will encounter, along your journey upon the Earth, situations in which you are uncomfortable, feel pain, meet sorrow. You cannot change the situation, for it comes to you: through choices made by many others... sometimes; sometimes the situation in which you find yourself was created by you, with others helping; but no matter what you do, the situation is. The Way to alter, and change, the situation, is by being still, and going within, understanding the importance of what you are doing. And the glory comes, when you refuse to engage, to react. For in reacting, you are acting within the energy that is. But if you stop, and forgive, and pardon, and love, and understand, and are compassionate, if you are at peace within the gifts of God, you do not react... you act... from the glory of God. And in this way, the hand of God touches every situation that is, and from it... All That Is good and holy brings lessons... valuable lessons... so others see and know.

“Somewhere right now, there is a child riding a bicycle, and there is a woman behind the wheel of a car, and in seconds the two will collide, neither at fault, one looking one way, and one the other. Yet the outcome would be... a situation that is most uncomfortable. How do you deal with the death of a child, and the grief of one driving the car that struck the child? You cannot alter the situation. What you can do is stand in the noble light of God. And God sees. And in the strangest of ways, this situation... is good, because the light of God touches it, and each one involved, has the opportunity: to bless rather than curse, to love rather than hate; to embrace the light of God, and bring it into the situation.

“That is an extreme case. But right now, there are other things happening. Somewhere, there is a group of people, gossiping about another, spreading stories which are not true, or magnifying a small truth into a great lie. It is the situation in which one finds themselves, sometimes. And you cannot change it, once it happens. But you can bless it. You can master what you do. The one caught in such a situation does not have to react in fear and anger. It will only make things worse. But if you stop, and let the light of God, flow through you, blessing those who curse you, and loving those who hate you, you change everything; because then, you are the lips of God, you are the hands of God... upon Earth.

“I speak to you today, so that you understand. You will encounter situations, and you cannot change them, by engaging and reacting to them. The change, the miracle, happens, when you choose, of your own free-will, to act, within the light of God.

“Look around you and you will see it. Those acting in the light of God are at peace. They move... slowly, yet with intention. They are sure of where they are going, and they know what they will say. They will always say, ‘I love you. I forgive you. I am sorry.’ And they will always... be at peace.

“Today, take a little bit of time, and back away from what you are focusing your attention on, and you will begin to see a bigger picture. Some of you will be ‘blessed’ to see a portion of The Divine Tapestry. The trees will no longer look the same. The birds will no longer sound the same. And in the process, you will never be the same, because you will always... be... at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Honor Your Eternal Parent, For The Guidance Is Good And The Gifts Are Plentiful

“I AM with you. I move through the corridors of time, I reach-out, and touch you, for I AM, truly, with you. You are never alone!

“For many of you, hearing these words or reading these words, this day is a day set aside to honor fathers, an earthly parent. And so I give you this brief example. Let us say, a father, using the wisdom of his age, his history, his time upon Earth, passes words of guidance, direction, or wisdom, to one of his children. If the child hears the words, but doesn't think much about them, goes about his way, pays them no heed, in all possibility, he might: walk in error, make a mistake. But the child who hears the words, and sits with them a while, asking for guidance, and coming to understand the reasoning, and the wisdom in the words, this child uses the guidance, and the way is made clear. And when the challenge approaches, there is confidence, remembering the words, and taking courage, knowing how to circumnavigate the obstacles, or eliminate the challenges, with wisdom, with words of guidance.

“And it is the same, with the words of wisdom that flow to the children of Earth from your Eternal Parent: sometimes in dreams; sometimes through prophets; sometimes on the lips of another; sometimes in the song of a bird; or in the flowing stream or river; or carried on a leaf, falling from a tree, floating gently on the breeze. You will always receive words of guidance, from your Eternal Parent.

“If you hear the words, but do not act upon them, they will be of little value. Yes, even great words, magnificent words, words of wisdom, will be of little use to you, unless you sit with them, unless they become you, they work their way into you, so you know them at the core of your being, so that you understand the wisdom of the word. And in this way, you are strong and confident, courageous.

“It is this way, if you hear the word, and carry the word to the core of your being, and sit with it, praying for guidance to understand and comprehend the word, you are as a man or a woman building a house, but before you lay the foundation, you dig deep, you go down until you find rock-sturdy, ground level, and there you lay the foundation, and then you pile-up the earth around it, and continue building your house. It is strong. It is sturdy. It will withstand... the storms. “But if you take the words, and slip them in your pocket, or hold them in your hand, you are like the man that takes the building materials for the house, and just begins erecting a house, right on the top of the sand, no structure, no foundation, no rock-solid base. And even though the two houses might appear similar, when the storm comes, the one that has little, if any, foundation will be knocked down, destroyed, because it cannot stand the storm.

“If you take the words of wisdom, however they are delivered to you, and carry them to the core of your being... bedrock... the place where you are to begin your foundation, you will find that the path is easier, because you know what you are doing. You see, there is a difference in receiving a gift and setting it on the shelf, or putting it to good use! And when you put something to good use you begin to know it. You know its funny little ways, sometimes that you have to turn it this way, or that way, to get it to work. But get it to work you do, because you know it. And, it is useful, in your hands.

“This day I ask you to pay attention to the first message you receive; listen, but do not act so quickly. Take the message to the core of your being, and ask for guidance, and you will begin to know the gift, to know the word. You will be able to set the foundation straight, and begin to build on a house that is on a solid, firm foundation, which will withstand any storm, because you are confident, ‘in the knowing.’

“Just as your earthly father offers guidance – on how to move and navigate, as you are upon the Earth – your Eternal Parent – gives you guidance – on how to navigate through all time, on how to live eternally, with confidence, and courage.

“This day is set aside to honor fathers. Take a few minutes today to honor your Eternal Parent, for the guidance is good, and the gifts are plentiful.”

Jesus Teaches On:

When You Stand Directly In The Light Of God, All Is Right; And You Are Whole

“I AM with you. I come to you in the light of God; and the light flows, and it is good. The light of God eliminates all shadow and darkness. The light of God is always yours. And when you stand, directly in the light of God, all is right, and you are whole, because you are ‘connected,’ to Home, you ‘know God,’ and you are confident, as you make your way over the Earth. It does not matter: the condition of your body; the state of your clothing; or, the home, in which you dwell. These things do not matter, when you stand in the light of God. That... is where... you find the miracles... and you see Earth... in a different way.

“It is like this... When one stands, outside, on a very sunny day, at 12:00 o’clock when the sun is high, and directly above, you will notice, if you stand in the light of the sun, there is no shadow on any side of you, because the sun is directly overhead; but if you move one way or the other, if you go here, or go there, you see a shadow. The further you go, from the sun, you will even find darkness; and that is what happened upon the Earth, for the gift of free will, very good in its purpose, was used, by those upon Earth, choosing to experiment, to experience, to see... Earth.

“But now it is time, for the children to return. In reality, the human race, which thousands of years ago, set its face, and walked, into the world, has now reached a point, where it has stopped, turned, and it is moving back, back to the light of the sun, weary of shadow and darkness, some willing, even to run, to reach the place, to find the space, where they are one, in a most magnificent way, with God.

“The most miraculous state... is a state... free! When you ‘forgive yourself,’ you begin to understand how ‘light,’ you can feel. And as you return, to stand in the light of God fully, from the core of your being, you begin to know... the importance... of forgiveness... forgiving yourself of every debt, every trespass, everything that you considered failure. Forgive. Forgive and free yourself. And as you begin to free yourself, you see the significance, of living, without this burden of guilt. And as you begin to comprehend this union with God, and the connection with forgiveness, you extend this gift to others, forgiving all, even when they do not ‘see the significance,’ forgive for them. Bless and forgive. This is the state of miracles, living in the light of God, fully, completely, forgiving all things.

“As I walked upon the Earth some thousands of years ago, people laughed, some mocked Me, when I would touch one, and heal them, and say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ they would say, ‘What is this? How does He think He can forgive sins?’ But I say to you, forgiveness is the seed of good health, of happiness, of wholeness, of completeness; forgiving, clearing yourself. Forgiveness increases love.

“As you look upon yourself, you are to love yourself, because at the core of your being, is the piece of God, your Creator, and it is for you to love. You will find ‘perfection, in love.’ And love is not to be confused with self-indulgence. I’m speaking of true love.

“Once you have forgiven yourself, and begin to love yourself fully and completely as God loves you, it will be easy for you to forgive others, and love others. And soon you will find, as you have done all of this repair to your spiritual body, your physical body will follow. You will live the rest of your life upon Earth, within the holy light of God, complete, full, happy! This is a promise.

“Stand in the light of God, completely, as if you were looking at the face of a clock, and God is twelve o’clock, and you are six. Stand directly in the light of God, and your days will be precious, your gifts will be many, your love will be complete, and your forgiveness unending. It is what God does for you. It is what you are to do for yourself, and others. Stand in the light, and be the light, so there is no shadow, so there is no darkness.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Change, The Miracle, Happens When You Act Within The Light Of God

“I AM with you. I AM with you... eternally... for The Kingdom of God lives, Heaven is real, and at the moment, you find yourself, living the journey... of Earth. I say to you, My brothers and sisters, be at peace as you walk upon the Earth, for your journey is rich and full, packed with experience.

“I too walked upon the Earth. I said many things, some of which were greatly criticized by those who could not open their heart to the new covenant of love. The new covenant of love has to do with: loving the one, who strikes your face; blessing the one, who curses you; it has to do with giving all you have to another, simply because they asked; it has to do with those of you, walking upon Earth, realizing... that it is temporary; and, the eternal life... is just that... eternal.

“The covenant of love is accepted by those who understand and comprehend, that one person can make all the difference, in the world, when that one person is willing: to be the love of God; to set the intention that, when they encounter hatred, it ends with them, for they will not feed it, no matter what happens; it has to do with setting an intention that, when you encounter chaos and confusion, the chaos and confusion ends, because you have no intention, of adding to it, to magnifying it. The intention is set within the one who knows, that the light of God is what is to grow on Earth. It is what Earth needs.

“Chaos is rampant. It needs... to be stopped... but it cannot be stopped: by battles, by wars, by engaging in arguments. All of the things created, thousands of years ago, growing day by day, can be stopped... by love... simple, pure, pristine... love, the most powerful... energy... of creation!

“God has sent each of you onto the Earth prepared, filled with the grace, to walk through every situation, and to do so, in the light of God.

“I call those of you, who are stumbling in the valleys of despair. I call those of you, who are struggling up a mountain, yet still in darkness. I call those of you, who feel backed into a corner, with nowhere to go. I call to you, and I say come, sit with Me, in this verdant pasture, and let us see the glory, of God, together.

“Come sit, here. The closer you come to Me, the more you will feel Me. I AM Spirit, I AM in Heaven, I AM with you, for distance and time cannot keep us apart, The Kingdom of God is near. And as many of you gather around Me, I say, be still and see, with the eyes of God. Do not be so focused, on a very small piece, of your lifetime, or another's lifetime, that you cannot see the whole picture. The whole picture is the eternal tapestry of creation, and there are many threads. Yet without each thread in place, the tapestry is not complete. Back-up and see the tapestry of creation. See it, as it is... as it truly is magnificent.

“Many of you will encounter, along your journey upon the Earth, situations in which you are uncomfortable, feel pain, meet sorrow. You cannot change the situation, for it comes to you: through choices made by many others... sometimes; sometimes the situation in which you find yourself was created by you, with others helping; but no matter what you do, the situation is. The Way to alter, and change, the situation, is by being still, and going within, understanding the importance of what you are doing. And the glory comes, when you refuse to engage, to react. For in reacting, you are acting within the energy that is. But if you stop, and forgive, and pardon, and love, and understand, and are compassionate, if you are at peace within the gifts of God, you do not react... you act... from the glory of God. And in this way, the hand of God touches every situation that is, and from it... All That Is good and holy brings lessons... valuable lessons... so others see and know.

“Somewhere right now, there is a child riding a bicycle, and there is a woman behind the wheel of a car, and in seconds the two will collide, neither at fault, one looking one way, and one the other. Yet the outcome would be... a situation that is most uncomfortable. How do you deal with the death of a child, and the grief of one driving the car that struck the child? You cannot alter the situation. What you can do is stand in the noble light of God. And God sees. And in the strangest of ways, this situation... is good, because the light of God touches it, and each one involved, has the opportunity: to bless rather than curse, to love rather than hate; to embrace the light of God, and bring it into the situation.

