

THE QUIET PLACE

Jesus' Sunday Sermons 2013

The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

December 29, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Imagine: My Consciousness Within You; Giving Birth To The Kingdom Of God All Around You

“I AM with you! I AM, truly, with you! I AM in The Wind, which touches your hair, gently; I AM in the song of the bird, which thrills your heart; I AM in the leaves, in the trees, in the streams and the rivers; I AM all around you, and I AM in you; we are One.

“Many of you are still wearing the smiles of Christmas; for many of you, your hearts are warm, the memories sweet; for many of you, this year, received the seeds of love, and compassion, and understanding, and gave birth to the true spirit of Christmas: I was born, within you, you came to know Me better, and because of this creation, this Christ Consciousness, within you: bridges were mended; obstacles were moved; forgiveness was given, and received; understanding and compassion were spoken with truth; and, The Kingdom of God lived, upon Earth, because you were moved to say, ‘Yes!’

“And for those of you who experienced this, or even a piece of this, I say to you this day, do not let it die, do not let it wilt; for you have given birth; and giving such a birth brings responsibility to care for that which is born of you. It is as if you have given birth to a child, and that requires care and attention. It is as if you have created the outline, and planted the seeds, of a magnificent garden, and this, too, requires care and attention. You have given birth, because of desire, and intention, to do so, and now, that birth requires attention, so it might grown, and live, and be abundant in grace and glory.

“In the few remaining days, of this year, set aside some time, every day, to bless that, which is born, of you. Call upon the river of God’s love to irrigate, and to bring the waters of grace. Baptize that which is born of you in the water of God’s love, and set your intention to take care of this glorious responsibility that was created, of you. Set your intention: to be more loving; to be kinder; to be more compassionate; to be happier; to be more joyful; to be thankful, for every single day; for, it is in this Way that your new coming year will prosper, and you will grow abundant in joy and contentment, and be at peace, as you walk upon the Earth; for it is possible to bring The Kingdom of God onto the Earth; and for those who realize this, they are blessed, with the opportunity to do so!

“Think of this. Begin to imagine, within your heart, The Kingdom of God, springing-up all around you, lighting The Way, for all to see, that which is born of you! And because you are ‘of The Kingdom of God,’ let your thoughts, and words, and deeds proclaim the glory of God! This can be your gift to Earth, for the coming year; but to do so, requires desire and intention, and a commitment to live one day at a time, focusing on that which is born of you, so it does not wither, or become parched, or be choked-out by weeds of neglect.

“Let us begin by preparing for the new year, starting today! Pray each day, and then pay attention to that which is born of you!”

December 22, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

New Insight On How To Celebrate Christmas: Open, And Use, Your Gifts From The Holy Spirit Of God

“I AM with you! When your intention is to hear Me, and be with Me, we reach the glorious place of communion, and we are united, and you feel My presence with you! This is such a day; you are ready, and you feel Me; and, in this coming together, you know Me, as I know you!

“I have spoken to you about all of the miracles surrounding My birth. I have touched your heart, so that you might come to know, better, My young mother, and her willingness to subject herself to ridicule and shame, because an angel of God had called her name. And she listened, and followed.

“Every one of the individuals involved in My birth, to a major degree, had to say, ‘Yes,’ for the next step to occur. Imagine the courage... the faith... and the trust in God... required to say: ‘Yes, I will give birth;’ ‘Yes, I will take this woman into my home;’ ‘Yes, we will travel a long distance, to see, with our own eyes, what God has done;’ ‘Yes, we will leave our sheep in the hillsides, and follow the angel voices;’ ‘Yes, I will rise-up in the middle of the night, and take the Child to Egypt;’ ‘Yes, we will not go back the easy way, or report to Harrod, we will find a new way to go home;’ ‘Yes. yes, Thy will be done!’

“The story is so familiar to each of you... that only a few words need to be said... and you go there, you know it, you are familiar with it. But today I give you new insight on how to celebrate Christmas... !

“Each of you carries within you gifts of The Holy Spirit of God, seeds, if you will. And you must say, ‘Yes,’ acknowledge the gifts, open the gifts, and use them, before they come to fruition through you. You must say, ‘Yes,’ and be the first one to forgive, the first one to embrace, the first one to love. You must say, ‘Yes,’ and take those who have ridiculed you, and mocked you, into the sanctuary of your home, your heart. You must say, ‘Yes,’ to be willing to go where you have not gone before, so that you might see. You must say, ‘Yes,’ rather than fear, and listen to angels sing to thee. You have the ability to give birth. But it will take courage. The world will not understand. But when your heart, and your intention, is so set, it will not matter. An angel will come forth, and take your hand, and say, ‘Come. It is time. See the signs around you. It is time to give birth to that which you carry within you. And all of Earth will be changed, because one child was willing to say, ‘Yes.’

“And in so stating... the flicker became a flame,
and there was light!”

December 15, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Open, And Use The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit You Have Been Given And Follow The Will Of God

“I AM with you! I AM always with you. I was born, amongst you; therefore, I AM familiar with the ways, and the workings, of the world; they are not foreign to Me; they are a part of Me, a piece of Me; and they are within Me in such a way, that I can deliver My peace to you, as you create your piece, of eternity, on Earth. You can create a miraculous lifetime upon Earth, if you will hear My words, and follow... .

“For today and the rest of this week, I want you to saturate yourself in the understanding, and belief, of the importance, and the role, the angels of God played, in My birth. Even prior to My birth, they paved The Way, they set the path straight.

“These things are not to be ignored. These events are not to be held special, never to occur again. These momentous memories are the things your dreams are made of; and by paying attention, and receiving the word of God and the guidance of angels, you too, can walk upon the Earth, in confidence in all you do. One way to assure this confident walk upon the Earth, is to dust-off that box of gifts from The Holy Spirit of God; remove the top, take them out; and use the gifts, you have been given!

“The gift... that enhances your vision and allows you to see, to see an angelic being, coming to thee... is that one of yours? If it is, use it! The gift to ‘know something,’... to be filled with ‘the knowing of God,’ to see the birth of an infant, and ‘know... .’ This gift, is this one of yours? If it is, take the knowing, into your heart. Do not dismiss it, by saying you have a gift of being ‘intuitive, being able to know things, see things.’ Understand, it goes deeper. It is ‘Knowing.’ It is not guessing. It is not being lucky. It is ‘Knowing!’ A gift from God. Do you have dreams that are so strong, and bright, and powerful, that they prompt you to recite them the next day? These dreams... could be coming to you with something important. Pay attention to what they say. Could this dreaming be a gift... communication from God? Use the gift... and ask for wisdom to know... what the dream is telling you!

“These things... will bring your faith... to a new level... make your walk, more confident!

“So, let Me sum-up these pieces and parts of My birth, showing just how the gifts of The Holy Spirit were used to make My birth, as it is recorded, miraculous. My mother talked to angels, and followed the will of God. My father dreamed dreams in which he received the angels’ direction, and followed the will of God. My aunt ‘knew,’ within her, and followed the will of God. The Wise Men searched and found the truth, and followed the will of God, paying attention to the dreams, and the angels, guaranteeing My freedom. The shepherds were awestruck at the visions from Heaven, the parting of the veil, hearing the songs of angels, and they followed the will of God. When I could walk... I rose-up... and listened... and dreamed... and knew... and followed... the will of God.

“These things that I did... you too, can do... if you will listen... and follow... the will of God!”

December 8, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Joseph And The Christmas Story: Opening, Embracing, And Using, The Gifts From The Holy Spirit Of God, Such 'Faith,' Is The Hope Of The World

"I AM with you! I reach-out and I touch you, and you feel My presence! You feel My love! It enfolds you, and holds you, and all the cares and worries, 'the temptations, of the world,' slip away, no longer relevant. This is the reality, of walking with Me, of believing, of faith, faith so mighty and real, that it gives you the courage to believe. Even when the world says, 'No,' you believe in such a way, that you can sing-out, 'Yes!' And with the song of that solitary singer, the energies of belief and faith and courage, roll over Earth; pronounced, given birth; therefore, they live!

"I have come to you with messages about: the faith, of My earthly mother, the trust, the ability to hear the words of angels, and act, according to the will of God. Such faith... is the hope of the world! But today I wish to speak to you about the faith of a man, Joseph: My earthly parent, the one who guided Me in the ways of the world, the one who taught Me a trade, the one who showed Me what to do as I walked amongst man. He too, shared the common thread, of faith and trust, to such a degree that it wove a beautiful garment around him. Every belief, every piece of faith, becoming a stitch in a garment that protected him from the doubt of the world and enhanced his glory and his faith in God.

"It is important to remember, or better yet, to remove this man Joseph, from the feeling of a story, or a fairytale, regarding My birth; because the story has been told so many times, those of you, living upon Earth, have placed it in a category wherein the people involved really had 'no choice.' You read the words as though everybody 'knew what was happening, and it was easy.' And I AM here to say, it was not! Each one in the story could pick, and choose. God did not strip them of freewill. God blessed them, with grace; and they used their gift of faith, to enhance their situation.

"There came a time when Joseph, realizing what was taking place within the body of his betrothed, made a decision. And even that worldly decision was based on kindness; therefore, you 'know,' that Joseph was a kind, and compassionate, human being. He decided that all things would be done 'quietly,' so as not to disgrace, Mary, any more than she was already, 'disgraced,' or so he thought. But in a dream an angel came to Joseph, and explained: that this was not disgrace, this was 'grace, full, rich, deep, and glorious;' that all was as it should be with God; and, a miracle was about to take place.

"When something 'new,' happens, those around you are reluctant to release the old, the old ways, the old words, the things that worked in the past. But the ones who forge the new way, who bring the new word, are often alone; except, their relationship with God is stronger. This was Joseph's decision, a dream, the voice of an angel, giving him direction. Now Joseph could have risen-up the next morning, and said, 'That was a strange dream,' and set about his course, following the plan he had set, to separate from Mary and go on his way; but this is not what he did. He cast aside the standard of the world, and moved, according, to the words spoken to him in a dream; and our earthly family was forged, within that fire of faith.

“These things did not stop; for My earthly father listened to the angels, and acted upon the guidance, and the dreams. He did not think, ‘I best stay, it’s not convenient,’ when he was told to rise-up, and take the mother and Child into Egypt. It was inconvenient, it was a journey; but Joseph, My earthly father, looked at it as ‘a journey of faith.’ He followed, setting the ways of the world aside: to take the hand of God; to hear the voices of angels; to keep Me safe; so that the Divine Plan, could unfold, according to the will of God.

December 1, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

The True Spirit Of Christmas, Prepare To Give Birth To That Which You Carry Within

“I AM with you! I come to you, today, to deliver words meant to instill, within you: courage, faith, hope, and trust.

“Many of you are in the process of preparing for what is called the ‘Christmas Season.’ This time usually begins with a day of Thanksgiving, and does not end, on your calendar, until January 1st of the new year. It is a time of great celebration; but the true meaning of this time is lost, even in those who desire, and set their course and intention to experience the time in a different way. The ‘spirit,’ seems to elude them, ‘the true spirit: of birth, of conception and birth, of bringing upon the Earth new life!’

“Most of you, hearing or reading these words, are in the process of conception and birth, the creation process. Some of you might have conceived and, at this time, are carrying a child, a child which you are nurturing within, until it is time to be ‘born, of you.’ Some of you have conceived the words to a book, and you are nurturing these words, until it is time to be born of you. Still others of you have conceived plans for a building, the notes of a song, the words in a poem, and you nurture these things, and hold them within, until it is time to be born of you. At this point you can insert anything, which you have conceived, which you are nurturing within, and when it is time, will be born of you. This is creation! It is ‘God's creation,’ continuing, through you!

“I want for you to hear My words, in such a way that they instill in each of you ‘the courage to nurture that which you have conceived,’ in such a way that you will not be distracted, that you will carry the gift, and give birth. And so, as an example, I want for you to close your eyes, so that this might slip into your being fully. No matter whether you are man, woman, child: a little boy, or a little girl, I want you to imagine that you are a girl, a young girl, between fourteen and sixteen years old, and one day, while you are sitting, quietly, an angel appears to you, and says to you, that The Holy Spirit will fill you, and you will give birth to: a child, who will show The Way, for all to see, and know; a child sent from God, to walk amongst man.

“At first, this seems that it would be a miraculous event, and many of you would say, ‘Oh, I would be so excited! That would be wonderful!’ But I want you to understand the impact of such a message on a young girl, whose hand had already been given, she was betrothed to a man... she was waiting... for marriage. Her life was set, in a ‘close community,’ a community so small, that they knew everything that was going on in every house, and sometimes in every heart, and head. What kind of news would this be? What would this mean... that you would give birth; that this child would be ‘of The Holy Spirit?’ The questions would tumble through your head, one right after another, driving you to distraction. What will my betrothed think? What will my family say? What will the community do? How will they accept me? And the answer to every one of these questions, had they been asked, by this young woman, would surely have been ‘you will be ostracized, they will turn their heads head from you, they will not believe you! But this girl, not much more than a child, said quietly 'Let it be done unto me, according to Thy will.' And she set the stage. It required courage, but more than courage, faith, trust, hope. In her faith, she trusted. She trusted the word of the angel, knowing it was a message from God. And because of her faith, and her trust, she gave hope to all mankind!

“‘Let it be done unto me, according to Thy will.’ What does this mean? It means that you are willing to live in such a way that God's breath, God's word, God's hand moves you; and you do not question it! It is in this Way, that miracles, will be done, through you! But you must be willing: to watch for the sign; to accept the message; to set aside your own freewill, to do the will of God; and, to set your face toward the light. You must be willing to set aside being ostracized by others; you must set aside being judged by others, because these distractions will keep you from conceiving, nurturing, and giving birth to that which you carry within; for you see, the seed of The Holy Spirit is within each of you. It is there; you have conceived; the gifts are there; nurture them, without regard to what others say, or do. Set your face into the light, and prepare to give birth, with great delight, for that which you carry is to be born 'of you,' a gift to Earth.

“Be at peace this day. Be at peace. Do not fear. Do not be afraid. Listen to the message from God. Nurture the message from God. And prepare to give birth to that which you carry, within you!”

November 24, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

This Year In Honor Of Thanksgiving Day Celebrate And Use Your Gifts From The Holy Spirit Of God

“I AM with you. I touch you. I love you! My desire is to reveal, and illuminate the potential, within each of you, for each of you carry, within you, gifts from God, called, most frequently, The Gifts of The Holy Spirit; gifts, most of the time, left: unused; unexplored; some of the time used, but more often they sit, unused; and, how can you be thankful for a gift, you know not, that sits, unused?

“Many of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, are preparing this week, for a great holiday, a holiday that opens the doors to great festivities: the end of the year; the coming of Christmas; celebrating, of sending the old year out, and welcoming the new year in; all of these things, seem to begin with Thanksgiving Day. It is a time when you gather with family, or you sit and think about family or friends. You think about ‘the food,’ you have to eat, you think about ‘the material things,’ you have been given, the success you have achieved, goals realized. There is a lot of celebration, involved with Thanksgiving; but very few shine the light of Thanksgiving to extend to the spiritual gifts they have been given, those gifts that make it possible to do all things! Therefore, I speak to you this day, of how to celebrate Thanksgiving... in a new Way... a more powerful Way... a miraculous Way...

“Think about celebrating Thanksgiving, with gratitude for the spiritual gifts; for the richness of spiritual life, available for each one of you, if you will choose to use it. So, I invite you, for this coming week, to pick-up your gifts, your spiritual gifts, and begin to use them, work with them! See ‘the miracles,’ which will come forth from them. See ‘you,’ in a different way, shining, glowing, operating, in the spiritual realm!

“If you can do these things, your Thanksgiving will have more meaning to you: it will be multi-dimension; it will be spiritual, and physical; it will be a Thanksgiving, uniting Heaven and Earth, and all the potential held within every human being!

“This week: you will moving amongst individuals; you will be moving into situations, and out of situations; there will be events, and non-events; even when you are alone, in a solitary mode, you are going to have ‘the opportunity,’ to use the gifts, which often go unused, within you.

“If you encounter someone who is so frustrated they tend to be angry, maybe speak harshly, or in an unkind way, to you, that is ‘the opportunity,’ you are waiting for. That is it. Rather than following ‘the temptation,’ that is whispered, ‘You should be angry. You should be upset with that person,’ reject it, and search amongst your spiritual gifts. Call forth the spirit of tolerance, and understanding. Call it forth. It is yours. And the spirit of tolerance and understanding will come unto you, and you will be speaking ‘tolerance,’ and ‘understanding!’ Every situation you encounter, no matter how dreary, or frustrating it can be, gives you the opportunity to use the gifts that are yours.

“When you are tempted to be frustrated, cast the spirit of frustration from you, and call forth the spirit of patience, ‘Come, sit with me,’ and that is what you will speak.

“When you are tempted to anger, cast that spirit from you, and call forth the spirit of love, ‘Come, and sit with me,’ and then, love is what you will think and speak.

“When you are tempted by the spirit of sorrow, or grief, reject that spirit, and call forth the spirit of compassion, and understanding, peace, and serenity. And that is what you will think, and speak.

“My words today have a goal. I AM seeking to enlighten you to the true potential, within you. Do not fall, victim, to envy, or greed, or anger, or chaos, or confusion, or any of the things, the list that could go on, and on, and on, tempting you, into a less than glorious life. Use The Power that is within you, to sit with the spirits, the beautiful spirit of peace, compassion, patience, tolerance, love, forgiveness. And this list can go on, and on, as well.

“Use the gifts you have been given to ‘perfect,’ your week, and come Thanksgiving Day, you will have experienced a life filled with joy, and peace, and you will be confident. You will have much to be thankful for, because by using your gifts, the gifts given to you by God, through The Holy Spirit, you will be uniting Heaven and Earth. And it will all happen, through you, in what you think, and say, and do!”

November 17, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Listen, And Know The Spirit(s) With Whom You Are Communicating

“I AM with you. I bring answers to questions, and sometimes, I provide questions for the answers you have found. That might take a while for you to understand, but it is true, just the same. That which you do not understand can be true just the same. Truth is not confined to the limited understanding of the human being. The noble spirits who donned the robe of humankind, to descend upon the Earth, to make it a better place, accept these limitations, and go forth knowing, confident that they will be able to rise above the limitations and boundaries to perform the work of God.

“It is important to remember that your body is not eternal, your body is limited, your body is confined and restricted; but, the spirit that is you, the spirit that animates your body and brings it to life, is eternal. And when the spirit hears the call to return Home, the body is left, lifeless; once the spirit is gone, the body is no longer animated.

“I wish for you to take this another step. Use this information when you are communicating with others, for most of you believe that you are communicating with the person who is standing in front of you, or possibly who is at the other end of a telephone conversation, an e-mail, or other form of written communication. But make no mistake, your belief that you are communicating with that person, is ‘slightly off-center,’ it is ‘not the total truth.’ And once you are illuminated, and see, then you will begin to understand, communication from the core; and this will prompt you to listen more.

“When you communicate with another, you are communicating with ‘the spirit,’ who is control of the body form. You might be communicating: with the spirit of sadness, with the spirit of disease or sickness, with the spirit of lamentation, with the spirit of grief, with the spirit of anger, or greed, or lust. You are not just communicating with the person you see in front of you, or hear. You are in direct communication with the spirit that is animating that body, and therefore, the wise listen very carefully to what is coming from that body, the words that are rolling over the lips, the words that are spoken, because they are the key to the spirit which is communicating with thee. And that always alters what you say.

“Those of you for whom this message is intended, because of where you are, and what you are doing, will recognize its importance. Some of you will disregard this message, totally, believing yourselves to be excellent communicators, without getting into this conversation at all. But, for those of you who are stirred ‘to hear,’ I call upon you to draw near, because from your understanding of this will come wisdom.

“When you encounter one who is speaking, giving you ‘The Key,’ that they are locked in sorrow, depression, or anxiety, it is ‘the sign,’ to ‘be still, back away, and pray.’ It is not necessary for you to pray that they understand what you are saying. What is necessary is that you open to our Heavenly Parent, our Eternal Parent, and let that power and light flow through you, directly to them; because, I promise you this, it will be exactly what they need, without words. For, I can also promise you this, the one caught in such a state, the one living with such spirits, 'will not hear your words, as they are meant to be.' And the same will apply to any you encounter who are caught in a web of spirits that are shadowy and dark. Listen; and, in the wisdom of the listening, you will come to understand, that the only thing that will be 'the right thing to do,' is to let the power of God flow to them, through you.

"This is a lesson, for The Masters, for those who are willing to set ego, and the ways of the world, aside: to follow the path, to know The Way, because they will 'know,' what to say, and what not to say, simply because of this key, I give to you, today. 'Know,' the spirits with whom you are conversing; for, the shadowy ones will tempt you, they will tempt you astray, and distract you from your communication with God. And you know that feeling! It is very similar to sitting on a park bench, feeling the sun flow over, and warm your body, listening to the sounds of the birds, and loving God; for the ability to experience Earth in such a way. And then, onto that tranquil scene comes two people fighting, and screaming, and making loud noises. You are distracted from the peace, and you focus your attention on what is going on around you. That is what the spirits, communicating with you through another, are doing, when they are the spirits of anger, or frustration, or chaos, even sickness, disease, or depression. The thing to do, and the only way to go, when you encounter the spirits of shadow and darkness is to call upon God, and let that power, flow. But very few use this information, because very few are willing to set their ego aside, and let God work, through them.

"Now, it is easy to communicate with one, that you recognize right away as, being filled with the spirit of joy, and happiness, love, compassion, or understanding. It flows from them, and you know it, you know it in the way they speak. That conversation is easy. So, the lessons come, are learned, and mastered, when you encounter the shadowy spirits in another.

"The more you work with this, the more you will be surprised. The benefits will be great. And in so doing, there is another reward that you might not suspect, at first, but it will be realized the longer you work in this way. When you are communicating with those who are happy, joyful, filled with light, all that you say goes into them, and is absorbed by that energy, that spirit. Everything is flowing, and there are no bumps in the road. If you will master the technique to recognize, by listening, the spirit to whom you are speaking, and immediately call upon God, and let that power flow through you to them, without speaking, then there is no way your words can be twisted or turned, because they were never said.

"I say to the few of you who are willing to try this, do not be disheartened, or dismayed, if it does not work the way you think it should work the first, or even second, time, because you have spent so many years being distracted, or tempted, into conversations with the wrong spirits, that you will tend to go there, easily; but, the one thing you will notice is you will be aware of what you are doing. 'Oh,' you will say, 'I know!' Do not be tempted to judge yourself as wrong. Be willing to say, 'I now, know!'

"Today, I have given you an answer, to a question, which will help many of you grow. Listen, before you speak, and pay attention so that you 'know the spirit, who is communicating with you.' You will know, quickly, whether it is enticing you to be distracted, tempting you into the communication, or whether it is filled with joy, and light, and happiness. Pay attention, because it is time for the masters to awaken, and know how to communicate.

“What spirits are you communicating with? Pay attention!”

November 10, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

That Which You Cannot Do, God Can Do Through You, All Things Are Possible When You Open, Receive, And Believe

“I AM with you. I AM speaking to you! I AM reaching-out to you! I AM! There is not so much distance between us at all; for, communion with Me is a breath away, a prayer away, a thought away; we are that close; and as you grow in spiritual wisdom, you will come to understand: how Heaven can be with you; how I AM with you; how you can reach-out and take My hand! These things will be revealed to you, when the time is right, when you are ready to set aside ‘the ways of the world,’ and ‘believe,’ believe the eternal truth; and, at that time, all things will be illuminated, and you will see, and in the seeing, you will know!

“You were sent from Heaven, the dimension of perfection; you were sent to Earth to make a difference; you were sent with a mission, and the mission is certainly possible for you to complete; for there would be no reason to send you to accomplish a mission that was not possible for you to do; but many of you find yourselves in places facing challenges which seem insurmountable; and it is at these times, in these places and in these situations, when you will ‘awaken to the possibility that miracles will happen, through you; if, you will open, receive and believe!’

“You will find, in your course of your lifetime upon the Earth, that there are people you encounter who are difficult to love, at best; yet, the instruction is clear, ‘Love your enemies, as yourself.’ And the only thing you have to do, when you find yourself in this particular situation, is to be still, receive the love, the power, and the glory of God, and believe that it can flow through you to another, changing the course of the situation for the better, and in many cases, changing it miraculously.

“Many of you might find yourselves in positions which seem chaotic, confusing. You may find yourself turning in circles, not knowing where to go, and no matter where you look, it seems shadowy, threatening, darkness; and, it is in these times, that you discover you have the ability to accept the possibility, and in accepting the possibility, to receive God’s love, flowing through you; and in that moment, in that sacred moment, when you believe, the power of God flows through you, and The Way is made clear; your path is illuminated; you are enlightened; because you believe !

“Believing to this extent, believing in such a way, that miracles happen around you every day: requires that you open, requires that you set aside the perimeters and the yard sticks of the world, and ‘accept, that which God is telling you, accept, that which God is showing you, without hesitation!’

“I will give you an example of this. When I walked upon the Earth, I brought new messages, and you have heard many of them repeated over, and over again: ‘Turn the other cheek;’ ‘When someone asks you for something, give them what they are asking for, and give them more;’ ‘Love your enemy.’ These are just a few of the messages I delivered; but most could not understand them, because they seemed so foreign, so alien, to the ways of the world. Yet, they were messages sent from God, from Heaven, bringing freedom to all who had ears to hear the new message, the new direction, the new guidance.

“‘Most,’ did not understand; they could not accept; therefore, they turned away; but for ‘the few,’ they realized ‘the gift, in turning the cheek, in giving, in loving, in not judging others, in staying connected to God.’

