

THE QUIET PLACE

Jesus' Sunday Sermons 2015

The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

December 27, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Listen To The Whisper, To The Voice (Of God,) Within

“I AM with you! Feel My presence around you, for it is important for you to feel the air, the energy, around you change, when I speak to you, from within; and I speak to you today, to show you how you can begin to walk the path, to find The Way, so you make the journey, upon Earth, with little dismay, content, happy, and joyful!

“Many of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, are familiar with the words that others might speak to you, indicating that, to be happy, you must follow your heart. You hear it often; but then, the words change somehow, and turn out to mean that you are to follow what is on their heart for you, to make them happy about what you do. This is not what your Eternal Parent, God, expects, or demands, or commands, of you in order to have His love. It is important to remember that the love of God is with you, period. No explanation need to take you any further down the road. God's love is there, in the fullest, and most amazing, amount! It is all there. The only thing that can hinder the full experience of God's love comes from within you: the walls you have erected, and the debris you have stacked in the corridors of your sacred self. Therefore, to feel the love of God, in a total experience, you must tear down the walls, and move the debris, and then you will feel, and then you will see!

“Once this is done, how do you proceed? You are fully connected with God, and you feel the love, in every way; but how do you walk into each and every day, how do you find your way? I give you the answer. You must stay connected with God, and listen with your heart, and your soul, and your spirit. ‘Which way am I to go today?’ is the prayer of your morning. ‘Thank You for showing me The Way, and all the gifts along The Way,’ is your prayer of the night.

“Once you have committed to follow your heart, the words written upon your heart come to life, begin to speak, as they are living, and then comes the whisper, heard only by you, the Voice of God, telling you, leading you, into what you are to do. And the whisper says, ‘Turn right,’ and you go, heeding not the words of the world, which say, ‘Go to the left.’ The path to the right might be narrow, might be tight, because it is not traveled so much. The world calls, and beckons, and many go; but, having fully known God, you are willing, and ‘know,’ The Whisper within you is The Way to go, and so you begin. The journey is amazing, the signs are obvious, and when you look-up, into the night, your star is leading you. The Voice says, ‘Stop,’ The Voice says, ‘Turn this way,’ or ‘Turn that way,’ The Voice might even say, ‘Now, circle around, and go back,’ but, The Voice is leading you, as if you are in a marvelous board game, to find all of the treasure that is meant to be yours, and then, proceed on the road, heading Home. The tasks, and the chores, of the day, that you live in this way, do not seem so much work, as they do play; because, you recognize that this is the adventure of your lifetime.

“To have this experience, and to know it fully, you must: be willing resist the temptation to dabble in another's adventure; be willing to hold your tongue, when tempted to tell another that they must go this way, or that way; be willing to be content, hearing The Whisper within, and going your way. When you do this, you will look around, and to your surprise, you will see, with your own eyes, that there are others walking with thee. They are walking with you, because they are directed, just as you, your ways are similar, The Voice familiar to each of you. So, you find yourself with those who are like you, seeking The Way, walking The Way. You do not have to demand, or command, manipulate, or coerce. These are friends, who know The Way, and walk with you, every day, because The Whisper speaks to them, and doth say, 'Here! This is The Way, walk in it!'

“These words seem so appropriate as you say goodbye to the year that is almost complete, shake-off the dust, and prepare your feet to set the new course, into the New Year. Before you start, be still, what do you hear? Is it The Whisper? Is it The Whisper of God, you hear?”

December 20, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

The World Is Waiting For You To Give Birth To That Which You Are To Do

“I AM with you! I greet you with an embrace, I hold you close, and touch your face, so that you might feel My presence with you, and know, you are not alone!

“It is easy to feel alone, while you are walking upon the Earth, making your way through the world created by man. There are so many people around you; yet, very few will reach-out, and take your hand, in a gesture of friendship, support, encouragement, and love. Therefore, there is ‘the illusion,’ that you are alone, even though you are surrounded by those you cannot see with the human eye, yet you can feel with your heart, and your spirit knows them well. You are surrounded by your guardian angels. You are surrounded by those who have taken the pledge to watch over you, as you walk the edge of Earth, as you make your way through the sea of darkness; for, this is your adventure, you are on the journey, which is your lifetime, upon Earth. And when you are done, it will read like a book, from beginning to end, all the steps that you took, strung together so that they make sense, once it is done. But midstream, or in chapter four, it is not complete, there is the possibility that it might seem strange, impossible, disconnected; but, if you will continue on your journey, at the end it will be complete, the book will be done, and the author will head Home.

“Most of you hearing these words, or reading, these words today are preparing to celebrate the season, or the day, of Christmas. This is a day set apart in memory of My birth, a celebration for many, a time of great joy for many, and that is as it should be. Yet, I do want you to understand, and remember, as you go into the final days of this celebratory season, that before My birth... there was a stillness... a silence... surrounding My parents, Mary and Joseph. Before you give birth, there comes a time, when even the baby in the womb grows still. It knows, it is preparing to make the final push through the veil, down the corridor, onto the Earth. The baby is still; the mother and father wait, for the time draws near; and, nothing is more important! You can always tell when the time has arrived, everything in the body is set, and ready to go, and through the process, there comes birth, there comes life!

“While most of you are not preparing to give birth to a child, every single one of you can be preparing to give birth to that which you hold within you, to that which has been jammed, clogged-up, held in place, suspended in space, unable to arrive. Sometimes because of doubt, or fear, definitely because of worry, and concern, you hold within you, that, which you are to deliver; unwilling, perhaps unprepared. But I AM telling you, you will be ready to celebrate the New Year, in a new way, if you will be still, and make the decision, that you are going to give birth to that which you carry, within you!

“There is something that each one of you can deliver to Earth, can deliver to the world, and although it might appear to be very similar to what others are delivering, it is uniquely your own.

“Babies are born every day, and most babies resemble each other. They look like babies, but every single baby carries a thumb print, or a foot print, that is uniquely their own. They are delivered onto the Earth, to walk into the world, looking similar to all other children, or adolescents, or adults, as they make their way; yet, there is something about them that marks them clearly as unique. This is the same with what you are to deliver onto the Earth, to send into the world. Your gift might be similar, but it bears the thumb print of God. It was planted within you to do; therefore, do not hesitate to give birth.

“Be still. Feel your gifts, growing, within you. Feel the seeds sprouting, ready to develop. Give birth to that which you are to do! The world is waiting, for you!

December 13, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

The Journey Of A Lifetime, Begins, With The First Step, In Faith

“I AM with you! If you can open to this possibility, that Heaven can be so close to you, then the possibility turns into reality; and you feel My presence with you! This is a miracle! When you feel My presence with you, you cannot resist, and you reach-out, and you speak to Me; and I speak to you; between the dimensions there is communion, we have an exchange, an understanding, we are One! It is then that you realize, all things are possible, when you believe! In fact, your belief makes all things possible. It is true, your faith will move a mountain, will part a sea, will bring peace, where hatred used to be!

“What happens when one individual says, ‘Yes?’ Do not be “tempted,” to think that one individual’s announcement, commitment, faith, is isolated, and concentrated within, and around, that one; for every time one says, ‘Yes,’ all are included in the blessing!

“Today, I want to bring you a bit of encouragement by reminding you of reality. I want you to take just a few minutes to realize how many individuals, and their individual commitments, had to come together, with regard to My birth upon the Earth.

“My earthly mother was not much more than a girl, when she had a vision, and the angel spoke to her, and she answered, ‘Yes.’ The story seems simple, because it has been told so often that most people totally disregard what this ‘yes,’ meant for this young woman. She was saying that she would accept whatever would happen to her, knowing: ridicule, distain, mistrust, disrespect, and a myriad of other things, would befall her. There was a chance, that she would be ‘an outcast,’ from her community, her family, and her betrothed. There would be humiliation, probably punishment to endure. Yet, what compelled this young woman to say, ‘yes?’ Held in the light of the angelic presence, her faith, became a fire, and her commitment, to do the will of God, became the desire, of her being!

“Having committed in such a way, it is reported that Mary went to see her cousin, Elizabeth. She took herself out of the normal day-to-day activities. She retreated to the home of her cousin. Therein, she felt the faith of Elizabeth, and this faith filled her with courage, support, and the ability to go back out into the world, no matter what was to come to her; and so, she did.

“After you sit and ponder this for a while, you begin to understand the courage of Mary, the strength of Mary, the faith of Mary; but, it can be a bit more of a challenge to understand the faith of My earthly father, Joseph. What courage, what strength it must have taken, to accept this woman, who was clearly with child, not his. He found his courage in the light of the angelic being, and the visions in his dreams. In his dreams, he was led to the truth: ‘Do not be afraid, embrace this woman, and take her into your home,’ and Joseph said, ‘Yes.’ You can be assured that it did cross his mind that there would be jokes, he would be the object of humiliating jokes. People would think him a fool. He might even lose his stature in the community, and faced with all this, because of his faith, he embraced his dream vision, and moved forward with Mary.

“Some of you hearing these words, or reading these words, will be familiar with the Three Wise Men, making a great journey, following a star, to take part in this great event. They too had to say, ‘Yes.’ They too gave of themselves, including a financial investment in their trip, knowing, clearly knowing, that this star was leading them on a journey which would change their lives. They had to say, ‘Yes,’ before they took the first step. At some point in their journey, once they had reached their destination, and were going to return home, they too had a dream vision, they were warned in the dream not to go back to Harod, but to find another route home. Their faith in that dream saved The Child, and they returned home.

“The shepherds in the field... that sounds rather simple... you can even close your eyes, and see them, on a hillside with their sheep, angelic beings, encircling them, singing, playing instruments, announcing the birth of The Messiah, The Child has come! But, stop, and think a minute. What does a shepherd do? The shepherd is given the responsibility of tending the sheep, to keep them safe; but, the announcement was clear, about where this Child could be found. They too said, ‘Yes,’ and did the most amazing thing, they walked away from the sheep, and went to find The Shepherd.

“These situations, surrounding My birth upon the Earth, are not unknown to you; but, in most regard, I believe you have not put much thought into the faith, courage, and strength it took to make these commitments, to say, ‘Yes,’ to believe in a dream, so strongly, that you turn your head from the ways of the world, and follow the dream.

“My life was saved, over and over again, because of dreams, and visions, and the people around Me, having the faith to say, ‘Yes.’ Even after My birth, My earthly father, Joseph, had to believe in a dream, and the warning it carried, so strongly, that he took us, My mother, and Me, and fled into Egypt, staying there until another dream came, instructing him to take us out of Egypt, to return home.

“I AM repeating these stories, these chapters, that began My life upon the Earth, so that you might be willing to say, ‘Yes,’ to follow the dream, to follow Me Home!”

December 6, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

I Encourage You To Rise-Up, And Follow Through

“I AM with you! I AM with you: to fill you with courage; to support you in your journey; to feed you with The Words; to quench your thirst, with love; to lift-you-up, when you are weary; to wipe your brow, when the going has been difficult; and, to hold you close, when it is done!

“How many times have you read about, or heard about, someone who had achieved magnificent things? How many times have you watched magnificent things unfold, before your eyes, seeing miracles take place, through another's efforts and endeavors? These stories, these pictures, these incidents, which you witnessed, were uplifting, because you were watching as another took the reins of their destiny, and followed through!

“Most of you hearing these words, or reading these words, will either very quickly announce the name of ‘a hero,’ or a ‘shero,’ because they become close to you, as you read about them, or watch them. Sometimes, they seem closer to you than family, or friends, because of the admiration you hold in your heart, for what they are doing, for that which they are accomplishing. But today, I want to encourage you to scratch the surface, look deeper, and see all that happened in that particular lifetime, before they found themselves, standing in the place, or at the finish line, or having reached the goal. I can assure you, with each of the heroes or heroines, you will find that during the course of their journey, they were faced with great challenges, it was not easy, it did not happen overnight. So, I want to encourage you today, to take another step, and then another, and another, even though it seems as if there are those trying to hold you back, or maneuver you in such a way that you are steered slightly off-base. I want you to hold the faith.

“If you are the type of person who looks honestly at the lives of others, seeking to find exceptional character, and great accomplishment, then you are looking, and trying to find support in the realization, that ‘if another can do it, surely you can as well.’ And, this is true! I promise you, I was not speaking of a fable, or telling a story, created to entertain, when I did say, ‘You can do everything I AM doing.’

“You are destined to complete your journey, and accomplish a specific mission; and, sometimes it seems from the very start the temptations are all about you to hinder your progress. I want to encourage you, by saying this to you. Just because it is yours to do, and you have said, ‘I will do it,’ and things seem to be in place, or pointing in that direction, it does not mean it is going to be without challenge; but, I can assure you, even on the longest day, when you are most weary, or possibly wounded, you will ‘know,’ there is a goal, you will know, there is reason, and you find strength in that reasoning, that Divine Plan, that is leading you, onward! You will also find strength in knowing, if God is with you, and it is the whisper of God you are hearing, and heeding; then, it will be accomplished!

“The farmer does not come in from the field just plowed, clean, wearing a pristine shirt, and shoes that hold a shine. No. The farmer, who has just planted tomorrow’s food, comes in dusty and dirty, hands that are crusted, and shoes remarkably soiled, tattered, and worn. The mother does not rise-up after birth, without showing the wear of the process, sweating, and bloody; yet, she is smiling, because there was purpose, there was a reason. The farmer knows the reason for the toil, the mother knows the reason for the labor, and the list could go on, and on. If you know the reason, you can push through the challenge. In fact, at the end, you look back, and the challenge is part of the celebration.

“This is the month of the year during which most of you celebrate My birthday, so I leave you with this thought. My earthly mother, Mary, had a mission. It was her mission to give birth to Me; but very few things around that particular journey were easy. From the start to the finish, there was great challenge; but she made it through, because it was hers to do. She might be one of your heroines. Take a look at her life.

“The man, who led Me as a father upon Earth, had a mission, and his mission, as well, was not easy. Sometimes he had to bear public ridicule, as I heard, it was often; but, it was his journey, and he followed through, because he heard the whisper of God, and ‘knew,’ it was his to do.

“Many speak of the journey of the Magi, the Three Wise Men, following the star. They might be one, or two, or three of your heroes, but they had to make a journey, which required much. To see, and know what they did find, they had to exert physical energy, they had to use their own finances, they had to use what was theirs, saying, ‘We will use this, but we are led to follow that star. There is something happening in the heavens, announcing a miracle happening on Earth.’ They did not make that journey in comfort, but there was reason, there was purpose, so they followed through.

“The list could go on and on, but I tell you, each of you, you have a mission to do. I encourage you to follow through; but I discourage you from thinking, that because you know your mission, and are on the path, it will be easy. Knowing how to climb a mountain is different from the actual climb. Knowing how to build a house is different from the actual building of it. Knowing how to plant a garden is different from the planting of it, and the tending of it. And, knowing how to give birth is different from the actual labor, from the delivery, from the birth itself.

“You have all you need, within you, to do that which you need to do, which is yours to do. Associate yourself with those around you who will encourage you to heed the whispers of God, of the angels, and go where you are led to go. Turn your head from the naysayers, from those who discourage you, because if you listen to those attempting to hold you in place, you will never know the celebration of the follow through. I encourage you to rise-up, and follow through!”

November 29, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
You Carry The Seeds Of Heaven, To Plant, Upon Earth

“I AM with you! Yes, I AM near to you. In the stillness you feel Me, for that is how it is intended to be. When you set your sacred self aside, in a place to be quiet, you feel Me, you know Me, we are One!

“The human eye is not trained to see the unseen; but, your spiritual eye does see the unseen! Your methodical mind is taught to believe only that which you see, and can be proved to be real, to be solid; but, the spirit that is you, “knows,” it knows beyond that which appears to be solid, it recognizes that the material is not solid, as it appears; it is vibration, and it can all fall apart in a second; but the unseen is eternal, and cannot be toppled; it is not constructed... it is!

“Creation did not happen, and stop. Creation continues, and it continues right now, through you! Creation is eternal! It will always be! You are a co-creator, with God, just like Me! You have the freewill, and the ability, to go off, and build, and make, gather together, and amass, all of the objects of the world created by man, which you desire. That is your option. That is your choice; and you will not be marked by the hand of God, in any way, for making this choice. It will be regarded, as a choice. However, you also have the option to create, just as God, The Creator of All Things, creates! It does not require you to go anywhere, to buy anything, to carry any objects, or materials, home with you. It requires you to be still, and quiet, and then, be willing to create, with your thoughts!

“Your thoughts can be used to create great beauty! Within your being, there is majesty! Within your being, there are the seeds of eternity! You brought these precious treasures, from The Dimension of Perfection, onto the Earth, to plant, to tend, to nurture, and let grow! You carry something of great value! Do not toss your seeds out of the window, with little thought. Carry them to the place where you are led, and, with great ceremony, plant them, gently, as you are guided!

“Some of the seeds you will plant directly into another being, ‘by speaking words of kindness.’ They will go directly into another, and they will settle with peace. And that seed will walk away from you to grow, to blossom, and to bloom. You might never see the result, of the seed planted in another; but, you will know it, and you will feel it, because we are One!

“You might choose to plant a seed as you are guided to write, carefully putting to paper, each letter, forming words you are guided to write, planting seeds upon the paper. And, when it is done, when it is complete, you will take that which you did write, and set it before others. And they will take those seeds of words into their being, and the garden will begin to grow, and walk away from you; but, somehow you will know, when the garden is grown, because we are One!

“As you can well imagine, I could continue along this line, speaking of how you can plant the precious seeds you carry; but, I believe you understand the message. You have conceived these precious seeds, and you are to give birth, while you are upon Earth, to that which you carry!

“Treat the treasure, with great care, as it is a treasure beyond value! Know, what you are doing. Have purpose, and intention. And, when your seeds are sown, and it is done, throw your head back, and laugh into The Wind, and celebrate with God!

“All of this sounds very serious, I know. It sounds serious, because it is so. Your days upon the Earth are numbered, and when they have reached the end, you cannot turn around, and quickly plant the seeds that you still carry; for, it will not be the same. Think about what you are doing, today! Prepare to plant the treasured seeds today; and then you will walk the last days of your life upon Earth in great joy! You will smile, because you will know, that it is completed, it is done! And you will be ready to return Home to announce all that was accomplished, during your journey upon Earth!

“You have conceived! It is time to give birth! Plant the seeds wisely, and let them grow!”

November 22, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Hearing The Voice Of God, Better, Hearing With Clarity

“I AM with you! I AM with you to celebrate your life upon Earth, and to show you how it can be even better than you ever imagined a great life would be. But to enjoy this great life, to experience life, as it is meant to be, you must be willing to accept the truth, and act upon it; it requires you to act.

“Very earnest prayers do rise into the Heavens, the children upon Earth calling-out, ‘How can we hear You better? How can we know where to go, and what to do? Sometimes we feel lost in darkness and shadow. We do not hear You, as we wish to do.’ This is a most common prayer; yet, God’s whisper can be heard anywhere, and everywhere! So, where is the disconnect? I will tell you, today! I will give you a Way to practice all this week; so that come the end of the week, if you have held the course, you will hear better, you will hear with clarity; it will be pure, and it will sing, and you will know!

“First, you must find space and time in which to be quiet; you must remove yourself from the noise of the world; and be still! This is how you start... this is how you will ‘know.’

“Once you set a pattern of being still, for periods of time, you will begin to sense ‘The Presence.’ You will know. However, there is another step, and this step requires you to grow spiritually. It will take practice; but it is one of the most important keys to maintaining your connection, and hearing, clearly; you must forgive, all things.

“In quiet, sometimes you will find, that even though you are sitting still, not making a sound, eyes closed even, other thoughts come into your meditation, invading your prayers. These thoughts could be: of a trip you need to make, or take; of concern about a sick child, or an aging parent; of a bill that has come due, and past due, with no prospect of money to pay it; you might be concerned about your own health; you might be concerned about a vehicle needing repair; you might be concerned about your neighbor; you might be involved in a situation where you are assisting others, yet need more help to do the job. The list could go on and on, but you get the idea, these thoughts come, and tempt you away from the stillness, away from the quiet. It is as if these thoughts have a strangle-hold on the passageway, closing-down the connection, denying you clarity. As surprising as it is, these are the things that will often keep you from hearing with clarity, ‘the temptations,’ you encountered all through the day; they nip at your thoughts, and then, take them away, into the material world.

“You must clear yourself of all negative thoughts, because when you sit in quiet, and master your thoughts in such a way that they are ‘of light, and love, and peace,’ then, you begin to hear. It might take a while, for the clarity to come, but I assure you, it will!

“The fourth thing that you might address that will definitely assist you in hearing with clarity, is to practice acts of kindness, and compassion, and understanding. These things seem to naturally come when you have mastered step three, keeping your thoughts in the light, and love, and peace.