“That is an extreme case. But right now, there are other things happening. Somewhere, there is a group of people, gossiping about another, spreading stories which are not true, or magnifying a small truth into a great lie. It is the situation in which one finds themselves, sometimes. And you cannot change it, once it happens. But you can bless it. You can master what you do. The one caught in such a situation does not have to react in fear and anger. It will only make things worse. But if you stop, and let the light of God, flow through you, blessing those who curse you, and loving those who hate you, you change everything; because then, you are the lips of God, you are the hands of God... upon Earth.

“I speak to you today, so that you understand. You will encounter situations, and you cannot change them, by engaging and reacting to them. The change, the miracle, happens, when you choose, of your own free-will, to act, within the light of God.

“Look around you and you will see it. Those acting in the light of God are at peace. They move... slowly, yet with intention. They are sure of where they are going, and they know what they will say. They will always say, ‘I love you. I forgive you. I am sorry.’ And they will always... be at peace.

“Today, take a little bit of time, and back away from what you are focusing your attention on, and you will begin to see a bigger picture. Some of you will be ‘blessed’ to see a portion of The Divine Tapestry. The trees will no longer look the same. The birds will no longer sound the same. And in the process, you will never be the same, because you will always... be... at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Heed The Directions Received In Prayer, And Move Forward, With Confidence

“I AM with you. I AM with you – to encourage you – to move into the new day, into the new week, with confidence, looking ahead, living in the present, optimistic, filled with the joy of life, ‘knowing,’ what you are doing.

“I remind you: you are bringing The Holy Spirit of God into the world of humankind; you are resurrecting The Garden, so that it might know its full potential, as God intended; you are living in The Kingdom. That is what you are doing, when you are in light.

“No matter where you find yourself, as you hear these words, or read these words, you are on the journey, a piece of the journey, you are living the journey of your lifetime, and it is a piece of eternity. Some of you might be in a place of joy, happiness. Some of you might find you are bit tired today, the weight of the world, can be a burden to carry. Some of you might be lost, confused, and in chaos. So hear Me, as I say these things. It is time to rise-up, and walk into the new day. If you are hesitant, if there is something holding you back, from your forward progress, ‘know,’ that it is time to recognize, and see, that this is not helping you; it is confining and restraining you; it is limiting you.

“It is not meant for you to live in fear. That is why you are given gifts, the gifts of The Holy Spirit, so that you know what to do when you encounter fear; but it is not required for you to live in fear. Use wisdom, use compassion or understanding, use the gifts of The Holy Spirit, to assist you in seeing clearly, and recognizing, ‘fear, freezes you,’ it is as a concrete weight upon your feet, holding you in place, denying you forward progress. See what is holding you down, or back, and free yourself of it. You have the ability; you have the gifts; but, you must use them.

“When you see a farmer, plowing the field, preparing to plant, you see one working, moving forward, sometimes slowly, sometimes quickly. But if the farmer keeps looking behind, twisting from one side to the other, the rows are no longer straight, and the way is difficult and confusing. You must carry the lessons from the past – to assist you – in your daily activity, so you can avoid the stumbling stones, the obstacles, so that you can see the challenge, and know what to do.

“Your past and the past of others, is a valuable tool, as long as it does not impede you. You want the knowledge of the past – to help you – succeed, using the lesson, not desiring to go to the past, to live in the past, using the past to help you move into a new day, with confidence. And this is what using the gifts of The Holy Spirit will do for you. It is time to move forward.

“There is a game that is most popular in the United States of America, and the game is baseball. You have a certain number of players, and you have coaches that assist the players along the way, umpires watching, people making sure that the rules are obeyed, and the game is fair. And you have one person that comes to the plate, and it is his or her turn, they are ‘at bat.’ And the ball is thrown, and contact is made with the bat, and the ball flies into the air, success! And the runner begins running forward. The runner does not ‘stop, and look around to see what’s going on.’ The runner should no more than take a glance to see where the ball is going. The runner runs, as the coaches, as those who see clearly what is going on, give the direction, ‘Keep going, keep going,’ or, ‘Stop.’

“This could be applied to your life. Sometimes you are so busy, sometimes you have knocked the ball high into the air, and it’s time to move forward. That is when you pray, and ask for direction, and you will receive it, because God sees all things. And if you stop to look around, you will not move forward in a timely fashion. Listen, as the runner listens, rounding the bases heading for home, to cheers, adulation.

“Sometimes, when you are in the thick-of-things, you must count on those who can see clearly, which way to go. And there is no clearer direction, than that which comes to you, from God! And you can be sure when it’s time to stay on-base you will not be told to run.

“When it is time to go forward, you have the tools you need. There is no need to get stuck in chaos and confusion: when you are carrying the gifts of wisdom and understanding; when you have fruits with you that will sustain you; when you use such things as love, and kindness; when your wisdom comes from The Holy Spirit. You will encounter obstacles and challenges, but you will not be stuck in the energy that fuels them. You will see, and know, and continue on your journey.

“So I say to you this day, if you feel stuck, if you are in-a-rut, if you don’t seem to be able to move, pray! Close the windows and the doors, and do not listen to the cries of the world, for the way they will tell you to go changes, person to person, rule to rule, regulation to regulation, standard to standard; but the guidance you receive in the quiet, solitude of prayer, will tell you when to run, or when to stay on base. And it will be clear. You will ‘know,’ that it came from God. And, in this Way, you know, your path will be made clear.

“Use the gifts. Use the fruits. They are yours for a reason... so that you can walk through your daily life, completing your journey, with confidence. It is not necessary to live in fear. It is not necessary to live in doubt, and chaos, and confusion; but it is necessary to use that which you have been given, so that you might grow in wisdom and confidence.

“It is time to move into the new day. Stand-up, and follow Me.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Receive The Gifts, Live An Abundant Life, And Know, It Is Eternal

“I AM with you. When you call to Me, I answer the call. As one bird calls-out, from the branch of a tree, the greeting song, another responds, ‘I am here. I am with you. You are not alone.’ I call to you, and say, ‘I AM with you. You are not alone!’

“You are on a journey, walking over the Earth, and I did the same thing, a little more than two thousand years ago was the date of My birth. As I arrived upon the Earth, there were those who came with gifts. The stories talk of the wise men, who traveled from afar, bringing gifts, following a star, an outward sign, which is continued today, when greeting a child just born. Those around them, wishing to show support for their journey say, ‘I love you. I give you a gift.’ This is the way you begin life on Earth, with those gathered around you to show you love and support.

“If this is carried on upon the Earth, it is only a glimpse, a glimmer, of what is given to you by your Eternal Parent. God says, ‘Here you are, a shining star! My child, you come from Me. I support you in all you need. Here are the gifts. Go forth. Be free. Live!’

“Right now, if you are hearing My words, or reading My words, you are living a life on Earth. And you carry the gifts, marking your birth, not the earthly birth, your eternal birth. And these are the ‘treasures,’ which will give you assistance, for moving over the Earth peacefully, in harmony with All That Is.

“For the giving of a gift to be complete, it must be received; you must accept the gift, and use it, for when you use that which you have been given, something is born in the using of it. If you have been given a violin, and you play it, the fruit is the song it sings! If you have been given a shirt, or a dress, the fruit that comes from the wearing of the shirt or the dress is the feeling of joy and confidence it brings. And when you use the gifts God has given you, the fruits are the blessings upon Earth, which spring forth every time you use a gift. For in the using of the gift, the fruits of joy and happiness, compassion, understanding, peace, love, balance, harmony, all of the good things that you can imagine, blossom in the garden you are creating. This is ‘The Life.’ This is ‘The Abundant Life.’ This is ‘the life,’ I spoke about.

“Many of you will remember, from the reading of the words, some of you will remember, by being told the words, but I did say, that ‘You can do everything I am doing, and even greater things.’ I did say this. I could say it, with confidence, because the things that I did, were done through the power, and the love, and the glory of God! And this same love, and power, and glory – from The Creator of All Things – are available for you to use!

“Once you use the gifts, you begin to feel confident. Your faith, in God’s ability to work through you, grows, and so does your garden. It is sitting down under a tree, and realizing...

remembering... accepting... that God can do all things through you! And where there is the hand of God, there is an abundant life... life!

“Do not think that the ‘piece of eternity,’ you are living right now, upon the Earth, is all that is. It was important that you know... that there is more. When I said you can do everything I am doing, there was no exception, no little star indicating ‘see below,’ ‘You can do almost everything I do.’ That’s not the case. You can do it all, by letting God work through you. And when your time upon the Earth is done, you will experience passing, from the body of dust, back to reality, using your light body to move over eternity. This is why (when) I died of the earthly body, and rose-up, and visited those I loved, those near Me, so they could see, so they could see the light body, and all the glory, so they would ‘know,’ there is more, of the creation story, than you remember sometimes.

“Today, hold ‘My promise, as the treasure it is. You can do everything I do.’

“Receive the gifts, bear the fruits, and live an abundant life, without fear... that life ends... living... is eternal.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Know The Difference Between "What Is," And "All That Is"

"I AM with you today. I AM with you, eternally, for life... is eternal. It is the portions, the pieces of life, which change.

"You would not desire to stay a child forever, anymore than you would want to be an infant forever. You would not desire to be an adolescent... when you could embrace the joys, of adulthood... walking over the Earth with the knowledge that you've gathered, during the time that you grew from an infant, to a child, to an adolescent. It is an opportunity; it is growing; it is experience; it is living the life you were intended to live upon Earth. And it is the same with your eternal life. There are stages of living. And while you are in one stage, it seems just the perfect place to be. But once you move on to another stage, you look back and see, that at the present time you're in just the perfect place to be. It is the process... of life. And I confirm for you that life is eternal. It is the change of the period, the piece, the portion of life, which is altered, and modified. But these periods, within your eternal life, are what bring to you... the essence... of all... life!

"Today I encourage you, to be still so that you might know the difference, between 'what is,' and, 'all that is.'

"I ask you to release your hold, on human standards, so that you might embrace the ring... of 'heavenly standards!' Do not fall into the excuse, of saying, '...well, I'm only human. It is human to get angry, when someone speaks to you this way.' And I say, see that for, 'what is,' and begin to explore how you can take that particular situation... and create from it, 'all that is,' by shining the light of God, upon that situation. For, once you try it, once the situation is illuminated by the light of God, it no longer is, 'what is,' it is, 'all that is;' for out of it will come the lesson, and the glory. But you must be willing, to live another story. You must be willing to set aside the hold you have on accepting, 'human standards,' as the standards to live by, and embrace 'the glorious standards, of God.' It is up to you to make the change! And when you begin to work this way, to live this way, you would never want to go back to do it... any other way. It will bring you joy and peace. It will bring you confidence to 'know,' that no matter what comes your way, you are going to meet it, with: understanding and compassion, forgiveness, light! You're going to use the eternal wisdom of God to move through it, and make it better, for your presence.

"I will give you an example... of, 'what is.' Let us say, due to some situation, maybe you're just tired when you get home, but let us say, you neglect cleaning your house, you neglect picking-up the clothes, you neglect washing the dishes, you neglect taking-out the trash. You are living in neglect, because you are tired. That is, 'what is.'

“But what if you recognize, what the neglect is doing, and even in your tired state, you begin slowly cleaning-up the mess you have created: washing the dishes, picking-up the clothes, sweeping the floor, opening the windows, even the door. It looks better. You are on your way to, ‘all that is.’ And the final touch is finding an old vase, pushed to the back of the cupboard, filling it with water, and flowers. And with that final touch, a loving gift, you alter, ‘what is,’ and change it, by what you do, so that it is, ‘all that is,’ glorious and clean, with the fragrance of the flowers of Earth.

“The same can be said about... the things you eat. In your tired state, you begin to... not care too much... you grab this or that, make it do. Your meals are, ‘what is.’ But when you recognize this, and you see it, you are quickly on your way towards, ‘all that is;’ and you begin to use the talents that you have, to enhance your meals with vegetables, and spices, and herbs, so that you are no longer just... consuming food... you are dining with delight. And in that process, you have made a difference. You have changed, ‘what is,’ and created, ‘all that is,’ tasty and good, bringing you balance and harmony within your body.

