

THE QUIET PLACE

Jesus' Sunday Sermons 2021

The Command

"This is my command: Love each other." ... Jesus ... John 15:17

The Promise

*"If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.
My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." ... Jesus ... John 14:23*

Holding these words in our hearts, we opened the door to the everyday Presence of Jesus, walking with us ... teaching us ... The Way.

And, onto the mountain,
there came the words
...as promised...

December 26, 2021

"I AM with you. And it is good that you recognize My Presence with you, as we grow closer together. As we draw nearer to one another, you know Me better, and you are not surprised at the counsel I give you, the guidance, The Way I show you, because you know Me. Feel My Presence with you, today, so that you might know The Ways of Heaven, through that which I teach you.

"When someone comes to visit you, from another country, you know they are not from your country. They are slightly different, in many ways the same, but there is something different, about that person. And the longer you talk, and spend time with them, you realize that they are from Germany, or Austria, or another country. You can tell in the inflection of the voice, the words they speak, sometimes even in the dress. They are similar, but slightly different.

"No matter where you are from, you carry those markings with you, and often that is how someone will describe you, introducing you by name, and then say where you are from, before proceeding to tell more about you. There are many signs of where you are from, your upbringing, your heritage. And all these different places, and food, and clothing enrich the conversation, the friendship, because there is diversity, and it is colorful, often familiar, still, slightly different.

"It is important for you to know who you are, the country of your birth, the culture from which you come. But no matter how different each person might be from the other, there is a place, where there is kinship, where there is oneness, where there is sacred sameness. And that place is created, every time you come together, every time you gather together, with other people, when each one gathering, recognizes that first they are citizens of Heaven, The Dimension of Perfection. The kinship begins with The Eternal Parent, with God, and in this way each one is the same. Recognize this. Wherever you go: speak as if you know that you are an ambassador of Heaven; act as if you know that you are first a son, or daughter, of God; and, recognize the other sons, and daughters, of God, as family, as one. Each time there is a gathering, there too is a place of Heaven, where the sons, and daughters, of God, are as one.

December 19, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM with you in so many ways. I AM with you through nights, and through days. I AM with you through sickness, and health. In all ways, at all times, I AM with you. Therefore, be at peace, and know, that I AM with you, and we will walk, through the days, and the nights, together, as one. Know this, and be, at peace.

"I want to tell you a story. There was once a lush oasis, that had sprung up, on either side of a river, that was wide, and nurtured the land. Many people lived on the banks, of this river, and towns grew there. And even though they were surrounded by desert, they were not aware of the dangers, of the desert, because life was lush, and rich, and bountiful, on the banks, of this river. There were fish in the river. There were river fowl. The land animals came to drink, at the river. The trees were filled with dates, and nuts, and olives; and the grains grew tall. The people, who were there, lacked for nothing. Life was good. The waters, of the river, blessed them, with abundant life. But then, gradually, the river began to dry-up. There was no rain. The river became the size of a small stream. Still, no rain. What little water was left could not support the fish, or the other life, that had counted on it, for so long. The animals could not drink from the water, as it slowly disappeared, evaporating, leaving only sand.

"Gradually, the grain, that had been growing, in such abundance, withered, and was buried, in the sand. The trees, that had given such good food, withered, and they too were buried, in the sand. The people, and the animals, left. Well, most left. There were a few, who stayed, who knew, that this was but a temporary thing. Within them, they knew, and wanted to see, what change would bring life, back to the banks, of the evaporated river. Generations, and generations, and generations came and went. The grain remained buried, beneath the sand, as did the trees. The fish were no more. Desert had moved in and taken all.

"There were those, who stayed, in the caves, and learned to adapt, to the desert ways. There were snakes, and scorpions, and bugs, that also adapted, to the ways, of the desert. But then, one day, just as those few remaining had known would happen, the skies parted, and the rain fell, from above. And at first, the ground was so dry that the rain hit the Earth, and bounced off, and hit the Earth, and bounced off. And then, it began to flow, in a steady stream. And the water, falling from above, showed the stream, first; and then, the stream got deeper, and wider; and the waters, from above, brought forth the river; and the river began to flow again. And those, who had waited, in the caves, came out, to the banks, of the river; and one by one, that, which had been buried, in the sands, of the Earth, rose-up, to greet new life. All that was buried rose-up. The grains were once again ready to feed. The trees, with the foods, the nuts, and the dates, and the olives were ready to feed. They had been touched, by the life, in the water, flowing onto Earth, from above. And it did not take long, for that oasis, of peace and abundance, to spring back to full life. The water brought resurrection, and joy, and peace. And all, who lived, on the banks, of that river, celebrated, and were thankful, for the waters, that flowed, from above.

"Do not lose faith. Continue to know, that no matter, how dry, and parched, your life, might be, the waters of grace, will resurrect all that is within thee; and that, which was parched, will spring forth, to feed you, manna, from Heaven. Be, at peace, and know. Be, at peace, and wait. Be, at peace, and be vigilant, for the waters will flow, and they will flow upon you, and there will be great resurrection, and you will know life, with great abundance."

December 12, 2021

"I AM with you. In all ways, through all days, and nights, I AM with you. We can walk. We can talk. We can sing, with the birds. We can do all things, together. I reach for you, and summon you, to come, and see The Ways of Heaven. I AM with you. And for those of you, who believe this, there comes The Knowing, which will never leave you.

"The Ways of The Divine, are often not sought, by the children, walking, upon the Earth. Today, I encourage you to stop, wherever you are, and be still, and quiet, long enough, so that you might have some inkling of The Ways of The Divine. The Divine Ways are The Ways of God. And it is possible for you to live, in these ways, as you walk upon the Earth. But first, to accomplish this, you must be willing to change your approach, to what is happening around you, to what is happening within you, in your thoughts.

"When something occurs, you instantly have the opportunity to make a choice. You can see what is happening, or hear what is happening, from a physical stance; or, you can seize the opportunity, presented to you, to alter your view, slightly, so that you see, or hear, what is occurring, in a mystical way, a divine way. Look at it, and hear it, and see, and hear, more, as the definitions, of the world, fall from the situation, as the judgment, of the world, falls from the situation, and you see it through The Eyes of God. And once you begin to open, to living, upon the Earth, in this sacred state, your walk is slower, your speech is slower, that which you see, and hear, is even slower, because you are holding it in a different state, no longer judging, but watching, and seeing, and knowing, that The Hand of God is working, and all things are flowing, as they are meant to be, But, when you are a party, of that situation, or occurrence, you have the opportunity to bring The Ways of Heaven to the situation. This takes practice. It takes a willingness, to alter your perspective, and to move, from the physical state, putting your spiritual body, first, and using your physical body to accomplish The Divine Ways. And once you are walking, in The Ways of God, your life lifts, from the mundane, to the sublime, and you can feel Heaven around you. You can feel Heaven, moving into you, with every breath, and coming out of you, with every exhalation. It is then, that you become the living word, yourself, using the physical, to accomplish the spiritual goal, that Heaven flow upon the Earth, so it is divine in its ways, so The Presence of God is felt in all ways, because God is with you, always."

December 5, 2021

“I AM with you. I AM with you in love. My presence, with you, is not done through smoke and mirrors, or other chicanery. It is a miracle set in place before the beginning of all things, and it shall remain in place, until it is complete. I AM with you, and it is through faith, you experience My presence, with you, until your eyes are opened, and you see all that is set before you. Let us walk in The Garden today.

“The creation of all that is, is truly divine, and miraculous. The continuation of all that is, is truly divine, and miraculous. The truth, that The Creator of All Things, is approachable for all is truly divine, and miraculous. For, what leader in the world, created by man, is so accessible to those in need? Everything about God is truly divine, and miraculous, while, at the same time, being quite ordinary, and available to all, a Heavenly Entity, whose hand moved, and it was done, whose word was, and is, and forevermore will be.

“When you live in a state of spiritual grace, you recognize that all God created is truly divine, and miraculous, even you, and the miracle of your birth. If you are still upon Earth, you have a mission, which is truly divine, and miraculous.

“My mission was, and remains, truly divine, and miraculous, from the time of My birth, upon Earth, to the time of My Resurrection. It was all miraculous, in every way, and remains so, to this day. Make sure you do not miss the point, that your life, on Earth, is meant to be the same. Sometimes, miracles find you, and appear for you. Sometimes, you are the bringer of a miracle to someone else, or a group, be it one or two. Do not turn your head from the divine, from the miracles. Live My story, walk with Me, and you will see all that happens, in the course of an ordinary day, as truly divine, and miraculous. Receive the miracles. Deliver the miracles. Live in the spirit. Experience Earth as you are meant to experience it, as spirit first.

“All God created is truly divine, and miraculous, and this includes you.”

November 21, 2021

“I AM with you. We have much to do together, so let us begin. Now is your time, and you are not alone, we walk together. As you are in the garden of Earth, I AM with you, from the time of your birth, until you answer the call to come Home. This is today, let us live it, together.

“Now is your time. You are upon Earth for a reason, and that reason is not to be fearful, or hesitant, or worried, about anything. Your lifetime is meant to be an exciting Earth experience. And it can be an experience of Earth and Heaven, at the same time. Use all, The Gifts of The Holy Spirit, you have been given, and live. Live each moment. Live with enthusiasm, embracing your time, your journey.

“Now is not the time to waver, or falter. You have an allotted amount of time to reach the goal, and doing so will create your great adventure, marking each step, marking each word. Take that, which you have been given, and live the life, that is yours to live. Be thankful for all that is with you. Be grateful as you ascend the staircase that is set before you. Do not delay, for each step holds another gift. And when you reach the top, and look back down on all you did, you will sing, and your song will be a glorious story, celebrating your life upon Earth.

“Bring Heaven onto the Earth in all you think, and do, and say. Let thanksgiving be with you every, single day. Do not wait for one day to celebrate thanksgiving. Make thanksgiving a way of living, and do so, today.”

November 14, 2021

"I AM with you. If the sun is shining, upon your face, I AM with you. If the rain is falling, upon your face, I AM with you. If there is a smile, upon your face, I AM with you. And if tears roll down your face, I AM with you. No matter what you are facing, today, I AM with you. Come, let us do, what today brings to you, and let us do it, together.

"We have talked, many times, about procrastination. And each time I have urged you to address that, which you are pushing in a corner, or saving for tomorrow, or another day. I bring to you a reminder. Do, what comes to you, what is calling-out, for your attention, because these thoughts, that are moving through your head, are a prompting, are a sign, that there is something you need to do. And this something will plague you, until it is addressed, until you have done it, until it is finished, and complete. And when I speak to you, of finishing, and completing, something, which needs your attention, I AM not only addressing these projects that you have not finished, yet, I AM also addressing the temptations, that come to you, from shadow, and darkness. I AM addressing all things, that pop into your head, or move around in your thoughts, because you need to have them in order. You need to be vigilant, so you are not crowded, because this crowding, of the undone the unfinished, the uncompleted, prevents you from leading a peaceful life. It can actually bring fear, or doubt, worry, and concern to you, as well.

"It is important to rid yourself, immediately, of thoughts of darkness, and shadow, of these temptations, leading you away from The Light. Do not push them aside, and think they will go away, on their own, because they will not. They will hide, under a blanket, waiting; and then, at the appropriate time, they will jump into your thoughts, again. And if the issue is not attended to, they will return to their hiding, until they want to tempt you, again.

"Begin today, to finish the projects, that need addressing. Begin today, to make that phone call, that is long overdue. Begin today, to do all, that is in front of you, to do, one at a time. But do not go into this day without ridding yourself of the temptations, the spirits of anger, the spirits of envy, the spirits of jealousy, the spirits of hatred. Rid yourself of these things, immediately, because that, too, is yours to do. Once it is done, you will walk in the rain, you will walk in the sun; and you will be free, and at peace, because worry, concern, anxiety, and fear, will not live in your heart, will not be near. Do not put off for tomorrow, that which can be done today. Pay attention to the signs, as they come your way."

November 7, 2021

“I AM with you. Knowing this brings you confidence, and comfort. I AM with you. I walk with you. And, if you choose, I will talk with you. And, if you choose, I will show you The Way. Come, I will show you The Way, today.

“You see confidence, and courage, and power, that comes from confidence, and courage, many times a day. If you are a child of school age, you see this confidence growing, in your peers, as they know how to add, how to subtract, how to read, where certain countries are, on the map. And, with the learning, with the knowing, comes not only the responsibility of doing, what you have learned, but there comes courage, and confidence. And, with this growing, in facts, and figures, and words, there comes a power, that you know these things, and no one can take it from you. As you grow, and mature, you see it in individuals, around you. When they know something, they are confident, and this confidence brings them courage to do things that other people cannot do, because they do not have the knowing.

“When you are in a relationship, any kind of relationship, with another person, or people, that relationship is deeper, and stronger, as you grow in confidence, that your love, and admiration, and respect, is reciprocated. And, in that relationship, those that are in the relationship grow in confidence, encouraged by the support of those in the relationship, to do, all that they can do, without hesitation, without limitation. When you see a child, running across a playground, they often look back to see, and to make sure, that a parent is close by. And when they look, and see, the parent is close by, they continue their journey, their experience of Earth by swinging a bit higher, climbing a bit higher, joining groups of other children playing, with confidence that, that parent is close by. There is confidence, and courage, which yield power, when you know who you are, and what you are doing. And this is good. In your life upon Earth, this is good, because when you have that confidence, and courage, from knowing, who you are, you accomplish much. There is little fear, because you know who you are, and what you are doing. That is simply said, simply put.

“Now, take another step to the realization of not only living in the present, but living in the present piece of eternity, that is your eternal life. Know you are God’s child. Know where you came from. Know you have a mission. And know you have been given all you need to accomplish your mission, upon Earth. Whatever is set before you, you are prepared to do it. It would not be with you, if you could not do it. Therefore, go into this day, confident in who you are, physically, in the present piece of eternity, but also knowing who you are, eternally, taking that knowing, which will give you confidence, and courage, which will then yield the power you need to do all that is asked of you, and even more. You have heard it said, by Me, ‘You can do all that I AM doing, and even greater things.’ But first, you must live the knowing of who you are. You are a child of God. Do not deny it. Do not limit it. Live it.”

October 31, 2021

"I AM with you. I reach-out for you, and you feel My presence, with you. The air, about you, is charged. It is alive, because we are communicating, and it is the chamber of our communication. Waves of grace flow all around you, and into you, and through you, as you acknowledge My presence. As you speak My name, and I whisper yours, we are one.

"A relationship, of any kind, can wither, and fade, if it is not nourished, with attention and intention, with love, respect, kindness, with a presence, with a coming together, with going deeper, into that relationship.

"When you are walking around, outside, you might see an interesting rock, a rather large rock, on the ground. But it calls to you, in such a way, that you stoop down, and look at it, getting to know it a little bit better. And then, there is that moment, when you feel you want to, lift-up the rock, and see, what is underneath. You want to go deeper, and you see. You see earth worms, little bugs, maybe a sail, bits and pieces, of the bottom of the rock, that have joined the soil. Then, you gently replace the rock. In that few minutes, you saw the rock, acknowledged it, but you went deeper. And now, you know what is beneath the rock.

"You can visit another country, and stay in a hotel, isolating yourself, from all the people around you, except to go see certain sights, and monuments. So, you see the surface of the country. But for those who are interested in really going deeper, into that energy, of that country, you meet natives, you meet the people, who live in that country. You are blessed, by an invitation, to their home, and you sit, and you laugh, and you begin to understand, better. You have gone deeper, into the country, into the heart of the individuals, living in that country. And this going deeper, brings you a different relationship, with that country.