“This is one of ‘the signs,’ I was looking for, the entire time I was upon the Earth, watching for ‘one, who would: be willing to hear, be willing to listen, be willing to grow.’ You could see it in their faces, when they began to know. That is what I was waiting for, because it was My direction not to say more; until, they accepted that, which they were already given.

“How could I speak of ‘the things of Spirit,’ Eternal Life, what was actually happening all around, when so few understood what I was saying about operating in the world created by man? If you do not embrace, ‘turn the other cheek,’ how can I show you more? Therefore, that is where it often stopped. But I will tell you this, if you came from Heaven, you will return to Heaven. That sounds simple, I know; but all that God created, and released freely to go-forth and accomplish something, will come back to God. The things created ‘in the world of humankind,’ will not return to God, because they did not come from God. Human beings make automobiles. Human beings build houses. Human beings stitch together clothing, and cobble shoes. Human beings build skyscrapers. Human beings do a lot of things, build a lot of things, make a lot of material things; but that is exactly what they are ... ‘material things.’ And these material things will not go to Heaven.

“But there are things precious, and sacred, that the human being can take back to Heaven; and they are ‘the things of Spirit,’ they create; they can carry them back to Heaven, in great abundance, taking back the gifts of love, compassion, understanding, gentleness. This type of creation... lives... forever; and you can take it with you; for, every time you speak a gentle word, a kind word, a compassionate and understanding word, you create ‘what you speak.’ And that is what will live, with you, forever.

“While you are upon the Earth, take the opportunity to create more love, more compassion, more understanding. And in so doing, you will magnify The Wisdom of God, and it will move over the Earth! It will be a great gift! It will be a gift, that will live forever; and you will come to understand, that, that which you cannot do on your own, God can do, through you... all things are possible... when you open, receive, and believe!”

November 3, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Free Yourself Today, Forgive, And You Will Come To Know Living, As You Are Meant To Live

“I AM with you. I move through the corridors of all time, in and out of dimensions, traveling from The Dimension of Perfection, a place which is called Heaven, coming to speak, with you! I AM compelled to do this, because I know life upon Earth. I lived life upon Earth. And having: been born, lived, died, and risen, I can address the issues you carry within, from a point of experience.

“Almost everyone, hearing these words, or reading these words, is carrying something ‘unforgiven.’ It is extra weight; it is a burden; it is a chain; and it weighs you down! For some of you, at first you might deny that there is anything there, because that something unforgiven, is small; you have pushed it into a corner, and you think it doesn’t bother you at all; but it does! No matter how good your life seems to be right now, if you will release that burden, it will be ‘better,’ because you will be lighter; it will be done; you will be free! Just because it is small, do not ignore it. Take the time to sit, be still, address that small issue, and forgive, everything associated with the situation, and ‘in the forgiving,’ you will feel ‘lighter, better, healthier!’

“Most of you ‘know,’ what you are carrying, which remains unforgiven. And although you might deny it, you must accept this truth; the only reason it remains unforgiven is because ‘you refuse,’ to do so. And this I share with you, that refusal stems from ‘ego,’ and that joining so strongly with ego, keeps you separate, apart.

“Trust Me, enough, to sit down today, and participate in active forgiveness, forgiveness for that one or two things that remain unforgiven. I do not say you will be able to do it entirely, in one sitting. But you can make a beginning. And even in the beginning of it, you will feel lighter, happier, healthier, freer. And that taste of freedom will lead you right back to the place you have been rejecting, for so long; for, the forgiving is yours to do! Do not waste another day of your lifetime, carrying something, some burden; for it is not necessary. Free yourself today! Begin; for it is the only way to realize life upon Earth, as it is meant to be!

“No matter what Sacred Scripture you choose to use as a reference, as a comfort, as a guidepost, therein you will find... forgiveness... over, and over, and over again; because, it is vital to your health, and wellbeing.

“Begin today, choosing that which has been unforgiven. Lift-it-up! Forgive! Let it fall from you! Hold-it-up, and you will begin to see, that, that which was heavy at first, becomes lighter, with every stage of forgiveness; until the last particles fall between your fingers, like pieces of sand, drifting from you, never again to burden you, once it is done.

“Pick today, to be your day of freedom! Use ‘Forgiveness,’ as ‘The Key,’ to unlock the prison door, and run into the light; for, it is time, and you are ready!”

October 27, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-up And Walk Into The World Created By Man Delivering The Gifts Of The Kingdom Of God

“I AM with you. It is one of the most amazing things, regarding eternity; and all time: past, present, and future, being yours! Where you are, at this moment, you might find it difficult to comprehend eternal life, because it seems everything around you has a beginning, has an end. But once you begin to accept this reality, your life changes immediately, because you realize the body will fall from you, but the spirit rises-up. The spirit is the real you, the authentic you, the eternal you! And when you move into the ways of the world, carrying this wisdom, with you, your perspective changes; it is not the same; you see what is really happening, as it is, and go along your way.

“And it is to assist you in moving along your way, or more appropriately put, moving along The Way, I wish to address three (3) issues with you this morning: ‘Loving,’ loving beyond the ways of the world; ‘Praying,’ praying in a way not taught by the world; and ‘Acting,’ completing your mission, in a way unknown by the world.

“Loving: many of you are ‘trying,’ to love. Many of you are trying to love your enemies, those whom you perceive doing ill toward you. But I say it is easier to let God love, through you, than to use all of your energy, trying to do something on your own. The ways of the world teach you to ‘stand-up for yourself, stand on your own two feet, be the source of that which you need.’ I say, you can love by letting God love through you! Give up trying, and struggling, and simply open to the love of God, flowing through you! And when you encounter those whom you find it difficult to love, set the things you would think, or say, aside, and make direct contact with God. Open to the love of God, and ask, at that moment, that you be used as a conduit for God’s love, flowing to that individual, or possibly, even, individuals. They will feel it! It might not be apparent at first, but they will feel it! And you will grow in faith, knowing that you delivered the love of God, while setting aside your own ego; and, that person ‘felt love!’ This is the only way to do it without depleting yourself; and you can deliver love to every portion of the Earth, in this manner!

“Praying: praying for help, guidance, assistance. How many times have you heard others say, ‘I prayed, and I did not hear an answer, I did not receive guidance, I did not get what I asked for.’? How many times have you felt that way? It is because you are going about praying in the wrong way. Don’t set your intention so firmly that, that is what you pray for, that is what you plead for. Rather, be willing to say, with faith and courage, ‘God, you see this situation. Send me that which I need. Guide me in that way, so that Your will, will be done, through me.’ That is way you pray, so that the will of God will be accomplished, through you! You might be tempted to ask for certain things, but those certain things might not be what you need to accomplish your mission. Therefore, The Eternal Parent, holding eternal wisdom, gives you what you need, not what you think you want. In this way, every single prayer will be answered by God, and the result will come through each of you.

“Take Action, on your mission. Once you are open to God’s love, and God’s love, and power, and light, is flowing, freely, through you, and once you know how to sit with God, and accept what God is telling you, setting aside the things that you want, the things you desire, embracing the gifts of God, then you are ready to move into your mission. But it is very important for you to understand that you have what you need to accomplish your mission! Embracing The Holy Spirit, the wisdom of The Holy Spirit, will enhance your gifts, in such a way that you will be astounded every day, because you will be using your gifts with the wisdom of God!

“When the chosen few around Me, you call apostles and disciples, were sent-out to accomplish certain missions, they went! And because of their faith, they were able to heal, to cast demons from people, to make the world a better place, because they were confident in what they were doing. But when this faith, this confidence, began to slip, they turned-around, or came running-back to Me, saying, ‘Why can’t we do this, we did it yesterday?’ And I said, unto them, ‘You need to be confident, in that which God will do, through you!’ They spent many days: vacillating between confidence, and lack of confidence, doubt; questioning whether this could be true, whether God would work miracles through each of them. No matter what I told them, they still found it difficult to believe. But after My return to The Dimension of Perfection, I did follow through with what I said I would do, and God sent The Holy Spirit! Because when you receive The Breath of The Holy Spirit, and know it, and welcome it within you, then there is confidence, there is courage, there is faith; and from these things comes wisdom; and from wisdom, comes the ability to perform the miracles of God!

“Take these three (3) things with you into this week. Alter your perspective about loving; let God love, through you! It will change your life, and the lives of those around you. Alter your perspective about praying; let God give you what you need, for God knows this, better than you. It will change your life, and the lives of those around you. Open to The Holy Spirit, so that, that which you carry within you will be glorified, so that you can rise-up, and walk into the world of man: knowing how to love, knowing how to pray, knowing how to act in such a way, that your mission is accomplished, every single day!”

October 20, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Maintain, Your Connection With God, Let The Love Of God Flow Through You, And You Will Be At Peace

“I AM with you. I AM with you today, in Spirit. I AM with you: as you rise-up; as you pray; as you awaken; as you begin to move through the day; I AM with you!

“When there is ‘Peace,’ all around you, there is beauty, and balance, and harmony. All things seem right. And even small disturbances are easily set aside, because of the atmosphere of peace, wherein love does abide.

“But the times I wish to speak to you about today, are the times when there is turbulence around, when it can be difficult to find a peaceful corner, when things which once seemed stable, tremble, and begin to fall apart. It is in these times, when your heart needs to be connected with God, in a mighty way! It is in these times, when your Spirit should soar to the door of Heaven, knocking gently, restoring precious communion, communication with God!

“As I have said before, it is relatively easy to be loving and kind, compassionate and understanding, to those who are loving and kind to you. The ‘opportunity,’ arises when you find yourself surrounded by chaos, by angry voices, by frustrated spirits, by sinking souls. And it is in these times, that you can do the most good! And I will say unto you, in truth, you will find it easy to do, if you are connected with Our Father, with God, with The Creator of All Things! When you are surrounded by angry voices, actually when you are confronted by only one angry voice, you will find it possible, and fulfilling, to act with tolerance and patience, every single time, as long as you are connected with God; because when you are connected to God: you see, you know, you hear, you bless; for the one caught in anger, is the one who needs patience, blessing, and the love of God.

“During times of turmoil, and chaos, you will be... a sanctuary of peace... if you remain connected to God, if you are not distracted by what is happening all around you; for, when God is flowing, freely, through you, it is possible for you to calm the angry seas, to restore peace, where there is chaos!

“For those who desire to bring peace, and balance, and harmony, it is necessary to know that peace, balance, and harmony must first be established within your own being! And when you find yourself in that state, as a peaceful presence, with God’s loving power flowing through you: there is no force upon the Earth that can rip that from you; no voice raised in anger, against you, can distract you, from the peace of God; no chaos and confusion, rumbling around you, can distract you from the presence of God with you! The only difference in the experience is how connected you are, and how much you desire to do ‘the will of God.’ Once these decisions are made, the connection is in place, and your course set firmly in your intention, you will be the peace bringer; you will be the peace keeper!

“Remember: the one who is caught in anger, needs your patience, and tolerance, most; the one who is caught in chaos, and confusion, needs your compassion, and understanding, most; and, what you need most, is to maintain your connection with God, and keep yourself open to the love of God, let it flow into you, and through you, freely, because that which passes through you, becomes ‘a piece,’ of you, and that piece of you, restores ‘the peace,’ in you!

“Be at peace!”

October 13, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Willing To Change Your Prospective, And Understanding, Harmony, And Peace,
Will Be Your Reward

“I AM with you. I move. I cross the barriers of the dimensions. I seek you; therefore I find you, wherever you are. And when you turn from the distractions, of everyday life, to see Me, we share, we are in communion, we are close, we feel, and know, we are One!

“Stopping the chores, the tasks, the assignments, temporarily setting aside worldly responsibilities, to find peace, in the true reality, requires the desire to do so; and that desire is rewarded: with fulfillment; with a richer, deeper understanding; with love!

“When you are in the company of one, or few, or many, individuals, who are in-sync with the ways that you operate, hold the same values, come from the same background, enjoy the same heritage of food, and clothing, mannerisms, patterns of speech, you feel comfortable. But when another, or a few, or many, from a different place, with different patterns of speech, with different habits, and clothing, come on to the scene, or move into your area, things seem out-of-balance for a while. There could even be suspicion. Who are these people? What is their intention? What is their purpose? Why are they here? Questions which seem to have no answers for a while!

“Rules and regulations are usually set in place to establish a code of behavior, which operates, for the good of the whole, all of the people. Something as simple as establishing driving rules and regulations, create thoroughfares, which allow traffic to move in order, giving some permission to go at one time, and others permission to go at another time, so that the roadways are not: blocked, and clogged, and dangerous, to maneuver. Governments set rules and regulations, for the good of the whole; but they also set rules and regulations, so that the least might not be trampled, by the more powerful. Households set rules and regulations, so that there might be peace within the boundaries of the home, each one knowing what is acceptable, and what is not, down to what might seem the smallest of things, like: closing a door, so the heat does not go out of the house, or the heat of the summer might not come into the house; using an ‘inside-voice,’ and an ‘outside-voice,’ in the appropriate place, at the appropriate time; learning to give another a chance to speak, holding your tongue until it is your turn to speak. Churches, institutions of faith and belief, also set rules and regulations: appropriate dress; appropriate behavior; some, when to sit and when to stand; who can partake, of what piece of the celebration, or who can sing, and lift their voice in praise; who is qualified to speak from a pulpit, or lead a congregation.

“I could take your entire morning, listing places, listing situations, listing different forms of government, countries, whatever you might think about, that could be lumped into that category, and it would take a very, very long time, but it would all boil down to this... Rules and regulations are good, in their place, to achieve order, equal opportunity, fairness, justice. But without compassion, and understanding, and love, rules and regulations, and codes, can bring about tyranny, fear, oppression; they can bring about isolation.

“For the one who ‘knows, love:’ it is possible to know the rules, and the laws, and the regulations, to abide by these things, these concepts; yet, be comfortable, in reaching beyond these barriers, to deliver ‘the gift of love, to seek compassion, to have an understanding!’

“If you are willing to ‘change your prospective,’ even in the slightest degree, you ‘see something,’ you were unable to see, before you: took that step; made the decision to change your prospective. You can stand at the front door of a building all day long. You can know the façade of the front of the building, well. You can know what time the door is opened to the public and what time it is locked. But until you are willing to go around to the back door, that portion of the building remains unknown to you, unseen by you. And the same is true about the words that come from other people. If you are so ‘locked into your position, your belief, your thoughts, on how something should take place,’ you will not be able to change your prospective, and slip temporarily into the position of another. But once you are willing to do this, to alter your prospective, ever so slightly, to set all of the things you think aside, and listen, with compassion, and an open heart, The Wisdom of Understanding is your gift. It is something that comes to you, because you are willing to move, you are willing to bend, you are willing to stretch beyond your comfortable confines, to know the heart, of another!’

“This practice... takes: determination, desire, and a will to experience freedom, beyond the confines, of that which is comfortable to you. The reward is understanding; the reward is harmony; the reward is peace; because ‘the love,’ from within the one who is willing to stretch beyond that which they ‘know,’ to visit the comfort-area of another, brings confidence, brings harmony, and brings peace. And from the experience, you walk away ‘confident, a peaceful presence, in a chaotic, or confused situation,’ because you were willing: to bend, to bend-over and hear the words of another; to bend, to bend-over and experience the ways of another; to bend so you might move and sway; to bend, so you might see better, that which is before you; and all you had to do was ‘change your prospective.’

“This week, this coming week, you will all have an opportunity, some of you many times a day, some of you, possibly only once a week, but I can assure you, you will have the opportunity to reach beyond the boundaries, and barriers, of your comfort zone, to find compassion, and understanding, and the result will bring balance, and harmony, and you will know peace, because peace will be borne by you, within you!

“Bend. Move. Stretch. Do not be afraid. You are bigger, and grander, and more magnificent than you can imagine when you remain in your shell; but once you are willing to break free, and see, you fly, your wings unfurl: you are a butterfly, a bird, a flower, unfolding.

“In the true, eternal reality, you are the perfection of God, unfolding, minute by minute, hour by hour, unfolding ... perfection!”

October 6, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

There Is Great Wisdom In Knowing: When To Speak, And When To Hold Your Tongue,
Proclaim The Glory Of God, With Acclamation, Without Accusation

“I AM with you. You are ready to begin a new day. And with the gift of each new day: there is opportunity, there is adventure, there is another leg of the journey, there is another horizon just before you. It is the new day... come!

“When I walked upon the Earth, I spoke, as directed, by God. My words delivered ‘a new message.’ I did not cast down the old ways. I did not demand... that those who were following the old laws... change what they believed... to fit into what I was saying. I spoke, so those who had ‘ears to hear the new message,’ would recognize... that which they were looking for... and ‘know,’ I was with them! The things I did, and the things I said, often did not ‘fit,’ the rules and the regulations of that time; because, I was delivering ‘a new Way.’

“And as I spoke, it was easy to see that some felt ‘threatened,’ by these new ways, these new proclamations; but it should not have been so, because the old can stand next to the new, without denying the glory of the old, without denying the glory of the new, different ways for different times.

“I walked amongst those who did not follow the old ways at all. I lived amongst those who did, and I honored their ways.

“I say these words to you today... because it is important for you... to live The Way, as you are guided to live, from within! I say these words to you today, so that you might not be threatened, by the ways of others; but joyful, for the ways revealed to you, so that ‘it fits, exactly, into every fiber of your being,’ The Way for you! I promised this, before I returned Home, saying: that I would ask The Father, and The Father would send the Counselor, not to just a few, not one Counselor, to stand-up in front of all, and say, ‘This is The Way,’ but a Counselor, who would be within you, so that The Way would slip into your being, because it was part of you, especially designed for you! And as God would have it, and as it is possible for God to do, each individual teaching... would lead each individual being... to the same place... ultimately, coming from different directions, heading in the right direction! This is important!

“I gave many comparisons about the importance of the inner-teaching, defining... that which is new... that which is old. For it is important for those who have embraced the old teaching to live it as they know it, to live it, from within; and for all those around them, to acknowledge that is their right, their freewill to live as they are guided from within. And the same applies to the new, the one who embraces the new. I say the new, but verily, it is only new for a specific time. It is actually the old, unfolding, moving into the ultimate creation. But you cannot demolish one, for the sake of the other, because it will ruin the flow of creation; therefore, it must all fit, in the right place, at the right time.

“One who has been dancing the steps of an old rhythm, knows the steps, and knows the rhythm, and the dance is good. But when the rhythm changes, and those who are ready for the new rhythm begin to dance, the ones who are attached to the old dance find it difficult to move with the new rhythm; for, the old rhythm is within them. Yet the dance, and the new rhythm, fit some perfectly. But it is not right to tell those who are dancing the old rhythm... to stop... to be replaced, by the new. It is to look at each, and see, and know, the importance of both.

“Those who have been drinking the old wine like the taste, enjoy the feeling of it, flowing over their lips, and down their throat. It is comfortable. It is a taste they know. And when the new wines are bottled, and brought forth, those who have been enjoying the old, find little desire to even taste the new. They say, ‘This is fine for me. That can be fine for you.’ It is important, and it is known by the wise, to watch, and see, and not judge, but to see the growth, to see the blossom, of the new.

“It is good to know your heritage. It is good to know from whence you came. It is good to see it all, and then embrace, as you are taught, and move forward. This is ‘Wisdom.’ And this is the wisdom of God that the teacher of The Way, be within each of you, because in that way, it is easy to accept, because: it is in your fiber, in your being; it is coming from the core of your being, moving throughout your body; it is the right taste, the correct rhythm.

“And this... is what I wanted to say to each of you today... ‘Be mindful of that which is coming from within you. The Holy Spirit of God will lead you into all truth, all truth, as you are able to bear it, as you are ready, as you are willing. And it is important that you have ‘understanding,’ and permit others around you to experience the same inner-teaching, inner-truth; because in that way, all peoples, all children of Earth, will be walking to a rhythm that is just right for them. And somehow the hand of God will choreograph the entire dance upon Earth. And in ultimate glory, all beings will converge upon the same place, the same spot!’

“Do not fight amongst yourselves about who is right, and who is wrong; for, if you are being guided by The Holy Spirit of God, from within, it all will fit!

“Be at peace this day! Let your inner-rhythm move your step. Let the words of The Holy Spirit move over your tongue: be tolerant, be understanding, be patient, be compassionate, be the light, be the glory, and you will experience the joy of God!”

September 29, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Miracles Are Just A Belief Away, And Today, I Will Show You The Way

“I AM with you. I move from one dimension to the other, with ease; for, I AM totally spirit now. And in this state, it is My choice, of how I reveal Myself to you; but no matter the choice I make, the apparition I deliver, I AM with you!

“There is a unique understanding, compassion and understanding, on the part of all of us in-Spirit-form, for those who are noble, and say they are ready: for a human experience; to make a difference; to begin to return Earth to The Garden, it was always intended to be! And it is fitting, and proper, that this reparation, this reconstruction, be done by those in human form, because the world of mankind was created by those in human form! When you come to understanding the history of it, the line of it, you will come to comprehend... that it is not only good... but imperative... that beings in human form... begin to bring about the restoration of The Garden; so there might be an understanding, a ‘knowing,’ of what happened, and a celebration, of ‘the choice,’ to return Earth to The Way it was always meant to be!

“Today, I wish to share a few things with you, and it is best that these things not be shrouded in parables or stories, but that they be set forth outright; and accordingly, I will speak to you this morning.. as if I am preparing an outline for a speech, or a book, or a movie...

“Number One... You are a child of God... The Creator of All Things, The Source of All Life, eternal life; for you shall never die! You will change clothes, so you are properly dressed for the event you are attending... and this clothing... is the body of Earth, of stardust and moonbeams, the dust of Earth. Do not lose track of who you are, for it will make your mission upon Earth more difficult.

“Just as you cannot deny DNA in your physical heritage, your lineage, you cannot deny your spiritual DNA, which will be, and can be, traced directly back to God; therefore, let your life reflect this knowledge, a knowing of this. Who are you? Who ... are ... you? And hearing that question, your first answer, should be, without hesitation, I am a child of God!

“If you ask someone where they are from, they will say a state, or a county, or a country, or a city; very rarely will you hear, ‘I am from the Dimension of Perfection, Heaven.’ But verily, I will say unto thee, that is exactly where you are from! And it is holding this wisdom, this knowledge of your lineage... that will bring you to a point... of walking upon the Earth... in a totally different way.

“When I lived upon the Earth, I walked amongst many; but I never said, ‘I AM your king, you must bow down to Me, and you will see Me do miracles, that you cannot do, because I AM Lord, over you.’ I did not say these things, because I knew: I was walking amongst My brothers, and sisters, who, given the opportunity, could do everything I was doing! I said this over and over again, but no one believed Me. I spoke words that moved people to tears with knowing, with receiving the truth, and their heart was singing from it, in such a way, that their physical body was moved to tears; but I clarified what was said, twenty – thirty times a day, by saying, ‘These are not My words.’ I was speaking words, as I was directed by God, The Creator; and, all of the universe was responding, because all of the universe... recognized the vibration... ‘of God!’

“I kept My connection to The Dimension of Perfection, My connection with Our Father, Our Creator, open, all of the time, knowing that, that is The Source of instant miracle working. The power of God moving through Me, healed, and made those whom were broken, whole, once again. If you search, you will find accounts that say clearly, ‘the power was moving through Me.’ I did not do these things on My own, wake-up and know this. I did not say I was doing them on My own. The power of God was moving through Me, in such a way, that miracles were frequent, and abundant. All that was required was faith, on the part of any who would reach-out, and accept, that which was there, in their presence.

“Your life, upon Earth, will change, in such an amazing way, if you will just embrace these simple truths of who you are, and where you can from, and that you, truly, can do everything I do, because it is not you. Left to your own devices, you could do pretty well. But with the power of God, surging through you, there is nothing you cannot do; because you see, if you surrender, and become the tool, then ‘exactly what is meant to be done,’ shall be accomplished, because God will use you: to create the miracle; to bring forth the healing; to feed thousands with a few fish; to walk on water, so that you might calm the fears of others.

“Number Two... Another truth, for those of you who are: still with Me; still able to bear what I AM saying to you this morning; still willing to see Me, as your brother, rather than a being who wishes to stand above you, apart from you, and lord over you; I will say more. Once you are able to reach the position of letting the power of God flow through you, it is ‘your responsibility,’ to keep your corridors and hallways open; for I will tell you, the power of God is there! The only things that hinder miraculous events from occurring, when the power of God is with you, are the dams, the blockages, the barriers, and the obstacles, you have placed in the way, many of them holding the names of: fear, and doubt, shame, and guilt. Anything less than total light, and understanding of who you are, will clog-up the passageways, and inhibit the power delivered through you. Some passageways are so blocked that the power is there, but there is no outer-appearance of it, at all.

“Number Three... “If you are still with Me, and if you are willing to do the inner-work, necessary, to clear the hallways of the debris that has mounted-up there, then I say this to you. You can walk into a room, and leave behind, twenty, thirty, or more, who are healed; whether it be ‘of body or spirit, heart or soul, and have people, still, question you; be astounded; but be unable to believe; their hearts are hardened, in the ways of the world. Yet, if you walk ‘knowing, who you are,’ this will not phase you, this will not affect you.

“Number Four... “The most important thing you can do, as you walk upon the Earth, is to maintain your relationship, your connection, with The Source of all life, with God, Our Father. And it is imperative that you approach, or communicate with The Creator of all things, as: a Father; a Parent; a Mother; The Source, of your life!

“Number Five... “If you are still able to embrace what I AM saying to you, I will tell you this... Just as every child of God upon the Earth, is just that, a child of God, there are that many ways: to create, to live your life, to experience Earth. You must ‘choose’: to be happy, to be angry, to be sad, to be greedy, to be callous. And in the choosing, it is important to remember, you also have a choice: to be love, to be generous, to be compassionate, to have understanding. And further, do not assign ‘your choice,’ in such a way, that you lay the fault for your choice upon another. You choose! And you do! It is up to you!