“It is the same thing with... washing your clothes. Let’s say, over a few weeks, you created spots on your pants, and you’ve got a bit of butter on your shirt, or your socks are soiled, from walking through the mud. The clothes you are wearing have the spots of your life. That is, ‘what is.’ But if you see it, and are willing to change, on the way towards, ‘all that is,’ you gather-up the clothing, some soap, water, put them in the washing machine; and, because of your willingness... to do, to act, you create... a closet full of clean clothes, free of all the spots of yesterday, ready to go-out into the new day.

“You see, in these simple ways, you can see very clearly, ‘what is,’ has been changed by your willingness... to create something better... you are on the pathway towards, ‘all that is.’

“Do not accept the situation upon Earth, as the standard, the human standard. See it, for what it is, and be willing to pick-up this standard that I hand you today. It is the standard of: God, The King of Heaven, The Holy Spirit. And upon this standard, you will see, clearly displayed, all the gifts of The Holy Spirit, and intertwined with the gifts, are the fruits the gifts will bear. This is to be your standard. This is what will lift Earth to its proper place. Every situation you encounter this week, can be, ‘all that is,’ if you reject: frustration, and chaos, and confusion, sadness, worry, and concern, anxiety, any of the emotions, that you have been ‘taught,’ are the norm, in favor of: love, kindness, understanding, compassion.

“If you will walk into the situation of, ‘what is,’ willing to lift it to, ‘all that is,’ the world begins to change around you. The change begins at your doorstep. You no longer have to seek, because you are!

“This week, see, ‘what is,’ filled with the possibilities of, ‘All That Is,’ and you will truly be at peace.”

Jesus Teaches On:

I Promise, And Guarantee, An Abundant Life

“I AM with you. As surely as the sun rises, and the new day breaks, promising the gift... of life upon the Earth... I AM with you. I AM with you, as the birds awaken to the glory of this new encounter, a part of the journey, they have yet to experience.

“I AM with you. I AM with you, delivering a reminder... a guarantee... of eternal life... riches... wealth... abundance... beyond what you can imagine.

“The world cannot promise, or guarantee, that by filling your coffers with the money of the world, you will know wealth. The world cannot promise, or guarantee, that by draping your body with necklaces, and watches, and rings, and fashionable pins, that you will shine, brilliantly. The world cannot promise, or guarantee, that by hanging in your closet the finest wardrobe, that you will be well-suited for every occasion. The world cannot promise, or guarantee, that by gathering boats, and cars, and airplanes that you will travel the right path, going in the right direction. The world cannot promise, or guarantee, that by building a castle in which to live, you will know comfort, peace, and contentment.

“But I do promise you... and I guarantee... that by using the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God, which have been given to you, as precious seeds, you will bear the fruits, and they will be many, and the fruits you bear from using the gifts, the precious seeds, will sustain you, fill you with life, and provide abundance, of all that you need. You will have what you need to know wealth... true wealth. You will shine, brilliantly, in joy and contentment. No matter what you have on, as clothing, you will be well-suited for every occasion, because happiness will be your companion... and you will love... all around you. You will always be on the right path, because you will know The Way, and you will know where you are going. And no matter where you rest your head, you will find peace, comfort, and contentment.

“The world cannot promise or guarantee these things... but your Eternal Parent can... and does promise... and guarantee... this: life, of eternal abundance, which is not something of tomorrow, but gifts for today... joy, patience, all of the things produced by compassion and love... all of the good of the world... is yours. It is yours to hold, and to give. It is yours to plant, and to harvest. It is yours. It is a promise. It is a guarantee. It is life, more abundant that you can imagine, and it is, already, with you.

“This day, rise-up and open the gifts! Plant the seeds, so that you might harvest the fruits, that you are producing. It is all... within you. Abundant life... is your!

Jesus Teaches On:

By The Fruit, You Know The Tree

“I AM with you. I AM with you this day, and you do feel My presence, as you hear the words I say to you. And as you hear the words, they fall upon you, as seeds upon fertile ground, blessed, by The Holy Spirit of God, touched, by The Hand of God, delivered unto you, by the Son of God. For this day I speak to you, again, of orchids and gardens, of trees and fruit.

“I speak to you, of these things, because it is important for you to know and remember, ‘The good tree does not produce rotten fruit... nor does the rotten tree... produce good fruit. It is by the fruit of the tree, that you know the tree.’ You do not pick-up a lemon, and stand beneath the boughs from which it fell, and say, ‘This is an apple tree.’ Because you hold in your hand the lemon, the fruit of the tree, you know the tree is a lemon tree. And you smell the fruit, and you know the possibilities, of the fruit, and you bless the tree. By the fruit, you know the tree.

“I would like each of you to think of yourselves... as a tree. When you are... in good health, you produce good fruit. When you are... caught in a disease, or pestilence of some type, your fruit might: have spots, show signs of decay. But you can be sure, that the fruit produced, when you are under attack as a tree, by pestilence of some type, shows the ‘signs,’ of what you are going through, as the tree. Once again it is clear and true, by the fruit, you know the tree. You can look at the fruit, and know the condition of the tree.

“And the good gardener, the good farmer, the good husband, notices the trees under attack, and takes measures to spray the trees, and treat the trees early, so come the next growing season, they produce good fruit again, and the fruit is a sign, that the tree is healthy.

“There are some trees, that are rotten at the core of their being, and there is no measure... that the one tending the garden or orchid can take, except to uproot the tree, and remove it, from the community of trees around it, so that others are not infected, by this disease. But this only happens when the tree is rotten at the core.

“My brothers and sisters, if you still are holding the vision of yourself as a tree, no matter what pestilence is plaguing you right now, I can assure you, not one single one of you is rotten at the core. It is impossible, because at the core of your being... you are ‘of God.’ Therefore, every tree, in the orchid, in the garden of God, can be saved, can produce good fruit. It might take a few sprays of love and compassion but the power and the love of God will flow into each one of you. And whatever you are enduring, whatever disease is plaguing you, will be cured.

“Not one of you is rotten at the core; therefore, each one of you is capable of producing good fruit. And that is the good news! That is the eternal news! Good fruit, from good healthy trees.

“You are to tend your tree. Watch for what is happening. Test the fruit, you are delivering. See it. It is something you are producing. Every day you are giving fruit. If the fruit is good, if it is joy, happiness, if it is a peaceful presence, you know you are healthy and thriving. If you are producing fruits: of confusion, sadness, frustration, greed, anger, hatred, you ‘know,’ your tree is under attack. And all you have to do at that point is to open to the power of God, and let it flow through you, curing all pestilence, freeing... you, the tree of God, to produce good fruit. So, just as others know the tree by the fruit it produces, you can tend your tree, and recognize the fruit you are producing. When your heart is filled with love, and kindness, and compassion that is what flows from your mouth. Your words... just as the fruit... reveal... what is filling your heart. Your actions reveal... what is filling your heart. See this. See your words, and your deeds, as the fruit you are producing. And while you see this, do not judge yourself; heal yourself, by opening to the power of God available to you! And as you recover, you will notice that the fruit you are producing, once again, is healthy, beautiful!

“Remember always, each one of you is a good tree! The core of your being... is not rotten, it is... ‘of God!’ Therefore, you are all capable of producing good fruit.

“Be mindful... of what you are thinking, saying, and doing... for, as you receive the gifts of God, you begin to learn how to use them; and as you use the gifts of God, you are filled, with the glory of God; and from you, will come the glorious fruit; and from the fruit the garden... will grow... and all who see, will know... the good fruit... from the good tree!”

Live Your Life In The Garden Of God, Knowing What You Are Doing, Choosing The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit

“I AM with you. I AM with you, in the garden. There is eternal life in the garden. There is eternal life.

“Today I wish to speak to you about the portion of your eternal life, you are experiencing right now, here, on Earth, in the month which is May, on the day which is the eighth, during the year which is recorded as 2011.

“Like any good parent, who passes the important things of life onto their child, and then stands back and lets the child live, and love, and experience, and learn and grow, your Eternal Parent, does the same; only the things given to you, by your Eternal Parent, are beyond the scope, of what you can imagine, right now; some of it is hidden behind the veils. But I promise you this, your Eternal Parent has prepared you, for all that you are to experience, just as any good earthly parent prepares their child to experience the world, Earth, and a spiritual aspect, of living, their life, knowing The Way.

“God has given you everything you need. You have life. God has given you the gifts, particularly suited to assist you in living your life. And to guide you, with direction and how to use the gifts you have been given, each one of you, My brothers and sisters, has been given a personal counselor, The Holy Spirit within you: whispering, ‘Do this. Do that. Go here. Go there;’ suggesting, ‘Use the gift, of compassion and understanding, rather than intolerance, and anger.’

“You have what you need. Now, what is important is that the commitment come from each of you, that you will live, in the garden of God, knowing what you are doing, choosing the gifts of The Holy Spirit, choosing to act in the light of God’s love, rather than reacting to the judgments, accusations, and condemnations of the world.

“For those of you who truly understand that this is only a portion of your eternal life, life, as you know it upon Earth, will become easy. You will no longer struggle, trying to accumulate: the wealth of Earth, the things of Earth; because you will understand, struggling... in accumulating these things, only leads to struggling... to maintain, and hold-on to these things. The things you wish to hold-on-to, you cannot see; but, you see the fruits that come from these precious things.

“When you hear someone speak, you are hearing more than the words they say. You are reading what is written on their heart. If they are speaking the words of love and compassion, and understanding, they are passing to you the wisdom of God, and it is a blessing... to be in their presence. If they are speaking words of hatred, anxiety, frustration, fear, doubt, anger, you are reading what is on their heart, and it is the perfect time: for you to bless, for you to forgive for them, for you to make their world a better place, by being compassionate, loving, and kind. And in this situation, 'theirs' is the blessing, just being in your presence.

"The words that you hear another speak are the outward signs of what is written on their heart. This is how you will know. God does not judge. God does not condemn. God picks-you-up, and holds you in His lap, and says, 'There child, you are Home safe. You are with Me.'

"Do not be tempted to judgment. The words you hear another say, are either a blessing upon you; or, you accept the words you hear, and give the blessing to the other. This how it is to be, this is the plan of God: that the children, who are walking upon Earth, resurrect the garden, the garden as it was meant to be by the God that you know, as The Creator of All Things.

"My brothers and sisters, I say this to you so that you might know, and find, your way. Spend your days in peace. Do not make noise. The world does not need noise. The world needs: a peaceful presence, a hand reaching-out to touch another, a hand reaching-out to welcome another, a hand... reaching-out.

"This day, as many of you hearing these words or reading these words will recognize, you are celebrating as Mother's Day, a day in celebration... of an earthly parent. Celebrate the gift of life, in a way that shows you know what you're doing. Reject anger, and hatred, and greed, and frustration, confusion; reject chaos. The things you choose... mark you; they are the outward sign of what you carry on your heart. And, as your earthly mother gave you life, upon Earth, your heavenly, your Eternal Parent, has given you eternal life. Just as your earthly mother has prepared you for life upon Earth, your Eternal Parent has prepared you for eternal life.

"So My brothers and sisters, I say to you this morning, there is no excuse! You have what you need. What is... important... is that you choose from the gifts of The Holy Spirit, the gift of confidence, and that you rise-up, and in loving peace, move over the Earth, blessing all things. It is time for the garden to be resurrected, but the resurrection is to come from within each of you, each of you! Do not wait for another to do it. Do not wait for someone to love you. Love first. Do not wait for someone to be kind to you. Be kind first. Do not wait for someone to apologize to you. Extend the hand of reconciliation, forgiveness, love and pardon first. Do not wait. Be first!

"It is time for you to live, in the garden of God, knowing what you're doing. And in doing this, the days that you spend, walking upon Earth, will be filled with joy, peace, happiness, and in balance.

"Be at peace. Be quiet. And move over the Earth knowing what you're doing. In this way, you will bring honor to your earthly mother, and you will be the light of the heavens, shining, for your heavenly Parent. Do these things in peace, and you will truly, have a joyful heart."

Jesus Teaches On:

Plant The Seeds Of Life, And Resurrect The Garden, Of God, From Within Your Being

“I AM with you. Feel My presence with you. I give you the gift of My love, My peace, My light, and they settle upon you in such a way, to bring you life. This is how it is done; for whatever you give to another... they receive... and as all things return to the giver, eventually, you receive... all that you have given... in equal measure.

“The things you do, as you walk upon the Earth, will always return to you. Words that you have said to another or thought about another, things that you have done to another or for another, they will come back to you. Those pleasant and wonderful will be a joy to receive. Those words that were ‘less than perfect,’ possibly unkind, or hateful, will come back as well. Yet, you can use that as an opportunity, by blessing whatever comes to you, and freeing it; therefore in this way, you free yourself.