"You can plant a garden. Purchase plants, or save them from seeds, seeds that come from the fruits, or the vegetables, that you have eaten. You can dig a hole, and put your plant in it, or spread some earth and sprinkle your seeds there. But if you want to go deeper, you can begin to study. What is the best nutrient to add to the soil? What is the best plant that would be good for this plant? Should it be in sun, or shade? How much water should it have? What is the soil? Does it need to be tended, and raked? You learn all these things about the garden, because you wish to go deeper. And the result is a healthier garden, a stronger garden, a garden that can bring beautiful fragrance to the air, or feed your friends, and family, with the vegetables, and fruits, that are there. It yields more, it gives more, because you were willing to go deeper.

"Take that attitude with your relationship with God. Go deeper than attending services. Go deeper than singing songs. Go deeper than studying books. Go deeper, in your relationship, with God. It is important to make time, every day, to sit, quietly, not to speak, not to sing, not to pray for something, just sit, and let God touch you, with what you need, not what you think you need, not what is on your list to pray for, but what you truly need. Go deeper, in your relationship, with God."

October 24, 2021

"I AM with you. You hear that said, so often, but today, believe, I AM with you, because with that step, it will lead you to a place, where you will know, I AM with you. There will be no doubt, there will be no question, for what you know cannot be taken from you. Know, I AM with you.

"There comes, into the life, of every person, every individual, who lives upon the Earth, times filled with chaos and confusion, times of worry, doubt. These you face, but sometimes, you forget to face them, with God. You wring your hands, you cry, you call-out to others, for help, but you forget the powerful well of God's love, which never dries up, never runs out. It is there for all, in equal proportion. Come, and take what you need. It is time to go to God, first. The love of God will fill you, to the point where, even in a state of worry, you are changed, instantly, and your worry is set free. You hold it, no longer, because God will take it from thee. In a state of sadness, your sadness will be set free, it will fall from thee, there will be no need for sadness, because God will take it from thee. But you must open the door. The walls are thick. Tear them down. God seeks you, with the flow, of His love, with the majesty, of His light, with the comfort, of His peace. It is all there. It is never taken away. It is not cut up into proportions. It is, there, because God is love. It is the most powerful energy ever created, and there will never be, one to stand above it.

"Put that doubt away, that you cannot be worthy of this love. Put that thought away, that you cannot be worthy, at all. I tell you: it does not matter, what you have done; it does not matter, where you have been; it does not matter, who you have hurt. The love of God is still there, as it has always been. Do not deny yourself the unconditional love of God, because once you know this love, then you are prepared to give love to another person, because it will not be the fabrication of what your idea of love, might be. It will be the unconditional love of God, flowing into thee, and then, you are willing to breathe it out, to another. God's light flows to you, just the same. It is a light that will bring illumination to places of shadow and darkness, so that you might see, with clarity, and understand, and grow in wisdom, at the hand of God. Only when the light of God, shines through you, and upon all you say, and do, can you be the illumination, and the light, for you are created to be the light, unto the world, not your fabrication of the light, the light, you think should be, but the light of God, shining through thee. In this way, you will begin to bring the peace of God onto the Earth, with your presence, your thoughts, and the words you say."

October 17, 2021

"I AM with you. I reach-out My hand. I whisper your name. I call you to rise-up, and walk, with Me. Let us walk in the garden, that you know as Earth, and I will whisper, and show you things, talk about the unseen things, which created that which you see. The power of the unseen, bringing forth, temporarily, something that is seen. Come let us walk, together, today. You will see Earth in a different way.

"I wish to share something with you, today. You know, because you have heard, or been told, or seen movies, or read in Scripture, that I often set Myself aside, that I withdrew, that I sat in prayer, or knelt in prayer, or stood in prayer, connecting, always, with God. This is how you can sustain yourself, as you walk upon the Earth. It is important, for you to remember, that the body, that you prize, as so important, does not give life to the soul, to the spirit, that is you. It is the other way around. The soul, the spirit, that is you, is the only thing eternal about you. Yet, you find it so easy to ignore the eternal, and focus so completely, and fully, on the temporary. It is distracting, and I know it can be distracting, this world of the seen. But there is a way, which I believe, can help you spend more time in the sacred space of prayer, in the unseen realm. And it is to look, at the creations of God, all about you, in a sacred way.

"When you see a wonderful piece of fruit, on a bush, or a shrub, or a tree, you are seeing it, but the next step, to helping you move, from the seen, to unseen, is to take that piece of fruit, in your hand. Hold it. Feel it. Close your hands around it, and hold it, as a treasure. For a few minutes cherish this creation, which came from God. The unseen power that put all of this creation into action, in the first place, is God, and the power that did it, that still fuels it. Begin to go from the seen, into the realm of the unseen, with your gratitude, and thanksgiving, for what you are beholding. In this way, the seen does not stay so much a distraction, because you, with your will, are taking this piece of fruit, and moving into the unseen, with your energies, and your exploration, and experience, of gratitude, and thankfulness. You can do the same thing with anything that you see, God's creation. It can be a worm, an earth worm, but look at it, in a sacred way, and move into the unseen realm, with thanksgiving, and gratitude, for all that this worm does in the Earth.

"Whatever God has created, that which you see, does not necessarily have to be a distraction, taking you away from the sacred space of prayer, in the unseen realm, of God. Begin to notice the connection between the unseen, and the seen, that is nature, God's creation, towering trees, majestic mountains that are God's cathedrals. Make the connection. Pray often. Hold gratitude, and thanksgiving, upon your heart. Realize what is temporary, and what is eternal, and begin spending more time with that which will last forever."

October 10, 2021

“I AM with you. The call goes out, and even though it is but a whisper, those who know My voice, answer the call. I AM with you. Do not avoid My presence with you, for as we communicate, and continue to talk, your life experience, upon Earth, is greatly enhanced. Do not ignore that which is with you. Embrace it, for it will fulfill you, and all that you do will be filled with the energy of Heaven, The Dimension of Perfection, the Divine Home, from which you came.

“Today, is the only today you will ever experience. The eternal present is with you, now, right now. But the eternal present changes constantly. With every breath you take there is a new eternal present with you. So, as you breathe, you live a new time, with every breath you take, it is a new time. Therefore, do not spoil the new time, by worrying about something that is old, is past, is gone. And how can you do this? How can you stay there, in that present time, breathing in and out, the present eternity that is yours? By instantly, at the moment, forgiving all things. Forgive it, and move on, forgive it, and move on. Take the lessons with you, but forgive others, and yourself, and move on, because nothing is waiting for you. You cannot hold back the present piece of eternity, that comes to you, in rapid repetition, through the entirety, of your lifetime, upon Earth. Do not spoil the present with the residue of the past. When the past surfaces in some way other than absolute joy, or wisdom, forgive it, immediately. Forgive it, in that present piece, and move on, because the next present piece of eternity is riding the breath with you, and into you.

“Live, while you are living. Breathe, and live. Take in the experience of Earth, and begin to look at your life, and the life of those around you, as sacred. What are you doing with this piece of eternity with you? Some of you are lamenting the past. Others of you are fearing, or dreading, the future. And you are wasting the present. Today, set your intention to experience Earth, in a divine way. Every breath you take, celebrate it, as the life, the time you experience that piece of eternity, and let it flow from you, moving into the flowing waters of eternity. They are coming to you. See yourself standing in the middle of a gently, flowing river, and let it move to you, and all around you, and through you. Immerse yourself in the river, and feel it over your face, and go into your eyes, and ears, and rise-up, and let it fall from you.

“This sounds rather radical to most of you, but it is what you are meant to do. Embrace the present with you. You must begin somewhere. So, start with a specific day, or if you must, only an hour, but do it, with intention and purpose, and then you will be surprised. As the present is always with you, your life, on Earth, becomes automatic. You are where you need to be, doing exactly what you need to do, because you are in the eternal flow, and that eternal flow takes you, where you need to go. And when you arrive, you know exactly what to say, because you are living in that present piece of eternity, and it just comes from you. Use what is yours to use, today. Live, with every breath you take. Experience where you are now. And as you do that, remember, Heaven is with you, and near to you. Earth is all around you. You feel it. You taste it. Move into the flow, and begin to live divinely, as you go through your lifetime, upon Earth. Treasure what is yours, as it is sacred.”

October 3, 2021

"I AM with you. Let the day begin, and let us walk into it, together, for I AM truly with you; and often you feel My presence with you, and it is comforting. That is My intention, so that you never feel alone, no matter what the task before you. No matter how many have fled from you, I AM with you. You are never alone.

"Most of you, hearing these words, or reading words, today, are experiencing a beautiful time, a season, upon the Earth, which you call autumn. The colors are rich, and vibrant, and sides of hills, mountains, even down in the valleys take on an appearance much like that of a quilt, all different colors, coming together, a patchwork of yellows, and reds, and browns, and golds. And that is with you, for a while, and then the leaves begin to fall, and you see change, taking place, right before your eyes. The leaves, in all their beauty, do not cling to the tree, refusing to fall. They accept the invitation, and float, in the air, like butterflies. Sometimes, they catch your attention, as they swirl on a breeze, and at first, you might think they are a bird, or a flower, floating. It is mesmerizing to watch the leaves falling, because they do look like beautiful flowers, and butterflies, and birds.

"As you watch this change, taking place, it often is the opportunity to remember, the seasons, of a lifetime, upon Earth. You see the seasons change, and play-out, before you, in nature. And in most places, they are clearly marked: the wintertime, which is dormant, peaceful; springtime, which is filled with promise; summer, when the air is filled with the aroma of flowers; and fall, while we see it all, cascading to the ground, but before it reaches the ground, riding upon the wind, in glory.

"Your lifetime, upon Earth, is the same story. You arrive, as springtime, a baby, a child, an adolescent, always growing. You cannot hold on to be the child. You cannot stop, and stay, an adolescent. You keep growing, because that is what eternity is all about, growing, embracing, accepting, and flowing. You cannot hold yourself as a senior in high school, any more than you can hold yourself as a college student, or a young person, seeking their first job. You will not stay in that position because tomorrow is calling. But while you are in the present, you have that experience to create memories, memories of each season of your life. You cannot hold on to the tricycle. You cannot hold on to the bicycle. You cannot hold on to the vehicle, that became your mode of transportation. But you can store-up the memories, of each experience, and that is your true treasure. You can move into your new job. You can accept congratulations, and promotions. But eventually, there will come that time, which will become the present piece of eternity, for you, when you are retired, from your job, and another season begins. And still, in this season you have memories, and you are creating more, from the experience you have. But now, at this time, in your life, you have the wisdom and the experience to look back, and understand, what brought you to the present piece of eternity, and you can do so, with wisdom, and this wisdom is stored with your memories, as well, so your memories, and your wisdom, become as one treasure, which you will bring Home, with you, as you move through eternity, forever. Celebrate each season of your life, and celebrate the memories, which are born of your experience. Celebrate, it all, because it is adding to your treasure chest. Experience. Memories. Wisdom. Create them today, in the present piece of eternity that is with you, now."

September 26, 2021

“I AM with you. I AM with you today, to walk with you, so you might know The Way, so I might share with you those things that you say are secret, are a mystery. But they are actually the sweet truth of living within The Light of God. And these things are not held from you. These things are available for you. But you must stand up, and embrace that which is with you, already, without rejection, without hesitation. Open your arms, and embrace The Power, and The Light, and The Love of God, that flows to you, without measurement. It is constant. It will not be taken from you. These things I wish to share with you today, so that you might rise-up, and walk The Way, knowing it is God propelling you. It is The Word of God, compelling you to listen, and hear, so you might know.

“When I walked upon the Earth, over two thousand years ago, and moved into My ministry, that which Our Father had sent Me to do, it was meant: for those watching, and observing, Me, to see The Glory of God, in the miracles performed, and the deeds I did; for them to hear The Word of God, from Me, The Word God wanted Me say, spoken to them, so they could know The Word of God. And I made no pretense about what was happening. The great deeds, the miraculous things, were performed, so they might know The Glory of God. And the words I spoke, which touched their hearts, souls, and spirits, were not My words, but the words of Our Father. This I repeated. And if this is the case, and if God’s Love flows freely to all, all of the children, constantly, you too can accept The Deeds of God, done through you, and pronounce them for The Glory of God. You can accept The Word of God, flowing through you, and repeat; ‘These are not my words. These words were put on my heart by God.’ This is not out of the realm of possibility. It is reality. It is there for you to do, if you choose to do it. But what I wish to say to you, today, what is keeping you from rising-up, and doing everything I did, is fear, and doubt, that, when you rise-up, you will not be able to do. When you have this thought, cast it from you, immediately, because that is a shadow spirit, trying to keep you, in your place, trying to keep you, from doing that which I did. You must see this. God is not limiting Love, and Power, and Light, but you are rejecting, the full flow, of God’s Power, and Love, and Light.

“You are being tricked. You find it easier, and easier to say, ‘Well, Jesus could do that, but I am only human.’ That, My brothers and sisters, is trickery to keep you in your place. Also, it is easier to take a lesser seat, and permit someone else to do, and to be, and to say, because then you do not have the responsibility of finding the courage to rise to the occasion, to be who you are meant to be. This is one of the reasons I said, and repeated it, ‘You can do everything I AM doing.’ And The Way to do it is open and let God flow through you. Hear My words, for the truth in them.

“Do not be complacent any longer, because God is there for you to rise up, and do great things, because it is The Power of God, coming through you, so that you might do the great things. And when the great things are accomplished, do not take the credit for yourself, but say clearly, this was done for The Glory of God, through The Power of God, flowing into, and through, Me. This was how it was done. And if people insist on accolades, and applause, for what you did, then remind them. Well, you too can do this, just let God flow through you. Say it. I gave you the words to say. I showed you the deeds to do. You can do all that I did do, but you must permit The Love, Power, and Light of God to flow through you, to accomplish, what God wants to accomplish, through you.

"Scratch from the things you say, the statement, 'I am only human,' because you are using that as an excuse. Do not waste your precious hours upon the Earth. The time is now. Make the statement, and God will move you. 'Thy Will be done, God.' And then, be prepared, because The Will of God works miracles, when miracles are called for, when they are necessary. And they are done for The Glory of God. The Hand of God will move you, and the words that will come from you will be compelling, toward The Love of God, because that is The Will of God. Be willing, to rise-up, and do, The Will of God."

September 19, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM here. Let us walk, together. I have something I would like to tell you. I would like to speak with you. I would like for you to see the things of Earth, today, in My presence: so, we can celebrate creation, together; so, we can see the beauty, and the harmony, together.

"Today, I would like to speak to you about the beauty of: harmony, peace, calm, serene. Even the sound of these words brings a sense of peace, and tranquility. And it is a good idea for you to work toward living in harmony, peace, and tranquility.

"It is not a topic many want to talk about, but each of you knows that there will come the day, when the call, will be for you to return Home. It will happen, possibly years from now, possibly days from now. You can prepare for that call, and spend the rest of your days, upon Earth, at peace, knowing you are ready, whenever you hear the call, because the call will come, from your Eternal Parent, perhaps a call, similar to the one you heard, as a child, when you were playing outside, and your parent called you home.

"I encourage each one of you, listening to these words, or reading these words, today, to begin preparations, to clear The Way, so you might live in peace, all your days, upon the Earth. Do not hesitate to forgive. Do not hold back on offering an apology. Most of you can give Me reasons, numerous reasons, why you do not feel you need to forgive, or why you do not feel an apology is necessary. But I tell you, even in the making of the excuses, why you will not forgive, or apologize, there is held the seed, which is the necessity to do so. If it was not necessary, you would not need to make excuses. It is the ego. You are waiting for another to forgive, first. You are waiting for another to apologize, first. And then, perhaps you will do the same. Today, I AM asking you to do, in The Name of God, for The Glory of God, that which you do not wish to do. Forgive. Apologize. Set The Way straight. It does not matter, the response you receive, be it acceptance, or rejection. What I AM asking you to do here, is to prepare for you, to answer the call, to go Home, and to be able to do so in peace, and harmony, and balance. Do not hesitate, or put off, what can be done, today, to free you, so that the rest of your days are in peace. Harken to My plea. Hear My words. Begin today, preparing The Way, to return Home."