“Number Six... “One more thing, it is important for those of you, who have still been able to follow Me, to open enough to embrace these things I AM saying to thee, to know this... As you walk upon the Earth, those who begin to see, and know, find that they move energy, they can understand the healing properties of flowers, and leaves, and roots, and rocks, and water. There are many who will come to know, and understand, how certain things can be mixed together to become powerful potions, miraculous healing coming from the stamen of a flower. These things are brought about, upon the Earth, by those who know the properties in the green kingdom, and the mineral kingdom, the kingdoms of fire, and water. You can do amazing things, knowing how to move energy, and how to utilize what is there. But if you want to take it to a new dimension, a new level, open your inner-connections, and maintain your communication with God. Then you can use... what is available for you to use... in a mighty, powerful, and miraculous Way.

“Number Seven... “If you choose to try this living, eternal experiment, you will need to be ‘ministered to,’ to have your faith renewed, when those around you doubt, when you seem alone; and, that is when the angels come, and sit with you, and show you The Way, and remind you, of who you are, every day, directing you, assisting you, ministering to you.

“These things I have spoken to you are valuable tools. And if utilized, will assist you in the construction of a perfect lifetime upon Earth. You see, you are upon Earth, right now, to do something very important! And that very important thing has to do with restoring The Garden to the way God intended it to be! Now, the ways you might do it will vary, from one individual to another: but you are still Spirit, upon Earth to accomplish something, for God, if you will let your ego get-out-of-the-way, push-it to the side, and for just a day, try ‘being the tool, in the hand of God.’ You cannot miss with this, for whatever God intends, shall be done, if you are willing to be ‘the instrument,’ that is going to bring it through, to the third dimension.

“So, if you want to experience miracles, put yourself right in the middle of the hand of God, and say, ‘Use me!’ And then, prepare to see, to know, to live, to witness, to deliver ... miracles ... sent from The Dimension of Perfection, to those of Earth, through you!”

September 22, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Listen To The Guidance From Within, Rise-up, Look, And See The Unseen

“I AM with you. I AM always with you. And our relationship grows closer, still: when you choose it, of your own freewill; when we establish a friendship, beyond dimensions, beyond outer-appearances, and sit with each other, within!

“Some of you ‘know, the mission,’ you have been sent to Earth to accomplish. Some of you are ‘still seeking,’ trying to figure-out what it is you are to do. Some of you ‘have pieces, and are fitting the puzzle together, the answer... seems close to view...

“This morning, with great love, My words are intended for those of you who know the mission, and who have still said, ‘Yes!’ for there is much work to do!

“How can you bring The Kingdom of God onto the Earth, in such a powerful way, that all who are close, see it, and recognize it, ‘as of another world, another kingdom, in their midst?’ I will tell you... now...

“Do not be dissuaded by the ways of the world, the words of the world, the impositions of the world of man; for I say unto you, ‘Many have stood at the doorway of completion, yet turned, and walked from it; because they have ‘listened,’ they have listened when other said, ‘...you cannot do this! This is impossible. There are too many obstacles. You are wasting your time.’ They listened to the chorus of ‘the ways of the world,’ and they walked away from ‘The Kingdom of God’ that was just over the threshold, around the corner.

“When you are willing to move forward, when many around you say, ‘Stop,’ you will see the unseen, because you will bring onto the Earth the gift, the promise, the fulfillment, of what was always there! It just took ‘faith, and trust, for it to appear,’ so all might see, the unseen! When you are guided by Spirit, from within, you make it possible for others to see, the unseen, by what you do. It takes faith, faith born anew every day, sometimes two, and three, and four times a day, because the temptations... will be abundant.

“There is comfort in mediocrity, because once you have resigned yourself to live in a certain way, to be complacent, about what is going on around you, it is comforting to know, to look around, and see, that you have company, that you get-up, go to work, come home, go to sleep, get-up, go to work, come home, go to sleep, and find yourself in a comfortable repetition. This is ‘the distraction,’ that keeps so many from fulfilling the promise, from delivering The Kingdom of God to Earth.

“Listen to the guidance, from within! It is the only Way... to do it... to fulfill your mission, to actually see... The Kingdom of God... flowing... onto the Earth! And if you will begin to pay attention to what is happening around you, you will find others doing the same thing, truly walking to the rhythm of a heavenly symphony, being guided by the voices of angels, finding comfort in the direction, written by the finger of God. That which makes 'no sense,' in the world of man is an everyday occurrence in The Dimension of Perfection; for, that which is to be moved, will be moved, when you arrive at that place. In fact, mountains will crumble, if that is what is required, for you to move forward. The sea will part, if that is what is required, for you to move forward. And the voices 'of dissension,' will be quieted, if that is what is required, for you to move forward.

“Close your eyes to the ways of the world, and look, and see the unseen! Close your ears to the words of the world, and listen to the voices of angels. Move at a pace that is regal, and poised, and you will open the door, and the promise will be there! Seek, and you will find that it has been with you, all the time. The unseen is more powerful than the seen; the words of angels, more stirring, than the poetry of man; the promise, more fulfilling, than all the gold and silver, you can hold in your hand.

“Rise-up... and look... and see... the unseen!”

September 15, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

The Simplest Way To Achieve Your Mission Upon Earth, Is To Walk With God, To Live And Walk, The Way

“I AM with you. I live in spirit amongst you, and within you. This is the fulfillment of The Promise that we are all united as One.

“It is, as a sacred symphony. When the music is played, hundreds hear the music. It moves into each one, and each one, feels something, to the degree they are able to bear it. Yet all are touched by the tone and vibration, of the music. We are all One; therefore, I can reach out to each of you, and speak to those of you who have ears willing to hear My words.

“When a talented sculptor receives the long-awaited block of marble, there is excitement, anticipation of that which is going to come, eagerness to begin; because, from within the sculptor, there is ‘a knowing,’ and the sculptor can see beyond the block of granite or marble: knowing that which lies within it; seeing it, before it can be seen; feeling it, before it is known, to any other; freeing it, with each hammer, and chip, and stroke.

“The sculptor does not begin defining delicate lines creating creases in an eyelid, or folds of a strand of hair. That is for later, when the statue is there. The sculptor takes away all that is not necessary, revealing the unfinished product rough, raw, in its form. Only later comes the fine, delicate work.

“I say these things to you this morning, because I would like you to think of God as The Divine Sculptor, and each of you, as the piece of marble, rough, a block, no form, until the knowing hand, frees that which has been seen, only by the knowing eyes of God, held within the rough, raw form.

“When humankind was relatively young, there were precepts and laws sent to guide those who were willing: to walk with God; to be known as the holy people; to live The Way. And these first laws, and rules, and regulations were much like the gentle tapping of the sculptor, chipping away the unnecessary part of the rock, freeing that which was held inside. These stokes, coming from a knowing hand, did not require finesse, or delicate work; therefore, the laws were: do not kill other people; make sure it is fair and just, an eye-for-an-eye, a tooth-for-a tooth; do not steal from other people. This was the chipping away, releasing the basic form.

“But as the hand of the sculptor moves there is a need for more delicate strokes, finer work, intricate lines, bringing life to that statue, to that piece of marble; and, to this end, the old laws were not toppled, yet refined, by an understanding, an understanding that ‘... do not steal,’ was refined to add, ‘... if someone asks you for something, give it to them.’ Give what you have to those who ask, and give them more, and let it be known that ‘the more,’ you are to give them is to give with a willing spirit, not begrudgingly.’ The ‘eye-for-an-eye, and a tooth-for-a-tooth,’ was refined, not toppled, adding the gentle stroke, ‘... turn the other cheek. Do not resist. Do not challenge. Do not retaliate. Do not hold grudges.' This type of guidepost is as the delicate movement of a well-trained, highly skilled, sculptor. This is what gives purpose, and character, to that which is being revealed. 'Do not kill.' This law is not toppled; it is refined to go even further, by saying, '... do not be angry.'

"You must know these things to move into a more gentle life, to walk as God would have you walk, in the garden created by the hand of God, by the thought of God, by the will of God. For when the last line is completed on the statue, the hand of God rises-up, and that which was released by the hand of The Sculptor moves, lives, and all know from whence it came: because of the workmanship; because of the delicate lines; because of the strong, inner core; because of the foundation.

"And do not believe that all of these things are complete once you understand: 'Turn the other cheek;' 'Give what you have;' 'Do not be angry.' For these too will be refined, not toppled. The refining will come with the rubbing, the gentle preparation of the stone, by polishing the granite, the marble, until it is soft, and smooth, perfection unfolding.

"I say these things to each of you today, because in the coming week you will be presented with opportunities to experience the old, and the new. And you will see the change it will make within you, if you will remember. Give-up the energies of retaliation, and turn the other cheek; the reward will be peace, confidence, and satisfaction that you have moved to a new place; and, all it required was intention and focus. And the same will be true, with giving when you are asked, especially if you will do so with love. And it follows through as well, with anger and frustration, because as you refine these things, these ways, these new precepts and guideposts, your life will change. You will be happier, filled with joy, and have a better understanding of what it means to live upon Earth as God intended, free of strife.

"The week is set before you. The opportunities await. It is your time. You have waited for this, for so long. You have the gifts... and the tools you need ... now live.

"Live, and walk The Way!"

September 8, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

The Simple Way, To Attain Happiness, To Be In Balance, To Know Inner-Peace, Maintain Your Connection With God

“I AM with you. As this New Day begins upon the Earth, I AM with you. For it is in this Way, that I can reach-out and touch you, I can say to you... simple things, which will: lead you into a new understanding of life upon Earth; take you to a different level of joy and excitement; renew your spirit; nourish your soul; and lift-you-up, so your heart is happy and bold, ready to live, as you are truly meant to live.

“Today, My message is very brief; for I wish for you to sit with it for a while, before you carry it into this new week. There is a very Simple Way... it is one of the most simple ways... to attain happiness, to be in balance, to know inner-peace. And the way, of which I speak, is... to refuse to enter into any type of conflict, argument, heated debate. This might sound like it would restrict you from speaking in most cases, because it appears that today, in the world created by human beings, there is constant movement from one discussion, or argument, to another. There are those who become quite talented wielding words, shooting-them-out, as if coming from a slingshot, hitting their mark, just right. This very rarely... brings happiness and joy... and it certainly does not create an atmosphere of peace. So, let us return to the simple.

“Refuse to argue! And you might say, ‘Well, that’s simple. I can do that.’ But be mindful, of this charge, this direction, because you will find, the first few hours, you are attempting to reach this goal, of non-conflict, that it is not quite as easy as you think it is. A simple question such as, ‘Did you see that red dress the lady had on?’ could bring a retort from you, saying, ‘Well it wasn’t exactly red, it was more rust.’ And there you go, you tend to, at that point, begin to create within your thoughts judgment, frustration, and that moves on to a different place. So why not ignore the issue totally? It will require a change within your being, so that you come to understand ... what difference does it make, if the one speaking to you believes the dress was red? Does it matter? No! What matters is... what is going on with you... what are you creating... in your thoughts? Let it go. It does not matter.

“If you are connected with God, if you have your connection going with God, it will not matter, if one calls the red rose yellow, or the black bird blue. It will not matter what foods they prefer to eat, or what political party they prefer. It will not matter!

“What is important, and what does matter, is: what you are creating, which will live forever in your thoughts; what words you are you speaking, which roll-off of your tongue, with tone and vibration, which will echo through the corridors of all time; what deeds you are you performing, quietly, on behalf of others, on behalf of God? This is what matters; so you see, the other is just ‘a distraction.’

“Do not be distracted from your connection with God. That is the lesson! And as long as you are there, with God in the center, nothing will topple you, unless you focus on the distraction, then, you could trip, and fall, because you have lost your balance.

“Pay attention to those around you, who seem to be quietly accomplishing great good, in little ways. Their presence sometimes goes unnoticed. Pay attention to those who are quietly establishing The Kingdom of God on Earth, and watch what they are doing. They will be so busy, doing the work of God... that you will notice... they do not have time for argument, they do not seem to be in confusion, or chaos; and it is because they are holding their connection with God, at the center; therefore, they are in balance, and in peace.

“So this is the goal, for this week: Establish your connection with God, hold your connection, refuse to be distracted, and you will return to balance, and you will live in peace.”

September 1, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Have Faith Do Not Let Doubt, Rob You Of Knowing, The Kingdom of God Upon Earth

“I AM with you. It is possible for Me to reach-out and touch you; for, My Spirit is with you! And this is as it is meant to be, for our spirits to be forever free, in the light of God; free... in the light... of God!

“I believe one of the most beautiful pictures... created upon the Earth... is to see a springtime meadow, with children holding hands, and running with The Wind, in the light, of the new day. I know ‘why,’ this picture, this scene, is so sacred to Me... because it is... as it is meant to be... for the children of God living upon Earth... moving over the Earth, holding hands... running with The Wind... in the light of God!

“But this sweetness, this innocence, has changed. What altered this feeling of exuberance, of faith, of trust? Fear... unworthiness... doubt!

“It might be simpler to understand, using this explanation; let us use the example of a man and a woman, together, hanging curtains on a window. The project will go well, holes being drilled to accept the screws, different pieces of this part, or that part, going together as intended, as in the directions, all moving toward completion, when doubt slips in. ‘Did we do this right? I’m not sure I can do that! If I use this bit will it work better?’ All of these questions, these temptations, of doubt, slow the progress, impede the progress, and things begin to fall into chaos and confusion about what goes where, and how, and when. Now, there could be many examples, but there need not be. The point is... ‘faith,’ is confidence... it is trust. Faith is the key to a joyful life! And the first drop of doubt, robs you of that joy, to some degree. More doubt, robs you of that joy, to a greater degree. So you must have faith, and believe, remembering the scene of the children, running hand-in-hand, in the light of a new day.

“There is no need for you to concern yourself, so much, about the temptations of the world all around you; because, in doing so, you could be distracted from the temptations, within you! What whisper are you listening to? Where do you place your attention, your focus? Is it on ‘the negative?’ Is it on worry or concern? Listen to what is going on within you! Pay attention. Do not be distracted by what others are saying, or doing. Pull in your antenna, sit quietly, and pay attention to what is going on within you! Those little voices of doubt ... cast them out! Those little voices of judgment, whether it be of others or yourself ... cast them out! Clean the corridors of your being! Rid yourself, of these things that mar you, clutter your inner-being. Free yourself of these things, and bring forth ‘faith.’ ‘Get thee behind me,’ you say to them, ‘I know who you are.’ This is important; for, if you cannot free-yourself of the doubt which is marring your faith, you will surely spend your days upon the Earth as the blind man, stumbling around the streets of the city, not knowing whether to go right or left, seeking, trying to find the way home, but caught-up in chaos, and confusion.

“Do not be so concerned about what your neighbor is saying, or doing, whether it be right or wrong, according to what you think, or believe. Go first, within! Remove the debris, from your own house. Clear the clutter, from the hallways. Throw open the windows, which have been hammered shut. And feel the breath, of The Holy Spirit, move throughout your being, restoring your faith, with the wisdom to ‘discern the spirits,’ whom have taken-up residence in the precious sanctuary that is you; and once your sanctuary is clean, and free, you will feel yourself rise-up; and rather than face each day as a struggle, you will flow through each day, with joy... this I promise you... but it cannot be done, if you are carrying, within you, these heavy things which haunt your dwelling.

“Let us go within, and let us begin, today, by sitting together! Come, and sit with Me, and I will speak to thee, and I will show you where... how... when! We will clean, and we will laugh! We will cast these things from you, and we will dance! And we will, together, restore the beauty of your relationship with God, so that you might know... The Kingdom of God... upon Earth!

“I did not say those words lightly, when speaking with those who were around Me, about The Kingdom of God being near... being close... being within you. For, if you have come from God, God is with you! And, if you are walking upon the Earth, God is walking within you! Wherever you go, let it be so. Wherever you go, let it be done, that The Kingdom of God is upon Earth, under the moon, under the sun. Let it be, that you know, The Kingdom of God, now! I AM with you. Let us begin, together, as one; for, this is how it is meant to be: the children of God, running over the Earth... laughing... dancing... living... in the light... and the glory... of God!

August 25, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:
Embrace The Simple Truth Of God's Love For You

"I AM with you. I AM with you, as the bird calls from the branch of the tree. I AM with you, as the gentle morning breeze moves the leaves with its breath, and the flowers dance with delight, within its embrace. I AM with you, as the shadows of the night, fade with the coming of light, and the birth of a new day. I AM with you, in spirit, closer than you can imagine!

"That I AM with you, right now, in this present moment, is simple, yet amazing. Some of you might find it easier to believe that the continuing creation story is complex, and difficult to understand, consisting of many tangents, and uncountable facets, shining so brightly at times, evasive at others. Some of you have sought truth, by scouring through ancient transcripts, and modern books, looking for the key, which will show you The Way. Some of you have sought wisdom, from the words spoken by others, you consider more scholarly and worthy of respect. Some of you have walked into the desert, or sat high upon a mountaintop, waiting to hear the words you long to hear. But I tell you, you will find, all that you seek, within; for, that which you seek is written upon your heart, and your soul sings the song, of sweet promise, to any who will be still.

"Today I speak to you 'of the Truth,' as, you need to hear it, and once spoken, the truth will settle upon you, as a tender caress, and flow into your heart; and the hand of God will move you to a place of understanding, that – that which is within you – you have carried from the Dimension of Perfection to Earth; and, that which you carry within is precious, it is sacred, it is the whisper of God: telling you how to rise-up, and bless all of the Earth, with your presence; telling you how to walk The Way. But to hear the whisper of God, one must be still, and quiet, and open to that which will be delivered in silence, bringing the hungry child to tears, with the realization of truth, and of love... infinite, love... perfect, love... simple, love.

"Love is found, within truth. Truth is found, within love.

"Be still, and listen to the song of your soul, for it is singing the words written upon your heart. And the words are simple, for in simplicity, you will find eternal wisdom. God's creation is simple, God's creation is love. And to understand God's creation, and God's love, one must release the complex ideas, and concepts, developed through rumination, theorizing, speculation, and conjecture, to embrace the simple truth – of God's love, for you – for all of the children upon Earth – for all of creation! My brothers and sisters, understanding is, simply, embracing the truth of God's love! It requires no degree, or years of study, to know the ways of God; for the ways of God are written upon your heart, and your soul knows the song!

"Be still, and listen, and you will hear, and you will 'know,' that all you are seeking... you already hold... within! This week, take some time, every day, to be still, journey into the corridors of your sacred being, cross-over the threshold, and enter the chamber, where you will hear the whisper, and smile.

“Hello, God. I hear You, and Your whispered Words fill me, with joy, and my life is complete, in Your Love! Hello, God! I am here!”

August 18, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

I AM With You, And You Are All Children Of God Upon Earth, So Let The Earth Bear The Mark Of Your Coming

“I AM with you. I AM closer to you, than you can imagine; and while no trumpet heralds My approach, the songs of Earth can be heard, saying, ‘Awaken, for I AM with you, just as I promised I would be!’

“It was a puzzle to those encircled around Me, when I told them, that as I went Home, returning to The Father, I could help them more, for there are so many limitations in the physical attributes, of Earth; but in Spirit, there are no boundaries at all. Therefore, I walk the corridors of all time, and no time, to come to you. And in this Way... I speak to each of you, all of My brothers and sister, no matter where you are, who you are, or what you do... I come to you. I will seek you... until you find Me... in the quiet place, of love, within your heart! And at that moment, your soul will sing, and your spirit will dance with delight, because that is the natural state of the children of God. My leaving Earth and returning to Heaven did not diminish the gift of life, given to every child by The Eternal Parent. I spoke of life, eternal life, the ultimate gift, and living forever. ‘Knowing,’ that you will live forever should be gift enough. Knowing you have an opportunity to experience Earth, should be gift enough.

“Those who loved Me, those whom I gathered around Me, questioned. ‘How Master,’ they said, ‘can we follow what you are saying, and still live in the world? The world does not teach these things. The world teaches an eye-for-an-eye and a tooth-for-a-tooth. The world teaches, guard carefully what you have, so that it might not be taken from you by a thief in the night.’ And I said to them, in so many words, what I wish to say to each of you today. You are guarding carefully, the wrong thing! Guard carefully... the health of your spirit... and follow it, to the nth degree: so that your soul sings; so that you are living for the glory of God; so the treasures you hold precious are the gifts of The Holy Spirit, the unseen treasures of eternity! This is what you should guard.

“Why did I pull a child from the crowd, and say, ‘Come,’ and then tell all, ‘...this is how you are to be’? A child has very few preconceived notions, but a child recognizes love. Love, love first, set all things aside, and focus your thoughts on love. Reject the temptations of the world. Reject the temptation to be so distracted: filling your calendars, and your schedules, with things you think you need to do; being tempted away... from communion, with The One... who created you.

“Focus on God. Focus on love, and light. Focus on what you can do, for the glory of God; and leave all other things to fall where they may. For I tell you this, if you are doing the work of God, you are doing the will of God, and as you are willing to do the work of God, the will of God... will work miracles... in the world around you.

“Do not hold a grudge. Make sure you have forgiven every thing, everything! I tell you, if someone continues to trespass against you, in a habit of repetition, saying, or doing, the same thing, over and over again, I tell you, you must forgive them, over and over again, to free yourself. It is opposite of what the world teaches. Hold no grudge, in other words, leave the ways of the world alone, and focus on the Way of God!

“So many times, the question would come up when I was walking upon the Earth. ‘When will the end come? When will The Kingdom of God come upon the Earth? When, when? How, how? You see, it was believed that this great happening, this event, would crush the preconceived wrong-doers, and raise-up the believers, in a rather royal fashion. But this was not to be, how The Kingdom, of God, would be delivered to Earth. It was never intended to be thus. The Kingdom of God will be delivered to Earth through the children of God!

“There will not be a time when you turn to each other, and say, ‘Here it is time. Look, The Kingdom of God is here.’ There will not be a time when you can say, ‘Listen, listen The Kingdom of God is here.’ For, I tell you The Kingdom of God is within you! And it will be a most magnificent occurrence, when each child of God is determined to deliver The Kingdom of God to Earth! Can you imagine... can you even consider... what it would be like, to live upon Earth, amongst your brothers and sisters, with each one: focusing on God, and love, and light, and peace; opening the box of the gifts of The Holy Spirit, and choosing to use these gifts, only, rejecting the energies created in the world? And I say unto you, you are correct in your assumption, it would be Heaven, upon Earth! And that is how it is meant to be!

“Each one of you has the ability, while you are living your short time upon Earth, to deliver The Kingdom of God to every person, every place you journey. Open, the eyes of your soul, and see, what is happening around you. The Kingdom of God is not something far away it is within you! You are blessed. You are upon Earth. You are children of God, upon Earth. Let Earth bear the mark of your coming. Let Earth bear the mark of your thoughts, creating love, and light, and peace. Let Earth bear the mark of your song, singing that which God wishes for you to sing, rather than speaking in ‘the ways of the world.’ And let Earth bear the mark of your deeds, so that as you move over the Earth, all who see you... will say... ‘That truly is a child of God, and blessed is The Way!’ ”

August 11, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

The Simple Answer To A Question Of Faith: Be As A Child, And Take The Hand Of God

“I AM with you. I walk with you. I reach-out, because there are things I wish to tell you. I wish to speak, with you, not at you. If you will open to My presence, I will lead you where it is you need to go. I will hold your face, between My hands, and, lovingly, point you here or there, so that you might turn and see, that which you might have missed along The Way.

“I speak to you today . . . of ‘Faith!’

“When you are operating in the world, it is sometimes easy to lose the magic, and the majesty, of faith; and this was happening with those who walked with Me, those who loved Me, those I gathered around Me to lead into new thoughts, new codes, new ways of living upon Earth. And so I called-out to a child, close by, ‘Come here!’ And the child came to Me. In fact, the child came, and grabbed onto My leg, looking at Me, with eyes which said, ‘I know who you are,’ as only a child can do. I put My arm around the child, and I said to those around Me...

“‘You cannot know The Kingdom of Heaven, until you are like this child!’ When I spoke those words, I was not addressing the matter of the death of the physical body, and the rising of the spirit, to return to the Heavenly Kingdom... I was further guiding them... into the understanding... that it is possible to walk upon the Earth, in the body of a human being, and know The Kingdom of God! In fact, that is as it was intended to be, as it is intended to be. And this requires Faith, the faith of a child!

“Now, when all things are right, and in balance, in the human family, a core unit of people, related by blood, marriage, bearing children, the children have faith in the parent. Whether it’s father, or mother, or both parents together, in a functioning family the children have faith in the parents. If something goes wrong, they run to the parents for comfort. If something is very right, they jump with glee, running again to the parents. If they are hungry they have faith they will be fed. If they need new shoes they have faith they will have shoes. When they take the hand of the parent, they walk confidently, ‘knowing,’ that there is the protector with them, as they go out into the world, no matter whether it is: the first day of school; the first day of college; the first day they move into their own apartment; or, the first day that they will say, ‘I do,’ to another. With all of these ‘firsts,’ they have faith... that their parents, their earthly parents, are there, supporting, protecting, guiding, holding their hand while they walk into the world.

“This is the way it is meant to be in a functioning family. And this is exactly the way it’s meant to be, when you have faith, in your Eternal Parent; just as a child, jumping with glee, when something goes very right, sitting quietly, waiting for guidance, when things appear to go very wrong; yet taking the hand of the Eternal Parent, and walking, with faith, and confidence. This is as it’s meant to be. And I will share this with each of you, this is how I lived upon the Earth! I would step away from the crowd, I would go into a deserted place, I would climb upon a hill, or sail-out on a sea to reconnect, in a most profound way, with God, the Eternal Parent, so: that as I walked, My hand was completely enfolded in the hand of God; that every step I took had direction, as guided by God; that the words I spoke, were not Mine, but those 'of God.' And this ensured... I would complete My mission... holding the hand of My Eternal Parent, through all things.