“This is not necessarily an easy lesson to learn as you walk upon Earth, for as often as it has been said, human beings seem to miss the point somehow; that, whatever you do, comes back to you. That is The Way. This is why I said, firmly, boldly, and with conviction, ‘Stop judging; and you will not be judged. Stop condemning; and you will not be condemned. Give, give from the depths of your being, the gifts that hold the light of God, and that is what you will receive, the gifts that come back to you will be filled and overflowing with light, and love, and peace.’ This is how it is.

“I give you this example. A man lives in a small house, a small house with one very large window, which looks-out over the back yard. If the man prepares the back yard, and plants seeds of peace, and light, and love, and joy, seeds of goodness, that is what he will see growing, in his garden as he looks through the window. The seeds of flowers and vegetables that he plants in his garden, will be what he sees, what pleases his eye, and fills the air with aromas, what he grows to eat and fuel his body. And even if seeds of discontent or greed fall amongst the seeds of flowers, if he tends his garden he will pull the weeds, and not be disturbed by the thoughts that have fallen there, as seeds.

“But, if the man rather than planting good seeds, casts debris and garbage, not caring what happens in his garden, filling it with junk, that is what he will see, that is what will grow around him. There will nothing to feed his spirit or his soul, or his body.

“But what if the man chooses to do nothing, but just sit. Well then, he will be looking at what others are planting in his garden. Some will be good seeds, some will be unpleasant seeds. But he will harvest what others throw there.

“A garden well-planted, and well-tended, will produce beautiful flowers, fragrant flowers, and good foods.

“This... is the same... as what you are doing in your thoughts, and words, and deeds. If you judge, judgment will be yours, because that is what you are growing in your garden. If you condemn, condemnation will be yours, for that is what you are growing in your garden. If you hold hatred or anger in your heart, then hatred and anger is what you will receive, because that is what you are growing in your garden.

“You must be vigilant. You must be watchful. You must be mindful of that which you are growing. It will all come back to you. That is The Way... it is.

“If you desire understanding and compassion; first, you must plant the seeds; you must be understanding and compassion. If you desire love and kindness; first you must plant the seeds, of love and kindness. Whatever you desire... you must first... be. Do not wait for another to give you these gifts. Plant the seeds, within yourself. Be kindness. Be love. Be understanding. Be compassion.

“But whatever you do, stop judging... stop condemning... others. This is how these things will end, when one, or two, or three of you are willing to stop using the energies. When this happens, the energies are diminished; the energies are diminished in direct proportion to the use of the energy.

“Give... the gifts... of The Holy Spirit... use these gifts they are yours. Live within the energy of the gifts of light, and love, and peace, and that is what you will create. And that, My brothers and sisters, is what will come back to you.

“Once you live in this beautiful state, this precious and sacred garden, when you find a weed, when a weed is delivered to you, you can pull-it-out, and bless it. You can maintain your garden, and your garden will grow, reaching beyond your boundaries, out, into the world. The resurrection of The Garden, as it is to be, begins within... you, begins within... Me. Let us begin together, this day, the first day of May... to plant seeds that we would like to see growing... that we would like to feed our body, soul, and spirit. Reject any other. Be the good farmer. Tend the great garden. Resurrect The Garden of God... from within... you.”

Jesus Teaches On:
Death Of The Old Ways, Brings Life To The New Way

“I AM with you. I AM risen. After death of the body, there is life.

“To experience new life, you must be willing to let go of the old. You must let go of the old, to experience rebirth.

“See the noble tree. See the mighty oak. It does not hold on, to the leaves of the old season, they wither and fall. They are shaken in the winds, of the fall, and the winter. And come spring, there comes life, evidenced, first, in the buds. And then as the air grows warmer and the sun touches each bud, and the days growing longer and longer, the mighty oak experiences – new life – life which would not be known, without releasing the old, and letting it go. This is the eternal process, and once you observe it in the mighty oak, you begin to have a glimmer, of your own, eternal life. You must be willing to let go of the old, to experience the new.

“The new wines are not poured in the old wineskins. And each season, each part of your eternal life, brings with it the new wineskin, so that you hold the wines of the new season.

“You are the new wineskin, and the truth delivered unto you, from The Holy Spirit of God, is the new wine. As you drink, from this cup of wisdom, you walk through a portion of your eternal life, and as you move, you, the wineskin, ages. And when it is time, for another portion of your eternal life, the old wineskin is set aside.

“It is the same... with the tree, and the wineskin, and you! To experience life... in the new way... you must experience death of the old way... but life does not end.

“My story upon Earth... appears to end, as I drew My last breath on the cross... but those who wished to see more... did see... that as the body was laid down... the spirit rose-up. Spirit rose-up, and moved over Earth, and talked to the apostles and disciples, and those who followed Me, and said, ‘Look at Me, and follow Me. See, this is eternal life. I AM returning to Our Father; but I AM not dead. I AM living anew.’

“The Kingdom of God is eternal. The Kingdom of God is within you. The Kingdom of God is all around you; but to experience The Kingdom of God, you must let go of certain ways, the things you have been doing that have been keeping you down. Every time you love your enemy, you take a step in The Kingdom of God. Every time you do good to those who hate you, you walk in The Kingdom of God. Every time you bless those who curse you, you begin running and knowing your way in The Kingdom of God. And every time you pray for those who mistreat you, you truly begin to live in The Kingdom of God. When you are willing to do these things, you are letting go of the old, the old ways are withering as the leaves of fall; the old ways begin to die, so the new ways can live, within you; and, in so doing, you begin to live, in The Kingdom of God, as you walk upon the Earth.

“The day it becomes easy for you to love your enemy, and lend without expecting anything back, you fully recognize your heritage as children of God, and your life in The Kingdom of God really begins... life anew... brought about... by the death of the old ways.

“Yes, it is true, what I AM telling you is, if you will give-up the old ways, the ways of shadow and darkness, and say, ‘Yes,’ to love and grace and blessing and prayer, joy, happiness, you will begin to live a life, so sacred, holy, and blessed, that you will recognize you are living in The Kingdom, no matter where you are.

“I say to you today, rise-up! Shed the withered leaves, of the past, and embrace the flowering buds, of the present day, in The Kingdom of God... upon Earth!”

Jesus Teaches On:

How To: Bring About Real Change, From Within, Use The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit, To Be (Ye) Perfect

“I AM with you.. I AM with you... to assist you... to give some guidance, on how the things that you do every day will be made easier, in every single way, if you take the time to be still, and go about them, using the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God. These are your tools. These gifts... are yours... use them!

“When you encounter, a situation, which needs: changing, or modification, or alteration of some type, be still; because, the change... is to begin within you. Many of you hearing these words or reading these words, have experienced situations where... you have chosen to change something, by trying to: control, manipulate, or force... your opinion on another. Now at this point, it really doesn't matter whether your opinion is correct, or incorrect, what matters is for you to recognize, that it is not fully taken-in, understood and appreciated, when you try to force the situation. Many people have tried to ‘force,’ a change on one, usually a parent on a child. And sometimes, when you are trying to ‘control that child,’ the child acts-out, falls on the grounds, and begins to cry, yell, scream, calling attention to the situation. They do not want to be controlled, or forced. It is unpleasant for the child, and the adult.

“This same thing happens... in adult situations. Sometimes governments try to force people, just the same way. And sometimes, people, adult people, like the child will throw themselves down, making loud noises, and call attention to what they believe is tyranny. It does not work: to force, or try to control a situation... out of strength; overpowering another, does not work. So, how do you bring about a change that is real, and for the good, a substantial, long-lasting change that takes effect, and produces good results? You do it, by: going within, and making the modifications, within yourself; opening-up the box of gifts that you have at your disposal, and finding patience and understanding and compassion. Once... you are mastering these gifts... you become the example of patience. You are operating in the light of God, and you are using the gifts of God; therefore, the temptations, surrounding you, do not invade your space. In fact, your peaceful presence is powerful enough: to calm the seas, to stop the tears, to hush the angry crowds.

“This is how you ‘make a change.’ It begins within each of you. You become the living change. And soon you will find that one or two are following you; and from those one or two, come ten or twenty, and those magnify, and magnify, and magnify, and multiply, and multiply, and multiply. And that is how the change takes place. It is the unique power of ‘one.’ But the one needs to be in the light of God, for the change to be for the highest good of all.

“Do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. Master the situation, so that you hold your tongue, and you think, and you pray, and you ask for guidance along The Way. And all you have to remember is do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. You will find you are not so quick: to correct, to control, to force or manipulate. Once you begin this, it cannot be stopped. You cannot go back and change a situation wherein you were the power of a peaceful presence. It is already there. Peace... is upon Earth... through you. It might take days or months or possibly a year, for you to see the results. But soon you will find that you are peace inside, no matter what is happening around you. Change begins within you.

“Some of you might be ‘tempted,’ simply because of your background, your history, the way you see or know things, to correct, to call attention to things, that are, perhaps, in your perspective, not correct. I say to you with these temptations, go inside and find something that needs to be dusted-off within your being, within your presence. That is the most productive.

“When another ‘gazes on perfection,’ the desire is rekindled, within them. If you will work... within yourself... using the gifts of The Holy Spirit in your interactions with others; and then, in your spare time, polishing-up the core of your being, so that you might truly reflect the love of God, what happens is... your presence... becomes God upon Earth. The perfection, of God at the core of your being, is illuminated, drawing others; they see, and they desire, that same energy, that same connection with God. And through your example, others begin to go inward: to polish-up their presence; to dust-off, the core, of their being; and when interacting with others, they use the gifts of The Holy Spirit, so they might operate, within, the power of, the light of God. This is how change will take place, and most you who have even given it the slightest chance, have noticed the results are quite different... and unique... and Godlike.

“Yes today, again, I call you, ‘It is time: to perfect yourself, to practice the art of perfection.’ At the core of your being, you are ‘of God;’ therefore, at the core of your being, you are ‘perfect.’ To assist you in maintaining this perfection, you have been given the gifts of The Holy Spirit. And once you begin to use the gifts, you will bear fruit that will mark you clearly, as a child of God... walking the Earth... bringing The Kingdom... to life... wherever you go.

“This is change... on an eternal basis. Do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. Bring about the change, from within.”

Jesus Teaches On:

How To: Resurrect The Garden, Bring About The Ascension Of Earth, And Set Things Right

“I AM with you. I reach-out to you, walking through the corridors of time, kissing your forehead, taking your hand, reminding you of the precious land, your home country, The Kingdom of Heaven. I remind you this day; The Kingdom of Heaven is with you.

“How many times I hear this question! ‘Why am I on Earth? I forget. What is my mission? What am I to do?’ These questions come, in the secret prayers of the children of God... over and over again. And I say to you, My brothers and sisters, each of you has your own unique mission, something that you decided to bless Earth with, all on your own, something special, that only you can do. And it is yours to do, it is written on your heart. But I tell you, there is something that you, united with the angels of Heaven, and the enlightened beings of Earth will do, because it is your unified mission. It is the mission that unites all beings, whether you are in the heavenly kingdom totally, or representing the heavenly kingdom upon Earth right now.

“You are to assist in the ascension of Earth. You are to resurrect The Garden of Earth. You are to set all things right.

“It is very much... like telling your parent, your earthly parent, ‘I’m going to go clean my room up. My friends came over, and we made a mess in there. I’m going to clean it up, just for you. Wait ‘til you see how wonderful it looks.’ These words might come from a child to a parent on Earth. And I tell you they, most assuredly, came from each of you, spoken with confidence, to your Spiritual Parent, before you came to Earth. You see, those of Earth, gathered together, you might say, you and your friends, and made a mess. And it’s only proper and fitting and right, that the mess be cleaned-up, by those who created it. This plan is so perfect. It has nothing to do with force and control, dragging a child to the room, and standing there, so that they clean the mess up under threat of force. It is waiting patiently, ‘til the children... know it is time... to clean-up... the mess.

“You have the opportunity to do this, with every choice you make every day. First you choose the energy around yourself. You begin to understand... how to ‘master energy,’ how to get things to flow in a beautiful way, celebrating... God, showing... God; much like learning to play an instrument, and then playing it so well, you thrill everyone around you. But you know the instrument, no matter how majestic it might be, cannot play itself. The flute sits silent. The piano doesn’t ring with the chords, and the vibrations, and the tones. The trumpet does not sing-out. None of these things happen, until someone decides, of their own free-will choice, to use the gifts, and to bring forth, the music held within the flute, and the piano, and the trumpet.