September 12, 2021

“I AM with you. I bring the peace of Heaven to you, for Heaven is always near to you, a whisper, a movement, slight movement, of your hand, reaching into a place of divine perfection, Heaven. And it is yours, and with you, for the asking. Ask, and you shall receive. And as you live in the world, you will move in the world, and you will do what is necessary to live in the world, but you will be more pronounced, as one of Heaven, because of what you say, and do, because you hear what I say to you. Let us walk, together, today, amongst the flowers, and the grasses, of Earth, speaking of heavenly ways, walking The Way.

“Many of you, right now, are plagued, with difficult decisions, decisions that you might wish you could hand to someone else, and say, ‘Take this. I do not want to deal with it. It is too challenging.’ The truth of it is, if the decision has fallen upon you, it is yours to handle, but you do not have to make the decision, on your own. Still, do not let this decision making eat into you, breaking bone, and tearing sinew and muscle, becoming so heavy, in its weight, you cannot move. It is not necessary for you to bear such a weight. Take this decision, and sit with God, and listen, with intention, and purpose.

“When the decision is of such weight, you must be willing to take the time. If it takes hours, take hours. If it takes days, take days. But sit with God, until it is done, and you rise-up, and know The Way to resolution, without concern of what others are thinking the resolution should be, because everyone around you will have an opinion about what you should do with this decision, that is a burden to you.

“As I walked upon the Earth, there were those who tried to trick Me into making a decision, one way, or the other. I always asked God, The Father, ‘What should I say?’ And then I would pronounce the words, that were not My words, but the words of The Father. In so doing, those around Me knew The Way of God, through what I was saying, because it was The Will of God. Many times, I had to make decisions, that were not pleasing to those around Me. There was one such time when a young man came and asked Me what he should do, so that he could follow Me. And I told him what he needed to do, but he could not bring himself to do it. He made a decision himself, and once his decision was made, I walked away. When those around Me asked for answers to certain questions, the answer I gave, was the answer God gave to Me to give. You are never alone, in a decision-making process, if you take your question to God. I was never plagued with the decisions, I was freed of the burden of them, by speaking the words of God.

“When God gives you the resolution to the decision, state it, clearly. Do not feel you have to stay to enforce, or re-enforce, that resolution. State the resolution, as God has given you the resolution, and walk away. You will be free of the burden, of the decision, knowing it was resolved in The Way of God, through The Wisdom of God, by The Hand of God, touching you.”

September 5, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM with you today, and every day. I AM with you, in a special way, when you speak to Me, when you say, 'Will you walk with Me?' 'Will you teach Me?' 'Will you show Me The Way?' However you greet Me, and ask Me to stay with you, I will always say, 'Yes.' I will come to you. And I will come to you, in a special way, as we draw nearer, and nearer, with each word you say. Let us walk into this day, together.

"When you mention the word 'perfection,' most will reject the idea, that they can be perfect. Yet, it is possible to be perfect, as your Father in Heaven is perfect. When people repeat the words, I did say, thousands of years ago, regarding that, '... you can do everything I AM doing, and even greater things.' there is also rejection. You might say that I said it. You might say it yourself, commenting that this is what I said. But you reject, outright, the thought, that you can do everything I did, and am doing, and even greater things. And it is through these acts that you reach your perfection, that you are perfect, as your Father in Heaven is perfect. 'How can this be possible?' you might say. Well, I will tell you.

"The only way it is possible is for you to stay so connected with God that The Love of God flows freely through you, without barriers, or walls, that you are constantly washed in God's Love, in God's Perfect Love. And it is through The Perfection of God that you are made perfect, as your Father in Heaven is perfect. And this Perfect Love moves through you, and it makes it possible, for you: to love one another; to love your enemies; to bless those who curse you; to give beyond what is asked of you; to go the extra mile, with your brother or sister; to provide what is needed, for others around you. This is your perfection. It is The Perfection of God, working through you. And therein, are the miracles, because what God wants, you to do, and asks you do, and you freely do, using The Love of God, to power you, is often called a miracle. If God desires the miracle, it will come through you, as long as you stay open, and let it flow through you.

"Do not put dams, or barriers, between you and God with anger, or hatred, or greed. Keep yourself clean, and let it flow through you. I added, 'even greater things,' to that statement, simply because God might ask you to do something that was/is greater than what I did. Do not shake your head. Do not reject the idea. Embrace the idea because it is possible. If it were not possible, I would not have said it; but it is not possible if you reject it.

"You must keep yourself open, and clean. And you must stay with God all the time. Then everything I said to you is possible for you to do, because it is God's Perfect Love, flowing through you. It is The Perfection of God that is the power that fuels you. This is how it is possible. Do not reject the possibility. Embrace the reality. You can, if you will."

August 29, 2021

"I AM with you. I call. You hear Me. I touch you. You feel Me. I send you a sign, and within the sign, you see Me. Open, so we can be together, walking in the garden of Earth. We will walk together, you and Me, and we will sing, and I shall know your heart. Let us walk in the garden today, together. We will whisper, we will pray, and we will stay in communion, all of the day.

"You can build, within your being, a sacred space. You create it from desire, and longing. Your creation lives. Whatever you create, this energy that you create, within you, lives. Be mindful of what you are creating. Check your thoughts. If your thoughts begin to remind you of something, that was done to you, by another person, which you felt offensive, or in which you felt offended, you must instantly forgive that. Do not create more of that. Release everything, about that situation, and begin to create your own energy. Do not magnify the energies others might have created, in darkness and shadow, energies which you feel were hurled upon you, from darkness and shadow. Do not claim them as your own, and magnify them, by your thoughts, or your words, or deeds.

"Reject creating, in darkness and shadow, and go within, and create glorious things. Create your sacred space, within. Everything you create is energy, and it lives. So, this creation, this sacred creation, within you, the creation of peace, and love, and light, all these things, they move through you, and out from you, and you begin to radiate peace, and love, and light. And others walk into your peace, and love, and light, and feel the sacredness of that sanctuary, that is around you; and they take some of that energy with them; and they can use that energy to build upon. That energy will instill, within them, the desire to create their own sacred space of peace. And since they desire it, it is done.

"This is how you help a world in chaos and confusion. In fact, this is one of the few ways that you can help a world in chaos and confusion, because by doing this you are in constant connection with God. So, everything you do is not only living energy, sacred space, it is a living prayer, communication with God. And this is how you help. This is how you assist. This is how you do your part for good, creating from within, and letting it pass from you. This is how peace begins.

"When an airplane, flying high above, filled to capacity, with passengers, hits turbulence, and there is danger that the plane will lose oxygen, the masks, delivering the oxygen for life, drop from above you, and you are encouraged to put your mask on, before you attempt to help anyone else. That is a good example of what connecting with God, to create your own sacred space, does for all people. You cannot help without your connection with God, without the energy you are creating of peace, and love, and light, within you, and let it flow through you. Once you are in that state, of communion with God, and creation of light, and love, and peace, then you are able to help, by sharing that energy. And you share it simply by being it. Those, who walk into it, feel it, and know it, and choose it, and desire it. And your part is done, there. They can either choose to use it, or end up being indifferent to it, turn from it.

"This week, rather than becoming upset, with what is happening around you, go within and create what is needed: sacred space, peace, love, light. Once these creations exist, they are living, they are alive, and they deliver what you created to any, who will come, and taste of it. This, is what you can do, when the world, around you, is coming undone."

August 22, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM with you to walk through this day. Our ability to do this, together, should be a source of celebration, should be your comfort, should be your joy. Let us not delay. I reach-out, and say, 'Come.' Let us walk into this day, together. There is so much to see, and so much to hear, and so much to say. So, let your thoughts, and your words, and your deeds, be a constant blessing to this sacred day.

"Today, I wish to speak to you about your connection with God. It is a connection, that is often interrupted, or cut off. And once it is interrupted, or cut off, there is a different feeling about your life, upon Earth. You feel alone, like an astronaut, stranded on the moon. But I tell you, this connection is always possible. It is up to you, to stay connected, because God is always with you. Heaven is near to you. Heaven is with you, now. And there are so many examples of a presence, being obscured, in everyday life, that you can use this, to lift your understanding about The Presence of God with you. Some of them are very obvious. A cloudy day interrupts the rays of the sun, in such a way, that you cannot see the sun. You cannot see its brightness. But it is there, and you know it. It is behind the clouds. As soon as they move out, you see the sun, again. And you see the sun and the blue sky which you cannot see, when it is raining, or it is stormy. But, when the rain, and the storm, moves out the blue sky and the sun is there, just as it has always been.

"It is the same with the moon and the stars. You cannot see the moon on a cloudy night, or a stormy night, but it is there. It does not go anywhere, because it is the moon. And the sun is the sun. They do not change because of the circumstances, or the situation. It is you who must keep the connection vibrant, and alive. And you do so through your intellect, telling yourself, 'Well, it has rained for three days, but soon I will see the sun again.' You are confident in this. You know it.

"Today, I ask you to be just as confident in The Presence of God with you, knowing that Heaven is with you, and near to you. Say it with confidence, when there are clouds, all around you, when a storm threatens to beat you down, and the winds howl. Say, just as you pronounce that you know the sun will be seen again, and the moon will be seen again, it is there, you just cannot see it at the time; say, 'God is present, and the same, with me, even while the clouds are drawing near to me.' This is a good way to picture reality, in its truest form, in its spiritual form, because God is not going away. The moon, and the sun, do not go away, and God does not go away. Establish that connection, in a vibrant way, so that no matter what comes to you today, or down the road, you can say, 'God is with me today,' and believe it, and know it.

"Now, rise-up, and walk into the world, created by man, and show it. Show that you know God is with you, today."

August 15, 2021

"I AM with you. It is possible for us to be together, all of the time. It is possible for Me to be with you, as you work, and play, as you sleep, and pray. As you do all things, I AM with you. Do not be distracted, by what others might say, about this communion, between you and Me. It is true, and you can feel it. You know it, from within. Deep within, you know, I AM with you. Let us walk together today, and see, what is just around the bend. It is a new day for you. Let us make it a glorious day. Come, and I will show you The Way.

"When I walked upon the Earth, thousands of years ago, I noticed, the power of the wind. It was what propelled the ships, and the little boats, over the sea. And the skilled ones knew, how to use the wind, and take them, to where they wanted to be, on the other side of the sea. For one who looks, and is still enough, you will notice, that the wind, can shake the grasses, and the leaves on the trees, and gather the seeds, and carry them, for miles. And then, spread them all around, on the ground. Thus, planting what was in one place, to grow in another. And the wind can carry these seeds, a very far distance, from where they began. The wind can bring, the rain, the clouds. The wind can blow away the storms. The wind can be as a gentle breeze, and cool you off, when you are too warm. The wind can, shake your clothing, and make all things rise-up, and ride upon the wind. Watch the leaves, falling from the trees, they are riding the wind. And watch the animals, observe the wind. They pause, and lift-up their heads, as if they are sniffing, breathing-in, the wind.

"I saw all these things upon the Earth, and many more things. But watching a field of grain, as the wind blows through it, is like seeing a golden sea. And these seeds, are carried, on the wind, too. Look at a lake, and see the wind pass over it, and the water rise-up, to be part of it, the wind.

"I observed the wind, often, when I walked upon the Earth. There are so many aspects of what the wind can do. But what I would like to leave you with, this morning, is thinking of The Holy Spirit of God as The Wind, and realizing what all The Wind, can bring to you, settle into you. Every aspect of the wind, that is of climate, on the Earth, can be applied to The Spirit of God as The Wind, and what it does for you. It can lift you up, and plant you, where you need to be. And it can cool you, and caress you, as you sit beneath a tree. Open your heart, your spirit, and soul, and ride The Wind.

August 8, 2021

“I AM with you. It is such a delightful experience to watch over you, and to watch you, and hear you commit to following The Way. And do not be dismayed, if your fall, or crash to the ground. The glory is in rising-up and continuing, dusting yourself off, and moving forward. Because, even when you fall, you are still doing it. The journey is still yours, with all the success, with all the stumbles, and tumbles. All of it rolled into one, it is your journey upon Earth. Today, let us walk it together, and mark it in such a way, that you can say, ultimately, at the end of your life, upon Earth, this was my journey, it is mine, and now I return Home.

“When I walked upon the Earth, I gathered those around Me, as I was directed, and guided, to do, so that they would save, and know, each incident, each situation, and pass it on to you. And they did, each in their own way, they did. They held what was special, to each one, close to their hearts, and repeated the stories, over, and over, again, because they were part of the great miracle. They were a piece of the redemption of mankind. They were watching it unfold. And it was necessary to gather them into My fold, so they might walk with Me, and see. Not just hear about, but see, what God would do through Me.

“Today, I want to encourage each of you to strip away all the extra things that you have wrapped around My simple words, and just follow, simply. When I said, ‘Love one another,’ I made it clear, there was to be no exception. ‘Love one another.’ If you remember who you are, and you are in touch with your real self, your eternal spirit, that is within the garment of Earth, that is The Way you will be able to love, without discrimination, without exclusion. You will love from your spirit. You are getting things confused. You are thinking your body is the most important thing, and your brain is what you are going to love with. And that cannot be. The only way you can love one another, love your enemy, is to know who you are, and do it from your spirit self, because your spirit, the eternal you, will connect with the spirit of your enemy, too. And the spirits will connect, not the physical bodies, not the garments of Earth, the spirit within your enemy, within your neighbor, with whom you might have an argument, or disagreement. Speak from your spirit. That is where the connection will be. And then, you will find it is possible. When you strip away the garments of Earth, and go to the core of who you are, then your conversation is different.

“And it is the same with, ‘Turn the other cheek.’ That statement was not meant for someone that slaps you, or hits you, or attacks you, in some way, only. It was also meant for arguments, and disagreements. And you might find this difficult to do. But there, turn the other cheek, too, because having the last word has nothing to do with your eternal life upon the Earth. When someone is assailing you verbally, turn the other cheek, because when you do this, you are turning from the argument, and focusing on God. You are no longer arguing about something that is worldly. You are focusing on God, and you do not even hear what is being said. Turn the other cheek has more to do than the physical strike, more to do than that. It has to do with letting all stop with you.

“All of the words that you speak, when you think of Me, and you are remembering things that I said, and did, from Scripture, take these words back to their simplest form, and apply them to your spirit. I said, Heaven is near to you, and Heaven is with you. And that is true. Now, you have some work to do. If you follow My words, to the simplest form, Heaven will spring up, as flowers in a garden, all around you. Those individuals, who come to you, will experience Heaven on Earth, because you will be creating it. God, The Father, created. You are co-creator children of God. Create what God would have you create. And do it from your spirit. You do not have to dress it up in fine clothes, and jewelry, and cars, and all other worldly possessions. Because, they have no place in The World of God. Love, charity, kindness, compassion, forgiveness, and on, and on, the list goes, those valuable jewels, those gems of eternity, that is what you carry back Home with you. And you have the possibility to create them on Earth, bringing Heaven on Earth more completely, and more fully, than ever before. This is a great thing you have the opportunity to do.

“Let today be the day you make the commitment. Stand up and say, ‘I am a child of God. I come from The Spirit of God, and I intend to bring Heaven upon the Earth, for The Glory of God’.”