“When you are out in the world, it is very easy to be kind to the shop attendant who greets you with a smile, hands you that which are looking for, takes your payment for the object, and wishes you a good day; it is a pleasant encounter, and exchange; but, when you encounter one who is surly, or sad, or angry, and mad, how do you act? I have purposely chosen not use the word ‘react,’ because that continues the negative energy. How do you act in the face of someone who might be, what is now termed, ‘pushing your buttons’? This is one of the things that is going to determine how well you hear God, so this is important, and so, I give you the information. Plan what you are going to do, before it ever happens! Do not be caught off-guard. Sit in prayer with God, and ask God, ‘Give me a few lines, God. What should I say when someone is rude? What should I say when someone is angry? What should I say when someone is in despair? Listen, and you will be filled with the wisdom of The Holy Spirit, because you will not go into the other person’s anger or frustration. What God will teach you to say, are the things ‘of light.’ Rather than entering into an argument, or a confrontation, you might change the subject. You will learn to make a statements that settle peace, rather than igniting the flames of negative energy, and this you will learn to do, slowly. Once you learn to do this, you will be ‘thinking of light, speaking of light, and acting in the light,’ and get this you have created! Yes. Most of you pray to be wrapped in the light of God; but what I AM trying to share with you is, it is God’s will that you create, your own light, which is God’s light, which you create! That is done in your thoughts. Create the light! God is giving you the power, of the light! What are you doing with it? This is yours to do. Take the power that God is giving you, and use it, only, for light. Be vigilant. Watch what you are thinking. Be quick to forgive. Be even quicker to laughter, and song, and dance. Be light, in every way.

“Now, I have shared several very important keys in hearing God clearly, including: be quiet; be forgiving; and act, and speak, following the light of your thoughts. Start today, doing these things, and you will be surprised. By the end of the day, you will be walking across a room, or possibly crossing a street, and even in that state, you will hear something, because your connection to God is beginning to recover. It is mending itself. There will be clicks, and cracks, and you will be delighted, because you will know, you are creating light, you are using the power of God.

“Find the space and time for silence, for stillness, for quiet. Forgive everything. And if the thought comes to you, no matter how, in a dream, or in a vision, or simply just comes into your thoughts, that you should be upset, or angry, that you should be embarrassed or sad about something, or with another, forgive all aspects of that temptation, and free it! Get it off your back! Free yourself! And when you encounter someone, or some thing, or situation, creating negative energy, and are given the opportunity to act, use your thoughts to create light, do not react, use the power God has given you, and create light, your light, created in your thoughts; and then, speak only the wisdom that you are led to speak, and act, with love, compassion, and understanding!

“It is easy to say these things. I know this. It is not so easy to practice these things. I know this. But once you begin to do it, you will realize that you are lighter in every way, you are freer in every way, you are unburdened. You have created the light, using the power of God. And then, when you are quiet, and still, you will hear, clearly, because there is no interference. You have diminished the sounds of the world, and opened the pathway to Heaven. You have thrown open the windows. You have opened the doors. You have knocked down the walls. You are no longer in isolation and desperation. You are walking over the Earth free, hearing clearly, as it is meant to be!”

November 15, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Know Your True Wealth, And Rejoice, In It, Every Day

“I AM with you! I AM with you in all times. I know that you feel My presence with you more, when your times are difficult, trying times; for, the temptation is to ignore your spiritual gifts, when everything seems to be going just as you hoped it would. Most of you will say, ‘I am certainly thankful for the good times, and it is in those times that I say prayers of thanksgiving.’ And this is true, most of you do; however, when you find that you are on your knees, and you are in the midst: of strife, or devastation, or great loss, you call-out in a way that is more from your heart, and your soul, asking for help, waiting for a hand to hold; and, you find it! Out of the embers, and the ashes, of despair, there rises-up a new spirit, one you barely knew was there, and you make it through those difficult times, and all seems well again.

“Today, I want to encourage each of you to take inventory of your true wealth, and rejoice in it every day! Make time to sit with Me, make time to sit with God, make time to be filled with the light, and the wisdom, of The Holy Spirit, in good times, as well as in challenging times. This will keep you in balance, and actually protect you from the difficult times, in many ways.

“What is your true wealth? What are the assets that are yours that cannot be taken from you, that fire cannot damage, that floods cannot wash away, that thieves cannot come in the night, and take, and go away?

“Your true wealth is your spiritual wealth! It is taking the gifts you have been given by God, and working with them, in such a way: that you create a great garden of spiritual gifts; that you use the energies of light to create an atmosphere of compassion and understanding; that your deeds are charitable; that you do not look for rewards or thanksgiving; that you do this good in the name of God, Our Heavenly Parent, knowing that this is part of your mission.

“Take stock of your true wealth, so that you might live in joy every day, realizing the power that it gives you. Your material possessions can all be stripped from you; but your spiritual wealth is eternal! You have the time, while you are on Earth, to amass a great fortune, with regard to your spiritual wealth: storing-up thoughts, storing-up words and deeds, creating a treasure chest that is overflowing. Pay attention to these things, and I promise you this, if you will focus on amassing your spiritual wealth, it will act as an insurance policy, protecting you in times of material disaster. In fact, what you might have considered a disaster ten years ago, will not seem so bleak, or overwhelming, when you are sitting in a chamber filled with spiritual treasures. This is what will be your source of comfort when the material world seems to be falling into ruin all around you.

“Now is the time, and you are ready. Let this week be a week of taking inventory, taking stock, knowing what you have, and being willing to create more: to secure your thoughts in such a way that they are of light; to master your words in such a way that they are of love; to coordinate your deeds, and the things you do, in collaboration with your thoughts and words, so that you might be a vehicle, a vessel, of peace, upon Earth. Peace is quiet. Peace is still. Peace is comfort.

Create peace!"

November 8, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Reject Thoughts Of Darkness And Of Shadow, And Light is Yours

“I AM with you! I hold you in My arms, as I love you! I bless you: with My thoughts, with My words, and with My deeds. I have only good in My thoughts, words, and deeds for you; for, I have eternally turned My back on shadow, and darkness, and I live solely in the light of God! It is a very powerful place to be. It is a very comforting place to be. And, it is exactly where you are to be, living in the light, and the love, and the glory of God, with Me!

“One way, to hold yourself in that beautiful light of God, the glorious light of God, is to ‘guard your thoughts.’ Once you ‘know,’ your thoughts are precious, powerful, kind, loving, you begin to understand a piece of God. If you have experienced thoughts of darkness and shadow, then you ‘know,’ a piece of evil, the absence of God. If you have experienced thoughts of love, and kindness, and light: you know the exuberance, and the comfort you obtain, when you are thinking thoughts of light, when you are entertaining thoughts of light. And when you have experienced thoughts of darkness and shadow: you have felt heavy, you have felt the gloom of the darkness and shadow, and you have carried the weight of the darkness and shadow. And there is no doubt, which you would choose, given the opportunity to choose your thoughts. You not only have the opportunity to choose your thoughts, you have the responsibility of maintaining your thoughts in an atmosphere of light, and love, and peace; for, when you do this, you are creating, and individually maintaining, a piece of Heaven, with you! And while the world cannot see into your head, and know precisely your thoughts, the world can see the result of your thoughts, and the world can feel the environment of Heaven, with you!

“If I did not say one other word today, you would have enough to sit with, until you returned Home. When you ‘know,’ your thoughts create, when you really know you are creating with your thoughts, you begin to have a different relationship with God; for the one who knows this, would not, with purpose and intention, pollute the Earth, pollute the world, pollute themselves, and all others around them. You create with your thoughts!

“Make this day an extraordinary day, by confining your thoughts to unconfined beauty, and light, and peace! Do not give permission for one small piece of a thought to roll into the corridor of doubt, or confusion, chaos, shadow, and darkness. No, hold your thoughts in a precious space, and light will flow, and emanate from your face, and Earth will be blessed, by that which you are creating, in the unseen chamber of your thoughts!

“If you can manage to do this, if you can hold this communion with God in such a way, that your thoughts are of Heaven, you will not find it difficult to mind your words. In fact, your words will be created in your thought. They will naturally be of light, because your thoughts are creating light, and your deeds will follow suit. So you see, if you can hold this precious sweetness of communion with God, of creating thoughts of glory, and comfort, and compassion, there is no need to think about what you will say, there is no need to plan what you will do, because your words, and your deeds, will be a reflection of you, of who you are, of what you are creating, within your thoughts.

“All of this also reflects your faith, faith that you are communing with God. Faith that, if you hold your thoughts to be thoughts worthy of Heaven, then your faith is secure, and miracles abound all around you. My brothers and sisters, it is that simple! Reject thoughts of darkness and shadow, and light is yours!

“The day is beginning! There is so much that you will create today! Do not let your thoughts go astray. Do not give permission to wander in darkness and shadow. Open the ballroom of your heart, and your soul, and your spirit; and let your thoughts be: of meadows and singing birds; of magnificent trees, and clouds floating on the blue sky; of quiet waters, and mighty waters; of still waters, and rushing waters; of sunlight, and rain, and showers, and storms; of the laughter of children, and the smiles on the faces of the elderly. When you create, within your thoughts, this is what happens, your creation lives!

“Go forth, today, and be the living word of God, in all you think, and do, and say!”

November 1, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

True Abundance, How To Use Material Things To Restore The Kingdom Of Heaven, Upon The Earth

“I AM with you! And for those of you who believe in this communication between dimensions, you feel My presence; My words move into you, and you ‘know,’ because you believe! From within your being, the seed of belief is growing, and you are nurturing it, knowing. There is no one who can make you believe. You believe, because you have faith. You understand, because you have faith. You are moving in the realm of miracles, because you have faith. Every day is an extraordinary day, every minute, every second is extraordinary, because you have faith.

“I know that I can give you the keys to making your life upon Earth one of ease, delight, and wonder; but first, you must be willing to ‘believe,’ what I say to you, is true! This requires faith! And once you embrace, the words that I speak to you, then you begin to grow, and that which you know, grows, with you. This is ‘living faith.’

“If you are upon Earth at the present time, you can be assured that you are upon Earth to complete a mission. And, you can also be assured that the completion of your mission has to do with repairing, and cleaning, and maintaining the gardens of Earth. You are to make Earth a better place, because of your presence, because of what you think, and say, and do.

“Now, some of you might have forgotten this, and this is easy to do. Once you begin moving in the world created by man, you begin to lose your way, you let loose the hand of God, and begin to grab, and cling, and hold-on-to what is important in the world of man. The world of man consists of the material, the things that you can see, and hold: gold, and silver, coins, and bills, clothing, and cars, houses, buildings, bridges. The list goes on, and on. If it can be made, or manufactured, by man, then it is ‘of the world of man,’ the world created by man. Yet, it is possible to be on the Earth, operating, and living, in that which was created by God. But God does not sew-up dresses, or pound together buildings, or create great castles, or cathedrals, or humble dwellings. God’s majesty, and kingdom, is the unseen! And the unseen is majestic! It is ‘of light, and glory.’ It is your Home. It is from whence you came. And, it is your honor, and responsibility, to restore these things, these blessings, these graces to Earth, and those who inhabit Earth.

“Once you remember this, the way you live upon the Earth changes. You do not pack a suitcase, or a trunk, with gold, or silver. No, your gold, and silver are: the memories; the thoughts; the deeds; acts of courage, and kindness; words of compassion, and understanding; thoughts of light surrounding all things. These things are your treasures! And these things you can bring Home, because they are not material. The material must be left behind. Some of you will lose it, before it is time to return Home. For some of you, it will be taken from you. But the unseen cannot be taken from you. You can carry it, in your arms, as you return Home; actually, and in reality, making Heaven, The Dimension of Perfection, a better place! Yes, you did hear Me, correctly. When you spend your time, amassing a fortune of: compassion, and kindness, and understanding, love and charity, the unseen treasures, you can bring them Home with you, and Heaven is made better by the gifts you bring Home. It can be no other way; if you bring the treasures Home, they enhance the treasure chests that are already overflowing in Heaven, making it, indeed, a better place. I give you a bit of time to sit with that... .

“You can make millions of dollars, as you live upon Earth. But these millions of dollars have little value, until you begin to ‘do good,’ with the millions of dollars, until you release the temptation to hold onto the wealth, and do good: make life easier for someone who is struggling; clean-up a river, or a city; feed children and families; make life better. It is possible, for the one who knows what they are doing, to take that which is created by man, and from it bring forth the miracle of the unseen treasure. Then the dollar becomes kindness, compassion, and understanding. And this you can take Home. I ask you to sit with this today, because this is not a new teaching, but a new way to look at an old teaching.

“Remember... who you are... and what you are doing... ‘You are to make Earth a better place, and you are to store-up the unseen treasures to take Home with you,’ treasures that will magnify the glory of The Dimension of Perfection by that which you did as your journeyed upon Earth!”

October 25, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Choose Not To Judge, Be Quick To Forgive, And Remain In The Light Of God

“I AM with you! I AM with you, every day. I AM with you in a closer way, than I was with those with those with whom I walked upon the Earth, thousands of years ago; for I can slip: into your silence, into your anguish, into your frustration, and say, ‘I AM here, let us resolve this together!’ This is a blessing; take My hand, and accept the gift, for it is given in love!

“Today, I wish to address a topic we have covered before, because so many of you hearing My words, or reading My words, struggle with “the temptation,” to slip into judgment.

“You are good, and glorious children of God; yet, this struggle wears you down sometimes, and it appears as if it might win, sometimes. This is a struggle that has gone on for ages. It is why it is addressed so often in Scripture. It is why the message bringers address it so often, in their words. Judgment, and forgiveness, seem to be tied together, because they are tied together! There is no need to practice forgiveness, if you have resisted the temptation to judgment. When you no longer judge, there is no need to forgive. This would be a glorious state of life, any life, to not carry the burden of having to forgive!

“So today, let us put all the stories and the parables and the sayings away, and approach this in a very matter-of-fact way. Judgment, yes, it is easy to slip into judgment; but it is just as easy to choose the opposite side of the coin, and not judge. It requires practice. Therefore, I encourage each of you today to practice! Catch yourself, when you are being tempted to judgment. Catch yourself within the act, if you can; and choose to override your reaction, immediately; and it will be done, it will be resolved; and, you will feel better, you will feel lighter!

“Forgiveness be quick to forgive if you have slipped, in the judgment territory: forgive, immediately; rescind the declaration of judgment; and forgive all, including yourself, thus taking care of the issue. Those are steps one, and two.

“Step three, stay connected with our Eternal Parent; for this is one sure way to maintain the strength, and the courage, and the grace necessary to reject judgment in the first place. Resist judgment, be quick to forgive, remain in the light of God!

“You might ask, ‘Can it really be that easy?’ And the answer is, ‘Yes!’ It all comes down to that which you choose. You cannot make a judgment, without choosing to do so. It is something you do voluntarily, when you choose. So, correct it, and go on your way, feeling wonderful about what you were able to accomplish.

“Forgiveness when you choose forgiveness all other things resolve in the light of the forgiveness. They are resolved, and dissolved, in the waters of God’s love. Stay connected with God. And this, too, is a choice; for you can run down another road, saying, ‘I don’t need that. I don’t want that. It is too hard. I would like to go over here, and be with these people. I would like to do this, or that, or the other.' You have to choose; but isn't it wonderful that you can resolve these issues, with these three steps. Write these things down, so you can look over, and see, because you choose to do certain things, hundreds, possibly one thousand times a day. You choose!

“You choose to judge, or not to judge! You choose to forgive, or not to forgive! You choose God, or you choose to be on your own, without God. It is as simple as that! I feel smiles, flowing to Me, from you. It is that simple, My brothers, My sisters, and I AM with you, to show you The Way. Come, the dawn is breaking, let us begin the new day, together, in peace!”

October 18, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
God Is Your Eternal Parent, Cheering For You

“I AM with you! Close your eyes, and you will see Me; in the darkness, I will come to you, and you will see, and recognize My light, as I see, and recognize, your light! Be at peace this day. This day is a day set aside for celebration, celebrating life, celebrating life upon Earth, and celebrating your eternal life. So, let the celebration begin!

“Some of you, hearing My words, or reading My words, have grown, and your years are numbered: maybe you are thirty, or forty, or fifty, or sixty, or more; but there is no doubt, no matter how many numbers are assigned to you at this time, in the passing of years, you remember being a child!

“Certain childhood images come clearly, are filled with laughter and delight. Some childhood memories are filled with lessons, learning to do right by others; and, by yourself, learning to do right, when no one is looking, because God is ever with you!

“God is ever with you in such a special way; but it is not as if God is spying on you, or waiting to see what you do wrong. Change your perspective; and see that God is with you, to support you, and encourage you, no matter what you have done, no matter what mud puddle you might have wandered into, no matter what deep, dark forest, you might find yourself in! God is with you to guide you, to support you, to encourage you!

“I give you an example of children playing... soccer. You can see the parents along the sideline, following, running up and down the field, as the ball moves from one goal to another, cheering their children on. And when the whistle blows, and the game is done, the children run into the arms of the parent, and there is celebration, and encouragement, and support, for the game well-played. It does not matter, if you are the winning team, or the losing team; what matters is that you were on the field, playing, having fun, with your parents running up and down the sideline, encouraging you to play your best!

“And, if soccer is not your game, you can imagine any other, or you can imagine dance, or music, or art. Whatever you wish to put in the place of that game, the good, and loving parent is supporting, from the sideline, not playing the game for you, but encouraging you to play your best! So, if you can see this, through the eyes of a child, and how this is working, and working very well, then, move it to a different place; and see Earth as the playing field, and see God as The Eternal Parent, moving up and down the sidelines, encouraging you to do your best! And when the game is over, when that final whistle blows, you run off the field into the arms of God! You did your best. You played the game. And God was with you, all of the time, just as a good parent would be!

“It is important to have these childhood memories of life on Earth, memories that bring a smile, possibly laughter, possibly a thought, something to ponder; but you are also eternal children of

The Creator, no matter if you are five, or six, or seven, or eight, or nine, or ten, or if you are one hundred and ten, you are child of God, with purpose!

“Set your intention this day, to go out into the world, and play! Play the game you have chosen, and play it well. Follow the rules of the game; and be a good sport: sportsmanship, endeavor, laughter, and joy! Enjoy life upon Earth, and every now and then, look over to the sideline. Close your eyes in prayer, and you will know that God is there, cheering you on, supporting you, encouraging you!

“You might think it odd, that The Creator of All Things would be there encouraging you, in all you do, but it is true. God is cheering for you!”

October 11, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Embrace The Gift, Embrace The Present

“I AM with you! Feel My presence. Know Me. I reach through the corridors of time, and touch you, speaking in a whisper, so you might hear Me, clearly; for very little is heard in a shout, but all can be heard in a whisper!

“I speak to each of you today: to encourage you; to support you; because I once did live as you; therefore, I know! I speak to you to share that which I know, about living upon Earth, about walking in the world, created by man, remaining in spirit, connected with Heaven, The Dimension of Perfection, while moving over the Earth, blessing every piece and parcel of the Earth you do touch, and breathe upon, and pass over.

“If you knew the worth, the value, of every second, of every minute, you would not succumb to the temptation ‘to dabble in the past, or wander into the future.’ You would claim the precious gifts, the seconds, the minutes, the hours, of every day, as your own!

“I encourage you to avoid the distractions of the world, and focus on your communion with The Creator; for this is The Source of your life! Focus on The Source, and then experience the present!

“When you live in the present, you are experiencing, to the fullest measure, the present piece of eternity, and when you focus on the present piece of eternity in which you are living, you experience the peace of eternity! When you permit yourself to be distracted by things that you imagine are dwelling, and waiting, in the future, you are denying yourself the privilege, and the gifts present, in the present piece of eternity. You are turning your back on a gift, to sit in anxiety, and fear, and doubt.

“This I promise you today, if you take care of every second, if you follow the divine whisper held in every minute, if you accept the guidance in every hour, there is no need to worry about tomorrow, because all of the fears, and anxieties, of tomorrow, vanish, in the light, of the present piece of eternity. Live in the present, and all things will be resolved, as you move through the day. Live in the present light, and all things will be miraculous, along The Way!

“You will be surprised when you begin this day, with the intention, of focusing on, the present piece of eternity. You will be surprised to see how much you do focus on tomorrow, on yesterday, on anything, but the gift, you are tossing away.

“Take a deep breath, and draw it into your being, draw it deep within you. Feel ‘the life force,’ move, through you. And know, that for every physical breath you take, there is a spiritual breath, as well. I encourage you to live in the present, today. I encourage you to open the present today. I encourage you to embrace the gift you are given, and all worries and concerns will fade away!”

October 4, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Be The Messenger, Deliver The Message

“I AM with you! I bring you love! I bring you forgiveness, for all things, and the spirit of forgiveness, so it might dwell within you, forever. I bring you peace, and the spirit of peace, so it might dwell within you, forever. I touch you with My blessing, My friendship.

“I AM with you, as you walk through this day! And your desire to be with Me, determines how closely, we walk together; but no matter how you feel at this moment, at this time, about a relationship with Me, I can assure you, I AM close to thee! And the only thing that can draw Me nearer, and nearer, is your desire to make it so!

“I have said many times, over and over, that I delivered the message of love. I delivered the message of forgiveness. I delivered a message: to be generous, to be compassionate, to be kind. I delivered a message that you could do everything I was doing upon Earth!

“Many of you speak of these things, speak of My message of love, and forgiveness, and kindness, of the promise that the things that I did, could be done by any; but how deeply do you believe this, and how much importance do you place on the messages I did bring?

“When you think of your day, an ordinary day, when you think of the relationships you have with other people, ordinary relationships, how often do you deliver the message of love to that ordinary day, to those ordinary relationships? If it was so important, if the world so needed the message of love, that I was sent from Heaven, to dwell amongst those of Earth, to deliver this message, how important is the message of love? If it is so important, to send Me, it surely must hold great significance, for your day, for your relationships. Do not set these things aside, as something you can read, or talk about, or pray for. If they were important enough to begin a new age, a new time upon Earth, with these messages from Heaven, surely they hold enough importance for you to incorporate them in your day, or the way you deal with other people!