“Every time you choose, to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit, the gifts of: faith, and hope, and love, and compassion... the gifts of lightness... you bring forth a symphony of the ages, that rolls through the corridors of all time, pleasing God, thrilling the angels, filling the enlightened beings of eternity, with joy; for there is one, who is bringing forth the gifts, and using them. And you can most successfully use the gifts. It only requires that you want to, that you have a desire to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit. And they are perfectly designed to help you, to help you... clean-up Earth. They will help you experience a lightness of being.

“Every time someone hurts you, in some way, whether it is to push you, or to try to get you to fight with them, or perhaps it is simply a temptation to... get you to respond to something they want you to respond to, tempting you into an argument, whether it is verbal or physical. Aha! Don't think, 'Oh no. Here it comes again.' Think, 'This is my chance. Let me get out my gifts of The Holy Spirit. What is here for me to use?' And instead, of joining in the fight, whether it be verbal or physical, use the gift of understanding... and know... God wants peace!

“How do you bring about peace with someone who is being difficult?

“You stand, with confidence in the power of God, and you let God... love them... through you. Focus your attention, on letting God love through you. For sometimes it can be very difficult to love someone: who is not acting very right; who is saying the wrong things; who is being aggressive. But it is very possible, to let God love them, through you. It requires something though. It requires that you have faith and confidence, in the power of God, and you are willing to be used as an instrument of God, rather than going into the energy created by another.

“If you choose to fight with another: you are giving-up your energy; you are surrendering... to whatever is controlling... that other person. When someone misbehaves, or acts-out, it is often said that they are 'out-of-control.' Well, it doesn't take a very big step forward, to think, 'Well who's controlling it? What's controlling it? If they're out-of-control, where is the control?' It is the energies of shadow and darkness.

“Every time you encounter such things, such behavior, such people out-of-control, you can 'master the energy,' by refusing to go in, to the shadow energies. This is how you will assist Earth, in the ascension, how you will clean-up The Garden, for you will be the balance. Where there is one energy you will balance the energy. God will work through you. And if everyone is willing to do this, all of the negative, heavy energies, such as greed, and hate, and anger, and all the fruits, created by that, such as misery, and despair, and sadness, and grief... they will disappear, because you will be balancing these energies. Nothing will be out-of-control anymore, because the love, and the light, and the peace of God... will be blessing... these energies.

“It's not often easy; it's much like making the decision to clean-up a messy room. It requires action. It requires knowing what you're going to do, and the determination to do it. But still, it is the children of God... resurrecting The Garden... brining about the ascension of Earth... and setting things right!

“It cannot be done... through force, and control. It is to be done... through the power of a peaceful presence: confident, in the light of God; joyful, in the song of angels; happy, just to be.

“This day, be happy! Breathe-in the air of Earth, and know you are there for a reason. It is your opportunity of a lifetime. Resurrect The Garden. Bring forth the light of God, through all that you think and do and say. It is your time. It is your time to shine. It is your time to remember. You are eternally... a child of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

How To Love One Another, How To Love Your Enemy

“I AM with you. Feel My presence now, as I sit with you, as I rest My hand upon your shoulder, and draw you nearer unto Me, I AM with you.

“For those of you who are ready, and willing to hear Me, I bring... a most amazing, and incredible message, a message... that will change the ways of the world... bringing them in alignment with The Way of God... “Love one another! “Love your enemy!

“I say unto you, ‘Stand before the one, who would strike you, with strength and confidence. And when there is one, who would... slap your cheek... do not retaliate, but turn the other. To do this requires that you strip from you, the self-serving... retaliation, and stand as a vessel, of the power and the love of God.’ This is an outward sign. And you prepare yourself to do this, by using the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God, with every opportunity.

“You know the ways of the world. You know what the world teaches. The world teaches... that: if someone pushes you, you push them back; if someone hits you, you hit them back; if someone uses force against you, you use force against them. But I wish for you to... set what you know, from the ways of the world aside, and remember... The Way of God. It is written on your heart, by the finger of God. And The Way of God... is to love your enemy.

“Those of you who are ready... to take this step... can only do so, because God is calling you in a special way, teaching you, every day, of the significance, and of the power of love.

“You can see it often, sometimes it is in a cartoon, or in a movie, where a person of much smaller stature is very angry, and upset, and their arms are spinning and churning, trying to strike at... a giant... of an individual, before them. But this larger person, puts out an arm, rests their hand on the forehead of the one out-of-control, and holds them in place, until the other is tired, and cannot raise the arms once ready for battle.

“It makes sense when you see this picture; because, no matter how wrong the assailant, the smaller one, is, it just would not appear right, for the giant to pick-up the smaller one, and throw them aside. It would not be a fair battle. It would not seem right. I wish for you to see, those perceived as ‘your enemy,’ in this way; for no one strikes-out in anger and hostility, unless there is a hurt, a pain, something wrong, at the core of their being; and this makes their spiritual identity, their spiritual body, small, and weak. No matter how much noise they make, no matter the thunder, they are still small. The power of God... is mighty, and glorious, and can bring peace; but it is to come one person at a time! This is why... the message is so important... to love your enemy! For hatred to stop, for killing to stop, for war to stop, requires that one person have the spiritual strength to stand as the vessel of God, and let God’s power, and love flow through them onto the Earth, to be the giant, holding the other, of lesser stature, at bay, until they grow tired, of war, and hatred.

“The power of God’s love can heal... the wounds... hidden deep, perhaps deep into generations. It is a key to bring peace upon the Earth. It is not a sign of weakness, to resist the temptation, to magnify the energies... brought to you by another. It is an outward sign of your belief in the power of God. And this is why the message is active rather than passive. It is not the message of ‘run away from your enemy.’ It is the active message to ‘love your enemy.’ And only those who understand the ways of God can do this. But more and more will do it. As those who are willing... to stand as the vessel of God... come forward, the example is set. Those who are willing to step forward will be the living word of God. Love your enemy. Love your enemy! And what this really means is... be the vessel, and let God love your enemy, through you.

“I ask you to think on this, this week. Many of you hearing these words, or reading these words, have heard, repeated many times perhaps, ‘If one strikes you on the cheek, turn the other.’ Most have not understood it. It certainly does not follow the teachings, of the ways of the world; but it is elementary... in The Way of God.

“You have experienced, by reading, or living perhaps, the history of the world, when one force rises-up to dominate another, there comes, from the points of Earth, other forces... to combat the first force. And there comes force, upon force, upon force. But all of this... is just holding something down... forcing a decision; but it is not... healing the wound... which started the whole thing in the first place. It is the band-aid... that will come-off. It is a temporary... fix. But it erupts again, and again, and again. The only thing... that will bring peace... is the power of God’s love.

“For those of you willing to hear these words, sit with Me this week. I will bring you insight. There will be revelation, and you will come to understand the significance... of the new command, in its deepest form; you will come to know, The Way of God; and God will teach you, how to love your enemy. And it is not through weakness, or running away. It is through confidence, and courage, and strength. It is by standing before those who would assail you, as the vessel... for the power and the glory, and the love... of God.”

Jesus Teaches On:

How To Create The Kingdom Of Heaven On Earth, Using The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit To Deliver The Living Word Of God To Earth

“I AM with you. I AM... always with you. There are those amongst you, who call-out and say, ‘Come to me.’ And I say to you, ‘I AM with you.’ There are those of you, who call-out and say, ‘Show me The Way. Give me a sign.’ And I say to those amongst you, ‘I have delivered The Way. I have delivered the sign. Open your eyes and see. Open your ears and hear. Open your heart and know. For those who want to see, will see, and those who want to hear, will hear, and those who want to know, will know.’

“Thousands and thousands of years ago, the will of God was made known... to a man... most of you upon the Earth know as... Moses. The will was clear. The will was simple. It had to do with a set of commands, codes, setting into place the desire of God, The Way those upon Earth should live. And basically it had to do with: respect for your creators, your spiritual Creator and your physical creators; and a way to live; and a way to act, not taking from others, basically, not taking their lives, their fortunes, their families. It's a simple set of rules to follow, for any who will see, and hear, and know The Way of God.

“Some looked upon these codes, and said, ‘I will do this. This is the will of God.’

“And then God moved on... to something else... and that something else was... what I delivered unto you... more than two thousand years ago... a New Way to live. You see, God is drawing those of Earth, back, closer into His power, into the energy of creation, into the energy of love. Step-by-step you are making your way back to the garden. And all along The Way there are signs saying, ‘Now it is time, for you to do this.’ And for those who care, for those who desire, for those whose intention it is... to work in the sacred power of God... they see, and they hear, and they know.

“The will of God... is for you to love your enemy...

“The will of God... is for you to do good to those who hate you...

“The will of God... is to bless those who curse you...

“And the will of God... is for you to pray for all of those who mistreat you....

“...these are steps closer... to God.... And, they have nothing to do with forcing others to bend to your will; they have to do with your desire and intention to live within the glorious will of God. And they bring you closer... to the garden.

“Most of you can repeat... these four codes... you can say the words... but do you live the words? Do you love your enemy? Do you do good things for those who hate you? Do you always bless those who curse you? Do you pray for any who mistreat you? Or do you retaliate?

“For those of you wondering how you can do these things, four things... the will of God... on four things... I say unto you, ‘The only way you can do these things, is to use the gifts of The Holy Spirit, the gifts God has given you, at your creation... when you were truly born... of Spirit. You cannot love your enemy, if you intend to do it, by doing it... in the ways of the world, for the ways of the world tell you to use force to subdue your enemy. But if you sit quietly with God, and use the tool, of the love of God, and you open to the gift of God, and in opening the gift of God, open your channels to the power of God, God will love through you! But you have to be willing. You have to have the desire to do the will of God. And then, it is necessary to use the gift, the gift of The Holy Spirit, the gift you have. You see what I’m saying to you is there is really... no excuse. You have within you the ability to love your enemy. What is missing is: the desire, the intention, and the will to do it. And the same things can be said about doing good to those who hate you. There is a tool for that. God has given you all you need. It is: understanding, patience, tolerance, compassion. These things... will lift-you-up. They will give you what you need... strength and confidence. And in the power of these sacred gifts, you will find it easy to bless those who curse you, and you will find it an honor to pray for those who mistreat you.

“You see to do things any other way, is to support: ego, personal satisfaction. It is to continue in the ways of the world, which lead to separateness, loneliness, and feelings of abandonment. You cannot feel alone, when you are walking within the light and the power of God. There is a sacred feeling of contentment, of balance, and harmony, and tranquility, when you know, at the core of your being, you have just mastered the energy of a situation, in such a way, that you let the love of God pour upon your enemy, caring not, if the world perceived it as your enemy won, or you walked away from a fight, caring only that you opened to the will of God, and it was done, accomplished, because you were willing... to do the will of God.

“These things I say to you... are signs along The Way. They are not forced upon you. They are set in place for those who are ready to see... and hear... and know... because for the few who are willing to see, and hear, and know these signs, they will be the living words for others. It must begin... in small ways... but once it begins, it cannot be stopped, because it is at the core of each of you, all of the children of God.

“You have the gifts, they are given unto you. And it is The Way... that you will be able... to put into the action the will of God. If you can love your enemy, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you, you are living the will of God. And even though you think it’s only... you, it is anything but, only you. It is you... living... the will... of God. It is God... living... on Earth... through you. And make no mistake about this, you will be noticed. And there will be, at least one, if not many, who will say, ‘That is good. I want to do the will of God in such a way.’

“That is how Earth will be changed. That is how the garden will be resurrected. That is how you become the living word of God.

“This week I ask you to consider these four things set before you. Some of you are shaking your head right now, as you hear these words, or read these words, saying, ‘I cannot love my enemy.' I say to you, 'You can love your enemy, if you use the gifts of The Holy Spirit.' And the same applies... to the other three. You can always find an excuse, why you will not do it. But the eternal truth is... you carry the tools, within you, to do it, if you want to do it, if you have desire, and intention to do it.

‘Follow Me. Let us use the power of God. Let us become the living word of God. And let the anthem of this week, ring-out from your heart, and all that you think, and do, and say. Love your enemy. Do good to those who hate you. Bless those who curse you. And pray for those who mistreat you. And you will have delivered... the word of God... to Earth.’”