August 1, 2021

"I AM with you. We have another day. You are upon the Earth, and you have the opportunity to accomplish something, today, for The Light, and The Glory, of God. So, do not let this opportunity slip away. I AM with you. I will encourage you. You will know where to go, and you will know the words to say, if you stay with Me, today. Be at peace about this day, quietly say, 'I will do good, today.' And, let it remain that way. Come, let us walk and talk, together. Let us create this new day.

"As we walk, and talk, together, your focus, then, draws toward Me, as I AM focusing upon thee. And, in that state, it is easy to be of Light, and do good. There is no temptation to speak ill of others because, I would never tempt you, into darkness and shadow. When we think of others, we bless them, and say, 'Be at peace,' 'God be with you,' blessing, not cursing. The temptation, to speak ill of others, or what others might be doing, or saying, is a serious threat to you, to those of whom you are speaking. You cannot speak ill of another, without tainting yourself. You cannot speak ill of another, or what they are doing, or saying, without giving more power to what they are creating, because that is what you are focusing on. And you cannot speak ill of another person, or others, without confirming what they are creating. And while this might be difficult to accept, it is true.

"If you continue to say that another person is bad, or evil, or wicked, or meanspirited, that makes those states, within them, grow. They are more powerfully mean, or wicked, or evil, or meanspirited, because you are making it so. But, if you resist this temptation, to speak ill of another person, or others, you are not adding to the power of their thoughts, or their words, or deeds. And you can take it another step further, by blessing that person, or wishing them peace, quietly, when you think of that name. Then, you are countering what they are thinking, saying, or doing, in a spiritually, energetic way.

"Where your thoughts, words, and deeds, focus, is where your creative, energy goes to power that, which you are focusing upon. It is simple, when you look and see, that, if you have a garden, of flowers, one on the right side of the sidewalk, and one on the left side of the sidewalk, you will notice, that where you focus your attention, that garden, that gets your attention, is more bountiful, and beautiful, and probably free of weeds. The garden which does not receive your attention gets choked-out by the weeds, and it is less than bountiful, and less than beautiful. Where you focus, goes the creative power.

"Your spiritual energy can be used to counter darkness and shadow, by what you are thinking. When you have a noble goal, do not taint it, by putting down other people. Let your noble goal rise above gossip, and speaking ill of another, because when your goal, seems to be accomplished, by putting others down, it is wearing the robe, that you have wrapped around it: the robe of gossip, the robe of belittling, the robe of mocking. Your noble goal is tainted because, that, which you created, was of darkness and shadow. Let your noble goal remain noble, and pure, by creating it thus. It is not necessary to put another down, for you to rise. Rise, and be at peace, and wish all others, blessings of peace. When you do this, you are countering their thoughts, words, and deeds, but you are doing it, using The Wisdom of Heaven, learning The Ways of God."

July 25, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM calling. Let us walk, into this day. Look around, and see The Glory, that is with us, today. Come. Let us walk, and sit, and talk. The Glory of God is with us, today.

"Rest. As you grow weary, rest. And then, when you rise-up, feeling rejuvenated, and renewed, remember what I say to you, today. Even though the road be long, ahead of you, even though the road takes you up the mountain, and down into the valleys, and wind around rivers and streams, there is no need to hurry. You can take your journey, upon the Earth, at a leisurely pace. Do not let others push you, or prod you, to have you moving, as if it is a race, of some type. It is not. Slow down, so that you will not grow weary, and absorb every experience available to you, along The Way. Sit, and rest, and watch the turtle. Sit, and rest, and watch the bees. Sit, and rest, and recall your story. Do not hurry. Celebrate, The Glory of God, as you walk along The Way, as you make your mark, as you take your Earth journey.

"There seems to be the thought, amongst those living on Earth today, that you can do multiple things, at the same time, and you can keep moving forward, and pressing forward, and you can keep all these balls, in the air, juggling them. But there will come a day, when you are so enthralled in the balls, that you have in the air, that you do not notice the obstacle at your feet. And when you tumble, and fall, the balls crash down upon you. And often, it is all you can do, to get back up. Do not let the chores of the day distract you from The Glory of God, all around you. Do one thing at a time, so you can bless it, so you can nurture it, so that when that creation comes from you, it is a fitting gift to The Creator of All Things, because you are a co-creator with God. So, do not diminish, what you are creating, by creating five or six different things, at the same time, because, they will be creations, but they will not be complete. Focus on what you are doing, at the time, and move along the path, unhurried, and you will be less worried; and you will not grow weary, doing one thing at a time.

"Focus on the journey that is yours. It is a blessing. It is a gift. Do not diminish it by ignoring it. Take the time, to look around, and see the beauty, that is The Glory of God, with you, right now, today."

July 18, 2021

"I AM with you. I speak to you, and you recognize My voice. The vibration moves into you, and it is as fingers upon the strings of a harp. You know me. I know you. And we share this time together. We walk, and talk, together. And it is good. I AM with you.

"So many of you, in your prayers, tell Me how tired, and weary, you are, how hurt, and alone, you feel, how you have been rejected. And I hear your cries, and your prayers, and I know you, because I know your heart, just as God knows your heart. Without belittling that which plagues you, I wish to say this to you, today. You can free yourself of the misery you are experiencing, but it takes work. And it takes a willing heart. Your spirit, who you really are, the spirit that is you, which is held within the physical body, desires this completeness that it already has, but your body can be weak, and tempted, and even if you set the course, toward freeing yourself, the body is going to tempt you back to the rut, to the place where you have always been. And I reach out, and say, come, follow Me. Pay attention to the words, that were left behind. Hear Me. Through time and space, hear Me. You might not see My face, but you know Me. You recognize the call.

"Today, is the day to begin the practice of forgiveness. And if you are hearing these words, or reading these words, you might say to yourself, I have forgiven all things. But if we sat, together, and reviewed, going back, going back, going back, you would find that there is not only something, not only one thing, but possibly, and probably, many things, which need to be addressed. But once you have the faith to address them, once you believe it is important to forgive, these things of the past, as you do it, and as the forgiveness comes to fruition, you are lighter, immediately, because you are no longer carrying that chain, that burden, that weight. And then, and only then, do you realize the difference it makes in you. Forgiveness is about no one, but you. The prayer, that I taught you, says, forgive me, as I forgive others. Hold that thought and forgive others. Once you begin this practice, it actually becomes something, which you enjoy doing, because you feel the freedom immediately. You do not have to wait for the stew to simmer. You can dine on that divine light that comes from the practice of forgiveness.

"Begin today, in a serious way, not just letting the words come over your lips, and out of your mouth, but do it within. Let your soul, your spirit, and your heart guide you, to places where the unforgiveness has been hiding, and go, and work, and be free. Once you take care of that, once you feel lighter with that, take all weariness to God, take all decision making to God, take all mountains, and challenges, and obstacles to God, and they will crumble, and fall from you, because you will find, sitting in the presence of God, that it is not necessarily your decision to make. Yours is to follow the decision made by God. The Divine Will holds, within it, your will. The struggle comes, when you insist, it must be done your way. And you turn from the wisdom, and you stray into shadow.

"If you will do these two things, if you will begin practicing these two things, forgiveness, and sitting with God, you will not be weary, you will not be burdened, you will be free, because your desire, to forgive, has forgiven thee. You will live in the light of God. And, as you sit with God, you will live in the light and the wisdom of God. Start today. Practice, and see."

July 11, 2021

"I AM with you. Listen. You will feel My Presence with you. Listen. Turn away from the noise, of the everyday world, and walk with Me, so you might take The Path of The Divine Light. There is much I want to tell you. And I will tell you all that you are ready to hear, right now, as we draw near to each other. Come, walk with Me, awhile.

"God did not create the energy of greed, nor envy. Greed and envy do exist. They are energies created by the children, upon Earth, in their thoughts. And, as they are created, they live. So do the energies of fear, and dread, and doubt, and confusion, because they too were created, within the thoughts, of the children, upon the Earth. And these energies move, all over the Earth, and every day such energies are either rejected, or embraced. But there are also children on Earth, who, within their thoughts create, love, kindness, generosity, compassion, all the things of light. And as they are created, they live, and they move over the Earth. Sometimes they are rejected, and sometimes they are embraced.

"You cannot see the spirit of envy, but you can feel the presence of envy. And as one is creating envy, within their thoughts, their words reveal the presence of envy, and their deeds take it further, into realization. Therefore, it exists, for them, and all those around them. The unseen is more powerful than the material objects you can see. Spirit makes it so. You are spirit. The Spirit of God is within you. And your spirit animates your body.

"The baseball and the baseball bat are material objects, inanimate objects, until you think, you create the thought, that you will pick up the bat, and hit the ball. Then the creation, of what you are going to do, brings your spirit to the bat. And you pick it up, and you hit the ball. And your spirit animates that bat, that ball. And the essence of your spirit remains within that material object. This is why, so often, you can hold a ring, that is many years old, and feel something, from that ring, that was worn by a kind, loving person, because the essence of their spirit remains in that ring. You are more powerful than you can imagine. God has given you creative ability, use it for Light. God has given you free will, use it for Light. God has given you the time on Earth, to complete a mission, use your time for The Light. Do not waste time. Do not dabble in darkness and shadow. Reject it, outright. You know the feeling of the presence of anger. And you also know the feeling of the presence of forgiveness. Choose the feeling that brings you peace.

"Spirit animates the body you are wearing, right now, for a while. God is Spirit, and Love. You come from Spirit, and Love. And after your time on Earth is complete, you will return, fully, to spirit, and continue your eternal life. It is time to realize The Glory of Eternal Life, and the importance of this portion of your eternal life, because you are creating it, every minute of the day. Stop. Pay attention to what you are thinking, to what you are doing, to what you do say."

July 4, 2021

“I AM with you. And this is cause for celebration. This is cause for song, and dance: that you are never alone; that I AM with you, during happy times, and trying times. And if you will rest in that truth, then all things will be fine, because you will be living the divine life, you will be fulfillment of, being in the world, but not of the world. I AM with you.

“The reason that it can often feel like you are so detached, so far away from God, is because you do not understand that Heaven is near to you, Heaven is with you.

“When a family lives in one house, many rooms, under one roof, it is possible for the family to be together often, most of the time. And these gatherings can be around a dining table: where they are sharing the things of their day; where they are talking about their hopes, and dreams; where they are thanking God, for the food, they are eating. Or, it can be around a table, where a game is being played, and there is much laughter, and cheering, and sometimes booing; but all in the name of the game, and the fun that is shared, by the family, living in the house, under one roof. But, when there is disruption, one member of that family can walk away, and slam the door to the room, (in which) they are intending to stay. And they cut themselves off, until it is time to return. They open their door, and come back to the table, or come back to the game. There can be times of great turbulence, when a member of the family might go out the front door, and leave the house, and not return, for quite a while. But still, that door is always open, and there is great celebration, when the disgruntled member of the family returns, and it is all together again, the joy, the laughter, the prayers.

“It is the same with what is happening now. Heaven is with you. Earth is a room. And there are many other rooms. But the closer you come to uniting, with the family, under that roof, in The Kingdom of God, that is with you, the closer you will come to peace, and joy, and happiness, because you will be with your family. God is The Eternal Parent, and you are a member of that family. So, if you have chosen to close your door, and stay in your room, think about coming back to the table, coming back to the game, coming back to the love, and the desire to be with each other. And even if you have left the abode totally, come back. All you have to do is to walk through the door, no questions asked. It is that simple. Heaven is with you. Do not act as if it is some place, far away, separate from you. It is with you, and it is now. And I AM with you, and I AM now. You are in the world, but you are not of the world. You are of The Kingdom of God.”

June 27, 2021

"I AM with you. We travel together. I AM constant. Take My hand, and follow Me. Let us go into this new day, together, confident, courageous, and sure.

"There are times, for each of you, when you have doubts, or worries, or just do not know what to do. Now, many seek the wisdom, and guidance, of others. Some find it in books, or courses, or counseling. But then, you are not quite sure, as you listen to what another person is telling you to do. When you are seeking the opinion of others, you will receive many, because the answers, the opinions, will come from many. It is important to remember, that the opinions, and answers, offered by others, are solutions which might have worked for them. But this does not always mean, that the opinions, and answers, from others, will work for you. The only way, you will always know, the best answer for you, and only you, is to take all your questions to God. Sit with God, and be still, be quiet, and listen. God will teach you, in fulfillment of the promise, that 'they will all be taught by God.'

"I brought the words of God to Earth. I was, and AM, The Living Word of God. Therefore, I taught The Ways of God. I lived The Words of God, and did so, so that all could see, and know, The Ways of God, through Me. Before it was My time, before I returned Home, I promised to send a Counselor for each one, so that The Ways of God would be with each of you, at all times. Do not seek the opinion or answers from, others. Seek the answers, from The Holy Spirit of God, The Wisdom of God will then shine through you, be held in the words you say, and all you do. And The Counselor, The Holy Spirit is with you, today, present right now. The Holy Spirit of God is within you. The Wisdom of God is within you. Seek it. Seek solutions from within.

"Do not hesitate to speak to The Holy Spirit. The Counselor will talk to you, and guide you, and lift you up, because The Holy Spirit was sent to show you, to teach you, to guide you, to be your Counselor, The Counselor, from The Kingdom of God, just for you. And when you ask, there will not be many answers. There will not be two, or a few. There will one divine answer, just for you. The Holy Spirit will show you what you need to see, tell you what you need to know, and take you where you need to go. And it will be perfect. It will be right. It will be correct, whether day, or night, because it is the answer, specifically for you. And while others, around you, might not understand, what you are about to do, or even what you say, they will learn, The Ways of God, when you say, 'This is The Way, I am guided to go. These are the words, I am guided to say. There is no confusion, in me today. Therefore, I rise-up, and walk The Way.'

"Do not exchange The Wisdom of Heaven, for what others might think they know. The answer to every question you might have will be found within, exactly where it has always been. God is waiting, I AM waiting, The Holy Spirit is waiting, to show you The Way, so that you might walk in it, and live it, not occasionally, but every day, until you return Home."

June 20, 2021

"I AM with you. And while it might be difficult to comprehend, that I AM with you, it is so. I AM closer to you, than the person sitting next to you. I AM not encumbered by the physical body. I move, and I AM with you. I reach out, and ask, that you take My hand. Come, follow Me, and we will walk, together, into this day, and throughout the week. Come, walk with Me. Let us walk, and talk, together.

"I would like to share the importance of giving, giving that which you are asked to give. Now, the world, created by man, will not give you this advice. The advice would be to keep, and to hold, close to you, what is valuable, to thee. But, when you continue to gather, and amass, physical things, properties, money, any type of material object, your focus goes into keeping, to maintaining, to possessing, these objects. That is where you heart is. Free yourself of that worry, and concern. Do not place that great a value on something that can burn, or be stolen, or tear, or be moved from one person, to another, in exchange for something else, which you must maintain, as you possess it.

"When someone asks for your coat, be willing to give them your coat, and your sweater, and your shirt. Give. When someone asks you to sit with them awhile, and listen, then sit with them, awhile, and listen, without judgment. This is giving of your time. It is giving compassion and understanding. When someone asks you to walk with them, or take a ride with them, go, without consideration of how far you must walk, or drive. Go the distance, and farther. This is giving. This is giving of your energy. This is giving hope. This is giving your physical presence. And do so, with love, because then you bless the giving, and your physical presence, with the spiritual gift of love. You are giving your spirit, as well.

"During the week, many of you will have the opportunity to give. Do so, with an open heart. Give with love, and give, willingly, and you shall be blessed, beyond that you can imagine. You will be rich, in spirit."