"I share this message, with each of you today, because it is the simple answer to a question of faith:

"Be as a child! Every time you see a parent, walking hand-in-hand with a child, it should restore your faith, to some degree, and be 'an outward sign,' of how you should be walking with God. Call Me, sit with Me, and I will speak to thee, and I will fill you with guidance, and point you in the right direction; but you can be assured that direction will usually be...

"Have faith, and take the hand of God, for it is always there! It is easy to reach-out, and take the hand of God!"

August 4, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Keep It Simple, And Grow In Wisdom, Do Everything I Did

“I AM with you. I reach-out, and as a gentle Wind – passes over you, – you feel Me! I AM with you!

“Receiving answers to your questions is not a complex mystery, when you are willing to be still, and ask, because then, all the complex reasoning and ponderings fail, and fall away, as you are embraced in the arms of eternal wisdom simple truth and answers come... expressly, and especially, for you. This, My brothers and sisters, is prayer!

“Prayer does not need to be caught-up in lengthy dissertations about circumstances and situations. Prayer is a child of God, sitting quietly, asking The Eternal Parent, a question, and being willing to be still, and quiet, long enough, to receive the answer. It is that simple!

“Some of you might ask, ‘If it is that simple, why do I not feel I have the answer? Why do I feel like, I ask the question; yet, I do not know the answer?’ And I say unto these, ‘Because you are not still enough, because you are not listening, with an open heart.’ Many of you will recognize this: you ask, you get your answer, and then you doubt: ‘Well, it can’t be that, that’s too simple;’ ‘Why, I know that, so it surely can’t be that;’ you desire to hang ‘a complex tag,’ on a simple solution, you are rejecting simplicity, seeking the complex.

“The next time you sit quietly and ask, pay attention. Some of you might hear, with a scent, a beautiful aroma might pass over you, and that is your answer. Some of you might hear, with a knowing. Some of you might feel. Some of you might hear. Some of you might see the vision, and know the answer clearly. The answer comes to you in the form of utilization of the gifts you have within you; and the answer will be simple.

“Try it, and see. And do not overlook the answer, if it doesn’t seem to fit the patterns of the world, because, in all probability, it will not. If the situation is such that you are asking for direction or guidance, the answer might be found ‘outside of the box,’ you have created. Accept what you get, and then watch it unfold. You see, that’s the miracle. Take the step, boldly, and with confidence. Use the answer you have been given, with confidence, and watch the miracles unfold around you. Reject the temptation to squeeze your ‘other-worldly answer,’ into conformity, falling-in-line with the ways of the world.

“When I lived in human form, and brought a message that was totally opposite of how the world was operating at the time, it was rejected. I did not find many who were willing to ‘turn the other cheek,’ when they had been operating clearly on the standard of ‘an eye-for-an-eye, and a tooth-for-a-tooth.’ Very few found that they could embrace this new teaching. They were calling-out for help, all around Me, men and women, and I gave them the answer; simple, if someone is cruel or mean, physically aggressive with you, turn the other cheek. Do not respond. Do not react. Do not jump in the cesspool of negative energy. Hold your ground in the positive light of God's love. Yet, it seemed impossible for those around Me to do; but, it was the answer! And it is still the answer today; and most cannot accept The Way, because it is so opposite of what the world teaches, but it is simple. The only thing required, is that hardy dose of ego, which comes with the human form, needs to be set aside, so you are 'willing,' to turn the other cheek.

"The same thing could be said for almost everything I said to people, the things that I was teaching. These were simple rules, guideposts, directions, coming from the Dimension of Perfection, an attempt to show those upon Earth how to hold-on to their positive energy, the light, the glory, without getting drawn-into negativity. This is more important than 'saving face.' It is 'saving spirit.' It is saving your soul, so it can sing. It is rejecting the ways, the teachings of the world, and embracing the glory of a kingdom that is yours; all you have to do is see it, and know it, accept it, and grow with it, and into it!

"I never asked anyone to bow-down to Me, to hold Me up, to think I was special. No. I washed the feet. I sat with the poor. I sat with the sick. I sat with the rejected. I walked with the lost. And I knew how it felt to be insulted, to be misunderstood, to be the object of scorn. Yet these things fell from Me, because I remained 'in the light.' And as I was in the light, I encouraged all My brothers and sisters, 'Come. Come here!' And I told them, I AM not special. 'You can do everything I AM doing.' I gathered those who were willing around Me, and I said, 'Look, this is how you do it. 'Go. Go-out, and see for yourself, what you can do. I will stay here, because you see, as God works through Me, God works through you.' And I sent them from Me.

"I sent them out into the world, giving them guidance. Giving them a difficult assignment, 'Take nothing with you, just go, go two-by-two.' And, they went. I did tell them, 'When you find a home that will take you in during your mission in one place, stay there, because if that door is open to you, in friendship, in generosity, it is a good place to be. If one begrudges you their hospitality, if they will not take you in, freely, and with joy, turn quickly from that place. Shake all of the dust of that place from you.' And why did I say that? So they would clearly understand the importance of energies. What I was saying to them was, 'Do not put yourself in a place of negative energy. Abide in a place of light. And cast-out evil spirits of fear and doubt, and pain and anguish. Heal the sick.' These things have not changed.

"Every one of you has the ability to do everything I did, with no exception. The only requirement is you maintain a beautiful, simple, pure energy about you, shaking the dust of the world from you, so that you are a clean, and pure vessel, a conduit, for all that God can do! Yes, without hesitation, I say this to you. God's power cannot be limited; but what God can do through you, most assuredly, can be limited, by spots, and specks, and lumps of negative energy, of: fear, and doubt, and concern, anxiety. Be free of that. It requires a bold spirit; but once you walk into this 'state, of acceptance,' confidence grows within you, and you understand. You walk as an angel, upon the Earth, totally unaffected by what the world is saying, because it is your experience, of Earth, and none other.

"And I say to each of you today, once you walk-out into the world, which some of you will do today, and some of you will do tomorrow, going to this place of work, or that place of work, you will encounter negative energy. Maintain your light! Do not 'react to another's energy,' but

‘act within the glory of God that is flowing into, and through, you.’ Simple, but it requires a willing heart to do it, for one who is wise enough to be more concerned about saving the spirit of joy and happiness, saving the soul for the symphony of the song, rather than, saving face.

“And, just as you go-out into the world, you return, most of you, in the evening to rest, to be at peace, to sleep. And I say to you, exactly what I told those that I sent forth, those that went-out into the world to cure, to heal, to make whole; upon their return, they gathered around Me, and told Me what they had been doing: they told and talked of the miracles; they told and talked of the houses with the open doors, and the houses with the closed doors; they shared their worldly experience, and their triumph, just as you share with each other the experiences of your day, and your triumphs; and after I heard their stories, I said to them, ‘That is good. You see, you can do exactly what I AM doing! Now come, it is time to take yourselves to a deserted place, a quiet place, and rest, be refueled, and be refreshed.’

“Some of you might remember, many of you probably won’t, where that falls in the telling of some of these stories of My existence upon the Earth; that after those who were sent-out returned, and after that time when we were going to rest, there came the great miracle of feeding thousands. You see, life upon the Earth is supposed to be miraculous! And at the same time, the miracles are not meant to be surprises, but the natural course of things. A course of miracles is the natural state of the children of God upon Earth, when everything is kept simple. When it is simple, you can clearly see the truth. And this morning, I repeat to each of you, as a promise...

“Rise-up, boldly. Go forth, with confidence; because you can do everything I AM doing, everything I ever did, everything I AM yet to do, can be done, by each of you!”

July 28, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Awaken And See, A Simple Way To Understand The Eternal Present

“I AM with you. I move through the veil, and you feel a flow of fresh air, stirring around you. I reach-out to you, and you feel My touch, a gentle caress, and you know Me, for we are one.

“I share something with you today, which will be of great assistance, as you walk along The Way. Today I give you ‘a simple way to understand the eternal present.’ And the simple way to understand the eternal present is to consider just for a moment, and remember, your past, your present, and the future days that are yours. Right now, if you will breathe deeply, and realize fully, living, in the eternal present of right now, here stop, do not think, just be, pay attention to what is going on around you, listen, feel, know with every breath you are taking, this is living, as it should be.

“Let’s take this a step further. The past the past is always with you in the eternal present. The past has the ability to be a burden, a heavy load, or a great and divine lesson, assisting you to ‘experience with joy, the eternal present.’ And to reach this plateau, all that is necessary is for one to be willing to bless the things of the past to forgive all things in the past, releasing the negative energy, and the connotations, of certain, particular, situations, and blessing them, being thankful for the lessons they carry. In this way, you ‘change the energy of the past,’ and it comes to you in the present, the eternal present, as fuel, as energy of wisdom, as energy of growth and potential. But to reach this place this sacred place you must be willing to turn around, and face the situations, which have been your burden.

“The only way to change the past is forgiveness, and blessing, so that the energy is free to fly with you. You cannot change the acts, you cannot change the deeds, you cannot change the words of the past; but you most assuredly can alter the energy of the past, blessing every situation, freeing the energy at last, using it, as a valuable lesson.

“I promise you this, if you will be willing to take one situation, even one instance, look at it as a lesson, set ego aside, and forgive all things, associated with that situation, you will be amazed that you instantly feel lighter! And oh then, when you bless it, you feel the glory of God, because you are a child of God, using the situation to be a lesson; your own private parable, ‘This is how it happened, and this is how I came to know forgiveness. And blessing it, I came to know God, better, more personally, intimately.’

“When this is your past, your eternal present is filled with joy, and the future holds promise! And you see... all of this... is held within... your eternal present! And how can the future be anything but bright, and filled with joy, if you realize you are a child of God and all the potential you hold is to be focused on... love, and light, and peace? Focus... on delivering... love and light and peace!

“It is really that simple: setting ego aside to forgive, and bless, realizing who you are, a child of God, no less!

“And in this state of realization, you will come to ‘know,’ that the most sacred food that you could take within you... is this, this, of which I speak to you, this is the manna from Heaven: knowing the ways of God, and walking in them, forming your path... by these golden stones of wisdom, following the light... into a new day filled with promise.

“Awaken, and see, do not say to Me that, ‘The harvest will be here in four months, and then we will eat.’ I say to you... look up... look around... and see! The harvest is with you, now! The harvest is within you, now! Awaken walk live forgive bless and be!”

July 21, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

How To Pray In Such A Way That You Receive The Grace Of The Prayer

“I AM with you. Feel My presence with you. Turn-off the thoughts of busyness, and be still; for I AM, truly, with you. I speak to you today, about the importance of knowing how to pray, in such a way, that you receive the grace of the prayer, of the petition, of the song.

“When you take the time to call Home, when you set yourself aside, to speak to God, do so long enough to hear the answer, to receive the gifts, to know the glory of the union with God, communion with God, to know the comfort of a child, in the company, of a most magnificent Parent.

“Who amongst you would run into a laundromat, wearing dirty clothing, ask for assistance in washing the clothing, but then run out the door, before help is given to you? Who amongst you would go to a teacher, asking for help with an assignment, and leave paper and pencil on the desk, scurrying away to another appointment, before receiving help? Who amongst you would walk into a butcher shop, put your money on the counter, and ask for a fine cut of beef, only to run out the door before you received your change, or had your package of beef under your arm. In most every day, worldly situations, when you go to get assistance, to make a purchase, or ask for guidance, you stay long enough to pick-up the goods you bought, or to listen for the guidance. Do the same with your prayer life. How do you pray? Is it a litany of requests, filling the air around you, so busy asking that you do not take the time to hear the answer? Do you ask in a hurried prayer, and then pick-up the telephone to call someone, or turn-on the television, or turn the music up louder? This needs attention, because communication with God can resolve all issues, and it brings you to a place of wisdom, brings you to a place of confidence, it brings you to a place of peace, and acceptance.

“When you ask God a question, stay quiet long enough to receive the answer; when you seek, be persistent in your search. Do not ask, and then shrug your shoulders, saying, ‘I didn’t hear anything. I did seek an answer, but it evaded me.’ Be persistent, and willing to wait for the right time, for the right place, for the proper time and place. And when you knock on the door of God, do so anticipating the wonders that will be revealed to you, when the door is open. This is available, this communication, the answers, the revelations. It is all available to every child of God, and each of you, every one of you, whether you are hearing My words, or reading My words, is a child of God. The Eternal Parent is waiting for each of you to take enough time, to sit down, and say, ‘Hello, Father. I am here for some guidance.’ And then, tarry a while, with your Parent. Listen, with an open heart, with a willing spirit, and know, that the answers will come, at the proper time, in the proper place.

“When you sit and talk with another, a friend, a parent, or a child, if you are talking all the time, you do not give the other a chance to say what is on their heart, what is in their mind. The perfect conversation is an exchange, one speaking, one listening; but listening is the most important part of conversation. You know what you want to say, but how can you know the heart of another, if you are not willing to listen to what they say? This is the art of conversation, and it works with God, in the same way.

“I urge each of you to try praying in this manner, try it this week. Be willing to mark-off some time from your calendar, and go sit, not in the middle of a crowd, but in a very quiet place, and ask. Go to God, seeking the answers to your questions. Knock on the door, and say, ‘I’m here. Come, sit with me, God.’ And I tell you: the smile of God will embrace you, and draw you nearer, and you’ll feel the arms of God, enfold you, and tears of recognition, will wash your face.

“Be willing to stay long enough in the company, in the presence, of God, to hear the answers, to find what you have been seeking, and to marvel at what is revealed to you, when the door is open.

“This week, go and sit, in the presence of God!”

July 14, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

"The Way" To Restore The Kingdom Of God Upon The Earth And Be The Messenger, Of Peace

“I AM with you. I walk upon the Earth, with you. I move over the mountains and seas, to come to you. I reach-out, to you, from the corridors of all time, and no time, to bring you a message. And the message is ‘of peace.’

“Even to say the word ‘Peace,’ brings a feeling of contentment. Say it! ‘Peace!’ It touches your heart and your soul, because it carries The Power of God. It is a greeting. It is a prayer. It is fulfillment. It is peace.

“There is much you can do to create an atmosphere, and an environment, of peace. But to do this requires: choosing; making a decision; carrying an intention into action. And it is something you choose every day, if you are operating in the world, dealing, with other individuals.

“When you are confronted, by: anger; frustration; aggression; at that second, you must choose. It happens that quickly. Even if you are an observer to a situation, the energy is so strong, and so forceful, that, even if you are observing another, it has an effect on you. And though you might not be the aggressor, you ‘feel,’ this energy.

“I would like you to imagine, briefly, that you are sitting at a desk, in an office, and someone comes in, very upset, irate, slams the door, and begins yelling, raising their voice, pacing the floor. You have already made a decision as soon as that individual entered your office, because you felt the energy; you did not have to wait for the yelling to begin; it flooded over you, with the opening of the door; and, it is a forceful energy. In a split-second you decide, whether: to engage, and react; or to take the positive position, and let the love of God fill you, so that is your choice, you disconnect, and you are filled, with the love of God, filling yourself to the top, and then overflowing, in the face, of a tirade.

“Hearing these words, many of you would say, ‘Well, that’s what I would choose.’ But caught-up in the action, it very rarely is what is chosen. Yet, if you have the faith, to make that choice, set ego aside, and do it, you stop that force of darkness right there! And that is power! That is The Power of God!

“This is what I AM asking each of you to do; for you see, this is what is necessary to begin cleaning-up the Earth! First, there must be peace. And peace must come from within. And it begins with the desire to do so. But do not be fooled into thinking that just because you say, ‘I desire peace,’ it is done. This is an active role; and when you choose to be a crusader for peace, you will be given many opportunities to do so; but it requires vigilance, and knowing what you are doing. You will not back into it. You will not stumble over it. You will actively participate in delivering the peace of God to the world, and this requires intention. It requires that you set your ego aside, and realize, in the face of darkness and shadow, the strongest position is within the love of God. And in the love of God there is peace.

“I will not tell you it is easy. I will tell you that once you can accomplish delivering peace to chaos, aggression, anger, confusion you will know true power. Once you engage with anger, even frustration, you become a victim of that particular energy. And the exchange between two, or three, or four, is magnified. And even when you did not intend to do so, you have created darkness and shadow, and you have made it stronger. Reaction causes the energy to be magnified. But once the decision is made to act, using the love of God flowing through you, it is stopped. And once it is stopped, it begins to diminish. And with no reaction, the one who is carrying this negative energy begins to slow down, unwind, and often times slump into a position, unable to move, weeping, because they are exhausted. They have been drained, and rather than being the aggressor, they find themselves in a pool of tears, the victim.

“Think about the power of that! Think about never having to experience frustration, or chaos, or anger. This, My brothers and sisters, is within you. It cannot be taken from you. It is the love of God, creating peace, within you. This is The Secret, of the Powerful Presence; it is knowing God, and The Way; and it is possible for each one of you to do it!

“Now, if you are willing to do it, if you are willing to let the love of God fill you, so that you will not choose to react, but be an ‘actionary’ for the power of God, surely you can see that there will be one, or two, or three, or more, willing to do this also, for the intention sets the course. But there must be a few willing to stand-up first. There must be those who are willing to be the messenger, to be the leader. And then that which was on the heart, the desire of others, will be fulfilled, because they will see another, functioning, as the messenger of peace. And it will, all of a sudden, seem possible to them too!

“This is what God wants you to do. Reject the act of reaction. Choose action. Choose to act using the love of God, and you will be the instrument of God’s peace, upon the Earth. And this choosing, by one, will undo, much, of the darkness and shadow created in the world. You will see it happening before your eyes. This I promise you. And you will know ... within your heart ... that it truly... is The Way!”

July 7, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Some Simple And Practical Ways To Realize The Kingdom Of God Upon The Earth

“I AM with you. I walk atop the waters, I ascend over the mountaintops, I AM comfortable on the ocean floor, and I AM knocking at your door. Wherever you are, I will find you, and I will knock, and wait, for there is eternity, and I AM patient.

“We are one. It is true. And if you will forget all things, release your mind, your thoughts, so that you might absorb this, you will slip into eternal wisdom, and from there, you will grow.

“Embrace the truth, that you are child of God. Embrace the truth, that I AM your Brother. Embrace the truth that I AM in you, and you are in Me. And then, prepare for this truth: if we are one, you know at the core of your being, all that I know. It is just ‘blocked,’ with: doubt, hesitation, frustration, and a lot of chaos, and confusion.

“And so today, I wish to speak to you in such a way, that you will understand, and comprehend, that which The Creator of All Things, your Parent, wants you to do. These things are simple, they are very practical, but they are overlooked.

“It is not necessary to read one book to know the ways of God. And what I AM about to say might shock most of you, but it is not necessary to read The Scripture to know the ways of God. It is not necessary to study theology to know the ways of God; for these things can often lead to confusion, if they are not read, and studied, with ‘a loving heart.’

“The first step is to be vigilant about ‘what you are thinking!’ Do not let random thoughts lead you here or there. Your thoughts should be of good, of light, of peace, of beauty, of compassion and understanding. In other words, your thoughts should be ‘of God.’

“Be vigilant about ‘the words you say!’ Do not be careless, or callous, with your words. Your words should be sweet and tender, loving, carrying compassion and understanding on every syllable. On every movement of your tongue, should be the name of God. Your words should be ‘of God.’

“Be vigilant about ‘what you do!’ And in this way you will avoid careless transgressions, for your deeds show who you believe you are. The way you act, announces, what you are thinking, and enhances the words you are using. Your actions, your deeds, should be ‘of God.’

“And once you’ve reached this state, a state of loving, a state of perfection unfolding upon the Earth, opening and embracing the truth of God, then you are ready to read The Scriptures, to study the theology theories. And in this state, your eyes and your heart will be open to the true meaning, to the understanding, and you will be enlightened.

“Set aside ‘the temptation,’ to point-out to others that what they are thinking, or saying, or doing, might be incorrect, wrong, or in error. When you are given this opportunity, quickly go within. Go within and check your thoughts; for the most important relationship you have is your relationship with God! I say these words to you because this is The Way I lived, as I walked upon the Earth. I was in constant communication with Our Father; therefore, the words that were hurled at Me, the curses that were cast upon Me, the ridicule, the hate, the jealousy, the judgment did not rattle My exterior, because My interior was at peace, in the lap of God.

“Therefore, I offer you, each of you, an assignment for this coming week. Let your thoughts be ‘of love,’ even when you are tempted otherwise. Do not speak at all, unless your words are ‘of love, and kindness.’ And ‘let your deeds reflect thoughts of love, and words of kindness.’

“If you will do this: you will be living the words, contained in The Scriptures; you will be living the lofty thoughts contained in the studies of theology, divinity; you will be Living The Word of God, rather than studying, repeating, or parroting, the word of God. This is the goal!

“And if you succeed, you will realize how it feels to live in The Kingdom of God, while you are walking upon Earth. And if you succeed, all of those around you will have a realization, of what it feels like to be in Heaven, while upon Earth; for, your very presence, will announce Its coming; for you see, The Kingdom of God is near!”

June 30, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Some Very Practical Ways To Master Your Own Thoughts, And Words, And Deeds

“I AM with you. Be still. Open your heart, and be still. And because it is My desire to touch you, with the love of God, that is what you will feel. Open your heart, and be still, and you will feel Me growing stronger, stronger still. And in this realization, your faith grows, your trust expands. It expands through the veil, and the very fact that you are trusting, parts the veil, and you see, the unseen.

“The unseen is more powerful than the seen; for, it is enriched, with the power of God. The power of God is love. And this love is evident, in the relationship, between God, and all the children, the eternal children, of The Eternal Parent. It is one of the things ‘missing,’ in the way situations are handled, with worldly standards; for the world teaches force. The world teaches coercion and manipulation to force one person or many people, to do the will of another... by force. This is not freedom. This is enslavement. And when you find yourself in this situation, you do not find yourself in a state of healthy mind, body, spirit, or soul. The opposite of that is total freedom, given to all of the children of The Eternal Parent, because eternal wisdom is ‘knowing,’ that the power of love is the most important, sacred energy one can use, utilize.

“Today I want to ask each of you, through every encounter of the day, to alter your mindset, so that your thoughts, and words, and deeds, reflect a ‘godlike position.’ For, it is time for those who are willing to accept the gift to awaken to the perfection that is unfolding within you.

“Your earthly parents are doorways, thresholds, portals, whatever you wish to call ‘the passageway, of your birth upon Earth.’ Your Eternal Parent, The Creator of All Things, is just that, your Parent, your Eternal Parent, and it is through The Eternal Parent that you have been given the power, and the gift, of love, and freewill. Practice using these powerful gifts, and reject the ways of the world, which lead you into shadow and darkness. You can operate in the world, using the light of God; and it will surprise you, and amaze you, to see, that which used to be a challenge, a temptation, fall from you, when you see it for what it is, and clearly state, ‘Get from me. I am a child of God!’ because, you see, this is your royal heritage.

“Do not be ‘tricked into believing, that your body, your lifetime upon Earth, is all that is;’ for it is nothing more than a snap of the fingers, and it’s done. But you are not done. That experience is over. You have a finite period of days, in which to accomplish your mission, and then you are called Home. If you find yourself walking upon Earth right now, you can be assured you are an explorer from The Heavenly Dimension, on a mission, upon the Earth, and the mission has everything to do with cleaning-up the world, and all the ways the world deals, with situations and people. And the way you clean-it-up is to begin with your thoughts, and words, and deeds.

“Give-up the idea of controlling others, or forcing them to clean-up ‘their thoughts, and words, and deeds’; and focus on ‘yourself;’ for, that is how it will be, when every child of God walking upon the Earth simply decides to have: kind thoughts; loving words; gentle, careful deeds. That is it. It is that simple. Do not be tricked into thinking it is any other way. You cannot control another, but by force; but you can master your own thoughts, and words, and deeds!

“Many of you are longing for Me to continue to stack one stone on top of another, to tell you, ‘... do this, do that, do this, do that.’ Why? Why make it confusing? The simple truth is you have the power, within you.

“Master your own thoughts; leave the thoughts of others to them. Master your own words; leave the words of others to them. Master your own deeds; leave the deeds of others to them. And soon, you will see: you will see yourself as a master, living eternally; you will see that accomplishing your goal is within your reach; but you cannot do it, until you master your thoughts, your words, and your deeds!”

June 23, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Some Very Practical Ways To Walk Into The World Shining With The Light Of God

“I AM with you. The Eternal Truth is that you are surrounded by ‘the unseen;’ and once you open, and see with your heart and your soul and your spirit, that which was once seen will melt away into the mystical, miraculous unseen; for therein is the truth. Awaken this day, and walk into the unseen, and see with your soul!

“I say these words to you because it is possible for you to walk upon the Earth, so connected with The Creator of All Things that the things of the world do not: distract you; impeded your progress; or tempt you into frustration, or other actions, thoughts, or words which separate you from the love of God. Separation is a lonesome place to be. In separation you will never know the truth. But I say unto you, those who are willing to see the unseen, will see the truth and know, and they will be set free, from the burdens of the world.

“Today I would like to give you some very practical ways to walk into the world, and shake that dust from you, so you shine as a beacon, showing all around you that there is no excuse, there is only acceptance of the light of God; and once you hold that light, and let it shine, Earth is changed; one child shining changes all things! Even the light from a match can be seen from a long distance, when there is darkness. And that solitary match, that little light, draws many. Remember this.