Complete The Presentation Of The Gifts Of Spirit, Receive, Accept, And Use Them, For The Kingdom Of Heaven Is At (Your) Hand

“I AM with you. Feel My presence. I grow stronger, as you open, and say, ‘Yes. Co me.’ I AM always with you; but the invitation from you is sweet, and our communion is complete, as you call to Me and say, ‘Come.’ My answer will always be, ‘I AM with you.’

“I speak to you today, of the gifts you carry... for God has already given the gifts. You carry them, within you. However, the presentation is just not complete, until you receive, ‘receive... in a special way.’ The reception has nothing to do with taking a gift, and sticking it someplace, or carrying it about with you, not really using it completely, or at all. There is ceremony, there is thought and commitment, there is pronouncement of witness, in receiving the gift. And you carry... more than one gift within you, each of you.

“Some of you are awakened; some of you are waking; but it is the responsibility of each of you, to receive the gifts you carry, with commitment: to use the gifts, to assist you in your journey; to use your gifts to bring The Kingdom of Heaven, more fully onto the Earth. That is how it is to come upon the Earth, through you, through the children of God. This is why I sent those who followed Me, approximately two thousand years ago, out on their own. I sent them out saying, ‘Go. Go and tell those you meet, The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, and heal, and cleanse the lepers, and drive-out the demons; for this is how the people will experience The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.’

“And just as The Kingdom of Heaven was to be experienced, through the hands, using the gifts, all of those years ago, it is the same today. It is not often said, but it is most assuredly true, that ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.’ It is present, in what you are willing to do, in the name of God. It is the same, today, The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. But, to see, and to know, and to feel it, and to walk amidst its glory and miracles, you must be willing to use your gifts, resurrect them from the dusty corner, and receive them with the honor they are due. And it is most appropriate to do this: in quiet, in peace, in sacred communion between you and God.

“I send each of you... forth into the world... today. I ask you to walk and look around. See, if the world could use a piece of Heaven, wherever you set your foot. And in the seeing of it, you will know it. And then, before doing anything else: return to your room; sit quietly, and begin receiving that which you carry. Ask God for guidance, so that you might use your gifts for the glory of God. And once this is complete, once the presentation is complete in the reception of the gifts, rise-up again, and walk the same path, touching all you meet along The Way, blessing them. And then, as you are guided, go to one, and then another, saying, ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand;’ because The Kingdom of Heaven is in your hands, upon Earth. Knowing this, wherever you go, there will be a change. Wherever you go: you will touch those who need healing; you will cast from them, the energies that are binding, and holding them down; you will deliver them from demons... that are holding them captive; and, you will set the people free. And it will all be done for the glory of God, through your willingness, to use your gifts.

“Many of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, are ready. Many of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, are awakening to all the possibilities. Go forth. Use your gifts. The Kingdom of Heaven... is... at hand.”

Jesus Teaches On:
The Gift Of Hope Springs Eternal

“I AM with you. As the birds begin to sing, announcing... the start of a new day, I AM with you, in such a way; for it is My intention... that the words I speak to you... are the beginning of a new day as well.

“Feel the peace around you. Let the day... enfold you in such a way, that you wear it well. Become the day. Feel yourself awakening... to the possibilities... of a new day dawning... for you.

“What would you do, if you had an entire day, to do exactly what you would like to do?

“You do. It is this day, and it is yours. What will mark the day as ‘special and unique,’ is as you create your day, you are actually creating the gift you will give away, when sun sets, and the moon rises. The day you create, what you do with the gift of this day is: your gift... to God; your gift... to eternity; the gift given and received.

“Bless that which you receive, and let it flow from you. Bless this day, and receive it, and let it flow from you.

“As you walk into the day you’re going into an adventure. It is one leg of your journey, and you are prepared for every minute of this day. As you move over the Earth you will find... if you take the time... to be still... that you have so many gifts within you. Some are quite familiar to you. You use them all the time. They’re gifts you know. But there are many gifts, down there, at the bottom of: your case; your suitcase; your toolbox, let us say... perfect... the box that you carry within you... that has all the tools necessary, for your journey and your mission.

“One of the gifts of The Holy Spirit, or tools in the perfect toolbox you carry within, which will give you great assistance, when it seems as if you are stalled, stopped, held in place, unsure of where to go... is the gift of hope. It is often misunderstood. You do not spell the gift of hope, ‘w-i-s-h.’ You do not spell hope, ‘i-f.’

“Hope is powerful, often misunderstood, and sometimes, very frankly, the word is misused. Hope is that energy, burning within you, which gives you the courage and the confidence to know, ‘There is hope in this situation.’ Be still. Be quiet. And as all things unfold, it will happen. Soon your sails will feel the rip of The Wind, and you will blow over the sea, moving.

“This week, I would like you to... pray, and ask for guidance, about this gift called hope. Yes, it is related to faith. Yes, it is related to trust. But hope is more. And once you find it, once this powerful gift is revealed to you, you will see, that those who... pick-it-up, and use it... understand that there is an omnipresent potential for success, for extraordinary, miraculous, glorious things to happen. It is a gift of great value. Hope truly does spring eternal. It is what gives you courage, confidence. It certainly does give birth to: patience, tranquility, a calm disposition. And while you are coming to understand hope, you will find that your ego is subsiding, and God is working through you.

“With this deeper comprehension of hope comes the realization that you can do all things... as God will do all things... through you. Therefore you put your hope... in God, and be still. There is peace... in hope.

“Call forth the gift and use it and you will begin to understand: the omnipresent potential; the extraordinary success; the feeling of delight in accomplishing that which you know is right for you to do, in the light and the glory of God. This week... become familiar... with hope.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Kingdom Of God Is Experienced On Earth Through The Gift Of Love

“I AM with you. I walked upon the Earth over two thousand years ago, and I walk now, with you, in spirit, ever present to those who will open to My presence, to My spirit with you, and within you. I AM with you so that your journey upon the Earth will be fulfilling, rich, and abundant. Come, follow Me, in faith, follow Me.

“The gift of faith will lead you to Me, and assist you in comprehending the mysteries all around you. As your gift of faith grows, matures, and flourishes, you will come to know Me, and come to understand the words I spoke thousands of years ago, better, more completely, and with clarity. In wisdom: you will know the words I spoke; and, you will wholly realize, that the words I spoke were not My words, but the words of God, flowing through Me.

“I was sent to speak the words of God; therefore, I spoke the words of God. I was sent to deliver a new command; therefore, I delivered a new command. Now, I wish for you to ‘know,’ the new command, which I delivered to those of Earth. Now, I wish for you to ‘live,’ the new command. I wish for you to love one another... for it is The Word of God.

“As The Kingdom of God is realized upon the Earth through the gift of faith, The Kingdom of God is experienced upon the Earth through the gift of love!

“Love is the most powerful energy. It is the energy of creation. It is the energy of God.

“Most of you hearing these words, or reading these words, have encountered love, at some point in your lifetime, either by giving, receiving, or mutually exchanging love. When you are living, within the energy of love, you are living within an atmosphere in which you stand taller, feel better, dance often, and sing more frequently. This is the basic level of love. Giving, receiving, or exchanging love is easy, and delightful, when it is mutual, when the other party is easy to love. And, your knowledge and experience of this basic level of love will greatly assist you as you prepare to love one another, on a different level, on the divine level, as God loves.

“You attain the divine level of loving, as God loves, by ‘tending the gift of love,’ within your being. Deep within you, at the core of your being, there is the seed of love, sown by the hand of God. It is a gift, a treasure, with powerful potential. But, to transform the seed into its most powerful potential, and to love on the divine level, you must: recognize and tend the seed; embrace the love of God flowing into and through-out your being; and, come to ‘know,’ the love of God, within you. Once you initiate and participate in this ‘active communion with God,’ the enormity of the gift of love begins to dawn on you, and you embark on a new way of living, living within the love of God. In this state of communion with God, it is possible to love another, even all others, on a divine level, as God loves, because it is not you, loving on an individual or personal basis, it is God's love flowing... through you, it is God... loving... through you.

“Once you enter this ‘Divine State, of Loving’ you deliver the love of God, and change the energy of Earth. It is within this divine level of loving, as God loves, that you come to understand, and fully appreciate, that which is written, that which I did say, ‘A new command I give you: Love one another...’ .

“God has sown the seed of love within you. It is a gift most extraordinary and miraculous. Acknowledge the gift, tend the gift, embrace the gift, and let it flow through you, onto the Earth. Be the open channel for the river of God's love, and you will find that you can love all peoples, on the divine level, because God will love all peoples... through you.

“And so it is, that The Kingdom of God is experienced through the gift of love.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Kingdom Of God, Is Realized, On Earth, Through The Gift Of Faith

“I AM with you. I AM with you, so that you might know God better, and have a deeper understanding of: who you are; and the wealth of your heritage, as a child of God. You cannot fully comprehend the importance of your presence upon the Earth, until you grasp the significance of your mission, until you realize the magnitude, and value, of the gifts you carry within you.

“Deep within you, at the core of your being, there is the seed of faith, sown by the hand of God. It is a gift, a treasure, with powerful potential. And although the gift of faith begins as a seed, when well-tended it becomes the source from which your vineyard, orchard, and garden will grow, and flourish, and produce an abundant harvest.

“Faith is a gift which will lead you to do great and amazing things, things you would not imagine doing on your own. Faith in God is good; but, faith in God, acknowledging The Creator, accepting the presence of All That Is, is only the beginning, the first step into the expansive realm of faith. Once you initiate this active communion with God, the enormity of the gift of faith begins to dawn on you, and you embark on a new way of living, having faith... in what God... will do... through you. And this awareness will change your life, forever. Awakening to all the possibilities set before you, and willingly becoming the instrument, conducting the power and the strength of God, takes the gift of faith to a different level, a level of immense proportions. Living life within this measure of faith brings a knowing that The Kingdom of God is with you... now... in the present moment. It brings the eternal presence of The Kingdom of God into your eternal present. Once you have the faith to live within... The Kingdom of God... now, the abundance of the fruits of Spirit will fill you, and sustain you, all of your days.

“You bear the seed, tend it, and walk into The Kingdom today. Eat of the fruits, drink from the vines, and live life to the fullest, for the present is a piece of the divine, a portion of the eternal plan, written by the hand of God. Faith in what God can do through you... will lead you to do great and amazing things. It is within this level of faith that you will come to understand, that which is written, that which I did say, ‘You can do even greater things than I do... .’

“Within the gift of faith, you can do all things, because God will be doing all things, through you. And so it is, The Kingdom of God is realized... through the gift... of faith.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Faith At A Different Level, Believing In What God Can Do Through You

“I AM with you. You can feel My presence, if you will open, and receive Me, for I AM still moving over the Earth, present... with you.

“I speak to you, again, of faith; for it is the seed, which, well tended, will bring abundant gifts!

“It is time for you to understand, at a different level, the gift of faith. Today, I wish for you to sit, and be still and quiet. Today I wish to lead you... into a deeper understanding... of the gift of faith. It might surprise you to know that each of you carries the seed. It is a gift. But the gift has already been given. It is a treasure. But in order, for this, treasure to... multiply itself... it must be tended. But before it can be tended, it must be recognized! You must know the value, of that which you carry within you; you must ‘seek... to use... the seed of faith.’

“There is something you need to understand. The seed, the gift of faith given to you, in some of you still dormant, in some of you it is growing and thriving, still most of you do not comprehend that this gift was not given to you, so that you might... recognize... God. That surprises you. The seed was given to you, so that you might recognize... and believe... in what God can do through you, how God can help you in your mission!

“It is wonderful and beautiful to say, ‘Oh God, I do believe in You. I know, I feel, I sense Your presence, and I know it. Therefore, I embrace the seed, the gift of faith... I believe.’

“Believing in God... is good. But the intention of the seed of faith is to lead you into believing... in what God can do through you... for without moving into this new space, this new understanding, this deeper communion, with the gift, and faith in God, you could stand in one place, be still. You would not grow.

“God did not give you the gift of faith, so you could stand in one place, glorifying God. God gave you the gift of faith, so you could move forward, over the face of the Earth, glorifying God in all that you do! It is a gift which qualifies you: for action, for service, for living... to its most complete and fullest intention.

“Faith... is the seed... which brings forth all the other gifts.

“To assist you, in a deeper understanding of faith, I promised, and sent, a powerful Counselor. Once I returned fully in My light-body to The Kingdom of Heaven, the announcement was made, ‘Those of Earth, need constant guidance, something which will fill them, with the energy and the promise to move forward, guided from within!’ And it was done. This is what enables you to take your seed of faith, your belief in God, and move forward, believing... that God moves within you, and will move you. And The Spirit is within you.