June 6, 2021

"I AM with you. I reach-out, so that you might take My hand. Today, I reach-out, and whisper, 'Take My hand. Let us walk in the garden. Let us talk in the garden. Let us sing, and dance, in the garden of Earth, and know every experience, and its worth.' I reach-out My hand, and say, 'Come. follow Me.'

"The Gift of Free Will comes from The Creator, as an ultimate gift, giving you the authority to continue your creation, to continue, by making choices, about the things you wish to say, and do, the clothing you wear, the friends you have. Yes, God created you, but with the gifting of Free Will, you get to wrap the gift of you, your creation. You tie the bows. You decorate the box. You complete the creation, by showing who you are, by using your Free Will. It is a powerful gift. But to fully embrace this powerful gift, to fully understand the greatness of this powerful gift, you must be willing to acknowledge, that the things that occur in your life, are by your choice. And when you can make that step, when you can say those words, 'I chose this,' then the door to wisdom is unlocked, and you find it in all choices you make: the ones that have an end result, which you like; and, the ones that have an end result, which you would prefer not to experience, at all. Yet, within this time of frustration, the times you often do not want to see, you find illumination, and clear sight, and you move on, enlightened, illuminated by the wisdom of the lesson.

"Now, when a young person is driving a car, they follow the direction: in a pamphlet; or a book; or a video; or perhaps a figure of authority, such as a teacher, or a parent. So, they are told do not do this, and do not do that. And it goes okay, but they do not pay attention, as much as if it was learned by experience. You can say, to the young driver: 'Keep your eyes on the road.' 'Focus on what is happening around you.' 'Be careful and pay attention.' You can say all these things. But then, something falls from the seat, onto the floor. They are distracted, reach for the object, and the car veers off the road, bumping into a side rail, or a tree, causing little damage, but bringing a new lesson. Because now, the young driver knows, what will happen, if you lose your focus.

"You can apply that lesson to any situation. When you lose focus, all things unravel. If you focus on good, good will happen. If you focus, on what you believe to be bad, then that is what happens. Focus on what you are doing, at the present time, because the present time, is the present piece of eternity. And you have The Gift of Free Will to help you get from place to place, from step to step.

"In a classroom, filled with children, about the age of four or five, the kindergarten teacher passes out coloring books. And there is a big box of crayons, at the center of each table. Now, the children can choose, which colors they wish to use. But some find it difficult, to stay within the defined lines of the coloring book. And, the teacher, who is kind and loving, notices this, and brings out some papers, and gives them to the children, who seem lost, trying to stay in the lines, and they are called, connect-a-dot, go from one place to another, to another, creating a picture, by choosing, which way to go. And this seems to suit those children. And then, the loving teacher looks, and sees that, while some cannot stay within the lines of the coloring book, still some cannot make the movement, or make the choice, from one step to the next. And the wise teacher gives those children, a blank page. And they begin to create their own lines, their own limitations, their own boundaries, from the choices they make. No matter which child you might associate with, when the children go home, after school, and show the parents the work they did, during the time of coloring the pages, each work, each piece of art, is proudly put on the refrigerator. It is displayed, for all to see. It does not matter whether it was: a beautifully colored pictured, all within the lines; or, step by step movement, the child made through choices, and then colored with fascinating choices of reds, and blues, and yellows, and greens; or, the page, on which the child created their own masterpiece, usually stick people, under a tree, by a house. It does not matter, to the parent, what it is. It is the work their child did, using their choices, and it is displayed.

“God displays, the work you do, and hangs it, in a place of honor.”

May 30, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM with you, so that you might know The Way. I AM with you, when you call, for assistance. I AM with you: to remind you of the words I did say, when I walked upon the Earth, of the deeds I did do, when I walked upon the Earth; to remind you of that which I said, the important words, which were left with you, to be constant signs, for you, so you would know The Way. So come, let us walk into this day.

"As I walked upon the Earth, and talked, with those I loved, it soon became obvious, that the ways of the world, made it very difficult, even for those, who were trying to comprehend, what I was saying, because the ways of the world, are the ways of ego. The world teaches you: how to take care of yourself, your body, your needs, the needs of your family; how to feed them, and clothe them, and shelter them. But these ways, are to teach you how to sustain you. And the ways of the world can be, in this way, rather isolating, and isolated. You are isolated, because of your desire to take care of you, and your family, first.

"It was very different, what I was teaching. I was teaching to give, when you are asked to give, and give even more. That can be a trial, a challenge, when someone asks you for something, and you do not want to share it, because of your concern, that down the road, you might need it, and you gave it away. But you see, these thoughts, these concerns, and worries, are the ways of the world. They are not the ways of God. What comes to you, let it flow through you, and out to others. Give. Love without limitation. Love without boundaries. Love. My teachings were not of the world. My teachings are, still are, of Heaven. My encouragement, and support, to those I loved, was so they might bring Heaven onto the Earth, more completely, more fully, because I tell you Heaven is with you. But you are blind, and you cannot hear. You are not aware that it is here. Therefore, for you, it is not. But for those, who will take My words, and make them their own, Heaven is with them, every minute. And everywhere they go, everywhere they roam, Heaven is there, as well.

"Do not give-up that which is already yours. Do not ignore that which is already yours. When it was clear, that those I loved might fall into doubt, and return to the ways of the world, I asked that The Holy Spirit be sent forth, to dwell, within each of you, even to this day. It was not just for a few. It was for all of you, so that you might know The Way. Do not ignore The Wisdom of Heaven, that is yours. But to know, and to hear, the guidance, that is meant, especially for you, you must be willing to be still, and quiet, and sit, and ask for guidance. And The Holy Spirit will tell you exactly where to go, and what to do.

"Nothing has been left undone, by The Hand of God. You have The Wisdom of Heaven, within you, to know The Way. God did not leave the children of Earth to be lost, and alone. You have The Wisdom, within you, today. Be still. Be quiet. Ask, and you will know The Way."

May 23, 2021

"I AM with you. I whisper, words of encouragement, so you might begin to believe, that I AM with you. Your eyes might not see, but you can hear Me, as I walk with thee. Let us go on a journey, through this day, together. When the path is clear, the steps are easy, we move, with little concern. But I can assure you, even when we encounter obstacles, at every turn, I will be with you. And if you are quiet, and still, you will hear Me. And I will guide you, and show you, The Way.

"When there are days, when everything seems to go right, it is so easy to sing, and dance with delight, to call friends, and share good news, to be happy with, who you are, and where you are, and what you are doing. But your life, upon the Earth, is meant to be a mission. You are on a mission, and a mission holds adventure. Pieces and parts of adventure are very calm, and easy. Other pieces and parts of adventure are challenges, and obstacles, and trials. The parts that are easy are times of relaxation. The challenges, the trials, facing obstacles, these are powerful Earth lessons. And, once you make it through these challenges, and trials, and obstacles, then you gain the wisdom of the experience. What I wish to share with you today is, do not carry the fear, and doubt, and worry, of your experience forward. Sit, and understand, what has happened, during times of challenge, and trials, and obstacles. Look and see, and learn to be still, when others would run, and hurry, and worry, not knowing what to do. Just be still, and you will receive guidance. And, before you continue forward, bless, whatever happened, releasing all negative feelings, and thoughts, and concerns, involved in that lesson. Forgive what needs to be forgiven, about that lesson, be it yourself, or others. Pick-up the lesson, and bring it, forward. The obstacles, the trials, the challenges, will continue to appear, but then, disappear, when you use the wisdom of the lessons, you have learned in the past. The wisdom of the past is the lesson. Bring it forward. Do not bring anger, or anxiety, or hatred, or any negative energy, associated with the situation. Bring the lesson forward, and then you are wiser. And each time you encounter these trials, and challenges, and obstacles, it will become habit, natural for you, to know exactly what to do, to walk through, and continue, on your journey. This is the meaning of the obstacles, trials, and challenges. They have a purpose. They make you stronger, and wiser. They bring to you a sense of confidence, and strength, and courage, rather than doubt and worry.

"Face the challenges, the obstacles, the trials with enthusiasm, knowing, that if you are still, and you go within, you will receive the guidance, that is there, always has been, waiting to be given to you, by The Holy Spirit of God. And with this Wisdom of Heaven, you will be prepared to face whatever is in front of you. This is The Lesson of Life. Use periods of trial, and strife, to bring you strength and courage, for a better life, as you journey, upon the Earth.

May 16, 2021

"I AM with you. Yes, I AM. Isn't it a delight? Isn't it wonderful, to reach-out, and take a hand? And I will hold your hand, and we will walk through this day. And no matter what might come your way, your hand is securely in Mine, and I will show you The Way. Come, walk with Me. Let us see this new day.

"You have read accounts of My years, upon the Earth. You have read accounts of My interaction, with those I drew near to Me. You have read accounts of all that I did teach them, all that I showed them, and those things I asked of them. You have read accounts of their worries and concerns, as My days, upon Earth, reached an end. This, the end, could have been the end. Those, apostles, and disciples, could have dispersed, in fear, and it would have stopped, right there.

"They witnessed a crucifixion, which they did not believe would happen. They lived through those hours, and they were dark. And they were afraid. It was as if everything, they heard Me say, was crumbling, before their eyes. And it took a while, before they could realize that, that which was crumbling, was actually continuing, building into something new, powerful, everlasting. But those, who witnessed The Crucifixion, also were to bear witness, to The Resurrection. They knew Me. They thought I was gone, never to see Me again. And then, out of the clouds, I walked, into their presence, and spoke with them, and touched them, and continued to prepare them, as it was My destiny to return Home.

"It was during that time that fear, and confusion, and chaos, slowly, began to melt, replaced by courage, and strength, and faith. Then, those, who witnessed The Crucifixion, and The Resurrection, also witnessed The Ascension, and fear began to slip in again; worry and concern, as all the gossip, and the rumors, roared through the cities and towns, that they would be sought-out, and they would be found, and their fate would be as Mine had been. But, as they were gathered, in the room, the storm came, and the wind blew, and the building shook, and so did they. And then, bursting out of their dismay, there came The Holy Spirit, with tongues of fire, and a blessing. And that strength, and courage, and faith, and belief, was altered again, like a butterfly, coming out of a cocoon. And there was The Knowing, embraced, in that room. And, when the storm did pass, and the wind did cease, those, who were shaken with fear, at one time, stood, and walked from the room, and cherished that, which they held within, which they knew was divine. They knew, and when you know, your knowing cannot be stripped from you.

"If today, you are caught in a storm, or buffeted by wind, or shaken and dismayed, remember that, which has been, and be still, and you will feel The Presence of The Holy Spirit, within you. Be quiet, and you will hear The Whisper, from within. Breathe deeply, and stand, and you will be ready to open the door, and walk.

"You are not being asked to die on a cross. You are not being asked to risk all that you have, including your life. But, you are asked to be still and quiet, and the storm shall pass. Let the winds blow. Let the windows shake. And then, welcome the new dawn, which brings to you The Gift of Knowing. And when you know, you move forward, with strength, and courage, and determination. And all that comes to you is just that, it is what comes to you; because, in The Knowing, you will always know what to do. Be still, be quiet, and you will Know The Way."

May 9, 2021

"I AM with you. As this new day comes to you, I AM with you. With the song of the birds, with the sweet scent of the flowers, with the breeze, with the sun, with the rain, I come, and I shall remain, with you. I do not demand that you take My Hand, I offer it, and ask you to come, and sit with Me, and walk with Me, so that I can show you The Way to live your life, upon the Earth, not only this day, but every day.

"As you live your life, upon Earth, the society will choose special days, that honor, certain events, certain people. And on this particular day, those of you, living in the United States, have chosen to set it aside to honor mothers, singling out the mother's role of the parents. Parents can find their roles challenging, because it is not taught, often, as you are growing up, how to be a good parent, how to step into that role of authority, without stomping and stepping all over the authority. And, it can be, difficult. But, one way, you can assume the role of authority, in a loving, positive way, is to take the example of your Eternal Parent.

"When it became apparent, that the children of Earth, The Family of Earth, was lost, and wandering, in shadow and darkness, The Eternal Parent sent The Living Word to show The Way. And I had clear direction, and guidance, from Our Father, so that: I would know, what to do, what to say, where to go; I would know, who to heal, who to touch, who gather into My arms, and who to whisper to. I was taught. I was shown The Way.

"It is clear, by the history of the world, that authority, when seized, is tenuous, at best. It is forced upon the people. When parents do not understand the role, have not been given guidance for the role, of authority, there is the temptation to seize authority, as a whip, as a weapon. The Way is to show, how to do something, how to say something. And, if you are demanding, that the children, of the family, do something, but then, they see you do the opposite, or even slightly different, from what you are demanding of them, this creates confusion. It creates doubt. And the doubt, melts-in, and undermines the authority of the parent. The children loose respect for the parent, when they are dismayed, and uncertain, as to what the parent is saying to them, because you see, they are watching what you are doing. So, in doing, you are saying.

"Today, I speak mostly to those of you, who have assumed the role of mother. This is a vital role. And oftentimes, this role is assumed by one, who is not the birth mother, but the mother of choice, the mother, who steps forward, and says, 'I am here. Is it me? I shall do it.' Be mindful of what you are doing. Do not say one thing and do another. Think, every morning, as you pray, about the responsibility of the role you play, and ask God for guidance. Ask God for guidance, as a parent, asking The Eternal Parent, The Perfect Parent, for advice, for counsel, for direction, and you will receive it, and you will know The Way is Love. And even when you must ask, of the child, or children, that they do something, that they might find difficult, they will still respect and honor you, if they see, that you do, what you ask of them, to do. It is not easy, but the instruction is simple. Do, as you say, do.

"This is the example God gives to you. This is the example The Holy Spirit whispers to you. This is the example I lived for you. And, when it is difficult to do, ask, and God will guide you. And in this way, you will be able to rise-, and do, as you say, do. And those, in your care, will honor, respect, and love you, as they grow in The Wisdom of God spoken, and lived, through you."

May 2, 2021

"I AM with you. You need not seek, just turn around, and there you will find Me, walking next to you. There is no need for fear, or worry, or concern, of any kind. Be still, be quiet, and you will find, I AM there, with you. It is The Promise that I shall always be with you. It takes faith to believe that this is true. But, when you are still, and quiet, it is easier to do, to know I AM there, with you. I will continue to show you The Way, until you return Home.

"Let us speak of revenge and retaliation. It is a vicious, cruel cycle, which entraps all who venture near to it, like a black hole, in space. One reason, that the energies, of revenge and retaliation, are so strong, resist resolution, desire to live, within those it has entrapped, is because these energies are ancient, most often growing stronger, more insidious, with each new generation. The energies, of revenge and retaliation, travel through generations, taking up residence in those, who would not give shelter, to such shadow and darkness, but for the teachings of generations.

"It is time for the energies, of revenge and retaliation, to stop, to ravage no more, to extinguish not one breath of life. It is time for each of you to turn the other cheek to insult, anger, war, revenge, and retaliation, for this is not The Way. It is not My Way. It is not The Way of God. It is hostile to The Way of Love, Kindness, and Generosity.

"Envision a scene wherein one individual is assailing another. Envision the one, being assailed, turning his head from the assailant, completely, as if looking toward something, in another direction. What are you seeing? What are you noticing? One has stopped the act of aggression. One has turned his attention, away from the act of war, and turned the face, the eyes, the ears to The Voice of God. One has voluntarily chosen, another direction. And that chosen direction, is toward God. It is The Way.