“Let this day be an example of how every day should go for you. Be the messenger of love, and do it in such a way, that all around you feel the message of love, accept your message of love. Be the messenger of forgiveness, and do it in such a way that all know you are forgiving, and bringing the message of forgiveness. Be the messenger of kindness and compassion. Be the messenger! That is the most important thing you can do.

“If you have the capability, and use your ability, to build a grand bridge, spanning a river or an ocean, that has never been done before, being the messenger of love is more important than accomplishing this task, being the messenger of forgiveness is more important than accomplishing this task! If you are a renowned doctor, a healer, and you have the capability, and the ability, to heal many, being the messenger of love is more important than doing so, being the messenger of forgiveness is more important than doing so! For, I say unto you, what good are bridges, spanning great distances, or people being healed of blindness, or disease, or mental illness, if there is no love or forgiveness in the world? It is giving people the ability to move about, or to experience life, with no love, no forgiveness, no kindness, no generosity.

“It is easy to see those who are attempting to be messengers of love and forgiveness! But when you see such beings, know this, they are able to do so, because they are so connect with The Creator, with God, and it is the power of God, moving into, and through them, establishing light within them, and illuminating all things around them, that gives them the capability, and the ability, to deliver the messages of love, and forgiveness, kindness, and compassion! You will see, and know them, by their love, by their deeds. They will not have to speak, or say anything, you will see them, by their light. They will be quiet, they will be still, they will be at peace, because they live, and dwell, in the light of God!

“This is how you save the world... deliver the message of love! It does not matter what the world does with the message, what matters is, you delivered the message of love; therefore, it lives in the world! Deliver the message of forgiveness! It does not matter what the world does with the message, what matters is, you delivered the message of forgiveness; therefore, it lives in the world! Deliver the message of kindness, and compassion! It does not matter what the world does with the message, what matters is, you delivered the message of kindness, and compassion; therefore, it lives in the world!

“There is nothing more important you have to do, during a day, than to deliver these messages of hope and promise, because for those who will accept, and embrace, the messages you deliver, will come the gifts of grace, and faith, because they have seen it in action; therefore, they do not set it aside as impossible to do. When you deliver the message of love, and forgiveness, kindness, and compassion, you are showing The Way, and providing the path to faith, living faith, because they see it; they see it in action, so they ‘know, it is possible.’ And this gift of unseen wealth, will change the world, more than anything else you have to do today!

“Deliver the message!”

September 27, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Create Peace, And Peace Will Be With You

“I AM with you! I reach-out, right now, with no limitations, or boundaries: so that you might feel My presence with you, so that you might know Me better, so that I might encourage and support you, in every way, to be at peace; the world desperately needs peace!

“Peace be with you. I cannot tell you how many times I said, ‘Peace be with you,’ during a day, during a month, during My lifetime, upon Earth.

“Peace be with you! When you live in an environment, an atmosphere, of peace, it is possible to create love, to be understanding, and compassionate, even when others do not love you, understand you, or offer the gift of compassion. I covered this as well, saying to those who were around Me in no uncertain terms, it is easy to be loveable, to love, to like, to offer the gift of compassion, to those who are loving, and compassionate to you. It is a different game, when you are asked to love those who seem unlovable, to offer understanding to those who will not do the same for you, to be compassionate to someone who is spitting upon you, or defiling you. Yet, this is what you are asked to do! It sets those who are willing to do this in a special place, acknowledging that God, and that which God has asked you to do, is more important than what you desire to do.

“My words were clear, then; and I offer them to you again today, because the world is filled with anger and hatred. The spirits of meanness are everywhere around you, and they are multiplied every time there is even an angry thought.

“To walk The Way, you must love! You must do unto others as you would pray and hope they would do unto you; but, you cannot use the bad behavior, or the hatred, or anger, in others, to keep you from living in the light; for in truth, you are not doing this for others, you are doing it for God!

“I was asked to, and I did, bring the message of love, a New Testament, a loving testament, a new time for a new people. I brought the Golden Rule of do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Now, I wish for you to sit quietly, and think about this, for it most assuredly will bring you peace, and give you the ability to knock down the fences of defense, and open your heart to the love of God, pouring through.

“I brought the message ‘of love.’ Do you believe that I, in return, was given love, to the measure I gave it? I brought the message to give unto others all that you have, and when you have given them all that you have, give them more, which meant to give joyfully. I brought that message. Do you think I received the same? I brought the message of forgiveness, for all things, no matter what was done to you in the past, forgiveness was the new banner, as you walked along The Way. I brought the message of forgiveness. Do you believe that I was offered forgiveness as well? I brought the message of understanding and compassion. Do you believe, in your heart, I was offered the gift in return?

“I brought many messages, which I lived. I did not speak the words lightly. I spoke the words, and I was The Living Word of love, and understanding, and compassion, and forgiveness; but I knew, that these things that I gave freely, I would not receive. You do not give to receive. You give, because God is flowing into, and through, you, so completely, that you cannot do anything else but give, you cannot do anything else but love, there is no room for the spirit of meanness, or intolerance, or hatred, or anger. When you are filled with the love, and the light of God, there is no room for such things. You are not giving, for another to give back to you. You are giving, because that is what you are meant to do. And in giving, even creating the thought of giving, you are creating giving within yourself; therefore, that is the greater gift than to receive. Give it, because, if you did not have it within you to give, you could not give.

“There are those amongst you, who cannot love; because they have closed the door to God’s love, they do not know love; therefore, they cannot give love. The only way they will have a fraction, or a taste or nibble, of the energy of love, is to experience love at your hand. And the same is true with all the things that most people desire, such as understanding and compassion. These things do not come from the dark side. They come from God. And if you are blocked-up with fear, and doubt, and worry, and anxiety, these things cannot get through that hallway that is already cluttered. The only way they will know understanding and compassion is from someone who is in the light of God, who is willing to give, and expect nothing in return.

“When you create understanding within your being, because you live in the love and light of God, that energy remains in you, even though you give it away. You cannot create it, and not know it. Therefore, when you give it away, you are giving it to yourself!

“Today would be a good day, to sit down, and create these wonderful gifts of forgiveness, of love, of understanding, and compassion, and give them to another who appears unworthy, and watch what happens to you, because these gifts you create within, remain with you forever, and these gifts you create within do not come from darkness or shadow. It is impossible to create love, without being in the light of God. You cannot do it. You cannot know love, without it being developed in an environment of light.

“Therefore, today, remember, I brought the message of love, now it is your turn, live it. Live it! I brought the message of do unto others, now it is your turn, live it. Live it! If you can create these things within your being, you will truly be at peace.”

September 20, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Do Not Judge, Choose To Live The Light Of God

“I AM with you! When I say, ‘I AM with you,’ it carries many messages. True, it does mean I AM near to you, I AM close to you; for, even though you might not see the merging of the dimensions with your physical eyes, it is so, and it makes it possible for Me to be with you all of the time! However, another meaning of ‘I AM with you,’ is I AM supporting you, I AM encouraging you, I AM on your side, I AM pulling the wagon with you, I AM walking behind the plow with you, I AM carrying the load with you, I AM with you, I AM on your team, we are one.

“If there is ‘lack,’ amongst you, the lack belongs to all, for when there is need, there is need in the one. Where there is abundance, and light, and peace, it is with you, no matter how far away, or how close. Lack and need, and light and abundance, are shared. When you know in your heart that all is one, you are compelled to minister to your brothers and sisters, so that their lack does not become your lack, so that your abundance of light becomes their abundance of light. This is a Master’s Level lesson, accepted by those who walk The Way, practiced, by the Masters who walk the Earth. Therefore, this brings Me to speak to you today of judgment, once again.

“Many of you know the words to say, regarding judgment. I brought the message; I delivered it; and I talked about it; it was a flag waving in The Wind, lifted-high atop a mountain. ‘When you judge another, you are judging yourself.’ When you judge another, you are setting forth a code, which will be used to judge you, because the truth is, the only judging that will be done, or is done, is by you! You declare judgment, upon yourself!

“In the same breath, when you deliver compassion, and understanding, and freedom to another, you are declaring compassion, understanding, and freedom for yourself. Amazing! Take the time to understand this. You are setting-forth a decree that will apply, and does apply, to you. Do you want to be measured by your measuring stick? Do you want to be judged by the measuring stick you are currently using? Or, do you wish to be enfolded-in a limitless amount of the gifts of compassion, and understanding, and forgiveness? There is no question which you would choose.

“The situation is thus, you are making decisions, every day, which will affect you, in some way. As an example, in Scripture there is a story about a young woman, who was caught in the act of adultery, and most of you remember this story. You will recall that toward the end of the story, I invited any of those gathered to judge the woman, to throw the first stone, but that it should come first from the one who held no sin, who had committed no trespass. I knew this was fair territory, and safe for the woman, because each one gathered, had already moved into the territory of judging another, they would not have been there, had they not judged her guilty. They did not gather to set her free. They gathered to stone her, to judge her. Therefore, it was impossible for there to be one who could pick-up a stone, and throw it upon her. It applies also, when you speak-out in judgment of another, or think-out a judgment of another, or act-out a judgment of another. It is impossible to judge another, without deciding that, that is what you are going to do.

“It is easy to look at another, and say to yourself, ‘That is wrong, they should not do that.’ It is easy to look at another, or listen to another, and say, ‘I need to correct you, I need to stop you, I need to direct you to tell you are wrong.’ But, the very fact that you are willing to engage in the act of judging, declares that you have judged another, you have set yourself-up as the judge of another.

“There is also a story, written in Scripture, where I AM credited with saying, ‘Do not try to take a speck out of another’s eye, when there is a plank in your own.’ To remove a speck, from another’s eye, your eyes must be clear, and free of debris. Therefore, I tell you, and verily it is so, the one who holds no judgment, no trespass, no ill, no specks in the eye, would know, and love, and be at peace! If there is work to do, turn it inward. Let the work that you need to do, be within yourself! Perfect yourself; for, the unperfected looks foolish, trying to perfect another.

“So, I encourage each of you, as you begin this week, to hold your tongue, correct your thoughts, and any adjustment needing to be made, will be made within you; for, you see, you can speak, and talk, and encourage, and complain, and direct, and correct all day long, but the truth is, you cannot make a change in another! They must make the change themselves. But, you can change yourself, and in so doing be an example to another. This is being the light. This is showing The Way.

“When you are tempted to judgment, turn the work inside yourself, find something that could stand a bit of improvement within you, and go there to do the work you wish to do, because this truly is how all things will change, not by correction, or direction, or judgment of another. Earth will change when the words of light, and love, and peace, become living words of light, and love, and peace! This week, live compassion, live understanding, live generosity, live mercy, live the light of God!”

September 13, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Walk In Faith, For Just One Day, A Day Of Trying

“I AM with you! As you open your heart to the possibility, your spirit, and your soul, sing, and your heart opens wider, and wider, allowing you to bring My presence right into your heart! And that is when we start speaking, sharing, communicating, because we are in union, experiencing communion, as it is meant to be. This truth is rejected by many as impossible, but for those who will believe, it is accepted, totally, fully, and their lives are different, because they believe!

“I wish to share something with you, once again. I have shared this message, so many times; yet, I am compelled to continue, delivering the message, so others might awaken, and believe this eternal truth; for, in so doing, your life upon Earth will become one miracle after another; it will be a walk ‘of faith,’ all along The Way, until you return Home.

“As I walked upon the Earth, I said this repeatedly, as well; I said it so often, it is recorded in Scripture; but I must say to you now, although it is oft quoted by My brothers and sisters, it is not totally embraced by My brothers and sisters, as it requires faith, and belief, to accept this teaching, completely. And you might say, ‘I wish to accept, that, which you are about to say. I wish for my faith to be greatly increased, so that I might accept all that you say.’ And I say unto you, if you wish for your faith to grow, all you have to do is have little faith, and offer that little faith, and it will grow into magnificent faith. I tell you, no matter if it is as small as a grain of sand, if you have it there, and wish it so, that grain of sand will surely grow, into a magnificent presence of faith. And it will carry you into the world in a state of grace, every day.

“Having said that, having shared that, and having urged each of you to continue your faith walk, I remind you of this. When you put your faith and trust totally in God, believing completely that God is your Eternal Parent, and will provide everything you need, you do not know worry, or fear, or doubt, or anxiety. You do not know these things, because you cannot know these things, when you are living completely in the light of God.

“You are all familiar with passages which speak about ‘not worrying about what you are to wear, or to drink, or to eat, because your Eternal Father, your Parent of Heaven knows what you need.’ Most often, no, let Me say, always, God knows better than you, exactly what you need, and will give it to you. But most children upon Earth cannot find it within them to believe this, and choose to push the gifts of Heaven away, trying to make it in the world on their own. And this leads to isolation, and desperation, working more and more, to make more and more money, to buy more and more food, and clothing, and things, and it becomes a vicious cycle where the heart doth not sing, any longer; for it is too weary, and tired.

“I wish for each of you to live with such belief and faith that you know, without question, you will most assuredly have all that you need! Therefore, I offer this exercise. If you will give God but one day, one period of twenty-four hours, you will find that your faith has sprouted, it has a root, or possibly a shoot. It is growing, because of that one day, and I will tell you why. If you are worried about: a job, a loss of a job, a desperate struggle to find a job, these things cloud your being, and block the passageways, and limit your hearing; so that the whispers of God seem, either so far away that it is difficult to hear, or they are blocked totally from your ear. Using this 'lack, of a job,' as an example, I promise you, if you will say, 'God, this is yours. Today, lead me where I need to go. Show me what I need to do. Whisper what I need to say.' In this simple way, you will be walking with God, and God is The Creator of All Things. God knows it all. And perhaps, when your phone next rings, it is a friend, who invites you to stop-by, who encourages you to come by, and you do. And there, the two of you encounter another, who happens to mention that they are looking for someone to help them. It could be in an office, it could be in a factory, or it could be in a home; but in this simple way, God's hand has led you to the place you need to be, to connect with the person you need to connect with! This is how it works! Your faith, that God will lead you where you are to go, will surely take you where you are to go. Yes, I hear you, it does require faith; and yes, I hear your litany of reasons why you cannot do this. But I promise you, if you try it, for one day, you will eagerly embrace another day, and another day, because you will find, to your great surprise, that God actually does know more than you know, and can take care of you better, with the wisdom of Heaven, with the spoon of all time, and the cup of all ages. God will feed you, and quench your thirst, and provide all you need!

“Even for this one day period, that I so encourage each of you to do, you will find you need to practice trust, practice believing, that it is so. But come the end of the day, there will be some things, that before, you would have been tempted to say, ‘... isn't that interesting; how surprising; what a coincidence.’ But at the end of this day, those words will not be what you will say. At the end of the day of trying, you will simply say, ‘Thank you, God!’ ”

September 6, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Sit With God, Pray, Then Rise- Up, And See The World Through The Eyes Of God

“I AM with you! I AM with you, therefore, I see and share the glory, and the joy, of Earth with you. I see through your eyes, at times, and there are times when you see through mine, as we are one. Oh, what a blessing it is, when you are still, and quiet, and sit with God, then, rise-up, and walk into the world, seeing the world through the eyes of God. This is a miracle. It is a miracle, of The One.

“You hear this following suggestion many times, but for those who actually follow the suggestion, and incorporate it into their daily lives, there is glory untold, joy untold, peace unfolds around you. Before you begin each day, sit with God. There is no need to enumerate all of the things you hope for, and pray for; for in this quiet time, the most important way to pray is to have conversation with God. God know what you need, more than you, for it is most often that you think you know what you need, but your Eternal Parent knows what is set before you, and wishes to strengthen you, for all things, great joy, and great challenge.

“As you sit with God each day, you are better prepared to rise-up, and walk into the world, whether it be: go to the fields to harvest or plant, or go to an office, or factory, where there are machines, putting things together, one, after one, after one. It does not matter where your work is done. What is more important, is that you begin your day with God, so you are prepared for anything that comes to you.

“‘Seek first The Kingdom of God,’ and then, go about your way, performing the tasks, and the chores, of the day.

“When you do begin the day in prayer, there is a different glow about you. Your eyes shine with confidence that you have made contact with The Creator of All Things, and The Creator of All Things is with you, at that moment! When you make this connection with God first, you are less likely to judge others, as you make your way through the day, for you will be more focused on light, than on darkness. And, with a bit of practice, you will find that no matter who, or what, you encounter, you are actually beginning to see the light in that person, rather than seeking-out the darkness in the person. When you begin the day with God, you are less likely to judge another. In fact, rather than looking, or judging, shadow or darkness, what happens is, you begin pointing-out the light that is there. Now it is true, that sometimes the only light that you can find, will be the truth, the eternal fact that, that person is ‘a child of God.’ And if that is true, then that should be your song, to them. ‘I see you. I know you are a child of God.’ And, even if they reject your statement, and turn from you, you have delivered a message that is there, within them. And, I can assure you, there will come a day, when they will remember, and hear the whisper, in their hour of need, and they will rise-up, as they fall to their knees, and whisper, ‘I am a child of God!’

“There is no limit to what affirmative, positive statements can do. Therefore, look for the light in others, and resolve, and confirm, and affirm it in you; then, this is what will grow, this is what will be known, about you!

“Do not worry, or fret, about what tomorrow might bring. As you go forth into this day, take the hand of God, and sing; for when God walks with you, no shadow or darkness will entrap you; for, ‘The Way shall be made clear for you,’ and the joy of living upon Earth will be yours!”

August 30, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Store-up The Treasures Of The Unseen, The Treasures Of Eternal Value

“I AM with you! I do not sit high atop, removed from all that is going on around the mountain. No, I walk amongst you; I sit with you; I sup with you; I drink with you; and, I have lived, as you live; but, I did show The Way, a way to understanding the glory of, living upon Earth, The Way to seeing the unseen, The Way to life, The Way to living, as it is truly meant to be!

“The phrase, ‘...being in the world, but not of the world,’ is known by almost everyone; but it is mostly a slogan, few look at it, speak the words, and attempt to live the words.

“You should celebrate living upon Earth. You should not curse the things of Earth. Living upon the Earth is one of the greatest adventures, a privilege, and an honor, where you can: touch and feel; breathe-in and sense the aromas; taste, and be filled with the glories of the fruits of Earth. This is a privilege, it is an honor; but with it, it comes a responsibility.

“It is more important to be storing-up the treasures: of generosity, of kindness, of compassion, of love, of encouragement, all of the beautiful things that you can think of that fall into that category, are treasures. You cannot hold them, as a coin, in your hand. These ‘coins,’ are unseen. You cannot see the treasure chest in which you place each coin. It is unseen; but they are amongst the greatest treasures of all eternity, those wonderful thoughts, and words, and deeds of light, and love, that you commit, during your time, during your journey on Earth.

“You can see the money placed in your hand when you receive a paycheck. And you can take that money, and you can put it in: a bank, which you can see; or, a treasure chest in your home, which you can see; or, your wallet, which you can see. You can take the money, or possibly coins, and exchange them for goods, which you can see; but after a while, the accepting, and the saving, and the spending, and the purchasing of goods becomes more a cycle, a circle of repetition, in-and-out, in-and-out; and, what you are purchasing, does not have eternal value.

“Now, how you change this exchange to something of eternal value, is when you decide that a piece, or a part, of that which you receive, for work you have done, will be put to use for the glory of God. When you take your dollars, or your coins, or your money of any sort, and you use it to give unto another, out of generosity, kindness, compassion, understanding, love, you have changed the seen into the unseen. Every time you give a gift of food, purchased with the money you have earned, you change the seen into the unseen gift of generosity, and kindness! Every time you initiate, or create, a thought to do some good, for something, or someone else, you change the seen, into the unseen, which is eternal! You do not have to deny the seen, you simply need to know how to operate in the world, using the gifts of the unseen. And then, it all flows, together.

“I encourage you, this week, to practice this mingling of the seen and unseen! Begin every day in the realm of the unseen, communicating with our Eternal Parent, with The Creator of All Things, being still, asking for guidance, with gratitude in your heart, being willing to move into the seen, carrying all your gifts of the unseen: to face every situation with understanding; to greet everyone in need with compassion; to meet lack, with generosity; to stand in the face of hatred, and deliver the gift of love!

“Let love be in your thoughts, and your words, and your deeds; for, in this Way, you take that which will pass away, and create that which will stay ... for eternity! Store-up the treasures of the unseen, for these things you will bring Home with you; they will be with you for eternity!”

August 23, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Your Mission: Create The Way, For Tomorrow, Today

“I AM with you! I move between all places, all times, from one dimension to another, as I will to do. And today, I will to be with you, in a special way! We are always united as one; however, there are times, when we draw nearer, and nearer, and that communion is sweet, and precious! I AM with you today, come.

“Today, I wish to remind you of something that we have discussed a number of times; yet, it is of such great importance that I do address it once more, today. So many of you, with goodness in your hearts, ask the questions; ‘What is my mission? Why am I here? What is my next step? Where do I go?’ And when you ask these questions in prayer, your heart is filled with desire to do something, and most of the time, to do something of great significance, something you consider might be very important. And it is in these times of prayer, when you are asking for direction into something new, bigger, grander to do, that your Father, your Eternal Parent, holds such tender love for you! However, it also in these moments that I desire to tell you something, you first, need to do.