“This is faith at a different level... believing you can do... all things, all things which God intends for you to do. This is the level of faith you wish to achieve. And you can do it.

“Be still and listen, for The Spirit within you is calling to you. Listen and hear, or feel, or know, for The Holy Spirit says to you...

‘I come to you, The Eternal Breath, riding The Wind, able to lead you, where you have never been. I will take you, through the doorway, into a place of miraculous things, happenings, events, if you will hear Me... and follow!’

“In times of doubt, be still and listen. Call upon... The Counselor within you, for there will be times, upon the Earth, when you have faith there is a God; but, lack faith that you can do what you are being asked to do. These are ‘the times of challenge and trying.’ These are the times when you say quietly, ‘Guide me, from within.’ And you will hear and know. Those gathered around you might not understand what you are saying you will do. They might not understand The Way you wish to walk. They might not comprehend the words you are saying to them, explaining your desire, your mission, your goal. But you will understand it, because The Holy Spirit is speaking to you from within you, for you, not for Joe, or Cathy, or Sally... directions... for you.

“There are pieces of this eternal wisdom, which have settled into the common day speech of those of Earth. If you speak the language English, I AM sure you have heard, advice such as, ‘It’s a gut feeling. When I have this gut feeling, I know I must do it, even if worldly advice would say, ‘No,’ I feel it in my gut. I know it’s right.’ Loosely translated, that means, you are getting guidance from within, you just haven’t recognized where the guidance is coming from. It’s not coming from the lining of your stomach. It’s not coming from any internal organ. It is coming... from the wisdom of The Holy Spirit within you.

“Along the same lines, you might have heard, ‘Follow your heart, do what your heart says for you to do, in this particular instance.’ And the same thing applies to this statement. Correctly said, it’s, ‘Listen to what The Holy Spirit is telling you from within.’ Listen to the guidance from within. Every person in the world, if asked, will give you advice. And if you begin to try to take the advice of ten, or twenty, or thirty people, you will become confused. You will walk in circles. It will be confusing to you, because it is ‘their advice.’ And their advice might apply fully to you. But you can be assured, The Voice of The Holy Spirit within you, will lead you where you need to be. And it’s not the lining of your stomach. It is not the vessels and the veins in your heart. It is the breath of your spirit, filling you... with life.

“And when you find that you are sitting, listening to the guidance from within, and acting upon it, because you know it’s right for you, ah... then... you are living faith at a higher level. This is faith. This is faith in God, working through you to accomplish something. And in this state of faith, there is no stopping you, for you cannot contain, The Power of God, once you connect, and say, ‘I will.’

“This seed of faith is the most wonderful gift. But its true potential can only be achieved when you: see it, feel it, know it, tend it and let it grow within you, and acknowledge and praise the glory of God, through what you do. It is not passive, this gift of faith. It is given to you, so you might be active in every way: so that you might actively open your eyes, and see Earth, The Way God sees Earth; so that you might open your hands, and feel Earth, The Way God feels Earth; so that you might move over Earth, blessing it, with the words of God flowing through you.

“This week, sit with this gift. Tend it, and watch it grow, within you.”

Faith, The Seed Which Will Move Mountains

“I AM with you. If you will sit still, you will feel... The Wind moving... around you, flowing from the corridors of... all times... within one breath; and it is from this sacred corridor, that you feel My presence, with you.

“Today, I speak to you... of faith, the seed, which will move mountains, when held within: an open heart, a noble soul, a willing spirit. Faith is a gift, a gift which... left untended: will not grow, will remain a seed; but the gift, well-tended, the seed held within the heart open to the love of God, will flourish and grow, stirring the soul to song, waking the spirit, delivering the sacred breath of life.

“The transformation of the seed takes place within you! You will bear the fruits. The gift of faith will bear fruits, within you, from a seed there will come life, and you will believe!

“In faith... you will believe... in God.

“In faith... you will believe... in the power of God.

“In faith... you will believe... in the power of God, within you.

“In faith... you will believe... in the sanctity of the mission you are to do.

“In faith... you will believe... in the guidance, expressly for you, carried by The Holy Spirit of God, within you.

“In faith... you will believe... no obstacle can impede your progress along The Way.

“In faith... mountains will move, because you believe!

“You carry within you, the Word of God, seeds, seeds which will flourish, as they are tended.

“Tend the gift of faith... and believe.

“As you believe in God... God believes in you.

“Today I speak to you of faith... ...

“Believe.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Return To The Simple To Experience The Grand And Infinite

“I AM with you! You call to Me, and I draw nearer. You sit, and speak to Me, and we are in communion. You ask, and it is given unto you. So many gifts are available and as you use the gifts, your actions are the trees and the vines, which give life to the fruit, of that which you do. It is in this Way that you too are The Living Word. From the gifts come the fruits and the fruits sustain eternal life!

“It is all set before you; all you have to do is ‘ask,’ and it is given. ‘Living, in the eternal present, is possible, for you to do!’ But it is most easily accomplished, by ‘returning to the simple.’ And it is through ‘the simple acts of kindness, that you experience the grand and infinite.’ That is where you are to begin ‘acts of kindness creating the environment of goodness, wherein all fruits thrive, grow, sustain and nourish, all who will know them.’

“This week, each of you hearing these words, or reading these words, will have the opportunity to perform ‘simple acts of kindness.’ These opportunities will come to you in many ways, and your freewill choice, at the time, will determine what is ‘created, from the situation.’ And it is possible to create from every situation the grand.

“I’m going to give you four scenarios, simple, everyday scenarios.

“You are walking down a street. A beggar walks up, puts his hand out, and asks you for money. Do you push them away, hurry on, reach in your pocket, and practically throw what change you have available to them? Or do you say, ‘God bless you,’ reach in your pocket, and give them, something, of yours, with a blessing, and a smile kindness!

“The next scene, someone comes and asks you for a favor. ‘Will you do this for me?’ Let us say someone asks you to pick-up their children from school, because they have another appointment. Do you respond in such a way, telling them all you have to do, but you’ll make time for it, because they asked? Or do you say, ‘Of course, I would be so happy to do this for you. Thank you, for asking me. It gives me the opportunity to see your children.’?

“Surely sometime during this week, each of you will have a task, a chore, something in the daily list of things to do, and there is a lot to do. How are you completing this task, this chore? Are you hurrying through it, grumbling about all you have to do? Or, are you looking at it, thanking God for the opportunity to do it, and doing it to the best of your ability, with a light heart, and a noble spirit?

“And what if, after a busy day at work, you are returning home, driving your vehicle, ‘home,’ on your thoughts, and a tired feeling on your body, and someone pulls-out in front of you, and then moves over the road, as if they do not know where they are going. Do you drive-up upon them, blowing your horn, raising your arms, letting them know you are dissatisfied greatly? Or, do you sit back, realize – they can't possibly know what they're doing – and bless them, as they go on their way?

“This example and the three preceding it are simple situations, which happen every day. And this is where you begin kindness. It is simple, but you cannot proceed, without ‘knowing,’ these things.

“Therefore sit sometime today, think upon them, so that you will recognize the opportunities, as they come your way this week, blessing all, who come your way, not dismissing them, disgruntled and dismayed; but blessing them, with the love of God.

“You can give and let your gift carry a note of frustration, judgment, or you can give a gift that is filled, with the light of God. It is within your power to do this. This is the beginning of using the gifts, in such a way, that the fruits are obvious every day. And by the gifts and the fruits you bear all will ‘know you,’ and know you care, about The Way you walk over the Earth.

“Remember, simple acts of kindness, create an environment, wherein goodness thrives and grows, so that all might know the grand, and infinite.”

Jesus Teaches On:

You Can Do All Things Using The Blessings Of Earth To Magnify The Glory Of God

“I AM with you.. You are never alone. Reach-out to what is available to you, and take it within you, and live for, many of you, hearing My words, or reading My words, are still sleeping! It is time for you: to rise-up; to awaken within the light; to see, and learn, so that you might ‘know,’ the experience of living, upon the Earth.

“Perfecting the experience... of living upon the Earth is what you are to do! It is that simple. Using the power of God, that is yours to use, connecting with the creation, of God, is yours to do. Connecting the two in such a way, that your soul magnifies the glory of God, is the beginning of a most miraculous life for it is at that point, that place, where the two energies come together within you, to be the source of a new and powerful energy created within you, and by you, is born. And when you live within this powerful flow of energy you do live in the world, experiencing the lessons you are: to learn, or to teach, or to adjust, or to modify; that you see and realize success.

“It is meant for you to walk upon the Earth, not as a punishment, not in grief, or sorrow, or mourning, but to come to the realization that you have a power within you, which is The Source of all you need.

“I say unto you, ‘Nothing comes to you that cannot be mastered by you!’

“Today the message is simple, yet profound, ‘Use the gifts of Earth, to the fullest potential, by seeing, the creation energy, within them.’ God, your Creator, did not create, without extending All That Is into the creation. Therefore the creation is ‘of God.’ To use these things of Earth, recognizing this creation, this powerful, potent energy, is truly amazing, the results profound. But to reach ‘perfection,’ to recognize miracles, you must be the connecting point! Open, the corridors of your being, and connect with God. Then you are running, and operating, on all cylinders, fully charged. And the most amazing thing is you continue the story of creation, by using: these things of Earth, the powers of Earth created by God, and the power of God within you to create new energies.

“Your soul is to magnify the glory of God, to find the connection is within you. And then, what you set out to do will be perfected in the light and glory of God. This is not some lofty ideal, or a plan written by a hand, thinking it sounded: good, promising, hopeful. It is The Promise!

“It has been written, as a direction, ‘Be ye perfect, as God is perfect.’ While I walked upon the Earth, I said with full knowledge of what I was saying meaning it to its most grand potential, as I spoke to those gathered with Me, ‘You can do what I’m doing.’ I could have further added, ‘Open the eyes of your soul and your spirit and see this. You can do what I’m doing.’

“But I say to you, to do, the way I do, requires connection with the light of God. It is not hidden from you. It is all within you. But it will not operate fully unless you throw open the doors, and make the connection.

“This week, each one of you will have the opportunity, to use what has been given to you to use, fully, completely, so that you are continuing the creation, in what you think, and say, and do.

“I ask you to find a quiet place, to be still, and ask, that you receive revelation, and wisdom, on how to proceed, with your feet fully planted within Earth, and the door to the Heavenly Kingdom thrown open wide. It will amaze you, because you will find that you are no longer struggling to accomplish something. What you will see is that God is doing, through you. Give God: your hands, your feet, your eyes, your ears, your mouth and your tongue, your heart, and your thoughts, for one day at a time.

“And when you walk the Earth in balance and harmony with All That Is, you will be living in the state of miracles. You will be perfect as God is perfect. And you will do even greater things, than I did.

“These things, I not only tell you; these things I promise you.”

Jesus Teaches On:

Once You Accept The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit Of God Within You, The Fruits Are Yours

“I AM with you. If you will throw-open the doors of your heart, you will feel My presence, for I AM with you. Come sit with Me for I have something to tell you

“The orchard, within your being, the orchard, which bears the fruits, of The Holy Spirit of God, has no particular place, or boundaries. It is not a location, set upon the Earth, where those who thirst and are hungry, can make their way along a path, and eventually find the orchard, and the vineyards, and the peace. No this place is special You do not have to make a journey. You do not have to travel miles. You do not have to cross boundaries and mountains, rivers or deserts. All you have to do is to say, ‘I am here. I am still. I thirst. I am hungry.’ And with those words, the seeds, sown by the hand of God and borne by The Holy Spirit of God, planted within your being, spring forth to life. ‘I thirst.’ And from the seeds spring forth the shoots and the sprouts. ‘I hunger.’ And the blossoms open. And as you need it, there is bounty, the harvest of The Holy Spirit. It is part of your wealth, and your heritage, as a child of God. It is the eternal banquet table. The harvest is rich. And the only thing required to drink and eat is to say, ‘I thirst. I hunger.’ And with those words, the gates to the orchards and the vineyards, within you, are thrown open.

“Once you accept the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God, the fruits are yours!