"Many generational wars, and battles, curses, and vendettas have ended, because one, two, or more, of the combatants, chose another direction, turned the other cheek, so they could, more clearly, hear The Whisper of God, know The Wisdom of Heaven, from within. It takes faith to do this. It takes a desire to do The Will of God. It takes choosing Spirit over ego. It takes listening, to The Wisdom of Heaven, that you hold, within you. The ways of the world grow dim, and fade, when you are held in The Way of God. Let the battles cease, and rage no more. There is nothing more that you can do, but to let the battle end, with you."

April 25, 2021

“I AM with you. Yes, I AM here. It was the promise. I AM with you, all days, all nights, all ways. And, for those, who believe this, the exchange, between us, is a conversation of love, and hope, and trust, and faith. It is conversation of guidance, and direction, so you will know The Way. So, do not dismay, in any way. Do not despair. Do not give-up. Rise-up, I AM with you. Let us walk into the day, together.

“It is true, some days are sheer delight, nothing seems to go wrong, everything is right. The birds are singing. The sun is shining. The temperature is perfect, comfortable. There is laughter and joy, and you think, ‘this is the way it should be.’ But then, there are other days, which seem to bring to you a mass of things, that you should do. They gather-up, they pile-up, into quite a mess. The saying is, I believe, they mount-up, more-or-less creating, a mountain of things, that just seem to press you, and distress you. When you face such a day, and most of you will encounter such days, frequently, pause, before you begin to address the mess. Be quiet, before you call-out in anger, before you speak harshly, before you cry of ‘unfair.’ Be still, and connect with Me. I see what you are facing, but I see it from a different perspective. I see, and know, that you are very capable of taking care of this mess, moving it, so that you might continue along The Way; in many cases, dismantling it, dissolving, and resolving it. But, when it is a mountain, it seems too difficult to climb. But, when you see one, one task at a time, it seems doable, if you are willing to do the doable. Many times, that which needs doing goes undone, because you do not want to do it. You feel: if you wait awhile, someone else will do it; or, if you claim it is all unfair that it has come to you, enough will hear you, and help you do it. But I say to you, the only way to get through it, is to rise-up, and do it, one task at a time. Soon, you will find, one task at a time, makes that mountain, you could not climb, level, flat, resolved, and dissolved, and you move on.

“It is yours to do, if it is, in front of you. It is that simple. Take a deep breath, and take My hand, and we will begin, together, to do one task at a time. There, when it is done, you feel better. And half-way through, you will begin to see your way around it, or over it, or just walk through, what little is left, in (the) form of dust. And you will sweep it up, as you must, and then continue along The Way.

“Remember, when there is something to do, (that) you do not want to do, or feel you cannot do, reach-out your hand. Together, we will make it through.”

April 18, 2021

"I AM with you. With the coming of the new day, I AM with you, in a special way. I AM with you, for this day, just as I was through the night, and the day before, and the night before, and so on. I AM always with you. It is not only you, seeking Me, I will seek thee, and call, and whisper, and move, in such a way, that you can no longer deny, but must say, 'I feel You with me.' So, let us walk, into this new day, together. The Garden of Earth is waiting. Let us go into it, together.

"Today, I AM so moved to speak to you, about the importance, of being you. Because you are not constantly looking at yourself, that you are not observing you, it is easy to look, and observe, others, hear what they say, see what they do. And often, as you look, and see, and observe, the things they say are compelling to you. And you find their words seem better suited, for the situation, or the telling of the story, than the words you would utter. And it seems their clothing is much more appealing, in appearance, than the clothing you wear. And you follow, and you try to copy the style of the hair, the dress they wear, the suit they wear, the words they say. And, come the end of the day, you find you are not so pleased with yourself, or happy, because all day you have been striving to be that which you are not. No matter how clever your words might be, they sounded false, because you were copying, or striving to speak, the words of another, and the way the other spoke. You were using the example of dress, the style of the hair, as the example of what you should wear, or how you should look. And, no matter, how hard you tried, you did not look like they did look.

"Envision a hillside, and a man, with a pick. And, in the vision, imagine that you can see, through the outer appearance of the hillside, right into inner Earth, and you see gold, just below, where his pick is striking, as it hits the ground. But he begins to look around, before the gold is found. And there are others, on another hillside, shouting, and dancing, and singing, 'hooray,' because they have found the gold they were looking for, that day. And they are calling everybody to come, and see, what is theirs, what they lift-up, into the sunlight, for all to see. And, the man drops the pick, just short of finding the gold, and runs to join the others. And, as he arrives, they say, 'It was not gold, at all.' And, they keep digging, and he sits, in dismay, tired, unwilling to go back, and pick-up the pick, and continue the working. So, he stops, short of finding the gold. He was distracted, by the story others told, about what they did hold, when the gold of Earth was almost in his hand.

"Do not place greater value on what others have, or do, or say, than you value, that which you have, that which you do, that which you say. You are as unique as the pearl. And, you have far more value than the golden nugget. God has given you The Gift of Life, and the opportunity to choose, through free will, what you do with your life, upon Earth. Do not stop, short of bringing forth the gold. Do not cease, waiting, before the shell unfolds, and there you find the pearl. Do not be distracted, by the ways of the world. You are the hill, and you are the ocean. You are the gold, and you are the pearl.

"Look around, and enjoy, and celebrate, with others, for others, about others. But do so, without ignoring that which you are. Let each of you celebrate the unique sacredness of you, celebrate, honor, respect; because together, you create The Great Tapestry. You are continuing God's creation. Do not ignore, what you are, seeking to be, what another might be, in your eyes, because you might be led astray, by false gold, by fake gold, when you are just before holding the golden nugget, that is you, the pearl, that is you. Do not forsake yourself, seeking to be, what others might be, or appear to be. This day celebrate, the gold that is you, the pearl that is you. Celebrate The Glory of God, within you."

April 11, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM here. I come toward you, so that you might know Me, and a life, without fear, or worry, or anxiety. I AM with you, and I will always be with you. If you cannot comprehend this, right now, just accept the mystery of it, and trust Me, for it is true, that I AM with you.

"Look at the tree, and the rabbits, and the birds, of the air, and understand that they are living life as a tree, as a rabbit, as a bird, in the air. And the tree, and the rabbit, and the bird, in the air, do not worry, about where they will sleep, what they will eat, what they will wear. You are meant to live, such a life, free from worry and fear. But, to live, such a life, without worry, or fear, means you must believe that your God is near, that you have been given all you need, to live your life, upon the Earth, without worry, or fear, or doubt.

"The truth is that these things are yours. A life, free of worry, fear, and doubt, is possible, for you, but you must have faith, and believe it is true. I showed you The Way. I spoke the words Our Father, in Heaven, asked Me to say. You have the key to a joyful life. It is faith, and in faith it will be possible for you to do all things.

"(There is) Nothing, which needs doing, for you to live your life, as you are meant to live your life, upon the Earth, that you cannot master, because you were sent to Earth, with all that you need within you. The ways, of the world, have thrown upon you: fear, anger, worry, doubt. You have been taught to worry, to doubt, to mistrust, to disbelieve, until you can prove otherwise. But, My brothers and sisters, you do not know otherwise. You think you know. You might even hope and pray you know. But you do not know, until you live in faith, and you believe, what is true, that you have all you need inside of you.

"Sometimes, you know something, to the ability, you have to know it. And, living with this knowing, usually leads you to a place of showing, that there has always been more to know. Faith will lead you to a life, which is complete, and constantly growing, in the knowing, of all that is with you. Take My words and believe them. Do not just repeat them, or sing them, or dance to them. Believe them. Have faith in the words I spoke to you. Have faith in the miracles I worked for you, so that you could know God, in all the glorious things, I did before you. I did not do miracles so that I could be glorified. The miracles were done, so that the glory would be God's, so all would see what God will do for each of you, for you, all of you, without consideration of what you have done, or what you have planned to do, or what you are doing, right now. All, of this revelation, is meant so that you see The Power, and The Glory, of God. And then, once you see, that you know The Power, and Glory, of God. And once you know The Power, and Glory, of God, the knowing grows, to a place, where you feel The Power, and The Glory, of God, within you. Those words I spoke, were words of promise, and they are true.

"I lived My life, in front of you, revealing much, in all I did say, and do. And at the end, I died for you, in front of you, so you might see, and know, The Power, and The Glory, of God, through Me. I did rise-up, for you, so you might see, all that is before you. There should be no fear, if you believe the words I spoke, and the deeds, and the miracles. If you believed, in these things, there would be no fear, no worry, no doubt. Now, you must believe that you have been given all things. And no matter what darkness and shadow the world brings, to your door, you have The Power, and The Glory, of God, within you, to say, 'No. No more. I believe. I trust. I know.'

"My brothers and sisters, believe My words, because My words were the words of God, for you, so you might believe. Believe in the miracles, because the miracles were for you, so that you might see, and know, The Glory of God, in each of the miracles, for you. Let My death, on the cross, be your death, to the ways of the world. And, let My resurrection, be your resurrection, from the ways of the world, because the world cannot harm you. It cannot stop your eternal life. And, to make sure, that you can hear these things, and feel these things, within you, The Spirit of God is within you, so at your moment, of temptation, to doubt, or worry, anxiety, or fear, if you go within, the words you will hear, are the words of God, The Wisdom of Heaven, and they will bring you to the place, where you will rise-up. My resurrection will be your resurrection. My ascension will be your ascension. My intention, to do, and live, so that others might know The Glory, and The Power, of God, through Me, will be your intention. Do not let the ways of the world make you small, or belittle you, at all. Today, embrace faith, and The Power, and The Glory, of God, that is within you, and stand up, and live free, without worry, or concern, of what might be, because all that is to be, is within each of you, each one of you. It is within you, and it is within Me, for all eternity."

April 4, 2021

"I AM with you. And it is good to be with you. It is good to communicate with you. It is good to see your light. I reach-out, and say, here, take My hand, and together we will walk through this day. No matter what you must do, or say, we shall be together, this day, and you can do, all that is before you. But I whisper, it will be easier, if you walk with Me.

"When I came to Earth, I knew My mission. I was to bring a message. I was to sound the call, to speak the words, that would settle upon the ears, of those, who would follow Me, and be embraced. And this did happen. Sometimes, I AM referred to as The Shepherd, and those, who follow Me, as the flock. But it is more. Those who know about flocks of sheep and shepherds, understand this, to a deeper level. The sheep know the voice of the shepherd. The sheep know the presence of the shepherd. In fact, the sheep look for the shepherd, and look to the shepherd for leadership. The shepherd does not go out and corral new sheep, to force them into submission. No, the sheep are already waiting, for the shepherd, and they see, and recognize, the shepherd, because they know the voice, they know the words, they know the presence. And, when they hear the words, they embrace the words, and follow. It is not a blind following. It is the ultimate search, ended, when the shepherd, is found. That part of the story is, most assuredly, left out, often, speaking of the shepherd, going out to save the sheep, and this is true. For, I will walk, amongst you, to touch the one, who is lost. But, even in being lost, that person knows My Voice, has been looking for Me, and trusting, that they would find Me. And, in the darkest of hours, there is My hand, and The Words fall upon the ear, of the lost, and are embraced, because they have been searching, seeking, for Me.

"So many messages, were carried to Earth, before My earthly birth. And they were written down. And people followed these messages, as best they could. But there was a message, that was misunderstood. And it had to do with love, on a higher love. Love that just is, of itself, an energy, which cannot be contained. It is the most powerful of energies, period, not just on Earth, but in all eternity. This love, that just is, in its being, creates. And that, which is created, by love, comes from The Source of Love, therefore, knows the unconditional love.

"This message of love had to be delivered. But it was quite obvious that, human beings were finding it difficult to read, into that, which they had already received, direction to love everyone, even your enemies. It had to be clarified. Many daily activities had to be identified, and then connected with God, and The Ways of God. It was all new. It was a different way of living, upon Earth. It was living upon Earth, knowing that Heaven is within you. Heaven is with you, and you are living eternity now. Eternity does not begin when your body's life ends. You are living it now. And, for those of you, who know this, you can do all that I did, and even more. But first, you must embrace the eternal you. You must be connected with God. You must understand, the energies, the eternal energies, that spark creation, in a continuation of light, moving through all time. You must reject darkness and shadow. You do not have to walk through darkness and shadow to know The Light. The Light is meant to be with you, within you. You are The Light, and you are a child of God. I came to show these things, to reinforce these things, and to speak The Words of Our Father, so that those, whose ears were open, and ready, to hear the call, would hear, and rejoice, and follow, so they might hear more. I did not come to Earth to condemn those, that some said were doing wrong here, and there. I came to be a Light unto the world, to illuminate all, so you could see, and know.

"The last acts, My last hours, on Earth, ultimate. How else, can you bring a lesson, stronger, than by living the lesson, in front of those, you hope will hear. You must forgive, in the face of being tortured. You must forgive, in the face of being lied to, and about. You must forgive, when you are humiliated. You must forgive, period. Nothing can say it stronger than the cross. It was the ultimate shame and punishment. It was a sign of judgment, that you had wronged society, and must pay. There could be no greater stage, than to show the importance of forgiveness. And, when it was done, to show those, who believed, that death, of the body, does not end your eternal life. I rose-up, so you too, will rise-up. I walked over the Earth, with My body of Light, and you too will wear this body of Light, so all can see. Everything I did, I did so you would not misinterpret the words. The messages of the past, might have been misunderstood. But this message could not be misunderstood. There was The Coming. There was The Life. There was The Teaching. There was punishment, and pain, and rejection. There was forgiveness, and Resurrection. In the story, it is a story of life, eternal life.

"Do not be afraid. The end of the body is the end of a chapter, a piece, of your eternal life. And it is important to live it well. Do good deeds, be kind, be loving, because you are leaving a mark, upon all time. Before you change, as the butterfly comes from the caterpillar, and fly, into eternity, leaving the body, that crawled the Earth, to soar with the angels, a new birth, a rebirth. Come, follow Me."

March 28, 2021

“I AM with you. What a blessing it is, that we are together, that there is no hindrance to our talking, and walking, together, but for, if you desire to turn away. So, I reach-out to you, and invite you, to come, and walk, with Me, today. Let us talk, for I have much to say to you, and you have much to say to Me. It will be a delight for Me, to walk with you, today.

“It can be easy, to get caught-up, in praise, and adulation, coming from others. It is delightful, exciting, to have someone focus, on what you have done, with praise, for what you have done. But be mindful, that you do not place all your faith, and trust, in what others say, or do, or think, about you, and that which you do. For, one day, there might be high praise, and in another day, there could be total rejection. This will not happen, if you embrace who you are, at the core of your being, who you are. If you welcome, the spirit, that is you, into everything you think, and say, and do, then, that which comes from you, will be exceptional, and wonderful, and delightful to God, because God does take great joy, seeing the children of Heaven, creating glorious things upon the Earth, bringing Heaven upon the Earth. And there is so much to do. So, do not be tempted to hold, or push-off, or deny, that which you are meant to do, just to please others, because in the end, those who praised you, one day, will walk away from you another, or could walk away from you another. But God, shall be with you, forever. God’s love will pour down, upon you, as a gentle spring rain. God’s love will pour over you like the warmth of the sun. God’s love will embrace you, for all you have done.

“Do not walk away, from that which is on your heart to do, because others might not approve of you, or that which you do. Be still, and be, who you are meant to be. If you do not, the entire world will miss the opportunity of you, of experiencing you, not the face you put on you, for others, but the genuine, authentic you. And each of you, has something to do. And that something, you are to do, fits, like a puzzle (piece) in The Grand Tapestry of all creation. Be you.

“Let The Hand of God, lead you to the place, where you are to be. In that way, you will be walking, next to Me. And with The Hand of God, and you, and Me, and The Holy Spirit, lifting us up, for all eternity, that is exactly what you are meant to be, living, in eternity, forever, with Me.”