“In your life, as you are living it, right now, have you given all those you love your blessing every day, delivering to each of your loved ones, the light of God, the love of God, a tender touch by you, a gentle kiss, a sweet caress, words of encouragement, and support? Have you filled your home with laughter, and love, and sweet, sacred songs, filled it with gratitude for all the gifts of the day? Have you spoken words of kindness, understanding, and compassion, rejecting the harsher tones and vibrations of frustration, judgment, and anger?

“I could probably go on, with a litany of things, such as, have you been more generous, rejecting greed? But I believe each of you hearing these words, or reading these words, gets the point, of what I AM saying. You understand Me. You hear clearly, or know, with great clarity, what I AM saying to you.

“Are you treating your loved ones with love, and only love, rejecting all shadow, and darkness? That is My point, concise, and precise. If you are not doing this, you are not ready to move on to another mission, a greater mission, something you feel is significant, or important. Because there is nothing more important than being ‘love,’ to those around. And the same applies to friends, or acquaintances, or those at work, those you see every day in an office situation, or in a shop situation, or in a factory, or at school. Until you can say, every night, that the words that you have spoken all day were filled with love, and light, and support, and encouragement, then you need to focus on what you are doing, right now, because that is the foundation for tomorrow!

“There is no need to strike-out, riding the plans for tomorrow, if your foundation is not firmly set in love, and light, and peace! In fact, if your thoughts, and words, and deeds are only ‘of love, and light,’ stripped, and freed, from any type of anger, or greed, or lust, or sadness, or misery, you are creating your tomorrow. Then, there is no need to be concerned about tomorrow. For every day that you plant that seed of thought, and word, and deed, being 'of the light, and the love, and the glory of God,' you are creating The Way, for tomorrow! And as tomorrow unfolds, you find that you are exactly where you need to be, and that mission that seemed so mundane, so simple, so ordinary, has evolved, has ascended, has transcended anything mundane, and moved all around you into the extraordinary presence of The Light!

“Your hearts are filled with desire to do good, to do great, to do right, so what I AM saying to you is, do not leave these plans for tomorrow, for another mission. Bring these desires into this day, and watch how it unfolds. Those around you will hold confidence with your encouragement and support. Those around you will be at peace in the love, and light, you deliver. And there will be a flow, that Eternal Flow, the Divine Light will fill your space, and emanate from your face, and you will touch those around you with peace, and the presence of God, this day!”

August 16, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Let Forgiveness Begin With You, Today

“I AM with you! I AM so near to you; yet, most of you do not realize My presence with you. However, there are times, when I say, in a whisper, ‘I AM with you,’ and one or two respond, with the realization, with the knowing: that I AM there; that Heaven is upon the Earth; for most of you, it remains within the unseen realm; yet, it is ever present, and with you!

“One of the important steps, that you can take, in your daily life, to bring ‘the unseen realm of Heaven, closer into a reality that you recognize, now, is practicing The Art of Forgiveness!

“It is often easier to be thankful, to have a grateful heart, than it is to be forgiving, and have a heart filled with forgiveness for others; yet, I say unto you, to truly understand the love of God is to understand the gift of forgiveness!

“When something happens, when an event occurs, or words are spoken, deeds done, which seem, or appear to be, great transgressions against you, there is the temptation: to be angry, to hold resentment, to hold a grudge, to withhold your forgiveness from another, from a group of people, or from a country. But I say unto you, ‘Your eyes will be sealed, until you forgive!’

“Withholding forgiveness takes effort, it is a decision one makes. It does not just happen, that you refuse forgiveness. It is something you think about, speak about, and then do.

“Now, if in your thoughts, you are sitting with God, God will gently say, ‘My child, I will help you forgive this situation, for you must forgive, or you will not know forgiveness yourself.’

“On the other hand, if you are permitting your thoughts to be entertained, or consumed, by darkness or shadow, you will be encouraged: to stay in a state of un-forgiveness; to maintain that you are right, and someone else, or another situation has greatly harmed you, and this someone else, or situation, cannot be forgiven by you. If you have convinced yourself of this, then you must know, you were not sitting with God! You have walked into shadow, and the longer you hold yourself in a state where you will not forgive, the cloak of darkness is enfolding you, and holding you, in a prison created by you. These seeds that are held in the hand of one who will not forgive, are sown in the heart, and as they grow, they break the heart apart. Therefore, if you cannot forgive, it is difficult to love, with a broken heart. These seeds do not sustain. These seeds break apart, and all things wither in a broken heart.

“It is important to understand the art, and the act, of forgiveness. It is not talked about very much, but it is clear, that for those who will not forgive, forgiveness is something they do not ‘know.’ If you do not forgive another, you have locked yourself in that cell, and you cannot be released, until you have the thoughts of forgiveness, the words of forgiveness, and the actions of forgiveness. What I AM saying to you, is... ‘By refusing to forgive another, you hold that energy within you.’ Stop, and think about it. By cursing another, the curse is within you. It cannot be any other way. You created the energy, therefore it is within you. What energy do you desire to be within you?

“If you take the smallest incident, and sit with Our Father, Our Parent, today, you will find God saying to you, ‘My child, you must forgive in every way. This is a key that will unlock a door, and once it is done, your life is changed forevermore, eternally changed forevermore, because your heart begins to mend, and soon it is healed. And once forgiving is done, the healthy heart begins to love, again.’

“There is a difference between doing something 100%, and doing something 30%, or 60%. To know a little bit of love is nice. To live in the flow of God’s love for you is amazing! It is a glorious life you will lead. But, there is the responsibility, which you must heed. Forgive!

“Begin this week, forgiving those things that you have found difficult to forgive before! Forgive the slights, forgive the words, forgive the deeds. Forgive all things, all transgressions, all debts. All things are to be forgiven! And once this is done... your eyes will see... in a different way!

“Let forgiveness begin with you, and let it begin today!”

August 9, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Create The Tapestry Of Life Upon Earth, As You Live It, Today

“I AM with you! I AM with you; do not be surprised that you feel My presence; for as I walked upon the Earth, I told you it could happen, and would happen; and, if you would open to My presence I would come to you, and be with you, always. Therefore today, in all ways, I AM with you! I hear you, and you can hear Me! Heaven is with you; therefore, live your life, as if you truly ‘know,’ Heaven, upon Earth!

“When you weave the threads of a spiritual practice, and all of the lessons you have learned, into the fiber of your every-day life, you are creating a tapestry of how life upon Earth is meant to be, a tapestry depicting life, as it is meant to be lived: knowing God, walking in peace, delivering love! You are the connector between Heaven and Earth – for those – who do not have this experience! Therefore, it is important for you to deliver the love of God – to those – who do not know God, as they walk upon the Earth!

“Listen to the song of the bird, it continues through the day, calling-out, singing. And it is beautiful. It is a song of life, living upon Earth. The bird is creating a tapestry, depicting its life upon Earth, and you are sharing in that life.

“Walk through a meadow, and look at the flowers, the flowers that are springing-up all around, not by the planting, and the plan, of the human hand, but by the hand of God, flowing, and growing, in unison with Mother Earth, seeds moved by The Wind, or dropped by the birds, to rise-up wherever they fall. And it is a tapestry of great beauty. The flowers are creating a tapestry, depicting their life upon Earth, doing, and growing, as they are meant to do, feeling the soil of Mother Earth, moving in the breeze created by The Wind, being nourished by the rain, and sustained by the sun; and, you see the tapestry, of their life upon Earth.

“And it is the same with the rocks, and the trees, and the rivers, and the oceans, and the sands of the deserts, each creating a tapestry of life upon Earth; and, you see it.

“Today, I wish to remind you that you too, are creating a tapestry. Be mindful of the threads you pick, you choose, to weave into your tapestry of today; for, it is yours to create. No one else is going to create this day for you. As you live it, it shall be created!

“Some days seem more appropriate to begin your tapestry than others; and, for many of you today, hearing these words, or reading these words, I whisper softly, ‘Today is the appropriate day to choose the threads you will use to weave into the tapestry of today!’ When given the opportunity, choose love! When given the opportunity, choose: kindness, compassion, understanding. When given the golden opportunity, choose forgiveness, and peace. There is always a choice, and the choice is always yours. Choose wisely. Here, let me hand you the first thread. Let us begin weaving the tapestry of your day, together, right now! I give you a golden thread of love! Set it on the canvas of today, and begin weaving, begin creating the tapestry, depicting life, upon Earth, as it is meant to be, a celebration of the glory of God, with thee!”

August 2, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

See The Unseen, Through Eyes of Faith, and Belief

“I AM with you! As you awaken, I AM with you. As you are willing to accept, and acknowledge, My presence with you, our relationship grows closer, and closer; and that, which I wish to tell you, is accepted by you; and that which you wish to tell Me, is heard with clarity, by Me; and in the exchange, we are One.

“Be still. Feel, and hear, your body breathing. You are exchanging, you are breathing-in, and you are breathing-out, and in this exchange, you are one with Earth.

“Earth is a reflection of eternal life, and those who are awakened, see it, and know it to be so.

“To accept a miracle, you must be willing to see it, and not discount it, using excuses to diminish it, until you have talked it away; and, it is the same, with seeing the unseen realm all around you. First, you must be willing to acknowledge the possibility that Heaven is with you. You must consider the possibility that you can travel as far into the heavens, into the skies above you, as you can go, using whatever craft necessary to make it so, but you will not locate Heaven, in any of those travels. Heaven is around you, and in you; it is not separate from you; it is with you, as are all the dimensions, one stacked neatly on the other, until it is complete, precise, concise, perfection.

“As I walked upon Earth, I was led to those who would follow Me in a special way. I was seeking those who would be willing to acknowledge the possibility, for in acknowledging the possibility, there is a spark of probability, and that spark will start the fire going, and within the fire glowing, the unseen is seen, through eyes of faith! And the eyes of faith, become the eyes of belief, when the unseen is clearly seen!

“I sought this type of individual out, so that the truth would slowly unfold for them, and they would see, and understand, the message I brought, and they would do so, through eyes of faith, and belief would kindle the fire, and a new story of creation would continue from the old, through them.

“If you want to live a life that is filled with miracles, and glory, you must be willing to acknowledge the possibility of something so magnificent, that the learned, the schooled, have a tendency to dismiss it as impossible, while those who are willing to see through eyes of faith, accept and embrace the miracle of eternity, with you now, in the present, with you... now!”

July 26, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

It Is Time For Living, Begin Living, Today

“I AM with you! I move as The Wind. I speak as the breeze. I touch you, and we are one. It is a beautiful existence, living in the spiritual body, having no restraint, or confinement, known as the human body, able to reach-out, beyond, experience all that you are, knowing, in wisdom, you are One.

“Living upon Earth is meant to be ‘exciting,’ it is meant to be ‘an adventure,’ it is meant to be ‘a journey, of a lifetime.’ Some adventurers embrace the journey, and laugh, resisting the temptation to worry. Other travelers are excited by the thought of it, yet daunted by the doing of it. Lend Me your ear, your life is meant to be lived with enthusiasm, praising God for the opportunity to experience the greatest adventure... a life time... upon Earth!

“There was a time, when ‘the people of God,’ those whom were led to know God, were threatened; and it was important that they, as a group, survive! There was much death, upon the Earth. Life upon Earth was not lived, as you live it today. In fact, you would be surprised to go into a home, a dwelling, and find an earthen floor, or find that you had to get your water from a well, or a river, or a stream. Disease could be rampant, because there was no sterile existence; it was living life, amongst all that was around you. Animals were diseased, often. If you ate of the diseased animal, you would get the disease yourself. I point these few things out, because it is important for you to know, that God did speak, and send words; and they were, ‘Do this... Do that... Don’t eat this... Don’t eat that.’ These were protective measures, a survivalist guide, if you will, on how to make it through these difficult times, existing as ‘a group of people, a people dedicated to the glory of God.’ They were tough times. And as a general rule, only the strongest were able to live a full life, for a number of years. But once it was clear that the children of God had survived, had made it through, the direction, and the words, came softer, and gentler, because it was time to live, and there is a difference between surviving, and living.

“I brought the guide to living! Once you make it through a desert, once you make it through a jungle, once you make it over a sea filled with threatening waves, and arrive at a safe place, you are never the same. Because you were threatened, each day is more important, and filled with more life than ever. You live life to the fullest, because you had to survive to enjoy life.

“Now I say, it is time to live; for, those from the past, those who walked before you, did the surviving for you. Now it is time to live, as children of God, fearing nothing, allowing God to love all peoples through you, giving what you have without hesitation, knowing, in faith, that God will take care of you, because that is what God has done, generation, after generation, after generation, sending the direction, sending the guidance, filling the leaders with wisdom. And so you have left the years of survival, and you are living.

“But I tell you, many are falling to the temptations of doubt, and worry, and concern; and they have changed this period of living, into a period of ‘existing.’ And here too, there is a great difference. There is a difference in the quality of life between existing, and living. If you are existing, you hoard this or that, in the event that you might need it, later. You hold onto this and that, in the event it might be necessary to have, later. You exist, in the present, fearful of the future.

“I say to you today, gather your faith, and your trust, as gemstones! Put them in your pockets, and go out into the world, and live! Be the living example, of the words I delivered. If someone insults you, do not join them in the insults, turn the other cheek, and go on your way. Be too focused on living your life to the fullest measure, giving the glory to God, that you do not pay attention to the insults of others. It is time to live, in the light of God!

“I would ask you, as an experiment, to try, one day at a time, because many of you, hearing My words, or reading My words, will say, ‘That is very good to say, almost impossible to do, when you are raising a family, or have a job to go to.’ And I say, it is not! What is necessary to make it possible, is to ‘change your perspective.’ How do you get up every morning? Do you make sure you have had ‘a glory adjustment,’ before you get out of bed, or do you wake-up in a grumpy mood? How do you greet your family every morning? Are you sullen, already thinking about work at the office, or in the home; or, do you greet them with open arms, and a smile? As you make your way to your work, whether it be in the home, or in an office, or in a factory, are you looking forward to being ‘the light of God,’ in those particular places, on that particular day, or are you dreading going to work? If you will make a minor adjustment, changing your perspective, on what it is you are to do, the day will be different for you!

“I AM asking each of you to ‘live,’ give up ‘existing,’ swap it out for ‘living a life of glory,’ no matter where you are, no matter what your situation! It is possible! Do not make excuses. Rise-up, and do it! Begin living, today!”

July 19, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Old Lessons, New Lessons, Enlightenment

“I AM with you! I greet you in this fashion, often, with the intention that some amongst you will hear the words, and believe them. I AM with you. My presence is with you. I AM nearer to you than the one sitting next to you, or standing next to you. I AM nearer than those walking around you. And today, I wish to begin by saying to you, if you are frustrated, confused, feeling anxious, or concerned about this, or that, or the other, you are not in the lap of God. You are not at peace.

“I bring you this message to begin a gentle stream of thought; and the thought is connected with the concept that you must stay in the light of God, or you will experience confusion, and wander in shadow, leading into darkness. And I bring you the words, support, and encouragement to keep you from shadow and darkness, guiding you to the light, for your life is meant to be lived in the light of God.

“God did not send the children to Earth to wander about, trying to figure everything out, gnashing their teeth, and calling-out in despair. This was, and is, not the plan! The plan was for the children to listen: for the words, and the whispers, of God; for the direction, encouragement of the messengers; and then, follow; so your life would be led in the light, and your earthly experience would be one of great joy; for, the joyful have hearts that are filled with the light of God! Their song is sweet, yet known by few.

“I AM going to give you an example today of how the leading, and the teaching, of God, can be one way one day, and one way another. And these lessons are best understood, if you compare them to lessons delivered in a classroom, and let us say that it is an open classroom, with many different grades. As the teacher is imparting the current state of knowledge, teaching of history, and science, and mathematics, literature, and poetry, the lessons are delivered. And those who get the lesson, move on. They go on to learn something else; yet, in wisdom, the teacher knows that (s)he cannot pass a student, from one grade to another, until that student can prove that they know the lesson; for, often, the lesson is the foundation of their future learning. If the foundation is not properly set, or established, you can stack all the knowledge on top of it you want; but eventually, that tower will fall, because of the faulty foundation. So, as some students do not learn the lesson completely, they must stay where they are, until they have a full understanding of the lesson, until they can recite with surety that given two objects, and adding two more objects of like kind, creates a group of four objects. Knowing this, the student can pass the lesson to learn yet another mathematic lesson. Now, having set that stage, having a clear understanding of students in a classroom, passing through, once they learn the lesson, I bring you this.

“God is your Teacher, your Eternal Parent. But the wise Teacher, the loving Parent know, the lessons must be learned, and learned well, before the child is ready to proceed, to move on.

“Most of you are aware, that in the Old Testament, in the old days, the lesson was, stop, do not kill each other. There was another lesson, stop, an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth, but no more. Then many, many, many years later God sends a messenger of love. The messenger does not say, do away with an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. The messenger says, remember that lesson; but now I say to you, turn the other cheek. So, you have generations who followed an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth, and the messenger comes, and brings the new lesson, for those who are ready, turn the other cheek.

“There was a command, do not kill each other. And thousands of years later, the messenger comes, and says, remember, your ancestors were taught, do not kill your brother. I bring the teaching, do not be angry with your brother. These are radical changes. And I was the messenger who delivered the new teachings, turn the other cheek, do not be angry; and, there were many other things. Give what you can. If someone asks you for something, give it to them, and more. The lessons are numerous, but what I want you to see is that there is thought, a flow, in this concept. You bring a teaching, you bring a messenger with a message, to the children of Earth. And, those who hear it, and understand it, move on. Most remain behind. And, most are still trying, and struggling with the concepts, delivered thousands and thousands of years ago. The intention was to bring Earth up, into an ascension, into a resurrection, from the muck and the darkness, into the light and glory, by simply sending a message of hope, a story of the progress of the children of Earth. Pay attention to the lessons of ascension, because they are very different; yet, they must be. You cannot stack one on top of the other, unless you fully know the foundation lesson; then, all of the additional lessons, all of the brick and mortar, are in a straight, well-balanced, line, atop a strong, and sturdy, foundation.

“These things are important; but, it takes desire to work with a lesson, and come to know it. And, as surprising as it might seem, at this time, there are even more enlightened lessons to come, leading you to a new understanding, because turn the other cheek is the old lesson, because not getting angry, and not using the energy of anger against another, is an old lesson; for those who have learned this, they are already in another classroom.

“There will come a day, when those who inhabit Earth live in light, and do not judge at all, because they are living as enlightened beings upon Earth. At this time, you do not know what the new lessons, of the decades, and decades, beyond you, will say, or do. But, one thing you can imagine, is that there will be as much difference between the new lessons, as there was between the old. An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth; new lesson – turn the other cheek. Where will that go? How can there be improvement? Do not kill your brothers; new lesson – do not get angry with your brothers. Where will that go? Can you imagine?”

July 12, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Be The Instrument For The Miracle, And Give The Glory To God

“I AM with you! From the arms of our Eternal Parent, I am compelled to reach-out, and touch any who will listen, who will give Me the time to say, that, which I have come to say; and, in that time you are willing to spare, I promise to lead you out of any despair, into the light of a new day, with understanding, showing you The Way!

“It is important for you to remember something, so that you might accept and embrace something else. You did not arrive upon the Earth accidentally, at all. You were granted the opportunity to perform a task, to lead a mission, to make a correction, to assist in bringing the Earth back to The Garden, it was originally meant to be, a place of exploration, and joy, and sheer delight. And as any explorer, or perhaps better phrased, as any experienced explorer knows, you do not go blindly into a place you do not know, without a map, without a blueprint, without preparation. In the case of those journeying to Earth, the map is held within your soul, the blueprint is written upon your heart by the finger of God, and the directions come at any time you feel lost, or alone, or dismayed; for this is the plan, it is your intention to stay connected with Home Base, while you have the experience of exploration of space.

“The only time the astronauts, who fly amongst the stars, cannot be in touch with home base is when something is wrong, when there is a ‘disconnect.’ And, when everything is cleared-up, fixed, and repaired, they celebrate a clear connection, communication with clarity with home base. And, this is how it is meant to be when you travel to Earth. It is best, when there is communication, with clarity, between you and Home Base.

”I traveled to Earth for the same reason, to complete a mission. In that, we are the same; in fact, we are the same, you, your brothers, your sisters, your friends, your work associates, and Me! We are all, spirit, first; and your spirit is eternal. There is no death, of your spirit. You are created to live forever, having many experiences, but always returning to your eternal existence, your spirit.

“There is a question that has come forth, from the hearts of many of you, and I wish to clear-it-up, not so that I might sound superior, but so you might have superior understanding, divine understanding, of some of the words that were written down in Scriptures that are read by many, and misunderstood, by many.

“The first thing you must do is realize this, everyone has a purpose to exist upon the Earth! And, in your mission, you have The Creator of all things, miraculously ready to guide you, so that your mission might be complete, so that you might feel whole, in the completion of your mission. So, I will, as some of you say, ‘cut to the chase.’ The question is, did I perform miracles, as they are written? No, I did not! I did not do any of those things that are written, the breath of God, within Me, worked the miracles, through Me! The will of God moved Me, and as I stood, of My own freewill, God performed miracles! And as the power of God moved through

Me, to perform these miracles, I was enhanced with The Power of God. I did, as I was moved to do. The great mistake in this question is in asking, '...did Yeshua, did Jesus, perform these miracles?' I tell you, God performed the miracles. It was My mission; therefore, I was moved to the place I was supposed to go, and The Power of God, moved!