“And now... to the practical points... How can you make this coming week better, miraculous, holding perfection? And this I tell you... first, I would like to tell you a very brief story, about two people, moving along a thoroughfare, together in a vehicle. They drive past a building. Outside, in front of the building, there is a sign. One person is looking away, but the other reads the words on the sign. And the vehicle and the two people continue along the thoroughfare. When they reach their destination, they do whatever it was they took their trip, or journey, to do, and get back into their vehicle heading home. And along the way, they pass the same store, the same sign; but the one, who had not read the sign the first time by, is now the one who reads the sign while the other is distracted looking-out the window in another direction. When the two people arrive home, one asks, “Did you read that sign?” and they each pronounce what they read on one side of the sign. And each party says of what the other read on the sign, ‘That is not correct! The sign said...’ thus and so, pronouncing what they read on the sign. And a rather heated argument begins, about who is right, which one is correct about what the sign said.

“Now, some of you hearing these words, or reading these words, will say, ‘Why were they arguing at all? That’s a rather ‘silly,’ use of your time. Who cares what the sign said?’ But I say this... it is a living example of what you should know, for ‘the truth,’ is there was something different written on each side of the sign! It all depended upon your position, your perspective. Each one was correct, neither was willing to ‘stop the argument,’ to consider ‘all,’ the possibilities; and, if they had, they would have realized both were correct in their observations. Furthermore, and I can assure you of this, if that sign had been two or three stories high, with a different message written at each level, on each side, you would have had many different people in the same argument, holding their positions, correct by their observation, but in error by their judgment.

“I leave you to decide ‘the lesson of The Sign,’ and remember it, for it will serve you well. It is a living example. Remember ‘The Sign.’

“The next thing I want to tell you has to do with the ability, the desire, to just ‘be,’ to do your part, and just be. ‘Be the light of God, without worry about what the other one is choosing to do.’

“If someone comes up to you, and asks for something, they might want you to do something, or give them something, or loan them something, whatever it is, they are asking you to do, you have the option, the freewill, to make a choice. Do you give it, or do you hold it? Presented with this question, most of you would say, ‘Well, I will give it.’ But the decision is yours.

“Let’s turn that story around. What if you ask another for something, and what if they say, ‘No’? You now have an opportunity. You have an opportunity to bless the situation, and move along your way, move into the day. They have chosen of their own freewill, and you should have nothing to say about it. That is a God-given right, freewill choice. And I leave that with you as well. Think about it. Think about asking and receiving, giving and blessing, forgiveness, non-judgment. And if you ever experience a time when you ask for something, and you are told ‘No,’ close your eyes, and ask God, for God will always give you what you need. The door is never closed.

“And the last example is permitting those around you to exhibit their ‘talents,’ to the fullest degree, enjoying the talents of others, without envy, without wishing that you had their talent, or in some cases denying them the ability, or the opportunity, to display their talent. Permit: those who can sing, to sing-out; those who can dance, to dance; those who can write, to write; those who can paint, to paint; those who can console others, to do it well, and with confidence. Use The Gifts of The Holy Spirit you have been given to encourage the talents of others... charity. Encourage others to be their best, without envy.

“These three things will assist each of you this week. Use only The Gifts of The Holy Spirit and The Fruits from those gifts will be abundant. You will be happy! Reject the idea of retaliation, or holding a grudge, or being upset with someone for using their freewill. Be God-like in your perspective. See everyone around you as a child of God, working their way through their earthly experience the best they can; each uniquely a piece of The One.

“If you get upset with what another says, or does, you prolong that energy. You are actually assisting them in that use of darker, or shadowy, energies. See this for what it is. The longer you hold the grudge, or the judgment, or the anger, or the frustration, you are actually assisting another to hold darkness, or shadow. But if you can find within you the faith, and the trust, to stand in the face of another who is less than God-like, at that moment, and bless them immediately, you stop the energy, right there. It is then one acting-out, and in balance, you are correcting the situation. In other words, you are not adding to the darkness or shadow, you’re blessing them, and freeing all of those around you, actually you are freeing all eternity. In this every day way, you play a huge role in cleaning-up the energy of Earth, and more properly put, of the world, because Earth holds perfection at its core.

“The goal is to clean-up the world, so The Garden is restored, and all the children hold hands, as One. It is one experience, many facets. So as soon as each one is willing to be a part of the whole, and not set themselves apart, there will be a universal experience of Oneness.

These things I say unto you this day, because they will enhance your time upon Earth. Be at peace, as you go into this day. Open your heart, and love. And this will mark you as a child of God, outwardly; the spirit shining through the temporary body, revealing to all who you really are; for you are first, and foremost, a child of God! You have been permitted to have an earthly experience. Choose wisely, that which you think, and say, and do.”

June 16, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

We Are All As One, United In The Father, We Are All Children, Of The Great I AM

“I AM with you. I AM with you on this day, that many of you, all over the world but especially in the United States of America, celebrate, as Father’s Day. It is a day set aside to honor fathers; for they are your earthly parents; and along with your mother, make it possible for you to cross-over the threshold, and make your entrance onto the Earth. Celebrate this your parents made it possible for you to experience Earth, in human form and this, alone, is enough to honor your earthly parents; today, is set aside for fathers!

“The wise parent: guides, without intruding; protects, without being overbearing; loves, without being domineering; instructs, without being demanding. The wise parent sets boundaries, and creates an atmosphere in which the child can grow, experience, and learn: without fear, without concern, without worry, and in this environment, the child comes to know trust, and confidence.

“The child of a good parent should have no worries, only excitement for: the great adventure which is before them, the journey they are to take, and the mission they are to complete. The responsibility of a good parent is to support the child on their journey, as they begin, as they endure, as they are victorious!

“For a most excellent example, of a good parent, I refer each of you to the parable of The Prodigal Son, and I ask you to read it, or re-read it, with a different mindset. This time, when you read the ancient parable, read it from the heart and the soul of the father, and the message of the story will assume a different tone, a different role, one of complete love. The father in the story of The Prodigal Son, represents God. The Prodigal Son, represents all of those brave enough to take the journey to Earth, to experience the world created by man, and hopefully, return Home, after making the world a better place, after restoring a piece of Earth to its rightful place, as it is in Heaven.

“After you have read the story, read it again, asking for guidance and illumination a key to unlock the door, and bring you to a deeper understanding of how to be a good earthly parent, a parent with a child who has no worries, no fears. Read it, and remember that we are all children of God, first; brought to Earth through the portal of an earthly mother and father. Therefore, it is appropriate for us to honor: our Eternal Parent, for eternal life; and to honor our earthly parents, for earthly life.

“Fathers, love your children! Children, respect your earthly fathers! And, let us all honor our Eternal Parent, for the gift of eternal life! The gift is Mine... and the gift is yours... we are all as One... united in The Father... we are all children... of The Great I AM.

“Happy Father’s Day!”

June 9, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-up And Sing, For You Are An Eternal Child, Of The Great I AM

“I AM with you. I AM with you, and I AM here to celebrate, with you. Celebrate who you are, that you have been given life, eternal life, which cannot be taken from you, it is yours, forever. And this eternal life, that is yours, was given to you, by God, The Creator of All Things created you, and at the core of your being, God gave you the gift of perfection to carry with you forever, a perfect child of God. And held within this ‘knowing,’ there grows confidence, in who you are. For some of you, it might be hard to imagine, no end; but I tell you there is no end; you live forever, in the love, of your Eternal Parent; and this is true confidence!

“In the world created by human beings, there is such a thing as ‘worldly confidence,’ and many of you see it, over and over again. Perhaps most, if not all of you... have experienced confidence to some degree, or another... you have had the experience of feeling confident, in what you are doing, and how you are doing it, probably many times over and over again; for, each of you, no matter how young you are, or how old you are, you have encountered situations, or tasks, which you knew you could master, because of the training you had, and because you knew how to do something, there was confidence in doing it; in fact, most of you don’t even think about these things that you do, with great confidence, because you have mastered them to such a degree that they are daily occurrences: preparing a pot of coffee, mowing a lawn, driving a car, washing dishes, painting a picture, reading a book, singing a song. You overlook these things, because you have mastered them to such a degree, you are so confident in what you are doing that it seems like nothing at all. Very little effort is put forth by you to rise-up, and prepare a cup of coffee. This comes from confidence, and having confidence makes it easy and effortless, everything flows, because you know, what you are doing, and how to do it.

“Most of you have experienced, or seen in others, lack of confidence. A simple example would be: children in the summer, at a swimming pool: one, jumping into the water, and swimming from one end to the other, laughing as they got out on the other side; and one standing there, hesitant, finally being coerced into jump-in, struggling to such a degree, that they had to be rescued from the water. One exhibited ‘confidence,’ in ‘knowing they could get to the other side,’ the other exhibited ‘a lack of confidence, not knowing they could do it at all.’ This simple example can be used in probably most situations. Confidence grows, from: knowing who you are, and what you are doing, and knowing you know how to do it. It is easy to see, and with a bit of trying, it is easy to do, too.

“The biggest step, in creating ‘a state of confidence,’ within yourself, is acknowledging, your eternal heritage, as a child of God!

“Once you acknowledge and accept this, everything falls into place, and there is no fear, or doubt, within you. But most of you are still at a place where you saying, ‘Wow, that is a great thing. I hope that is what I am doing. I pray that I am an eternal child of God. It feels good. It feels right.' Those are the ones who lack the confidence to jump into the pool, and swim to the other side. But the ones who say, 'Wow, that's right! I am a child of God, and I live forever! This is a portion, of my eternal life; and if I am here, and at this place, this is where God intends for me to be,' this is confidence; and spiritual confidence ripples, into your worldly confidence, as well.

"With a bit of practice, anyone can: drive a car, mow the lawn, cook a meal, and the more you do it, the more confident you are that you can do it, and do it well.

"This week, I ask you to apply this to your spiritual life, so that you will be 'confident,' in whom you are, and it will change this lifetime upon Earth, forever! The experiences you take Home, to Heaven, will be with you, 'shining examples, of life upon Earth.' But it all begins, with accepting who you are. So let us repeat this, one more time. It is that important...

I speak the truth... You are a child of God! You are an eternal being, encased in human form, for a time. At your creation, you were given 'a piece of perfection,' from your heavenly Parent; and, it remains with you... forever!

"Repeat these things, sing them, say them, and live them, and confidence will be yours. And with this state of confidence... doubt, and fear, and worry, and concern are swept away; for a child of God... should have no worry!

"Rise-up, and sing this day, for you are a child, of The Great I AM, in every way... an eternal child ... of The Great I AM!"

June 2, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

You Are An Eternal Being, Know This, And Be Still

“I AM with you. I speak words to you today to remind you, in a way that will open you to the possibility, that you are eternal. Do not mistake, this truth; do not place it in a realm of probability; hold it as the treasure it is, an eternal reality.

“This ‘knowing,’ comes to those who are willing to be still, and let this sacred reality, move over you, and into you, and all around your sacred being, so that when you rise-up and walk, you do so, with a dignity that was not with you before, you knew.

“God is our Eternal Parent. God knew you, before you were walking around in flesh, in human being form. God honored you, by sending you to Earth, for a while. You were ‘eager,’ to go, on such a treasured journey. But most of you have ‘forgotten,’ that this time on Earth is for you to experience Earth, in an earthly form and then return Home, where you no longer need the garb, the garment, the body, of flesh. And when you return Home, the Spirit that is you, the Spirit that lives forever, will hold the experience ‘of life upon Earth,’ and all that it brings to you. Your time upon Earth is recorded, and you can see it, much like you will go to your theaters to see a movie today, when you return to Heaven, that which you did upon Earth will be on display, another earthly experience, by one of the children of God.

“Most of you will say, ‘I know that this body is temporary, and my spiritual life, my spirit life, my eternal life, is with me. I know this.’ But without seeming unkind, My response, at this important time, is ‘most of you do not.’ You say you do, you hope you do, you think you might, but you are not in a place, where you can say, with conviction, with authority, ‘I live forever.’

“It is time for you to realize eternal life is with you! When I walked upon the Earth, I said often, ‘Heaven is at hand. Heaven is near. Heaven is within you.’ I said, in many ways, what I AM saying to you today, but I chose My words carefully, so those listening could accept what I was saying, to the degree they could bear it. Today, I AM saying it to the ultimate degree, without mincing words, without dissecting them, and picking them carefully, so that the message is crystal clear for those who will hear, ‘You lived with your Parent, your Eternal Parent, before you were born onto the Earth. And your time away from your heavenly home is limited; for, as you were sent forth, with God’s blessing, you are to return one day, in glory, going Home.’

“I would like for you to begin to think about shedding the human body, as something glorious, and wonderful, not as something to be feared, or hidden under a rug, or ignored, because you are ‘not sure of the outcome.’ So today, I AM telling you the outcome, so you no longer hold fear or doubt; but so that you spend every day upon the Earth, doing something for the glory of God, doing something every minute for the glory of God, because soon, you will return Home. You do not die when the flesh falls from you; in fact, you feel liberated, you return to your natural state, a magnificent ‘light body,’ living in the dimension of perfection.

“You were born ‘of perfection.’ You have been given the honor of living upon Earth, so that you might bring this ‘piece of perfection,’ onto the Earth, bless Earth with the presence of God, within you; and once you have done this, return Home, joyfully, to hold the Earth experience, forever, within your sacred being.

“And this is My message to you today, ‘The promise is eternal life!’ Let this day be a day of rebirth for you, so that, after this day, everything that you do upon Earth: will be a gift to God; will be a painting of life upon Earth, worthy of hanging in the grandest halls, of an eternal museum. Live your life as if you ‘know,’ Who you are, and from whence you came, for God knew you before you assumed the human form. God honored you by sending you forth to Earth. God anointed you, before He sent you forward. And God will glorify you, upon your return. As I was sent, from God to Earth, to return Home, you too, are sent by God, to Earth, to return Home. You will never die. You are eternal. Live the rest of your time upon Earth, knowing this. And if just a few of you can do it The Garden will begin to flourish, again; and it will be majestic; and it will rise into the heavens, and take its place, amongst the stars.

“Earth is a heavenly place of peace! All creation is waiting for this revelation, brought about by the children of God. Let it be so!”

May 26, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

It Is Time To Know, You Are An Eternal Being, The Child Of God, Upon The Earth

“I AM with you. I walk with you, and I talk with you. I sing with you, and I dance with you. I rejoice in eternal life... with you, because, if you are hearing these words or reading these words, you are an eternal being, upon Earth for a brief while, and then you will return Home; and this is what I want to talk to you about today.

“Many of you will say, that you ‘know,’ you are a child of God; but I do not believe this is so. I know it is so, that you are a child of God; but I also know that you have not fully recognized, or realized, and come to know, ultimately know, that you are a child of God; for if even a handful of you, knew this, to the degree it is important to know it, then you would act, as a child of God. Your days would be different; you would walk amongst God’s creations, of Earth, as nobility; noble of thought, word, and deed, because you would understand, fully, that The Source, of your eternal life, God, hears, and knows, and sees, that which is written upon your heart. It cannot be any other way.

“I pause... to let you reflect... on how you would have handled every situation you have encountered recently, if you truly knew, you were a child of God. And I remind you, when the one who knows their eternal heavenly heritage, encounters those who are gruff, or angry, they bless them; their attempt is to heal the pain of anger, or frustration, or drive-out the spirit of meanness. The one who knows they are a child of God does not choose to join-in such an exhibition, but chooses instead to let the glory of God, the love of God, the power of God, and the presence of God, to move through them to settle some peace upon that individual, or individuals.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, those who seek the company of God. For those who remember, and who know, and acknowledge, their heritage, when they see someone in need of clothing, or feeding, or bathing, or shelter, they provide it, without question. There is no question of, ‘Will I need this?’ before it is given away, because they know, whatever they need will be provided. They are connected, they talk to The Eternal Parent every day, many times during the day, and they know, they are secure in eternal life.

“All of eternity is waiting, for the children of God to acknowledge: who they are, what they are to do, and be excited about how they choose to do it.

“In reality, very few are given the opportunity to live upon the Earth. It is a sacred privilege! But it is a privilege that is not used to its full potential, by most of the children of God. It is time for you to hear these words, and begin to reflect on what you are doing, what you are saying, what you are thinking.

“All of God’s creation, the hills, the seas, the valleys, the trees, everything created by God, is waiting to stand-up and sing, with joy, for every child who recognizes their heritage, and the responsibility that is theirs. Do not rush into this day. Sit quietly. Speak to God, speak to your Parent, and say, 'God, is this true? For, if it is, I am more related to You, than I could imagine;' and let God tell you the story, of how creation is continuing, through you.

“Into the hands of the children, God has placed the creation story. It is yours. What will you do, with creation, today?”

May 19, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Maintaining Your Connection With Home Base, Riding On The Breath Of God

“I AM with you. I live. I AM complete, full, and I AM with you. At the present time, your spirit is held within the material body, and you have donned this body, so that you might fulfill a mission. You are sent from Heaven. You have arrived upon the Earth; and the mission is underway; yet, it is important for you to remember, that you are divine, and ‘of spirit.’ Your light body is the eternal creation of God. Therefore, it is important to acknowledge, each day, that which is your mission, and ask for guidance, all along The Way, on how to best complete the mission, achieve the goal, and return Home.

“It is much like an astronaut, climbing into the vehicle, the space ship, wearing a protective suit, blasting into space, listening all the time to home base, reaching the destination, and marking it so, then returning home to cheers, and faces aglow. This is exactly what is happening to you upon Earth right now. And today, I say unto you, if you can accept this example, then you will understand and comprehend the importance that each astronaut places, on keeping the channels of communication clear, and free from debris; so that they might have a solid, full connection with home base, so that the words are not garbled, or scattered here or there, but the directions are pure and clear. And this builds confidence in the astronaut. They do not want to disconnect or to have static upon the line, because then their mission is in jeopardy, each and every time. And it is the same with you! You are on a mission; you are where you are to be, at this time, in eternity. Pause, and recognize the importance of maintaining a static-free connection with Home Base!

“A sign, that your connection is clear, and good, and operating as it should, will be that you are happy to be doing what you are doing, and there is confidence in the way you move. You are sure, because you can hear, and you know The Way; and in your faith, you know The Way will be made clear; or, if obstacles do appear, that it is the opportunity for you to show you can master each and every step along The Way. There is no reason for doubt, or sadness, or frustration. There is no reason for a grumpy, or grouchy, spirit; because, if your connection is free of debris, you will hear, and know, that which you are to do. And when it is yours to do, and yours alone to do, you will understand the clues, the gifts, have already been given to you, and you will master it, and in faith you do.

“This is what I wanted to say to each of you, ‘Keep you connection free and clear, and then the only thoughts, the only whispers you will hear and focus your creative power, your thoughts, upon, are from those who are with you, to make sure your journey is good, that you accomplish all that you could, in the name of God, while you walk upon the Earth.’ And this where I leave you today, in the lesson, in the words, in the story, and in the encouragement, for I AM with you every day; but this reminder is too important to go on and on, to bring in new things, to distract you, from what you just heard.

“Remember at first, you need to practice, just as you would practice riding a bicycle. You will need to pay constant attention to what you are doing. But once you know how to maintain your connection, it will be, in rare cases, that you are tempted to be distracted, to look this way or that way, when you should be focusing straight ahead, ever forward, on you go, listening to no other voice, but The Voice of God. Go into the new week, riding upon The Breath of God.”

May 12, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Happy Mother's Day; Give The Gift You Seek And You Shall, Surely, Find It

"I AM with you. Many of you, whether you are hearing these words, or reading these words, reside in a country where today is set aside to honor 'Mothers;' and therefore, I say to each of you who have given birth, who are mothers, 'Happy Mother's Day!'

"Today, the words I say unto you are not addressed to the mothers, or to the children of the mothers, whose relationship has been good; for, it is easy to define the word, mother; it is easy to speak of the love, and the nurturing, and the support, that is the mother's to give, and a blessing upon the children who receive it; it is easy to speak about the honor and love the children should give back to the mother, for life upon the Earth, and for showing the way, guiding the children through the maze of 'how to do this and that,' while living in the world.

"Today I want to address those who are mothers, or those who are children of mothers, wherein that relationship is somehow 'lacking;' because I hope today, after hearing these words, there will be no sense of lack, there will be no sadness or sorrow, there will be understanding, and compassion.

"Hear Me children, for all of you living upon Earth, had, and have, an earthly mother. You cannot be living upon the Earth, without a mother, at some point at some place, a portal, through which you passed to spend a number of days upon Earth; and this, and this alone, is reason to honor mother the portal from Heaven to Earth. And now that you are upon the Earth, that piece of your journey is complete.

"Today, you have already heard words, from God our Father, and The Holy Spirit, The Breath of Wisdom, letting you know that if you feel lack, of anything, and I speak of spiritual things, such as love, understanding, compassion, these things you will find, within. And it is there you must go, to begin, to open the treasure chest, and reach-in.

"It is an easy task to speak on Mother's Day about the glories, and the fun, and the delights, and the-this-and-the-that. But what needs to be said, on this day, at this time, calling all mothers and children to hear, is 'God is asking you to love to love one another!' And for those of you willing to do this, to go within, and open that treasure chest, and find the gift of love within you it is incumbent upon you to love first! Be that which you are seeking!

"I address, directly, the mothers: who are living in frustration, because they do not 'feel,' they have done the best they could; those who feel they are lacking, they do not know how to love properly, they do not know how to discipline properly, they do not know how to behave properly; for those of you, who are in any, or all, of these situations, hear Me, 'You are living in a world, that you have created, and now you are harboring resentment, and judgment, of yourself. This day, free yourself! Do not use 'the excuse,' any longer, that you did not have a pattern to go by, that you, too, were lacking as a child in this, or that, or the other, that you didn't know how to do it! Set that excuse aside. Judge not yourself! Set everything aside, release it, forgive yourself, and go forward... this day! And begin... in little steps... be love, be light, be peace, be joy; for, these things are surely within every human being, as I know God has planted the seeds, within you. Move forward from this day, free!

“And now I speak to the children, who feel: they are lacking; they did not receive the love they deserved; the discipline was harsh; they were made to do many things that they did not feel were right; that they were denied much. I say to you, ‘Stop!’ You have within you the love of God! You have seeds of compassion and kindness! Go inward, and find these things, and begin to use them! If you feel you are lacking love, be loving love to another person. Be what you are lacking, and you will turn around and find, miraculously, in some cases, that you were never lacking it at all, you just weren’t using it! It is there! Once you begin to be that which you seek you will find that you have filled a space: as big as an ocean, as mighty as a raging river, as gentle as a mountain brook, as verdant as a green valley, rich as an orchard filled with fruit. Do not permit yourself to use the excuse any longer that you are this way, or that way, because mother did not provide it. It is time to understand that your earthly mother is a portal, and you passed through it and you are upon Earth but your Eternal Parent is where you find love, kindness, compassion, understanding, support, and nurturing; this is The Source of what you are seeking; and, the Eternal Parent is always giving it!

“Let it be your intention, for mothers and children alike, to begin this week on a different footing: no longer seeking love, giving love; no longer seeking understanding, giving understanding; no longer seeking compassion or forgiveness, being compassion and forgiveness, the embodiment of these things; in other words, set your intention to be The Living Word! This is how it is done. This is how you know love. This is how you become all that you seek.

“I give you one brief example, so it will settle better within you. All of you can remember, at least one time, when you received a gift that was just perfect, that made you want to sing, and dance with laughter. Just one time, no matter what it is, try to remember a piece of the feeling you had. It was good. It was nice. Now, I want you to remember, one time, when you gave the perfect gift, and you saw, and you felt the joy and the happiness of the other person. Now breathe-in that feeling, remember how it felt, giving the gift. Most of you hearing My words, or reading My words, will be saying that the feeling, the emotion, of giving, is more rewarding, more fulfilling, than it was to receive. Sure you were happy to receive the gift, you were filled with love for that person, and you went about your day. But it was different in every way when you gave the perfect gift. You felt fulfilled, because it was passing through you. It came from God, directly to you, and you used what God gave you, to give another.

“This is what I AM asking you to do for this week, reconnect with ‘the joy, of giving,’ because it is more blessed, more sacred, more fulfilling and enriching, to be the giver, of ‘the perfect gift.’ And I do not believe I need to tell you, what the perfect gift is, for you know it. It is written on your heart, and it is upon your lips...

“Today give the gift of love, by being love. Seek, and you will surely find.”

May 5, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Go Forth And Deliver The Perfection Of God To The World

“I AM with you. I reach-out, and touch your hand, and it is natural that our hands enfold, one wrapping around the other, until we hold each other in this sign of friendship, and trust, and faith.

“Your perfection is God’s perfection and the more you open to the perfect love of God flowing to you without measure the more you are filled with the perfection, of God.

When you are willing to use the gifts that you carry within you for the glory of God the perfection of God radiates, from the gifts you are using. And in the using of the gifts, in the flow of the perfection of God’s love, the world ‘knows,’ a perfect God, through you.

“The measure of God’s love flowing to you, and through you is diminished by shadow and darkness retained within you. It is that simple.

“Some of you might be experiencing a measure of God’s love that seems wonderful, because: you do not know any better; you do not embrace any more; but to know the ‘full measure,’ of love, of God’s perfection, requires you to clean-up the inner chambers of your being. By removing ‘one piece of doubt,’ from your being, you experience an increase in the flow of the perfection of God into you. And if you continue to move the debris of shadow and darkness, which you have pushed into the corners of your inner being, the experience, the increase of perfection within you, is life altering.

“The perfect being is one who is filled, completely, with the perfection of God and within this perfection of God there is no room for ego; for in clinging to the ego: you are clinging to arrogance, or to fear; you are clinging to hatred, doubt, frustration, greed. Any of the energies which are ‘heavy,’ impede the flow of God’s love.

“I say this slowly, and with intention, so that it is clearly set before you. The measure of perfection you achieve is directly connected with your choice, your choosing, your intention. If you desire to experience God’s perfection upon the Earth, you must be willing to do the work necessary to free-up this flow so that everywhere you go, the world knows God, through you, sees the perfection, of God, in you.