March 21, 2021

“I AM with you. Hear My call. The more we are together, the more you hear My call. For, as we become friends, and walk together, in the garden of Earth, the desire, to be together, longer, grows. And, as you always want to be with a friend, and share with a friend, so it is with us. I walk with you. You walk with Me. I talk with you. You talk with Me. We look, and see, for all eternity, that we are one, you and Me.

“It is important to know, and recognize, The Presence, The Voice of God. Earth would have been a lonely, desolate, place, without My knowing, and hearing, The Voice of Our Father, throughout every day. It is important to know the voice of those you love, so you might follow that voice, or respond to that voice, or delight in that voice.

“When you were a child, you left your home, to go out, and play, in the park, or at a neighbor’s house. But you went out to play, with your friends, your peers. And there was laughter, and joy, through the day, as you played. But, come the time, to return home, you would hear the call, the voice of your parent, calling your name. And, even though, they might have had to call two, or three, times, you heard that call. You recognized the voice, you heard your name, and you told your friends good-bye, and you went home. You answered, the call, and went home.

“You recognized the voice of your parent, so you did not go home, to the call, for another child. If your name was John, and the voice was calling for Mary, to come home, you did not go home. You did not recognize that name, as yours, and you did not recognize the voice, calling. You recognized your parent, the one who loved you, and the one you loved. You recognized the call, and you went home.

“This simple story relates the importance of sitting with God, of sitting with Me, of being still, in The Presence of The Holy Spirit, so you know The Voice, you know The Call, you recognize the movement, and the stirring, within. They are familiar to you. There is a comfort there. There is peace. There is no confusion, about which voice to follow, because you know who is calling you. You recognize the tone of the voice. You recognize your name. Sitting, in The Presence of God, each day, will seal this knowing, in a sacred way, so that when God calls, you rise-up, and answer, for you know Who is calling you. Be still, so that you might know The Voice, The Presence, The Way.”

March 14, 2021

"I AM with you. As Heaven is always near to you, as Heaven is within you, I AM with you. Believe this, for it is true. You have all the help, and guidance, you need, within you. When you make the connection, from the material world, into the spiritual world, it is communication, sacred communication. I AM here with you, today. I was here with you, yesterday. And I will be with you, every day, for it is all one. What, no human being can even fathom, exists, as created by God, and you are held within the creation. You are of God.

"You have heard it said, or possibly, you have read it, that God is Love, and God is Spirit. I said these words, when I walked upon the Earth, and they are recorded, so that you might know. But most of you, cannot comprehend, what this means, totally.

"If there is an ocean, there is the ocean. It is. The ocean is filled with water. It is the ocean. It is wet, and moving, and fluid. And to be in the ocean, you must get into the water, that is the ocean. There is not a pocket, of water, that is more defined. It is all water. There is not a small space, where there is no water, where water is denied. The ocean is water, just as the desert is sand. You cannot be in the desert, and know the desert, until you are in the sand, in the desert, knowing the sand, of the desert.

"God is Love. There is no part, of God, that is not Love. It is all, fluid, flowing, equal, one, Love. You cannot know God, without knowing The Love of God, because God is Love. The only way you can be denied The Love of God is for you to reject it, turn away, cut it off, refuse to embrace it. Yet, it is still there, waiting. And it will always be the same.

"Think of jumping into the ocean. Think of walking across a desert. Think of being enfolded in The Love of God, because it is total, it is complete, it is sacred. It is from whence you came. You cannot pronounce The Name of God, without Love. It is there for you. It is all around you. The only thing you must do to know God, better, is to acknowledge The Love, that is already with you, within you, enfolding you, and holding you, throughout eternity. It is yours. Embrace what is yours today. Walk across the desert. Jump into the ocean. Move with The Love of God, all around you. Open your eyes, and see the world, through the eyes of love, today. Open your eyes, and see God's beautiful creation, Earth, through the eyes of love, today, because, in this way, you will be seeing Earth, The Way God sees Earth, through The Eyes of Love."

March 7, 2021

"I AM with you. Happy day! I AM with you. Let us go to the garden. Let us walk, and talk, and pray. It is The Way it was meant to be, that you would walk in this beautiful garden, and enjoy this piece of eternity, that you have, to spend upon the Earth. Come, let us walk in the garden, together.

"Whenever you walk in a garden, it is a feast for your eyes, and your soul, for as you look around, at all the beauty, it seems more valuable than gold, and it is. A garden brings peace. A garden will rejuvenate, heal, and many times feed, not only your eyes, and the fragrance, your nose, but also treat your stomach. And all these things go together, to go into your body. The garden, the place of peace.

"If you walk through the garden, you will notice, that each flower is its own beauty. And they can be exactly the same type of flower, let us say a daisy. But there is something, unique about each daisy. And, unless it is raining, and causing them to lower their heads, they are standing, straight, in the light, pleased to be a daisy. And as you move through the garden, to the place where vegetables are, you see these succulent tomatoes, and ripe eggplant. You see bushes and vines, with beans. And, if you are intent, on acknowledging each one, you will see that each one is unique, and happy to be so.

"I could go on and on, with many examples, but I do not believe it is necessary, because you know exactly, of which I speak. You have the opportunity, right now, to be unique, to stand in the light of the sun, to be in the garden, amongst many peoples, and each one hold its own unique position, making all as strong as one, and one as strong as all.

"Do not set aside your gifts and talents, because you believe another outshines you, is much better, more talented, more gifted, because, if you do not stand, and present your unique gifts and talents, then all is minus you. All, The One, is not complete without you.

"Acknowledge, and celebrate, the talents and gifts of all those individuals around you. But, at the same time, acknowledge, and celebrate, your gifts and your talents, and use them. The Symphony of The One is meant to be beautiful. And you are part of that beautiful Symphony of The One. Take your place, stand tall, and let the light, of the sun, shine on your face, because your brilliance is just as beautiful as any other piece of The One.

February 28, 2021

"I AM with you. I AM always with you, for that is the promise. And if you desire to know Me, that is the key, that opens every possibility. As I love you, and you love Me, the doors are open, the curtains are lifted, the veil is drawn. And there we stand, you and Me, together, walking into a destiny, that you could not even imagine before, before we made this commitment to each other. I AM with you, and that will never change.

"There are so many examples, of 'following the crowd,' that it would take too much time to give you pieces, of this example, and that example, and this story, and that story. I know that when I say, 'following the crowd,' each of you, hearing My words, or reading My words, have an example in your head, already. It is either something you observed, by watching another, follow the crowd, or perhaps, something you experienced, when you followed the crowd. Be discerning, and make sure, the one, from whom you intend to gain learning, by following, is worthy.

"Do not follow blindly, because a crowd has gathered, around a self-proclaimed leader. Listen to what is being said. Watch, and observe, what is being done, before you volunteer to join the crowd, and the leader. Choose wisely, so that (you do not end-up), by following with the crowd, the self-proclaimed leader, that you do not end-up, at the edge of a desert, when your goal was the ocean, or you do not end-up in a meadow, when your goal was the mountain peak, that you do not stand, distracted, and concerned, when you look around, and think to yourself, 'this is not for me. How did I get to this place? Where am I?' These thoughts, tumbling, and rolling, in your head, are a sign, a hand reaching to you, saying, 'Come over here, we will show you The Way.' At any point, along the journey, as you walk with the crowd, when there is a question, within you, a quiet question, not even spoken aloud, 'Why am I here, and what am I doing?' There, is the sign.

"Thousands of years ago, so many were lost, wandering, following the wrong leader. And I was sent to show The Way. This is why My statements, recorded in Holy Scripture, often will say (that)I did not come into the world to condemn the world. I came to save the world, to show The Way. In modern words, in your modern words, I would say, 'Hey, come over here. Leave that, crowd, and follow The Light.' That is said in such a simple way, but it is the simple truth of The Way. I did not come to condemn you for walking with the crowd. No, I came to stand, and say, 'I will show you The Way.' And anyone who heard My words, and heard them, and knew them, as a sign, found it relatively easy to leave the crowd, and join Mine, those gathered around Me, because the words I spoke, were not My own. They came from Heaven, they were God's, meant to unlock the heart of each one, who was ready, of each one, who had reached the time. My words were as a key, inserted into the heart, and the soul remembered, and the spirit rejoiced. And they left the crowd, to dine at The Table of God. Yet, I did not come to condemn the following, or the followers. I was sent to, raise My hand, and summon all who would follow. I was sent to show The Way, to save those, who would listen, from wandering farther, and farther, away from the truth.

"There is one Way, that you can ensure your path, is the path you are meant to walk. And that is: by taking the time to be familiar with The Voice, The Whisper, The Leadings, of God; by taking the time to go within, to sit, and listen, to The Wisdom of The Spirit of God; by sitting, and rejoicing, in My teachings. For that, which I did say, will surely show you The Way, and lead you out of shadow, and darkness, into the light of a new day, a new time.

“As I was sent to show The Way, I reach-out to each of you today, and say, Come. Walk with Me, a while. Let us amble through the gardens of Earth, breathing-in the fragrance of beautiful flowers, feeling the dew of morning, on our feet, and feeling the warmth of the sun, as it kisses our foreheads, with the rays of a new day. Come, follow Me.”

February 21, 2021

"I AM with you. No matter where you find yourself, today, I AM with you, closer than a thought. I AM with you, never far away. Have faith, and believe this, so you are assured that you do not wander alone. I AM with you.

"There are times in your life, as you live upon the Earth, which seem extraordinary, in many ways. Sometimes, the extraordinary is a pleasing experience. But other times, these extraordinary occurrences are challenging, and trying, and push you to the limit, of what you believe you can endure. And it is in these times, of endurance, that it is important to stay focused, much as a man on a ledge, of a very tall building.

"Let us say, a fire has erupted, in one apartment, and it is ablaze, and he escapes the fire, through a window; but finds himself, perched on a ledge, high above the cars, moving on the streets, and the people, walking on the sidewalks, below. There comes the temptation to look down, to look up, to look around. And even the thought of this stirs his stomach, his feet tingle with uncertainty. He is safe from the fire, for a while, but now he finds himself in a precarious situation.

"Now, your precarious situation might not be as dangerous as the ledge of a very tall building. But no matter, what the situation, the direction, is still the same. Number one, call, My name. Call the name of God. Call for guidance, from The Holy Spirit. Do not let this escape you, for We are with you. Do not look out, or down, or up, into the world created by man, but hold yourself straight, and tall, and know that you are in The Hand of God. Do not run, lest you fall. Inch to safety, holding to the wall, of faith, and trust, believing, that if you stay focused, on the goal, you will make it through.

"You will walk the ledge to safety. You will swim the river to safety. You will cross the desert to safety. You will make it through, as long as you know, We are with you, and you will not fail. But do not be distracted, from The Voice of God. Set your course. Do not run. Slowly walk toward the goal, and the safety of the window, just ahead, and you will make it through. And your precarious situation, will then be reduced to a story, that you tell others, a story, in which you encourage others to know, God is with you, all The Way through."

February 14, 2021

"I AM with you. And with My greeting, I bless you with My peace, and My love. I bring you peace and love, because they will bless your days, upon the Earth. And you can pass peace, and love to others, and bless their days, upon the Earth. I bring you peace.

"Many of you say that love is the most powerful energy created. And it is true. One of the outward signs, of the power of love, is to see a physical change, in the body, of individuals, who are in love, in the energy of love, giving and receiving love. It is the ultimate vitamin, the ultimate supplement to life, love. It changes the way you walk. It changes the way you dress. It changes the way you talk. It is that powerful. And, it is obvious, you see it. Oftentimes, you say to someone, 'You look wonderful. You must be in love.' But the understanding, of the power of love, does not seem to go much farther than that.

"Love is created within, and goes, hand-in-hand, with silence. Within the depths of silence there is created the power of love. To create love you must know what you are doing. You do not accidentally stumble upon creating love. You might create other things, that are, similar, to love, but the love, that is powerful enough to change all things, is created, from within, with intention, and purpose.

"God created you, in love. The closest you can come, upon the Earth, to having a light understanding, of how much God loves you, is when you hold your child, in your arms, and gaze upon it, that child, that precious child, in your arms, knowing it came from you. That, which is within you, is within that child. And your love, is so strong, for that child, that tears flow easily. Love escaping, from the physical body. But when you are loving that child, so intently, gazing upon that child, so in love, with that child, that child is receiving the power, of the love you have created, within. It is the first lesson(s) of love, for that child, the physical child. It is the purest form of love, which you can encounter, upon Earth, because you ask nothing of that child. You are content, in the giving, fully, of the love, you have created, within. And the bond is unique because it is of love.

"To create, this power of love, you must be still and quiet. You must set yourself aside, and feel God's love for you, within you. And, when you feel, God's love within you, that is the source of your creation. You see, in this way, you are continuing God's creation of love. You carry a seed of it, and it is your opportunity to continue creation of it. It is within you. It is within each of you. There is no one denied The Love of God. But the truth, that you have the opportunity to continue the creation of God's love, while you walk upon the Earth, does not break the surface of conversation, very often, if at all.

"Today, ponder love, in a sacred way. With intention, set yourself aside, and be still. Feel The Love of God within you, and then, at that moment, of recognition, begin to continue God's creation of love, by creating, from that which you have been given. Create The Gift of Love, and let it flow from you. When it is done, in this way, nothing is required. You do not expect anything in return, because the wealth, the richness, the fullness, the divinity of it, the sacredness of it, is already with you, held within you, where you hold God's creation of love."

February 7, 2021

"I AM with you. I greet you, with news of a new day, a new beginning, a new opportunity to be all you desire to be, to free yourself, from the decisions of the past, and create today, this present piece of eternity, in such a way, that it is a light upon the Earth, a day of light, created by you, on the Earth.

"While I walked, upon the Earth, I made note, I observed, that from generation, to generation, there were traditions, handed down from one generation, to another. And these traditions would continue. And many of them were so good. But, I also observed, that there was something else, frequently, passed from generation, to generation. It was anger, or hatred, or suspicion, of other people, individuals, or groups of people. Now, when this was handed down, from one generation, to another, often, that hatred, mistrust, grew, rather than diminish, because all the stories told, were fueled by the new anger, the new hatred, the new mistrust. And so, it grew, as it was handed down.

"Today, I offer you the opportunity to free yourself of the burdens of the past, that hatred, that mistrust, from generations ago. It is time to set it down, and let it go, so that you are not shouldering the burdens of others, so that you are not carrying the creations, so dark and heavy, of others. What would you like to create today? That is okay, set it down. It is not yours, anyway. You did not create that hate, that anger, that mistrust. You are living now. You are in the line. You decide that which you will pass-on. And what will you pass-on? You might sit for a while, so that you can teach the new, coming generations, to love one another, to forgive one another, to not judge one another. Judgment is not passive. It is very active. And you cannot judge another, without having some punishing aspect of the judgment. You cannot point the finger, of judgment, at another, without making a fist. It is impossible to point, the index finger, at another, without having the three fingers, and the thumb coiled-up, into a fist. And the only thing that is missing, from this fist of aggression, is the finger, pointing the blame, the guilt, the judgment.

"Judgment has many aspects. But you cannot judge another without incriminating yourself. Refuse to point the finger of guilt at another. When you begin to look at your hand, and the index finger, shaking back and forth, and the rest of your fingers, curled, tightly, in the palm of your hand, you see aggression, held within judgment. Relieve yourself of that form of aggression. Relieve yourself of judgment. Set it down, and take a positive step, forward. Open your hand, instead of making a fist. Open your heart, instead of letting it harden, to need. Open your arms. Let your positive, forward movement be the focus of your work. Heal yourself. Cleanse yourself. Forgive yourself.