"What were the reasons, for these miracles? Why were they performed? Why were so many others performed, and not recorded? And the reason was, that the people needed to see something beyond Me; for those who were willing to see, that they could see God, through Me, through what I did; therefore, I was willing to do this. God said, 'Go, and I will do this, through you!'

"I said often, 'These are not My words. These are not My words, these are the words of our Heavenly Father.' But people would not listen, they attributed the words to Me; but, I can assure you, when I spoke these words, it was God speaking through Me. When I walked to a certain town, and touched a person, crumpled, and unable to move, raising-them-up, it was God raising-them-up, through Me. It is time for the children of Earth to know this clearly, and fully.

"I did not accept the glory, and the responsibility, for speaking to the eternal, living spirit, of a young woman, who was declared dead. God said, 'I will summon forth her spirit, and her spirit will bring her body up.' It was God! Know this, and say it fully, when the question comes up, and I give you permission to do it. It was God, working through the Son of God, to perform these miracles, and I said, clearly, to any who would listen, who would hear Me, 'You too, can do everything I do,' and I added the caveat, '...and you can do even greater things than I AM doing.'

"Do not brush these words aside! Do not shove them over in a corner, and pretend that they were not said; for, this should be your banner! If you believe it, then you 'know,' that your mission, upon Earth, will be completed, as it is meant to be completed, as long as you say, 'God, I am on this mission! Let it all flow through me! That is why I am here!'

"It is easy to be distracted, once you reach Earth; but for those who will focus on the reason for their birth, upon the Earth, the hand of God will move, and it will be miraculous, all your life through!

"You see evidence of The Presence of God, as you read through history, or as you look around every day, and encounter those who say, 'I am on a mission, and I will not be distracted, for God is moving me!' Look at history. There was a very simple woman, whose name was Rosa Parks. God whispered, 'Stand-up, and stay seated.' That was her mission... get to Earth, and when you hear Me, 'Stand-up, by staying seated!' Her taking a stand, by holding her seat, fueled a noble cause! There were some others, a gentleman, Dr. King. His mission was to speak-out, and tell others to sit down. And his actions changed the course of history. It was miraculous. God said, 'It is time, speak.' And God even provided the words for him to speak. There was a young woman, whose life was set, until I came to her, and said, 'Go out. Go into the country of India, and touch the lepers, and the unclean, and love them. Wash their faces with My tears, rolling down your face.' I could continue all day long, about solitary individuals, answering the voice of God, as they stood-up, or sat-down; like Moses, who raised the staff, and led thousands of people. What a miracle! But, it was not Moses, Moses was the instrument in the hand, and the voice, of God. It was God. God moved the woman to take a stand for something; God moved the man to use his voice to deliver something of value; it was, and is, God!

“The presence of God within you will move you, and stir you, to complete your mission, and to perform miracles, when it is the will of God to do so; and, these miracles are not just ‘pomp and circumstance.’ They are delivered at precisely the right time to give others the faith to continue on their mission, knowing Home Base is not something created in the imagination, a fable, a story, a myth, it is real! And the miracles say, ‘Look at this. It is real! Now, rise-up, and walk into the day, fueled with the faith to make your way, along the path.’

“You have met people, who have given you the support, and encouragement to step-out, and do something that you might never have done before, except for their faith that you could do it. You have also encountered those whose energy would dim your ability, would hold you in place, would tell you it is impossible, this mission you intend to do. You encounter many things as you make your way over the Earth. But, as you do so, remember Me saying, ‘Every miracle performed was, and is, the will of God, and when God wills it, it is done!’

“There have been many individuals sent to Earth to create light. Some individuals were sent to Earth to develop a source of light, so that others, one day, might flip a switch, and there would be light. There were some individuals sent to Earth to eliminate certain diseases, and vaccines were developed, and polio was cured, along with many other diseases. These things come from God. And when it is the will of God, even when the scientist is working so hard in a laboratory to complete the mission, it is often necessary, for an accident to occur, and out of the accident, comes the answer. So, have faith in knowing, as long as you are willing to say, ‘God, show me The Way! I am out here in space, You are at Home Base. I will follow!’ This is not passive. This is being a willing accomplice in a journey that you were eager to take.

“Where you are, right now, is one of the most exciting experiences of your eternal existence! For some of you, you waited a very long time, for just ‘the right time,’ to walk upon Earth, so that you might accomplish a mission. Do not be distracted from your mission. Listen! Watch for the signs! Hear the direction, or feel the direction, or know what the guidance is, for that particular day, and take it joyfully with you! For, there will come a day, for each of you, when you will see a miracle, play-out, in front of you! Do not be tricked into thinking it is you, performing the miracle. Celebrate, that you were willing to be the instrument of the miracle, and give the glory to God!”

July 5, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Live In The Present Piece Of Eternity

“I AM with you! I reach-out to touch you. When others might say it is impossible to do, I whisper, ‘I AM here, next to you!’ And in faith, you hear, and believe Me, and we begin, anew. I invite you to walk the miracle mile with Me today, to leave behind all the codes, and the laws, and the demands of the world, to reside with Me, to live, as life is meant to be lived: minute by minute; and each precious minute, building into hour by hour; and each precious hour, building into a day of perfection, a day wherein you were exactly where you were meant to be, every step, along The Way!

“For those of you willing to embrace the idea to live every minute of the day, giving it due respect, ‘knowing,’ it is sacred, realizing the importance of what you are willing to do, I give you this example as you begin, as you start. Having the intention to live, every minute of the day, is much like the solitary traveler, who chooses to hike, to walk a path, instead of driving a car, or other type of vehicle that moves you from one place to another, with speed. The one in the car reaches the destination, with only a glimpse of the glory, they have passed through. The one who has chosen to walk: breathes in the aroma of the flowers; notices the way the sun moves through the trees, and kisses the floor of the forest; feels the breeze moving through their hair; and enjoys the exhilaration of flight, while watching a bird dance on the air! The one who has chosen to walk: knows the pillow of moss on a hillside; rises-up to the glorious announcement of the sunrise; and bows their head, in awe and wonder, at the sacred sweetness of a sunset! These things you miss when you hurry down the road of life upon Earth.

“I invite you to live, minute by minute, with Me today! And you will find that you are setting to memory, upon your heart, the colors of a butterfly, or the sounds of a bee, buzzing in joy, hidden from view, nestled inside of a beautiful flower!

“Do not concern yourself that, if you live in this fashion, you will miss connection with the world, with the ways of man, with laughter, with your brothers and sisters, families and friends, for this is not possible. If you are willing to live each precious minute, you will come to find that you are led, by the hand of God, to be exactly where you are meant to be, to be doing exactly what you are meant to be doing, or hearing, or feeling, or knowing all that you are meant to feel, and hear, and know, because you are moving, in an eternal pattern, designed by you, being fulfilled by you, making a footprint, upon the sands of time!

“When you are willing to live minute, to minute, to minute: if you are meant to be at school, you will be at school, living these minutes; if you are meant to be in an office, you will be in an office, living these minutes; if you are meant to be plowing the Earth, you will be plowing the Earth, living these minutes; if you are meant to be giving birth, you will be giving birth, living minute to minute. Living in this way does not change your mission, or your journey, or your path, it enhances your mission, your journey, your path, and it brings glory, and amazement, and wonder to your experience of each day! And when you live in such a wonderland, you find you are speaking to the flowers, caressing the trees, resting on the grass! You find you are in communion with all of God's creation! In fact, in truth, you find you have finally become united, with all of God's creation, and it is good!

“Come, let us begin to live your life upon the Earth in this new way, beginning this new day, living each minute in the glory, it was meant to be lived!”

June 28, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Live The Dream, Written Upon Your Heart

“I AM with you! Today, I speak to you, matter-of-factly, so that you might grow, in confidence, in how you are living, what you are doing, and where you are going, as you make your way through each and every day.

“Most of you believe that it is your duty, and responsibility, to find a job, and do what you can to make life easier for those you love, and for yourself. A desire to work, in order to provide a good life for others, and yourself, is admirable; however, many of you, whom are either in pursuit of a well-paying job, or have a well-paying job, are finding that working ‘just for the money,’ in order to provide a good life for others, and yourself, can be demanding, thankless, and filled with stress; and this stress, you encounter in well-paying jobs, can often lead to health and mental issues.

“Look around you. For example, take a good look at your peers, your friends, your family members. Now, limit your search, your inquiry, to those you know well enough to be familiar, with how they ‘feel about their job, how much stress they are carrying, and how they are dealing with issues at work, which seem to have an affect their home life.’ It might be a good idea to include yourself in this research as well. Some people, seem to be enjoying ‘the perfect job,’ with little or no stress, living their life in such a way that their loved ones are happy, they are happy, and good health is evident, both physical and mental; but you might find that the number of individuals, falling into this category are few. Most individuals, living in today’s modern society, rampant with multitasking, social media devices, and jobs in stressful work environments, often feel ‘trapped,’ in their apparent good luck, believing they cannot give-up the high paying job, for something less stressful. This is just not so! It is rather as if they are riding on a carousel, reaching-out to grab the gold ring, going in circles, hoping to catch what they can, existing on a carousel, rather than living in the garden, all around them.

“If you find that you are living a life which is more akin to existing, rather than living, I would like for you to try this for one week. Make an appointment with yourself to take one hour to set yourself aside from the frantic pace you endure. Then, go to a quiet place, relax, breathe, and be still! If you can manage this one hour away from the life you are currently living, then take it one step further. Examine your heart! Yes, take a look at your heart, and go within. When you were a child, or in your adolescence, or maybe even into your twenties, what did you dream of doing? What was written on your heart to do? Were you dreaming of: writing a play, or a book, or a song; opening an after-school space for children; finding a way to get pure water to places where people had no clean water; teaching adults to read, or to speak another language; or, working with the elderly? What was written on your heart to do? Do you remember?

“This might surprise you, but if you are willing to take the steps necessary to fulfill that dream upon your heart, not only will you find that you have all you need to do so, but you will also find that you are living an abundant life, without stress, in good health, and fulfilling your purpose upon Earth, while taking care of those you love, and feeling confident, in what you are doing! Achieving an abundant life is exactly that simple, when you set your goal to fulfill that which is written upon your heart! This pursuit will bring you peace, contentment, fulfillment, and wealth beyond any you could have imagined before, because you will have all you need to accomplish the goal. Your lifetime upon Earth will be lived in such a way that you are healthy of mind, spirit, and body; and you will have the joy of watching those you love do the same!

“Encourage the young people around you to live from their heart, to be resolute in pursuing their dream, and support them every step of The Way; for, that which is written upon the heart, was written by the hand of God, and when the heart is open to that which was written there, The Way is made clear, the soul sings-out, and the spirit soars into the new day, filled with promise, joy, and contentment!

“Do not seek to exist, working in a job only because it is expected of you, or it pays well, and has benefits. Do not limit yourself to this assembly-line existence. Look into your heart, and open the door to the adventure of your lifetime! Follow your heart into the new day, and your life will be fulfilling, happy, and healthy, and this is the best gift you can give to those you love! An abundant life is following that which was written upon your heart by the hand of God, for, that which God has written shall be accomplished!

“Congratulations; you are blessed; you have the opportunity to live-out the dream God placed upon your heart; and, what you need to accomplish the dream, shall be given unto you; for, it is already written upon your heart. So, let it be.”

June 21, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

On Father's Day: Peace Is Found Within, Sitting With God

“I AM with you! I reach-out to touch you, to speak to you in such a way, that you might ‘know, how to walk in peace,’ every day! It is not a secret, it is not a mystery; however, it is a miracle, that you can establish peace, within your being, sitting with the piece of God that is with you! Let us celebrate this miracle today! It is fitting to do so, to understand that your Eternal Parent sits with you, in a place within you, to establish peace! And it is especially appropriate on a day set aside to honor fathers, in certain countries upon the Earth.

“To enjoy, fully, your life upon the Earth, it is important to: be still; be quiet; take the journey into your being; walk the pathways, and passages, in search of the core of your being, where you will encounter the piece of God that is within you! I can assure each of you, that it is impossible to sit with God within you, without feeling peace! Once you have established peace within your being, it is there, and it is where you go to enjoy peace!

“So many of you, at this time, walking upon Earth, are: seeking peace from others; seeking peace, and contentment, from what you can buy, from the things you can do; seeking to find peace sometimes, in what people say to you, or do for you. This is not how you find peace; for the one who is truly at peace, is at peace no matter what is happening around them. It is already within them. It is embedded within their being. The one who truly knows peace, cannot be rocked: by the ways of the world; by the things of the world; by what they feel they lack; by what they feel they need, but do not have; by what others say, or do; these things cannot rob you of the peace you know within.

“Therefore, My counsel to you this morning, My guidance to you this morning, is to establish peace, within your being; and to do so, you must go to the core of your being, and sit with God. And when you rise-up, and realize you are at peace within, you are healthy, happy, and content, within your being. This, My brothers and sisters, is how you experience happiness, because you cannot count on the people of the world, or the things of the world, or the ways of the world to bring you peace and contentment. In fact, the truth is, you must deliver peace to the people, and the things, of the world; for, as you hold it within you, as you establish it carefully, and nurture it tenderly, everywhere you go, every thought you think, every word you say, or deed you do, will be permeated with peace.

“For those of you today who might feel slightly ‘out of balance,’ wandering here or there, I say to you, when you find yourself in this state, be still, go to the core of your being, and communicate with God; and then, you will ‘know,’ the ways of God, and you will be at peace; for, who can resist peace, when you are sitting with God?”

June 14, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Let Your Words Be Of Hope, Of Love, And Of Light, To Show The Way

“I AM with you! I speak words to you which will lift- you-up; I speak with you to encourage, and support you; I walk with you, as you take your journey upon the Earth, a remarkable experience, treasure it, as such! Do not spend your days moaning, and wringing your hands; do not waste your days, thinking, and pondering, on how difficult your life has been, or appears it will be. Rather, look around, and see, this is your chance, your opportunity, of a lifetime! What are you going to do with it? How are you going to help yourself, and how are you going to help others, as they make their way along the path over the Earth, experiencing a lifetime?

“Most of you hearing these words, or reading these words, have, at one time or another, been the voice of authority. Perhaps it was in a classroom, where you might have been a teacher, or a substitute teacher. Perhaps it was in an office situation, where you were in a management position, or held a leading role in a project. Perhaps it was showing your children how to adjust to the world around them. Perhaps you were a lifeguard, sitting high over the waters, watching for people who might get themselves in trouble, blowing the whistle when someone was close to danger, directing the flow. No matter how it did go, where you might have been, what position you might have held, most of you can relate to having ‘the authority to correct, or to guide, or to show.’

“Many people find themselves in such a role; very few people know how to do so! Now, you can demand, and you can insist; in some roles, you can even make laws that hold great punishment, if someone oversteps the boundaries; you can legislate; you can delegate; you can force others to walk by the rules, to live by the rules, and many times, they do so; but, the best possible way to encourage, and support, people to live their lives, fully, as they walk the pathways of Earth, would be to use words of support, words of encouragement!

“Now, it is very easy to see someone has slipped, and fallen, as you walk along the streets of a city, and encounter a man or a woman, lying in a corner, close to a building. As the world teaches you to judge, you might quickly pronounce, “There is a drunk. There is a drug addict. They have passed-out. They have no control. Look how they are wasting their lives.” And, with those words, you are pushing them further, and further down, deep into recesses of darkness, with no way out. But what would happen, if, rather than pronouncing what appears to be the obvious, you give them hope, you pronounce them ‘a child of God.’ And sometimes this might be the only redeeming quality you can find at that moment. But what a redeeming quality it is! “There is a child of God! And I will help, encourage, and support that child of God.” This is a clear and obvious example, and each of you have encountered situations where it is very easy to cast aspersions, because you see the behavior exhibited so clearly. This is the extreme case, and I believe, by slightly modifying your perspective, you can easily alter your curse, to a blessing, by acting in the love of God, rather than by reacting to what you see.

“It was My experience as I walked upon Earth, that ‘the lesser things,’ are much harder to adjust. It seems easy to tell someone they are lazy, or shiftless, or no good, because they are not doing what you think they would do, that particular day. When a child, who is in your care, acts-out, breaks a glass, tears something, the words fall out of most mouths, too easily, “You are a bad boy;” or, if appropriate, “You are a bad girl.”

“These things need to be addressed, because they are said daily. In the course of a day, a child hears many judgments upon them. And it need not be so, because each time, they could have, just as easily, heard a pronouncement of something they do really well, to lift them out of the place of danger, into a place of confidence, hope, and trust! It only requires a slight change in your perspective. And that perspective has to hold, within it, and place more value on, the feelings of the child, than on the cost of what they just broke. It doesn’t matter if they broke a glass, or dropped a vase, or ripped their clothing. The most important thing is the energy that they feel within them, what is created, within them!

“Thoughts, and words are real things and hold great power; and, often times, the words spoken in judgment are actually cursing that person, with the reality of whatever has just been stated! I speak to you today, in a solemn way, because I would like each of you to think of what you are preparing to say, especially today. And you will be surprised at the number of times that you are “tempted,” to use statements, sentences, or simple words, which are judgments, rather than pronouncements of encouragement and support. And this is what really might surprise you; most of these judgments are delivered with the intention to help, to correct, to modify behavior; but, they do exactly the opposite; they reinforce the very behavior that is judged to be less than desirable.

“Every person around you has attributes that need to be addressed, and announced, held-up over all other energies. Address the light, address the bright, address the gifts held within that person, and bring them forward, and then, the other less desirable characteristics will slip away, because you are not giving them ‘the magnifying force, of your attention,’ you are focusing on the light.

“Spend this day paying attention to the words you say, and let them be words of hope, and support, and encouragement. Come the end of the day, when the sun is setting, and night is opening its arms to embrace, you will go to bed smiling, realizing there is a better way to use the words you want to say, so that they might be ‘of hope, of love, and of light, to show The Way!’”

June 7, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Following The Divine Plan, Living In The Light Of God

“I AM with you! I encourage, and support you. I ask you to stay in the light of God, to stay connected with God, during your time, during your travels, upon Earth, because for most of you, the journey upon Earth takes many, many years, and the world can beat you down, be uncomfortable, bring weariness upon your soul, take the life from you; but, if you will have the faith to stay connected to God, every hour of every day, you will find that whatever comes your way ... is right. It is something for you to do, to strengthen you! And your journey then becomes the testing ground, where you prove the truth in God's statement, for all to see, the promise is: ‘You will have everything you need to accomplish your mission.’ And if you can live in joy, knowing, and believing this, then you are ‘a sign unto the world.’ Have faith, and go forth, the time is now. You are upon Earth for a reason, commit to your mission, and accomplish it, because accomplishment of the mission, reaching your goal, is part of The Divine Plan to restore Earth to The Garden it is meant to be.

“For those of you who are familiar with The Scripture, there is a place, in the new books, that briefly touches on the time that I was in the desert, isolated from humans, talking with God, receiving instruction and direction from God: so that I might know, clearly, the purpose, and the meaning, of the mission; so that I did not wander from here to there, doing what seemed to be the thing to do. I spent days, the record says forty days, isolated, with no food or water; yet, in communion with The Creator of All Life, and I was filled... beyond comprehension! I was filled with answers; I was filled with wisdom; I was encouraged, and supported; and, as My time in the desert was drawing to an end, there came the tempter. And the voice could have been appealing had I not been told by The Creator that I would face this. And so, when I heard the voice, and saw the tempter, I knew; I was ready; I had been prepared, in the days of isolation from the world; for, sitting in the light of God had brought Me truth and wisdom!

“Many of you would say, ‘Well, we read that the temptation was for you to turn the stones into loaves of bread.’ Still more of you might say, ‘Well, what would be so wrong with that, you were hungry? It does not seem to us that you were doing evil. You were performing miracles so that you might eat. Surely, God would want you to do this.’ And I say unto you, that is, exactly, what the evil one was thinking.

“You see, sometimes the world, or people in the world, will distract you, by actually being so clever as to ask you to do things that involve using your gifts, to do this, or that: ‘...make your life better, go here, help that person.’ And I say to you, at this moment, well, what would be so wrong with that? And I pause, to give you a chance to ponder, but quickly provide you with the answer. It is not that there is anything necessarily wrong with it, it just does not fit, into the plan, The Divine Plan. It is not from the direction of God. It comes as direction from another force, pulling you off-track, while tempting you to use your gifts for certain things.

“You have been given gifts to use, so that you might accomplish your mission upon Earth, because it is vital that the children of God populate the Earth, and restore it to the glory it was meant to be. It is important that you do it in the timing that is meant to be. When you use your gifts, from the encouragement, support, and guidance from God, you are doing what you are meant to do, you are going where you are meant to go, and you are speaking the words you are meant to speak. When you are tempted to use your gifts to showcase your talents, your power, then you must not go there, because that is not the reason you hold the gifts, that you have been given, these talents. You are to use the gifts to restore The Garden, for the glory of God!

“This is a lesson for those who are mature in their spiritual growth, you are awakened, and hear the words. Stay in the light of God. Do not be tempted to go here, or there, upon the words of others, because you will surely be pulled off-track, and you will soon turn around, and find that you do not know where you are, you have lost sight of the goal, you have stepped off the path, and you are no longer on the journey you were meant to take.