“Once you begin to eat the fruit the orchard and the vineyard grow more abundant. The more you eat, the more there is. Such bounty you cannot imagine. Let us say, you pick the fruit, patience. You eat of it, and it is sweet. It moves throughout your being, and what spills forth from you after eating this fruit, is genuine compassion and understanding, for those around you. Patience: allowing others the time they need, the space they need, whatever they need. And in doing this patiently, they experience God through you. And your blessing is unique, because the gift, that you are giving others, cannot pass through you without being known by you. Patience; patience with time, and space, upon the Earth, give you a glimpse of eternity. While in the presence with patience, you are experiencing eternal time, eternal space.

“And once you have tasted, the fruit of patience, it leads you to taste the other fruits, one fruit leading to another: patience; compassion; understanding. They go in such beautiful order that you can taste the fruit and your mouth tingles with a sensation to try another.

“You cannot eat of the fruits of The Holy Spirit, without being enriched, nourished, fulfilled, and filled with The Glory of God. The fruits are abundant, and their outward sign, their evidence, is abundantly clear to all who are around you. ‘There walks the one who eats from the fruits and the vines of The Holy Spirit of God.’

“There is no particular order to what you have to choose either, just begin. Open, and accept the gifts of The Holy Spirit, and the orchard and vineyard will spring forth, and all you need, you will have.

“The books that you have studied during some of your time upon the Earth will give you knowledge, and they will help you, to show you the way, as you walk into the world, about what is appropriate, how you say something properly, whether you go this way or that way. They are tools, to make your way, upon the Earth. They are valuable tools, so that you might ‘know,’ what to do.

“And the gifts and the fruits of The Holy Spirit of God are tools the eternal tools so that you might ‘know well,’ what to do on the eternal plane. Use your knowledge and intelligence, in such a way, that they assist you, in using the gifts, and the fruits of The Holy Spirit of God. Put your spiritual gifts, and fruits, in ‘the driver’s seat;’ and take with you ‘as a passenger,’ your knowledge and intelligence; they will serve you well, as you make your way over the Earth. But as you make your way over the Earth, be nourished in the garden of God.

“This week, open. Speak with your heart, and your soul, and your spirit, ‘I thirst. I am hungry,’ and be still. And the branches within you will live, and bear fruit, and you will be sustained. The seeds are planted placed within you, by the hand of God. The garden is tended by The Holy Spirit, ever present within you. And I am your brother, who desires to sit with you, and dine with you, under the tree in the light and the peace of All That Is forever, and eternally All That Is.”

Jesus Teaches On:

I Am The Vine, You Are The Branches, Eat Of The Fruits Of The Holy Spirit, Within You, And You Will Forever Be At Peace

“I AM with you. On this very special day, when you take the time to be still, and wait, to hear My words, or read My words, I come to you

“I AM with you. I AM with you, in spirit, and spirit is the reality; therefore, we are together in reality, and eternally.

“Some two thousand years ago, I walked upon the Earth for a brief time. As I began My public mission, I went about, calling those to Me, who would walk with Me, who would hear what I had to say to them, and who would accept the message, with an open heart. At some point, in our walking together, during the early stages, they said to Me, ‘Where do you stay?’ I answered them, ‘Come with Me, and you will see.’

“We moved from place to place, walking, as those who would gather with us, joined. We walked and talked, sat and prayed, and touched many. Many came to believe, with an open heart, as they were touched and called. I said to them, ‘Come. Come with Me and see.’

“There was a man, named Nathaniel, who joined us. I loved him. He came, and spoke to Me, and I said to him, ‘Nathaniel I saw you under the fig tree.’ This moved him, to a greater level of faith, because he was not visible to My human eye, when I had seen him. ‘Nathaniel,’ I said, ‘You now believe, because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree. But if you will come with Me, you will see the most amazing things: you will see angels, ascending and descending from the sky; you will learn to see, with your heart and your soul and your spirit; you will learn to see, in many ways.’

“And they did, each one of them. They came to ‘know,’ and they did see. They saw, because of their faith in Me, and I was right there with them, encouraging them. And they moved with Me. But My brothers and sisters, you have greater faith, because with the human eye you cannot see Me; yet, by the wisdom of God, you see Me with your soul, your spirit, and your heart welcomes Me. This is a blessing. Embrace it. Do not let your sight be limited to what you can see with the human eye. Open your heart and see with the eyes of God, on an eternal plane. And as you come to see as God sees you will not judge.

“As you walk upon the Earth now, you encounter judgment, whether it is created by another, or created within yourself. There is no need to join into judgment. It is an energy best left alone, because soon it fills you with hatred, confusion, and chaos. I speak to you ‘of judgment,’ because it is one of the things that is most challenging upon the Earth. It seems that it is at every corner, every bend in the road, every thought.

“But there is a way for you to encounter judgment, without taking part in judgment. If you will open to the love of God, and let it flow through you, the living waters and the power of God will be so majestic that these things cannot invade you, for the flow of living water, power, light, peace, and joy will be flowing through you, and from you, at such a rate, that makes it impossible for an invasion of this dark energy. It might swirl around you, but it will not invade you, and bring you down.

“Soon after I returned to the Heavenly Kingdom, The Holy Spirit of God was dispatched to each one of you in a most special way. And I tell you today, The Holy Spirit is tending vineyards and orchards within you from which the fruits can be picked, to fill you, to enrich you. For everything you will encounter upon the Earth which is challenging, there is a fruit, and it is within your reach. If you will take the fruit and eat it, it will fill you with nourishment, spiritual nourishment. And you will have the ability to encounter grief, and deliver peace. You will have the ability to encounter hatred, and deliver love. You will have the ability to encounter chaos and confusion, and deliver compassion and understanding. This divine garden, with vineyards and orchards, is within you, being tended by The Holy Spirit within you. I invite you this week, to walk into that sacred place, to sit down and ask for a fruit. It will be given to you, and it will be sweet, and rich, and filling. For every challenge you encounter this week, there will be a fruit, sweet and succulent, potent, powerful.

“Eat of the fruit of The Holy Spirit, and you will forever be at peace, for that garden is within you, planted by The Hand of God, and cultivated by The Holy Spirit, ever present, yours for the asking.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Mysteries of Heaven Are Revealed: The Root, The Vine, The Branch, And The Seed, Are All One

“I AM with you. Feel My presence with you. I come to you through the corridors of time, for time cannot separate My love for you. In truth there is no time. Time is the illusion of Earth. There is eternity, eternal birth. Feel Me, as I draw even nearer to you. You know Me, as I know you. I AM your Brother. I AM your Brother, of spirit, your eternal Brother.

“I speak to you, and My words reverberate throughout your being, and touch the core, the core of your spirit, and you know Me. For in truth, you know Me better than you know your physical family, your earthly brothers and sisters, for you know Me, in spirit. The dust of Earth will fall away, revealing the eternal spirit of All That Is, revealing The Eternal Spirit that is you, that is Me, that is all created by God, for we are One.

“I AM the vine. You are the branches. The root, the source of eternal life, is God. The roots, the vine, and the branches are one. And from the branches, spring forth the leaves, and from the leaves, comes the fruit, fruit to feed those of Earth.

“The fruit, knows the vine, knows the branches, and knows the root, of its existence, for the fruit bears the seed, of the root of God, within it. We are One.

“I AM in the Father Creator, you are in Me, and I AM in you. Just as the root, and the vine, and the branch, we are One.

“When the fruit, falls from the vine, it carries the seed from whence it came, to spread the kingdom of the root. An apple does not spring forth from a seed, which came from the fruit of the lemon tree. For the seed knows from whence it came. And the seed from the fruit of the lemon will yield a lemon tree.

“If someone hands you a dried seed, and says, ‘Plant it,’ you do not know what gifts the seed holds within until you plant it, and water it, and watch it grow. And then, the scent and the fragrance of the leaves give you a clue. And you wait for the flowers more clues. And then comes the fruit revealing the mystery that was held within the seed placed in your hand, months ago. But you cannot take the seed, and say, ‘Grow-up to be an apple tree,’ and have the apple tree come forth, if the seed came from the lemon. You must be patient, plant what you have been given, and watch the mysteries unfold before your eyes, so you will see.

“I say these things to you so that those of you, who hear these words will know them. I say these words to you, so that those of you reading these words will know them. What is given to you is yours. Your seed might be the seed of an apple. Another might hold the seed of the lemon. Your seed is yours. Do not tend another’s seed, by saying, ‘You should raise-up an apple tree,’ tend your own garden; because the mysteries of Heaven will be revealed to each of you, at the appropriate time, at the appropriate place. When you are ready, it will come to you, for you are the branch, and it is for you to know the vine and the root.

“Just as a seed knows from whence it came, you too know from whence you came. You are the seed of God! And that which is to come from the seed of God, are the fruits of The Holy Spirit of God. So that each of the children might know their way better, the Creator of all things poured-out The Holy Spirit upon all flesh. So it is in this way, that you will find the truth you carry The Holy Spirit of God within you! You carry the seed of God within you! And in the quiet, you will know from whence you came. Do not let another tell you, that you are to bring forth apples, when you know, at the core of your being, the seed that is planted within you is to yield lemons. The wisdom of God is within you! Those of you, who have ears, hear this!

“And if you open the ears of your soul, and your spirit, and your heart, you will hear and know. You can read all the words written, by the hand of mankind. You can read the words, and ponder the words, and talk about the words. But to know, and to hold close the wisdom of God, does not require you to read what others have found-out, or studied, or theorize. The promise of God is: the wisdom will be given you to comprehend the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, because you see, the seed: knows The Branch, knows The Vine, and knows The Root. We are One.”

Jesus Teaches On:

The Gift Of Great Value Is Of Little Value Until It Is Embraced And Used

“I AM with you. I AM with you in this joyful, sacred and blessed time. I AM with you, as you begin to come to the end of the celebration of the season of Christmas.

“Epiphany marks the official ending of the Christmas season, and it is a fitting way to complete the time.

“Christmas begins with the gift of the Child The Living Word God's Gift to Man.

“And the gift of love is so rich and full it touches and opens the heart of those upon the Earth. They are moved with tender feelings, and a desire to duplicate the gift of love for in their hearts, The Child is born and lives.

“And so is born a period of gift-giving, a time set aside to give a gift, from the love felt in your heart.

“Many of you, hearing these words or reading these words, were touched, and you gave gifts, and received gifts, in love. Some of you might have received a gift given with a prayer, that it would help you, with the work you do, lighten your load a bit. Others might have received a gift given in love, to help you enjoy a talent you have. And these gifts, if unused, are of little value.

“If you use the gift given to help you lighten your work load, at the end of the day you are not so tired. You have more time for family and friends, or perhaps time to sit down at that piano that's pretty dusty in the corner, or pick-up a violin or guitar one gift leading to others.

“If you have been given something to help you enjoy a talent you have, such as paints, drawing pencils, canvas, golf clubs, whatever these gifts might be, they do not assist you in improving your talent until you use them; and then, when the paints are used, the results are framed and hung on the walls, and enjoyed by many. When the golf clubs are used by a young boy, a child becomes quite proficient, amazing with skills, which may lead to a scholarship, to the ability to go to college, to receive a degree, and to be a teacher one gift, opening to others, and others, and others.

“The list could go on but, you understand what I'm saying. Left unopened, unused, the gifts you receive are of little value to you, or to anyone else. And it is the same with your spiritual gifts.

“The Babe born grew up. And before I returned Home, I promised that each of you would receive a great gift from God to guide you all The Way Home, a personal counselor, just for you, abiding within you to show The Way, a great harbinger of the gifts to come. For if you will open, and receive the gift of The Holy Spirit of God, then, you will receive one gift after another, one gift leading to another.

“Each of you will receive different gifts of The Holy Spirit, but each gift is ‘of The Holy Spirit,’ and designed: to assist you, to lighten your workload, or, to help you to enhance your talents. But if it is ignored, then you do not get the benefit of the gift. Your gift might be: faith, or charity, or the ability to understand things beyond the conception of others. It might be that you see visions. It might be that you have the gift, of great forgiveness. The list does not end. There are many gifts, one Spirit. And the one Spirit is within each of you. The gift is there. The question is, will you embrace the gift, and open the gift today? By opening the gift you open the door to eternal possibilities. The gift of faith: will lead you to trust; it will lead you to be brave, courageous, noble, kind, compassionate, understanding. It goes on, and on.

“Begin, today! Embrace the gift of The Holy Spirit of God; and, with eager anticipation, open the gifts that are brought to you, as they come, one by one, timed precisely, for what you need. It is The Perfect Way to end this season of love, by opening your heart, accepting the gift, and using it!”