"The world does not need more shaking fingers of judgment, or blame. The world needs more open hands, and heart, and arms. But you must begin within yourself. Set down the burdens of the past, all the hatred, the shame, the guilt, the mistrust, and the doubt. Set those down, and figure-out, what you wish to create, for yourself, and generations, to come. And then, prayerfully cleanse yourself, in The Light of God. Rise-up, and take that positive, forward step. Be The Light unto the world."

January 31, 2021

"I AM with you. I bring you a message, of great joy, and love, and peace, the peace, which is rich, true, deep, and of great value, to you; to be at peace. If I can sit with you, a while, and we can walk, together, a while, and we can speak, as friends, for a while, then you will slowly return to peace. So, let us sit, and walk, and speak.

"There are often turbulent times, upon Earth. And during these times of chaos, and confusion, and agitation, it is very difficult to find a place of peace, which is why you need to establish peace, within your being. You need to know inner peace. Then, when it is time, you can open the door, and go within, and find peace, even when chaos is swirling around you. So, let us discuss peace, personal peace.

"One way, to assure personal peace, is to ignore those, who are tempting you to fight. Now, when I say fight, I do not limit the fighting to fists, and feet, and pushing, and shoving. The fight can take place, and do as much harm, when it is words, used as weapons, and not the arm. For, when there is fighting, you see two, or maybe more, exchanging blows, until the last one hits the floor, and it is very obvious, there is a fight going on. And in that mayhem, there is usually, proclaimed, a victor. But it is all wrong. No one wins in a fight, a physical fight. It is an exertion of energy, until you are exhausted, and then you fall, and another falls. And it all begins, days, or weeks, or years, later, once again. It does not resolve anything. The fight, with words, can be more insidious, because a bruise will fade away, but the wounds, and the hurts, made by the words exchanged, take longer, heal slower.

"Resist the temptation to fight another. Let your arms be at rest. Be silent. Refuse to fight, with the body, or with words. If peace is the goal, refuse to fight. Or, at least, be honest with yourself. Are you saying peace is the goal, but what you really desire is domination, or to have another one, say that you are stronger, you are better, you are sharper, you are wittier? You must first decide the goal. And be honest about it. But, if the goal is peace, no fighting should take place.

"When one approaches you, tempting you, taunting you, to fight, you must make a choice. Choose not to fight. It is not a fight, if one is battering another. It is not a fight, until you join. Do not be tempted, pushed, or prodded into fighting another. Offer to share, that which you have. When they are tempting you to fight, tempt them to sit, and join you, in a meal. When they are tempting you to fight, offer them a place, on your bench, to sit, and rest. When they are tempting you to fight, offer to share your story, not with accusations, but with that, which is in you, your story. Offer to share. And then, offer to hear their story. And do not interrupt, as they tell their story, because, My brothers and sisters, every human being, upon the Earth, has their story, which has come to them, from generations, passed to them, hand-to-hand, or blood-to-blood. Every individual, you encounter, has a story, that had its seed, thousands of years ago. And whatever that seed was, it was tended, and watered, and nurtured, until you see the fruition, of the seed planted, thousands of years ago, standing in front of you. So, when you see another, you are only seeing the surface, the fruit. You know nothing of the roots of the tree, but you can see the individual, standing in front of thee. And you cannot calm their hatred, or fear, or heal the wounds, that are deep, within, by fighting with words, or fists. But you can pause the fighting, by offering to share, to exchange, to listen.

"Today, spend some time, establishing a peaceful presence, within you, so that, when your time comes to be taunted, or tempted, or teased, to fight, you will not react, but you will act, remembering the words of God. Refusing to fight is an action. You choose it, and that is your position, and that, which comes from you, is good. Reject the temptation. Begin the initiation, by offering to share, all that you have, in peace."

January 24, 2021

“I AM with you. I AM truly with you. You might not see Me, with your physical eyes, but you can feel My Presence with you, because I AM with you. Be quiet. Breathe. As you breathe-in, and breathe-out, whisper My Name. Let every breath send forth the call, spoken in a whisper, repeating, My name. Soon, you will know I AM with you. Do not put off for tomorrow, what can be done today. Breathe. Whisper. Speak, My Name.

“Let the best be with you, now, because it is. Every piece, of your eternal life, is the best. And you can take the best, and make it even better, if you will live, the present, as if it is eternal, the real thing, a treasure, the best.

“There is nothing more important than taking time to be still, and quiet. For it is in the still, quiet times, when you hear the silence, speaking, summoning you, deeper, into a state of Communion with God, The Creator of All Things. Do not be distracted, believing that what is happening, in the world around you, is the most important, most vital issue at hand. It is not. Walking into a bank is less important than walking into a forest. Speaking with experts is less important than speaking with God’s Great Creation, all around you. Trying to solve a difficult situation, with the help of friends, is less important than seeking answers, from The Holy Spirit, within. Do not lose track of the truth that you are a being of spirit, first, and to remain in balance, with all that is around you, you must sustain a relationship with God. You must speak with God. You must remember, God is with you.

“Live your everyday life, knowing it is a piece of your eternal life. Do not put off for tomorrow, what can be done, today. Do. Live. Live, with every fiber of your being, and store-up the experience of Earth. The present is not a practice run. It is not a dress rehearsal. It is the real thing. So, place your attention, and focus, on the real things, and do not be distracted. The material will remain behind. The spiritual will go with you, continuing into eternity. Every choice you make, during every day of your life, is important. Choose the things you would like to see emblazoned on your banner, heralded before your arrival. Do not get stuck, in muck and mire, when you can walk on The Path of Angels. Do not labor in dank dungeons, when you can climb The Mountain of God. Do not guard your worldly wealth, forsaking The Eternal Treasures. See today, and every day, henceforth, as the gift it is, placing great value on every minute, on every opportunity to create, for eternity.

“Walk The Path of Angels, climb The Mountain of God, create Eternal Treasures, and sing-out with great joy, for eternity is with you, now. Today is a piece of forever. Today is a portion of eternity. The best is with you, today. Do not look away. Do not delay. Live this piece of your eternal life, today.”

January 17, 2021

“I AM with you. I AM truly with you. And if you are still, and listen, you will feel the air around you, as it is charged, with My energy, as I AM present, with you. This communication is vital, to make sure that you remain at peace, in faith, with courage, and strength, to go forward, to complete your mission.

“Often, during your lifetime, there are periods, where you feel unworthy. It might be that you feel unworthy of another person’s love, or affection, or attention, but that is not what I wish to address. I wish to address the times, when you feel unworthy for the love, affection, and attention, of God, The Creator of All Things. And, I feel, if there is any being, more fit, to discuss this with you, I cannot fathom who it might be, because, you see, I was sent, from God, The Creator of All things, to make the journey to Earth: to show The Way; to be The Light; to deliver The Message of Love; to reach-out, and call those, who are lost, in such a way, that My Light would give them courage, and hope. And that courage, and hope, that came from The Light, would chase away all feelings of dismay, and doubt. I did not just deliver The Message, I was guided: to be The Message; to be The Word; to live The Word; to be The Living Word of God, so that those of Earth would see, and know, and mostly know, that it is possible to be The Living Word of God, upon Earth, in everyday situations. And, I might say, at this point, everyday situations (are) when it is needed most, because, if you are willing to be The Living Word of God, in everyday situations, when the trials, and the tribulations, and the challenges, come before you, you are already practiced, in the living of it. Your spiritual muscles are strong, and you see, and you know, The Way, clearly, because of the practice, in everyday situations.

“Do not run, and hide, if you feel unworthy. I was sent to gather those, who felt lost, and alone, and rejected, and dejected. I was not sent to Earth, to tell those, who had a daily practice, ‘You are doing a good job.’ That was not why I came to Earth. I came to Earth: to show The Way; to tell you how you can live each day; and how you can live each day, in such a way, that you are connected with God, so, it becomes easier, and easier, to turn your head from temptations. And I acknowledge, those temptations are all around you, sometimes, all over you. But it is possible to be kind, no matter what is happening around you. In fact, the more you practice this kindness, no matter what someone says, or does, to you, or about you, it becomes a robe. This kindness not only permeates the air, and blesses others with it, it is a protection for you. It wraps you in The Light. Kindness is The Way. Love is The Way. In fact, Love is the only Way. It is the only answer. Let that be your message. Let that be your life.

“Some of My examples were extreme. But they were meant to be that way, to get the attention of those, who needed to hear, that which I was to say, and that which I was to do. And this follows through, all The Way, to My passion, and death of My physical body. And there, in the ultimate sacrifice, I looked down, and then My eyes went up, and I asked for forgiveness on all, because it was clear, they too were lost, did not know what they were doing. Now, it might have appeared that they were in-charge, that their whips tore into My flesh, and they knew what they were doing. It appeared to all, the hands of those, who were causing Me injury, and suffering, knew what they were doing, they were in-charge. And, in the eyes of all watching, I appeared to be the weaker. But that was not the case. So, remember this, when you are quick to judgment of what is happening around you. Ponder that, because sometimes the apparent victor is not, and sometimes the apparent sufferer, or victim, is not. You must look, and see, with the eyes of your soul.

“Your Gifts are already sealed upon you. You were given these Gifts of The Holy Spirit to use, on your journey, over the Earth, for your lifetime upon Earth. And I made the journey to Earth to not only bring the verbal, the oral, direction from God, to love one another, but I was to live it. I was to live these words, so all could see it, and then rise-up, leaving those of Earth, better equipped, to make their way, until it was time for them to be called Home. Now, just because you have the Gifts, and just because you have been shown The Way, does not make it any easier. It changes the perspective, so that you know what you are to do, and you can master every situation. And, no matter, how difficult it is, you will make it through, because God so loves you, that God will reach-out for you. And, if you reject, and turn away, God, The Creator of All Things, will wait there, for you, until you return.”

January 10, 2021

"I AM with you. I reach-out to touch you, and to celebrate the gift of a new day, upon Earth, with you. Look around, and take-in The Glory of God's Creation, Earth. See her, in all her glory. With every leaf, and blade of grass, and flower of the meadow, she sings of The Glory of God. She knows her Creator, and she knows she was created to be The Glory of God. So, she continues God's Great Creation, by giving and sustaining life, the life of Earth. See yourself as such, continuing God's Great Creation. You are God's Great Creation, and God loves you, more than you can possibly know, at the present time.

"In a thought, you were created by God. You were created in the image and likeness of God, and God is Spirit, God is Love. Your eternal life began, at the instant, of the creation, of your spirit, and your spirit shall live forever. This is challenging to comprehend, while your spirit is confined, within the robe of flesh, that is your human body. But it is, nonetheless, true. When you return Home, you will not be wearing the uniform of Earth, which in some cases is well-worn, beaten-down, wounded, and worse for wear. Your return Home will be The Return of The Spirit that you are, bearing all the markings, of your journey, upon Earth. Your Earth experiences of love, hate, grief, fear, disappointment, shame, guilt, and every other memory of Earth, will bear witness to your time upon Earth, and from these moments, of despair or heroism, you will be crowned with The Wisdom of Heaven. You cannot return with your favorite shoes, or coats, or cars, but you can return with the memories of what you did, of what you saw. And these become the decorations of who you are, in Eternity. Your Earth experience taught you lessons, which you will carry with you, forever.

"When a child is born, the parents are usually the ones, who feed, and bathe, and dress the child. But it does not take long, for the child, to reject the choices of the parent, wanting to make their own choices. Sometimes, quite a battle is waged before it is resolved. With the passing of time, the child ventures a bit farther from the parent, choosing friends, and clothing, studies, and sports, or other pastimes, on their own. But still, when nighttime draws near, the child returns home to the parent, where there is food, and warm beds, baths, and clean clothing.

"The child begins playing games, and soon these games become serious enough to be considered sports. The child joins a team, and even wears the team uniform. The child becomes a skilled participant in the sport, that once was only played for fun. Each sport has its own uniform. There is different clothing for soccer, baseball, track, and basketball. And, after each game, the child returns home, with a uniform, usually dirty, and soiled, possibly tattered, or torn. Yet, underneath the varying robes, of each sport, there is still the child, a tired child, a weary child, but still, a child. And, upon return, that child is welcomed home with celebration, clean clothes, good food, and a warm bed. They are home.

"No matter how many sports you play, or other pastimes you explore, you do not carry torn uniforms, or broken equipment, with you, as you mature. But you do carry the lessons you learned on the field of each endeavor. And these lessons become markers of who you are, and all that you learned, on the playgrounds of your youth. They are vital pieces of who you are. And it is the same with your spirit body. When you return Home, after participating in the worldly games of Earth, you will carry the lessons you learned, on the fields, of each endeavor. And these lessons of Earth will become the markers of who you are, and all you learned, during your time upon Earth. So, do not play, the games of Earth, in shadow and darkness. Participate in life, upon Earth, and do so in The Light, and for The Glory of God, for we are all waiting, to welcome you Home, where you will be cleaned within The Presence of God, fed with the manna of Heaven, and your spirit will wear the robe of Home, once again.”

January 3, 2021

"I AM with you. I reach-out to you. I call your name. I knock on the door, and you open. It is the same, every time, because I AM with you. I will not disappoint you. I will not leave you alone, stranded in a sea of misery. I AM with you. I AM knocking. Open the door.

"Your lifetime, upon Earth, is filled, to over-flowing, with opportunities, to make a choice. Sometimes, the choices are small, and insignificant. Other times, your choices have great impact upon you, upon others, upon all those around you. Every choice you make, makes a difference.

"When you encounter someone, who is filled with anger, and rage, it can be easy to follow suit, to walk into their energy, to meet anger with anger, and rage with rage. But in the end, once all that energy is used-up, creating this darkness and shadow, of anger and rage, you are defeated within your own purpose of responding in kind, of reacting in kind. Until you are well-practiced, in the art of making wise choices, it takes work, it takes concentration, and dedication. I agree, it is not easy to meet hate or rage with love. But, it is the most rewarding action, in that situation, because meeting anger and rage with love fills you with The Light of God, fills you with promise, fills you with hope and knowing. And at the end of it, you are not defeated, you are not exhausted and weary. Because you have chosen The Light, you are The Light. The rewards of choosing Light come instantly, immediately. And the anguish of choosing darkness and shadow surrounds you, immediately, as well. You can tell, just by how you feel, what energies you have been manipulating, and creating.

"When you choose to use, or accept, or create, seeds of darkness and shadow, they are planted, and they live, and they thrive, and they blossom and grow, and reach-out, and takeover the garden you did sow. But the same thing happens when you use the seeds of love, and kindness, and compassion, all the good seeds. They thrive, they grow. But, you must choose. You must make a choice.

"Do not be tricked into thinking that it, 'just happens.' You choose. When you are willing to accept this truth, that you choose the seeds you plant, then you are already on The Way to a brighter, happier day. Now, once you have accepted this, once you are aware that you are the one choosing, which seeds you plant, all around you, then you begin another phase, and that is making the decision, and knowing what you are doing. It takes practice to meet greed with generosity, to meet chaos and confusion with peace and understanding. It takes practice, but when you practice, you perfect that which you practice. And soon, you will have a thriving Garden of Light.

"Make no mistake. Do not be tricked. Refuse to believe anything but the truth, that you choose. Now, with that knowledge, with that wisdom, within you, let that seed, of acceptance of truth, begin to blossom, within you.

"You feel as if you are empowered, when you know, it is your choice. You do not have to accept what is, pushed upon you, or thrown into your garden. You choose. This is empowering, but it is also a responsibility. But The Way of being an empowered, responsible being is The Way to peace, is The Way to confidence. It is The Way to walk upon the Earth, knowing what you are doing, with no excuses, just making the right choices.

"I AM with you. I AM knocking. Open the door, and let us see what today brings, together, making good choices."