“The messages have been coming to you for days now... ‘Stay connected with God, and your journey upon Earth will be one of great joy, and happiness, no matter what comes your way. There is purpose, there is meaning, to every situation, and circumstance.

“Today, let it be your intention to live, just this one day, totally in the light of God, distracted from the world by the hand of God, deaf to the noise of the world, because of the voice of God, within you; and you will rise-up, and you will walk out of the desert, into the world, and all things will be illuminated, by the light of God!”

May 31, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
I Will Lead You Where You Need To Go

“I AM with you! And when My presence, within you, becomes something that is very familiar: you will find you are at peace; you will come to know comfort in My presence; and you will find that the world is more tranquil, and serene, than you ever imagined; because I will lead you: out of the chaos; into the valleys; into the meadows; over the oceans; on to the mountains; I will lead you, where you need to go!

“Living in the world today can be very confusing and frustrating, because there are so many, telling you, ‘do this, or do that;’ there are so many encouraging you to, ‘...say this, or read that;’ while others, demand, certain behavior. This can be confusing; it can be frustrating; especially, when the voices, the directions, the demands, are all contradictory, each one saying ‘they know they way.’

“Do not listen to the words of the world; do not try to ‘fit-in,’ with the ways, of the world; resist the temptation to sing the songs, and dance the dances, of the world; because you will find yourself: out-of-step, saying the wrong things; doing the wrong things; all in an attempt to fit in to the pattern, created by the world, for you!

“There is peace in the ways of God, and the ways of God are waiting just for you: they exist, they are, they are eternal, they are every-present, they are with you. All you have to do is be still, and listen, and from within you will feel the stirring. The stirring is as an answer to the prayer, recognizing it is your intention to connect with God. And once that stirring begins within you, you begin to hear, and little by little, you begin to hear, clearly. The words come with clarity. The directions ‘feel right!’

“Do not expect the words you hear, spoken, especially for you, to match ‘exactly,’ the words spoken to another. This mystery, this miracle, of communicating one-on-one, is the perfect plan, it is the Eternal Parent reaching-out the hand, and saying, to each child, ‘Come here, I will help you, and support you in what you are to do.’ And that is, as it should be.

“If you listen to the ways of the world, you will be pulled, and tugged; and find yourself, many times: in the wrong place; saying the wrong things; doing the wrong things; out-of-step with your inner being; trying to march with the drummer, of the world.

“You cannot expect everyone, every individual, each unique person, to have the same direction, any more than you would give the same directions to travelers. Let us say: a gentleman, coming from Tokyo to Seattle, might cross the Pacific Ocean in order to do that; a lady, coming from Indiana, might cross land, but no ocean at all, in her journey to Seattle; and yet another couple, coming from Paris, would find that they would cross over the Atlantic Ocean, and much land, to get to Seattle. The destination is the same, the directions are different, until you approach the point of destination, where they become closer, and closer, and more similar.

“If you follow the directions, given to you by others, you will surely, sometimes, find yourself in the wrong place, carrying the wrong materials, lacking what you really need. But if you will be still, and listen, if you will be quiet, and ask for direction from the hand of God, it will come to you: and you will be directed to gather, when it is time to gather; and you will be directed to speak, when it is time to speak; you will be directed to rise-up, and go, when it is time to rise-up, and go. You might find that while you are gathering, others are going this way, and that. You might find that while you are on your journey, others are speaking. Each ‘direction,’ is different. It is ‘the blue-print, to a perfect world,’ which fits, as it is meant to fit, into a corner of The Kingdom of God, a place that is unique, and wonderful. You are doing this while you are on Earth. You are preparing a piece of Earth, in such a way, that it becomes illuminated, and in the light you see, and recognize, you are in The Kingdom of God! You will know, that God directed you to make it so, and you will sing in joy, and be content, all the days you live upon the Earth, because you are living, as you are meant to live!”

May 24, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Judgment, Forgiveness, And Living The Word Of God

“I AM with you! For any who are willing to embrace My presence, and ‘know,’ I AM with you, you come to the sacred realization that you truly are never alone! I did walk upon the Earth, and I did see, and face all of the things that you see, and face; and, as I did rise-above these things, so too, can you; but the glorious song is, that you do not have to do this alone; for, I AM with you, as your Brother, and together, we will walk the Earth!

“My message is brief. I wish to address, especially, those of you who feel the stirring within, and the calling, to rise-up to show The Way. I have three suggestions for you today. And if you take these quietly into your heart, you will find it easier to start – this ministry, of – showing The Way.

“Number one – Set Aside Judgment! It is a heavy burden. It can often leave a mark. It is a cord around your heart, it is a chain upon your spirit, and it restricts your soul from singing. All things can be shown, when you reach-out, and embrace, those who are lacking, with tears streaming down their face, the arms of forgiveness is just the place to receive the message of God!

“Number two – Forgive All Things! Oh sacred, blessed forgiveness: how glorious it feels; how uplifting it is; it snips the cords; it breaks the chains; it is the balm that soothes the weary soul. Forgiveness!

“Walk the Earth, willing to forgive all things. For those who will do this, for those who will attempt to do this, the lesson is quick, and sweet. Forgiving others relieves you of the weight, of the burden, of the sadness, and sorrow. Forgiveness, it is the gift that is twice blessed, blessing the giver, and the receiver.

“Number three – Live The Word! What is the best way to show how God has touched your heart, how The Spirit has filled you with joy? It is by living the word, more so than speaking the word, because speaking the word can be tricky. If you do not say it exactly, and precisely, to each and every person, they misinterpret, sieving-it in such a way that it fits into their perspective.

“Oh, but when you live the word, there can be no misunderstanding. When you refuse to gossip, or condemn another, all see, and know, you held your tongue! When you are quick to forgive, when others will withhold that, others see, and know, that you truly live the word, you understand, that from the wooden cross there came the words, ‘Father, forgive them,’ and this is how you live! And even when you stumble and fall, as surely as you will, the lesson is not the fall, the lesson is you stand, you rise-up, and you are taller than you were before the fall; because, as you were on your knees, your hands clutching the Earth, there came The Hand to lift-you-up, and you did rise, and this action is not missed by others’ eyes!

“Be The Living Word, and you will show The Way, so others might not be able to say, ‘You speak it, but you do not live it.’

“And with these few words, I AM quiet, so you can hold these words close, and ‘know,’ them! Be led, today, to receive the wisdom of The Holy Spirit, regarding: judgment, forgiveness, and living The Word! Amen!”

May 17, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

The Hand Of God Will Lead You, Where You Would Not Go, Before

“I AM with you! These are not so much words of comfort, as they are words of truth, to be accepted by you. Come the day that you believe, fully, that I AM with you, you will rise-up singing, because you will be living in The Kingdom of God, while you are walking upon Earth!

“I AM truly with you, and I smile, and laugh gently, because, for those of you who are willing to embrace this mystery, this morning, there comes a gate, blown-open, and spiritual gifts flowing into you, carrying you to the gate, through the gate, and onward! Embracing this truth will change your life. It will no longer be something you say to others, or yourself, each day, but something you are living, as you walk along The Way.

“And there comes the question, from many of you, often, ‘How can I do this, how can I live in the world, how can I make the plans, and adjustments, I need to make, in the mundane world, and still live in this flow, that will take me where I need to go? How do I do this, God?’

“And today, I bring you the answer. It is so simple, you will dance with joy, once you receive it, and embrace it. Planning is good. Gathering what you are directed to gather is good. Before you build anything, before you start, or commence, with a great construction project, you must gather. First, you must gather stones, or lumber, or nails, or mud, or concrete. Whatever you are going to be using to construct this edifice needs to be gathered first, or you waste a lot of time doing one portion, then going-out and finding what you need next, then bringing that back, and continuing construction.

“God will work through you, during your everyday life. Gather, plan, according to what God is saying to you. God might say to you, ‘Be happy, do not be sad!’ So, you set your time, in that day, creating blocks of happiness and joy. And these are more concrete, these blocks are more solid than the illusionary bricks and mortar of the world, because as your construction site opens up, the foundation will be laid with whatever you have made. Blocks of joy, and happiness, commitment, trust, faith, hope, all of those things that go into a most glorious foundation will be there. But it is important to remember, as you plan, and gather, and pull together all of the things necessary, that it is the hand of God that will raise-them-up to be what it is meant to be. It is like this in your life. Go out and gather as you are directed; but the hand of God will use what you have gathered, and you will be as the pot, forming in the hands of The Potter. You will be created, for the glory of God, and you will be happy, because you will be fulfilling your purpose: not as a slave to the idea of God; not as a slave to the idea of another person; but a working component in the creation, willing to be as grand as you are meant to be. Know this.

“Be as Noah. He was told to gather, and pull together, and get this, and get that. And when it was time, he was guided on how to put all that he had gathered together, for the creation of the Ark. Think of it. He could not mindlessly wander around, not doing what he was meant to do.

He had to have purpose, and he had to have planning, but he was planning, following the course that God had laid before him.

“If you have gifts as an organizer, a planner, and you are willing to work, and do, you are the perfect material for the hands of God; for the hands of God will work with what you do, and, together, you create a masterpiece. So, do not hesitate to offer everything you do, for the glory of God, and then follow. Use your gifts, use them, because they are needed.

“The last thing I want to say to you might not even seem as if it fits, it might seem that it is a piece of another lesson, or topic, but I assure you, it does fit. I spoke words similar to those which follow to Peter while I was upon Earth, when I was asking him if he loved Me, and he assured Me he did; and I assigned him the task of feeding My sheep, taking care of our brothers and sisters; and he said he would. And it was then, that I uttered words that have puzzled many people, for a long time; because, if you try to apply what you know from the world of man to them, they seem strange; but, I can assure you, they are not, if you think of them ‘spiritually.’ ‘When you are younger, you dress yourself, go where you want to go, and do what you want to do. When you are younger, you live, as you wish to live; but when you grow old, you will stretch-out your arms and another will dress you, and lead you where you would not go.’

“If any of you hearing these words, or reading these words, has a clear understanding of this, you are blessed! For others, I will say... the key to the mystery in this... when you are young, and here you can substitute ‘spiritually immature,’ for ‘young,’ you do what you want to do, without any concern. But when you are ‘old,’ have matured spiritually, you understand, that if you raise-up your arms in prayer, it is God who dresses you, and as the garment slips upon you, and you take The Hand that will lead you, where you otherwise would not go. I said these words, cloaked in mystery, so those who had ears to hear, and could bear it, would ‘know,’ what I was saying. These words were intended to lead you into doing things that you did not even believe possible, before you matured spiritually, before you were willing to hold-up your arms, as a baby, and let Someone Else dress you, slipping on the robes of a mature, spiritual being, and then being led where you would not go. This is faith. This is what it took for Peter to hear Me, and understand that unless he turned over his trust, and belief, to God, and surrendered completely, he could not go-out and do what he needed to do. The hand of God was going to lead him, where he would not go, on his own.

“Therefore, I say, gather as you are directed, plan as you are directed, use the gifts of organization, or any other gift you have been given. And then, take the hand of God, and watch the miracles happen; for once your arms are raised, and the cloak is dropped over your head, you will be led by the hand of God. And the hand of God will lead you, where you would not go, before.”

May 10, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

On Mother's Day: You Are Not Alone, You Are A Child Of God

“I AM with you! This morning, I offer you greetings, and words of celebration to touch the hearts of mothers, and children, everywhere, with love, compassion and understanding, with forgiveness.

“Today, I will speak slowly, My message will be brief. On special days set aside for celebration, of a specific nature, there are always those who feel left-out, or unable, for whatever reason, to join-in the celebration of such days. And, as most of you, hearing these words, or reading these words, are beginning a day set aside to honor mothers, I wish to point-out some things which are not usually mentioned; but their energy fills the room, or the space, or the hearts of individuals, no matter whether they are the mother, or the children. So, let Me get right to the point, as you might say.

“If you are a mother, or a child, enjoying this day, because the relationship has been good in every way, then I dance with you, and I bless you! I say to you, let the celebration begin, and not end with the setting of the sun; for this relationship is good; and, as it should be!

“But today, I want to address, particularly, the mothers and the children caught-up in a relationship which has not been very good, which has been ‘less than perfect,’ which seems to be a paradox to the most simple understanding, the most basic understanding, of mother and child. And I ask you, as I say each of these things, to let your prayer be a blessing, a forgiveness, a releasing with compassion and understanding, for whomever is destined to experience this type of relationship.

“This morning I send My Peace:

To the children, who feel abandoned, or betrayed, or let-down by their earthly mother;

To the mothers, who feel abandoned, or betrayed, or let-down by their earthly children;

To the mothers, who have given their children to others; so that the children might be better cared for;

To the children, who wonder where their mother is, who their mother is, and if they will ever see their mother's eyes;

To the mothers, who fell to the temptation, in exhaustion, and sadness, and did raise their hand to their children; thus injuring themselves, as well as their children;

To the children, who were battered and abused, with very little, or no, understanding, about what happened, and why;

To the mothers, who did not know how to provide the care, and the love, and the proper discipline, for their children, when they were growing-up;

To the children, who were not shown the proper love, and discipline, and nurturing, when they were growing-up;

To the mothers, who did not think they had time to care for the emotional needs of their children, so instead, they substituted gifts of a material nature, in abundance;

To the children, who received everything they wanted, and more; yet lacking the gift of love, and close companionship with their mother.

“If you fall into one of these categories, I ask you today, to be still: to look at the situation, as fleeting and temporary; to see the things that happened in your past, and present, as they are; and then, without judgment, forgive, from your heart; for, your Eternal Parent is ever with you, waiting for you to: sit, and share time; sit, and share stories; sit, and open your heart. You have not been deprived of a Parent, you have been given an opportunity to experience something of Earth! What are you going to do with your opportunity?”

“For those of you who will realize that your Eternal Parent is all that you ever hoped a parent would be, you will rise-up today: feeling great love; feeling blessed; and knowing, you are able to forgive all things; forgiving yourself; and forgiving your earthly mother, if necessary; because, you are not alone! Your Eternal Parent is closer than most earthly parents can ever be, because your Eternal Parent reads your heart, knows your spirit, and loves the song of your soul!

“Therefore, do not say that your relationship with your Parent is lacking; and do not think it, either. Open to the love which is waiting to pour-out onto you, from your Eternal Parent; and use this gift of unending, and unconditional, love to bless your earthly mother, this day. In this Way, all things will be forgiven! You will free, not only yourself, but your mother, as well; and you will rejoice every day, because you are a child of God, and that relationship will never change!”

May 3, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

To Know Peace, And True Freedom, You Must Forgive All Things

“I AM with you! For those of you who feel My presence with you, I ask you to draw even closer to Me, today; for truly, the only purpose I reach-out to touch you, is to remind you, is to say to you, ‘Live to the fullest degree, while you are upon the Earth. Savor, every minute, every hour, until you come Home. Do that which you are meant to do, and be at peace, in the doing of it, satisfied, comfortable, truly at peace!’

“Peace comes from within; and, it is impossible to achieve a state of peace, when there are people, and events: which need forgiving in your life; which need to be resolved, with the intention of complete, and total, forgiveness!

“Most human beings cannot imagine what it would feel like to be free, totally free of the burden of past slights, past serious offenses, all forgiven, in a goal to be free, and to find peace.

“It is recorded that, as I walked upon the Earth, some of the last words I said, to those who loved Me, were, ‘Remember this, whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.’ There is so much information in these words, regarding: the forgiveness of past offenses; the forgiveness of present, immediate, offenses; the forgiveness of any debt, whatsoever; the forgiveness of all trespasses. In these few words you are given a secret, a mystery, and the way to solve it! You are the forgiver! You can carry around past hurts, or grievances, trespasses, or whatever you want to call these offenses; and, until you forgive, they have life, they live, and they live to plague you, to tempt you, to be a burden to you!

“Often times it is necessary to set ego aside to accomplish the goal of forgiveness; but once you begin this task of forgiveness, you find you do not want to stop, because you begin to know the result, you see immediate results, because with every true forgiveness, you feel lighter, you feel better, and you are free of that particular burden. If you do not forgive it, it remains. And where does it remain? It remains in you; and, these spots, these sacks, these boulders ‘clog-up-the-works,’ so to speak, and weigh you down.

“So today, I give you this secret, the key to the mystery. I repeat it, as I have spoken on this topic before: ‘You will not be free, you cannot know peace, until you are willing to set all things aside, and forgive!’ And once you begin, I promise you this, you will then begin laughing! As you forgive, you are joyful! As you forgive, you are drawing closer, and closer, to living in The Kingdom of God, while you are upon the Earth. If there is one thing left unforgiven within you, that one thing is keeping you from the realization of your heritage, ‘knowing you are a child of God, walking upon the Earth, and doing so, completely in the light, of your Eternal Parent!’

“For those of you who are interested in freedom, for those of you who are interested in living in peace, I say, ‘Come, and sit with Me today. I will take your hand, and show you The Way... to forgive... and it shall be done... and you will rise-up... and live!’”

April 26, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Peace Be With You, Today, I Send You Forth To Deliver Peace

“I AM with you! I delight in being with you, and I delight in sharing My peace with you; for it is in peace that you come to understand, and to know. It is in peace that you hear clearly. It is in peace that you learn wisdom.

“When you read holy words, words inspired by The Spirit of God, words that are drawn from the symphony of inspiration, they touch your heart, they fill your spirit, and your soul is comfortable, and at peace. And scattered through-out words of Scripture, you will often read, ‘Peace be with you;’ or, ‘My peace, I give unto you;’ or, ‘Let there be peace.’

“The next time you see statements such as these, be still, and know this, these statements regarding peace, are meant to show you The Way! They are powerful, yet they are sweet. Some words, as they are pronounced, spoken, brought to life, living around you, hold all of the meaning, within the sound, or tone, of them; and it is difficult to find another word, which matches the symphonic tone of the word, ‘Peace.’ It seems to hold all of the elements; it is pleasing to say it; and even more pleasing to hear it. It is said, and repeated, over, and over again, because you cannot give a more precious gift than peace, and a more precious gift cannot be given, unto you, than the gift of peace.

“Even the gift of love can dry-up, and wither, when it must live, or abide, within an atmosphere of chaos, and confusion, and anger. But the gift of love, abiding in an atmosphere of peace, becomes an extraordinary garden, beyond compare. But first, there must be peace.

“If you are at peace within, then you hear what is being said to you, with great clarity, because you are hearing it in a state of peace, with no intention to disrupt your peace. When you are in the state of peace, you hear the whispers of God, because there is no competition, no angry words, no shouts of confusion and chaos, within you... only peace.

“‘Peace be with you.’ You hear these words often. You do not find phrases that say, ‘A new car be with you.’ ‘A new house be with you.’ ‘More money in the bank be with you.’ You do not often even hear, ‘Health be with you,’ or, ‘Happiness be with you,’ because, in truth, none of these things can take form, unless you are at peace. This is why I repeated expressions of peace often, as I walked upon the Earth, and this is why I repeat it, over and over, now, in the present piece of eternity.

“Peace be with you! Say it, live in it, nurture peace, within you. Make it a point not to focus on something going on around you that is disruptive. Put your energy in focusing on the garden of peace, which God intends for you to grow-up, within you. You have the tools, you have the seed, you have the soil. You have all you need to live in peace. And once this garden is growing, you will hear the whisper of God. You will know the whisper of God. You will be filled with the joy, and the wisdom, of The Holy Spirit of God. And you will live forever in the garden of peace.

“Peace be with you. My peace I give unto you. As God sent Me to Earth to deliver peace, I send you forth, today, to deliver peace unto the Earth!”

April 19, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Resolve All Matters In The Lap Of God

“I AM with you! Feel My presence, hear Me, and allow Me to reach-out, and touch thee, for I AM truly with thee. I AM with thee in the way that matters most. I love you, and I support you while you journey upon the Earth, going where you must go, seeing what you must see, doing what you are intended to do. Through all things, and in all ways, I AM with you!

“There are so many individuals wrapped within the prisons of: worry, and concern, and anxiety, and fear; of isolation, and desolation. How can you help one who is imprisoned in these energies, these shadowy, dark energies? I say unto you, no matter whether you are the trapped one, or the one seeking to free the trapped one, you must know this, to free yourself, or to free another... ‘The Way to freedom is found in the lap of God!’

“Worry, and concern, and frustration, and anxiety are energies which, when used, prolong the experience, magnify the intensity of the experience, and actually create the opposite, or adverse, effect, than one had hoped for, or prayed for.

“I bring you a solution today which will resolve every issue, every matter, in the correct way. Face each challenge, ‘knowing,’ that it is ‘an opportunity!’ Very few individuals upon the Earth do this. They see the challenge as something difficult, awful, filled with misery, when, in reality, it is the opportunity to show your faith, to live what you say, in every way, every day!

“When you are not caught-up in the experience, when all seems right in your world, you are quick to tell others, ‘Give it to God, and go about that which you need to do. God will resolve it. Give it to God.’ And these are words of wisdom; but, when you are wandering in darkness, in the valley of shadows, this wisdom is locked away. You do not know it, because you have put yourself right in the middle of problems, issues which you feel cannot be resolved, you have wrapped yourself in the cloak of worry, concern, and anxiety; and, that is all you feel. The only way to help yourself, or to help another, is as God does. You say this, ‘I am with you! I will stand by you. I will walk with you. And when you are through this particular valley, we will climb-up on the mountain, and sing; and it will be beautiful, and you will be the wiser, for the opportunity that was presented to you!’