“You are not meant to be marred, by the shadow and darkness of the world. You are meant to illuminate shadow and darkness, with the light of God, flowing through you; for in the illumination, shadow and darkness cannot stand; they are seen for what there are, and no one would choose: darkness over light, imperfection over perfection, mediocrity over perfection.

“These words are lessons enough, ‘If you will set your goal, for the coming week, to rid yourself of all the shadowy energies you have suppressed or hidden away within you, your life experience will change forever, because the places that lie barren will be filled within you, they will be filled with the perfection of God. They will no longer be barren deserts; they will be verdant, rich, filled with promise.' This requires that you must go back, make your list, so that you might check-off the things that you have pushed-down, the things you do not want to consider, the things you do not want to readdress, or revisit, and weed them from your interior garden.

“Once you are sure you have forgiven all things, then, and only then, will you experience perfection. You do not have to wait a month, or a year, or a lifetime to gain perfection; for it is yours. Your perfection lies in the perfection of God all you have to do is clean-up the inner-you, and it will be yours.

“This is the first step; but many of you are overlooking it. You want to go out, and do good deeds, to accomplish great things, but all the good deeds you do, and the great things you accomplish hold the energy of you. What is in you? For all that is in you is held within what you do, what you create. That is why some things you do, and some things you create, lack perfection, even when you are trying to do your best; that which you do, and that which you create, hold the energy of the inner-you. It is that simple.

“Therefore. let it be your intention for this week to let the perfection of God flow onto the Earth, and into the world, created by human beings, through you, that the world will know the perfection of God, through you. You see this is why ‘all things are possible, for God;’ and when you are filled with the perfection of God, all things are possible, through you.

“Go forth, and deliver the perfection, of God, to the world!”

April 28, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Do The Inner-Work To Die Of Self, Pick-Up Your Cross, And Follow Me

“I AM with you. I come to you, and speak, so that you might better know The Way.

“There is a passage, written in Scripture, that very few understand. And it has to do with words I said, not as a command, but as an invitation, of how you can walk The Way, how you can be followers of The Way, and experience the mystical aspects of truly living, upon the Earth. The only way you can do this, and do it completely, is to ‘die of self.’ When I said this, I do not believe there were many who understood what I said, completely. Yet I said it, for those who were ready... for those who could understand... for those who were willing... to take My hand.

“And the invitation, went forth, ‘Come. To follow Me, you must die, of your ‘self.’ Pick-up your cross, and come. Follow Me!’

“And I explain to you right now, what that truly meant; for in the understanding of it, there will be no hesitation, you will rise-up, and walk The Way. Some attempt this walk, but give-it-up, because it appears to be more difficult than they first imagined, but that was only because they were missing a ‘vital piece, of the direction.’ When I say you must ‘die of your ‘self,’ I mean that ‘you must sever ego,’ those things within you, which lead you in the direction of shadowy and dark energy.

“If you are hurt, by what another says, that has to do with ego; cut-it from you. It is not important what another says. What is important is how you act in the love and the light of God. That ‘box of hurt,’ is stacked in the passageways within you, and it diminishes the flow of: the power of God, the love of God, the light of God. Now understand this, that which flows from The Creator directly to you, and within you: has no measure; there are no brakes to stop it, or wheels to move it forward, faster and faster; it is a constant, even flow. The only thing that can impede it are the boxes that you have stacked within the passageways of your inner being, and they have to do with ‘ego.’ ‘Judgments,’ come from ego. ‘Anger,’ comes from ego. ‘Hurt,’ comes from ego. ‘Sadness,’ comes from ego. ‘Greed, and envy, and lust,’ all of these things, come directly from ego. And they must be cut from you, so that you can be in complete communion with The Creator. This is ‘dying of self, and understanding the power of God within you, and the completeness of it.’ And this cannot be recognized until the passageways are unclogged, and you are willing to be, as you are meant to be, free at last, of all that has held you back.

“You will not encounter many, human beings, in your lifetime upon Earth, who are willing to do this; but when you do encounter such a being, you will notice it immediately, because the glow, the light, the love of God, is not only flowing within them, but it is obvious! They seem to glow, to shine. Their smile is a bit wider than most, their laughter a bit more tender, and inviting. You will recognize it, because 'what you have stored within you is always obvious in the words you choose to say, and the deeds you choose to do.'

"Pick up your cross, and follow Me, I said. What does that mean? Does that mean that you too must fall under the whip, or be abused, publicly humiliated? I wasn't speaking of that at all. I was speaking of 'knowing,' what your cross is. You have a mission on Earth. You are to do certain things, and these certain things, include, first, to clean-up The Garden, God created, begin its resurrection! That is what you are to do first! Your 'cross,' has to do with, 'the things that appear to be your temptations.' Pick-them-up and know what they are. Once you rid yourself of ego, you will be surprised, that there are no temptations. That's what the temptation is about.

"If you 'fall an easy victim to gossip,' joining in groups here and there, pay attention to this 'tripping stone,' pick-it-up and refuse to harbor it within you. Know it. Cast it from you. These things, these things that tempt you, whether they be: invitations to assail others, or to assail yourself; harsh judgments on yourself and others, these things are impeding your progress. But as you pay attention, and clean-out the boxes from your passageways, your inner passageways, and become aware, of that which has been your cross, you will find as you walk, you cast the cross from you, rise-up, and find you are resurrected, and taking on a new life, life free.

"These words I say to you are simple words; but it is the only way you are going to be able to live life upon the Earth, as it is meant to be.

"And these things will set you aside. You will be different; because you do not give safe harbor to shadowy dark thoughts. And if you do not harbor shadowy dark thoughts, your words will not give birth to these thoughts, and your deeds will not fully act-out the words. These thoughts will not be in you, at all. You will be filled, with the love of God; and, that is all you will be able to think about, and talk about, and do great deeds about.

"This is important because there are so many of you trying to do good deeds, without doing the inner-work, and you stumble and fall. Why? Why would you stumble and fall doing good? It is because you are out-of-balance, within. You cannot help others, when you are floundering yourself. The only way, to walk The Way, successfully every day, is to go within. Open your eyes! What thoughts are you thinking; what comes to you, in the night, or in the day? These are signs! If these thoughts are not totally of love, then pay attention. They are keys. Once you rid-yourself of these temptations, you will be free, but first, you must know, what's going on, within you. And next, you must be willing to do something about it.

"Most of you have addressed these issues, sometimes fleetingly, sometimes very seriously, but still, did not cast them from you totally. They were all tucked in a box, pushed-back in a passageway somewhere, so you thought no one would know. But you see, you know! What are your thoughts? What things reach-out to grab your attention? This is the true secret, and this is where you begin.

"If you want your walk along The Way to be sacred, and filled with miracles, mystical things happening all around you, you cannot neglect the inner-work. And you will know when it is done. Every thought that comes to you will be sign unto you.

“Accept these words as a glorious promise; for, as you begin your inner-work, you will find that you notice little spots that didn't seem obvious before. And you will realize, ‘Oh my goodness. That happened ten, twenty years ago. I thought I had taken care of that.’ And maybe to some degree you had, but bits and particles of it remain, ingrained in the passageway, of your inner being.

“It is time to begin the work. And the important work is within you. You are the only one who will know when it is done. And the key will be the messages, the whispers, the things that come to you, within. This is what I meant, when I said you must ‘die of your self.’ Ego, once it is removed, the temptations live no more. You have ascended beyond that. You are living at that time, and only then, as God meant you to live upon Earth. It is a goal worth seeking. It is accomplished, by any of the children of God, who desire it. Now come, and follow Me!”

April 21, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Live (This Part Of) Your Eternal Life, In The Light, And Be The Light Of The World

“I AM with you. I come to you today, as the light pierces the darkness, of the night, and begins to illuminate, all things hidden in darkness.

“God is light! And the light does not ‘know,’ the darkness. The light can illuminate the darkness, but it does not know, darkness. You are ‘of God;’ therefore, the light of God is within you, and it is possible for you to be, to know, complete fulfillment of the light; yet, you cannot know the light completely, if you choose to walk in darkness and shadow.

“When I walked upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago, I was an example, of light, complete, whole, and perfect, The Light of the World. This is how I could say unto you, ‘You can do all the things I AM doing.’ But to do the things I did, and do, you must re-establish your connection fully and completely, operating in the perfection of the light. For when you are walking this way, the darkness and the shadows of the world created by human kind, cannot extinguish your light, you are the light. The only way your light can be diminished is if you reach-out, and take the hand of the shadow and darkness, and then the brightness of your light begins to flicker and fade, and become an ember. But that ember is always there, ready to be ignited, when your heart and spirit care so much... that they wish to fuel your being... with the light of God once again.

“I have repeated this to you many times, but I must say it over and over again, because I hear the words fall quickly from your lips; yet, in gazing upon your light, I see that it has not truly come to be an ‘understanding,’ within each of thee. You have eternal life! This is why we say, ‘Live, and give the glory to God! Live, and sing, and praise God!’ Why, why? Because you have been given the gift, of eternal life, and once you are born into eternal life it cannot be taken from you. You live! And the life you have been given is eternal. Therefore once you accept and embrace this truth, the next step is to ask, ‘What is eternal life?’ Eternal life is living completely, and wholly, in the perfection, of the light of God. And you are the light of God.

“God revealed to each of you... what eternal life is... this is a gift... so many miss, do not see, even when reading words, written... about Me, it has evaded many; but God revealed life eternal, by asking Me to walk upon the Earth, ‘Go show them.’ And therefore, you saw.

“When you are completely in the light, you walk upon the Earth unconcerned about what you will eat, or what you will wear, or what you will do, because it is all there, life abundant for you. You know; therefore, you live. You live fully, completely, wholly.

“So what did I do as I walked upon the Earth? Surely, there was darkness and shadow around Me, but I did not take it within Me, I did not hold it, or claim it. No, I proclaimed the light of

God. I proclaimed the good news that, 'Look at Me, and you will see the example, of what you are to be.'

"I did not ask for those around Me to serve Me, to praise Me, to sing about Me. I said to everyone, 'Let us do this, for the glory of God, so others might come to know God through Me.' And I could easily say, '...so others might know God through thee.'

"The great, those who know the light, do not ask to be served, to be held up. Those who know the light... seek to serve... and I gave an example of that too: 'Do not strive to be first in line, to have others wait on you, and serve you, to take care of you. Be first in line to serve others, because in serving, you come to share the light and the love of God, with others.'

"Seek... complete communion with God... by being in the light. Darkness or shadow cannot throw a net over you, and drag you to a place where they will embrace you, and take all you are. Darkness and shadow can tempt you, but you can only become ensnared, in the darkness and shadow, when you 'choose,' to go there. This will be difficult for many of you to accept, or embrace completely; but when you are enlightened, you will understand, that you must choose to take the hand of darkness and shadow, and be led away from the light. And still, in all of this, in the choosing, the light, that is yours, is always there, though barely visible, as an ember. You see... this gift of eternal life... can never be taken from you. You can choose a journey, going here or there, but the light goes with you, because it is you. To know the perfection... and the miraculous... light... of God, more fully, re-establish your connection with God, and understand The Power, that is yours.

"Reject judging others, reject judging yourself, and begin living in the light, your light, the light of God. You are the one who can make all of the difference in this portion of your eternal life. It is yours to choose. Choose the light."

April 14, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

How To Know True Freedom, In Union, In Your Relationship, With The Light Of God, And Be The Light Of The World

“I AM with you. Listen! Listen to the song of the bird, singing of The Way, taking to wing, and flying away, showing you freedom. This is what I want you to experience today, freedom, freedom in the light, of All That Is.

“I wish to give you three (3) examples of ‘relationships, with The Light of God,’ for they are each unique in their own way. Some would say, ‘Experiencing one form of light will lead you to desire a closer union with the light.’ And this is sometimes so.

“For one wandering in darkness, lost in shadows, to see a light, even if it is some distance away, is uplifting, a source of encouragement. It is a light shining in the darkness! And most always, the one in darkness will follow the light. This seeing, and acknowledging the light, and moving closer to it, is one form of union, with the light. You draw near, and you notice the difference of looking into the light, and then letting your eyes fall all around, seeing how one small candle can illuminate the darkness. And this is beautiful, and comforting, to the one who had been lost. But sometimes that particular experience can be unfulfilling, as you turn around, and are distracted by the things of the world, leaving the light behind, wandering into darkness, only to have to find the light again; it seems illusive, even though you know it is there; but it continues to call you, out of dark despair. So the one understanding, and coming to know this type of union with the light, this relationship with the light, is never quite ‘whole, in the light.’ It is something they know, but can easily be led away from depending on which way they are moving, or turning, or what has caught their attention and focus.

“The second example, of union, or knowing the light, is of those who embrace the light, once they have found it. And they draw nearer, and play in the rays, and are comforted by, the warmth it provides. They dance in the light and rejoice in the light. They call people to the light. They live in the light! It keeps them they feel, safe from the darkness, all around them. This is one union, or relationship, with the light.

“But then there is the third example which, today, I wish all of you hearing these words, or reading these words, to come to know, because it is freedom! If you will acknowledge the light, within you rather than searching for the light, all around you you will then be the light of the world. Turn that flame-up, within you, and what you experience will surprise you, because the light, burning within you, becomes all that you ‘see,’ and all that you ‘know!’ Imagine this!

“In your experience upon Earth, you have encountered a light, or a candle, in the darkness. You see what it can do. You have also had the experience of dancing, or playing, in the light created by ‘party lights,’ let’s say; and you know what that can do; transform a regular room into something of great beauty; and all within that light: dance, and sing, and enjoy life to the fullest, for the moment. But take this a step further, and imagine yourself ‘within the flame, of the light of God;’ for, if you are within the flame, you do not see what is going on around you at all. All you see is the golden light! You are the light! Therefore, everywhere you go, you see golden light: you do not see a shanty town; you do not see a grand palace; you do not see someone crippled, and in pain; you do not see someone driving a fancy car; you do not see someone caught breaking the law, as that civil authority has set it; you do not see anything; but you know, the light, that you are! You are blinded to the things of the world, because the light is coming from you; you see only light; and in this way, you cannot judge. You do not know whether you are shining light: on rich or poor, on sick or healthy. You know, only, the light; and there is no judgment. You know nothing, but the light.

“There is a huge difference, between: being drawn to the light; living within the light; and acknowledging that you are the light! Think on it. This is how you can judge no one, if you do not see! The legal system in The United States of America has a symbol, Lady Justice, wearing a blindfold, holding scales balancing truth and fairness... without seeing... just holding the balance. .. and it is the same... when you are the light!

“I want each of you to strive to see the light, this is good; but do not let that be your only step; take the next step, into living in the light, feeling the glow, and the warmth, of the light. And once you come to know the light of God in this Way: follow; sit; be still; and in the silence, reach-out, and turn-on the light, within you! Breathe in deeply, and feel it flicker, and then burst into a magnificent flame! And then, you will come to know, that everywhere you go, you are the glow, you are the light; and your eyes will be sealed to the ways of the world; and you will walk in the light of God, all the days, of your journey, upon the Earth. This is how it is meant to be!

“From other dimensions, we see the children of God upon Earth, as points of light: some are walking around dull, a flicker, or an ember barely visible; some are in full flame, easy to find; others come and go. It is meant for all of Earth to be aglow with The Lights of God!

“See the light. Live in the light. Be the light, and you will be at peace, and you will know freedom, in a Way, you have yet to know. Come, walk with Me. Let us glow!”

April 7, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Set Aside The Ways Of The World, And Deliver Heaven To Earth

“I AM with you. I come to you today to exhort you to: go-out into the world, and show The Way; be the shining example, of the children of God, walking upon Earth.

“Walk into the world, bringing a piece, and the peace, of Heaven: to those in need; to dark shadowy places; touching children and women, and men, with the simplicity, and the magnificence, of God’s love. I urge you, as you walk in the world, do not be distracted by ‘the ways of the world;’ because, as you adopt these ways, you are marked, as ‘one of the world.’ Choose rather to carry the light of God, wherever you go, so that you are marked, as ‘one of the children of God, from Heaven, touching Earth, with your blessing.’

“It is not right, for you to swap evil for evil, curse for curse. It is good, for you to bless all things, upon Earth. And to do this, you must ‘choose to do it,’ because it will not come naturally, at first; you have been so immersed, in the things of Earth; but making the choice to do so, is the giant-step forward, a leap, a bound, over a barrier which has held you back, and denied you the pleasure of feeling, and knowing, you are ‘of Heaven, experiencing Earth.’

“Do not take part in gossip, or accusations hurled at others. Do not judge others. Refuse to join-into these energies, which are dark, and heavy; rather, when you hear something like this: bless it, clean it, free the Earth of the evil, or the curse. Do not allow your tongue to do evil. Do not allow your lips to speak in deceit. Rather keep yourselves pure, and above these heavy energies, floating on the lightness, of that which God sends you to counter the shadow, and darkness.

“If you are hearing these words, or reading these words, you are one of those ‘called to walk into the world, exhibiting Heaven upon Earth.’ And you cannot be set, in the ways of God, if you are clinging to the ways of the world. The world is loud, and harsh; but the tones and the songs of Heaven are sweet, and pure, and uplifting; they do not curse another, they support another.

“For anything you encounter this week, God has sent you ‘a balance, from Heaven.’ If you encounter greed, the balance is generosity. If you encounter lust, the balance is purity. If you encounter anger or hatred, the balance is love. If you encounter judgment, the balance is understanding and compassion. If you encounter fear, or doubt, or sorrow, there is a balance; but this takes ‘practice.’ And as you practice, you will become confident, and the more confident you are you will find that: you are patient with yourself and others; you are quick to deliver God’s love. This is how the world is changed; it is not changed, marching from here to there, shouting angry epithets; it is changed, humbly moving from place to place, serving those around you, touching them, with the ways of Heaven; leaving your footprint upon the Earth, in such a way, that everyone turns, and says, 'There goes a child of God; humble, in The Way; magnificent, in The Glory.'

“This week take these words with you and go forth into the world: as a noble child of God, on a mission from Heaven, living life on Earth, to the fullest measure. Deliver the blessing!”

March 31, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-up With The Son, Forgive All Things, And Resurrect God's Creation

“I AM with you. I live. No longer burdened, by a body of dust, I live. I AM Spirit. And I say unto you, Spirit is the reality: it is eternal, eternal life, with My Father, and your Father; eternal life, with My God, and your God; this is what ‘life’ holds for you it is the promise and it is true.

“More than two thousand years ago, after My passion I rose-up, as prophesied, as intended by the will of God, and I moved over the Earth, showing Myself to those who would see Me, so that they too might know the promise fulfilled. And I said these words, to them, ‘Do not hold onto Me, for it is My time to go to My Father and your Father, to return to My God and your God; and, as The Father sent Me forth, I send you forth, as well.’ I said these words to those gathered, to those who were gathered hiding in fear, to give them courage; they knew, what had happened to Me, and they were afraid.

“All of My time on Earth was spent walking amongst the people. I did not isolate Myself, and send forth a messenger saying, ‘Come to Me, and worship Me, for I AM the Messiah.’ I moved amongst the people, the children of God. I wandered the countryside, and walked the roads. I took simple paths, and rode in the boats. I laughed with the people, and talked about The Kingdom of God being near to them, being with them. I told the people with Me, who would listen, ‘You can do everything I AM doing’. I did not set Myself aside as royalty, I brought Myself as family showing The Way that God intends the children to live upon the Earth, to accomplish a goal, to complete a mission. And as I saw the courage rise-up within them, I said to them, ‘Go forth. Go forth and do what I have been doing.’ But the most important thing I said to them, so that they would truly understand the importance of forgiveness, I said, ‘Go forth. Whose sin you forgive is forgiven. Whose sin you retain is retained.’ And with these words, I set in place, the importance of forgiveness!

“I spoke of it often, and it was My intention to send those gathered together in fear, out into the world to be the example of forgiveness, for all things. Forgiveness is the key to resurrection; for, in forgiveness, you resurrect life, where they had been death. And this is how I sent them forth, the message was simple, ‘My Father is your Father. My God is your God. My mission is your mission. Go forth, and forgive, over all of the Earth!’

“And so today, I charge each of you to rise-up! It is a new day! Live My resurrection every day! Go forth, from wherever you are, and forgive! Do not retain, because the burden will be heavy. Forgive, and live. Live, as free children of God.

“You will have many opportunities to rise-up, to see life resurrected from death. Where you find hatred, rise-up, and resurrect love from hatred; for love was there first, created by God. Wherever you find anger, rise-up, and resurrect compassion and understanding from anger; for compassion and understanding were there first, created by God. Wherever you find greed, rise-up, and resurrect charity and generosity from greed; for charity and generosity were there first, created by God. Wherever you find pride and arrogance, rise-up, and resurrect humility from pride and arrogance; for humility was there first, created by God. Wherever you find fear, rise-up, and resurrect courage from fear; for courage was there first, created by God. Wherever you find doubt, rise-up, and resurrect faith from doubt; for faith was there first, created by God.

“These things I tell you, because God created all things good; and it is for you to go-out into the world, and resurrect that which was created by God!

“So this day, I say unto you... ‘I live and you live. I AM eternal you are eternal. I walked upon the Earth you walk upon the Earth. I had a mission, sent from God you have a mission, sent from God. Go forth and forgive!’”

March 24, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

This Week, Speak Only The Words God Would Say

“I AM with you. I come to you today, to say few words; but they will show you The Way, a way you can begin this week, and end this week, with great joy, and peace.

It is important for you to ‘know,’ and to ‘remember,’ that those who sing your praise, for all the world to hear one day, might turn from you the next day, taking from you, all you hold dear. I say this to you, not to make you concerned or worried or anxious, but for you to see that the ways of the world can be fickle, and they can leave thee disappointed.

“Count not on the world, trust in Our Father! Believe in the importance of your mission upon Earth, and awaken – to know – that your mission is to be completed, using the gifts of The Holy Spirit, and rejecting the temptations of the world.

“This week, hold your tongue, until you can speak only, with words of love and compassion and understanding, words of mercy, words of forgiveness. This will lead you to a place where you will not regret anything you have said, because you will speak only the words of God.

“Do not waste... a minute. Do not wait... until tomorrow. Do not put-off until later... what needs to be done, so that you might be free... to live... fully... walking in the light of God.

“If there is someone you need to forgive, take care of forgiving today. If there is someone you need to approach, and ask for their forgiveness, ask for forgiveness today. If there is someone who is lacking love, who needs to be told sweet words, who needs to be encouraged along The Way, then reach-out to that person and do it today. Do not let anything wait.

“How sweet it is to hear the words, ‘I love you!’ But it is better to hear them today, then to wait years to hear someone say, ‘I should have told you I loved you.’ These things, these little bits, these pieces of procrastination, pave the way... pave the road... to regret. And so I give you the key, so you will hold no regret, harbor no sorrow, so that you might live!

“When you speak to another, you reveal what is on your heart! Therefore, before you speak: check, be vigilant, and be aware of what you are about to say.

“You can ‘see,’ your brother or sister, standing next to you. You can see their body. And because you can see the body, it is considered very important. You take care of the body. You do not want to lose the good health of the body, the material body. Yet I say unto you, the things you do to the body... that are unseen... can be toxic: when you speak with anger to another, you are spreading the energy of anger; when you are mean-spirited, when you are frustrated, when you are short, these things alter the energy all around you, and they adversely affect that which is seen. In fact, you can see it on the face before you. Therefore I tell you, the most important things... are the things that are unseen... they either enlighten, enhance, enrich the human being experience, or they set it into turmoil, and frustration.

“This week, be aware of what you are creating in your thoughts. If you find you are creating anything negative... cast that thought from you; refuse the temptation; and the same goes for your words, and deeds.

“This week, let it be your main objective to speak only ‘as God would speak.’ ‘Set your words aside,’ they do not matter, because how you might address a certain situation is probably not the same as God would address that particular situation; but if you let God speak through you, setting your tongue aside, your words aside, then God will speak through you this week. By the end of the week, you will have changed many lives, and your life will have been changed many times.

“This week, refuse the temptation: to be harsh; to be cold; to hold anger, or hatred; any of the temptations that will bring you down, weigh you down, refuse them outright.

“Let the light of God lead you this week, all through the day, and all through the night. Do not speak, unless your words are kind, loving, compassionate, and understanding. In this Way the world will not judge you; for they will not be able to; for you will have spoken the words of God.

“There will be days in which those of the world will sing your praise. And there will be days when those of the world will turn from you; but I will always be with you... The Holy Spirit will always be moving through you... and God, Our Father, will be reaching-out to you saying, ‘Come here, son. Come here, daughter. Let Me show you The Way’.”

March 17, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

I Come From Heaven To Deliver My Gift To Earth: Love

“I AM with you. As light breaks through the darkness of the night, I AM with you. It is possible and miraculous, it is wonderful and true, I move – through dimensions – to walk with you. I reach-out My hand and say, ‘Here, come, I will show you The Way. Let us walk together this day, for the ways of the world can be testing, and trying, the temperament and the moods of the world, can batter you, as a storm, with obstacles flying; but when you take My hand, we walk next to a calm sea, feeling: the sand slip between our toes; and the breeze of a new day, moving about us. This is how it is meant to be; so today I say... ‘Rise-up! Come, and walk with Me!’

“I would like to give you a list of things to do, so that you might see and know, how to best make your way, through a new day and a new week, celebrating the eternal fact, that you are upon Earth, right now, with a mission, on a journey, from Heaven, to touch the soil of Earth, for a brief time, and return to Our Father, to God.

“Remember always ‘who you are, and from whence you came.’ You are created, by God! Say it, as if you know, you mean it! And mean it, as if you surely know it. Say the words, every day, ‘I have come from Heaven, sent by God, to walk upon the Earth, for a brief time, to deliver my gift, before returning Home. The gift is from God, and the gift is mine as well.’