“You see, most of the time, individuals upon Earth want to avoid that which is sent to them to bring them confidence, to strengthen their faith in God. Today I could list twenty to one hundred matters and issues which baffle, and befuddle individuals, as they make their way, through their journey upon Earth. But in reality, it really doesn't matter what the challenges are, what the opportunities are. The most important thing is to realize that God is with you, and to see the opportunity, rather than the great challenge, the great curse, and attend to it! It doesn't matter whether it is issues of the heart, matters of the mind, or the frustration of finance. When you come to the end of the day, they are all the same, the smallest can seem the grandest, and the grandest can seem the smallest. It is a matter of faith, and there is no turning your head from that. When you must face something, anything, be still, and turn your face toward the light of God, and walk into that light, and sit quietly, realizing that no matter what the temptation might be, it is, in reality, a temptation to distract you from the presence of God with you. And that is all you need to know. When things seem a little dark, when the beauty of Earth seems to be cloaked in shadow, turn your face to God, and with purpose, and intention, walk into the light of God. Do not be distracted; sit with God; and God will whisper to you, and; in the lap of God you will find confidence, and understanding, and wisdom, as to what you are to do. And from that position in the lap of God, sitting in the flowing river of God's love, and light, and peace, you will rise-up, and walk, eager to do that which you are meant to do, and move on! It is positive, and it is filled with light.

“The answer will come from God, and God will lead you right to the heart of the issue, the matter, and will point to the opportunity, and say, ‘Look, see, I will show you The Way, and wisdom will be yours every day, for this is yours to accomplish.’ And if God does this, if God speaks to you this way, if God takes care of the issues and matters for God's children in this way, you must remember to do the same. It is not important that you try to resolve the matter for the person. What matters is that your presence is a loving presence, giving confidence to the one who must walk into the situation, and move through it. Confidence comes from a loving atmosphere. Confidence comes from knowing there are those around you who will support you. And then, all things which seem to be the source of worry, and concern, and anxiety become the opportunities they are meant to be, and they melt away, in the light of God, your Heavenly and Eternal Parent. Do not be tricked, or fooled, or tempted to believe that there are other things that you can do which will make it better. What will resolve the issue, or matter, is to sit with God, receive the answer, and rise-up in confidence to seize the opportunity, and grow in wisdom, in this Way.”

April 12, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Cast Away Doubt, Look For The Signs, And Take The Hand Of God

“I AM with you! I AM with you as you listen to the song of the birds, as you see the beautiful light of the fresh morning, as you begin another piece of your journey upon the Earth, as you continue ‘your, creation story!’

“Each new day is not ‘just another day.’ Each new day is a miraculous way for you to create that which you wish to create: to create a brighter, better world; to create a new song; to create a place, an environment, which is filled with the light of God; to create love, where there once was doubt, and confusion, and frustration; and you can do these things; and these things which you do will change the world, for the better, or for the worse; but it is time for you to understand, that ‘the changes you make,’ begin, within you, in your heart, and soul, and spirit!

“If you wake-up one morning, and you decide that the glory of God is going to shine through you that day, and you will carry peace where ‘ere you go, that is what you will do! And because of your intention, and your willingness to do so, the world is changed. It cannot be, any other way. You cannot carry this type of golden energy, delivering it everywhere you go, and not make a difference, for the good.

“You have a mission; yet, you are not alone in your mission. So, I come to you today to encourage you. Once you have made the decision, once you have set the course, to accept your mission, and go forth, then you must ‘open your eyes, and all your senses,’ so that you can see ‘the signs,’ which will be sent, for you! The signs will be all around you: they might come from the lips of another; you might read them on a billboard, driving down a highway; you might see them on the pages of a book; or, you might look-up, and just see a sign, flashing before you, in the ordinary course of the day.

“When you are living in this Way, it is important for you to know, that it is miraculous! When you ready, and willing, to read the signs, which are sent to guide you, you soon become aware, that it is the hand of God, moving the things of the world, to show you The Way! This is extraordinary; yet, it is ‘the average day,’ amongst those who are willing to open their eyes, and read the signs!

“Signs, and dreams, and visions come to you in many ways, but they are all meant to be encouragement, supporting you, as you go forth: to complete a quest, to finish the mission, to follow a dream, before you go Home!

“The signs, and dreams, and visions point The Way, showing that what ‘you thought was impossible to do,’ yesterday, you are doing, today; and usually, it is because you followed the signs, and the dreams, and the visions, all along The Way, one step, following the other, moving in peace, watching for the signs, accepting the signs, and accomplishing miracles!

“My message to you today is this, spend the coming days, this week, willing to look, and see, being quick to cast-out the doubt, being willing to say, ‘This is a sign, this is a guidepost,’ rather than saying, ‘Wow, that was really a coincidence.’ Take what comes to you as ‘a sign of guidance,’ regarding what you are to do, and then, do it! Act upon the signs! Your life will change, everything will seem to fall into place; and, no matter what comes to you, you will see, very quickly, that it is yours to do, so you can move to the next space, to the next time, to the next day, when creation is yours, again. Over, and over, and over, it comes to you, a new day of creation! And now, as My words come to you, a new day comes to you! Create a day of miracles! Look for the signs! Trust them as guidance! Throw away your doubt, and take the hand of God!”

April 5, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Arise, And Awaken, For The Time Has Come

“I AM with you! I AM with you today to encourage you, to reach-out and touch you, in a most sacred way, to speak to you, and say, ‘I know. I know.’ Arise, and awaken, for the time has come, and you are ready. The sign, that you are willing to hear Me, is the answer. You are ready!

“You are no longer bound to what you thought, and said, and did, yesterday! You have arisen today, to a new day! It is a miracle, it is God’s creation, continuing, through you! Every single day you have the opportunity to rise-up, and say, ‘Thy will be done, today!’

“I know you! I know the things you face upon Earth. There is no question that I understand your challenges; but I AM here today to say to you, ‘Awaken, and seize the opportunity that has been given unto you.’ I did.

“I was sent to fulfil the things of the old, in such a way, that as I walked upon the Earth, completing The Covenant, those who would hear Me, and see Me, and know Me, did hear Me, did see Me, did know Me! Those, who were ready, did recognize Me: because it was their time; because they were watching; and because they were watching, they saw the sign! I did not have to shout-it-out, but it was mine to live-it-out, to run the course, to complete the mission. As I was ‘the sign,’ of the fulfilment of a Covenant, a promise, that which had been prophesied, you too are ‘a sign!’ You might not think of yourself as a sign to others, but you are. In the way you think, and the words you speak, and the things you do, you are a sign to others. They know you, by these things; for they cannot see your heart, they cannot read your soul; but I tell you this: ‘Your spirit can speak to all, whom you meet, and it is done by what you think, and say, and the deeds you do, everyday!’

“Let this day be a day of celebration of your resurrection, your rising-up, your coming to know your mission! And, as you go about completing your mission, let all others ‘know,’ who you are, let them see the sign that God is with them, through what you do! Bring forth this new day of resurrection, and let it be, within you. Let the Earth celebrate the signs you speak, the signs you do; for, in this Way, every day, I will be resurrected with you!

“Look, stretched before you, there is a path, and it is big enough for two. Let us go forth into this new day. As you have arisen, I AM rising-up, with you! The day is beginning, it is fresh, it is new, and so, My brother, My sister, so are you!”

March 29, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

What Will You Do With This Gift Of This Day?

“I AM with you! Draw nearer to Me, for I reach-out to you, so that you might know, and have strength, and find these things in Me. I reach-out to you today to say, remember, you are never alone. You are as the astronaut on a mission of discovery, and we, who encourage you, are speaking to you, and connected to you, from Home Base, from Mission Control. We will not let you go. We are connected, and as one. Find your faith in knowing, we are, truly, One!

“When at long last, you discover your connection is complete, that you are walking upon the Earth with you head literally in the clouds, you are so attune to the will of God, to My whisper, and to the guidance of The Holy Spirit, that you set your foot firmly on the path, and walk it, without care, because, in faith, you ‘know,’ we are there, with you every day, all along The Way.

“This is different from the ways of the world, for one day it appears the world is holding you up, speaking your name in praise, celebrating your victories; and the next day, the world seems to be pushing you down, gloom all around, no one notices what you have done, and the shadows, and the darkness seem to hide the light of the sun. It is a lonely, and desolate, place, when the world turns from you, when the world hides its face from you; but that is the world, and it is not The Kingdom of God, for The Kingdom of God is within you! The Kingdom of God does not say, ‘Good job,’ one day, and push you aside another.

“When you make the connection complete, you will celebrate, and know, no matter where you go, you carry The Kingdom of God with you! And once this is set within you, once this knowing is complete, within you, you realize that every day that comes to you is a piece of your mission, it is something that is yours to do. And then, accepting this, the dawning is even more expansive, when you know that you are creating every day, you experience. No matter what happens around you, your actions create your destiny of the day. Therefore, each day upon Earth is to be celebrated, in its own unique way; because each day holds victory, and success; each day is there to teach you. And when you begin to know this, you begin to live, residing, for a while, in the world of man, but walking through it, hand-in-hand, with God!

“Each new day is rather like a cook... in a kitchen... who is given only a few ingredients, and told, ‘Here, create with this;’ or, much like a carpenter... who is given a bit of lumber... and told, ‘Here, create with this.’ At some point, there are some, who are in the place of the cook, or the carpenter, who will look at the ingredients, or the amount of lumber, and the lacking of this, or that, or the other, and say, ‘This is impossible. I cannot do this today.’ And they will stop, and they will either sit, or run away; because they feel they do not have what they need to complete a meal, or build a bridge to the other side of the river.

“I AM here to tell you, that, if you have been given the gift of the day, then, you have been given ‘all you need,’ to create what you are to create from the day. For some of you, the ingredients might be many; for some of you only three or four; yet, the ingredients, and that stack of lumber and nails, if you are the carpenter, is exactly what you need, selected for your unique purpose! And for each child of God, the ingredients, or the stack of lumber, might be different, as you are different; you are uniquely a piece of the one; and this day is yours to celebrate, to celebrate from the rising of the sun, to the setting of the sun, until it is done.

“I ask you to begin to see each day as the gift it is! It is a clean slate. It is an empty canvas. It is a vase, waiting to hold the arrangement of flowers. It is your heart, waiting to open to all of the possibilities. It is your hands, picking-up a piece of lumber, and in faith, beginning to build a bridge across the river. It is your hands, accepting the ingredients, and beginning to bake, in faith and confidence, knowing that you will be guided, and the gift will be of your making, and baking, and loving. You have been given the gift, walk into the day, as it is yours, and create a gift that is uniquely yours! All eternity awaits to see what you will do, with this gift, of this day!”

March 22, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Do Not Judge Another, Or A Particular Situation

“I AM with you! I bring you peace. I come to speak with you this day, to ask you to take My hand, and let Me show you The Way. Walk with Me along the path, toward a life ‘free of judgment,’ for judgment pulls you into energy that you would resist, that you do not want; yet, find you are awash in it, the moment you judge another for it!

“Today My message is simple, brief, and to the point... How do you live in the world, today, which is rampant with chaos, and frustration, and confusion, anger, and hatred? Hear Me, so you know The Way...

“Do not judge another, or a particular situation.

“Refuse to give your energy to one who is accusing you.

“Maintain your connection with God, at all times, speaking to your Creator in such a way that you drown out the chaos, and confusion, the cacophony of anger, and mistrust, blaring around you.

“Seek first to know peace.

“When you seek first to know peace, you find that forgiveness is vital to the environment of peace.

“Do not judge; for every time you do, no matter how minor the thought might be, you are pulled into the energy of that which you are judging. It seems strange to know that all of a sudden you become part of that which you would reject, of that which you are attempting to stop; and you become part of it, by judging it.

“There are those who will reject My words, because they cannot accept My words, because they wish to hold-on-to the ways of judgment, believing, no matter how misguided their thoughts might be, that it is their responsibility to stand-up, and judge, that which they believe is wrong, is an injustice, or is mean-spirited.

“The only way to overcome hatred, anxiety, frustration, confusion, chaos even, is for each one to hold their connection with The Dimension of Perfection. Now imagine, if you, and all around you, are concentrating on your connection with God, rather than taking part in the petty differences going on around you! You see what will happen, don't you? You will be creating this energy of light, and the more who are willing to do this, the more light is created. You overcome shadow and darkness by creating light, in peace; for pretty soon, the day will come, when those who are willing to be the pillars of light, the pillars connecting Heaven and Earth, will arise, and stand in peace; and, on that day, all shadow and darkness will be swept away; but it will not be done by angry confrontations, or aggression, no skirmishes or battles will need to be fought; for, the peace on Earth will be born in the thought of every man, woman, and child willing to be still, and know, I AM!"

March 15, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Do Not Neglect The Bodies You Have Been Given

“I AM with you! Do not be surprised that I say this, or that you actually feel My presence with you. The Dimension of Perfection, most often referred to as Heaven, is far greater than you can now imagine; still, you are able to connect with this vast realm, at any time, from any place, because it is your eternal, spiritual Home; and since you come from an eternal, spiritual Home, you are spirit. Your spirit body comes before your physical body. You are spirit, first and eternally. You are in physical form, for a while.

“If you can accept that you come from the spiritual realm, and are actually an eternal citizen of Heaven, The Dimension of Perfection, then you need to begin to form an understanding of the importance of your spiritual body; for... it is real... and eternal!

“Your physical body... descends from your mother and father, carrying the DNA, marking your heritage, of your physical nature. Your spiritual body... descends from your Eternal Parent, carrying the DNA, marking your heritage, of your spiritual nature. It is that simple.

“Most of you take care of your physical body; you brush your teeth, and go to a dentist; you have your eyes checked, and often buy glasses so you can see, better; you have your hearing checked, and often buy hearing aids, so you can hear, better; you exercise, and try to eat foods which will contribute to your general health and wellbeing; you have regular check-ups, with your doctor, or internist, so your body can function at its best; and, you do all these things to make sure that your physical body is in good shape. My questions is, ‘What are you doing to make sure that your spiritual body is in good shape?’

“Your physical body is created to last about eighty to ninety years, if it is well taken care of. Your spiritual body is created to last forever. It will not die. It will not pass away. Your spiritual body is directly connected to your physical body, and this connection can bring you a lifetime of great joy and happiness.

“Take some time this week: to brush the debris from every crack and crevice of your spiritual body; check the eyes of your soul, to make sure they are not seeing with judgment; check the ears of your soul to make sure that you are listening to the Word of God; exercise the muscles of forgiveness, understanding, patience, and compassion; and only take into your body, that which is filled with the light of God! Do not dwell on negative thoughts; rather, create a mental garden of all that is good, and pure, and forgiving, a garden flowering with love!

“When your spiritual body is tended, and flowering, your physical body will follow. Do not neglect the bodies you have been given; for, they are yours, to fulfill your promise, your destiny, your present, and your eternity. Use them both, well!”

March 8, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Rethink Your Ideas Of My Meaning In Saying “You Can Do All That I Have Been Doing”

“I AM with you! I came to Earth, as you did. I lived upon Earth, as you do. I worked, and I played, and I sang, and I danced, and I prayed, just as you do. And now, I AM here with you, in Spirit, to lead you into a new way of living, and working, and playing, and praying. I AM here with you. I AM here to tell you, and to reassure you, that you can do all, that I did do.

“Most of the time, when people read or hear the words attributed to Me regarding My statement that ‘you can do all that I have been doing, and even greater things,’ they believe it has mostly to do with: miraculous events, miracles of healing, miracles of feeding thousands with a few fish, miracles and signs of great feats; but, I tell you today, that mostly it had to do with living, day-to-day, living in the light, and for the glory of God!

“Today, I ask you to rethink your idea, of what was meant by those words. Today I ask you to understand, that I was mainly speaking about day-to-day life; and, if you will look at the opportunities you have every day in your lifetime upon Earth, you will see, that you have the opportunity to: feed the hungry; cloth the naked; bless those who are poor; give shelter to the homeless; dry the tears of those who are crying-out; pray for those who hate you, insult you, and persecute you; be generous to all lengths, be loving, and forgiving to all measures, and then do more!

“Do these things, which I did do, and then, greater miracles will surely follow you, because you have brought The Kingdom of God onto the Earth; and, wherein God resides, miracles abide!”

March 1, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Let Your Life On Earth Be A Continuous Miracle Of God's Love

“I AM with you! Miracle of miracles, I AM with you, and you feel My presence, you ‘know,’ I AM with you, and it is in a most intimate way, that we are One, in this union. Our communion cannot be denied, when we wish it to be so; no barriers, or limitations, can restrict the truth that we can communicate, with each other, and feel the presence, of each other, and in so doing, form a bond, which reaches, far beyond, the boundaries of Earth. Miracles are an everyday occurrence, when communication between the dimensions of Heaven and Earth is so complete, so sweet, so tender, so powerful, so right!

“Be vigilant, and protect that part of you, which is willing to cross the line, into a place that is divine, a place where we meet, and you come to ‘know,’ beyond anything you have ever known before! Be vigilant, accept, and behold, the beauty, and the unity, of your heritage, as a child of God. That is who you are! You are a child of God, on a mission upon Earth. And, since you are upon Earth, distractions are plentiful, and often powerful, tempting you to look this way, or go that way. I know, because as I walked the Earth, I found it to be so. Be still, be strong, and be vigilant!

“Earth is so amazing, and wonderful! She is a most magnificent creation. I love Earth! I love the way Earth smells in the springtime. I love the way the air is crisp and tingling in the snows and iciness of winter. I love the lush colors of summer, and the richness of the mosaics of fall. Still, with all of the wonders, Earth can be a bit tricky, a bit challenging to navigate, without losing your way.

“As I know Earth, I know, and understand, the people of Earth. I know the feelings, the longings, the desires, and I know the noble thoughts, and words, and deeds. But I also know, the doubt, which can fall as a plague, upon the unsuspecting.

“When I first began My ministry, I spoke to many people of love, forgiveness, generosity, the presence of God, and The Kingdom of God, with each one. For the most part, the people heard Me, and most did like, what they heard. The words fit, filling-in missing pieces of the puzzle; however, what really caught their attention, were the miracles. They often missed the words, the message; but they could not miss the miracle performed before their eyes, and slowly, they began to believe in Me! Still, it was very clear to Me, that they would not have followed Me, but for the miracles, but for the signs.

“They missed the miracle of My birth, they missed the miracle of the Word, they missed the miracle of life upon Earth, and they missed the miracle of God's presence, with them, each day. What they wanted, in order to believe in Me, was for Me to perform miracles, and signs! I knew this. I knew them.

“I know, and understand, the trappings of spirit, living as human. So, I say unto you... ‘Let the miracle you seek... be the life, you live daily, upon Earth! Let the miracle of your thoughts... be, that you can speak with God, and God will answer you! Let the miracle of your words... be, that The Holy Spirit will speak the words for you to learn, and grow in wisdom, and speak it! Let the miracle of your actions... be, that you choose service to others, over having others be servants to your needs, and desires! And when the miracles come... which will cure the sick, feed the hungry, give sight to the blind, and lift the cripple to walk, let them be a sign... unto the glory of God! This was, and remains, the reason for miraculous deeds; so that all might ‘know, the power, and the glory, of God!’ I performed miracles, so that others might know the power, and the glory, of God, through Me. And, you, My brothers and sisters, can do the same!

“This day, let it be your intention that the power, and the glory of God is known by others, through you, through your thoughts, and through your words, and through, all that you do; let your life be a continuous miracle of God’s love upon Earth through you!”

February 22, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Have Faith, Place Confidence, And Find Courage, In God

“I AM with you. I come to you, completely. I AM always available. And for those who believe, our conversations are often, and sweet, sometimes long; they are complete, in the communion, between you and Me; for, if you are willing to speak to Me, and hear Me, this is what happens. As a result of your faith, and your trust, you have confidence, knowing I AM with you, and that confidence gives you courage, beyond what you could muster from the world of man; for I AM with you, we walk hand-in-hand!

“It is important for you to place your confidence, in God; for that is where it should be. God should be the source of your confidence. And when God is the source of your confidence, you have courage to do that, which is meant for you to do. And this courage stems from the confidence that you can do it. How could there be any doubt, when God is with you?

“For those who base their confidence on the things they have learned in the world of man, there is always the temptation to believe that you can handle anything, you can do it on your own; but the truth is, the confidence that is based in the teachings, and the learnings from the world created by man, can fail, at times.

“The greatest actor you can imagine can walk upon the stage, and forget the words entirely; standing, lifeless, maybe a thousand eyes peering upon them, but no word comes out; and their confidence is drained; and they are fearful to walk upon the stage again.

“For the doctor, or the lawyer, or the accountant, or the plumber, or the carpenter, this is possible as well. You can base your confidence on what you are able to do; but when that one moment happens to you, when you do not have the answer, when your hands cannot find the way, confidence slips from you, it crumbles, and you are left standing with no answer, and all things draining from you.

“If your confidence is placed in God, you will know, without hesitation, that no matter what is coming to you, it is yours to do, and you find the courage to say, ‘This has come to me today; therefore, God will show me The Way!’ Sometimes, when others would practice what to say, rehearse a speech, those who have confidence in God, know the words will come their way, if they have confidence, and courage, in God. You do not have to practice, you do not have to worry, you do not have to hurry. When the hand of God is moving you, you will know exactly what to do.

“This requires faith. First, you must have faith. Then, you must have confidence, that God will lead you, in every way. And in this confidence you will find the courage to say, ‘Thy will be done,’ and move through the day. It is a most beautiful way to spend your life upon Earth. It is freedom, in practice. It is living within the freedom of God.

“The most skilled carpenter, or surgeon, or lawyer, or actor, or artist in any way, will often stumble, over a situation, or an occurrence, in a particular day. But if they mingle that which they know, from working and striving, with a confidence in God, then their courage will rise above any limitation, any boundary, and they will show The Way. No matter what you know, no matter how well you have been trained, all of this will be enhanced, if you will hand the reign, over to God, whispering each morning, ‘Thy will be done,’ and in that faith finding confidence and courage to step-out into the world.

“And the rising sun will lead thee, as it makes its way over the sky, and you will follow it, until the day is done, and the sun is setting. And God will say, ‘Well done, My daughter, well done, My son,’ for there is absolutely nothing, that you cannot do, when you have the faith to let God work, it all, through you!”

February 15, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Take My Hand, I Will Show You The Way

“I AM with you. I ask you to remember this, I AM with you. You are not alone. You have not been sent from your Eternal Home, to journey upon the Earth, to be alone. I AM with you, as are those who guide you. And if you will stay connected, and call upon Me, your mission will be one of great surprise, and delight, and it will be confidence that will be the light, which leads you on. How could it be any other way, once you remember who you are, that God is your Father, your Mother, your Parent? And the angels who ministered unto Me, while I was upon the Earth, are waiting to do the same for you. You cannot fail. But first, you must remember, who you are!

“It is important also, to remember the lessons you have been taught, from the lap of your: mother, or father; or possibly, grandmother, or grandfather; or aunt, or uncle; or even brother, or sister. You are taught to hold hands, when you go-out walking; so you do not get separated, when you become distracted, by the things of the world: cars whizzing by; people calling to you; bright lights shining from buildings here and there; you are taught as a child that just looking, and wandering through these things can be a distraction, and sometimes you can get lost in the distraction; therefore, it is good to hold hands when you go into the world!

“As a child you are taught: do not run into the street, or the highway; you must stop, and focus, pay attention; check to see if cars are coming this way, and that way; to be observant of what is happening, all around you, before you step-out into the thoroughfare, to make your way to another place across the street.

“Just these two things, these very basic things, that you were taught as a child, can be the starting point, for how you, as an adult, are meant to make your way into, and through, the world of man.

“Before you go-out into the world, make sure you are holding hands with God, with Me, with The Holy Spirit, with the angels, all about you; so that you do not get lost in the distractions of the world created by man; for, in this way, holding our hands will assure you safe passage, through the distractions, on to where you are meant to go. Yes, it is a rule that is taught to children, and they use it on the playground, they use it on their day excursions, they use it when they are leaving the safety of the school house, or the home, to go-out into the world to roam a bit.

“It is not meant only for children of Earth; it is a good lesson for the children of God. Do not wander into the world created by man, without holding hands; for it is easy to be distracted, and to get lost, to lose your way.

“And what about the lesson about looking both ways, before you cross the street? This is not merely for children growing-up upon the Earth either. Take this lesson into your every day schedule, mark it on your calendar, 'Do not cross the street before looking both ways, and then proceed, only, when it is clear.'

"It should be easy to remember, because it is something you did here as a child; yet it also applies to the children of God upon Earth, even though they have grown to be thirty, or forty, or fifty, or one hundred. Do not wander about without focus, without attention. Pay attention to where you are going, and do not step-out into thoroughfares, or streets, or avenues, without looking both ways.

"I pause... to let that settle within you... because I want you to envision that a street, or a thoroughfare, or an avenue, is the divide between one place, and another, where you are standing, and that point which is waiting for you on the other side. Make sure it is safe to cross the divide. It is up to you to be observant, in everything you do. Pay attention, and when it is clear, make your passing. And it is always safer to do, when we are holding hands.

"I ask you to take these two lessons into your adult week. We are all waiting for you to speak, inviting us to come with you, to walk with you, into the day, to take your hand, and guide you as you walk upon the Earth. We are waiting. All you have to do is say, 'Will you come with me today?' And off we will go! We will walk you through the distracting places, and you will 'know,' we are with you, you will feel us, you will know The Presence, and you will stay on course! And when you come to a divide, a marker, a place you must cross to get to the other side, we will be holding your hand, and saying to you, 'Look both ways, and when the passage is clear, we are coming with you, across the divide, to the other side!'

"I AM with you, angels surround you, God's hand is over you, and The Holy Spirit flies above. It is time to go-out into the day, carrying love... to those of Earth... not distracted in any way, knowing who you are, ready to make your way. Take My hand, and off we go!

"The day is set before, and it is a day of great exploration. It is important for you to remember that this day has never occurred before; therefore, what you are creating is new. It is your opportunity to bring forth, from within you, a great gift, and bestow it upon the Earth! It is time to create a new day. Take My hand, I will show you The Way!"

February 8, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Listen, And Bless Them With Compassion

“I AM with you. I AM with you: in the rising of the sun, in the promise of a new day, in the song of the birds, in the aroma and the scent of the flowers, in the swaying of the branches of the trees, in the flowing of the river, in the gentle touch, of the breeze. I AM with you!

“Who amongst you, considers, throughout the course of an ordinary day, the gift of compassion? It probably never crosses your mind, unless you are the one in-need of compassion and understanding, and then, as the one in-need, you soon learn that very few are even interested in this magnificent gift.

COMPASSION

“In the busy world, created by man, you do not hear the word, very often at all. In fact, those seeking compassion, from others, are often labeled. And the words used in the labeling can often be unkind and hurtful; they range from the simple “lazy,” to “no good,” “homeless,” “sick.” Very few drink from the cup of compassion and then, knowing its sweetness, offer it to another.

“To begin moving closer, and closer, to understanding this gift, compassion, one must choose, first, to be willing to listen, while holding their tongue. Listening is an art form that is totally lost. You see the example, of its absence, in conversation and communication every day; for conversation is now: one saying something, and one preparing to rebut, or answer back; and it goes back and forth like a tennis ball, no one really listening to the other at all; each one only wishing, or desiring to state their point, to make a point, to put someone in their place. In this communication or conversation, there is no compassion.

“For any who are willing to choose listening, over speaking, the rewards are great! If you will listen to what another says to you, you will begin to see, as you hear; you will begin to understand: what is going-on within them; who they are listening to; how they are being led. And at some point, you will begin to know: where they will go: where they will end-up: how what they are thinking, and saying, will affect their lifetime upon the Earth: you will begin to know; and in this knowing, will come the gift of wisdom; and with the gift of wisdom, comes compassion!

“These steps, one after another, listening rather than speaking, beginning to understand what is going on in the heart of another, and then ‘the gift of knowing,’ what is within the other, lead you, in a progression, into wisdom, and compassion. You begin to see and know, your brothers and sisters, as God sees them, knows them, and loves them! Without speaking, you understand their demons, you understand their temptations, you understand their confusion, you even understand their doubts, and missteps: all because you were willing to listen!

“It is not so important that they understand you. What is important, for those willing to do this, is that you, understand them! And in that wisdom, you give them the gift of compassion: knowing where they are going; knowing what they are doing; knowing what they are thinking! And in this Way, you find you are able to bless them, and send them on their way.

“Ultimately, you see, this gift, of compassion, has nothing to do with reaching-out, and trying to ‘fix,’ their situation, or tell them to go here or there, or do this or do that; it has to do, with blessing them; so, in the gift of compassion, that you begin to feel within you, in your heart space, you bless them! And this feeling, this compassion, growing in your heart, allows you to bless them every day, as they go along their way. And who would not feel better, by being blessed every day, by knowing, that someone listened, someone showed compassion?

“You do not see it, or hear the word compassion, very often; but it is a gift, worth developing; it is a gift, worth the effort, compassion.

“This week, make it a point to listen, more than you speak; listen with your heart; because, if you do, those you encounter will tell you, all you need to know, to understand them, and to grow, in wisdom, and bless them, with compassion.”

February 1, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

Confidence Comes From Knowing That You Are A Child Of God

“I AM with you. I speak to you, with a purpose, with a goal, that you will hear My words, and know, that which you need to know; and that you will know, with a deeper understanding, that you will comprehend, on a level, never touched before, within your thoughts. This is possible, because I open the door for you to see, as God sees, in the light!

“Today, I wish for you to... hear Me... hear Me... while you are sitting in the light!

“Before we begin, place yourself there, because if you are sitting in the light, while you hear My words, the words will settle within you in a different way! There will be: no questioning, no doubt, no frustration, or concern. If you hear My words, while sitting in the light of God, they will come to you as a piece... that makes things... more complete, than they were: before you heard the words; before you embraced the words; before you accepted the words, and took them as your own.

“Today I wish to speak to you about ‘confidence.’

CONFIDENCE

“You can be a person who has studied at the best institutions of learning; you can be a person who holds all the facts necessary to complete a project; you can be a person who has been taught how to think, this way or that way, sort truth from fiction, come-up with a plan; but having this in your hand does not guarantee confidence, because, sooner or later, you will always encounter someone: who is smarter, more intellectual, quicker-of-wit, than you; and, you will encounter someone who has authority, and the ability to: send you up; send you down; or send you out. So, being a person ‘of learning,’ does not necessarily guarantee confidence.

“You can be a person of striking beauty, handsome of countenance, but soon the day will come when there is one, or two, or many, who are more beautiful, or more handsome than you, and this rattles your confidence, because beauty, or having a handsome face, does not guarantee confidence.

“You can be the fastest, you can be the strongest, in your mind, for a while, but then you will encounter one who tests this confidence, and you are rattled, because you have found one faster, and stronger, than you.

“The only way you will be confident, no matter where you are, no matter what time of day or night, no matter the company you keep, is in ‘knowing, who you are!’

“And this, My brothers and sisters, requires that you set yourself aside, and speak with God, establishing your relationship, walking away from your time together knowing, within every fiber of your being, that you truly are a child of God, a descendant of The Creator of All Things; and with this... comes confidence!

“Confidence has nothing to do with what is going on around you in the world of man; but it has everything to do with what is going on within you, within The Kingdom of God, within The Dimension of Perfection, where you reside.

“If you are confident in knowing you are a child of God, you live in peace. It is no longer important to be the smartest, the most beautiful, the most handsome, the quickest, the richest, the strongest, because you see, as God sees, that all of these things are passing, and temporary, having nothing to do with eternity; they fade away, they fall, from you. The quickness of wit fails with age, as the body begins to fall, and crumble. The beautiful, and the handsome, change, as time takes its toll on the body, which is temporary. And the same follows with the fastest, and the strongest, as these attributes give way to the crumbling, and the decay, of the human body, which is meant, only, for a temporary time. If you see these things, as they truly are, of very little value, in the eternal scheme of things, in the Divine Plan for eternity, then your confidence grows, within you. You become more quiet, your step is sure, your gait even, flowing. There is no stumbling, no matter where you are going, because your confidence is no longer reliant upon the world of man, your confidence is in the hands of God!

“The confident man or woman is at peace, within. The confident man or woman finds wisdom within the peace they carry within. No matter what happens around you in the world, it is possible for you to be at peace, and hold the wisdom of that peace, every day of your life, upon the Earth. This, My brothers and sisters, is confidence; and it is found: when you sit with God, when you know God, when you reach-out and take the hand of God, and walk into the world, at peace with All That Is.”

January 25, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

For Those Amongst You Who Question What You Are To Do Next, I Say, Live In The Present With God

“I AM with you this day, I AM with you. I AM with you this day to encourage and support you, in every way, to live in the present moment, and to do so with grace, so you might bring harmony and peace to yourself, and those around you!

“So often, the prayer of those upon the Earth, is this, ‘God, show me what I am to do next! Show me my next step!’ And often, the answer is missed, and there comes confusion and chaos, because there appears to be no answer; therefore, the prayerful go in circles, wandering here and there, wondering, what they are to do next, totally ignoring the present piece of eternity that is theirs!

“Here is the answer to the prayer, ‘What am I to do next?’ The answer is: ‘Take care of now!’

“If you are living in the present moment, if you are living in the present piece of eternity, which is yours to experience and enhance, bless and glorify; then, you do not have time to wonder what you are to do next. If you live in the moment, you begin to read the signs around you, and you move, from one moment to the next, guided by the hand of God!

“Living in the present piece of eternity requires attention, and focus on what you are doing. What good will it do you to start a new adventure, another leg, a new career, set a different course, if you have not taken care of business where you are now? Your task, your honor, your mission is to bring the perfection of The Kingdom of God to wherever you are, to whomever you are with, in the present piece of eternity that is yours.

“If you will do this: the future will unfold for you as a flower; the future will unfold for you as a pathway, marking the steps you are to take. What you are to do, stems from what you are doing; and when you are doing it in the name of God, through the love of God, using the light of God, then you are bringing the perfection of The Kingdom of God to everything you think, and say, and do. And this, My brothers and sisters, is how others see perfection, unfolding, from within you.

“So, for the coming week, do not concern yourself with what you should do in the future. Consider the honor you have to create a piece of eternity, in the present moment. If you live with God in the present, your future is blessed!”

January 18, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:

I Know Who You Are, You Take Care Of Me

“I AM with you! If you will open your hand, you will feel Mine, as our hands intertwine, and we come to ‘know,’ we are One.

“As you experience life upon Earth, a spirit experiencing a human life form, you encounter emotions, feelings, some slight, some which move you, and stir you, to heights you could never have imagined before.

“If you have been blessed to experience the birth of a child, you recall, for the rest of your life, the feelings you experienced: when you held the child for the first time, when your eyes glanced upon the face, when your fingers touched the cheeks, when your lips kissed that which you had created! These feelings – moved into your heart – and you were never the same!

“Giving birth gives you the opportunity to watch your creation unfold before your eyes! If we are speaking of a child, you have the privilege to watch the child reach-out, and begin to know its environment. You have the honor to know the exhilaration, of having that child reach-out, and take your finger in their hand, pulling it to them, saying, without words, ‘I know who you are. You are the one, who takes care of me!’

“This is the same feeling which Our Father experiences when you, born upon the Earth anew, begin to experience living on Earth, through spiritual eyes, seeing Earth, in all her majesty, as your Creator intended it to be, and in this state of awe, and revelation, you reach-out, and take the finger, or the hand, or the arm of God, and pull it to you, and whisper, in that tender moment, ‘I know Who You are. You take care of me!’” And a bond is sealed, a new life revealed, and you are never the same!

“There are moments to experience that go beyond anything, you have known before, sacred moments that touch your heart; and, in that touch, your heart expands to accept more... than you ever thought possible... your heart opens to love... more, than you ever thought possible... your spirit soars, and your soul sings... and all is right!

“Be at peace this day! As you enter a new week, let every step you take, be, a revelation, of a new you: seeing through eyes, open to the gifts, all around you; feeling the presence of God, with you; and letting your mantra be, ‘I know Who You are. You take care of me!’ ”

January 11, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
Happiness, And Joy, Come From Within

“I AM with you! No matter where you find yourself, at this time, I AM there, a whisper away, a thought away, I AM with you!

“No matter where you find yourself today, no matter what the state of your situation, it is possible for you to feel peace, happiness, and joy, from within! When you are truly, and wholly, connected to God, you know peace, happiness, and joy, within. It can be no other way! If you are in communion with The Creator of All Things, and you walk in the light, and the joy, the love, and the power of God, it is impossible for you to feel any other way, but at peace, content with what you know, content with who you are, and abiding in a state a happiness and joy, in the knowing, of it. That, My friends, My brothers and sisters, in a nutshell, is how you achieve good mental, and physical, health. It is not a mystery.

“You will never be able to go-out, and buy happiness, or joy; the illusion, is thinking that you can have this, or that, or the other, and it will make you happy; and I will tell you further, that unless you are happy, or joyful, inside your being, nothing you buy will fill that void. If you are not happy, if you are not peaceful, if you are not joyful, from within, you are not going to be that way, just because you buy two more dresses, another car, or a bigger house. What you experience, in purchasing such items, is akin to ‘a shot of adrenaline, excitement at being able to have something,’ but it has nothing to do with happiness, and joy, and peace; it does not create a sense of contentment, from within; and if you lack these things within, it will not change, just because you have made another purchase. This is what drives the world of man today, ‘the illusion that you can be joyful and happy, with the purchase of this, or that, or the other,’ but after the initial shot of adrenaline wears-off, after the rush of excitement is gone, you find you are still in the same state: you are empty, void, lacking something, and so you find another thing to purchase; but I can assure you, no matter how many things you buy, they will never bring you happiness, or joy; it is impossible!

“Now, some of you might question that last statement, but I assure you, it is the eternal truth! You can string together a stack of gifts, and they will not bring you happiness, or joy, unless you have happiness and joy within you already!

“My message to you today is brief; but it could well be one of the most important things you hear all week. If today you feel a sense of peace and contentment, and you are happy and joyful in the knowing of this peace and contentment, then celebrate! Celebrate, and dance and sing; so others might see the result of ‘knowing peace.’

“If you do not know peace, and you do not feel content within, and you know you are lacking happiness and joy, then it is time for you to undertake the task of repairing your relationship with God! Do not object by saying, ‘I know God. I believe in God.’ Listen to what I AM saying to you; set aside your objections; and understand that: if you are sitting in the lap of God: if you are standing in the light of God: if you are feeling the love of God, you cannot be anything but at peace, and content, knowing happiness and joy! These things go together like a hand in a glove. Therefore, if that is the source, if God is the source of this peace and contentment, happiness and joy, then that is where you need to go, today! Sit, and talk, with God! Be filled with the love of God! And when you feel peace move into you, because of your communion with God, then you are beginning; and shortly after this feeling 'of peace.' will come a sense of contentment. And when you get-up, when you rise-up, realizing that this communion with The Creator of All Things, is yours, at any time, you will dance, and sing, you will be happy and joyful, because you will understand, at that moment... that everything you need... is at your beck and call!

“It is possible, for you to reach the end of this day, and be totally at peace, and experience a sense of happiness and joy welling-up from within you, which you have not experienced in a very long time; but first, you must go to God: The Source of peace, The Source of contentment, and The Source of happiness and joy. Let that be your mission today; for to know these things, to have these things, it cannot be any other way. I will be with you. We will walk together, and talk together, and come the end of the day, you will sit down and say, 'I have established peace, within myself today; I am content in every way; and in the process has come happiness and joy, a gift from God to me, this day.' ”

January 4, 2015

Jesus Teaches On:
The Adventure Of A Lifetime Begins With Yes I Will

“I AM with you! I tread the corridors of all time, with ease. I come to you, and you reach-out to Me, and in this sacred communion, we are together, no barriers separating us, no walls separating us. We come together regardless of the date on the calendar, or the time on the clock, or the city, or country, where you live; for, in reality, in your life of spirit, there are no such things.

“So come, let us walk into this new day. It is set before you. What are you going to think? What are you going to say? It is unwritten, it is new, it will all spring forth, from deep within you. You are about to create a precious piece of eternity!

“I AM sure that you have, at times, read a book, or heard a story, or perhaps watched a movie or a documentary, about an individual who set-out on an amazing adventure. They might have left the Earth, and journeyed toward the moon, or farther out into space. They might have crossed uncharted seas, to find land, which they had not known before. They might have found themselves, sitting quietly, opening the door to a spiritual realm they had never encountered before; and, each of these individuals, before their quest began, had to make “a plan.” And the first thing on that list was to say, ‘Yes, I will go on the adventure, I will fly into space, I will travel uncharted seas, I will open my heart, so that I might see the unseen.’

“After reading such accounts, you might have, at some point, said, ‘I wish I could do that!’ And I AM here to remind you, today, that you can; and, in fact, you are. As you begin this day, you are beginning an adventure. At this moment, you do not know what will happen at 6:00 o’clock p.m., or 11:00 o’clock a.m., or 2:30 p.m.; but, as you begin this day, one thing you know is that they surely will come. You see, the situations are set, they are there, and you will encounter them, along The Way; but your actions, and your thoughts, and your words, are what will create the day, which you will experience.

“If you begin to see every day as ‘the adventure,’ it truly is, your life will be altered, for the better. You will no longer begin your day haphazardly. You will begin your day, ‘knowing:’ there is purpose; you are striking-out on a leg of your adventure; and it is the adventure, of your ‘lifetime.’ So, do not sit and wonder how others did this, or that, wishing you could do this, or that. Embrace the day, as yours, to do anything you wish to do, with that which you encounter! And with this golden opportunity, comes the responsibility, of a child of God.

“Let it be your prayer, as you begin this day, to have the wisdom, and the strength, to be the positive light in every situation. You have the ability to carry the light, into the day; and the day is here, no matter what. Are you ready?

“I reach-out My hand, and I say, ‘Come.’ I will walk with you this day, and I will assist you all along The Way. I will give you guidance, and direction. I will whisper, when you need encouragement, and support. I will lead you into saying the right words, words that you will not regret days later.

“If you will walk with Me, I will teach thee to think, and say, and do, in a way that will bless you, and all of Earth! Think love; speak love; act, in a loving way! Let every step you take today be a step of love!

“This is your opportunity. There is a set amount of time to this day. Work with what you have been given, so that come the end of the day, you can smile, and say, ‘That was quite an adventure we took, today!’ ”