“Once you remember who you are, the things you think and say and do are altered forever, for in this sacred confidence, in accepting your heritage, you see Earth, through different eyes. You see the challenges, as opportunities, to do what God wants to do, through you. You are no longer ‘testy,’ about the testing; but eager to respond, for ‘the trying times,’ are the times of your glory, when you can pick and choose, and tell the story, of how you saw ‘temptation,’ recognized ‘the dark,’ but chose ‘the light.’ These words sound beautiful, and filled with wisdom, yet when you set your foot outside of your door, you begin the testing, the challenges begin, for sure. And it is in those times, that you need to walk with Me, for I will whisper unto thee, and say, ‘Keep your eyes upon the light, and then you will surely do what is right.’

“It is good you will walk with Me, because as I walked, I faced every temptation which comes to thee. And therefore, as I lived upon Earth, and walked daily, in the world created by human beings, I understand the journey: better, completely, wholly. If you feel as if someone has hurt you, or rejected you, or said things about you which are untrue, I can tell you what to do; for these things happened to Me too! I was rejected outright. I was mocked. I was criticized by the elders of the synagogue. There was gossip by the townspeople, who knew My family. Some laughed. Some snickered. Sometimes My own family wondered what in the world I was doing, but that did not matter, because I stayed so connected, with Our Father, that the direction coming from Heaven held more reality than what was going on around Me, created in the world of man.

“Focus – on what it is you are to do. Do not wonder – what your mission is. Begin, ‘knowing,’ that no matter what other aspects of your mission are set in place – the primary one – is to bring the love of God upon the Earth! Earth needs love! Earth does not need more orators, or writers, or legislators. The truth is Earth doesn’t need more lawyers, or doctors, or bankers. Earth needs – people who are willing to deliver the love of God – people willing to speak the words of God, over words of their own choosing. And this, I can surely address, because as I walked amongst My brothers and sisters, there were times when My humanity would have led Me to say one thing; but My eternal life in Our Father opened Me fully: to speak the words that God would have Me speak; to touch those, God would have Me touch; to hold those, whom God would have Me hold.

“There are some of you who feel that you have lived your life trying to help others, that you have been good, your actions have been appropriate, you attend church, you do good deeds in your community, and still life seems ‘lacking.’ And I say to you reach-out, on a whole new level. I loved to go to the synagogues. I loved to hear the word of God, whether it was coming through Me, tasting sweet on My lips, or flowing through another. God’s word upon Earth, blessing all, fulfilled My need. Yet there were times when I walked away from the synagogue to be moving over mountains, and next to seas, and in the countryside, through gardens, and vineyards, where all of God’s creation could be seen and heard, and felt, and tasted. For there were times, when I desired ‘the freedom,’ that God had created in the birds, and the bees, and the flowers, and the trees; for there were many synagogues, which had become hardened by the rules, and the hearts that should have been beating there – filled with love – were cold and broken.

“If any of you have had the experience, of going to a relative’s home for a celebratory meal, maybe Thanksgiving, or Easter, or Christmas, you will quickly remember the homes that were fun, and filled with light, and laughter, and joy. But some of you remember, perhaps, going into a relative’s home, where the most important thing was to ‘obey the rules:’ don’t put your elbows on the table; don’t swing your legs under the chair; be careful not to spill anything on the tablecloth. The rules came, one after another after another and soon the joy of coming together, and breaking bread, was greatly diminished by the rules that had been set in place. And rather than wearing smiles and laughter, there were tight, stern-faced people, sitting around the table.

“Do not let rules, and regulations, take the place of a loving heart, no matter where you are; and actually, that’s all you need to know. If you make it your intention: to love, the unlovable; to love, the unclean; to love the unfed; to love those who are shunned by most of society; you will find that in the doing of it, you have ‘received the love of God, flowing through you;’ for it is not possible to let God’s love flow through you to another, without being twice blessed, in the giving, and the holding, of the love of God.

“This is as simple, as it gets, ‘Forget everything, and love!’ It does not matter, if you use the fork in your right or left hand. It does not matter, if you prefer vegetables over meat. It does not matter, if you choose something hot, or cold to drink. What matters is today, ‘Will you sit at the table of God, welcoming all who sit around you, and greet them, with love?’

“You might be surprised who comes to the table. You might be surprised, how much you learn from those who come to the table. You might be surprised... to hear sacred words, coming from lips... that others say... are unclean. In fact, when you make it your intention to love... first... you might be surprised: you will walk over the Earth, hearing the song of a bird in a different way; you will recognize the bird is celebrating the gifts of the day; you might be surprised to notice the intense beauty of a flower, realizing the flower is the beauty of God, upon Earth; you might be surprised to feel the breeze, flowing through the trees, and knowing it is the breath of God; you might be surprised to find, at the end of the day, that your face has been washed by the tears, as you heard yourself say, ‘I love you,’ and mean it!

“Here, take My hand, and walk with Me, there is much to do, and much to see; you walk on Earth for just awhile, and return to Heaven, God’s precious child!”

March 10, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Welcome Wisdom, Come To Me, And Fill Me, With The Things Of God

“I AM with you. I bring you words of encouragement, support. I come to you – to lead you into living, with Wisdom – for The Spirit of Wisdom is with you; and it is you freewill to choose, or to reject, Her Presence.

“Wisdom – is The Breath of God – flowing over you, touching you, whispering to you, leading you to stand in a place apart from the noise and the chaos created in the world.

“Every place upon the Earth – has been blessed – with The Spirit of Wisdom; but most of the time, Wisdom is present, yet rejected by most, choosing instead to enter into the callings of the world, over The Peaceful Presence of Wisdom.

“Once you drink from the cup – offered by The Hand of Wisdom, you will desire no other drink, for it will fill you: with purpose, with resolve, with confidence. When you listen to that which is whispered, flowing to you from The Spirit of Wisdom, you can speak in any assembly, verily I say unto you, you can speak before the throne of God, and all that you say will be good, amazing those who hear, because it will be God, speaking, so they can hear, but they will hear, through you.

“Words of anger – do not hold Wisdom. Therefore, set the temptation to be angry aside, and reach for The Hand of Wisdom, for Wisdom will say to you, ‘Be still; for, these things will pass from you, but God resides within you. I Am The Breath of God, and I Am with you.’

“Wisdom – is not found in the wails and the sobs and the crying of lamentation and grief. Wisdom whispers, ‘Here, I Am here, take My Hand, and be still, and this too will pass from you, and you will be at peace, in the arms of God.’

“When you make wisdom your companion: you free yourself from shame, from doubt, from ever having to say you are sorry, from greed; you save yourself from anger and frustration, for these things are not found in Wisdom. They are created in the world to distract you from Wisdom; for when the whole world is running pell-mell in one direction, screaming, and crying-out in chaos, Wisdom says, ‘Come here, be still, go this way.’ And if you do, you are not trampled under the feet of a disruptive crowd; you are moved to a place of peace, riding The Breath of God, holding the hand of The Spirit of Wisdom.

“Wisdom – is not found in foolishness. The fool does not recognize Wisdom, because of eyes, turned toward the world, blinded by the illusion of wealth, or fame. Wisdom – keeps your eyes clear; you see with clarity, you hear with clarity, you speak with clarity, when Wisdom is with you.

“The most beautiful thing about Wisdom – is that it is available, ever present, yours for the accepting and the welcoming, no matter if you are a child or a woman or a man, no matter if you are two, or twenty-two, or ninety-two, Wisdom is available, for you; but you must have the courage to accept the invitation of The Spirit of Wisdom – to be still.

“You will not find Wisdom – in the middle of angry discourse. You will not find Wisdom – in greed. You will not find Wisdom – flowing from lips which speak of gossip, or say hurtful things about others.

“You will find Wisdom – in peace, and quiet.

“The Spirit of Wisdom – is waiting for you this day – flowing in the air all around you – all you have to do is say – ‘Come, Wisdom, dwell within me, and fill me with delight, so that I might ‘know,’ the ways of God, all through the day, and into the night.’ And Wisdom will come, and live with thee, and you will grow, and you will be free, and your days upon Earth will be days of glory, as you walk and tell the story, the story which holds the Words, conceived in God, flowing on The Breath of God, delivered, as a gift, to every child, woman, and man, who will open, and accept the gift, and take the hand, of Wisdom.”

March 3, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Rise-Up, And Answer The Call, And You Will Live In A State Of Miracles

“I AM with you. Come. Come, take My hand, a new day is dawning. Come, take My hand, you will be free. Come, take My hand, you are awakening. Come see the Earth, and walk with Me. Come take My hand, the world around you is receding, as you can see. The day is coming, when great things will happen, The Kingdom flows, eternally. And as we walk, we'll be as flying, o'er all the Earth, for all to see, the things of the world no longer hold you, your faith, and courage, have set you free.

“I say these words to you today, because they remind Me of a song, I remember singing, upon the Earth. Of course, it was in another language, so there might be missing some of the strings, and the seams, and the delicate connections, bringing the words into poetic, flowing verse.

“It is a song, calling the children of God, to have faith and courage, to rise-up, and to greet the new day, walking hand-in-hand with The Father, with The Creator, with The Source of All That Is; and, in so doing, seeing Earth, as the miraculous place, it is intended to be! It is a song worth singing!

“It also reminds Me of a time, when I was walking, out in the country, close to a lake, a sea, as we called them then; and, I looked over, and as you would always find in the morning light, fishermen, who had been out fishing most of the night, were sitting in their boats talking, laughing, if their catch had been full, quiet, if it had been a long night with no catch. It's a beautiful sight, watching the sunrise, reflecting light, from the body of water, adding a new dimension to the scene. And that particular day, as I walked, people were beginning to gather. I could hear them behind Me whispering, ‘He's the One,’ ‘He brought the miracle,’ ‘He healed this one,’ ‘He healed that one.’ They were murmuring amongst themselves. And as the crowd grew in number, following behind Me, so did the sound of their voices. I could hear each one, even if they whispered. I wanted to speak to them; and I did not know if I could speak in such a way that they could hear Me. I looked around for a place to stand, a place of elevation; but I could not find it. And then, I saw the boat. And that is when I made My way to Simon, most of you will know him as Peter, and I asked him for his help; for, if I could use his boat, to set Me out on the sea, just a bit, away from the land, the people could come, and sit around, or stand on the sandy beach, and listen. And the words would be carried on the water, in the air. And those that were standing there would hear the word of God. And he complied with My wish, said, ‘Surely.’ And so he, and a few men, steadied the boat, so I could get-in, and stand in the boat, after it was pulled-out, just a little bit from shore.

“It was a most amazing sight, the sun was rising, and I could see it reflected in the eyes of all the people looking at Me. It looked like flames of love, as every eye held the reflection of the rising sun. At this time I think I see it differently. It was prophetic, their eyes were reflecting the rising sun.

“And as the words ended, as I always ended when Our Father, said, ‘That is all Son,’ I seemed to develop a way that the crowd knew it was done. I would bow My head, not say another word, and raise My hand, which meant, it is time to go, and slowly they dispersed.

“And then I said to Simon, ‘Go out farther, and drop your nets again.’ He looked at Me, he was so tired... I could see it in his face... and if I remember correctly, what he said was, ‘Master, we have fished all night. There was little to catch, and we are weary, from dropping the nets, and pulling them back up.’ I said again, ‘Simon, go out farther, and drop your nets.’ And probably without knowing exactly why, he did as I asked. He dropped the nets, and they reached over, in a rather lackadaisical way, thinking they were only going to haul-up empty nets again, then fold them, coil the lines, and stow them in the boat, and it would be done; they could go home, and sleep. But that is not what happened, when they gave the net a little tug. At first, I think that they thought the net was stuck on something below the surface of the water. They pulled, and pulled, but the men in the boat could not retrieve the nets; the catch was so great, that they had to call-out to other people, ‘Come, and help us get these nets up!’ So then we dragged the nets, filled with fish onto the shore. And when the fishermen had done what was their responsibility to do, Simon came to Me, and with tears in his weary eyes, he said, ‘Master...!’ Of course he said other words, but he did not need to say the words. I realized then, without his speaking it, that he ‘knew.’ Thereafter, he was with Me, at My side, through-out most every day of the rest of my journey upon the Earth, some two thousand years ago.

“I go into great detail to recount this particular day, because I want you to begin to think of it differently, even if you have heard that Bible story over, and over, and over again. Oh, they wrote a children’s hymn about it, saying, ‘I will make you fishers of men. Come, follow Me.’ But I want it to say something else to you, today. When you have been working hard, when you have been trying to do your best, and things haven’t worked-out exactly the way you thought they should work-out, ‘Do not be discouraged. Sit quietly, and ask for guidance, and you will receive it. And then, without hesitation, but with bold confidence, do as you are led to do, because the results will be so surprising to you.’ It will be just as miraculous as the net filled with fish where once the sea had held none. If you have been working on a project, and you feel it is failing, and you hear the direction, ‘Go, drop your net,’ then do it, because that is a sign, that it is now, time. And the nets that you drop will be filled, and you will know true abundance, because you will be working as the hands of God. This is why Simon–Peter was so dumbfounded when He came to Me. He realized, he could fish all night long, on his own, using his knowledge of fishing, and still fail, or fall short of the goal; but hearing the word of God, and moving, in response to the call... will result in nets overflowing; you will have all... you need. You will even have extra, so that you might feed those around you. This is the message for this week...

“Come! Come, and take My hand, a New Day is dawning. Come, you will be free to walk over the Earth, unafraid, with no doubt, confident, that wherever you are being led is exactly where you should be. Let it be your intention this week to answer the call to rise-up. Take My hand, and walk with Me, for there is much for us to do, there is much, for you to see.”

February 24, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Sing-Out The Good News The Kingdom Of God Is Truly With You Now

“I AM with you. I AM with you as the sun rises to begin a new day. And as the sun breaks the horizon, in the distance, you might hear the song of a bird, announcing the good news: a new day is born, rise-up and celebrate, there is opportunity, and promise, held in this New Day dawning.

“Do not be ‘tempted,’ to turn your head, from the celebration of a new day; do not be tempted to hang your head, in: shame; or worry; unworthiness; hopelessness; for these things drag you down, and burden you, so heavily, that your shoulders become stooped, and your head drawn towards the soil, of Earth.

“These things that bring you down, these burdens, that are heavy, are your chains. The good news... is... that, as they are ‘your chains,’ you are the one who can free yourself from the chains! You have ‘imprisoned yourself,’ with worry. The key is faith, use it! Unlock the chain, and set yourself free! There is a chain of woe, and lamentation, grief. And there are keys, within you. They are understanding, and compassion, and faith. Yes, faith again. You have the keys, use them, and set yourself free!

“I could go on, continuing down the list of heavy, burdensome energies, providing a key for each, from the list of the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God, which balance every woe, every concern, every lamentation. There is nothing that occurs to you, or around you, that cannot be balanced by something, a piece, of The Kingdom of God that is with you. Therefore, I say unto you, ‘Take responsibility, for where you are choosing to stand.’ Stand in the light!

“Do not place yourself in a situation where you are ‘the victim;’ place yourself in the situation: where you are ‘the champion;’ where you see doubt, for what it is, yet reject it; where you see worry, for what it is, and reject it. For I say unto you, if you ‘know,’ who you really are, then the only thing you have time to do is to sing-out the good news, that... The Kingdom of God... is here, now... and there is no need for the children upon Earth to wait... for anything. Celebrate now!

“There was one particular day, during the time when I had already begun My mission upon Earth, many refer to as the portion of My mission that was ‘the healing time,’ and on this particular day, hundreds of people came. They found Me. I was in Judea. I had just finished working, walking with those who loved Me, and I was reclining at the house, the home, of one of the apostles. And a great stream of people began to flow into, and through, the house, each one saying, ‘We have been seeking You, and now we have found You. Please heal me.’ Every person... was healed... by the power of God flowing through Me... igniting with the faith... they carried within them, to make the journey, to make the statement of faith; and, they were healed! It was a long day, and I touched the last one, I departed, and went out into an isolated and deserted place, far-out, where there was quiet and peace. And as I set Myself aside, I could hear the direction, of Our Father, saying to Me, 'Son, it is time to move, to go to another town.' And just as I was hearing, with clarity, the direction that was coming to Me, many people... found Me again... and asked Me to stay with them. They believed. Each one of them had faith, and believed. And as they had believed, it was done unto them. And as we talked, I told them, I must leave you, I must depart. I must go to another town, for there, too, I must proclaim the good news of The Kingdom of God. And I said further unto them, this is why I came here, this is why I AM upon the Earth... to proclaim... The Good News... of The Kingdom of God. This was done in Judea. These words were said in Judea, but they were repeated many times, over and over again.

"You see, the people of that time, some two thousand years ago, were chained to the old ways, to the harsh ways, some of them dark ways. And God sent Me into the world to be the light, so that those who had faith would be joyful, happy, singing, because the good news... was then... is now... and forever will be... that God loves! God loves beyond what you can imagine, now. But once you are fully in The Kingdom of Heaven, you not only imagine the love, you live in the love; that love is you, and everything. And when you are filled with love... nothing is impossible!

"A small example of what love can do, for anyone... is to see, let us say, a woman... walking around, lonesome, wanting someone to be with. And a year later you see the same woman, looking beautiful, happy, filled with light, and she introduces you to her new husband. This gift of love, in even limited measure, fills one with such light, that the change is unmistakable; for, with love, all things are possible!

"But the primary message I wanted to deliver to each of you, today, has to do with going-out and talking about The Good News, of The Kingdom of God. It is with you right now. Heaven... is not a place... thousands and thousands of miles away... it is right here! Yes, there is a veil; but the veil can be pierced, and opened. 'You can live in The Kingdom of God while you walk upon the Earth; but you must know what you are doing, to do so.'

"Each of you could tell Me, or give Me, many reasons: why you cannot be joyful; why you feel everything around you is sad and sorrowful; how bad you feel, because no one seems to love you, or trust you, or understand you. But I say unto you... turn away from these things that are egocentric... and let God's love pour through you... to another. For, when you give a gift to another, you see the joy in their face, but you also seem to feel more joyful, in the giving of the gift. And it is the same, 'living, in love.' When you see someone who is a bit down... and you bring laughter to them, and see their eyes light-up, and the tears dry-up... you are happy, happier than they are, at that moment. That is the love of The Kingdom of God, flowing through you, onto the Earth! And these... are miraculous things... that happen... every day!

"The Kingdom of God is with you, and it is time for you to rise-up, and deliver this good news! When you encounter someone who is burdened, do not commiserate; commemorate The Kingdom of God with you. When you find one who is burdened with anger, do not support, or add fuel to the fire, speak... of the love of God; and the fire of anger... will flicker and die, and the flame which shows The Way, will rise-up; out of the flames... of that which once was anger... will come love!

“This is a new time... for any of you who know... that The Kingdom of God is with you... now! Refuse to be sad, and mournful! Sing in joy, for what you know; for if you know this, you know you never die, you just reach a point, where that which has been a burden to you falls from you! You live forever... and it is time to realize this... and share it with others... as it is the good news... of The Kingdom of God! And as it was My mission, it continues to be My mission; to touch any who will listen; to walk with any who will open to My presence, and I say...

“Come. Let us begin this week, with the intention to sing-out the good news, for The Kingdom of God is truly with you, now!”

February 17, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Set Your Goal To Be At Peace, And Set The Way To Peace To Begin With Forgiveness

“I AM with you. I come to you and remind you: that you are alive; that you have eternal life; that you are meant to be free!

“One cannot be free, while they are shackled, chained, tied into place, and tied into knots, with worry, concern, anxiety, fear, hatred, frustration, and anger. You cannot be free, and carry these burdens, for each one is a heavy chain, locking you in place, denying you the glory that is due you. For I say unto you, if the love of God is flowing to you, and you know enough to feel it moving into you, then, you should know, that nothing can keep you from feeling the peace of God, except the constraints, and the barriers, and the burdens, you have piled in the way.

“This is My promise to you, to each one of you, hearing these words, or reading these words; you can walk in total peace over the Earth, unaffected, and unassailed, by the chaos, and confusion of the world! And the way to do this is: to free yourself; to unlock the chains; to take the step; to actively participate, in forgiving, and forgiving, and forgiving. There is no end to it. You cannot forgive once, and be done with it. If one thought squeezes into a place big enough to attract your attention, even for a moment, that is a sign. Go there immediately, and take care of the issue.

“The time is now, as you are meant to walk upon the Earth in peace. Peace is appropriate at any time. You are a welcome participant, in celebration, when you arrive in peace, peace.

“You are a welcome participant when you arrive at a ceremony of remembrance, or commemoration, when you are walking with peace. Peace is the goal; to know peace, and to walk upon the Earth. And, it is yours. The only requirement is that you think enough of the goal, you desire peace sufficiently, to set ego aside, and forgive, no matter what it is, forgive it.

“For those of you, working in this area, freeing yourselves from the bondage of negative energies, you have found, that in the first forgiving, that it is easier in the second, and the third, and the fourth. And pretty soon, you wake up knowing, that this day, it will be important to forgive... all things. And since that is in your mind, as the temptations to remember past trespasses come to you, it is easy to set them aside.

“You are to be the living word of God, and the living word of God is ‘of peace, and light, and love.’ Be mindful, as you walk amongst your brothers and sisters. Remember the old saying, ‘Physician, heal thy self.’ For you cannot move, being the light and the living word, if you have areas of sickness within your being. For any of you who drive a motor vehicle, you will recognize that, if your car, if your vehicle is sluggish, and not working correctly, you take it to a place to get it checked-over, repaired. And when you drive it out of the repair shop, it is moving better. It is accelerating when you need acceleration. It is stopping without hesitation. It is moving you comfortably, down the avenues you are meant to traverse, with ease. And this is the same way you should move over the Earth, comfortable, at ease. Take care of your spiritual body, and then you will not have to be concerned about your physical body. Be at peace, and health and happiness abide therein. Peace.

“Do not concern yourself about what your brother, or sister, are doing. ‘Physician, heal thy self.’ Be at peace. Break the chains. Free yourself of the burden. Come to see, that when you carry a grudge, carry bad memories, carry anger, you are carrying a time bomb with you. You cannot be at peace, if you are walking apprehensively, never knowing when something is going to explode. Free yourself through the act of forgiveness. And in the forgiving, always remember to forgive yourself, first. And then set a course to forgive all others. And watch, as you do so, your level of peace, and joy, and happiness get higher, and higher, exceeding your expectation, soaring into the sky, shining, as a beacon, a light.

“This week, set your goal, to be at peace. Set The Way to peace to begin with forgiveness. And all through the day, mark the times that you need to say, ‘I forgive this. I forgive you. I forgive that. I forgive myself.’ because, every time you say it, you get lighter, your burdens fall from you, and you move with ease, confident, happy, joyfully... at peace.”

February 10, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Accept The Responsibility Of Your Heritage, Your Mission, & Leave The World A Better Place Because Of Your Presence, Within It

“I AM with you. Feel My presence, and be at peace! Let all anxiety and frustration, pass from you; for you... are living... ‘the present piece, of eternity.’

“This is true; and it is important for you to know it, deep within your being. Today... is the present piece of eternity... and you have the opportunity, ‘to create, this piece of eternity,’ which will live forever. Ponder this. Do not say, or think, ‘What would I do? Wonder what I would do?’ Know... that it is within you... to do it. And if you will sit, and ask, ‘What is it I am to do, right now?’ you will be filled with ‘The Knowing.’ For some of you, it might seem easy to accomplish, for others, a rather lofty goal, might come to you. If this is the case, do not brush it aside, labeling it a ‘day dream,’ thinking of something you ‘could do, if everything was right for the doing of it;’ for these things, that come to you... are yours to do... yours to master.

Sometimes it might be ‘noble thoughts;’ sometimes ‘the temptations,’ might come; but if they knock on your door, if they are with you, then they come to you for a reason. And the reason is... you have to ‘accept the responsibility... of what you are given to do, and do it with a happy heart; or see quickly it is a temptation, and cast it from you.’ No matter what your scenario is at this moment, it is yours. And the way you protect, all that is sacred around you, is to accept the responsibility of a mission, or accept the responsibility of casting temptation from you. Once you look at it, and see it, in its simplest form, you realize, it is rather much like a game. It is set before you. What are you going to do? Your outcome, the way your day, ends-up, depends on the choices you make throughout the day.

“For those of you who are willing to accept the responsibility, of being a child of God on a mission to Earth, I tell you this, this week is going to be unique, in a most magnificent way!

“Do not think that statement is for the one sitting next to you, or standing behind you. It is for you! The promise: ‘If you accept the responsibility, the week will be most uniquely magnificent.

“The Spirit of God is upon you! The Spirit of God is flowing into, and through, you. And because you are upon Earth, God has anointed you to step forward, move onto the Earth, and complete a mission, a mission that is yours. No matter how small, or how grand, the mission might be it is important. And it is a way to correct the wrong-doing, and the muddled ways of the world, creating a space, upon the Earth, dedicated to the glory of God. If each of you upon the Earth right now, decided that you would focus, on making the world a better place, then that is exactly what will happen! The world is not going to magically disappear, leaving Earth as it is intended to be. The ways of the world will melt away... through the work, the intention, and the acceptance of responsibility, of the children of God, upon the Earth.

“You have been anointed, by God! Now whatever comes to you... is your mission to do. Let it be done in a holy light, with sacred hands, and a tongue that holds only good words, for all those around you.

“Deliver the gift of joy! Be quick in your generosity! Give praise, in place of criticism! Refuse to judge, what another is doing, for you know not their mission! Let your presence, upon Earth, be known, by the light that shines from you, in all you do!

“If your intention for this week, is: to think, and say, and do, only good, then that is what will happen! But it will require... that you ‘restrain yourself, be vigilant of what you are thinking, saying, or doing, and be willing to master, your own energy.’ You will be surprised at the results!

“You are to be the balance of God! You can balance any energy! You can offset: hatred, with love; greed, with generosity; lust, with purity! For every ‘way, of the world,’ there is a balance, held within ‘the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God,’ and these, are your treasures; these, are your keys, these show The Way. So, for all of those of you who are willing to stand-up, and accept the responsibility of your heritage... rise-up... and say unto yourself... ‘The Spirit of God is upon me; the Spirit of God flows into, and through, me; God has blessed, and anointed, me; and I accept the responsibility, of my mission’!”

February 3, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Remember, You Choose The Energy You Use, So Choose Wisely, Use The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit

“I AM with you. I come to you: with great joy; without hesitation; without limitation or boundary. The only limitation or boundary... set between us... is that which you are creating, from within your being. Do not doubt that I have the ability to reach-out, and touch you. Do not doubt that you have the ability to reach-out, and speak to Me, and touch Me, as we are one.

“Do not set limitations. Do not imprison yourself, setting boundaries for this or that or the other. You are to be free, and to enjoy, fully, the gift of freedom. It is important for you to: be whole; know, who you are, what you are doing, where you are going; finding strength in your connection with God, first, before trying to show the way; for, without clarity and balance, within, you will stumble, and fall, and have to rise-up, and begin, walking, again.

“I speak to each of you today, about the importance of being whole, within yourself. The first step to freedom, to being able to run, to play, to enjoy the Earth, requires that you are connected with God, and know who you are. The God connection is first. You cannot stand in the face of anger or hatred or frustration or chaos or confusion, if you are not sure of, who you are within, your being. And the day you are whole, and know who you are, these things that come to you, that would tempt you into falling, no longer hold any power over you; you set them aside, and continue on your way: you are no longer a victim... to envy; you are no longer a victim to anger; you are no longer a victim... to sadness. Know, who you are, and know your value... is within you!

“Once you make this connection, and know who you are, you repeat it to yourself, ‘I am a child of God. I am here on a mission. It is my mission to do, and I am well equipped to do the mission; for God would not send me to do something for which I am not well equipped.’ If you can take that step, you are on your way.

“The next step is to realize, and to make sure, that you are whole. And to be whole, you must forgive, completely, all things of the past, and be prepared to forgive all things in the future, so that your present is a present of peace, and balance, and harmony.

“These things I have said to you before. These things we have discussed before. Many of you have called to Me... and we have talked... about the importance of choosing energies; for it is true: to be sad, you must choose sadness; to be lonely, you must choose to be lonely; to be frustrated, you must choose to be frustrated; to be angry, you must choose to be angry; to be in chaos, you must choose to be in chaos. You have other gifts, within you, to balance any situation giving you the opportunity: to choose clarity, over chaos; to choose kindness, over anger; to choose charity, over greed; to choose the joy of understanding, over sadness; to choose to connect with God, over being lonely. You have what you need to counter any temptation; but to be able to do this, you must admit to yourself, and accept, as the eternal truth, that these negative energies that plague you and hold you down, are within you... as a result... of the choices... you make. And the beauty of it all... is you can free yourself, of each of these energies, through the act of forgiveness, for yourself, and others. Cast the negative energies from you, and you will be free!

“This is good to hear, as you begin February, for most of you began January with noble thoughts, high and lofty goals, intentions of doing all that was necessary to ensure a perfect year. And through most of January it was the course. The Breath of The Holy Spirit filled your sails, and took you into uncharted seas, with confidence. But then as the month went on, the temptations began to gather, like storm clouds over the horizon, and your vehicle, your vessel, your body, your soul, and spirit, knew temptation. Renew yourself and prepare for this new month; for every encounter, every pathway, into negative energy, holds the promise of ‘a valuable lesson.’ Everything that comes to you holds promise, when you choose wisely.

“This entire month is going to be a month of glory, if you will walk into each day, whole. Begin each day... whole... filled with forgiveness for yourself, and others. Even before they knock on your door, let forgiveness be on your tongue, ready to pour-out upon those of Earth.

“These words will serve you well through February.

“Decide now. Set aside your bag of excuses. Make it ‘your intention,’ to reach into that valuable box of gifts, The Holy Spirit has packed full of grace, just for you; and use the gifts you carry to balance the negative energy that comes to you; because, hatred and anger cannot stand when it is inundated with the energy of love, and compassion, and kindness. In this scene, this scenario, hatred and anger melt away, and you have delivered God’s love to Earth. Chaos, and confusion, cannot stand, when inundated with the energy of clarity; they melt away, and you have delivered God’s grace, and the gift of clarity, to Earth. Greed cannot stand, when inundated with charity; greed will melt away, and you will have delivered charity to Earth. This litany could go on and on, but there is no need, as soon as you see, and realize, that for every temptation into darkness, and shadow, there is a balance energy, which you are to use, for your good, and the good of all! So you see, this is why... you hear, ‘...there is no excuse.’ You are to bring balance. You are to bring harmony. You are to bring joy. You are to deliver compassion, and understanding. It is a great responsibility. It is also a great honor, and it is an honor, which you are worthy of carrying.

“The month of February... will be a month of love... in all ways... if you begin each day: connected with God; determined, and setting your intention to choose wisely, from the gifts of The Holy Spirit, with every encounter made, during every day; when you set your goal to be balanced, so that you might deliver peace, and harmony, reign all around you.

“I AM with you. It is a new year. It is a new time. You hold all the keys to success. And the keys are in the box. And the box holds the gifts of The Holy Spirit of God, within you. Go forth in joy! This is your adventure! It is your time! It is your honor! It is your responsibility!

“I will be with you, every step of The Way. Call for Me, and I will come to you, and I will say, ‘Stand still! Let us open the box, so that you might choose wisely!’”

January 27, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

Be Kind, Do Not React To Another, Act In The Light Of God, And Be The Light In The Darkness

“I AM with you. I AM with you as surely today, in Spirit, as I was with those in physical form, some two thousand years ago. Actually, I AM closer to each one of you, right now, than I was with those of that time, because it is possible, for each one of you, to reach-out, and know Me, to know My Spirit; for, I AM in you, and you are in Me!

“My desire is to guide you, into the path that shows The Way; and so today, I suggest to each one of you, as there is a week set before you, let it be your intention to fill the week with thoughts, and words, and deeds of great kindness, in every situation. And it is possible to do. Each one of you has the ability to show kindness, no matter what the situation may be, so there is no excuse not to be kind, unless you just do not want to do it. Therefore, understand this, the only thing that will keep you from being kind, in every situation, is the desire to join-in, to get even, to dance in the energy another has created. The only thing necessary to complete the task, and be kind, is the desire to do so. Set your intention, and then, when the opportunity comes, seize the opportunity, with great joy!

“It is your time, the stage is yours, shine the light, be the grace of God, and let the truth, echo, through the corridors of all times: ‘It is possible to be kind... in the face... of anger, frustration, chaos, taunts!’

“Every situation presents the opportunity for you to be kind to another. All it takes is positive action, demonstrating your intention ‘not to react, but to act in the light of God.’ It is that simple. You set the intention to act in the light of God, and you reject reaction to the temptation.

“Now, I understand, listening to the instruction, and even being willing to take the direction, is easier than putting it into ‘practice;’ but once you begin to practice, you perfect ‘the act of kindness.’ And the world needs kindness.

“When The Creator of All Things, Our Father, saw the needs of the people, the children of Earth, God sent laws, commandments. And these laws were sent through Moses, a list of what to do, or better yet, mostly what not to do; but it was a list, none-the-less, a beginning, the foundation, so the people would come together; and, following these laws... would set them apart from others of the time... so people would look and see, ‘...there, there goes a man of God; there goes a woman of God.’ The laws were set in place: honor and respect God; honor and respect your parents, your earthly parents; do not kill, or steal, or lie; do not commit adultery; do not enter into greed; do not desire, or be envious, of that which is another’s. These laws were set down, so the people would have a firm, strong foundation, so that they could be the light.

“And then, God sent Me, saying, ‘It is time for you to go!’ And I accepted the honor, of bringing grace, and truth, that would be as salt and pepper, seasoning, to the law; for, once you know the law, the law begins to live when you know the law in grace, in truth; and combining the law... and the grace... and the truth... brings light!

“In grace, you find kindness. In grace, you find truth. The grace of God is pouring upon you, and through you; and the intention is for it to pass from you, onto the Earth, so the Earth knows grace. Truth comes from God to you, and it will pass through you; and the intention is for it to pass from you, onto the Earth, and through you, the Earth will know truth. ‘Kindness...’ kindness provides the environment, which welcomes grace and truth.

“I AM with you, and I intend: to be with you; to assist you this week; all of you who are willing to rise-up and say, ‘...this is the week, I dedicate to kindness,’ will feel My presence with you, in a most profound way, because you will have many opportunities, throughout every day, to reject the temptation to enter into an energy created by another, and embrace the opportunity to act within the light of God, delivering grace, delivering truth, delivering kindness. This is the next step. Knowing the law is one thing, ‘...do this, do that;’ ‘... don’t do this, don’t do that;’ but the law can be cold, and harsh, without grace, without truth, without kindness. These acts of kindness will set you apart, as much as the law set the people of Moses apart, from those of the world, because the world can be desolate, harsh, dark, and gloomy, until the light of kindness appears. And I can assure you, no amount of darkness can extinguish the light, emanating from your heart, when you set the intention ‘to be kind.’

“And there was darkness... abiding in the world, created by the children of God. The darkness expanded... inundating cities, and countrysides, and peoples, until over the hillside, there appeared the light. At first a flicker, then to the delight of the lost, the light burst forth, over the hillside, sending beams, and streams, of warmth, showing The Way, out of the darkness, into the light, of a new day.

“Go forth, and bring the light to the darkness, this day, and this week; and I can promise you, it will be a day, and a week, of your finest hours upon Earth. Go forth, and ‘be the light!’”

January 20, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:
Child Of God, Walk Over The Earth, In Revelation, And Glory

“I AM with you. I AM with you, most assuredly, and many of you hearing My words, or reading My words, are more closely connected to Me now, than usual, as you are still remembering the celebration that marks the end of each calendar year, as you know it, with My birthday.

“Most of you are reluctant to leave those days of sweet memory behind; yet, behind they are, for you cannot live there, you must rise-up, and grow. I did not stay at My birth place. I did not reside there, for those to come, and find Me, who were called to do so. I moved on, with the guidance of My earthly mother, and father, walking into My lifetime upon Earth, for there were things to do, places to go, people to touch, just as you are doing.

“Do not be tempted, into remaining in the sweetness of the memory of My birth, because you will find it difficult to model your lifetime after Mine... if your only association with Me... is of a child in the arms of its mother, father close beside, and family and relatives and friends, coming with gifts to celebrate. In reality, My birth was anything but that; there were a series of miracles that made it all possible; there were a number of angelic apparitions, which held it all together; and there were messages, and dreams, which kept it, as it was intended to be.

“If you sit, and ask for assistance in knowing, how it all came about, you will quickly see, that there was great difficulty to overcome. My life on Earth began with such, with an angel appearing to My earthly mother, saying words that seemed impossible, and surely they were impossible for many around her to believe. Visions, and dreams, and promises, one after another happening, and all of it, held in place on a delicate thread, that each one being touched, or visited, would say, ‘Yes,’ yes to the angels, yes to the dreams.

“There was danger in My life, the threat of death at the very beginning. There was movement from here to there. Do not be tempted to believe, as many on Earth now think of My birth and life on Earth, as idyllic, up until the very last act.

“If you have problems, challenges, issues, situations in your life, right now in the lifetime you are living upon Earth, know this, so did I! If you are ridiculed, so was I. If you are hungry at times, so was I. If you long for those around you to understand you, or to be compassionate for your position, so did I.

“These things need to be said, so that you understand, as you walk through your lifetime, that I made the same walk. Thousands of years might separate the type of city, or town, I was in, from the type of city or town you are in; yet, our walk is the same. If there are those of you who feel that you were uprooted during your childhood, and pulled here or there, and never settled, never feeling like you were home, anywhere; I say unto you, I began that way too. If there are some of you who feel that there are many people against you, who would do you harm, or who would want to do you harm, I say, lived that way on Earth too.

“If you say, ‘I’m from such humble beginnings, how can I achieve greatness?’ I say unto you, that was Me, too. I say these things to you, so that you will not use your roots, your beginnings, those around you, your family, so you will not use these things, or these people, or these situations, as an excuse, because almost any excuse you begin to create, I could have done so, as well.

“It is time to move forward! The birth is complete! The Child is delivered! Now, it is time to grow! And I say this to you, because it is the same for you, right now. Every Christmas you can mark, as My Presence, renewed, within you. Let Me be born anew, within you, and let it happen every year, so that you do not forget, or so that you begin again, a new life. And let us walk into this new lifetime together, experience what living in the world is all about, knowing from whence you came, and setting a path, which will lead you over the Earth, your journey, marking The Way, with the words you say, and deeds you do.

“It is a very rare gift to be born, and to live upon the Earth at the turning of the age. They are often marked with battles, wars raging, and much pain and suffering. But just as a woman labors to give birth, so too do those present upon Earth, labor, at the turning of the age. And out of the chaos, and confusion, a child’s cry, breaks through all other sounds, sounds of a new baby being born, a new time, and it is time, for growth!

“When My earthly parents carried Me into the Temple as a babe, to fulfill their obligations under The Law and Covenant, of The Hebrew People, there was an elderly man there, by the name of Simeon. Simeon knew, and followed, the rules and regulations, but he also watched for the signs of the new time, the new teachings. He was open to The Spirit of God, and The Holy Spirit spoke to Simeon, and promised that he would not die, until he saw The Messiah, of The Lord. And Simeon believed. Simeon did not entertain doubt. Simeon ‘knew,’ that what The Spirit of God spoke, deep within him, was the promise of truth, and he waited. And the day I was taken to the Temple, Simeon looked, and saw, anew. My mother says he took Me in his arms, and held Me close, a promise fulfilled. My father reports that there tears, rolling down the face of an old man, as he said, ‘God, I am now ready to go. Your promise is complete. I am holding The Messiah!’ My mother says, the words he spoke were profound, and as a whisper, ‘This Child,’ he said of Me, ‘... is to be the revelation to the Gentile, and the glory of Israel.’ profound statement, promising change.

“I ask each of you today... to please pay attention to what you are doing... to set your intention... to let your words and your deeds of love... be revelation to those who have no idea, what revelation is all about; deliver love to those who have no idea, how to love; reach-out and touch those who are labeled as ‘untouchable;’ for, in this way, you will reveal The Power of God to those who do not know God, for God will come to them, through the revelation of you! And in so doing, you will bring glory to your house; for I hold each of you close to My heart, My chest. I wrap My arms around you, and say unto each of you, in a hushed breath, ‘You are the fulfillment of a promise, a messenger come to Earth! You are to be the revelation! You are to be the glory!’

“I send you on your Way walking the path each day telling your story the story of a Child of God walking over the Earth in revelation and glory!”

January 13, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

God's Gift To A Traveler On Earth, Your Internal Compass, The Hand Of God

"I AM with you. Be still. I sit with you. I walk with you. I yearn to play and laugh with you. I kneel with you, when you feel lost and alone, and I take you by the arm, and lift-you-up, and lead you Home.

"Your body, your physical body, is animated of your Spirit; and you move over the Earth. You can feel your heart beating within your body, and you know you are physically alive. And when you feel the presence of your soul and spirit, you know you are spiritually alive. The words you say, and the things you do, and the places you go, are the animation of your Spirit, an outward sign of the inner you.

"Sometimes, you require guidance... and your thoughts might reflect on a traveler... journeying over unknown territory, traversing uncharted seas, and you recall a compass something to show you the way. In times when you feel lost and alone, it would not be unusual for you to pray for guidance, for a compass. And I say today, to each of you hearing My words or reading My words, you possess an Internal Compass, which is the hand of God. But to rely on your Internal Compass requires that it is in good shape. Have you lost it? Have you misplaced it? Have you put it away? Is it broken, in disrepair? Have you traveled down darkened alleyways so many times that you cannot see? To rely on your Internal Compass requires for it to be in use not lost, not hidden. To rely on your Internal Compass requires that you maintain connection with Home Base, with God. You must clear away the cobwebs of fear and doubt, and worry and anxiety, because they clog-up the workings of your Internal Compass. Think on it, and you will understand clearly what I AM saying, for a broken compass is of no use to the traveler, to the one who journeys over unknown territory; and, if you lose it, it is of no use, as well.

"Do not lose your connection with God. Do not break your Internal Compass, by stuffing it with fear and doubt, with greed and envy, with hatred and anger, for it will be of little use. Let your intention for this year be that your Internal Compass will be your treasure: you will care for it; you will hold it dear; so it is not lost, or taken from you. And with this intention set firmly within you, you will be guided through this year, and you will take each step with confidence. You will be ready to do that which you are meant to do. You will not fall into complacency, moving in circles in one place. You will set your foot upon the course, and head-out, into territories that are new, and exciting. You will sail over uncharted seas, with the breath of The Holy Spirit, filling your sails. And when you seek direction, your Internal Compass can be relied upon, and it will tell you where to go, and you will be at peace in the going there, and the doing of the task. And this connection God, and use of your Internal Compass, will give you confidence, so that your main objective is to do that which God sent you to do. You will no longer seek to please others, because that often leads you right into conformity, into the circle of staying in one place.

“You have a mission. You have a compass. You have the opportunity. It is all before you. Do not let it go from you. And as you feel the stirring within you, and the desire to rise-up, and go forward this day, I say to you one more thing. Even when your compass is clean, and the hand of God is moving you, the ‘temptations,’ will come to you. And I ask you to pay attention. Do not pick-up the temptation, and use it to clog your compass.

“You might be set, and ready to go, to fulfill your mission, and someone will come up to you, and plant the seed of doubt. ‘Are you sure you know what you are doing?’ Be prepared to say, ‘Yes,’ in confidence. ‘I am sailing into uncharted seas, but I am confident in where I am going.’ And in this state, as you move along, pushing that one temptation aside, another might come up, and say, ‘What are you going to do, if you lose everything, as you search for this one thing?’ And therein the seed of fear is planted, unless you reject it, having confidence that you ‘know,’ where you are going, because you are being moved by the hand of God.

“Your history books are filled with the names of individuals... and individual stories... of courage, bravery, those willing to do what no one else would do, those willing to consider, what no one else would accept, and those willing to go, where no one else had gone before. This is exploration. This is discovery. This is creation continuing, opening-up the new frontiers. As it happens in the physical world, it happens in the spiritual realm, as well. Be daring, and bold.

“Go to the Scriptures, and read. You will be surprised, if you read with new eyes and an open heart, what you will learn, and the lessons I brought, because you will find that I was speaking words that no one had heard before. It required confidence, to say, ‘Turn the other cheek.’ when the rule, and the lesson, was, ‘an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’ When I said, ‘If someone asks you for something, give it to them, and give them more.’ I was speaking in terms that were not understood, and certainly not accepted easily, because people worked hard for what they had, and they held it dear, and they gave to those they loved, but they would not consider giving to a stranger, and they would not consider giving to one they did not like, or could not love.

“These were new frontiers. I was directing a course onto uncharted seas. I was saying to everyone, ‘You have the ability to be a miracle worker. You are not wandering the Earth accidentally. Yours is The Kingdom of Heaven, and it is near to you. It is with you.’ Read the words of the Scripture, and hear them, and think about their newness, because they were delivering a message that was rejected by most, and which was diametrically opposed to what they had been taught, for hundreds and hundreds of years. But I delivered the words that God sent Me to deliver. I did what God sent Me to do. And I went wherever My Internal Compass directed Me to go. And this is ‘exactly,’ what you are to do. But you cannot do it, if you have lost your Internal Compass, if it is broken, or in disrepair.

“So I encourage you to spend the days of January: working on your connection, so that your compass is clear; cleaning-it-up, so it is not in disrepair; getting ready for the adventure of a new year; and, being able to do so in confidence, because the direction will be clear.

“I AM with you as you go into this new week, as you experience this new month, of a new year. And before you go any further, I encourage you to take care of that which is of great value, and which will lead you, bring you confidence, so you can: say boldly, what God wants you to say; go with confidence, where God wants you to go; and, do courageously, what God wants you to do.

“You possess the gift of a traveler of Earth, one who journeys into unknown territory, and it is the gift of your Internal Compass, which is moved by the hand of God. Go forth, in joy, and glory, and you will be the story, of creation continuing, in the light and the glory of God.”

January 6, 2013

Jesus Teaches On:

The Last Present For This Christmas Season, The Promise Of The Signs

“I AM with you. Be still. Lend Me your ear, and you will hear Me. Be still, and quiet, and open your heart, and you will feel My presence, with you, for My presence with you is ‘of faith, and trust.’

“As you feel My presence, and your heart is open, I begin to live, I AM truly with you, and I AM born again, just as surely as I was born thousands of years ago into flesh.

“This is the miracle that can be repeated over and over and over again. Living, with Me, is a great adventure. I was sent to be the example. I was sent to Earth with a mission, and it might surprise each one of you, whether you are hearing these words, or reading these words, to know that, you too, are sent to Earth, with a mission. You too have the opportunity to be the example of how Our Father wants us to live... live in such a way... that The Kingdom of God... moves onto the Earth... as it is meant to be.

“As we go into this new year set before us, it is time to remember some things, and if you remember these things, and let them grow within you, this year you will grow ‘in spirit,’ and ‘in wisdom,’ and ‘in love,’ and by doing so, you will discover the joy, and the happiness, of experiencing Earth... as it is intended to be... ‘as it is in Heaven.’

“By most calendars, in many countries of the world, this day brings, the end, to what is termed The Christmas Season, it is meant to be a celebration time, remembering that I: was born, and lived in the flesh; walked amongst you; delivered The Message, before returning Home. And for those of you preparing to begin this new year, setting in your thoughts that this year will be good, it will be different, it will be filled with joy, and lightness of being, I bring you a key... I bring you... a truth... that will assist you in moving through your life, and through this year, with confidence.

“I would like to revisit some of the important events, leading-up to My birth, and to those who came to celebrate My birth, and how they managed to do it. For you see, it was meant that all would celebrate My birth, and in some recognition, in some way, it would be ‘a sign,’ that: those holding lowly positions, like the shepherds, would be moved by the great sign of angels, and they came, and they saw, and they knew; those who had wealth, men of learning, they were led by a great sign, and as they watched for the sign, they saw it, and they were moved, and they came, and they knew. All of these things happened, in such a way: that the hand of God was moving; no matter what freewill choice was made; guaranteeing that My life would continue; My mission would be complete; and The Word would be delivered.

“It would not have happened at all without My earthly mother seeing the apparition, knowing the light, accepting the message, and going about her way to accomplish that which she had been asked to do, even in the face of public ridicule.

“Joseph received the sign, in a dream. This was important. If he had not accepted the sign, and listened to that which the angel told him in the dream, it would have been totally different; but he accepted.

“The wise men, watching for a star that they knew would appear at a certain time, were moved to journey, to come and to know, and in the process, they followed the sign. But they were also moved by dreams. If they had not followed the dream at the very end of their visit, telling them not to return and tell the king all that they knew, but to go home a different route, things would have been different. You see the hand of God was moving, and as freewill choices were being made, the messengers were coming, speaking, leading, showing The Way.

“The shepherds followed. After they recovered from the first shock of seeing angelic beings descending over the hillside, they rejoiced, left their flocks in the field, and they came and they saw and they knew.

“The signs did not stop there. Joseph, My earthly father, had no way of knowing what Herod was planning, yet in the dream the angel came and said, ‘Rise-up now, and go!’ And because he saw ‘the sign in the dream,’ he rose-up, and took Me to a place of safety. And the signs did not stop there; for as the king died, the dream angel came again, ‘Take The Child, and return.’ And having great faith in the signs and the dreams, My earthly father did so.

“I could repeat My lifetime upon Earth, and each significant event would also hold the story of signs, and messages, leading The Way, assisting Me to move through the maze of freewill choices. Today I want to give each of you ‘a gift of confidence.’ As it was done unto Me, it shall be done unto you! Know, in faith, that no matter what others choose to do around you, the signs will come to you... and you will be led... to the place you are to be. This promise... of your Internal Compass, the hand of God moving you... is not a promise that each step you take will be a place of great comfort, and abundance of earthly wealth, or worldly wealth, I should say. It is a promise that you will be led to where you are meant to be, to where you are to grow, to where it is you will learn that which you are to know. And this promise is not made lightly, for I do not deal in trickery and deceit. I deal and live in promise... promise! Therefore, if you accept that which I AM saying about the signs, and the hand of God being your Internal Compass, you will move over the Earth, living the days of your life, in confidence and joy, and peace, ‘knowing,’ it will come to you. Be vigilant and watch. Ask for the signs, and wait, knowing within your being that as you are the child of God, God will not let you go unattended on your journey.

“That is My last Christmas gift to each of you, The Promise Of The Signs, which will surely come. And each of the signs will come to each of you in individual ways, ways that you will see, and know. They might be dreams. They might be apparitions. They might be visions. They might be strangers, walking-up, and saying something to you that ‘rings,’ and you know to pay attention, to certain things held in the greeting they bring. It requires faith, but your faith will be rewarded; it will be rewarded, with growing confidence; and within the growing confidence, you will begin to know peace; and peace will then become your partner, your friend, your travel-mate.

“This day, I exhort each of you, go-out into the world; it is all waiting before you; this is ‘the opportunity,’ you have longed for. Make it count. Sing your song. Let every step, be a dance of joy. Walk confidently, into this new day, into this new year, for ‘the signs,’ will come. Be vigilant, and you will see them!”